

Crittenden Press

HARVEST SEASON.

Friday evening last Mr. John Dore, of Princeton was visiting some of the neighbors near his farm. Mentioning his old home, and the his early school days, he said:

"When I was a boy I went to the District School. I remember that the headmaster was a Mr. John Brown, who lived about a mile from the school. He was a strict disciplinarian, and we had to sit up straight and work hard. But I think I learned a lot there."

COAL! COAL!

New Tinner THEO. VOISIER, MARION, KY.

"The cost of coal is rising, my friends. I've heard that coal is going to be more expensive in the future."

NATURAL FORMER.

B. H. Smith, of Ashland, was visiting in the neighborhood last week. He said:

"In my youth we had to work hard and save money to buy our coal. But now, with the new technology, we can get coal for much less."

A BARGAIN FOR SOMEBODY.

H. W. Harris, of Floraville, KY, wrote:

"I've heard that there is a great bargain in coal for somebody. I think I should look into it."

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC.

It is presented to the trade...

NEW STYLES?

Lizzie Grassham, SALEM, MARIAN, KY.

"I've been hearing a lot about new styles in clothing. I wonder if they're really worth it."

TO FARMERS.

Georgia Hay Press, DENTON, GA.

"It's that time of year again, my friends. The harvest is upon us."

COAL! COAL!

F. E. Jones, of Marion, KY.

"I've been hearing a lot about new styles in coal. I don't think I'll be interested in them."

HARVEST SEASON.

Mr. J. W. Martin, of Ashland, was visiting in the neighborhood last week. He said:

"I've been hearing a lot about new styles in clothing. I don't think I'll be interested in them."

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC.

It is presented to the trade...