LOCAL DEITIES

Adoration of the Sun. — Modern idolatry is not uncommon in the United States. The most worshiped god is the Sun. The sun is the most brilliant object in the sky, and most good things happen when the sun is shining. Sun-god worship is widespread in this country.

J. E. WELDON, ROBER T.

RECORD OF THE DAY.

Mr. R. W. Weldon, the well-known lawyer who is a member of the bar of this county, who has been in Washington for the summer, is expected to return to his home at the close of the term of the court.

School of Poetry. — The School of Poetry is a new institution which has been opened in this city. It is said to be a great character magazine.

Further account of our trip to Washington. — It is announced that a trip to Washington will be taken by a group of students from the University of Illinois. The arrangements are being made for the journey by train and hotel accommodations.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS.

Prof. J. V. Brooks Talks on "Encouraging of Opponents of Our Future." — Prof. J. V. Brooks, of the University of Illinois, delivered an address before the faculty of the university on "Encouraging of Opponents of Our Future." He said that we should always encourage our opponents, even if they are wrong. He said that this is the only way to reach the truth.
