LOCAL NEWS.

The Crittenden Press has printed 96 styles of Theu Fashions for the season of 1891. The same is the case with the Sears & Roebuck catalog, which has been issued.

In these catalogues the dress-making articles are described in a very satisfactory manner, and a great variety of patterns and styles are on offer. The prices are also very reasonable, and the material, except in the case of the cheaper articles, is of a high grade.

Buy herbs from the Farmers' Market in front of F. A. Packard's. The herbs are of the best quality and the prices are very reasonable.

Kurtz's & Co. has issued a new catalogue of its goods for the season of 1891. The catalogue is very well done and the goods are of the best quality.

The Guggenheim family is now established in San Francisco. The family has purchased a large store on Market Street, which will be opened late in October. The store will be very well equipped and the goods will be of the best quality.

The recently formed company of J. P. Morgan & Co. has acquired a large interest in the stock of the New York Times. The company has purchased 50,000 shares of the stock of the Times for $1,000,000. The purchase has been made in order to control the stock of the Times and to prevent any possible loss to the company.

The recent purchase of the New York Times by J. P. Morgan & Co. has raised the stock of the Times to a new high. The stock has been quoted at $15 per share, which is a gain of 50 per cent over the old high of $10 per share.
