ECUMENICAL CONFERENCE.

The Methodists of the world are to meet together for mutual conference this year for the second time in their histo ry. Their first meeting, called the Ecumenical Methodist Conference, was held in London in 1881. It proved to be such a success, and resulted in such marked benefit to the various branches of the church that John Wesley founded, that provision was made for its rep etition at such time and place as the committee might deem best. The place of the second Ecumenical Methodist Conference will be in Washington, and the time from October 7 to

The branches of the church to be represented, the importance and strength of which are indicated by the number of delegates that each will be entitled to, are as follows:

The Methodist Episcopal Church, 126; Methodist Epis-copal Church, South; 64; African Methodist Episcopal Chu-rch, 18; African Methodist as shown in Fig. 1 of the second cut. Episcopal Zion, 15; Colored

DRIVING ON MUDDY ROADS.

Country Gentleman Explains How to De Every man who purchases a new wagon or buggy, and while the paint and var-nish are yet fresh and brilliant, will naturally desire to avoid having them splashed with mud and generally defaced by driving over the roads of the neighborhood in a muddy season or after a long and heavy rain. The appearance of such a vehicle is represented in the first cut, the swiftly turning wheel having thrown the mud by its centrifugal force well up on the sides of the covered top.
