JUDGE W. W. ROBERTSON,

OF GRAVES COUNTY,

Is a candidate for Congress from this, the First District. Election Nov. 1892. He is subject to the action of the Democratic party.

JUDGE JAMES CAMPBELL,

OF McCRACKEN COUNTY,

Is a candidate for Congress from this, the First District. Election November, 1892. Subject to the action of the Democratic party.

JOHN K. HENDRICK,

OF LIVINGSTON COUNTY,

Is a candidate for Congress from the First District. Election November, 1892. Subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR SHERIFF,

We are authorized to announce JOHN T. FRANKS a candidate for Sheriff of Crittenden county, subject to the action of the Republican party. He will appreciate your vote and influence.

TO THE VOTERS OF CRITTENDEN COUNTY: Having served you for the past two years as Sheriff, I take this method of expressing to you my gratitude for the confidence imposed in me. It has been the custom of the county to endorse all past Sheriffs who have asked it of the people, and feeling that my treatment of the people has been such as to merit an endorsement at your hands, I announce myself as a candidate for re-election.

I feel that my experience will enable me to serve you better in the future than in the past, and if chosen by the people, will endeavor to do so. Yours truly, A. L. CRUCE.

To The Voters of Crittenden County,

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for re-election to the office of Circuit Court Clerk subject to the action of the Republican party. I wish to return to the people of this county my heart felt thanks for the support given in the past. Whatever may be my lot in the future one of the brightest spots in my life will be the memory of what the people of Crittenden county have done for me. I have endeavored to so regulate my official conduct as to be worthy of the confidence reposed in me and the honor conferred upon me. My official life is before you. If I have discharged the duties of the office with a conscientious regard for the interest of the people, without partiality to any party or shade of political belief but treating all men exactly alike and if I have performed the work of the office properly and right I respectfully ask an endorsement at your hands. For the next term if elected, I can promise nothing more than what I have earnestly endeavored to do in the past to faithfully and impartially discharge every duty incumbent upon the office: with profound gratitude for your support.

Very Respectfully,
H. A. Haynes.

The Press Association.

The Kentucky Press Association held its annual meeting in Lexington Tuesday and Wednesday of last week, and was royally entertained by the queen city of the blue grass section. An eloquent address welcoming the editors to the city, was delivered by Mayor J. H. Davidson and was responded to by the President of the Association, Harry Summers. During the session papers were read by various members of the Association upon topics of interest to newspaper men. Tuesday night a ball was given at the Phoenix Hotel. W. Adams, a morning after the business meeting, the 150 quill drivers mounted the electric street cars and were conveyed to Ashland, the home of Maj. H. C. McDowell, where a Kentucky lunch was served according to the Kentucky idea on affairs of this kind. Then the State College was visited, where dress parade by the cadets was witnessed, and the various phases of this great institution of the State inspected. This college belongs to the State and the property is valued at $450,000. More than 600 students have been enrolled within the last year, twenty-six teachers are employed. After leaving the college the various other points of interest about the city were visited. On Wednesday night there was a grand banquet at the Phoenix Hotel. The feast embraced eleven courses, and in point of splendor is rarely exceeded in this country. Eleven toasts were responded to by Kentucky's most eloquent sons. Gov. Brown responded to the toast: "Old Kentucky," and his burning words of eloquence brought round applause. The other speakers were none the less entertaining. Lexington has grown wonderfully of late years, and is now in all respects a charming type of the enterprising American city. She has a population of 35,000 souls, and these souls possess the wealth, hospitality and enterprise of at least 35,000 more.

Democratic Convention.

The Democrats of Crittenden county, Ky., in convention assembled, May 14, were called to order by P. S. Maxwell.

The regular chairman of the convention being absent, P. S. Maxwell, chairman of the county committee, was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy, and J. P. Crawford was elected Secretary.

The following committee on resolutions was appointed: W. H. Asher and H. W. McKee, Bells Mines; J. B. Carter, Union; L. E. Cook, Jr., Fort's Ferry; O. M. James and O. S. Nunn, Marion.

Resolutions as returned were read and warmly discussed by O. M. James and E. C. Flannery on one side and J. W. Blue, Jr., and T. J. Nunn on the other. After one or two slight amendments they were unanimously adopted as follows:

We, the Democrats of Crittenden county, in convention assembled, endorse the action of the State Central Committee in calling the State Convention of May 25th, at Louisville, and also the county convention of this date, and we thank the Hon. J. W. Blue, Jr., and the county committee, for the able and effective service they have rendered to the Democracy of Crittenden county, and we congratulate the county committee in selecting and endorsing the Hon. P. S. Maxwell as the successor of Mr. Blue.

First. We pledge anew our loyalty to the principles first declared by the illustrious men who founded our free institutions and established the democratic party to protect and preserve them; these same principles which are now practiced and advocated by Grover Cleveland, John G. Carlisle and Henry Watterson.

Second. We declare for the speedy abatement of all forms of needless and oppressive taxation and firmly believe the only means of abating such taxation is upon the basis for mulcted by the Democratic National Convention of 1888, and to this end the iniquitous McKinley tariff bill should be repealed, and so great is the necessity of this repeal that we believe that this issue of tariff reform is the paramount and real issue and for which the Democrats must contend in the coming campaign.

Third. We denounce the Harrison administration for tending its aid to a scheme for throttling the ballots of the people and robbing them of the right of suffrage, which scheme had for its chief purpose the perpetual succession of its advocates, and we further denounce the administration for the sale of its cabinet officers for mammon to corrupt an honest election and for its departure from the aims and intents of the constitution.

Fourth. We recommend to the Democrats of this Congressional district the name of Robert C. Walker as one who possesses the stamina, ability, honesty and wisdom that pre-eminently fit him to sit in the high councils of the Democratic party in its wigwam at Chicago, and as their delegate truly reflect the sentiments and wishes of the Democrats of this district. Therefore be it Resolved, That we instruct our delegates at the Louisville Convention to cast our votes for Robert C. Walker as one of the delegates from this district to the National Convention.

Fifth. We believe that Senator John G. Carlisle is the embodiment of the principles advocated by the Democratic party, and we recognize him to be one of the most available men to lead the conquering hosts of the Democratic party to victory in the coming struggle.

O. M. James, Chairman,
C. S. Nunn,
H. W. McKee,
J. B. Carter,
W. H. Asher,
L. E. Cook, Jr.,

On motion the following delegates were appointed to attend the State Convention at Louisville on May 25th: S. O. Nunn, R. C. Walker, O. M. James, P. S. Maxwell, L. W. Cruce, J. P. Pierce, E. C. Flannery, C. S. Nunn, Foster Threlkeld, Tom Johnson, J. W. Blue, Jr., Jimmie Stone, M. C. O'Hara, Charlie Donaker, Dr. J. N. Todd, W. D. Crowell, E. C. Moore, J. W. Skelton, J. W. Blue, Jr., T. J. Nunn, J. O. Henson, Burnett Williams, W. H. Asher and all other good Democrats.

John Robinson's Show.

A Gorgeous, Sumptuous and Impressive Augmentation.

To speak of the merits of John Robinson's Great World's Exposition is merely "love's labor lost" with the people of this nation.

There is not an amusement-lover on the continent but what is fully cognizant of the fact that it is now and ever has been the best among the best. Everybody does not know, however, that during its last winter's vacation the show has received an augmentation so vast and so important as to dwarf by comparison even its own great exhibition of excellence.

We allude to the grand, gorgeous and sublime biblical spectacle of "Solomon's Temple," and the Queen of Sheba," in which an immense people find active participation, and which is replete in grand scenicographic effects, typical reproduction of biblical personages and events, profuse in pageant and processional features, lavish in entrancing ballets and telerichon divertissements, and rich in trappings and appointments, requiring for its production the largest stage ever constructed, and conspicuously portraying such sacred events, scenes and incidents as the Judgment of Solomon, Arrival of the Queen of Sheba, The City of David, the Palace and Temple, Court of King Solomon's Temple, the Walls and Towers of Jerusalem, Solomon's 700 Wives, the Sacred Ark of the Covenant, the Great Ivory Throne, Procession of War Chariots, Slaves Bearing Incense, lovely "Crescent Dancing Girls, moral and country Parades and exciting Chariot Races. This eminently moral, historical and mind-elevating spectacle will commend itself to every lover of the sacred and beautiful.

The Robinson Exposition, with its sublime spectacular accessories, is to exhibit in Marion, Ky., May 30, 1892.

A POST-MASTER GONE.

Lewis Thomas Grows Weary of Home and Leaves It.
Last Sunday Lewis Thomas, an old citizen of the county, and postmaster at Crittenden Springs gathered together his personal effects in the shape of clothing, and left for parts unknown. He has been a citizen of the county for many years and he and the wife he left behind have raised a large family of children, several of whom are married and have families of their own. The old gentleman claimed that he and the good wife did not get along pleasantly in their old days, and it is supposed that his sudden departure was on that account. His securities Messrs Tom Griffin and T. A. Minner took charge of the post office at the Springs, and brought the government portion of it to this place, hence there is one post office and one post master less in the county.

The taxation of cash-notes and cash for town purposes has been a subject of discussion in Marion recently. Heretofore this species of property has not been listed for taxation, and the present board of trustees is of the opinion that it should be. If this species of property is added to the list, the taxable property of the town will be increased at least one-third.
You should remember that talk is the cheapest thing in the world. Don't believe everything you hear people say, but get our prices and see for yourself who is the cheap man of the town. Shaw.
There is an earnest effort being made to form a county medical society in Crittenden, an organization where medical men may come together and relate their experiences discuss prevalent diseases, their best mode of treatment, and prevention; thereby better fitting them for the duties of their human calling. Since the burning of the Salem Roller Mills, the people of that vicinity and the owners of the late mill have been endeavoring to unite upon some plan to rebuild the mill, but as yet have not succeeded in maturing a plan. Salem can well afford to pay handsomely for a mill, and the people should come together on some plan and secure one.
Shaw is still doing business at the same old stand.
Damages Suits.
Crittenden's reputation for big damage suits promises to lose none of its lustre. Last week Miss Cordelia A. Crider, through her attorneys, filed suit against Thomas Stembirge, praying for damages in the sum of $5000 for seduction. Her father Mr. F. Crider, also filed suit against Stembirge for damages in the sum of $5000.

BUTTER AND CHEESE FACTORY.

An Effort Being Made to Establish One in Marion.
Mr. M. J. Briggs, of Louisville, spent two days in Marion this week, interesting the people in the establishment of a butter and cheese factory here. Tuesday night he addressed a small crowd on the subject at the court house, and Wednesday another public meeting was held and the matter discussed. The result of the meeting was the appointment of a committee composed of J. P. Pierce, William Belt, R. C. Walker, E. B. Blackburn and R. E. Bigham to investigate the matter and assist in talking up the matter. Mr. Briggs asked that a committee of two be appointed to visit a number of factories of this kind, interview farmers who were selling milk to them and to report upon their condition as they effect the farmers and business men of a community. Messrs J. P. Pierce and Wm. Belt were selected and left for Chicago and central Illinois this morning—Mr. Briggs paying all expenses. These gentlemen will return to make their report to a meeting to be held at the court house next Monday. Everybody is earnestly requested to attend this meeting. The farmers especially who live within a radius of eight miles of Marion, should attend this meeting, and investigate this promise. The "Elgin" system it used in the factories, and they are run on the cooperative plan. It is something that we need, it is something that will pay, it is something that Crittenden is peculiarly adapted to. The Farmers earnestly hopes that the farmers as well as business men will take an interest in this. In his speech at the court house Wednesday Mr. Briggs, among other things said:
An average cow will give 3 quarts of milk at a milking, or two and a half gallons (twenty pounds) of milk per day. This at $1.20 per hundred, would be twenty five cents per day, or a total of $75.00 for a milking season of ten months or 300 days.
Two acres of good land will supply her food and pasture for the year.
Thus, forty acres will support twenty cows, producing $1500.00 worth of milk per annum. One good man whose wages and board will not exceed $300.00 a year, will milk and attend to them.
Can wheat, corn or oats make a showing that begins to compare with this?
Besides, with one-half or two thirds of his land in grass and pasture and the manure furnished by the cows, his farm is growing better every year, instead of being run down and exhausted as it is with grain raising.
The farmer's wife is entirely relieved from the slavish drudgery of farm dairying and the hired girl can be dispensed with.
A calf running with its mother consumes $75.00 worth of milk and is then worth about fifteen dollars.
The food that makes a pound of dressed beef worth eight cents will feed a good cow, make a pound of butter worth twenty-six cents, and then you still have the cow left!
Farmers get out your pencils and figure on these problems. It will pay you.
Take your wool, feathers, eggs, etc. to Shaw, where you can get the highest market price.

Sunday School Work.

The officers and executive committee of the county organization of the Kentucky Sunday School Union met at the Baptist church, Sunday evening May 8, and determined on the following course of work for the ensuing summer.
That they hold five conventions four district and one county, at the following places and time designated:
Second district Dycusburg June 5.
Third district Crittenden Springs June 19.
Fourth district Weston, July 3.
Fifth district Marion, July 17.
County Convention, Chapel Hill, July 30.
This organization has for its aim the furthering and encouraging of the Sunday school work in the state of Kentucky and has done much in the twenty seven years of its existence to mature and build up the Sunday school cause in the state and should have the assistance not only of every christian in the county but every one who has the welfare and morality of our commonwealth at heart.
Any information will be cheerfully furnished by applying to Dr. Swipe the county president at Marion.
At Shaw's you can buy better prints, domestic, lawns, white goods, for a nickel than anywhere else.
To the Brethren of Bingham Lodge, No. 256, F. & A. M.
Each member is requested to attend our regular meeting in May. There is to be a vote taken in all the subordinate lodges in the State, whether or not we shall increase the dues to the Widows and Orphan Home at Louisville, from 50c to $1. Also, we want to make arrangements for the celebration to be held at Marion on the 24th of June.

A CLUB FOR MOTHERS

THE HOUSEKEEPERS' ORGANIZATION OF COCOON GROVE.

Florida Women Who Have an Interesting Way of Securing Recreation from Their Home Duties—Some Rules and Objects of the Society.

Away down on the east coast of Florida, 200 miles south of St. Augustine, is the pretty little settlement of Cocoon Grove. It is situated on the banks of Biscayne bay, one of the loveliest stretches of water for winter cruising and fishing that it is possible to conceive of for those who are not afraid to go beyond the daily mails and telegraph wires, for at present there are no railroads or steamboats, not even a wagon road, connecting us with the outside world—sailboats only, but plenty of those, and good ones, too, which is very necessary, as the nearest market for supplies is Key West, 150 miles to the south.

Of course there is a hotel, postoffice, store and Sunday school building, which, with the Biscayne Bay Yacht club house, the various winter residences of the northern yachtsmen and the pretty little houses of the pineapple growers and account planters of the keys, each built according to its owner's fancy or taste, and set in the midst of coconut, lime, orange, banana and guava trees, form a most attractive picture, to which may be added the ever changing life of the bay, the coming and going of the yachts, the arrival and departure of the mailboats and freight schooners. But if the place is attractive, very much more are the people who have helped make it, and this is especially so of the women, whose husbands and sons are the spongers, wreckers, carpenters and boatmen of the reef, when not engaged in truck farming or pineapple raising. It is to these women and their club—a housekeeper's club—that I wish to introduce my readers. A woman's work club in every sense of the word, with an attending membership of twenty and a correspondence membership of ten, the latter residents of New York, Boston, San Francisco, Brooklyn, Staten Island and Key West.

To most of the women born or brought up on the keys of the reef or in Key West, and of English parentage—for the majority of the settlers came originally from the Bahamas—the experience of belonging to a society, however simple, for women only, was a novelty. Although "our club" is now a frequent and pleasant expression among them, and member, in talking it over with her husband, assured him that the "bylaws of her club were as well made and just as binding as those concocted in the capital at Tallahassee."

And so they are to the faithful band of women who gather every Thursday afternoon in the little Sunday school building, and join a heart and hand in helping each other to enjoy and improve the two hours a week rescued from their household cares. For nearly every member is a mother, not of one, but in several cases of eight and ten children, with no one to assist in the daily and hourly work attending such a household, so that the first rule made at the meetings, "No babies allowed at the meetings," is a genuine relief and gives time and freedom for much that would be otherwise impossible.

Sometimes the children are taken to a neighboring house, ten or twelve little tots from one to three years old, and a husband or eldest son volunteers to oversee those that are able to walk, in which case, as it draws near closing time, one little head after another will be seen coming, Indian file, along the narrow path, all of them bareheaded or nearly so, in search of mamma and generally in great glee at having escaped. Of course there follows a grand baby show. The originator of the club is its president, Miss Flora McFarlane, of New Jersey, a woman who has proved herself in every way capable for the life she is leading, having homesteaded a hundred and fifty acres of government lands, which she has gone bravely to work to clear and improve.

The officers of the club are the president, secretary, assistant secretary, treasurer and caretaker, who has entire charge of the club's workbasket, giving out the work and collecting materials, such as scissors, thimbles, needle books, patterns and button box, after each meeting. These meetings occur every Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5. At the organization of the club it was voted that the time spent in making useful articles of clothing from material either given to the club (thereupon the president presented a dozen kitchen aprons) or bought with the club's funds, the funds being derived from membership dues (which were promptly paid, as the treasurer found herself busy at once) or gifts. That such articles should be sold at each meeting, and to members, at cost price.

That the money received for the first year be spent in the purchase of materials and also in suitable and useful articles for a bazaar, to be held at the annual meeting for the benefit of the church building. That resident members be elected by means of a vote cast with black and white beans, distant or correspondence members on the good faith of the housekeeper proposing them. Bright, new letters are received from the nonresident members, and all sorts of gifts in the way of household articles, from half a dozen cup towels to a bedspread—Harper's Bazar.

Taking Photographs by Balloons. It is proposed that balloon photography should be used in stages by the beginners. One plan is to start a small balloon, loaded with a camera, to windward of the fort, the plates being exposed by means of clockwork arrangement or slow match. These, of course, are adjusted to the time which would elapse before the balloon will reach the point or points where the exposures are to be made. The gas escapes, and the balloon descends on the farther side of the fort, within the besiegers' lines.—New York Telegram.
