A 3-4 Life Sized Portrait Free.

Having made arrangements with the largest Portrait Copying house in this country whereby we guarantee to buy of them a large number of their portraits at their lowest wholesale cash rates (as an adver-sement for their work) we are now prepared to offer to our customers (for a short time), when their purchases have amounted to $10 at our store, a 3-4 life sized Crayon and Ink Portrait, copied from any good photo, they may select free of charge.

These beautiful portraits are of the same size and quality as have been retailed for years at $10 each. In consideration that an unframed portrait would be a poor advertisement to the copying house, they made it conditional upon us that we sell a frame with each portrait, which they are to furnish at wholesale for $3.50 each.

We give you the portrait free as a premium on purchase of goods, and secure you the frame at lowest wholesale prices.

Secure a ticket before we exhaust our number, as no more can be secured on these terms.

Twelve of the ballots at Dycus-burg were thrown out because they were not stamped on the proper place.

A number of Marionites went to Evansville Wednesday to participate in the Evansville Democratic ratification.

The secret ballot is a success.
The voters generally of Crittenden are well pleased with the new way of voting.

Mr Morgan, of Indianapolis, Ind., was in town the first of the week collecting subscription due on the creamery.

J. N. Roberts, of Iron Hill and Clark Mitchell, of Eddyville, were before the board of pension examiners at this place Wednesday.

Since the election half of the Democratic boys in Marion are wearing new watches: some have diamond pins, and others gold finger rings.

White celebrating the result of the election, Farmer Birch and Oscar Leak, at Shady Grove, were badly burned on the hands and face.

Now if some man will discover the murderer of poor Henry Dobson, the Thanksgiving turkey will taste better, and we can round out the year fairly well.

Tuesday assessor McCaslin began the work of listing the county. Mr.
F. J. Flannery will work Ford's Ferry and Hurricane precincts, and Mr. Joel Pickens Piney and Bells Mines.

Pete Cook, of Mattoon, was in town Tuesday looking for farm hands, at least that was the way he described the hands, but the boys say it was not that kind of hands that brought Pete to town.

Monday Commissioner Walker sold the Barnes' farm, and the Shank's place, in North Crittenden.
The farms were bought by the heirs the latter for $3,410 and the former for $3000. There were several bidders.

Four years ago the Democrats of Crittenden burned much powder before the election and had depleted pocket books from which to foot the bill; this year their pocket books are in better shape and post election powder will be burned.

Mr S. P. Hicks, of Mt. Sterling, Tenn., is in this section looking after the business of the Home Nursery, of Mt. Sterling. He is well pleased with the business of his two agents Messrs A. J. Vanhooker and A. J. Eskew, who have been selling trees for him.

The Paducah Standard says that at one election precinct in Livingston county the officers permitted everybody to crowd in around the ballot boxes booths, while the voting was going on, and on account of this there is a probability that the vote of the precinct will be thrown out.

Monday John Crider, Col., was tried before Judge Morgan for petit larceny; he was accused of getting $1.25 from A. Schwab's butcher shop money drawer, the jury acquitted him. When confronted with the theft he gave Schwab $1.25, since being acquitted he has filed suit against Schwab to recover the money.

The ratification to-morrow night will be a pleasant affair. Democracy will be in the wind, but no man of any political creed will be mistreated in the least. Captain Stone, C. K.
Wheeler and J. K. Hendrick are expected to be the leading speakers while our local orators will fill up any spare time.

Tuesday after the household goods of M. Freedman were moved to the depot for shipment they were attached by the sheriff, under papers issued from the circuit clerk's office. The firms of Bettman Bloom & Co. and Jas Franklin & Co. have each filed suit to recover claims of $626.25 and $15.50 respectively for goods purchased from them when the defendant was in business at this place.

But little liquor will be needed tomorrow night.

Capt. Stone's Reception.

As an evidence of the love his home people bear to Capt. Stone, a pleasant incident is related. The captain came down to Paducah to hear the election news, and returned home the following day. When he reached the depot at Kuttawa a hundred stalwart democrats were on hand with a big arm chair rigged up with poles. Our gallant congressman was lifted bodily into the chair and borne on the shoulders of loyal friends through the streets to the hotel, where he was called on for a speech. He was so overcome by this evidence of friendship that it was several minutes before he could gain control of his feelings sufficiently to utter a word.—Paducah Stand-

Judge Nunn Goes to Madisonville.

Judge T. J. Nunn, late candidate for Circuit Court Judge, will in a few weeks move his family to Madisonville, and enter upon the practice of his profession at that place.

He has formed a co partnership with Mr.—Waddle, who has been associated with Hon Clifton Pratt in the practice of law. There is not a better citizen in Crittenden county than Judge Nunn, and his removal will be regretted by not only his political friends, but by hundreds who voted against him in the recent election. He is a citizen of the genuine substantial cast. Every enterprise that had in view the bettering of his county found a warm friend in Tom Nunn: no charity every knocked at his door and found it closed. Good society has no better friend, and the removal of himself and estimable family will be a loss to Marion and the county. His fellow lawyers respect as a learned member of the profession and an able practitioner. He has been honored by the people among whom he was raised and always proved worthy.

handsome.

After the ceremony a handsome the O. V. office at this place for some months, has been moved to Morganfield and given the clerkship steady and honest, and will keep

The Board of Town Trustees met last night to consider, among other things, the saloon license question.

Some three or four persons are wanting licenses, and while they have made no formal application, they were anxious to know what the board would do. The board was not long in coming to the conclusion that it had no power to grant a license, consequently there will be no saloons in Marion this year.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. Kate Gilbert was born the 4th of July 1852, she was a daughter of Benjamin Roach. She professed religion under the preaching of Rev Bennett Barnes in 1871 and joined the church at Crooked Creek the same year where she lived a consistent christian until death. Sister Gilbert was a good neighbor, a kind mother and wife. On the 20th of October 1892, the summons came for her to come up higher; on the morning before she died she called her friends around her and bid them a last farewell, telling her children to prepare to meet her in heaven, where parting will be no more. She told her step mother-in-law that she had a precious home in heaven so bright, oh so bright. She told her husband and friends not to weep for her, for she did not feel like weeping; the writer and family with a host of friends are in deep sympathy with the bereaved family.

What They Say About It.

W. J. Deboe—The Populists in the West, and the whiskey in the East, is what did it.

Geo. M. Crider—G e e.

J. A. Moore—Crittenden is all right.

Albert Wilborn—Harrison should have sent us word that he was not a candidate.

M. E. Fols—Wait until I get a letter from home.

H. A. Haynes—Want you fellows to have an extra session of Congress and give us your way.

E. B. Blackburn—If Harrison will come to Crittenden he will stand some show of getting an office.

Postmaster Cuffield.—
A. J. Pickens—Dog-gone!

W. B. Yandall—Lem me sell you an overcoat.

Tom Yandall—It's bad enough without mentioning it in a paper.

A. M. Henry—Any man is a fool to bet his moustache on an election.
I might have survived a defeat, but this bare lip is killing me.

E. T. Franks—My time expires
July 1. (He expired Nov. 9.)

S. W. Adams—I have just read in some newspaper that "politics is h—l," and my experience verifies the expression.

Andy Woodall—You are too fresh young man. I am not talking politics today, I am singing, and I am always sad when I sing.

J. A. Davidson—Boys, let's go home.

Milt Babb—Golly, how surprised I was.

Look at This.

O. M. James—It was a ground swell, a cyclone, a hurricane such as my heart yearned for. Step aside a minute while I yell. Hurrah for C—d.

A. L. Cruce—I haven't got time to talk to you; I must collect my taxes. Jeff, Frank, get a move on you.

Dr. J. R. Clark—I did think Key's would carry his own county; I am afraid Deboe will beat him.

Clem Dean—We've got the earth and Piney too.

A fine stock of harps at Walker's book store.

Taken up as a stray by Jeff Milton three miles north of Shady Grove, on Shady Grove and Monte-sums road in Crittenden county on the 22nd day of October, one two year old heifer, white and black spotted, black legs to knees, black head and white face, half over crop in each ear having no brands or other marks; weight about seven hundred pounds. And which I have appraised at the value of fourteen dollars. Witness my hand this 22nd day of Oct. 1892.
