Mr. Cleveland spoke as follows:

MR. CLEVELAND'S ADDRESS

Mr. President, and Gentlemen: I have not new or startling to say to and I hope to do little more than to remind you of meaning and significance on this occasion.

As we are here gathered threatened and despoiled, them take heart from the dence now before our eyes, there is still abroad in land a controlling belief our Government should source of just and benefirule, proudly supported by men, protected by their and watchfulness, and reof all we do, the rights and welfare of our people in every condition in life must be placed upon a more equal plan of opportunity and advantage.

I am confident the wisdom of the Democratic party will be equal to the emergency; and I base my confidence upon essential that there should be among our people a wholesome and disinterested love for the Government, for its own sake and because it is a heritage belonging to all.

The cultivation of such a sentiment is not only a high duty ness as to the course to be pursued in resisting the republic's efforts to steal the Montana legislature and save control of the senate. Counsel to aid the democrats will be employed. Mr Gorman deems the course of the republic in Wyoming rivals the state in Louisiana in 1876.

for his grandson and names George, Edwin, Howard Helen Gould are made ex-tors and trustees, and shares held in all incorpo companies are to be voted unit, George to have the trolling voice when there i disagreement.

Next years army appropriation bill calls for $24,202,739.

Hopkinsville went Democratic Saturday. The party goes marching on.

In North Dakota the Weaver electors have majorities ranging from 15 to 88.

Even Owensboro is talking about choosing her post master by a primary election.

The hanging of the four murders in Louisville Friday was done decently and in order.

"Man proposes and God disposes." The Legislature and the Court of Appeals are also taking a hand at the same business.

A bill fixing the tax on distilled spirits at $1.25 per gallon has been introduced in Congress. The tax is now ninety cents.

Grover appears to have lost none of his wits since the election. His speech on the first page is full of good sense and moderation.

The grand jury may find out who struck Billy Patterson, but until it does name that individual, it will not put hands on the man who bet on the election.

Elizabethtown, Ky., goes wet. Since 1884 she has had no saloons, but on last Saturday, by a vote of 181 to 133, the liquor party won.

Mr. J. R. Lemon, editor of the Tribune wants the Benton post office. We hope you will win, Jim. "A fellow feeling makes us wondrous kind."

Phil Armon, the Chicago 'millionaire, has made that city a gift worth $1,500,000. It is in the shape of a new five story building and an endowment of $1,400,000.

So far the census of 1890 has cost $8,000,000. Superintendent is still calling for more. He evidently believes holding on to the old unit, he can catch on to the new.

Governor Brown is not much given to interfering with the verdict of juries in murder cases. His refusal to pardon, or commute sentences is wholesome in these days of sentimentalism.

Carlisle stock appears to be rising. The New York World says: "There is a well defined rumor that Senator John G. Carlisle, of Kentucky, may be the next Secretary of the Treasury."

The Paducah Standard incidentally remarks that Paducah will continue her jug trade.

If the Senate agrees with the House, hereafter the convicts in Kentucky penitentiaries will be given ninety days ever year for good behavior. Heretofore they have been given sixty.

It may be that the tax on whisky will be increased. There is some talk of a thing of that kind. If the tax were levied according to the amount of devilment liquor does, the McKinley war tax would be no where.

And now it is proposed to pardon Dick Tate. We are for it, if Dick will return that little matter of a few thousand he forgot to leave in the States cash drawer, when he skipped. Otherwise let Dick protect his visit.

Albert Kully, a respectable citizen of Graves county, was murdered at Mayfield, Saturday night. He was shot through the heart. The circumstances surrounding the case indicate the need of him, and if the murderer is found, hemp will be used.

The Carnegie Company at Homestead claims that it has evidence showing that the chief cook of the works had engaged in a conspiracy by which he was to receive $5,000 for poisoning the non-union men. It is claimed that already six deaths have occurred from the poisoning.

Gov. Buchanan of Tennessee is said to be vexed because the Governor elect, Chief Justice Turney, will not resign the office he now holds, so that the present Governor can appoint a chief justice. "Old Pete" will not resign until he steps into the gubernatorial office, and then, he proposes to do the uppointing.

Congressman Breckinridge will be a candidate for the speakership of the next House, unless all signs fail. With Carlisle in the Cabinet, Breckinridge holding the gavel, and Jim McKenzie holding cousin Alla's ear, old Kentucky will continue to be one of the foremost states of this union.

The Union Local advocates the election of post masters by the patrons of the post office for which the aspirant longs. This plan would relieve the congressman of the embarrassment of selecting from a dozen or so of voters who were, are and will be ready at all times to fight, bleed, and die for him.

pledged themselves that they will support none but a nominee of their party for the United States Senate. The Democrats like two of having a majority and the Republicans are six behind. If the Third party members stand to their pledge, there will be no Senator elected.

According to the latest advice the political complexion of the United States Senate will be forty one Democrats, forty Republicans, two Third party, and five contested seats. The average Republican now a days, professes to hope that the Democrats will have full control of both Houses of the next congress that they may ruin themselves at once and be done with, but the manner in which our Republican friends are endeavoring to manipulate the Legislatures of Montana, California Wyoming indicate that there is doubt about that "running" business after all.

The election of a President by the popular vote of the people appears to be growing in public favor. Friday the Congressional Committee on election of President, Vice-President and Representatives in Congress was addressed by Col. A. K. McClure and Congressman Springer who advocated the election of the President by a direct vote of the people. They also want the Presidential term changed to six years.

We are wondering what has become of the Democratic orators, who up to Nov. 8th, were preaching the crying need of Civil Service Reform. Surely they have dropped by the wayside and perished—Monitors.

No sir, they have not fallen by the wayside; they are getting ready to take the places of those Republicans, who previous to the election entertained no affection for Civil Service Reform, and who, since the election, appear to be falling in love with that same C. S. R.

The "In and About" man of the Courier Journal says:

"In charging his grand jury at Marion, Judge M. C. Givens called special attention to the violation of the law prohibiting betting on elections. The Judge declared that this is a growing evil, and one that contributes much to the corruption of elections. The law which Judge Givens seeks to have enforced is about the deadest on the statute book. It is not backed by popular opinion, however much it may deserve to be, and to enforce it would be a difficult."

which is not a tax, the following is the law now exempt from taxation:

"Public property used for public purposes; places actually used for religious worship, with the grounds attached thereto and used appurtenant to the house of worship; not exceeding one half acre in cities and towns, and not exceeding two acres in the country; places of burial not held for private or corporate profit; institutions of education not used or employed for gain by any person or corporation, and the income of which is devoted solely to the cause of education; public libraries, their endowments and the income of such property as is used exclusively for their maintenance, all parsonages or residences owned by any religious society and occupied as a home, and for no other purpose, by the minister of any religion, with not exceeding one half acre of ground in towns and cities, and two acres of ground in the country, appurtenant thereto; household goods and other personal property of a person with a family, not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars in value; crops grown in the year in which the assessment is made and in the hands of the producer."

The Court of Appeals has knocked the appropriation made by the Legislature for the Kentucky exhibit at the World's Fair into smithereens. The point made is that the bill did not pass the Legislature as required by the Constitution. The Constitution requires that all bills involving an appropriation of money shall, on its final passage, receive the votes of a majority of all the members elected to each House. The bill carrying with the appropriation failed to receive this majority, and the Court of Appeals very properly says we must stand by the Constitution. If Kentucky has an exhibit at Chicago, the Legislature must again pass the bill, and pass it according to the Constitution.

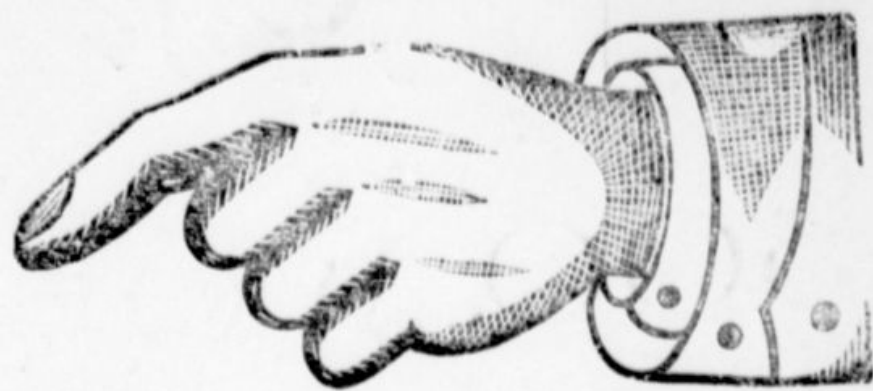

This episode has given the old enemies of the New Constitution an opportunity to cry out: "We told you so," and while at the same time they appear to think seriously that the Constitution is an impediment to progress, a stumbling stone in the road of advancement. Such conclusions are erroneous. On the other hand the skirmish over this serves to call the attention of the people to two things; one is the great security the Constitution throws around the public money, by requiring the consent of a majority of the Representatives of the people before an ex-other is the absolute necessity of sending the best men to the Legislature, if imperfect legislation is to be avoided.

In the event Mr. Carlisle puts aside the Senatorial toga to accept a place in the Cabinet, the Legislature which, in all probability, will then be in session, will elect his successor. Who will he be? Congressman Stone had some aspirations, it is said, when Senator Beck died. But realizing that Carlisle stood foremost in the ranks of the useful and deserving, Stone said amen to his election. Now if a vacancy should occur, it is natural to suppose that Mr. Stone will again cherish the hope of being one of Kentucky's two Senators. He is immensely popular not only in his own district, but throughout the State, and would be a formidable man in the fight. While Stone is not regarded by the country as an exceedingly brilliant man, he is known to possess plenty of ability, and is a clean man, a pure man, an honest man; a man who is as impervious to the influences of those time warp men judgments, as the honored and trusted and true Carlisle.

There are but few people who have not expressed an opinion about the late Jay Gould, and of the multitude of things said and written, none partake of that feeling that all hope to be cherished after the sands of our time are numbered. No matter how humble the man, if he be a man, but who hopes to be remembered kindly by at least a few people in his own sphere until the grass over his grave has felt the warmth of one summers sun or faded before the frosts of one winter. How is it with Gould? His sphere was as broad as the country, yet from no nook, nor corner comes a kind word. He measured all things by the dollar; and his standard of measurement was his god. He gathered wealth and scattered misfortune amongst his fellow men. The world is no better by his having lived, and being no gainier, it is no mourner at his newly made grave.

The Monitor thinks that the Democrats need no tonic to create a taste for the offices. Certainly not; the Democrats are no hogs, they will take the offices and leave the tonic for the Republicans to take as an appetizer for private life. By the way, we are not disposed to believe that our Republican office holding friends are hurt because the Democrats are going to take the offices; it is the letting go of the offices by another party that causes the worry.

One of the most pleasant affairs of the season was a "pound" party given by the B. E. L. L. Club at Mrs.
W. H. Rochester's Friday night. A score or more of young people gathered there, each taking a pound of some article for the refreshing of the inner man. There was a diversity of articles, from a pound of salt to a pound of the most delicious edibles imaginable. The doors of the good old farm home were opened to the youngsters in a hospitable manner, and the evening was pleasantly spent. The B. E. L. L. club is a newly organized literary club, and has a bright future before it. Going back a number of years we will find the O. R. I. O. club. It had a successful career, and did much for the upbuilding and prosperity of society in Marion. Coming on down near the present time we find the W. A.
T. C. H. club, which has been another of our successful social and literary organizations. It too, has done a great deal to promote society in Marion. Last, but by no means the least, is the newly organized B. E.
L. L. club, which is composed of Marion's most beautiful and accomplished young ladies, and it promises to be the most successful of all former organizations.

Just before the election Berry Deboe and Judge Pierce met on the streets and began a pleasant exchange of words about the election.
They agreed to wager a copper cent on the result. The two pieces of copper were put in John Moore's keeping. The incident had dropped out of their minds until last week, when John was called before the grand jury, of which Berry is foreman. The usual questions were asked, and finally the foreman wanted to know if the witness knew of any betting on the election. The witness said he did but did not want to give his friends away. Berry gave him to understand that business was business, and facts must come, and when John told who the parties were, there was a roar of mirth in the grand jury room, that echoed around the public square.
Berry did not mind the laughing, however, he bought a bushel of apples. It was a put up job on Berry, as the other jurors knew what was coming when the witness was called.

Mr. S. W. Adams takes charge of the Monitor; he has the ability as well as energy to make a good paper of it, and the last issue shows great improvement. Mr. Adams is now engaged in the revenue service, and Mr. A. M. Strub will have charge of the local department of the paper for a few months.

Friday Mr. F. M. Clement shipped to Chicago thirty four head of cattle. Their average weight was 1560 pounds, and taking them all around, it was the best lot of cattle ever shipped from Marion.

"Tell Mr. Clement who reported 696 grains of corn to the ear, that he is raising only nubbins, says Milt Babb. "The first ear I run across and counted in my crop, had over 800 grains on it."

Thursday, Dec 22, J. L. Paris will at his farm, 3 miles south-east of Marion, sell to the highest bidder, his personal property. Mr. Paris will move to Missouri the first of the

Mr. T. T. Murphy, wants his friends and the public generally to remember that he will be around shortly taking orders for the best fruit trees in the business.

Mrs Imboden, wife of Hub Imboden, died at her home in the Piney neighborhood last week. She was a daughter of Mr. Kyer Crowell.

This has been a good year for improvements in Marion. Some of the most substantial and handsome residences have been built.

Dr. W. J. Deboe is organizing a party of teachers and their friends to spend ten days in Chicago next year.

Town trustees will be to elect in April, also a city Marshal; unless the Legislature gives us a new charter.

Mrs Colie Ogelsby, of Shady afflicted with erysipelas.

Mr. W. J. L. Hughes will not return to Kansas. He will settle in Kentucky or Tennessee.

Is this a local option town or not?
A premium will be given for a satisfactory explanation.

The time will come when coal will be found closer to Marion than the new Minner mines.

Miss Fannie Finley entertained a few of her young friends at a cinque party Saturday afternoon.

A nine month free school should be added to Marion's long list of good things.

J. H. Roberson has been authorized to appropriate three acres of vacant land.

Miss Miley will teach a private school when the public school closes.
Marriage licenses have been issued

OUR PAUPERS.

What It Cost To Provide For the Few the County Has.

According to the order of the Court of Claims, County Judge J. A. Moore and County Attorney J. W. Blue, Jr., received bids and awarded the contract, Monday, for the keeping of the county's paupers for the year 1893. The bids received were for each pauper per month. The following were the bids:

J. E. Thomas, $9.00; W. R. Lanham, $8.00; R. G. Walker, $6.50; T. J. Lanham, $6.50; F. J. Imboden $5.20; Wm Goode $4.95.

Goode's bid being the lowest the contract was made with him; his bondsmen are R. L. Moore and E. C.
Moore. He pays $100 per annum rent for the farm, and keeps the paupers for $4.95 each per month.

Mr. Goode is said to be a thrifty, farmer, if he can thrive while he feeds and clothes people at $4.95 per month each, he certainly can give some of us a lesson in economy.

There is considerable difference between the present and old prices.
Mr. Goode's figures have touched the bottom when compared with others.

In 1870 and '71 when the present system of contracting was begun, J.
T. Phillips got $21 per month each for the two paupers there in the poor-house.

In 1873 John R. Clement boarded and clothed the few paupers for $10.95 each per month. In 1874, Elsa Conger reduced the price to $8.49, and in 1877 Thos Lanham moved it down another notch, accepting $5.49.

Crittenden has a population of nearly 14,000, and of this number more than ten have been unfortunate enough to have to go to the poor-house. Verily we are industrious thrifty people; though not reveling in wealth, we have wool on our backs when winter comes, and hog and hominy in the cabard.

Modest school-house dot the county, and neat church building are found in every neighborhood. Our old people have the mark of contentment on their brows, our daughters are beautiful, sensible, industrious and sweet; our sons are either settling near the old homestead, contending to win their bread as did their fathers, or scattering abroad as they find good positions in the business world. There is nothing to keep us from being happy, unless it is that Republican majority in the county, and if the good reports from the Democratic who have married the settled, keeping coming in, and the joy will be reduced by an 1/2 the Hillyard & Woods.

Freeman's goods are at the postoffice.

F. M. Clement and son get the blue ribbon. By industry, good management and pride, they can boast of shipping thirty-four head of cattle, principally of their own raising, from here on the 9th that was second to none in the state, especially the south western portion of it. The average weight of the 34 head was 1560 pounds. Mr. Clement has proved the fact that the farmers of old Crittenden, with proper management, can raise as nice beef stock they can up in the blue grass region.
Let all the farmers of Crittenden follow Mr. Clement's footsteps and it will be only a question of time when Crittenden will be one of the best stock raising counties in the state.

J. N. CLARK.

To Taxpayers.

The election is over, and the result, to which I cheerfully bow, will compel me to wind up my business at once. I must settle up with the State, and must do so at once.
There can be no delay. Next week my two deputies will begin the collection of the unpaid taxes in earnest, and will keep at it until complete. I must have the money without delay, I mean by this that if the money is not forth-coming, I shall sue without further ado. This is not brag or bluster, but I must protect myself and my securities, and I will do so without delay. Get your money ready, I am coming.

A. L. CRUCE, S. C. C.

Hillyard & Woods will open a big stock of holiday goods next week.

THE ELECTION

War is over, but Hoar's has opened another, and it is against high prices for cheap shoddy goods. I will open the last of this week for the Holiday trade, the largest and best stock of Fruit, Nuts and Candies ever seen in Marion, besides a large stock of canned goods consisting of all kinds of fruits, vegetables, meats and fish, macaroni, oat meal, spices of all kinds, either grain or ground; will have fresh oysters direct from Baltimore, celery direct from Michigan, cranberries, and in fact everything good to eat. Tobacco and cigars; the largest stock and most complete assortment of any house in town at wholesale and retail, cheaper than the cheapest. To tell you where you can get a square meal would be useless as you all know well. Remember I have not been run out but am still in the ring. I will on January 5th, 1893, give to some one of my customers a genuine gold filed watch and plated chain, bearing the manufacturers guarantee for 20 years, on these conditions; for every 50 cents worth of goods bought at one time from me you will receive a ticket, and on Jan. 5th, to the person having the most tickets for goods they have bought, I will present the watch. You can see the watch in my show case any time you call.
Remember I am still in the Bakery business, regardless of all the cakes and bread that may be shipped here.
Come and see me, get my prices and I will do you good.

Respectfully,
A. M. HEARIN.

See those fine lamp at Hillyard & Woods. They have a big line of every shape form and fashion.

HEADQUARTERS FOR Santa Clause.

I have just returned from Evansville with a big stock of Christmas goods. Toys of all kinds, Fine Candies, Oranges, bananas, grapes, apples, etc. My store is headquarters for Holiday goods; everything new fresh and good. Come and see.

FREDONIA.

The consolidated tobacco firms of Caldwell county have bought nearly three million pounds of the weed at pretty fair prices.

W B Ray, of Kuttawa, is just as proud of his boy, two weeks old, as if Harrison had been elected, but as good luck would have it he will have to raise him up under a Democratic administration which will make a man of him.

Another wedding in town pretty soon or else somebody will be badly disappointed.

Cleveland's election certainly caused more money to be in circulation, judging from the way Sam Howerton sold clothing last Saturday.

Johnson Byrd and his sister, Miss Robbie Byrd, left Monday for Atlanta, Ga., where they will make their future home if they are pleased with the surroundings.

Dr. C. A. Anthony, of Fredericktown, Mo., and Miss Rubie Byrd were married at the residence of the brides parents, D T Byrd and wife, Wednesday December 7th 6 p. m., in the presence of a few near relatives.

Ceremony by Rev. L. O. Spencer, they left immediately for their future home; with the best wishes of Miss Rubie's many friends.

Calvin Foster, of Carversville, is on a visit to his brother-in-law, A. S.
Threlkeld and wife, who have been dangerously ill for the past three weeks.

Oliver & Reed shipped some fine hogs and cattle from this place last Saturday, paying pretty high prices for them.

Rev M E Chappell went to Paducah last Friday to assist in a protracted meeting.

Miss Massey, the music teacher, has been severely afflicted of Pneumonia for the past week.

The members of the Ladies Bible Class are all requested to attend next Sunday as something of vital importance will be discussed.

The Piney Creek church will have a new roof put on, in a few days, of the best steel roofing, manufactured by the Signdorff Iron roofing Co., of Cincinnati. Every body needing a roof on a building of any kind will save money by getting roofing of their agent, W. C. Glenn, Fredonia, Ky., who will furnish it in any amount on short notice.

Robert Glenn, son of D. P. and M.
W. Glenn, died December 6th 1892, at 2 p. m., of typhoid fever, and was buried at Glenn's Chapel Dec 7th.
Funeral services conducted by Rev.
W E Chappell.

Christmas comes but one a year and everybody should call on B. A.
Jacobs for any thing they need in the grocery line. Fancy candies, nuts, oranges, apples, canned goods; new house, new goods, low prices.

W. C. Glenn is putting a roll cap steel roof of J. E. Crider's fine stock barn. The best roofing made, and cheaper than shingles.

The framing lumber is on the ground for a Methodist church in Kelsey.

Mrs. Patterson, of Dawson, will run the Hotel in Kelsey. She has moved in, and will soon be ready to take care of the traveling public.
The house is convenient to the depot, and no doubt she will get a large share of patronage.

We have on hand a large supply of cotton goods that we bought before the great advance which we are selling at the old prices.

THE COLOR LINE

Drawn at a Banquet of the W. C. T. U. in St. Louis—Colored Delegates Indignant.

St. Louis, Dec. 11.—The interesting feature of last night's banquet of the W. C. T. U. was the clash between the colored and white delegates. When they filed out to supper, the women and men of color took seats promiscuously among their white brethren, and when requested to vacate and take seats at the table reserved for colored delegates, they left the hall in a body, and gave vent to their displeasure in no uncertain terms. On account of the loud and excited manner in which they talked, the doors had to be closed between the banquet hall and the vestibule. The women in charge of the banquet urged them to return, but they refused to do so unless they were permitted to resume their former seats. These seats had, in the meantime, been occupied by white people, who were finally requested to remove and find seats in another part of the hall. The colored delegates threatened to withdraw from the union.

TOBACCO SEASON CLOSED.

Figures Relative to the Crop as Handled at Paducah.

Paducah, Ky., Dec. 10.—The tobacco season in this market has been brought to a close and there are now less than fifty hogheads of the old crop of tobacco in the warehouses in this city. The statistics for the year are as follows: Receipts, 17,842 hogheads; offerings, 22,431 hogheads; rejections, 3,799 hogheads; actual sales 18,632 hogheads.

The old stock of trash and lugs has been entirely taken up by home manufacturers, and the warehouses will enter upon the new year freed from the handling of old stocks, all the offerings being for the 1892 crop. This is something new in the business, and is a strong point in favor of the producers. The 1892 crop was housed safely and free from worm cut or other damage, and the weather was fine for the final curing process. The quantity of the crop is variously estimated at from 85 to 115 per cent. of last year's crop. Some sections of the district have done better and others not so well, but there is no doubt but what the business on this market will be some larger next year than what was done this year. Stemmers and county dealers have commenced making purchases of loose tobacco at 51-2 to 6 cents. Not much will be done by the warehouses for several weeks, as the producers prefer to see the breaks open fairly before being satisfied as to prices.

Diamond Filed.

Boise City, Idaho, Dec. 11.—The diamond excitement is growing more intense. The New York lapidary to whom specimens of the stones found on the south bank of the Snake river in Owyhee county were submitted, reported that they were closely allied to the diamond, adding that a little search in the soil whence the specimens came might result in the unearthing of genuine diamonds of great worth. In 1865 several geologists reported that they had found upon the shores of a now vanished sea, that once rolled over the valley of the Snake, stones that were in every particular similar to diamonds, and these almost forgotten statements have led even conservative people to believe that diamond fields may exist within thirty miles of Boise.

Killed Near an Immoral House.

Mayfield, Ky., Dec. 11.—Albert Colley, a young farmer, who lives near this place, was nearly this morning killed by a horse.

Colley was shot through the heart, and was lost seen about 11 o'clock last night.

The murder is supposed to have been committed by Dave Sherrill, a negro with whom Colley had a fight yesterday, the negro threatening to kill him last night. Sherrill and two other negroes, suspected of being accomplices, are under arrest. There is great excitement here over the murder.

A PARDON FOR TATE.

A Petition for Clemency to the Defaulting State Treasurer Said to be in Circulation.

Frankfort, Dec. 6.—A petition is being circulated and a big effort will be made to have Governor Brown pardon Dick Tate, Kentucky's State Treasurer, who skipped in 1887, a quarter of a million behind.

Many think it would be wise to have him pardoned, and allow him to return and testify in the suits now pending against his bondsmen. The State has recovered about $100,000 already. Tate is said to be in Japan. It is said that several prominent men would rather he would not return and testify.

THE CROPS.

Their Condition as Reported to Uncle Jerry Rusk.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The December statistical returns to the Department of Agriculture relating to farm crops. The value of corn is 39.3 cents per bushel, depressed by the surplus of the previous crop and early distribution. It is 60 to 70 cents in the Eastern States;

55 to 60 in the Middle States; ranging from 42 to 75 in the cotton States, 42 in Ohio, 40 in Indiana, 37 in Illinois, 36 in Missouri, 32 in Iowa, 31 in Kansas, and 28 in Nebraska. This is higher in Nebraska than for any year since 1882, except in 1887 and 1890, and in Iowa in the same time the present average value has been exceeded only in the two years named. The average price of wheat is 63.2 cents. The next lowest price was 64.5 cents in 1884. In 1885, 1887 and 1890 the average was a cent or two below that. Last year it was 83.9. Principal State prices are: New York, 85; Pennsylvania, 81; Virginia, 76; Georgia, 90; Texas, 75; Kentucky, 67; Ohio, 68; Michigan, 69; Indiana, 64; Illinois, 65; Minnesota, 61; Iowa, 60; Missouri, 58; Kansas, 52; Nebraska, 50; South Dakota, 50; North Dakota, 52; California, 70.

The average value of oats is 31.6 cents, nearly the same as last year as in the case of corn. Rye 54.8 cents, barley 47.2 cents, buckwheat 53.4 cents, potatoes 67.3 cents per bushel against 37.1 cents last year. Hay $8.49 per ton, nearly the same as in 1891.

The condition of winter wheat on the first day of December averaged 87.4 cents against 86.3 last year. In the Ohio valley the range is from 79 to 87 cents, and low also in Kansas and Pennsylvania. It is high in New York, in the South and on the Pacific coast.

In the Southern States on the Atlantic coast germination was delayed by draught, and the same cause delayed both planting and growth in the Ohio valley, and materially reduced the condition of the crop.

It Tastes Good

One reason why Scott's Emulsion of Pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda has had such a large sale is because it is "Almost as palatable as milk;" but the best reason is that its curative properties are unequalled. It cures the cough, supplies the waste of tissues, produces flesh and builds up the entire system.

Scott's Emulsion cures Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Scrofula, and all Anaemic and Wasting Diseases. Prevents wasting in children. Almost as palatable as milk. Get only the genuine. Prepared by Scott & Bowne, Chemists, New York. Sold by all Druggists.
