

WE WILL

DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, NOTIONS, HATS,

Dress Good, Shoes, Ladies and Gents Furnishing Goods, and in fact everything kept for sale in a first class Dry Goods store. Everything is brand new and we guarantee to refund all overcharges made by us on any article. We will also continue to run the People's Store with Dick Pickens and Tom McConnel as chief salesmen. We need your trade and by fair and honest dealing we expect to get it. We have

OVER $2000 WORTH OF GOODS LEFT IN THE PEOPLE'S STORE,

Which we will continue to sell at Great Bargains. We will also refurnish that store with an excellent line of New Goods in a very short time to sell at prices to suit the people. Now don't think because we are new in the mercantile business that we can't give you good values for your money, for, as a rule, a new man is forced to give better values than an old merchant who has his trade already built up. Come in and see my prices.

WAS IT LEGAL?

Important Question Raised in Regard to the Recent Election.

GLENN, KY., JAN. 2.—The recent decision of the Court of Appeals in which it was held that the World's Fair bill was unconstitutional passed by the Legislature and in which the Court held that the bill was unconstitutional, has created a great deal of interest in Marion.

At the Marion Academy, the question of the constitutionality of the bill was discussed by the students.

Gambling houses in Marion have been closed by the city authorities.

Mr. Cleveland is in New York and that city is now the scene of the big political fight.

The Legislature is expected to meet in a few days.

For the past six years, J. B. Carr, of this place, has been Circuit Judge for the Seventh Judicial district, composed of the counties of Adams, Clinton, Cumberland, Green, Hart, Marshall, and Monroe.

The Legislature last session passed a law which provided that the Circuit Judge should be elected by the people.

At the recent election, J. B. Carr was re-elected by a large majority.

It is now reported that the Court of Appeals has decided that the law is unconstitutional.

This decision will have a great effect on the future of the Circuit Judge.

SHADY GROVE.

J. L. Cardwell sold his town property to Dollar, Woodall & Co., of Fredonia. They will make this one of their places to handle tobacco.

Dr. Todd and Sam Frazier went to Marion Saturday and returned Sunday.

Revs. U. J. Fox, of Dalton, and C. H. Green, of Morganfield, preached at the Baptist church during the holidays.

J. L. Cardwell and J. H. Frazier are still carrying on their business in Marion.

Dr. Moreland and U. J. Travis, of Weston, was in town today.

J. B. Hubbard has closed his business in Marion and is now among us.

As the Old Year has passed out so quiet, and the new one came in so cool, let us be prompt and pay our debts and go to Sunday school.

NEW SALEM.

We wish a happy prosperous New Year to the editor and the many readers of the Press.

W. J. Fowler has had a child dangerously ill for the past two weeks.

James H. Bruster is visiting friends at Nashville and Chattanooga.

The arrival of this hope is derived from the Government service as it appears to them and not as it really is.

To the young men especially it seems like an opening into an active and useful life; it promises a fair, or at least a sufficient income, a chance to come into touch with national affairs, perhaps an opportunity for political advancement; certainly it will allow residence in a most charming city and a participation in its full and rich life. It is simply the part of justice to tell all the applicants that these promises are mostly false ones. Instead of a door admitting one into active life; entrance to the departmental service of the Government practically has one out of it. The salary which seems so comfortable when expended in imagination in some quiet country village or provincial town shrinks to an insignificant sum when measured by city standard of living. It buys few pleasures, leaves little margin for saving, and does not admit at all of the participation in social life which the young office-seeker usually has in mind.

"The opportunities for advancement in the Government service are worse than none. The longer a man stays in it, the less fit he is for anything else, and instead of taking him in politics, as he may have hoped, it takes him absolutely out of them. Something might be done to prevent bright young people from entering the department under a misapprehension and staying in them from inertia. The service offers undoubted advantages to those of fair education and good sense.

The hopitable home of Robert Threlkeld of this place presented a pleasing sight on the night of December 21st 1892. The large front room was filled with friends and relatives, was tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens. At 6:30 o'clock, p. m., Charles L. Rice and Carrie B. Threlkeld, two of our most popular young people stood under the arch, while Rev. James F. Price with an impressive ceremony pronounced their husband and wife. After a short prayer they were all invited into the dining room where an elegant supper was served. After which they received the congratulations of their numerous friends and relatives who were present. The attendants were Miss Carrie Harpending and Mr. George Kinsolving. The bride and bridesmaid were lovely dressed of white satin and white ribbon. The gentlemen wore the conventional black. The bride is one of our most refined and lovable girls. The groom is a prosperous young farmer and a model young man and knows how to appreciate the treasure he has won.

The next day they were royally entertained at the residence of the groom's father, W. J. L. Rice, of Levisa. May God's richest blessings go with them through life. They received many useful and beautiful presents, but we have not space and time to enumerate them.

FREDONIA.

The Sunday school had a nice supper here on Christmas eve night. A large crowd in attendance and every body enjoyed themselves.

Most every body in Kelsey had a whole lot of Christmas, and three or four towns were shot, but nobody killed. If a few of the healthiest could come over here to this place, they would be as healthy as the birds in the air.

The Christian people of this community will attend Sunday school and prayer meetings this year.

Born to the wife of John P. Myers on the 29th of December, a fine boy.

Mr. Egan & Co. per mail, wife of H. K. Kinsolving, spent Christmas here with J. E. Crider and family.

Calvin Foster, of Carville, was in town Saturday and Sunday. But was not here in time to attend the dance held in his new house in Kelsey last week.

Mrs. Alice Crider and Mrs. Georgia Wyatt went to Hopkinsville Tuesday to hear Sam Jones preach and to visit Mrs. Crider's daughter Mrs. Cooper.

I will dispose of the Christmas tricks I have on hand at cost. Come at once and buy some of the largest dolls ever brought to Fredonia.

B. A. Jacobs.

Byrd Garner, of Texas, was here on a visit last week, and returned on Wednesday accompanied by Mrs. Lily Rice who went on a business trip and perhaps will stay until spring.

Prof. Guess came home from Texas last week, and says he has enough of that country.

Cassidy & Wolf have dissolved partnership. Cassidy will continue in the dry goods business, and Wolf will continue in the hardware business.

Ed Dollar has been on the sick list for the past week. He is improving slowly.

Ed Ramage will stand behind the counter for W. M. Green this year.

SIX MEN SHOT.

Bloddest Battle in Magoffin County's History.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 3.—The bloodiest fight in Magoffin County's history took place today about one mile from Saltsville.

There were 8 or 10 of the county's best known citizens engaged on each side, armed with repeating rifles and navy pistols, and the trouble, which had its inception in a trivial matter, culminated in a pitched battle.

John Travis was killed by a pistol shot.

W. E. Deskins, Constable, was fatally wounded.

Monteville Deskins, a Justice of the Peace, had not been found since the fight. But he left a bloody trail on the snow through a woodland near the scene of the tragedy, and he is supposed to be fatally wounded. The gun with which he is known to have been armed was found in the woods.

NOT ELESYAN FIELDS.

In the Government Service Does Not Mean Greatness.

Kate Field has recently written a letter to the public journal concerning life in the departments at Washington. In these times it is not inappropriate to reprint her view of the matter:

"A great many young men and young women all over the country are looking forward to the change in administration with the hope that it will bring them an opportunity to enter the Government service. The urgency of this hope is derived from the Government service as it appears to them and not as it really is.

To the young men especially it seems like an opening into an active and useful life; it promises a fair, or at least a sufficient income, a chance to come into touch with national affairs, perhaps an opportunity for political advancement; certainly it will allow residence in a most charming city and a participation in its full and rich life. Dr. Henry L. Casey, Veterinary Surgeon and Dentist, will be in Marion Jan. 14th. And farmers or horsemen with diseased stock will do well to consult him while here.
He is State Veterinarian and comes highly recommended.
The grand jury was unsuccessful in its efforts to get Johnson Hurst before it. Judge Givens issued an attachment for Hurst to make him appear before the next grand jury.
Hurst was wanted as a witness in the investigation of the Dobson murder case. His failure to come, and running from the officers indicate that he preferred not to be examined and appears that he might tarow some light on the mystery.
Stock Shipments.
During the year 1892, there was shipped from the O. V. depot at Marion 145 car loads of stock, which embraced 89 cars of hogs, 47 cars of mules. During the same period the shipments of tobacco amounted to 700 horseheads. If Marion does not lead the towns along the O. V. on stock shipments, she is not for behind the leader.

Complimentary to The Judge.

On the last day of the December term of Circuit Court the Marion bar held a meeting, making attorney L. H. James chairman; and clerk, H. A. Haynes, Secretary. The following resolutions were offered and adopted:
Be it resolved by the Marion bar that we extend to the Hon. M. C.
Givens our thanks for the impartial and courteous manner in which he has discharged the duties of his office, and we regret his departure from our circuit. We recommend to his successor his enviable record as a Judge of this court and trust that he will hold the esteem un-tarnished and without blemish as handled to him by his predecessor.
We assure him that, although he departs from our midst, that our feelings towards him will be of that same friendly character in which we have heretofore held him.

Do You Want a Public Office.

There are 180,000 offices within the gift of the new Administration, and now is the time for those seeking public employment to take proper steps to secure one of these lucrative positions. All who are interested should at once send for a copy of the United States Blue Book. It is a register of all Federal offices and employments in each State and Territory, the District of Columbia and abroad, with their salaries, emoluments and duties; show who is eligible for appointment questions asked at examinations, how to make an application and how to push it to success, and gives besides a vast amount of important and valuable information relative to Government positions never before published. Handsomely bound in cloth. Price 75 cents, post paid.
Address J. H. Soule, Publisher,
Washington, D. C.

Caught Him.

Last week Phil Johnson, color, came over from Evansville to Marion to see his friends, he had not been in town long before the sheriff had him in charge. Phil, some time ago was fined $500 for selling liquor without licenses at Providence. A portion of this fine was unpaid, and the papers had been sent from Webster county to this, and a settlement of this matter was what the sheriff wanted with him. He arranged matters satisfactorily.

A New Sheriff.

Monday morning the old sheriff stepped out of the office and the new, Mr. J. T. Franks stepped in, and now it is sheriff Franks and ex-sheriff Cruce. Mr. Franks made a guilt edge bond; his bondsmen are J. W. Gauss, S. F. Crider, G. B. Crawford, A. A. Deboe, A. C. Deboe, W. J.
Deboe, and A. Towery.
No county has more sheriffs than Crittenden, and sheriff Franks will keep the office up to the high standard set by his predecessors.

W. A. Letzinger & Co., Assigns.

Tuesday W. A. Letzinger & Co., the jewelers, filed a deed of assignment, making H. T. Flannery the assignee. The assets amount to $500 or $600 and the liabilities to $700 or $800. The principal creditors are wholesale merchants from whom the firm purchased goods.

Death of an Old Man.

Mr. Henry Walker, familiarly known as "Uncle Henry," died at his home a few miles east of Marion, December 30. He was 87 years old, and has been a resident of this county many years. He was an honest upright man.

A Long Letter.

can be easily written on good paper with a good pen and good ink. All of these articles can be found at R.
C. Walker's book-store.

Monday Constable Deboe had a lively race with Billy Congo. Billy lives in the Boxville suburb of Marion, and has been formally accused of hiding a pistol about his person.
The officer went out to see Billy about it; Billy went out the back door as Deboe went into the front.
Billy went down the railroad, about sixty at a jump, the officer went only four ties at a jump and the consequence is he has not caught Billy yet.

Deeds Recorded.

Tuesday Jas. Woods colored, swore out a warrant, charging Jas. Deboe with a breach of the peace, committed by drawing a pistol upon Woods.
Deboe was reaching Woods' house when as Deboe says, Woods threatened to knock him down, whereupon the pistol was shown.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Bert Wing the Louisville Wife Murderer Attempts to Cheat the Gallows.

LOUISVILLE, KY., JAN. 1.—Last night Bert Wing, who stabbed his young and beautiful wife to death in a disreputable house at this place, was found half dead in his cell in the county jail last night. He had taken morphine with suicidal intent. The doctors by the use of emetics and stomach pumps succeeded in bringing back the fast ebbing life which has been blackened beyond hope by the terrible crime.
Mr. J. W. Paris, of Ford's Ferry, was in town Tuesday. He wants to sell out at Ford's Ferry and move back to Marion.
Mrs. S. H. Lambert and Mr. S. H.
Cromwell returned Friday night from a visit to the family of Dr. J.
H. Hillyard in Marion.
New stock of arctic over shoes, for men, women and boys. Best quality that has been in the house this season. J. N. Woods.

Mr. E. H. Sheeks and wife.

of Bell Station, Tenn., spent the week with friends in this county returning home Tuesday.

A Thing of Beauty.

The Paragon over shoe for misses just on the eve of womanhood. For sale at J. N. Woods.

Mr. Thos. Rushing and his son J. L. Rushing, of the Piney Fork neighborhood are both very ill; the recovery of the father is hardly hoped for.

The prisoners in the Madisonville jail escaped Sunday night, there were three of them, two charged with murder and the other manslaughter.

Saturday Judge Moore officiated at the marriage of Ben Fowler and Miss Bettie Stewart. The wedding took place in the County Judge's office.

The Rev. Silas Newton, of Cadiz, will preach the funeral sermon of the late J. M. Brawner, in the Methodist church at this place the third Sunday of this month.

Mr. H. A. Haynes entered upon his third term as Circuit Court Clerk Monday. His bondsmen are A. J.
Pickens and W. B. Yandell. Mr.
Haynes will in the future be as he has been in the past—one of the best clerks in the State.

Rev. E. B. Blackburn will preach the funeral sermon of Mrs. Roe Gilbert at Crooked Creek, on the 4th Sunday. He will also preach at Baker's School house on the 5th Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Stock of new cloaks, the best goods made at the best cloak house in the west, bought very cheap on account of the advanced season, and will be sold correspondingly low. You will find no better goods on the market.
J. N. Woods.

Town Letter List.

The following is a list of letters remaining unclaimed for in the post office at Tolu, Ky., Jan. 1st 1893: Mr. C. Appel, Net Barnett, Marion; Bebout, Louis Blank-nship, Mrs. Febea Davis, (col.) Miss Martha Todd, A. M. Walker.

Persons calling for any of the above letters will please say advertised.
T. A. McAMIS, P. M.

Messrs J. T. Elder, G. H. Crider and Wm. Hill have formed a corporation for the purpose of running a planning mill and doing such business as is kindred thereto. The corporate name will be the Marion Planning Mill Co. The capital stock will be sufficient to conduct the business. A new planer will be added to the machinery heretofore owned and run by Mr. Elder.

Henry Bros, the marble men of this place, have contracted for the erection of a monument over the grave of Mr. R. L. Moore, Sr. It is a $1,400 piece of work, and when completed will be the handsomest in the county. It is to be of gray granite, and the shaft rises sixteen feet in the air; it is six feet square at the base. This handsome and tasty piece of work will probably be the first to adorn the new cemetery at Marion. The remains of Mr.
Moore now rest at Mt Zion, will probably be moved to Marion.

Yesterday at the home of the bride, Marion, Va., Mr. Edgar James, of this place, and Miss Mary Campbell were united in marriage.
The bride resided here a year as teacher, and is known as a beautiful and lovable young lady, worthy of the love of any young man. Many friends of both bride and groom will give the happy pair a hearty welcome when they come to their home at this place. Mr. James is one of the best and most deserving young men of this, or any other county.

Mr. J. W. Skelton, dropped into the Press office Tuesday, and among other things he said, in substance.
Next week I want a small amount of space in your paper. The Legislative body is boxing, and I have made up my mind to try the boys around. I have been encouraged by many of the best Democrats and will certainly make a fight for the nomination.

Misses Kitty Woods, Bena Big-ham, Nannie Hilliard and Nellie Dean returned to Patter's College, Owensboro, Ky., Monday, after spending the holidays at home.

Mr. Van Werten, of Carraville, was in town last week. He is a druggist at that place, and will ask for the post office. He is a genuine Democrat, a fine business man, and the people could find no better man to cancel their stamps.

dict of the jury giving Buck Mc-Kinley a judgment of $1000 against the O. V., for damages. Another trial will result.

Mr. Thos. Rushing, an old citizen of the Piney Fork neighborhood, died Wednesday morning after a long illness of typhoid fever.

Notice.

That all persons having claims against Chas. E. Rodgers deceased, will please present the same to the undersigned on or by the first day of February 1893, this December 13th, 1892.

H. D. Myers, Adm'r.

COMPROMISED.

The Stone and Washington Life Insurance Suits Settled.

The suit of Daniel Stone against the Washington Life Insurance Company for $10,000 has been settled by a compromise. According to the terms of the settlement, Stone receives $3000, and each party pays its own cost. Stone carried two life policies on James E. Stone's life; the policies were payable to Fannie Stone, Daniel Stone's wife. James Stone died, and suit was instituted for collection of the policies.

The Bell-Holdman Case.

On August 8th, 1890, old man Bell died, and the will he left conveyed a tract of land, worth from $150 to $200 to J. R. Holdman, who was in no way related to the deceased. The heirs of Bell brought suit to break the will and recover the land, pleading that Bell was not in his right mind, and was under influenced to make the will as he did. The case was tried by a jury at the last term of the Circuit Court, and eight of the twelve jurors were for the plaintiff. The case was then submitted to Judge Givens and he decided in favor of the heirs of Bell.

Sunday morning the little eight-teen month-old boy of Mr. B. F.
Copeland, of Marion, Ill., died at the residence of Mr. W. G. Carha-han at this place. The family came over during the holidays to visit friends and while here the little fellow was taken ill. All that human skill could do was done to save him.
At 12 o'clock Sunday night, the remains were taken to the home of the parents for burial. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of their many friends in this community.

May Be Condemned.

"I expect I will cause a big racket in this neighborhood some of these days" were the words of School Superintendent Deboe, a day or two since. In response to the inquiry for the cause of the racket, he replied that the old school house was not up to the measure of responsibility, and would, sooner or later, have to be condemned, which would force the building of another, and to build another a tax must be levied.
The present board of school directors are in favor of a new house, and one in keeping with the character of the great cause it stands for.

PRINCETON, KY., Dec. 27, 1892.

—ED. PRESS.—Please allow me through your columns to express my appreciation of the kindness shown by the Piney Fork and Crayneville churches in presenting me with a handsome McIntosh overcoat on Christmas day. Such remembrances are refreshing to a man's soul and body.

B. T. WATSON, Pastor.

It is Crittenden county's time to name the Democratic horse for the State Senatorial race, which comes off next year. The track in Webster is not as heavy, or to use the expression of a slangist (no extra charge for this newly coined word) not as "racky" as that of Crittenden's many excellent political rascals can win over it. Trot out your horse, Crit, we're for you.—Providence Advertiser.

Robt. Tyre died near Carraville recently and his widow and five helpless children arrived on the packet last Friday evening. Some of our charitable citizens provided lodging and food for them until they could get out to Mrs. Tyre's father in Monroe precinct.—Elizabethtown (Ill.) Independent.

Assignee's Sale.

As assignee of W. A. Letzinger & Co., I have the entire stock of that firm for sale. The stock consists of watches, gold and silver, clocks, silver table ware, jewelry, etc., etc.
The goods must be sold at once, and the public will find big bargains for the next ten days.

H. T. Flannery, Assignee.

Mr. Jas. Lemon is now in charge of the creamery at butter-maker.
Mr. Wisterman left for Wisconsin Monday. The institution paid expenses last month, and if there is no bad luck, it will do more than that this month.

The man who moved so often that his tools were always ready, at the word, to have their feet fastened, is in it no longer, when compared to our friend Mr. B. F. Mc-Millan.

Not Aside.

Judge Givens set aside the verdict of the jury giving Buck Mc-Kinley a judgment of $1000 against
the O. V., for damages. Another
trial will result.

Mr. Thos. Rushing, an old citizen
of the Piney Fork neighborhood,
died Wednesday morning after a long illness of typhoid fever.

Notice.

A Happy New Year.

To The People of Crittenden and The Adjoining Counties

I desire to tender my sincerest thanks for their generous patronage during the year 1892, and, while doing so, permit me to wish you a happy and prosperous New Year. I will continue business at the old stand, handling every thing you need in the grocery line, and buying every thing, in the way of produce, you have for sale. In the future as in the past I shall always endeavor to treat you in the way that will merit your good will. Our relations in the past have been pleasant, so shall they be in the future. Your Obedient Servant,

M. SCHWAB.

and a half interest in another. Address or call on R. W. Foster, Tolu, Ky.

WE EXTEND A

Happy New Year

To our customers and friends with our heartfelt thanks for past patronage; and we hope, by honest dealing, courteous treatment and first-class goods to merit your trade for the New Year. Mr. Warner Thomas, an affable, courteous pleasant young man, will be found behind the counter every ready to treat you kindly. On groceries we will not be undersold. Don't fail to get our prices on flour before
