Mr. Cleveland's High Estimate of our

Mrs. Washington, Jan. 15.—Mr. Cleve-dland, in a private interview with the Press, yesterday, said: "The Union will be lost if we allow the weaker party to win its elections. A war which is not likely to be fought will come.

"I hope to see General Sherman in the capital by the 3d of March. He will be there in time to prevent the return of the Whigs to power.

"I shall fight to the finish. I shall never be satisfied until I have fought a battle decided by the voice of the people.

"I shall not give up the contest until the last man has fought, and the last ball has been pitched.

"I shall not be satisfied until I have seen the Union restored.

"I shall not be satisfied until I have seen the Union restored to its original place among the nations of the world."

Mr. Cleveland was much impressed by the address of General Grant, and said: "He is the greatest soldier who ever lived."

Calamari's Personal Appearance before the Senate.

Wang, Jan. 15.—Judge Calamari appeared before the Senate to testify yesterday. He was a hero of the Civil War, and is said to be one of the most brave men in the world.

He was called to the bar by Mr. Calamari, and said: "I am a man of few words, and will not say anything that will injure the honor of my countrymen."

"I have been in the army for a long time, and know that the soldiers are the bravest men in the world."
