NUMBER 40.

THE CORNER STONE.

Imposing Ceremonies Mark the Beginning of the New Church at Crayneville.

"They praised the Lord because the foundation of the house of the Lord was laid."

March 26, at 4 o'clock, p. m., a large congregation from different parts of the county were gathered together at Crayneville, Ky., to see Rev. B. T. Watson, our pastor, lay the corner stone of the new C. P. church here. The foundation had been laid and religious service was conducted by Brother Watson.

All present joined in singing the grand old hymn, "How Firm a Foundation."

Twelve elders were chosen from the following churches, viz: Marion, Sugar Grove, Piney Fork and Crayneville. Each elder took their stand at twelve stones of the foundation and remained there during the service.

Brother Watson read Joshua 4:1-24; and the rules about laying the corner stone, then led the congregation in prayer.

The following records were deposited in the stone:

1. Holy Bible.
2. Roll of membership.
3. One copy of Confession of Faith.
4. One copy Minutes of Presbytery.
5. One copy of C. P. Paper.
6. One copy of Missionary Record.
7. One copy of S. S. Comments.
8. One copy of Rays of Life.
9. One copy of Our Lambs.
10. One copy of CRITTENDEN PRESS.
11. One copy of Marion Monitor.
12. Roll of membership of the Christian Workers Society.
13. Roll of membership of S. S.
14. A memento, a lock of hair, of Mr. D. W. Deboe, giving the date when he was elected elder in the C. P. church. These were placed in a small box and then placed in the box which was cut in the stone, and the stone was laid in its place to stand as a monument that the people of this generation love and serve the Great Father of the Universe, who's Son is our "Chief Corner Stone."

Bro. Watson made an excellent talk in regard to the scene, which so many have stood as witnesses and pronounced the benediction.

TENDER TIES ARE BROKEN.

Rev. B. T. Watson preached his farewell sermon as Pastor of Piney Fork and Crayneville churches last Sabbath. His text at Piney was Acts XX, 17-38. [Please read it.]

The sermon was a grand one, never to be forgotten.

At Crayneville he used the text he preached his second sermon from three years ago at Piney. This text is found in Psalm XLVIII, 12-13. In addition to this he also used 2 Cor., XIII, 11. At the close of the sermon the first communion service was held, here, and the last with Bro. Watson as Pastor.

It was a very solemn scene, and memorial of Christ and his "Last Supper" with his disciples, because it was at night.

Sad hearted, our Pastor and people parted, to meet again, the Lord only knows when.

Bro. Watson has been pastor of Piney Fork three years, and during this time he has preached 115 sermons within our reach. They have all been excellent sermons of heavenly messages. The writer has heard him preach 101 sermons and make 20 lectures, and has the first word of him to hear him speak yet about any person or denomination. All who know him know that he is a man of great humility and influence. He is loved for his pure and noble character; he has hundreds of friends that will pray for him while in the field of missionary and evangelistic work. He will begin this grand work April 1.

The Lord has rolled off of him the burden of few churches, and rolled upon him the care of 214 churches of 15,000 members.

Now, dear friends, God has put this great work upon the heart, and in the hands of a man you love, one of your brethren. Will not every Cumberland Presbyterian in this and adjoining counties see to it, by prayer and pledge, that our State Missionary shall not suffer while doing our work.

He has done a grand work in our churches as well as the people of other denominations.

May he do now a greater work and cause the churches to follow the eleven commandment, given by Christ, which is, "Love one another as I have loved you." God bless our missionary Pastor and family at Auburn, Ky., is the daily prayer of the writer.

ABRAHAM.

Sunday the fields northeast of town were fired, it is supposed by sparks from a train, and a quantity of fence was burned. The fire occasioned considerable excitement. A crowd from town gathered in fighting the fire and prevented it from over a big scope of country.

AFTER THE CAPITOL.

Louisville Will Make a Tempting Offer to the Location Committee.

Louisville, March 31.—Louisville real estate men will offer twelve acres to the State as a site for the capitol if removed to Louisville. Some years ago the city voted an appropriation of $1,000,000 toward building a capitol in case the seat of government was moved here. It is believed that this appropriation is still good. The question, which has been little agitated of late, is again being largely discussed, and may result in a powerful, organized movement to bring the capitol to the Falls city.

Working Convicts on the County Roads.

The majority of the Sinking Fund Commissioners, who have charge of the penitentiary convicts, have voted in favor of the scheme to work the convicts on the county roads, Gov. Brown being the only one who voted against the proposition. Governor Brown gives as the reason for his opposition that it is unconstitutional. Atty-Genl Hendricks that it is constitutional, and here we sit.

The Courier has long advocated this proposition, and believe that it will ultimately be the plan adopted. Public sentiment is growing so strong in its favor, that even if the Constitution now prevents, that instrument in time will be amended by the people to authorize and allow it.—Hickman Courier.

Caldwell County News.

(From the Banner.)

Mrs. Charles Morehead, formerly Miss Genevieve Anderson, died at the home of Rev. R. W. Morehead, of this place, last Friday night, after an illness of several weeks' duration.

Chas. Johnson, who gave himself up to the Lyon county official last week, was brought here Wednesday morning and placed in the Caldwell county jail for safe keeping. His trial will come up in the next term of Lyon Circuit Court, which will convene in May.

T. T. Martin and son-in-law, W. E. Peay, of Kuttawa, have purchased the Dr. King farm near Princeton and will come to this county to live. Mr. Peay moved to Princeton this week and now occupies the Jones residence in the north eastern section of town. Mr. Martin will not come here till in the fall but will spend the summer winding up his business at Kuttawa, where he owns a dry goods store. They cannot get possession of the farm now so Mr. Peay will live in Princeton and put out some Burley tobacco on the farm this spring. The price paid was $40 per acre.

The Cumberland Manufacturing Company which has been in operation at Edlyville for several years, are closing out their stock, preparatory to leaving Edlyville. We understand they have selected Baton Rouge, La., as the site for their new plant, and will operate their works with convict labor.

WILL PRESS THE BUTTON.

President Cleveland to Open the World's Fair.

Washington, March 31.—President Cleveland will open the World's Fair on the 1st day of May. He has definitely decided to do this, and will send his acceptance to the Chicago committee in a day or two. There has never been much doubt of his acceptance, but he withheld his promise to open the great exposition until he could have time to ascertain what effect upon his health the raid office-seekers was likely to have. He is now satisfied that he can afford to get away from Washington for a few days a month hence and push the button that starts the machinery of the world's greatest exposition running. Moreover, he is anxious to have the members of his Cabinet attend with him, and it is probable that all of them will be in Chicago on the opening day with many of the members of their families. It is not probable that Mrs. Cleveland will attend the ceremonies.

Impose the Income Tax.

Adam Smith stated the correct doctrine in regard to taxation when he declared that "the subjects of every State ought to contribute towards the support of government as nearly as possible in proportion to their respective abilities, that is, in proportion to the revenue which they respectively enjoy under the protection of the State.

For the past thirty years this plain and just principle has been ignored by our National Legislature, and by an ingenious system of indirect taxation the poorer classes have been made to bear far more than their just proportion of the cost of government, while the rich have been comparatively exempt.

To tax the poor man is to burden his business, to impair his power of production, limit his usefulness as a citizen and often to restrict his enjoyment of the necessities of life. To tax the incomes of the rich, after they reach a reasonable limit, is to exact tribute only from luxury, to take a percentage from needless accumulations and probably to limit vicious extravagance.

The former is weakened by the execution; the latter is strengthened. The imposition is an injury to the one; it is a benefit to the other. It is but simple justice to both.

This is to be a Democratic Administration. Its mission is to rectify inequalities and restore justice by an equitable readjustment of the burdens of government. It was to effect this long-needed reform that an overwhelming majority was given at the polls and the Democratic placed in control of the Legislature as well as executive department of the Government.

The object cannot be reached more directly and speedily than by the imposition of a graded income tax. Remove the burden from the necessary and put it on the superfluities. This is true Democracy, and it is simple justice.—New York World.

ROBERT A. MAYWELL.

FOURTH ASSISTANT POSTMASTER GENERAL.

Robert A. Maxwell, fourth Assistant Postmaster General, is an object of interest and fear to many officeholders by reason of the fact that he has the appointment of all the fourth class postmaster's throughout the country.

His appointment was a blow to Tammany and Governor Hill as Mr. Maxwell was a prominent Anti-Snapper and has always been a firm believer in Mr. Cleveland. He has for a long time taken an active interest in politics and until quite lately he was Insurance Commissioner for the State of New York, owing however to the hostility of Gov. Hill and Tammany, Governor Hoyer had to depose him although he had been a very efficient official.

THE CONVICT PROBLEM.

A Bill to Be Prepared That Will Probably Settle the State's Great Bugbear.

The convict problem for the State has about been settled. The Mason-Forde Co., refuses to renew their lease on the same terms and Sinking Fund Commissioners declined to make a new lease on the modified terms proposed by the company. A resolution offered by Attorney General Hendrick to work the convicts out on the county roads was adopted and recommended by the Board to the Legislature, as well as one presented by Auditor Norman for the feeding, clothing and guarding of the convicts at the State's expense and the leasing of the labor only by shops or gangs to few or many contractors who will put up their own machinery. The joint committee on Wednesday, having all the recommendations of the Sinking Fund Commissioners before them, unanimously voted in favor of a bill to be prepared at once, incorporating the suggestions of the Auditor's resolution. This plan, it is believed, will provide the remedy for the evils which have been in the past, whether justly or unjustly imputed to the lease system. It will cause the State's officers to be responsible for the feeding, clothing and guarding of the prisoners, save the State from the necessity now to make a heavy out lay for machinery, about balance the cost with the income, and by leasing the labor in shops or gangs, diversify the manufactures to such an extent as to virtually put at rest the old cry of the competition of convict with free labor.—Roundabout.

MONTHLY CROP REPORT.

Of Commissioner of Agriculture Labor and Statistics.

FRANKFORT, KY., March 21, '93.

The winter has been unusually severe, both on grain and stock. The fall grasses were all cut very short by the continued dry weather, and all kinds of stock had to be fed and cared for very early. Reports as to the wheat crop are very varied. It has had much to contend with from the time it was planted to the present. Though this fall the ground was so very dry that seeding was done with great difficulty. In many places the wheat was sown in dust, and in some instances did not germinate for more than thirty days, and of course, made very little growth for winter. The snow in the greater part of the State was great protection to the plant, being very tender; some farmers think that the crop was compromising the 20th of this month as it was the same time last year. Many farmers write very encouragingly that the hard winter is over; that their stock has come through the winter better than they expected, and that they have enough feed left to make their crop. The weather is fine for plowing now, and if it continues, the farm work will be well advanced. The condition of wheat is placed at 90 per cent.

OATS.

The oat crop is nearly all sown; the crop will be small. It ought to be good, as it was put in in good time. The acreage and condition I will give in my next report.

HEMP.

The hemp crop being broken out; the quality is reported very fine. The acreage is growing smaller every year. The comparative condition was given in a former report. The quality, as compared to last year, is 95 per cent.

HORSES AND MULES.

They have both wintered well; comparatively free from disease; some twenty counties report distemper, and one county (Ballard) reports some cases of glanders among the horses; but the authorities were very prompt to take steps to check the disease, having killed and burned several head, and it has entirely disappeared.

HOES.

From every county comes the same report as to the shortage of the hog crop. In my government report I asked as to the comparative number of blood sows, which was very considerably less than former years, as low as sixty per cent., which, of course, promises badly for a full crop this year. By care and attention and plenty of corn, stimulated by high prices, will make a difference in increasing the number. I have a very full report as to the quality of the hogs, but not as to the quantity; will try to be more specific next month, and get the amount of shortage. Cholera is reported in many counties; but the greatest complaint in the scarcity.

CATTLE.

The condition of cattle is reported good. No disease reported anywhere; the per cent, is placed at ninety-five. The number fed this year, as compared with former years, is placed at 90 per cent.

Very Respectfully,
NICHOLAS McDOWELL,
Commissioner.

THE GERM HAS REVIVED.

Cholera Reappears in Several Foreign Cities.

London, April 1.—The Easter holiday has begun in the shadow of the approaching cholera epidemic. In Russia the authorities have been forced to acknowledge the presence of the disease in several cities, and provinces which, according to all former official reports, has been unafflicted since December 1.

German and Austrian physicians returning from tours of the provinces in question, however, state that there has not been a day since last June when there was the slightest evidence that the cholera was suppressed in any government south of St. Petersburg. In fourteen governments of southern, southeastern, eastern and northeastern Russia the deaths have been numbered by the score every week for the last six months. These governments include within their boundaries most of the black earth region, the lands which are known as the granary of Russia. Hence to the horrors of epidemic has been added the appalling prospect of a return of the famine, with typhus and other fevers in its wake. An examination of the manner in which Europe has been lulled into a feeling of comparative security by false official reports is found in the recent conditions in the government of Podolia. The earnest has maintained persistently that Podolia was a clean province. Three Buda Pesth physicians who have just returned from the government which they visited in a semi-official capacity report that the number of deaths from cholera in January was between 100 and 400, in February somewhat more than 200.

A FRANK EXPRESSION.

Something About the Legislative Race.

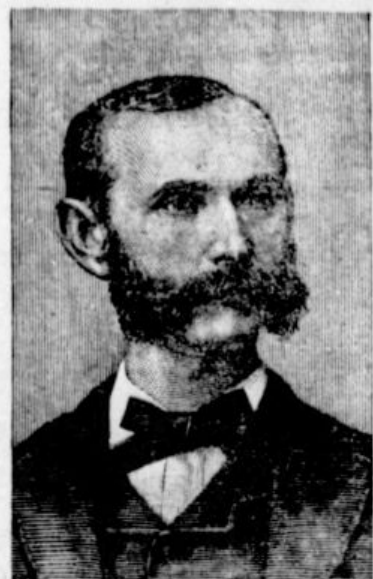

ERRON PRESS.—As the time for selecting a candidate for Representative in the next Legislature is approaching, the people's interests in the matter are being awakened. It is time to think of the man to be elected to this place. The remuneration of the office is not sufficient to pay a man to labor for the nomination and then for his election. Our interests in this matter are too great to let it go by default, hence, in my judgment, the thing to do is to call out a man, nominate and elect him. We need somebody with experience, if such can be found, and we need a sound, mature judgment. While I respect the ambition of all who aspire to this office, I feel that the work to be intrusted to a Representative is of too deep import, to be placed in the hands of any who may ask for it. We are too much given to the selection of any of our friends, and then grumbling, grumbling, continually grumbling because "the Legislature don't do something." "Public office is a public trust" and this one is too important to tender any man without serious consideration, hence I indicate these lines for no other purpose than to put the people to thinking. The Democratic party is held responsible for the legislation. If we do not elect representative men, it is our fault. We have them, and I will make the matter a little stronger by saying that if we do nominate a good man, a representative man, a capable man, a worthy man, and the other parties do, we ought to be snowed under. I know a man who, in my humble judgment fills the bill, and his name is F. M. Clement. Now this is simply one voter's opinion. Let us have a dozen expressions from as many neighborhoods. Let these opinions be sent to the Press and published. A DEMOCRAT.

A SICKENING TRAGEDY.

The Blackest Crime Known in the Annals of Western Kentucky.

News reached here yesterday of a crime without a parallel in this section of the State. It occurred Tuesday night on the road between Morganfield and Sturgis, and had the devil been there in person he could not have perpetrated a more cruel nor a bloodier affair. Miss Abbie Oliver, daughter of Taylor Oliver, a substantial citizen, accused Henry Dulaney, a young business man of Sturgis, of accomplishing her ruin. The father and brother of the girl made Dulaney promise to hide the shame, as far as possible, by marriage. About sundown Tuesday a surrey, in which were the girl's parents, herself and Dulaney, left Sturgis for Morganfield; they reached there, the marriage took place, and the party started to return to Sturgis. At a point on the road, armed men met the carriage, and at close range fired upon the occupants; the newly made bride was shot through the head and died instantly; her father was dangerously wounded. Dulaney left the vehicle unhurt, begging the attacking party not to harm the Oliver's. Mrs. Oliver, realizing the situation, took the reins and drove for life, while the attacking party followed and continued firing at the surrey. The frightened woman, with her dead daughter and badly wounded husband, succeeded in reaching a residence and the murderers fled. It is said that Mr. Oliver and his wife both recognized their would-be-murderers, and that they are well to do people. Great excitement prevails, and it is more than probable that a lynching party avenged the murder of Abbie Oliver last night. A gentleman from Sturgis was in Marion yesterday and said that business was practically suspended at that place and at Morganfield; nothing was being discussed but the terrible crime, and vengeance sure and swift was sure to overtake the murderers.

Commonwealth Attorney John L. Grayott finished his work for the present term of court and returned to his home at Smithland Monday. He made an excellent impression upon the people, and the bar speaks highly of his capabilities as a representative of the Commonwealth. He takes hold of the business with energy and determination, and his work shows that his legal lore is commensurate with the responsibilities of the office. He is an efficient officer, and when he becomes more conversant with the people and surroundings, he will be as successful as any Commonwealth Attorney in the State, and will be popular with the people. Those who might have entertained any doubt, on account of his age, as to his usefulness in the position, may dispense their fears, for Ed Noel, of the Evansville, Ky., Tuesday, March 28, at 7:30 p. m., and continued in session until Thursday evening. Tuesday was spent in an Elder's and Deacon's Association, in which several vital questions were discussed in a very practical way.

The opening sermon was preached by Rev. J. B. Garrett, one of our oldest ministers, from Psalm 43. We had a good representation of both ministers and elders.

Rev. W. J. Darby, D. D., and Rev. A. G. Bergen were with us and ably represented our Boards. Rev. J. B. Hill also was with us and gave us his stereopticon views of Japan and lecture on the same.

An order was made for the organization of a new congregation in the Good Spring neighborhood, which was formerly a part of the Bethlehem Congregation. The latter congregation has assisted them in building a good church house and has helped to keep them supplied with the gospel the last few years.

Licentiate G. L. Woodruff was ordained, Rev. A. G. Bergen preaching the ordination sermon and Rev. B. T. Watson presiding and giving the charge.

The following are the commissioners to the General Assembly Ministers: J. F. Price, Principal; B. T. Watson, Alternate; Elders—J. S. G. Green, Principal; I. L. Traylor, Alternate.

A committee was appointed to consider the advisability of grouping the churches into pastorates. Wednesday evening was spent in the discussion of Sunday school topics. Thursday afternoon was devoted to missions. The Committee on Theological Endowment reported that this Presbytery had been apportioned $400 and that we had paid nearly $1400, J. D. Leech and mother contributing $1000 of this.

Weston was selected as the place for the next meeting of Presbytery. The interest and work of the Presbytery was good throughout. The Bethlehem community did all that could be asked in entertaining the delegates and making their stay pleasant. Even nature smiled and every thing seemed to contribute to make it a delightful meeting.

Princeton Presbytery.

Princeton Presbytery of the C. P. church met at Bethlehem, Ky., Tuesday, March 28, at 7:30 p. m., and continued in session until Thursday evening. Tuesday was spent in an Elder's and Deacon's Association, in which several vital questions were discussed in a very practical way.

The opening sermon was preached by Rev. J. B. Garrett, one of our oldest ministers, from Psalm 43. We had a good representation of both ministers and elders.

Rev. W. J. Darby, D. D., and Rev. A. G. Bergen were with us and ably represented our Boards. Rev. J. B. Hill also was with us and gave us his stereopticon views of Japan and lecture on the same.

An order was made for the organization of a new congregation in the Good Spring neighborhood, which was formerly a part of the Bethlehem Congregation. The latter congregation has assisted them in building a good church house and has helped to keep them supplied with the gospel the last few years.

Licentiate G. L. Woodruff was ordained, Rev. A. G. Bergen preaching the ordination sermon and Rev. B. T. Watson presiding and giving the charge.

The following are the commissioners to the General Assembly Ministers: J. F. Price, Principal; B. T. Watson, Alternate; Elders—J. S. G. Green, Principal; I. L. Traylor, Alternate.

A committee was appointed to consider the advisability of grouping the churches into pastorates. Wednesday evening was spent in the discussion of Sunday school topics. Thursday afternoon was devoted to missions. The Committee on Theological Endowment reported that this Presbytery had been apportioned $400 and that we had paid nearly $1400, J. D. Leech and mother contributing $1000 of this.

Weston was selected as the place for the next meeting of Presbytery. The interest and work of the Presbytery was good throughout. The Bethlehem community did all that could be asked in entertaining the delegates and making their stay pleasant. Even nature smiled and every thing seemed to contribute to make it a delightful meeting.

A Serious Accident.

Last night an accident occurred at Fredonia that may cost two people their lives. In the home of Mr. Dave Byrd, the well known merchant, a lamp was accidentally overturned by his daughter. From the flames the father and daughter in some way caught fire, and it is feared were fatally burned. Mrs. Byrd was also badly burned. The full particulars could not be learned.

ANOTHER DAMAGE SUIT.

Miss Sallie Moore sues L. W. Cruce for $10,000.

Everybody knows about the mysterious disappearance of Miss Sallie Moore in New York some weeks ago; how the detectives and newspaper reporters hunted and hunted the girl, and ran her from place to place. She is at Lancaster, Pa., and is a mother. Yesterday she and her statutory guardian, Mr. G. E. Boston, of this place, filed suit against Mr. L. W. Cruce, a prominent young farmer of this county, asking for damages in the sum of $10,000. The petition alleges that Miss Moore and Mr. Cruce were engaged to be married, and that during that engagement Miss Moore was seduced by the defendant, who afterwards failed and refused to carry out his marriage contract, she therefore prays for $10,000 and all proper relief.

Within the past ten days unimproved real estate in Marion has been active. R. C. Walker has sold a dozen town lots to parties who expect to build residences on them. Belleville and Depot streets will both be extended eastward of town, and some very beautiful building sites put on the market. For the past few years the growth of Marion has been towards and beyond the railroad, which runs through the eastern suburbs. The Carnahan tract of land in that vicinity is now on the market and several lots have been sold. Among those who have purchased lots are J. N. Clark, J. H. Clark, J. F. Dodge, H. V. Stone, H. C. Moore, H. H. Hodge, D. B. Moore, Geo. Wilson and J. G. Rochester. A number of other parties talk of buying, and in a very few years that will be the beautiful part of Marion.

BETTER THAN GOLD.

Crittenden County Bonds Go Like Hot Cakes at Six Per Cent. Interest.

Last Saturday Messrs. J. A. Moore and D. Woods, commissioners, offered for sale, at the court house door, seventeen $500 Crittenden county bonds, bearing six per cent. interest payable semi-annually, redeemable after two years, but they may run ten years. The bonds were first offered one at a time, and then the entire lot was put up. The first bid for the first $500 bond was $501; then in a jiffy the bid was $502; then about as fast as a dollar could be counted, it went to $505; at this notch it hung for a few moments, when W. M. Balb bid $506. The bond was knocked off to him. The next one offered went through about the same process and was set down opposite Mr. Balb's name. The first bid on the third bond was made by the Marion Bank, and was $504; P. S. Maxwell quickly made it $505. His bid got the bond. Mr. Maxwell then started each of the other bonds, as they were offered, at those figures, and the fifteen were knocked off at his bid. Thus the premium on the entire lot, as sold separately, was $87. The seventeen bonds, aggregating $8,500, were then offered as a whole. The first bid was $8,600; other bids followed fast and furious. Finally the only bidders left in the field were Maxwell and Carnahan, and the bidding was lively. Sometimes it would be a dollar and then it would jump to ten. The crowd enjoyed the fun and the bidders stiffened up to business. In about ten minutes Carnahan's bid was $9,010 for $8,500, face value, Crittenden county bonds. Maxwell retired from the field, and Carnahan had the paper. The premium paid, $510, amounts to just one year's interest. This is the first time in her history the county has ever put any bonds on the market, and we can justly feel proud of the price they brought.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Some Well Known Citizens Pass Away.

On last Friday evening Mr. John Woods, brother of Mr. D. Woods, of this place, died at his home at Grand Rivers. He died of pneumonia. He was thirty-seven years old, a good man and a good citizen. He was well known in Crittenden and Livingston counties; at Marion he had many friends. His genial disposition, courteous ways and warm heart made him fast friends. His remains were buried in the family cemetery in Livingston county Saturday.

Mrs. Jesse O. Charles died at her home near Dycusburg, Friday. Her maiden name was Shadowen; she was a true woman, a faithful wife and a loving mother. Her death was peculiarly sad, as she leaves seven children, all of whom are young. The husband and children have the deepest sympathy of the community in which she lived and was so highly prized.

Mr. Thos. Simpson died very suddenly at his farm near Tolu Friday. He lives in Evansville, but owns a large farm on Hurricane Island, this county. Friday he was in the field with a number of hands who were at work. He was seen to fall, and when approached, he breathed for a moment and then was dead.

Monday Mrs. J. H. Walker, of this place, received a telegram announcing the death of her sister, Miss Mary Gregory, at her home in Atlanta, Ga. Miss Gregory died Monday morning after a few hours illness of erysipelas. She was well known in Marion, having lived here several years ago. She was highly esteemed by her many friends here, and her death is deeply regretted. She was a refined, lovable woman.

The death of W. E. Weldon, last Thursday morning, removed one of the best citizens of the county from the active ranks of life. No man commanded greater respect and none deserved more than Wm Weldon.

IN TROUBLE.

A Young Man In a Bad Scrape.

Some weeks ago Mr. A. M. Straub, a printer, who had been engaged on the Monitor for several months, left Marion, and it appears from recent developments that he left his affairs in a rather tangled shape for his own good name. The matter was freely discussed on the streets at the time, but as he had borne a good reputation, the matter was kept out of the papers until the affair had fully developed, and he had ample time to unangle the skein. He was the financial officer of the A. O. U. W. lodge of this place, and it is now stated by the order that he is short in his accounts to the amount of $30 or $40. He owed various persons in and around town various amounts, some of which debts were contacted a few days before he left. He left a few dollars in the bank, and parties who endorsed for the money in bank belong to the lodge. A suit will settle the matter. Two weeks ago he was expelled from the A. O. U. W. lodge. The lodge it is said by the members will not stop at expulsion, but will endeavor to have him brought back and prosecuted for embezzlement. He is a young man of pleasant address, affable manners, and the press is loath to believe that his intentions were to defraud anybody. He was not extravagant in his habits, and just how he managed to get behind in money affairs is not known. It is said, however, that he played cards, and it is conjectured that by this means he was swamped.

Grand Master Workman Harris.

Grand Master Workman of the A. O. U. W. W. Harris, of Ashland, Ky., is in town. He came to look after the suit now pending in court against the order for the collection of the insurance policy of the late Mr. S. C. Haynes. Mr. Harris delivered a lecture at the Opera House, Tuesday night, on the object, aims and benefits of the order. A large audience of representative people of Marion listened to his instructive and entertaining talk. He spoke of the insurance feature of the order, but dwelt longer upon its fraternal advantages. The A. O. U. W. is one of the strongest and best fraternal orders in the country. It has paid out in the way of insurance, more than $45,000,000, and the rate of benefits disbursed to families of deceased brethren, is now about $2,000 every hour, and the fraternal spirit that characterizes the membership is excelled by none of the orders. The lodge in Marion is growing and has in its membership some of our best citizens.

Dr. W. M. Carter, optician specialist, will be in Marion, Ky., at Dr. Swope's office, April 18 and 19. He will examine eyes for all errors of refraction, and adjust glasses; examination free.
