NATIONAL NEWS.

The following morning, April 3rd, the remains of the late Cap. John J. Davis, of the Illinois store in Cave-in-Rock, were removed to the family vault in the town.

Three Friends Married in an Arlington home.

Mrs. F. W. B. Pursley, with her daughter, Miss Ida C. Pursley, and Miss Nettie F. Pursley, were married on Saturday, April 4th, in the presence of a large number of cordial friends.

The wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. B. Pursley, in Arlington, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the Rev. Mr. C. H. Pursley officiating.

The marriage was a simple and heart-felt union of two young and promising lives, and was witnessed by many who were sure to witness many similar occasions in the future.

The bride and groom left by train late in the afternoon, and were welcomed home by a large number of their friends and acquaintances.
