ABSOLUTELY PURE

THE NEWS.

The statement is made that in a few days the Mugump candidate for Governor of New York will be withdrawn.

Diphtheria is raging in Illinois opposite Caseyville, Kentucky. Some early deaths have occurred within the last week.

The war department has refused to place troops on duty in the Indian Territory without an order from the President.

A dispatch from Yokohama, Japan says an earthquake has destroyed 3,000 houses and as far as known 250 lives are lost.

The steamer Paris from New York to Southampton, collided with a bark during a storm, and the latter went to the bottom with all on board.

The commissioner of Indian affairs has received notice of what promises to be serious Indian trouble at the Navajo Indian agency in Arizona.

For two years there has existed in Sevier county, Tenn., a large organization of white caps, and in a fight last week two of the cappers were killed.

Daniel McClinton, of Columbus, Indiana, the defeated Democratic candidate for county auditor, committed suicide last week by taking a dose of poison.

Mrs. Mary Woodbridge, national and world's secretary of the W. C. T. U., was stricken with apoplexy last week at Chicago, and is not expected to recover. She has done a vast deal of good in the cause.

The Georgia Legislature convened last week and there is said to be a strong feeling among the members favorable to the election of Speaker Crisp to the Senate.

Efforts are being made to bring the Eastern war to a close. China is willing to make peace on fair terms, and Japan seems in no hurry to enter into negotiations looking to this end.

Sam Reek, an Italian laborer at a stone quarry near Bowling Green, Ky., last week shot his wife and seven year old daughter. The wife is dead and the daughter can not recover.

A proposition has been made to Corbett and Fitzsimmons to have their fight come off in Mexico, where there would be no danger of interference. A purse of $50,000 will be raised.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 26.—Lashed on by a furious wind, the prairie fires that are now raging in the northwestern part of the State are traveling with almost lightning like rapidity and the flames are consuming everything in their track.

While en route from New York to Washington last week the President was closely guarded by three Pinkerton detectives. This step was deemed necessary to guard him from a possible assault by cranks.

Two farmers named Lee Webber and Thos. Thompson, leaving near Ellendale, Mo., had a fight. Thompson stabbed Webber over the heart, and himself received a fractured skull from brass knuckles in the hands of his antagonist.

Capt. Robert B. Pogram, formerly in the United States and Confederate navies, died at Norfolk, Va., aged 89 years. He was in the expedition to Japan in 1852, and in 1855 commanded the American forces that united with the English in operating against the pirates in Chinese waters.

A dispatch from Neosho, Mo. says: E. W. Knotts, while cleaning out a sulphur spring today, found a petrified man, with every part of the body perfect except the stomach. The body was over six feet long, and is supposed to have been buried during the late war.

Last week while President Cleveland was stopping at the residence of Dr. Bryant in New York city, a crank named Goerdeler called and demanded an interview with the President. This is the same fellow who some time ago challenged the Emperor of Germany to fight a duel. He was finally persuaded to leave.

A dispatch from Muscogee, Indian Territory, says: The Cook gang is headed for the mountains in the western part of the nation, with the Indian police, Indian sheriffs, and United States Marshals in close pursuit. As heavy rewards are offered for the leaders of the gang, dead or alive, it is believed that they will be captured soon.

THE NEXT SENATE.

Political Questions Now Attracting Most Attention.

SENATORS WHOSE TERMS EXPIRE.

Washington, October 26.—The election of United States Senators to succeed the Senators whose terms expire the 4th of next March is attracting much attention in political circles in this city. Except in the cases where Senators have already been chosen for the term beginning on the 4th of March next, the legislatures which are to meet next winter will perform this service. Barring unusual circumstances there will be 33 Senators to be sworn in on the 4th of March, including those who will succeed the 30 whose terms will expire on that date, and one each from the States which failed to elect when they should have done so in accordance with law two years ago. Of these, six Senators have already been sworn, viz: Donelson Caffery, of Louisiana, to succeed himself; John H. Gear, of Iowa, to succeed James F. Wilson; Wm. Lindsay, to succeed himself; S. Martin, of Virginia, to succeed Eppa Hunton; G. P. Wetmore, of Rhode Island, to succeed N. F. Dixon; E. C. Walthall, of Mississippi, to succeed himself.

In none of the above instances has there been a change in politics. Of the remaining 24 Senators of the regular list, whose terms expire in 1895, Senators Berry, of Arkansas, Butler, of South Carolina, Camden, of West Virginia, Coke of Texas, Harris of Tennessee, Martin of Kansas, McPherson of New Jersey, Morgan of Alabama, Ransom of North Carolina, and Walsh of Georgia (10) are Democrats, and Senators Carey of Wyoming, Chandler of New Hampshire, Cullum of Illinois, Dalm of Oregon, Frye of Maine, Higgins of Delaware, Hoar of Mass., Manderson of Nebraska, McMillan of Michigan, Pettigrew of South Dakota, Power of Montana, Shoop of Idaho, Washburn of Minnesota, and Walcott of Colorado (14) are Republicans.

The terms of none of the Populist Senators will expire in 1895. Senator Coke and McPherson have announced that they will not stand as candidates for re-election. Owing to the failure to elect in 1893, and to the fact that the terms of Senators Carey and Power expire in 1895, Wyoming and Montana will each elect two Senators this winter, and owing to a like failure to elect in Washington, that State will elect one, though his term and the Senator from each of the other two States should have been elected in 1893, will cover only four years. The first election in Utah can not occur until November of next year, so that the election of Senators from that soon to be State, can not take place before the following winter.

MADE A CONFESSION.

Chief Conspirator of the Grand Trunk Railway Wreck in Court.

Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 26.—John Bodewig, the alleged chief conspirator of the Grand Trunk express train wreck of last July, has made a sensational confession regarding that affair. Bodewig was used as a witness yesterday, in the examination of Geo. W. Johnson, another alleged wrecker. Bodewig's story seems to implicate Johnson. Hall, Knowles, Jewett and Vedder.

He admits that on July 10 he and Knowles stole the clawbar with which the flatcars were removed from the track. Between that date and the 15th he talked with several about it, including those now under arrest. He testified, however, that none of the American Railway Union leaders advised any violence as a means of winning the strike. Johnson's examination was adjourned to November 21. It is now rumored that Johnson will divulge who his assistants in the job were.

PANIC ON A BOAT.

Terrible Experience of Sunday Excursionists.

Evansville, Ind. Oct. 29.—The 10 cent excursions given by El. Morris yesterday on the steamer D. A. Nisbet and excursion barge wound up last evening with a tragedy.

The steamer Nisbet left Henderson on her last trip last evening, about 7:40 o'clock with about one hundred passengers, among whom were several young men who came on board the boat considerably under the influence of liquor.

After the departure of the steamer from Henderson they drank freely of beer, and were soon in a ripe condition for trouble; when the boat was passing through what is known as the big eddy, opposite Howell and about two miles below this city, Bert Wilson and a man named Swatts got into a quarrel, which resulted in a general fight and finally ended by Wilson losing his life; when the boat landed at the wharf the passengers soon circulated the news of Wilson falling overboard and drowning.

Mr. George Peck, who was one of the passengers, gives the following particulars: "Wilson was quarreling all the way up and seemed determined to get into trouble. Shortly after leaving Henderson he slapped a woman in the face. A short time after this trouble he struck a little boy a violent blow in the face.

"As we were nearly opposite Howell he created a panic in the boat by getting into a fight with Clarence Applegate. He struck Applegate a vicious blow on the nose, then drew a knife on him. The knife did not appear to be as mean a weapon as he desired and he grabbed an axe and started after Applegate. Then a general fight ensued in which the latter was pretty badly done up; and when the scrapping match ended Wilson ran out on the forward end of the barge and they say he fell overboard and was drowned."

WRECKED BY ROBBERS.

Farmers National Bank of Malvern, La. Raided.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Oct. 26.—The Farmers National Bank of Malvern, a town about forty miles south from here, was wrecked and looted by robbers about 3 a. m. The vault and the safe inside of the vault were blown to pieces, the concussion completely wrecking the inside fixtures of the building. Three distinct explosions were heard, the third awakening residents in the neighborhood, who arose and repaired to the scene, but did not arrive until the robbers had flown. Some of the money was found in the street and some bills and securities were found in the debris by the bank officials. Not until the wreckage is cleared up can the exact loss be known but it is estimated that the robbers got away with between $10,000 and $20,000. The country is being searched for miles around for the robbers. The bank officers state that the depositors will lose nothing, the bank sustaining all the loss.

EXCITEMENT IN PADUCAH.

An Attempt to Shoot Green, the Old Rapist.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 28.—William Green, the merchant charged with raping the 9 year old daughter of Max Stromberg Monday afternoon was held to answer to the grand jury without bail. His preliminary trial was concluded today at noon and there is much excitement.

The mother of the victim attempted to shoot Green on the street while he was being carried to jail. A mob also gathered, but the prisoner was landed in jail in time to prevent any violence.

Green is 58 years old, a prominent member of the Presbyterian church, and the father of 17 children.

It is reasonable to suppose that as Ayer's Sarsaparilla has benefited others it will benefit you. No other medicine is so effective in producing a radical change in the blood and imparting renewed life and energy to the whole system, both nervous and physical.

Ayer's Pills are an invaluable remedy for all diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels. This medicine should be kept in every family.

FRIGHTFUL HOLOCAUST.

Twelve Persons Lose their Lives in a Hotel Fire.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 27.—A fire which resulted certainly in 12 deaths and the injury of three persons broke out in a hotel here tonight. The fire broke out so suddenly and so fiercely that the occupants were taken by surprise and there was a wild panic, men and women jumping from the windows in all manner of attire. A sharp report was heard in the kitchen in the rear part of the second story, and immediately the flames began to spread rapidly through the dry inner timber of the corrugated iron building, that is one of a range of two story structures. The house was crowded with guests and a rush for life followed. It was not any too soon for the flames were rushing through the long narrow halls like invading soldiers attacking a city.

In the meantime officer F. E. Bryant had discovered the flames and turned in an alarm which brought the fire department to the scene. Then he turned his attention to saving the people who appeared at every window with the flames fast creeping upon them from behind. He found Mrs. Susie Allen and her two year old child at a window on the west street side, the woman crying for some one to save the child. "Drop the child," shouted the officer. She did so and he caught it safely in his arms. Despatching it on the ground he snatched a plank and set it against a window. The woman slid down it and experienced no further injury than a few scratches. W. F. Butler, proprietor of the hotel, was in bed when the fire occurred and escaped in scanty attire. His son, who was night clerk, says the fire undoubtedly originated from a kerosene lamp in the kitchen, which was located on the upper floor near the rear wall.

One poor fellow, whose identity is unknown, was caught in the rush of the conflagration near the west street stairway and sank down, overcome with the smoke and flame. The firemen fought to keep the fire away from his body, but he was killed. When last seen the victim's right arm had been burned to a blackened cinder.

The Burning Well.

"On the land of a farmer five miles east of Crab Orchard, Ky., near the village of Gum Sulphur, is a well which is a great wonder to those who have visited it," says a correspondent of the Chicago Herald. "It is known as the burning well, a name appropriately given, for its waters, although clear, limpid and drinkable, are as inflammable as naphtha. This well is about 15 feet deep, extending down through a strata of slate rock. It contains a wooden stock pump, and the water, as it comes cold and sparkling from the well, has no odor about it. It has a mineral taste, and is exceedingly pleasant to drink. Yet a dipper full of it coming in contact with a flame will take fire, blazing up like gunpowder. The well's discovery, if the natives tell a true story, was remarkable. A party of excursionists from the springs here went out in that section in quest of ferns, fossils and the like, and on their return they found the well and stopped to get a drink. An old lady living near by brought a bucket and filled it with the refreshing fluid for thirsty ramblers, and after they had drank she poured the remainder on the ground, near to the well. Just at this instant a young man of the party lighted a cigarette and threw the match heedlessly to the ground. It chanced to fall into the poured out water, which took fire and flashed up, amazing and frightening the whole party. At the suggestion of one of the onlookers more water was drawn, and to the wonder of all, it took fire as readily as an explosive, scorching the face and eyebrows of the rash experimenter who held the match. The old lady's family has for years been using water out of the well perfectly ignorant of its properties. Hundreds of people from various portions of this and other States have visited this section and drunk of the well, as well as tested the inflammability of its waters.

Madisonville Hustler: From some cause, unknown to us, it seems that the average school patrons of Kentucky are ashamed to be found visiting the schools where their children are being taught. We judge simply from the fact that it is a rare thing that a patron visits the school, unless it is for the purpose of laying out the teachers. The hog pen, the calf lot, the sheep fold, seem to be a greater attraction than the school house. Patrons would find that if they would visit the schools more that both the teachers and pupils would do much better.

MRS. LYNN BOYD DEAD.

Called From Life This Morning After a Brief Illness, at the Age of 82 Years.

Mrs. Ann L. Boyd, the aged widow of Hon. Lynn Boyd, one of Kentucky's most distinguished statesmen, died at 9:45 o'clock this morning at the old Boyd home in Arcadia, near Broadway road, and a short distance beyond the city limits. She had been ill for six days with pneumonia, brought on by a chill and had cold. Her death had been momentarily expected for the past forty-eight hours. Mrs. Boyd was 82 years old. She left one son, Rhey Boyd, of this city, a step son, Mr. Butler Boyd, of Clarksville, Tenn., and a sister, Miss Margaret Rhey. The two latter have been telegraphed.

Services over the deceased will be held Monday morning at 9 o'clock at her late residence. Later the remains will be taken to Ebersburg, Pa., her birthplace and former home, to be interred in the old church yard cemetery where generations of her ancestors are buried. Rev. Father Jansen, of St. Francis De Sales church, to which Mrs. Boyd belonged, will conduct the funeral here.

Mrs. Boyd, whose maiden name was Rhea, was born July 11, 1812, at Ebersburg, Pa. In 1850 she married Hon. Lynn Boyd, then a member of congress from this district, when he represented many years. For two terms her husband was speaker of the house of representatives. She was his second wife, and prior to their union she had been one of the leading society women of Washington. She was a niece of President Millard Fillmore and during one winter as lady of the white house did the honors of the executive mansion. In 1859, while lieutenant governor of Kentucky, the Hon. Lynn Boyd died and she was buried at Oak Grove. His relict has lived at the place he built ever since. She was a devout Catholic.—Paducah News.

Religion in the Home.

We extract the following truthful recently delivered in a sermon, Rev. Dr. Robert J. Willingham, in charge of the eight missionaries, en route to China and Japan:

"If I want to know how truly religious you are, I will go to your home. Children and servants know better than pastor or deacon. God is the author of the family relation. God instituted the family before He did the church, and it is the basis of the church. God placed man as the head of the family and woman as the heart—the throbbing heart. God put children into the home, with tender, impressionable hearts. This is the molding time God now gives to you in the home. Now there are different kinds of homes. There is a home where those who live in it seem to have learned what Spurgeon said: 'If you would have a home keep out dirt, debt and the devil.' I believe there are some christian homes where the devil comes in, and while you wait the devil with a smile and sweet voice puts impressions in the heart of your loved ones that train them to the black pool of darkness outside. Then there is another kind, beautiful, elegant, everything a la mode, but not a home. It's a reception place, where boys are a nuisance and girls a care. It takes a heart to make a home. Where there is no heart there never was a home.

"Now is the time we have to make impressions. Your boy is here today; you may not have him next year. God gives you the opportunity when it is easiest, most securely done; whose will be the fault if it is not done now? O father, with that bright boy looking in your eyes, with that girl you would give your life for, where are you leading them? O mothers, gentle, tender, loving mothers, where are you leading your children? Is your house going heavenward? O hick! hick! leading into the eternal."

In Cold Blood.

Smithville, Texas, Oct. 25.—As the result of a shooting here a white man and a negro lie ready for the grave. Frank Scott, a negro school teacher, and Al Chappell, a negro gambler, have long been at loggerheads, and this morning they met, when Scott fired at Chappell, missing him.

Chappell then caught hold of Ed. Turner, a railroad brakeman, and he'd him in front of him, but Scott shot Turner above the heart, killing him instantly. Scott then walked up to Chappell and shot him through the lungs, from which he died in about five minutes. Scott made no attempt to escape, and as feeling for a time ran high, was taken to Bastrop, where he is now in jail.

THE READY LASSO.

How it is the Cowboy Can Hit Mark Every Time.

"The cowboys of New Mexico, Texas and Arizona, are all skilled in the use of the lasso," said Louis Edwards of Santa Fe. "I used to be in the ranching line myself, and once supposed I could throw a rope as stright as any man living. But that was before I mixed to any extent with the Mexicans. As good as the American cowboys are they can't hold a candle to a greater when it comes to the roping business. They can do things with hemp that no other mortals can ever hope to accomplish. As the Australian stands forth pre-eminently in the throwing of the boomerang, so does the ignorant son of the 'land of God and liberty' excel all other men in this one accomplishment.

"A Mexican will chase a steer at full speed and while he guides his broncho with one hand while his rope with unerring aim with the other, and it isn't once in a thousand times that the noose will fail to catch just where the rider meant. A favorite trick of theirs is to stick a lot of long handled knives in the ground close together, within the limits of a narrow circle, and bet with outsiders that they can ride past at racehorse speed and pick up any one of the knives designated with a rope. They are good marksmen with the rifle, too, but in this regard our cowboys are fully their peers."

To Get Eggs in Winter.

To get eggs in winter, says Mirror and Farmer, one must go to an extra expense, and be willing to use every effort to have the hens under the best conditions for laying. The food is important, but it is not the food alone that makes the hens lay. Confinement is as important as food to human beings, and whether fed well or not, they will fail to give good results if kept shut up in close quarters during a long and tedious winter. Fowls are naturally full of activity, and delight in roaming over the fields in search of food, which not only affords exercise, but makes them contented and puts them in the best possible condition for laying.

When the snow covers the ground the fowls are compelled to remain in their quarters, because they are not adapted to locomotion in deep snows, and the gloomy days and dark quarters affect them the same as though they were prisoners within the walls of a building from which there is no escape. The hens do not lay because it is not their season of the year for reproducing their kind, and because the conditions are not such as to promote egg production. The question comes up in regard to the poultry houses. As a rule they are too small. Notice a flock of hens that have an opportunity on a large barn floor on a cold winter day and it will not be difficult to observe that their actions are very different from their conduct in the small poultry house.

ONE YEAR ONE DOLLAR

Twenty men were tried at Helena, Ark., on the charge of being white chaps and acquitted.

A fire in East St. Louis Monday night destroyed seventy cars in the yards of the St. Louis Terminal Railway.

If you fail to go to the polls and vote, don't whine after the election because some of your favorite candidates are defeated.

The registration of Chicago is this year six thousand more than the city of New York; whereas the modern Sodom is jubilant.

The earth has been quaking again in South America and California. Those would be fine countries to shake the chills out of a fellow.

It is stated that Secretary Carlisle will take the stump this week, both in New York and Indiana, if he can possibly get away from the Treasury department. His friends say he is anxious to mingle in the fray.

One of the most sacred inheritances confided to our people is the ballot. It is the palladium of our liberties, the sheet-anchor of all our future hopes, and the man who fails to exercise this privilege is unworthy the name of freeman.

If the prospecting continues to prove successful, it will not be long until every neighborhood in Crittenden county is burning coal from its own mines. As it is now, one mine in the county furnishes the best grate coal in the country.

It is stated that the reason President Cleveland failed to register when in New York city recently, was the uncertainty as to his legal right to vote there. Prominent lawyers have advised him that he has no legal status as a citizen of New York. At least that is the story his friends tell.

The Democrats of both New York city and State are jubilant over the heavy registration, which they contend indicates victory for the Democracy. As the day of battle approaches the ardor of each party increases, and what the outcome will be, no man knows.

Would it not have been a graceful as well as gracious thing for President Cleveland to have said a few words herculean task he has undertaken to save the life of the Democratic party in the State of New York. The devil is not so black as he is painted, and there are worse Democrats than David B. Hill.

The government has offered a reward for the Cook gang of desperadoes in the Indian Territory dead or alive, and this has resulted in a large number of deputies and private parties going into the field as searching parties for these blood-thirsty miscreants. Their capture and extermination seems a mere question of time.

The Democracy of Crittenden has presented a splendid ticket to the voters of the county. There is not a man on the ticket against whose private life aught can be said, and not one who is not eminently qualified to fill the office he seeks. A stronger ticket has rarely, if ever, been placed in the field, and it only requires united action on the part of the Democracy to win this race.

Miss Wheeler, the county superintendent, is writing some entertaining letters for the Press. Trustees and patrons, as well as teachers and pupils, will find food for thought in her criticisms of the various schools. A teacher of long and varied experience her suggestions come from one trained to think about school work in all its phases, and are not the passing thoughts of a novice.

John Hendricks went to the front in the Kentucky Senate, and as a result of good judgment, his energy, and his indomitable courage, the state is now blessed with some reforms and rid of some evils. In the halls of congress John Hendricks will likewise make his mark, and his work will be on the side of the people. He will make a courageous, conscientious, industrious, faithful congressman. Let no Democrat fail to vote for him.

Somehow, bold aggressiveness always commands the admiration of the American people, and the fight that Senator Hill is now making for the Governorship of New York is no exception to the rule. Confronted by a compact and confident opposition, hampered by internal dissensions within his own party, he yet moves serenely onward in his canvass, presaging victory at all points, and striking such blows as but few men can counter. Even the bitterest enemy of David B. Hill can not but admire his magnificent courage and audacity.

By an extension of the city limits the population of Paducah has been increased from 2600 to 3000.

A CARD FROM MR. WOODS.

The following card from Mr. D. Woods is self-explanatory. Under the circumstances as narrated we fail to see how the incident could be regarded in any other light than as an act of pure christian charity. It was an act eminently characteristic of Dave Woods the christian gentleman, and not Dave Woods the candidate seeking votes for office. Read the card:

EDITOR PRESS: During my canvass some weeks ago I stopped at a cabin on the Fredonia and Dycusburg road, and found that Charles Burklow lived there, and also found him, his wife and child sick, which was all of his family. Charley said he had been down three weeks and did not know how much longer he might be down; said that he made his living by his daily labor. I asked him if he had sufficient supplies and he replied that he had none, only such as the neighbors gave him. He further stated that he had not a cent in money. I then told him he ought by all means to have a little money, to supply such things as a sick man should have, or might need, that his neighbors could not supply; and then I told him I considered his case truly an object of charity, and I felt that it was my christian duty to aid him, and did give him $1.50; and I don't care what my enemies may say about my act, I consider that I have done a charitable act in the sight of God and man, and only regret that I was not able to have given him more; and under the same circumstances would to the same thing again. I did not at the time know whose premises Burklow was living on, nor do I care. If some of the gentlemen who are having so much to say about this act of mine had a little more of the spirit of true charity in their own hearts they would certainly not be beating an evil construction on my act.

Respectfully,
D. WOODS.

The Japanese armies seem to have effected a secure lodgment across the Yalu river in northern China, and to be slowly but surely forcing their way toward Peking. With all its immense superiority in numbers and resources, the Chinese have got decidedly the worst of the fight, and if the foreign powers do not interfere, Japan may yet dictate terms of peace within the walls of the Chinese capital. The good generalship, fine equipment and esprit du corps of the Japanese have proven too much for the poor equipment, bad generalship and unquestioned treachery with which the Chinese armies have hitherto had to contend. The soldiers of China are brave, and will fight hard, but they are not the best of it. Naturally the sympathies of our people are with the Japs, who are avowedly waging this war in the interest of progress and civilization.

An Indianapolis dispatch of October 29 says: "Henry W. Bennett, Treasurer of the Republican County Central Committee, and President of the Indianapolis Stove Company, employing several hundred hands, in an interview says that he has within the past week advanced the wages of his employees 5 per cent., in justice to the men. The advance has been caused by a revival in business." These continued advances in wages throughout the country, and the business prosperity everywhere prevalent, are sad drawbacks to our Republican brethren on the eve of an important general election, and effectually muzzles the throats of those calamity howlers who have been predicting a perfect Pandora's box of evils to flow forth upon the country as a result of the passage of the Wilson bill.

Monday's Courier-Journal presents a rosy outlook for the Democrats from all parts of the country. There is no question but that the general revival of business, the starting up of idle manufacturing, and the general and sweeping reduction in the necessities of life caused by the passage of the Wilson tariff bill, are bearing their legitimate fruit among the masses, and that the Democratic skies are brightening from all points of the horizon. Three months ago the trend of public sentiment was unquestionably against the Democracy, but now the tide flows strongly in our favor, and the Press has but little, if any doubt that the Democrats will return a good working majority to the lower house of Congress.

Our Republican brethren are just now having a hard row to hoe. The country is prospering and to prosper, notwithstanding their predictions to the contrary, new industries are starting up, the wages of employees are being increased, and now, to cap the climax, they have been enjoined from using the eagle as a device for their ballots; Judge Helm, of Newport, Ky., deciding that as the eagle is the national emblem it can not be so used. Better taken the coon as their device—a black one would be the most appropriate.

As far as the county campaign is concerned there has been but little to fire the partisan spirit. The candidates, as well as the people, have retained their equilibrium with an equanimity that would astonish an old time fighter.

Smithland has voted a tax for a graded school. Good.

Press of public business causes Carlisle to decline to speak.

In Louisville there are 8,000 colored and only 4,000 white Republican voters.

The First district never had a more capable man of the ticket than John Hendrick.

The factory whistle of Pontiac gave Vice President Stevenson a rattling welcome to that city.

The people who want peace in the Bells Mines country are determined to have it, even if they have to continue to fight for it.

There is one part of the Administration that has not been infected with Mugwumpery, and that is the Vice President. Harrah for Adlai and his half a dozen speeches a day.

Some six years ago David B. Hill was accused of stabbing Cleveland. Some six days hence Cleveland will be accused of knifing Hill. There is probably a grain of truth in both accusations.

The Kentucky Equal Rights Association was in session at Lexington last week. It will be represented at the next session of the Legislature by a committee of twenty women to demand the legislation wanted.

The Republican National Committee is making a desperate effort to carry the Louisville Congressional District. Money has been sent in. But McDermott, the brilliant young champion of Democracy, will win just the same.

The Congress that is elected next Tuesday will count the next vote for President. The election of a President may be thrown into the House, hence every Democrat should go to the polls Tuesday and vote for John Hendrick. It may be a vote for Carlisle or some other good Democrat for President.

It appears that a candidate for congress in the Louisville district is meeting with opposition from some sources because he is a Catholic. It will be a sad day for this country when religious opinions are made the test of official qualification. Religious intolerance is the most intolerable intolerance in the world.

A retail store in Chicago advertises 234 pounds of granulated sugar for a dollar. This is not mentioned as an advertisement to get the readers of the Press to go to the windy city to get a dollar's worth of sugar, but to show that the $15,000,000 bounty the people of the Louisiana sugar planters, did not make sugar cheap. A Democrat Congress should that bounty, which was simply a tax on the people, and now sugar goes right along getting cheaper. If you believe that all such bounties should be stopped, and that we should return to the good old Jeffersonian doctrine of "equal rights to all and exclusive privileges to none," vote for John Hendrick; that is his doctrine.

NEW SALEM.

Some sickness. Corn gathering has commenced, but it will be a light husking this year, as the yield will not exceed 25 per cent. of a full crop.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Benjamin Moore, near Frances, on the evening of the 24th, Mr. Felix Tyler to Miss Cora Moore, Rev. James Oliver officiating. After the ceremony was performed, the guests were invited to the dining room and partook of a handsome repast. The next day the groom and bride, with friends and neighbors, were tendered a reception at the residence of the groom's parents, and all partook of a regular old fashioned Kentucky dinner, to which all did ample justice. Mr. Tyler is one of our prosperous young farmers, while his bride is one of Crittenden's most charming daughters.

The protracted meetings at Union and Emmaus are progressing finely. Many sinners are becoming converted and many more are inquiring what they must do to be saved.

Ben Garnett is progressing rapidly in his prospecting for coal; he has some expert miners at work, and the general indications, so say the know-nothings, are that a few more feet will reach a rich coal vein. Mr. Garnett is sparing no expense to develop this mine, and is very sanguine of success. Should he succeed it will be a great blessing to both Mr. G. and this entire community. Success to you, Ben.

Born to the wife of John William Penn, Oct. 23, two daughters. Miss Sallie Threlkeld of Hurricane is the guest of Miss Cora Conyers. Charlie Millikan has moved near Sheridan and Will E. Brown has moved to the farm lately occupied by Millikan.

Bro. Lowery called in his appointment at New Salem on the 4th, on account of the meeting at Union. Willie Lowery has commenced the erection of a handsome residence on his farm near Salem. Charley Cook is doing the carpenter work.

Mr. Patmore, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Ben Garnett.

IRON HILL.

The youngest child of M. F. Drennan is dangerously ill.

John Hughes, Dee Crowell and Edd Webber, of Union county, have been over on a visit.

Mrs. Ursel and Gertie Nunn, of Sullivan, are visiting relatives in this neighborhood.

Frank Lamb is building a nice residence on J. M. Walkers place.

Judge J. A. Moore has been around looking after his political interests.

J. G. Rochester was out at church Tuesday, and we noticed that he was "capering" around among the boys right lively.

J. B. Brady has been among us for several days.

The revival meeting at Sugar Grove, conducted by Rev. Barbee and Noah Moorhead, the blind organist, closed Friday night. The meeting was a grand success, sixty-eight conversions are reported, twenty additions to the church, and a general reconnection among the church members. It was a meeting long to be remembered by all who attended. The sermons were excellent, the music was full of spirit and life, and the attention and behavior, was the best we ever had at this church. The members have organized a prayer meeting to be held each Friday night and will make an earnest endeavor to keep up the good work.

FREDONIA.

M. A. Miller and wife, of Hampton, were in town Sunday and Monday.

Albert Kirk, of Leavenworth, Kansas, who has been visiting here for several weeks, left for home Tuesday.

I have a crop of tobacco of 4,000 pounds or over, which I desire to sell at once. Leaves long, broad and well cured; please call to see it on Jesse Deboes farm and oblige.

Wiley Leeper. Born to the wife of W. Gholson, on the 24th a large, fine looking girl.

Born to the wife of J. C. Green on the 26th, a fine, fat girl, not a voter and Cad is disappointed.

Rev. Dr. Wadler, of Louisville, preached the dedicatory sermon at the Baptist church Sunday.

Revs. Wells, Ward, Vanhooser, Givens and McGill were in attendance. Miss Cora Buckner was home from Hopkinsville to attend the dedication. A large crowd from the surrounding communities and counties, among whom were Robt. Boyd and wife of Salem, J. W. Freeman and wife, of Marion; grub enough on the ground for several thousand.

Frank Wyatt and wife, of Salem, were visiting relatives here the first of the week.

Two hundred dollars, the remaining indebtedness on the Baptist church, was raised in a few minutes after the congregation assembled Sunday. The meeting has been in progress since that time and will continue day and night during the entire week and perhaps longer.

W. Gholson, of Cairo, Ill., who has been visiting here for a week or two, returned home Monday.

James P. Morgan went to Salem Tuesday.

T. M. Butler went to Princeton Tuesday.

N. M. Dollar and wife and daughter, Miss Ida, all joined the Baptist church here Sunday, on letters of dismission and recommendation from the Piney Creek church.

Little Albert Robinson has been sick for several days, with little improvement.

SHADY GROVE.

On last Sunday night, near Smith's Ford, on Tradewater, several thousand crosses tied belonging to the firm of Ayer & Lord were burned. Origin of the fire unknown.

The speaking here last Wednesday by Messrs. Moore and Rochester was chiefly on the financial affairs of the county. They had no politics in their main speeches, but Judge Moore in his rejoinder—the closing speech—could not, or did not, refrain from delivering to the faithful some political advice; that was, to vote for Keys. He got off the free diamond racket and that tickled us amazingly. The audience "caught on" at once and readily saw how aptly that illustrated the question of plow and team on roads.

W. S. Kemp, sr., and Mrs. Neola Williams were married this week. The bride is the mother of Esquire George Williams of the Iron Hill neighborhood.

J. K. Beard is again a partner with J. G. Asher in the drug store.

A protracted meeting was begun at Blackburn last Sunday.

The doctors report several cases of diphtheria in this locality.

Ed. Waide, the champion light weight, North American sorghum maker, has closed the season with over twelve hundred gallons of the sweetest new barreled.

Against Free Silver.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 27.—Hon. S. Y. Atkinson was inaugurated as Governor of Georgia. In his address he urged reform in the convict lease system, the election laws and better pay to public school teachers.

A motion to take up a resolution in the House of Representatives of the Georgia Legislature, declaring it to be the sense of the Legislature that Congress should enact a law for the free and unlimited coinage of silver, and condemning the Representatives in Congress who voted for the repeal of the Sherman act, was defeated by a vote of 94 to 63. Only twenty-three Democrats voted to take up the resolution, the remainder of those voting being Populists.

Sugar and Whisky.

New York, Oct. 29.—A Wall Street news agency, alluding to the newly organized Great White Spirit Company, of New Jersey, says that the corporation is likely to become a rival of the American Sugar Refining Company, sugar trust, as well as of the whisky trust. The plan is to adopt the German and French method of refining sugar and making spirits in practically the same plant.

The sugar is refined from the best juice, and the spirits are made from the syrups and refuse. This country has already exported some ten thousand tons of syrups to be put through this process. It is said to be the intention of this company to reverse that condition and import syrups to this country in tank steamers.

A dispatch from Mobile, Tenn., says forest fires are spreading ruin in that section. The long drought made the grass and timber dry and tinder, and the flames spread with frightful rapidity. Forest fires are also raging in the vicinity of Corinth, Miss. Several cotton fields have been destroyed in the outlying districts. Hundreds of farmers are engaged in fighting the flames.

Cure For Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only fifty cents at H. K. Woods drug store.

Dr. Graves' Widow.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 25.—The estate of Mrs. Josephine A. Barnaby, who was murdered in Danbury, Conn., and for which crime Dr. Thos. Thacker Graves of this city was once convicted, has been inventoried at $96,347. Over $75,000 of this is personal property, largely the securities which Dr. Graves purchased for Mrs. Barnaby in Boston, and later turned over to a Providence lawyer, upon demand of the Barnaby heirs. Dr. Graves was a beneficiary under Mrs. Barnaby's last will for the sum of $25,000, and his widow in Hartford claims through her attorneys here the benefit thereof. It is stated that the other heirs will contest her claim.

Unprecedented Prosperity.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 26.—Iron and steel mills in this locality are enjoying an era of unprecedented prosperity. At the Pennsylvania Steel works the products of rails and Bessemer was the harvest for years, the three furnaces in blast averaging nearly three hundred tons daily. For three days the Bessemer mills averaged 120 blows every 24 hours. The rail mills made four thousand tons of rails during the week, the largest production in its history. On Thursday 816 tons were turned out, nearly as many to every two minutes. The company has contracts for one hundred thousand tons of rails from the Chicago Street Railroad company, Chicago, and another from Covington, Ky. There are four thousand men employed at the steel works.

I have for sale on 12 months time, note with approved security, two good 5 year old mules, one older mule, and a No. 1 2 year old colt.

M. Schwalb.

Money Money.

Having fully decided to make a change in our business, we are now obliged to collect all money due us, right away. We feel that we have already been extremely indulgent with many of you, as we have waited on you when we had to borrow money to pay our own debts, thereby incurring an actual loss of money to ourselves; but we are now forced to say to all parties indebted to us that we must have the money at once. This is strictly a business matter with us and we can not any longer consider personal feeling or preference. It will be useless for any one to ask for an extension as we can not in justice to ourselves grant longer time to anybody. Your very prompt attention will now save you trouble and unnecessary expense, as we will be compelled to force collections if you delay the matter. We do not want to sue anybody but we must have money some way immediately.

Yours truly,

PERCE & SON.

Mr. J. B. Carter, a leading farmer of Union, was in town yesterday; he has 105 acres of wheat, and says it is growing nicely.

An interesting meeting has been in progress at Enon church; it was conducted by Rev. Mr. Edwards, a Baptist minister from Illinois. There were forty conversions.

About $300 has been subscribed to buy a big clock to be placed in the tower of the new school building. It will require about $200 more to insure the success of the enterprise. Let everybody lend a helping pocket book.

We are authorized to announce T. A. Harpending a candidate for Justice of Peace, Union precinct. He will appreciate your vote, and if elected will do his utmost to fill the office satisfactorily.

John Parr would like for the party who took his saddle from his home Saturday night to return it as early as convenient. It was as good as new, having been used only 16 years, and John feels unable to sustain the loss.

The installation ceremonies at the Presbyterian church Sunday were largely attended. The house was crowded to its utmost capacity, and Rev. M. H. Miley was formally installed as pastor of that church. Revs. Spencer, Caldwell and McDonald, assisted in the ceremony, which were impressive and instructive.

A communication from our old friend Jno. W. Imboden softly intimated the statement made in the paper last week touching the trouble between Brantly and Hazel. John says he never was in Marion nor in a wagon with Hazel, nor did Matthew Brantly cut, stab or wound Sam Hazel nor any other Hazel, at any place or any time or in any county.

Will Congo, a youth of this place, attended the dedication at Kelsey Sunday. While there he became engaged in a quarrel with another boy; Constable Ackridge came during the quarrel and Congo showed him a clean pair of heels for some distance, but the officer was a mile horse and came out best in the race. It cost Congo $20.00 besides the strength expended in the race.

A party was given at the hospitable home of Mrs. Mary Barnes Monday night in honor of Miss Barnes guests, Misses Lula Walker and Florence Stewart. A score of Marion's young people were present, and a superb supper was served. Splendid music was discoursed and upon the whole the evening was a most enjoyable one, and the affair will be long and pleasantly remembered by all present.

At a meeting of the people interested in the proposed bank of Kelsey, Tuesday, books were opened for subscriptions to the stock of the new enterprise. Next Wednesday a meeting will be held to perfect the organization. It is said that Mr. D. T. Boyd, one of the best business men in the valley, will be made president, and John Rice vice president, H. E. Rice cashier, and J. C. Elder, of this place, assistant cashier.

Dr. F. F. Truitt, of Weston, paid us a call yesterday. He together with the other citizens of Weston are distressed about their mill facility. The river is so low that mill by boats is a very irregular and uncertain thing; the land route has been discontinued and Weston is in a bad shape so far as her mill is concerned. The land route should be all means be re-established. The little city deserves and should have a daily mail.

Mr. Sam Perkins, of the Frances neighborhood, was in town yesterday looking for his father, Mr. A. B. Perkins. The old gentleman for some months has been an inmate of the county poor house. Two weeks ago he left that place, or rather wandered away, and was seen a day or two afterwards a short distance away. Since that time he has not been heard of. He is about 78 years old, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high; gray beard; he has a habit of shading his eyes with his hands. Mr. Perkins—the son—whose post office is Frances, would be glad to have any information concerning his father.

Mr. Caswell Bennett, Jr., of Marion, is in the city calling on his many friends. Mr. Bennett is practicing law at Marion and has proven himself an able defender as well as a persistent prosecutor.—Henderson Gleaner.

WANTS DAMAGES.

Mann Sues Watson for $5,000 For Personal Injuries.

Other Suits Filed.

William H. Mann sues G. W. Watson for damages in the sum of $5,000. The petition alleges that the defendant unlawfully and with force and arms, entered within the enclosed premises of the plaintiff, and therein unlawfully, willfully and maliciously assaulted, beat and bruised the plaintiff, inflicting severe wounds upon the person of this plaintiff by striking and beating the plaintiff with a heavy double barrel shot-gun, and that by reason of the wounds and injuries so inflicted by the defendant the plaintiff has been permanently injured in his hearing and in his spinal column, and was otherwise hurt; mangled and injured, and taken by the feet and dragged out and left for dead, by reason of these wrongs the plaintiff prays for damages in the sum of $5,000.

The following suits have been filed: G. B. Simons vs C. L. Ballard notes $64.00.

L. H. James vs J. C. McDowell notes $100.

Mrs. M. C. Bennett vs C. Bennett, Jr., note $300.

Paint Bill To Settle.

A few days ago the marshal of Blackford sent to Marion for a few pair of handcuffs. Inquiry was of course made as to the need of these articles. According to the information obtainable Big John Howerton, Ben King and Geo. Burgess, while on a little spree, undertook to paint the village the usual red. They rode through the streets, fired their pistols promiscuously some five or six times. A stray shot struck a citizen on the knee. The officer with the assistance of citizens arrested the boys and wanted the handcuffs for convenience in taking his prisoners to Dixon. At Dixon they executed bonds in the sum of $250 each to answer the charge and were released.

White Caps.

It is reported that the "White Caps" were abroad again in this county Saturday night. To get a bill of particulars of their doings is next to impossibility. It is said they visited and whipped a man living in Weston, and then paid their respects to a similar way to a man and two women who lived in the neighborhood of the persons visited last week. No amount of inquiry could elicit any information other than the report that such a thing happened.

A Change of Residence.

Last week Sheriff Franks lodged John Lynch in jail at this place. The penitentiary authorities at Nashville delivered him to the sheriff; he is wanted here for burglarizing Moore & Beard's store at Tolu last December. The chances are that he will take up his residence at Eldridgeville after circuit court.

Woman in Jail.

Tuesday Mrs. Stubbs was brought from the Hurricane neighborhood and lodged in jail on a charge of larceny. She is accused of stealing $16.00 from Mr. J. C. Fankhauser. The case will come up for a preliminary hearing before Squire Morgan today. The woman has a little five year old boy with her, and took it to jail with her rather than be separated from it.

Deeds Recorded.

J. W. Martin and wife to Matthew Ledbetter, Lot in Tolu for $5.00.

R. G. Vanhousen to S. B. Brown, 5 1/2 acres for $32.45.

Ellie Davis and husband to George Drennan, 1 acre for $75.

No Candidate.

It may not be generally known to the readers of the Press that there is no candidate for County Judge on the Prohibition ticket, yet such is the fact. The fight for the County Judgeship is squarely between J. G. Rochester, Judge J. A. Moore, and T. C. Campbell, and the voters can govern themselves accordingly.

Acquitted.

Raueau Key and Boaz Quarterman, charged with stealing potatoes were acquitted on examining trial Monday.

Tuesday Mr. Wm. Kemp and Mrs. Neola Williams, of the Shady Grove neighborhood, were united in marriage at the residence of the bride.

Rev. M. H. Utley and wife, of Salem, visited their daughter, Mrs. Laura Champion, last week. Rev. Utley is thinking of moving to Marion.

Mr. B. E. Drennan, of Marion, Ky., a very nice young gentleman, wants a position as bookkeeper for some business house. He comes highly recommended.—Paducah News.

Mr. Caswell Bennett, Jr., of Marion, is in the city calling on his many friends. Mr. Bennett is practicing law at Marion and has proven himself an able defender as well as a persistent prosecutor.—Henderson Gleaner.

Nunn-Barnes.

Thursday evening, Oct. 25, 1894, at the Methodist church, Mr. C. S. Nunn and Miss Lema Barnes were united in marriage, Rev. J. S. Henry officiating.

The church—the largest in the county—was filled with the friends of the happy young pair; the interior of the building was tastefully decorated with pretty evergreens and flowers, presenting a charming scene, all blending harmoniously for such a brilliant affair. The attendants were Mr. J. T. Franks and Miss Florence Stewart, Mr. S. D. Hodge and Miss Mary Hurt, Mr. T. H. Cochran and Miss Della Barnes.

Immediately after the ceremony the party repaired to the depot and the bride and groom took the train for Madisonville, where they spent a few days with the groom's relatives.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Mary Barnes, of this place; she is one of the most popular young ladies in the county; amiable, beautiful and cultured, she numbered her friends by the score.

Mr. Nunn, the groom, is one of Western Kentucky's most promising young lawyers; he is one of Marion's leading young citizens, and nobody has more friends or stands higher in the estimation of the people among whom he is reared.

These estimable young people have a promising future, and the Press joins with everybody in praying that it may yield for them all the happiness the human heart can hope for.

The following is the list of presents: Misses Dell Barnes and Mary Hurt, rocking chair.

PRINCETON COURT.

Twenty People Convicted by Commonwealth's Attorney Grayott.

The October term of circuit court closed at Princeton yesterday morning. There were 21 cases on the docket, and 20 of them resulted in convictions. This is very encouraging to the bright young commonwealth's attorney, John L. Grayott. The fact that he only lost one case is certainly a good showing for one so young in the business. Following is a list of those convicted on felony charges: Tom Flax, colored, malicious shooting, two years; John Jensep, colored, malicious shooting, two years; John Torian, colored, malicious shooting, eighteen months; Frank Watkins, malicious shooting, one year; P. H. Lowery, detaining a girl against her will, two years; William Phelps, detaining a woman, two years and five months.—Paducah Dispatch.

Yesterday one year ago Rev. M. E. Chappel preached his first sermon as pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of this city. Yesterday the fact was called to the attention of his congregation, along with a recount of the church's progress during the year. Mr. Chappel not only spoke of the church's new building, etc., but showed that during the year one hundred members had been added to the congregation. Next Sunday Mr. Chappel is to preach an annual sermon to his charge.—Paducah News.

S. D. HODGE & CO.

Ben McEann, candidate for Jailor, has, on account of sickness, been unable to canvass for some days. He is some better, however. Ben is one of the most industrious men in the county and is as deserving as he is industrious. Those who know him best like him best for his sterling qualities as a man and a citizen. If elected he will make the county a splendid official. No man will appreciate your vote higher nor strive harder to meet every responsibility than Ben Mc.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail, and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We want keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at H. K. Woods drug store.

MOVED.

I have moved my jewelry store next door to the post office, where I am prepared to do all kinds of repairing in my line. If you want watches, clocks or jewelry of any kind it will pay you to see me.
