

The Crittenden Press.

VOLUME 15.

MARION, CRITTENDEN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, JANUARY 3, 1895.

NUMBER 30

A Big Bankrupt Stock to be Sacrificed!

STOCK CONSISTS OF

Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Dress Goods, Clothing
LADIES AND GENTS FURNISHING GOODS.

Below Will Be Found a few Prices on Goods Offered:

Boots, Shoes, Shirts, Etc.

Mens good heavy boots, 90cts per pair.
" " whole stock boots, $1.50 worth $3.00
" " fine calf boots, $1.25 worth $2.50
Mens best 1 men collars worth 15 and 20cts all go for 5cts
Mens laundered shirts at half price.
Best unlaundered shirts 37 1-2 cts worth 60c
Fine shoes from 75c to $2.00 worth $1.50 to 5.00.
Ladies custom made shoes for $1.25 and 1.50 worth 2.50 to 3
Ladies nice kid shoes 75c to $1.00 worth 1.00 to 2.00.
Ladies good calf shoes, button and lace; 75c to $1.00
Childrens shoes from 50c to 1.00 worth 75c to 1.50

Dry Goods and Dress Goods

Good Henriettas worth 25c now 15c.
Good Henriettas worth 20c now 12 1-2
Fine serges worth 60 to 75c now 35c.
Very fine imported goods worth $1.00 now 50c.
Good half wool dress goods for 75c.
Good domed flannel worth 8c now 4c.
Good all linen damask for 20c per yard.
Best gingham for 5c.
Good colored yarn for 40c per lb
Best new calicos now go for 4c.
Good all wool flannel for 12 1-2.

CLOTHING.

Mens suits worth $8.00 now go for $3.50.
" " " $12.00 now go for $5.50
Mens suits worth $20, now go for 9 and $10
Mens pants to suit your pocket
Boys clothing from 50c to 3.
Mens jeans pants worth 1.25 and 1.50 now go for 75c
Hats at your own price.
Good jeans coats 1, and 1.25.

Corsets, Hosiery
Flannels, Underwear, and all Dress Trimmings and Notions at 30cts on the dollar.

REMEMBER THIS STOCK MUST AND WILL BE SOLD REGARDLESS OF COST.

We are Compelled to CLOSE IT OUT within the next SIXTY DAYS, and you will miss GREAT BARGAINS if you don't come and see what we have. WE HAVE THE BEST STOCK OF CLOTHING IN THE COUNTY.

GREEN, JONES & HARRIS,
AT CAMERON'S OLD STAND.
MARION, KY.

THE CARLISLE BILL.

As Modified by the Banking and Currency Committee.

Presented in the House. Points of Difference Between the Secretary's Measure and the Amendments of the Committee.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Mr. Springer, of Illinois, at a late hour yesterday afternoon, laid before the house a substitute for the pending currency bill. It consists of the amendments which have been agreed upon by the democratic members of the committee; others that were suggested by Secretary Carlisle, the author of the bill that has been under consideration all the while, as well as certain features of the Carlisle bill which it has been deemed advisable to retain. After laying the substitute before the house, Mr. Springer briefly explained the important changes made in the Carlisle bill and their effect as follows:

First—Permitting the deposit of currency certificates issued under section 3505 of the revised statutes, to secure circulation as well as the deposits of legal tender notes and treasury notes. These certificates represent legal tender notes actually held in treasury, and the effect of depositing certificates is, therefore, the same precisely as to require the deposit of notes.

Second—So amending the present law as to permit state banks to deposit legal tender notes and treasury notes in the same manner that national banks are now permitted to do so.

Third—Dispensing with the provisions which authorize an assessment upon the national banks to replenish the safety fund for the redemption of the notes of failed banks, and, in place of this provision, inserting one providing that the collection of the one-fourth of a cent tax for each half year shall be resumed when the safety fund is replenished.

Fourth—Authorizing the controller of the currency instead of the banks themselves, to designate the agencies at which national bank notes shall be redeemed. The effect of this will be to secure the redemption not only at the office of the bank, but at other places accessible to noteholders.

Fifth—Dispensing with the provisions compelling existing national banks to withdraw their funds now on deposit and take up circulation under the new system, and in lieu of that provision providing that the banks be permitted to continue to take up the old currency until the new currency is issued.

Sixth—Providing that the notes of failed national banks, which are not redeemed on demand at the office of the treasurer of the United States, shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the date of their suspension of the bank until thirty days after public notice has been given that funds are on hand for their redemption.

This imposes no obligation upon the part of the United States to use its funds to redeem the notes of failed banks.

PIERCE FIGHTING.

A Chinese Force Makes a Determined Stand, Fighting Bravely for the Hour, But Finally Flee in the Direction of Yang Kow. Before the Superior Organization and Valor of the Fighting Japanese—The Casualties.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—The Antony correspondent of the Central News says that Gen. Yamagata's division of the second division of the Japanese army has advanced northward steadily for a month, and, on December 13, occupied Kai Ping. No defense was made.

On December 19 scouts reported to Lieut. Gen. Katsura, then near Lao Yang, that a large force of Chinese were seen moving in the direction of Lao Chang. This force proved to be the defeated garrison of Hui Chang under the command of Gen. Sung.

The Chinese had fled with all possible speed ever since the 13th, when their position was captured by the enemy. They were then in a rather demoralized condition and were making for Moukden.

Katsura decided to intercept them. He left camp on the night of the 18th with his whole force, and the next morning overtook the Chinese at the village of Kung Vasa, where they made an obstinate stand. Although in poor condition they were nearly 10,000 strong, and forced some fierce fighting upon the Japanese.

In the midst of the battle Ching Hui, the Chinese commander, was killed. The Chinese held out with surprising bravery. They fought the well-kept fire from three Japanese batteries and fought desperately, although without effective organization. The Japanese infantry charged twice through the scattered lines, but the money rallied.

Three bayonet charges eventually won the day for Katsura after five hours of the hottest fighting yet experienced by the second army. The Chinese faltered as the third advance began, and then fled in disorder towards Yang Kow. The losses are not known, but the Chinese are reported to have left 500 men on the field.

Fukushima, who gained notoriety some time ago by riding from Berlin to Korea, has been appointed chief civil administrator of Antony.

A dispatch from the Central News correspondent in Tokyo says that Korea has agreed to open the new ports of Mokpo, province of Chollado, and Chinsampo, on the Taishan river.

INDISCRIMINATE MURDER.

The People of Brooks County, Ga. Are "Armed," and Innocent and Guilty Alike Suffer.

THE WORM TURNED.

A Kentucky Woman, Goaded to Madness by Her Husband's Abuse, Kills Him with an Ax.

HANCOCKVILLE, Ky., Dec. 20.—John Cox, a prominent farmer, was killed by his wife Tuesday. Cox attacked his wife about a dinner and fired two shots at her. Both missed her and he picked up an ax and threw it at her. This also missed her, and he was reaching over to get a piece of stove wood when she picked up the ax and nearly severed his head from his body, killing him instantly.

Cox was a very overbearing man, particularly when drinking, and his wife is an estimable woman. She has not been arrested, and will probably not be, as all sympathy is with her.

THE RECREANT SON.

Of a Worthy Father Sent to the Ohio Penitentiary—He Returned in Jail.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 24.—James N. Bray, reputed son of an English army officer of high rank, arrived at the Ohio penitentiary Saturday night.

He came to this country a few months ago and located in Cleveland, where he purchased costly furniture on the installment plan, sold it, and without paying for it, skipped to Houston, Tex., where he was arrested.

The arrest interfered with his marriage there to Miss Grace Hugo, but she followed to Cleveland and the wedding took place in the jail.

The young man's father sent him $300 to square matters, and while the firm he had beaten was willing to settle the prosecutor would not allow it.

Then several wealthy and influential citizens, who satisfied themselves of the rank of the young man's father, tried to save the accused, but their efforts failed. They will now make an effort to secure a pardon for him from Gov. McKinley.

COMPLETELY WRECKED.

An Immense Engine Broken Up by the Violence of Its Own Motion.

EUGENE KELLY DEAD.

The Millionaire New York Banker Passes Away.

PARALYZED THE IMMEDIATE CAUSE OF DEATH.—The End was Peaceful, the Members of His Family Watching the Spark Go Out.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Eugene Kelly, the millionaire banker, died at 9:35 a. m. at his home in this city. He was 80 years old. The end was peaceful. When it came the banker was surrounded by the members of his family who have been at his bedside almost continually for the past few days. Dr. McCreery, the attending physician, was also present. Paralysis was the cause of death.

Mr. Kelly began to sink rapidly Tuesday morning, and it was not thought that he would live until evening. He rallied a trifle Tuesday night, but his condition was such that Dr. McCreery was of the opinion that he would not survive the day.

There was no commotion created in the household by the banker's death, as all were prepared for it. Word of his death was at once sent to his downtown office, and in a short time the news was known to Wall street and telegraphed over the country.

THE WORK OF FIENDS.

A Boy Cruelly Tortured by Tramps at Oceansboro, Ky.

OCEANSBORO, Ky., Dec. 20.—A horrible outrage was perpetrated here Tuesday night on Will Girain, an 18-year-old boy, by two tramps.

The boy was seized in the railroad yards and a coat thrown over his head. He was carried into a car and chloroformed. The villains used a knife, cutting into the bowels. They then left the boy lying nearly dead. He was found by his brother in a pool of blood. He suffered untold agony. If caught the villains will be lynched.

COLONIAL MONEY.

Much of It Finding Its Way to the Treasury for Redemption, But It is Worthless.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Though a century has elapsed since the old colonial money was issued, hardly a week passes but some of it is sent to the treasury for redemption. Whether it is that had times have led to a general ransacking of old trunks, and desks and the shaking of old stockings or not, the fact is that recently more than usual of this old paper money has been sent to the treasury for redemption. It is, of course, worthless, and the senders are so advised. Controller Eckles has recently received an interesting specimen of this currency. It was forwarded by the Springfield, Mass. national bank of Springfield, Mass.

The note was numbered 2325 and stated that the state of Rhode Island and the Providence Plantations would pay one Spanish milled dollar to the holder by December 31, 1785. It was countersigned by John Arnold, evidently the treasurer of the province. The note was in an excellent state of preservation.

DISCIPLES OF ROME.

May Not Be Members of Certain Secret Societies.

Old Fellows, Knights of Pythias and Sons of Temperance Included in the Interdiction Already in Force Against the Free Masons.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 21.—The Republic publishes the following: In a drawer or strong box in the archiepiscopal residence on Lindell boulevard there lies a letter whose promulgation will create throughout the length and breadth of the country profound interest and not a little excitement; a letter which may give rise to a controversy of world-wide importance, and which is sure to carry in its train far-reaching consequences.

It is a letter to Archbishop Kain from Mr. Sattoli, and in it the papal ablegate announces the decision of his holiness, Pope Leo XIII., in the long-pending dispute over the right of Catholics to hold membership in certain secret societies without forfeiture their privileges as communicants of the church.

The pope through Mr. Sattoli, places the three societies known as the Independent Order of Good Templars, or Sons of Temperance, and the Knights of Pythias, under the ecclesiastical ban. He prohibits Catholics from becoming or remaining members of those orders, or any one of them, and declares that to such as disobey this mandate no priest shall administer any of the sacraments. They shall be considered as belonging outside the fold, and as unworthy of admission to it until they have forsworn allegiance to the society.

There are in St. Louis alone hundreds of Catholic Knights of Pythias, old fellows and sons of temperance. Under the papal ruling every one of them must forthwith decide between his society and his church. He must abandon one of them. The pope will permit no divided allegiance.

And what is true of St. Louis is true of the whole country. There is hardly a hamlet so remote that lodges of one or all of the denounced societies have not been established there.

THE WILY TURK.

Willing to Pay Well for a Coat of White—Wash in Armenia.

BERLIN, Dec. 20.—A dispatch to the Cologne Gazette from Constantinople says the Turkish government, through Musin Pasha, minister of police, has offered a Spanish explorer residing in Sassoun large sums of money if he will minimize the details published in Europe of the Armenian outrages. The plan is to have the explorer deliver a series of lectures in England and on the continent belittling the troubles in Armenia.

COUNCIL BLUFFS TRAGEDY.

Did Huntington Kill Himself or Was He Shot by One of the Inspectors?

THE CARLISLE BILL.

As Modified by the Banking and Currency Committee.

Presented in the House. Points of Difference Between the Secretary's Measure and the Amendments of the Committee.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Mr. Springer, of Illinois, at a late hour yesterday afternoon, laid before the house a substitute for the pending currency bill. It consists of the amendments which have been agreed upon by the democratic members of the committee; others that were suggested by Secretary Carlisle, the author of the bill that has been under consideration all the while, as well as certain features of the Carlisle bill which it has been deemed advisable to retain. After laying the substitute before the house, Mr. Springer briefly explained the important changes made in the Carlisle bill and their effect as follows:

First—Permitting the deposit of currency certificates issued under section 3505 of the revised statutes, to secure circulation as well as the deposits of legal tender notes and treasury notes. These certificates represent legal tender notes actually held in treasury, and the effect of depositing certificates is, therefore, the same precisely as to require the deposit of notes.

Second—So amending the present law as to permit state banks to deposit legal tender notes and treasury notes in the same manner that national banks are now permitted to do so.

Third—Dispensing with the provisions which authorize an assessment upon the national banks to replenish the safety fund for the redemption of the notes of failed banks, and, in place of this provision, inserting one providing that the collection of the one-fourth of a cent tax for each half year shall be resumed when the safety fund is replenished.

Fourth—Authorizing the controller of the currency instead of the banks themselves, to designate the agencies at which national bank notes shall be redeemed. The effect of this will be to secure the redemption not only at the office of the bank, but at other places accessible to noteholders.

Fifth—Dispensing with the provisions compelling existing national banks to withdraw their funds now on deposit and take up circulation under the new system, and in lieu of that provision providing that the banks be permitted to continue to take up the old currency until the new currency is issued.

Sixth—Providing that the notes of failed national banks, which are not redeemed on demand at the office of the treasurer of the United States, shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the date of their suspension of the bank until thirty days after public notice has been given that funds are on hand for their redemption.

This imposes no obligation upon the part of the United States to use its funds to redeem the notes of failed banks.

THE CARLISLE BILL.

As Modified by the Banking and Currency Committee.

Presented in the House. Points of Difference Between the Secretary's Measure and the Amendments of the Committee.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Mr. Springer, of Illinois, at a late hour yesterday afternoon, laid before the house a substitute for the pending currency bill. It consists of the amendments which have been agreed upon by the democratic members of the committee; others that were suggested by Secretary Carlisle, the author of the bill that has been under consideration all the while, as well as certain features of the Carlisle bill which it has been deemed advisable to retain. After laying the substitute before the house, Mr. Springer briefly explained the important changes made in the Carlisle bill and their effect as follows:

First—Permitting the deposit of currency certificates issued under section 3505 of the revised statutes, to secure circulation as well as the deposits of legal tender notes and treasury notes. These certificates represent legal tender notes actually held in treasury, and the effect of depositing certificates is, therefore, the same precisely as to require the deposit of notes.

Second—So amending the present law as to permit state banks to deposit legal tender notes and treasury notes in the same manner that national banks are now permitted to do so.

Third—Dispensing with the provisions which authorize an assessment upon the national banks to replenish the safety fund for the redemption of the notes of failed banks, and, in place of this provision, inserting one providing that the collection of the one-fourth of a cent tax for each half year shall be resumed when the safety fund is replenished.

Fourth—Authorizing the controller of the currency instead of the banks themselves, to designate the agencies at which national bank notes shall be redeemed. The effect of this will be to secure the redemption not only at the office of the bank, but at other places accessible to noteholders.

Fifth—Dispensing with the provisions compelling existing national banks to withdraw their funds now on deposit and take up circulation under the new system, and in lieu of that provision providing that the banks be permitted to continue to take up the old currency until the new currency is issued.

Sixth—Providing that the notes of failed national banks, which are not redeemed on demand at the office of the treasurer of the United States, shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the date of their suspension of the bank until thirty days after public notice has been given that funds are on hand for their redemption.

This imposes no obligation upon the part of the United States to use its funds to redeem the notes of failed banks.

THE CARLISLE BILL.

As Modified by the Banking and Currency Committee.

Presented in the House. Points of Difference Between the Secretary's Measure and the Amendments of the Committee.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Mr. Springer, of Illinois, at a late hour yesterday afternoon, laid before the house a substitute for the pending currency bill. It consists of the amendments which have been agreed upon by the democratic members of the committee; others that were suggested by Secretary Carlisle, the author of the bill that has been under consideration all the while, as well as certain features of the Carlisle bill which it has been deemed advisable to retain. After laying the substitute before the house, Mr. Springer briefly explained the important changes made in the Carlisle bill and their effect as follows:

First—Permitting the deposit of currency certificates issued under section 3505 of the revised statutes, to secure circulation as well as the deposits of legal tender notes and treasury notes. These certificates represent legal tender notes actually held in treasury, and the effect of depositing certificates is, therefore, the same precisely as to require the deposit of notes.

Second—So amending the present law as to permit state banks to deposit legal tender notes and treasury notes in the same manner that national banks are now permitted to do so.

Third—Dispensing with the provisions which authorize an assessment upon the national banks to replenish the safety fund for the redemption of the notes of failed banks, and, in place of this provision, inserting one providing that the collection of the one-fourth of a cent tax for each half year shall be resumed when the safety fund is replenished.

Fourth—Authorizing the controller of the currency instead of the banks themselves, to designate the agencies at which national bank notes shall be redeemed. The effect of this will be to secure the redemption not only at the office of the bank, but at other places accessible to noteholders.

Fifth—Dispensing with the provisions compelling existing national banks to withdraw their funds now on deposit and take up circulation under the new system, and in lieu of that provision providing that the banks be permitted to continue to take up the old currency until the new currency is issued.

Sixth—Providing that the notes of failed national banks, which are not redeemed on demand at the office of the treasurer of the United States, shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the date of their suspension of the bank until thirty days after public notice has been given that funds are on hand for their redemption.

This imposes no obligation upon the part of the United States to use its funds to redeem the notes of failed banks.

The Press.
R. C. WALKER, Publisher.
LOCAL NEWS.

IVORY SOAP
IT FLOATS
BEST FOR SHIRTS.

Dr. T. H. Cositt, Dentist, Marion.
Dr. R. L. Moore qualified last week as a member of the board of town trustees.
A daughter of W. J. Paris, who lives two miles northeast of town, died Saturday.
Thomas Latham, an old citizen of Crittenden Springs neighborhood, died Monday last week.
Recently Henry Davis has lost by death a fine horse, two good cows and a dog. Of course he is bereaved.
In cases of severe and sudden colds Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, if used according to directions, is a sure cure. Ask for Ayer's Almanac.
See A. F. Griffith if you want staple or fancy groceries. He has a big stock of the best and freshest goods, and he wants your trade.
Elder Clarence Hodge filled the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday night. He is attending Bethel College and was at home for the holidays.
The Stewards of the Methodist churches of the Marion circuit held a meeting at this place Monday, and adjourned to meet the first Monday in January. They are insisting very strongly that the new pastor, Rev. Fraser, move from Elkton to this place.

"A snake in the grass" is all the more dangerous from being unsuspected. So are many of the blood medicines offered the public. To avoid all risk, ask your druggist for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and likewise for Ayer's Almanac, which is just out for the new year.
Christmas night some miscreant shot and killed Mr. G. W. Douglas' horse. His stable is at the side of the public road, and it is probable that, as some of the boys, who were feeling their liquor went home, they were firing promiscuously, and a stray bullet did the work.
An effort is being made to organize a store on the co-operative plan at Tolu. Ten of the leading farmers of that vicinity will put in $1,000, each, and a good man will be employed to run the business. It is not a grange store, or anything of that kind, but will be run on the ordinary business plan.
Mr. E. B. Martin, of Fredonia, paid Marion a visit Saturday. Back so far as the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, comparatively speaking, Mr. Martin has been a patron of the Press. His father, Mr. W. C. Martin, is 83, and his mother is 75; the old couple have been married and housekeeping 52 years, raised five children, all of whom are now living.
The Board of Trustees for Smithland graded common school have accepted the plan as offered by architect G. W. Vaughn of Grand Rivers and are now ready to receive sealed bids for the building of the same. The design of the house is two rooms above, besides clock rooms and a tower. Mr. W. C. Watts qualified before the county court Saturday as Treasurer of the school fund.—Smithland News.

"Winter and Summer" were never more charmingly pictured than they are this season on Hood's Sarsaparilla Calendar. This calendar is made in the shape of a heart, and is ornamented with two child faces, lithographed in bright and natural colors, one peeping out amid the snowflakes, from a dainty cap, and the other lighted up with all the glory of a summer sunshine. The usual information about the lunar changes and other astronomical events is given, and the calendar, besides being "a thing of beauty," is also useful every day in the year. It may be obtained at the druggists, or if his supply is exhausted, six cents in stamps should be sent to C. I. Hood & Co., proprietors of Hood's Sarsaparilla, Lowell, Mass., who will forward a calendar free. For ten cents two calendars will be sent.

REAL MERIT is the characteristic of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cures even after other preparations fail. Get Hood's and ONLY HOOD'S.

A SLICK RASCAL.
Fulton, the School Supply Man, the Smoothest Rascal Ever in the County.

Fulton, the man who succeeded in getting away with Albert Weldon's pair of mules and Wm. Beard's buggy, is the slickest rascal that ever duped anybody in this section. He came from Sturgis to this county, having hired a double rig and driver at the former place to haul him over the county from school house to school house. He was well educated, a smooth talker in conversation, and an entertaining lecturer. Besides representing the "Peabody Educational Fund," he was interested in missionary work. At Tolu he ingratiated himself into the favor of the best people. He delivered two public missionary lectures, and among other things claimed that he had spent five years as a missionary in Africa. He knew a great deal about the missionary and workers, and was especially versed in the work of the Louisville Conference of the Methodist church, and could tell the Methodists, who predominate in the Tolu neighborhood, many things about the various ministers of the Conference. He soon found his way into the homes of the good people and there prayed with them, and was as religious as the most exacting could require. While stopping at the house of the Treasurer of the Missionary Society, he asked about the amount of this sacred fund on hand, and the unsuspecting lady counted it in his presence. A few days after his departure it was found that the missionary fund had departed too, and some jewelry belonging to the family went along with it.
In that vicinity live some of the wealthiest families of the county; it is very probable that his object in stopping in that neighborhood was to rob them. A good many people think he was a partner of the insurance swindler that was through there a few weeks ago.
LATER—Monday Mr. Weldon received a telegram from the marshal at Fulton, stating that his mules were there. It seems that the officers were pressing the man, Fulton, pretty hard, when he skipped leaving the town.

Mrs. Wallace Dead.
Mrs. Mary Wallace, wife of Mr. Thomas Wallace, formerly of this county, died at her home near Shelbyville Saturday, of bronchial trouble.

County Court Orders.
J. W. Taylor was allowed $28 for building bridge on Weston road, according to order of fiscal court.
T. S. C. Elder was allowed $180 for repairing jail residence.
T. H. Thurmond appeared in court and reported road opened as ordered by the court.
The police court caught some of the boys during their holiday merriment.
Dick Spurr, disorderly conduct $1.
Curtis, $25 for carrying a pistol and $1 breach of peace.
Coleman Byford, breach of peace, $2.50.
Rochester Wallingford, drunkenness, $2.00.
Charles Harmon, drunkenness, $1; carrying concealed weapons $25.
Claude Wheeler, shooting on street, $5.00.

Marriage Licenses.
James C. Watson and Miss Lucinda S. Rogers.
Thomas H. Roberts and Miss Cora L. Burton.
Josie B. Cardin and Miss Emma Binkley.
Charles H. Scott and Miss Nancy Walker.
Thomas W. Davenport and Miss Almer McWhirter.
Newton A. Croft and Miss Fannie Belmar.
Wm. M. Jennings and Miss Lou Akers.
Thomas N. Brooks and Mrs. Nancy J. Homes.
Robert W. Barnes and Miss Nellie Munner.
Wm. L. Sunderland and Mary L. Brown.

About Tobacco.
Ed. Press: Recently I met our ex-county man, J. H. Hillyar, who now lives in Henderson. He thinks (Henderson is the greatest strip tobacco market on earth, and that farmers of Crittenden county could get good prices for their tobacco at that point. He proposes that if we will send him true samples of our crops—a bundle of each grade—that he will gladly get bids on the crop; if the price is satisfactory we can sell and ship. If not, no harm done. He promised me he would write a letter for the Press next week, explaining the situation. In the meantime, brother farmers, think of the plan.

A Card of Thanks.
I wish to thank the friends of Marion and vicinity for the kindness manifested towards my wife during her last illness. The attentions she received were kind and numerous, and she appreciated them. G. E. Boston.

Music School.
The second term of my Music School will begin Tuesday, January 1. I teach music on any of the instruments and vocal music. Will be pleased to have the patronage of those who desire to study music.
(Mrs.) Carrie Thomas.
Marion, Ky., Dec. 26. 3c
County Clerk Woods issued 118 marriage licenses last year.
See Dr. Halsey at Marion Hotel January 2, 3 and 4 if you have teeth that should be pulled. He certainly does the work without pain to the patient.
Yesterday Crossland Miles, Rankin Hammond and Will Clement were accused in court of disturbing the services at the opera house. Clement and Hammond were acquitted, and Miles was fined $20. Thoughtless talking caused the trouble, it seems.

A DRY COUNTY.
Livingston Adopts Prohibition by a Vote of 526 to 330.

On December 22 Livingston county voted on Prohibition, and voted against the sale of liquor by a majority of 196. The vote by precincts was as follows:

	For Prohib.	Agst.
Smithland,	127	57
Driskill,	77	24
Salem,	69	70
Dyers Hill,	114	42
Carrsville,	47	44
Good Hope,	42	18
Panhandle,	7	2
Lola,	43	73
Total,	526	330

DRUGGISTS' LICENSES.
Hereafter the Druggists and Saloon Keepers Will Pay the Same for Licenses.

The Board of Town Trustees held a meeting Tuesday and made an important amendment to the by-laws, and an amendment that will virtually stop the sale of liquor by druggists in Marion. Therefore the druggist's license has been $150 per annum, while the saloons pay $500 each to the town. When the Board met Tuesday, a motion was made that the druggists' license be raised to $500. After an elaborate discussion the motion prevailed and the by-laws were amended to correspond. The license of the drug store that sells in Marion expires January 10, and it is very improbable that a renewal will be made.

Ministerial Report.
On last Sunday Rev. W. H. Miley made to his congregation a report of his year's labors as pastor. The report was as follows:

Members received on profession of faith,	31
By letters,	4
Dismissed by letter,	2
Lost by death,	1
Gain in membership,	32
Number of adult baptisms,	19
Number of infant baptisms,	2
Number of marriage ceremonies,	2
Funerals preached,	6
Prayer meetings conducted,	40
Sermons preached,	144
Pastoral visits,	575
The financial officer of the church, Mr. J. C. Elder, also made a report, in substance as follows:
Cash paid pastor,	$900 00
Cash paid pastor for 1893,	20 00
Paid sexton,	50 00
Paid evangelistic fund,	68 00
Paid missions,	32 54
Paid Presbytery assessments,	10 00
Paid delegates to Presbytery,	13 30
Paid invalid fund,	7 00
Paid incidentals,	19 35
Total,	$1134 74
Total membership 136; total number who contribute to support of pastor, 72.

Dr. M. D. Halsey, the dentist who extracts teeth without pain will be at the Marion Hotel January 2, 3 and 4.
The following gentlemen have our thanks for subscriptions received:
J. A. Kemp, Ripley, Tenn.
Wm. Newcom, Blackford, Ky.
Ida McDowell, Shady Grove, "
E. R. Martin, Fredonia, "
Louis Terry, Tolu, "
T. S. Croft, "
J. W. Weldon, "
P. A. Woods, "
J. A. Kemp, "
J. H. Hughes, "
J. D. Sullivan, "
C. R. Compton, "
T. J. McConnell, "
F. J. Clement, "
Arthur Schwab, "
Lee Hughes, "
W. C. Price, "
D. N. Stinson, "
W. D. Cannon, "
W. S. Lucas, "
Tolu, "
Evansville, Ind.
Stephensville, Tex.
Kelsey, Ky.
Norris City, Ills.
Marion, Ky.
Tolu, "

Plenty of room for more. Let the good work go on. Now is the time, delays are dangerous—to us. Call early and avoid the rush. Never too busy to take 'em; we don't grumble if they don't come but we do smile if they do. Set ah.
A Card of Thanks.
I wish to thank the friends of Marion and vicinity for the kindness manifested towards my wife during her last illness. The attentions she received were kind and numerous, and she appreciated them. G. E. Boston.

Music School.
The second term of my Music School will begin Tuesday, January 1. I teach music on any of the instruments and vocal music. Will be pleased to have the patronage of those who desire to study music.
(Mrs.) Carrie Thomas.
Marion, Ky., Dec. 26. 3c
County Clerk Woods issued 118 marriage licenses last year.
See Dr. Halsey at Marion Hotel January 2, 3 and 4 if you have teeth that should be pulled. He certainly does the work without pain to the patient.
Yesterday Crossland Miles, Rankin Hammond and Will Clement were accused in court of disturbing the services at the opera house. Clement and Hammond were acquitted, and Miles was fined $20. Thoughtless talking caused the trouble, it seems.

PERSONAL.

Mr. J. W. Wilson, of this place, spent the holidays in St. Louis.
Miss Fannie Blue spent the holidays with her sisters in St. Louis.
Mr. S. H. Gugenheim is spending the week with relatives in Evansville.
Mrs. R. W. Wilson and daughter, Miss Reby, returned from Chicago Saturday.
Mr. A. Dewey and wife spent the holidays with his brother in Wright county, Ill.
Mrs. Arthur Schwab and two sons, of Evansville, spent last week with friends in Marion.
Mr. Everett Woods, of Memphis, spent three of the holidays with his friends in Marion, returning home Tuesday.

Mr. Elias M. tenbacker, who suddenly disappeared from his home at this place about two years ago, returned a few days since.

Mr. Henry Harris and wife, and Miss Annie Taylor, of Morganfield, are in town. Mr. Harris is a member of the firm of Green, Jones & Harris.
Mr. Freeman Hurley is at home for a couple of weeks from Carmi, Ills., where he has been with Stinson Bros. for two years.

Mr. Lee Hughes, of Stephensville, Texas, spent a week with his friends in Kentucky, returning home Tuesday. He went from this county to Texas several years ago, and is now a thorough native. He has prospered in his adopted home.

Dr. S. D. Swope reached home from Deming, New Mexico Monday. He spent three weeks with his brother finding him much improved in health.
The doctor brought many curious home with him, among which is a Mexican costume of the broad-brim, buckskin order. While out there he visited Mexico.

Mr. J. A. Kemp and wife, of Ripley, Tenn., are guests of relatives in this county. Mr. Kemp is a Crittenden county boy; a few months ago he went to Tennessee, and was so charmed with the products of that State that he brought one of them a bonny bride home to show his friends.

Mr. D. C. Flannery and wife, of Trinity, Texas, are guests of friends in this county. Mr. Flannery is a native of Crittenden county, and was one of the young men who, several years ago, took Horace Greeley's advice, "go west, young man, and grow up with the country. He was easily grafted into the soil of the west, and is now a prosperous, happy citizen of Texas.

Dr. M. D. Halsey, the Dentist who extracts teeth without any pain whatever to the patient, will make his last visit to Marion January 2, 3, 4, and can be seen at his room at the Marion Hotel.
This is his third visit to Marion, and his patrons increase in number each time.

This will be your last opportunity to secure the services of Dr. Halsey, and if you have teeth that should be extracted, yet not avoid the terrible pain and suffering by having the work done by the painless as well as harmless method.

The Cleansing of the Sanctuary.
The meetings in the opera hall were well attended all of last week. Eld. Reed's largest gathering was Sunday night. The audience was attentive and orderly as the speaker discoursed upon the Cleansing of the Sanctuary. The following constitutes a brief report of this all important subject:
The Sanctuary of the Lord is located in heaven. Ps. 10, 2:10. The earthly sanctuary was a figure or pattern of it. Heb. 9: 8, 9, 23. The heavenly sanctuary differs from the worldly sanctuary in its being a greater and more perfect tabernacle. Heb. 9:11. The following articles of furniture have been seen in the heavenly sanctuary: the ark containing the ten commandments, the golden altar, and the seven lamps. Rev. 11:9; 8:3; 4:5 which shows that there are the two sacred apartments, the holy and the most holy, in the heavenly sanctuary. The holy places made with hands are the figures of the true sanctuary in heaven. Heb. 9:24. The service of the Levitical priesthood was an example of Christ's mediation in the true sanctuary above. Heb. 8, 4, 5. And as the earthly priests ministered in two apartments, so did Jesus, our high priest, minister in two apartments in the temple of heaven.
Jesus Christ is the Minister of that sanctuary. Heb. 8: 1, 2, 4:14. His feelings are touched by our infirmities and his character is perfect. Heb. 4:15; 5:7-9. Christ was a high priest after the order of Melchisedec. Heb. 5:10; 6:20. He could not belong to the Levitical priesthood because he was of the tribe of Juda. Heb. 7:13, 14. Christ was a priest after the order of Melchisedec, that is, he had no predecessor, and will have no successor. The earthly sanctuary was cleansed or purified by the blood of animals, but it takes the precious blood of Christ to cleanse or purify, the sanctuary in heaven. Heb. 11:12, 28. Sin has been forgiven to the sanctuary by the ministry of the priest, as shown by the type, and must be removed or cleansed by blood. The sanctuary is, therefore, to be cleansed from sin, and not from physical impurity. Dan. 8:14 locates the cleansing of the heavenly sanctuary to be just before the coming of the Lord. This work began in 1844, and when it ceases, as it soon will, then probation will close, and Christ will lay aside his priestly robes and put on the garments of vengeance to visit the earth with the seven last plagues. Rev. 16.

It is said that G. J. will be forward to the judgment or election of the sanctuary. Heb. 9: 24, 25. He is given, and in order for God to destroy them he must destroy those who are permeated with them. But one will say, "What is sin?" It is the transgression of the ten commandments which are now in heaven. Rev. 11:19. Within the holy of holies, in the sanctuary in heaven, the divine law is sacredly enshrined,—the law that was spoken by the Lord himself amid the thunders of Sinai, and written on the tables of stone. The law of God in the sanctuary in heaven is the great original, of which the precepts inscribed upon the tables of stone and recorded by Moses in the Pentateuch, were an unerring transcript. Dear friends, cease from sin, that you may eternally live in my prayer. Amen.

Deeds Recorded.
Joel M. Taylor to L. E. Tabor, deed of gift, 100 acres and all the personal property of the grantor.
John H. Morse to Jas. McConnell, lot for $250.
W. D. Brantley to S. F. Crider, 412 acres for $145.25.
J. P. Samuels to Wm. C. Clark, lots for $1100.
R. F. Hyrnes, Jr., to L. H. Franklin, lot in Marion for $850.
I. W. Threlkeld to Obadiah Hunt, land for $15.
I. W. Threlkeld to M. S. Jennings, 113 acres for $250.
J. P. Samuels to J. H. Stanley, interest in land for $50.
Minnie Walker to J. C. Little, interest in land for $50.
Hentle Bell to T. B. Payne, 17 acres for $200.
Chas. Sanderson to C. C. Brown, 70 acres for $500.
Davis & Ryne to S. B. Davis, 68 acres for $374.
W. C. Farmer to L. C. Terry, lots for $500.
J. S. Ainsworth to L. C. Terry, 100 acres for $1000.

The Masonic dinner on the 27th was an elegant affair. More than 50 persons were served in splendid style at Mrs. E. C. Haynes'. On the same day the lodge elected and installed officers. The installation was public and the lodge room was crowded with friends of the order to witness the ceremonies. The following persons were installed:
H. A. Hodge, W. M.; W. E. Potter, S. W.; James G. Gilbert, J. W.; D. Woods, Treas.; J. B. Kevil, Sec.; C. S. Nunn, S. D.; R. P. Tucker, J. D.; T. J. Daniel, T.
NEW YEARS GREETING.
We wish to extend our thanks to all for the trade that has been given us the past year, and to show our appreciation we intend keeping a large and complete assortment of dry goods, notions, furnishing goods, hats, caps, fine custom made shoes, etc., that we will sell at a very close margin. We cannot cut our price HALF, for our past profits have not been large enough to justify it, but we will treat you right. Give us a call.
R. F. HAYNES, Jr.
R. E. Pickens,
W. T. McConnell, Salesmen

Mrs. Mary Barnes returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Coffield, of Birdsboro, a few days ago. Mrs. Coffield is in very poor health, being afflicted with lung trouble.
In Memoriam.
Of Mrs. Henrietta Boston, wife of G. E. Boston, who died Dec. 20, 1894. Etta was born July 1861, converted at Salem church in her thirteenth year, joined there and remained a faithful consistent member of the same until God called her to the church triumphant.
She was the daughter of Rev. W. T. Moore, of the Louisville Conference, and niece of Rev. R. C. Love, of the same Conference. She was a sweet, lovable child from birth, but always evinced patience and fortitude in every trial she was called upon to bear. During her last illness, which lasted about three months, she was submissive and resigned to God's will. At times she suffered intensely, but her spirit of submission rose above it, and she conquered through faith in Christ.
She leaves a husband and three little children to mourn her loss; but they have a bright example to follow, and we would say to them, weep not, but rather rejoice that she is at rest.
M. N. M.

Thomas C. Leech Dead.
Mr. T. C. Leech, one of the leading citizens of Paducah, died Tuesday of last week of pneumonia. The following sketch is from the Paducah News:
"Thomas C. Leech, sr., was born near Smithland, in Livingston county, this state, September 12, 1826. He was the second of nine children. His father was James Crawford Leech, one of the pioneers of Livingston county, who emigrated from Virginia. His mother, Miss Linda Glen, was daughter of Col. Glen, a prominent citizen and first settler of Caldwell, now Lyon county. On November 15, 1855, Mr. Leech was married to Miss Amanda Comer, of Greenup county, Ky. The couple had nine children—four sons and five daughters, of whom five survive, besides the grief stricken widow. They are Mrs. Lee Cox, T. C. Leech, Jr., Will C. Leech, Louis Leech and Miss Mattie Leech, all of this city. A brother, Mr. Wm. V. Leech, a leading citizen of Cape Girardeau, Mo., who has been at his residence for several days, and Mrs. Capt. Joseph H. Fowler, his sister, are the only other living members of his immediate family.
"For 27 years Mr. Leech was in business in Smithland. Here by fair dealing he amassed a considerable fortune. In 1882 he removed to Paducah and embarked in various financial enterprises, in all of which he was successful. At the time of his death he was President of the Paducah Banking company, and was interested in other thriving corporations. He died comparatively wealthy, and every penny of his fortune was the result of hard work and honest labor.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of taxes due the State and County for the year 1893 and '94, I, one of my deputies, will on Monday the 28th day of January 1895 between the hours of 1 o'clock A. M., and 4 o'clock P. M., at the Court House, in Marion, Crittenden county, Ky., expose to Public Sale, to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, the following property (or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the amount of taxes due, as aforesaid and costs), to-wit:

PRECINCT NO. 1.
J. H. Brantley, col. 2 lots in Marion.
Elijah McCain, 1 lot in Marion.
Lewis Fowler, col. 1 lot in Marion.
Giles Hamilton, col. 1 lot in Marion.
Abraham Harvey, col. 1 lot in Marion.
Frank Lovell, col. 1 lot in Marion.
Wiley McCain, 1 lot in Marion.
Richard Waddell, 1 lot in Marion.
PRECINCT NO. 2.
W. H. Briggs, 1 lot near Marion.
Emily D. Brown, 1 lot near Marion.
Joseph M. McDowell, 70 acres near J. R. Woodall.
John Cruise, col. 1 lot in Marion.
PRECINCT NO. 3.
Mrs. Laura Adams, 51 acres near Frances.
Gordon F. Pickering, 3 lots in Dyersburg.
W. M. Bennett, 736 acres near D. Sunderland.
John Reynolds, 150 acres near McClinton.
Thomas S. Wade, 50 acres near S. C. Cassidy.
Mills Crider, col. 63 near Jos. Clifton.
PRECINCT NO. 6.
Sam'l Williams, 1 lot in Weston.
John H. Burton, 1 lot in Weston.
Mrs. Nancy McCollins, 74 acres near John Walder.
PRECINCT NO. 7.
Mrs. Nancy Farmer, 137 acres near R. L. Lines.
James T. Morgan, 2 acres.
John W. Clark, col. 40 acres near Weston.
Andrew Young, 40 acres near Mariah Sales.
Edward J. Allen, 120 acres.
G. Hazel, 100 acres near Bells Land.
PRECINCT NO. 8.
J. F. Birch, 1 lot in Shady Grove.
Frank E. Boyd, 50 acres near Albert McConnell.
D. Manse Hubbard 11 acres near R. H. Kemp.
D. E. Williams 100 acres near Shady Grove.
PRECINCT NO. 9.
Mrs. Plein 30 acres near Towhead Island.
Isaac H. Trubee, 250 acres near P. C. Barnett.
Mrs. H. E. Nesbitt, 90 acres near P. C. Barnett.
JNO. T. FRANKS, S. C. C.

FIRST CLASS BOARDING HOUSE, MARION, KY.

I have opened a boarding house, in what is known as the Hays house, near the school building. Everything first class; table supplied with the best of the market affrds; rooms comfortable clean and tasty. Rates very reasonable. I solicit your patronage.
(Mrs.) DOCTA MCCORD.

Stray Sow.

A black sow, marked swallow fork, hole and slit in each ear; has been at my place since November. The owner who have same by paying for this notice, and expense of feeding, and proving the property.
R. H. Butler.

Stray Notice.

A bay mare, 15 years old, end of left ear bitten and hanging, and a light bay horse, bazei face, white hind feet, 9 years old, strayed from me December 31. Will pay for their return to me at Marion, Ky.
J. W. Blue, Jr.

Notice.

Again I call your attention to the fact that you must come and get a right to the wire trap patent fence you are using. I do not want to bring suit against you, but as I bought and paid for the right to this county, I can not afford to have you infringe on my right. Mr. W. S. Perkins is my authorized agent.
J. P. Pierce.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Fredonia Valley Bank,
KELSEY, KENTUCKY.

CAPITAL STOCK $15,000.00.
Furnishes Unsurpassed Safety to Depositors. A Double Time Lock Burglar Proof Safe, Fire Proof Vaults.
Correspondents:
All kinds of legitimate banking business transacted. The accounts and patronage of the public solicited. Special attention given to collections.
DIRECTORS—D. T. BYRD, J. W. RICE, M. B. LOWERY, W. C. RICE, S. H. CASSIDY, J. C. ELDER, JR., Secretary.
Will Commence Business January 24, 1895.

ADMINISTRATORS

SALE!

I WILL ON
Tuesday, January 22, 1895,
At the residence of the late Foster Crider, one half mile East of Tolu sell to the highest bidder on a credit of 12 months the following property:
9 head of horses, 3 head of mules, 1 short horn bull, 1 Jersey cow and calf, lot of farming implements, 136 inch cylinder Heilmann thresher and 10 horse engine, household and kitchen furniture, etc., etc., etc.
Note with approved security bearing 6 per cent. interest from date, will be required before property is moved. Sums of $5.00 and under cash in hand. Sale will begin at 10 o'clock A. M.

WILLIE P. CRIDER, Adm'r.

THE HOLIDAYS ARE NOW OVER

I will say to the people of Crittenden and adjoining counties, that I positively am going to quit business, I have an immense stock

Which Must Be Sold Regardless of Cost, But Strictly for the Cash.

For Instance—

GRANULATED SUGAR	Glassware, Tinware
That has been an immense bargain at 20lbs for $1.00 now goes at 22LBS FOR $1.00	In glassware, queensware and Tinware I am greatly overstocked and will sell at your price.
COFFEE	Cooking Stoves
That has been 4lbs for $1.00 now goes at from 4 1/2 TO 5LBS FOR $1.00	That have been selling for $8.50 will sell you now $7.00 complete. Fine Cooking stoves that have been selling for $16.00 now go for $12.00. Heating stoves for parlors, sitting rooms, churches, schools 25 per cent less than heretofore.
Wash Pans	Saddles and Bridles
That were 10cts now go for 5c.	And other articles in the harness line, such as is now in stock, 30 per cent off
5 Gal Lard Cans	269 Kegs of Nails
That have been bargains at 40cts now go at 25CENTS.	On hands. Get my prices and see if I am not selling out.
Cups and Saucers	Wagons.
That were 20 cts now go for 15 CTS.	Only one platform spring wagon left, regular price $70, now goes at $55. Only 6 OLD HICKORY WAGONS and 3 TENNESSEE, 3 inches, left.
Glass Oil Cans
That have been 35 cts now go for 25c
Hunter Sifter
That has been 25 c now goes for 15c.
China Cups
With handles, that have been 63c now go at 35c.

Very Best Home made Sorghum 25c per gal—less on large amounts.

Having so many goods in stock [entirely too many to name here] I will say to my patrons and the public generally, that I appreciate the hard time an will certainly for

60 Days Save You Money
As it will take that long for me to close out.

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS:
I will save you TEN PER CENT and FREIGHT. I am determined to close out.

I will continue in the produce business and pay CASH for Hides, Furs of all kinds, Eggs, Talow,

M. SCHWAB

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS

The Farmers' and Merchants' state bank at Mansfield, Ill., was robbed by burglars.

Breckinridge and Waller, the round-the-world cyclists, have gone broke in San Francisco.

Congress has agreed to the free importation of exhibits for the Southern Cotton exposition.

Rome's (N. Y.) alleged defaming mayor, Samuel D. Hett, has surrendered to the authorities.

Gov. Hogg of Texas has issued a quarantine proclamation against disease of Mexican cattle.

A mother and two children were fatally burned as the result of a gasoline explosion at Vicksburg.

Mrs. George Wood, formerly Miss Myrtle Gracie of Pontiac, Ill., committed suicide at Monticello, Ill.

The geological survey has reported on the Tennessee phosphate beds, declaring them to be of great value.

Robbers attacked the residence of John Vanhook near Perry, Ohio. He killed one and the others fled away.

Secretary Smith has recommended to congress to provide for the distribution of government maps to the public schools.

Miss Emily Nott, night railroad operator at Bonner Springs, Kas., was seriously and probably fatally injured by a roller.

George E. Hall, a prominent divine, died in Boston, Feb. 7, aged 81 years. He was president of the Massachusetts Historical society.

By a decision of the United States revenue department all growers of tobacco may produce the same without paying the special tax.

Passengers on a Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul train, robbed by four masked, but unarmed, men, while entering Sioux City, Ia.

Editor J. V. Schenck, of Caddo, La., was indicted by the federal grand jury at Paris, Tex., for shooting a man for insulting Mrs. Schenck.

Edward Shumaker was arrested on his release from the penitentiary at Jefferson City, Mo., and taken to Sedalia to answer charges of horse stealing.

Thieves stole a large quantity of beef from the slaughter-house of Coyne & Smith, west of Ocala, Fla., and then fired the building, which was destroyed.

Dr. J. H. Carl, of Birmingham, Ala., a traveling medical vender, who has been touring the towns in east Alabama, was fatally murdered and robbed near Lookout.

The citizens of Newmarket, Ind., to the number of twenty-five, marched to the only saloon in town and applied the incendiary torch. The building and contents were destroyed.

Oscar Welch, living in the Cheyenne country, was shot and instantly killed by three who attempted to stampede a herd of cattle that he was guarding. Welch was shot through the heart.

Frank Siegler, a merchant of Uniontown, Ind., dropped dead by bursting a blood vessel, during a fit of laughter. Mr. Siegler was a wealthy landowner, noted for miles around for his original wit and hearty laughter.

In the Chicago (Wab.) circuit court at Lisle, Emil Dwyer was convicted of murder in the third degree for killing Frank Henderson about one year ago at Chicago, and for administering strychnine by whiskey to him.

Mrs. Josephine Bell, the wife of Rev. William Bell, a student at the Warren Bible institute at Evansville, Ind., committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. The only known cause for the suicide was ill-health.

John J. Jennings, who defeated Nix, Hanger, of Wisconsin, for congress, admits that he has not taken out naturalization papers. He was brought into the country at the age of 4 years, and served in the army during the war.

Capt. Buford A. Tracy, one of Winchester's (Ky.) most prominent citizens, was accidentally killed by being caught in an elevator shaft and his neck broken. Capt. Tracy served on the staff of Col. Breckinridge during the war.

The home of ex-President Webb of Mississippi college, at Clinton, Miss., was burned. Many students were sleeping in the third story, and one of them, Joseph Hargis, of Greenwood, Miss., perished in the flames. The fire is attributed to an incendiary.

THE MARKETS.

NEW YORK DEC. 19, 1904.

CATTLE—Native Steers $17.00 to $18.00

WYOMING—Medium 10.00 to 11.00

WYOMING—Large 11.00 to 12.00

WYOMING—Small 9.00 to 10.00

WYOMING—Extra 12.00 to 13.00

WYOMING—Prime 14.00 to 15.00

WYOMING—Choice 16.00 to 17.00

WYOMING—Superior 18.00 to 19.00

WYOMING—Extra 20.00 to 21.00

WYOMING—Prime 22.00 to 23.00

WYOMING—Choice 24.00 to 25.00

WYOMING—Superior 26.00 to 27.00

WYOMING—Extra 28.00 to 29.00

WYOMING—Prime 30.00 to 31.00

WYOMING—Choice 32.00 to 33.00

WYOMING—Superior 34.00 to 35.00

WYOMING—Extra 36.00 to 37.00

WYOMING—Prime 38.00 to 39.00

WYOMING—Choice 40.00 to 41.00

WYOMING—Superior 42.00 to 43.00

WYOMING—Extra 44.00 to 45.00

WYOMING—Prime 46.00 to 47.00

WYOMING—Choice 48.00 to 49.00

WYOMING—Superior 50.00 to 51.00

WYOMING—Extra 52.00 to 53.00

WYOMING—Prime 54.00 to 55.00

WYOMING—Choice 56.00 to 57.00

WYOMING—Superior 58.00 to 59.00

WYOMING—Extra 60.00 to 61.00

WYOMING—Prime 62.00 to 63.00

WYOMING—Choice 64.00 to 65.00

WYOMING—Superior 66.00 to 67.00

WYOMING—Extra 68.00 to 69.00

WYOMING—Prime 70.00 to 71.00

WYOMING—Choice 72.00 to 73.00

WYOMING—Superior 74.00 to 75.00

WYOMING—Extra 76.00 to 77.00

WYOMING—Prime 78.00 to 79.00

WYOMING—Choice 80.00 to 81.00

WYOMING—Superior 82.00 to 83.00

WYOMING—Extra 84.00 to 85.00

WYOMING—Prime 86.00 to 87.00

WYOMING—Choice 88.00 to 89.00

WYOMING—Superior 90.00 to 91.00

WYOMING—Extra 92.00 to 93.00

WYOMING—Prime 94.00 to 95.00

WYOMING—Choice 96.00 to 97.00

WYOMING—Superior 98.00 to 99.00

WYOMING—Extra 100.00 to 101.00

WYOMING—Prime 102.00 to 103.00

WYOMING—Choice 104.00 to 105.00

WYOMING—Superior 106.00 to 107.00

WYOMING—Extra 108.00 to 109.00

WYOMING—Prime 110.00 to 111.00

WYOMING—Choice 112.00 to 113.00

WYOMING—Superior 114.00 to 115.00

WYOMING—Extra 116.00 to 117.00

AS IN YOUTH

Ayer's Hair Vigor

CORDIALLY INDORSED.

RESTORES

Natural Growth

OF THE

HAIR

—WHEN—

ALL OTHER

Dressings

FAIL

"I can cordially endorse Ayer's Hair Vigor, as one of the best preparations for the hair. When I began using Ayer's Hair Vigor, all the front part of my head—about half of it—was bald. The use of only two bottles restored my natural growth, which still remains in my youth. I tried several other dressings, but they all failed. Ayer's Hair Vigor is the best."—Mrs. J. C. FRETHER, Converse, Texas.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

PREPARED BY

DR. J. C. AYER & CO., LOWELL, MASS.

ON AN IRONCLAD AT SEA.

Life on the Ocean Wave and Home on the Rolling Deck.

Admiral von Werr, a high authority in naval matters in Germany, describes in a work recently published the behavior of armor-plated men-of-war in heavy seas. He says: "Even with a moderate gale and sea an iron-plated cruiser, if going against the wind, will find herself in conditions similar to those of a storm—at least, the crew will have that impression. The movements of the stern of the ship are violent and exceedingly disagreeable. The waves pushed by the advancing prow sweep constantly over the ship from bow to stern. All windows and port holes must be closed and air reaches the lower decks, where the heat increases unbearably, only through the artificial ventilator. With the exception of the specially protected command bridge all the uncovered portions of the ship are impassable, thus the whole of the crew must bear as well as they can the hull of the closed decks. On such a ship one can feel comfortable, and when there is a storm, a sailing ship would feel comparatively at ease the crew of an armor-plated ship imagines itself to be in a heavy hurricane; while, the threats of destruction at every minute. The long, narrow forecast of the ship, which is not borne lightly by the water, and is rendered even more dangerous by the slightest wind and the armored deck and the cannon and torpedoes, forces the ship in a high sea to pitching and rolling of such an extraordinary kind that they cannot be described. The crew of such a ship is not only exposed to moral dangers, but the physical. The constant pitching and rolling, the noise, the darkness, the physical, extremely and dangerously receive their toll and make the profession hateful."

THEY ARE WELL "FIXED."

What the Comte de Paris' Family Have Become Possessed Of.

About 4,500 cubic feet of gas is sent up per hour and the records of the rainmakers show that, either through some influence or by good fortune, clouds have formed soon after the issue of the gases at many stations—although in some instances they have bombarded the heavens in vain for days. The operation is quite expensive, an alloy with mercuric iodine costing $15 a pound, being much used, and the cost of the gas is about $100 a day.

NAMED AFTER PRESIDENTS.

Philadelphia, Va., Feb. 19, 1904.

Of the twenty-three presidents of the United States John Adams has the largest number of namesakes, twenty-three in the Philadelphia directory. James Buchanan ranks next, twenty-one men of whose names are in the directory. There are five Adamses, four Buchanans, three Jacksons, two Johnsons, two Monroes, two Taylors, two Van Burens, two Wilsons, two Roosevelts, two Garfields, two Clintons, two Hayses, two Polks, two Fillmores, two Grants, two Hayes, two Garfields, two Arthurs, two Cleverlands, except as a handle to the surnames.

STOPPED THE BABY'S CRY.

A Bachelor Brings His Knowledge of Human Nature Into Play.

A bachelor is not usually accredited with much knowledge about the proper treatment of children; but sometimes they step in where angels fear to tread. The mothers of the children—fall to treat. A well-known man about town, who is pretty well on in years, and not very fond of children, stopped in to see a married sister the other day and found her trying to soothe her little boy of about 3 years. Not long after he arrived she stepped out of the room to attend to some household matter or other, leaving him alone with the child. The latter eyed him dubiously for some minutes. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little one laugh, but all he got for his antics was a sour look. Finally, without warning, the child burst out crying. Here was a quandary to be sure. He didn't dare to pick the boy up and soothe him. His attempts in a verbal form were dismal failures. What should he do? Finally a thought struck him. He looked at the crying youngster and the crying youngster looked at him through his tears. He was a spoiled child if ever there was one, and he had no idea of making peace with the child. The bachelor tried to make the little

