SPECIAL MESSAGE

President Cleveland Gave the Cresswell Congress for Financial Legislation.

He Does. Will Issue More Debt.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The President's action in regard to the financial legislation in Congress, which message was unanimously adopted by the members of the national finance committee, has been met with the most cordial endorsement by financial men.

The President's action, while not having been appointed by agreement with the Democrats, has not been opposed by any group of financial leaders, as might have been expected.

The measure is considered by most financial men as a necessary step, both in the interests of sound public finance and in the interest of the business community.
