THE SCHOOL

Opens Monday With Everything in Fine Condition for a Successful Term.

All Pupils Should be Present at the Opening.

Next Monday morning the Fourth Term of the Marion Graded Public School opens, and everything portends a most successful term. As the years go by and the work of the school under the able management of Mr. Charles Evans is seen and felt, and not only in the community, but throughout the county, the school grows in popular favor, and the people of Marion take a greater interest in all that effects the institution.

There are no dissensions, nor divisions nor factions, but the entire community stands behind the school. Upholding the hands of the teachers and rejoicing in its progressive history.

When the hour arrives Monday morning, every child in the school age should be in the chapel, books in hand, ready for the work. A great majority of them will be there and need no exhortation, but sometimes there are parents who fail to see the necessity of starting their children the first day, or the first week, and to these the principal desires to appeal.

He can organize quicker and more satisfactory to himself and pupils, and begin the earnest work earlier and with more uniformity if all are on hands the first day. If a pupil misses the first few days, he starts at a disadvantage, and he will feel lincensed perhaps to absent at other days during the term.

With everything in readiness, there should not be a laggard Monday morning. The school belongs to the public, every citizen of the community is a share holder, and if he be a sensible man or woman, no pains will be spared to get every advantage offered, and he or she who fails in this particular is losing money on his own investment.

The teachers this year are as follows:

First and second grades, Miss Ray Woods.

Third and fourth grades, Miss Lillie Cook.

Fifth and sixth grades, E. D. Gray.

Seventh grade, Miss Maggie Moore.

Eighth grade, T. F. Newcomb.

Ninth and tenth grades, Charles Evans.

The Ohio Valley Brass Band has rented the opera house for a year. The young men propose to manage so as to make something for the band and to have a number of first class entertainments for the people of the town. They will engage only the best talent, that worthy the patronage of the best people. They anticipate some of the best talent on the lecture field, as well as some good opera companies, and musicals will be a special feature. The house will be repaired and put in first class order and the stage will be fitted up in splendid style. We take pleasure in bespeaking for the young men the patronage of the public.

Nonie Sutcliffe, e. d. died at her home in Marion Friday, of consumption.

STRUCK OIL.

And is Hopeful of a Big Flow Just Ahead.

Mr. W. D. Wallingford, who has been prospecting for minerals and oil on his farm near town for several months, is just passing through an exciting stage of his terrestrial investigations. At a depth of 175 feet he struck oil. Just how much there is he can not tell, but he has found oil and has it on exhibition at his livery stable. From a bucket of water a considerable quantity of oil can be taken; a portion of it sinks to the bottom of the bucket, and oil can be skimmed from the top of the water. The well has been sunk 210 feet, and work still goes on. The drill now in operation can go only 225 feet, and our prospector will push along on "his own hook" until he reaches that depth. If he does not strike a fortune by that time, he proposes to organize a stock company, and push his researches onward and downward. There will be no trouble in organizing the company, for already local capital is hibernating with him, and within twenty-four hours several hundred dollars can be found ready for use. At present he is not asking help, and does not want it; he has pushed along slowly by himself, and now as there appears to be something material in sight, he does not propose to divide up until he has it.

It may be that some of our old rugged hills are but the caps to cans of wealth beneath, and we may yet unhook the jugs and give the country a sample of the goods nature has stored away beneath a rather rough exterior for us.

In Crittenden we are digging fine coal, and have it in large quantities; we are exporting spar, and have hills full of it. And now with a prospect for oil, and other things not yet dreamed of, we may head off the Klondike, shut out Hardin county with her gold, and come under the string ahead of the onyx fields. Just keep your eyes on us.

On the 25th the people of that section met at Mt. Zion church for the purpose of cleaning off the cemetery. Annually they have a meeting of this kind, and they have grown to regard this as a sacred duty they owe the dead, and very few fail to attend and take part in the work. Last Wednesday fully five hundred people gathered there, and many came from a long distance, having friends resting in this "city of the dead," they were willing to dedicate the day to their memory. The forenoon was spent in the work. At noon dinner was spread on the ground and there was plenty and to spare. In the afternoon religious services were held and all participated in the prayers and songs. An appropriate address was made by "Uncle" Highly Gilbert. He assisted in digging the first grave at the cemetery, and has lived to see more than four hundred other mounds reared in this silent home. The first grave was made for a Mr. Beal, since then representatives of almost all of the old families in that section have gone thither. Among the pioneers there are Ryland Heath, Col. Wm. Hughes, Chapel Nunn, Chesley Nunn, Dr. M. Bristol, Wm. and Jack Hill, and of a whose names can not now be recalled.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

Caldwell Springs Church Dedicated Its Splendid Edifice.

The new church buildings at Caldwell Springs were formally dedicated to the worship of God Sunday.

About 2,000 people attended the dedicatory services. People from four counties were present, and it was a red letter day in the history of the progressive, solid church at that place. That community is noted for its peacefulness, industry and morality, and the church which has been in existence there for half a century has wielded a great influence in the shaping of the destinies of that splendid community; indeed who can measure the influence of a live church in any community.

Rev. Couch, who was expected to preach the sermon failed to come and Rev. J. S. Henry ably filled his place in the pulpit, and as he preached the people listened and were edified.

Before the sermon a collection was taken and the amount due on the house was readily subscribed.

Elder W. R. Gibbs is pastor of the church, and he is loved and honored by his people. He is a strong preacher, a devoted man, always full of earnestness and zeal, and always a success as a pastor.

PASSES AWAY.

One of the "Old Twins" Dies at the County Poor House.

Friday Louisa Stinson died at the county poor house. For years two old maids occupied a little house on the roadside just beyond Crittenden Springs, and everybody in that section, as well as all the visitors at Crittenden Springs knew the "old twins." This little house was bare of many of the every day comforts, but for years they struggled along, making a brave fight to keep out of the county poor house. The neighbors helped them and the visitors at Crittenden Springs for years threw many a ray of sunshine across that almost barren hearth, and caused many a smile to light up the pinched faces of these lonely old women by their small contributions. Finally the day came when they had to go to the poor house, and there last Friday the companionship of the two sisters was broken for the first time in the eighty years of their lives. Louisa died and Louisa remained.

They were the daughters of Hamilton Stinson, one of the pioneers of the county; he came to this State from one of the Carolinas about the beginning of the century and settled near where Mrs. Allen now lives, on the Marion and Sheridan road, a short distance from where the Sheridan and Springs road separates. Mr. Hamilton Stinson owned several hundred acres of land in that section and was fairly well to do in his day and generation. One morning, during the absence of his family from home his lifeless body was found suspended from a tier pole in his house, a log chain serving the purpose of a rope. Why he hung himself is not known by any one now living. He raised a large family, all of whom, except "the twins" left after the father's death. The youngest, David Stinson, was a physician; he went to California, and it was said, married wealthy and was prosperous until his death, many years ago; it was also said that he left a family, but none of them ever came to see the "old twins." Hamilton Stinson's second marriage was to the widow Shouse, and she was the mother of Louisa and Louisa. She had a son by her first husband named Henry Shouse, and in the fifties he killed a man named Simpson in Pope county, Illinois. He was afterwards arrested and upon trial was convicted and hanged at Golconda.

MOTHER! There is no word so full of meaning and about which such tender and holy recollections cluster as that of "MOTHER"—she who watched over our helpless infancy and guided our first tottering steps. Yet the life of every Expectant Mother is beset with danger and all effort should be made to avoid it. So assist nature in the chaguetaking place that the Expectant Mother is enabled to look forward without dread, suffering or gloomy forebodings, to the hour when she experiences the joy of Motherhood. Its use insures safety to the lives of both Mother and Child, and she is found stronger after than before confinement—in short, it "makes Childbirth natural and easy," as so many have said. Wool Carding

AT MARION, KY.

Having thoroughly overhauled and repaired my machinery, making it practically as good as new, I am ready to card wool. I had more than twenty years experience, and understanding the business in every detail, and having a first class machine, I can do better work than you can get anywhere else. I guarantee all of my work to give entire satisfaction. Bring in your wool. Will pay freight to machine on all shipments of 100 pounds and over. Neighbors can easily club together and send that amount together at one shipment. Mark each bundle with the owners name, and write giving full directions as to the way you want it carded.

The Best Remedy

M. M. Repline, editor, Tinkilwa's Ill. Chief, says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Experimented with many others but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have a certain and sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures, and besides it is guaranteed, it never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at Orme's drug store.

Something to Depend On.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery says that last winter his wife was attacked with LaGrippe, and her case became so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into Hasty Consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle of it home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half a dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at Orme's drug store.

Dangerous Drinking Water

Death lurks in impure water. It breeds disease often in epidemic form. The first symptom is looseness of the bowels. These diseases are checked by Foley's Colic Cure.

A Remarkable Cure of Chronic Diarrhea.

In 1862, when I served my country as a private in company A 168th Pennsylvania Volunteers, I contracted chronic diarrhea and it has given me a great deal of trouble ever since. I have tried a dozen different medicines and several prominent doctors, without any permanent relief. Not long ago a friend sent me a sample bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, and after that I bought and took a 50 cent bottle, and now I can say that I am entirely cured. I can not be thankful enough to you for this great remedy and recommend it to all suffering yet. If in doubt, write me Yours gratefully, Henry Steinhilber, Allen town, Pa. Sold at J H Orme's drug store.

YOU ought to know that when suffering from any kidney trouble that a safe, sure remedy is Foley's Kidney Cure. Guaranteed or money refunded.
