AMERICA'S MISSION.

The mission of Washington, the capital city of the United States, is to maintain a constitutional government and to promote the welfare of the nation. This mission is carried out by the Executive Branch, the Legislative Branch, and the Judicial Branch. The President of the United States is the head of the Executive Branch and is responsible for enforcing the laws of the United States. The Congress of the United States is the Legislative Branch and is responsible for making laws. The Supreme Court is the Judicial Branch and is responsible for interpreting the laws of the United States. These branches of government work together to ensure that the mission of Washington is fulfilled.
