SATURDAY'S CONVENTION

Judge Pratt Loses His Former Girbaltor and Taylor Wins.

A War of Fight for a Little While, But Senator Debo Easily Mastered of the Situation.

The Republican Central Committee (two men and two ladies) met at the Hotel Taylor and was attended by Judge Pratt, Senator Debo, Mr. B. C. Taylor, Mr. C. F. Wood, Mr. W. W. Sikes, Mr. W. W. C. Brown, Mr. J. B. Brown and Mr. W. B. Mahaffey, and the latter was in charge of the meeting. The committee was attended by a large number of business men and politicians, and the meeting was held in the Hotel Taylor.

Dr. Gray Wins.

Judge J. A. Moore took the floor and said:

"Dr. Gray is a man who has been a friend of mine for many years, and I am happy to see that he is now in the position of a leader in the Republican party. I am sure that he will do his best to promote the interests of the party in this district."

Judge Pratt, in introducing the program, said:

"I am sure that Dr. Gray will do his best to promote the interests of the party, and I am confident that he will be a successful leader."

We are all alarmed to hear that Mr. J. F. Martin is seriously ill. We hope he will be soon well again.

Marion, June 11th, O. W. Martin.

Rev. Dr. A. B. WRIGHT, pastor of the Methodist church.

Boys, please be careful when returning from the farm.

The steep hill on the way back to town is a dangerous place for boys.

Our local boys have made a fine profit by selling newspapers.

The boys are doing splendid work.
