STAND BY THE TICKET.

Says Bryan, in Words That Can not Be Misunderstood.

Great Throes Hear and Cheer the Two Great Leaders on Their Triumphant Tour through the Slave from West to East.

"I Believe You Ought To Elect Goebel."

Mr. Bryan, the great Democratic candidates, endorsed the Kentucky Managers, and said that the people in the state had given them a "great" vote, and would stand by the ticket. He was then asked if he would stand by the ticket, and Mr. Bryan said: "I believe you ought to elect Mr. Goebel." Mr. Bryan, in words that cannot be misunderstood, endorsed Mr. Goebel.

A WORD TO THE WISE

Is said to be sufficient, and, taking this view of it, we have a word for the wise buyer of goods—the people who want the best for the least outlay of money.

Never before have we pleased ourselves better in the purchase of goods. The quality, the style, the workmanship, and we are in no position to please the highest prices, and we are told we have reason to be proud of the goods we offer, the people who want the best for the least outlay of money.

RENEWAL

To the people at the Christian Church:

On Monday night, Oct. 19, Dr. W. H. Pitts, of the American Baptist College, was our speaker. He spoke on the subject: "The Church and the Future." He referred to the history of the church, its present state and its future prospects. He was very interesting and his address was well received.
