SERVICE FOR THE ILLINOIS.

Contracts Let for a Magnificent Silver Service for the Battleship Illinois.

Chicago, Dec. 31.-The Chronicle

Contracts have been signed which will secure for the battleship Illinois, when she goes into commission next summer, a handsome service of silver plate. The gift is one from the people of Chicago and consists of two punch bowls, ladles, tray, candelabrum, epicurcan bowl and two fruit dishes, ten pieces in all, costing in the neighborhood of $10,000.

The largest piece will be a punch bowl, having a capacity of 12 gallons. It is 22 inches in diameter and stands 18 inches high. The outer edge has a deep fluting broken with the from Minister Conger at Pekin dated classical draperies so familiar in colonial designs. Running far Chinese plenipotentiaries have noti- enough down to break the general plainness of the bowl are festooned wreaths, hanging from the fluting. In the center of the rim is a plate which will bear an inscription in raised letters setting forth the fact of the gift. Below this will be the coat of arms of Illinois modeled in bas relief. On the opposite outside surface will be the arms of the United States. These coats of arms appear on each piece of the service.

The base of the bowl rests on a Grecian cap, which has the fluting and modeled wreaths. The handles curve gracefully from the bottom of the bowl several inches above the rim, falling to it so that the tangent forms the means of support. These are fluted and modeled. The other punch bowl is a replica of the large one but holds only four gallons.

HAVOC IN UNITED KINGDOM.

Severe Snow Storms and Deluging Rains Throughout the British Isles.

London, Dec. 31.-Severe snow storms, deluging rains and furious gales have created havoe in the United Kingdom. In many parts of the country there have been destructive floods, landslips and washouts. On all sides much stock has been drowned. The railroads and highways are blocked, buildings and bridges have been carried off and the overflowing streams have inundated miles of country, while they have submerged the streets in some of the towns three to four feet. At Coventry the devantation is greater than at any time during the last 30 years. A number of factories have been flooded and hundreds of the inhabitants are im-fires extinguished by the floods, Many trains on the midland railroads have been stopped and their

The town of Bath is endangered by the rise of the Avon, which is ten feet above the normal. Immense tracts of land in several counties have been transformed to inland seas, the inhabitants seeking refuge in the upper rooms of their dwellings. Many villages are altogether isolated and some towns of considerable size are without gas, owing to the works being flooded.

THE DISCOVERER OF Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound The Great Woman's Remedy for Woman's Ills.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement.

No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles or such hosts of grateful friends.

Do not be persuaded that any other medicine is just as good. Any dealer who asks you to buy something else when you go into his store purposely to buy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, has no interest in your case. He is merely trying to sell you something on which he can make a larger profit. He does not care whether you get well or not, so long as he can make a little more money out of your sickness. If he wished you well he would without hesitation hand you the medicine you ask for, and which he knows is the best woman's medicine in the world.

Follow the record of this medicine, and remember that these thousands of cures of women whose letters are constantly printed in this paper were not brought about by "something else," but by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The Great Woman's Remedy for Woman's Ills. Those women who refuse to accept anything else are rewarded a hundred thousand times, for they get what they want - a cure. Moral - Stick to the medicine that you know is Best.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health more than a million women, you cannot well say without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." If you are ill, do not hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free and helpful.

The Chicago Mining Company preparatory to placing in position their boilers, steam hoists and pumps, indicates an energy and persistence that has made Chicago known throughout the world. Mr. Henry C. Clark, formerly of Michigan but now resident at the hotel Holland, Chicago, is the President of the Company, and Mr. DeWitt C. Roberts, of Chicago, at present directing the work here, is Secretary. Mr. Lester L. Jones, well and favorably known in business and financial circles in Chicago, is the Treasurer of the Company. The unanimous action of the city council in remitting the Company's taxes for the ensuing five years, is heartily commended by all of our citizens.

SUDDEN DEATH

Of Mr. Frank Swansey on the Urged to Become a Candidate for 21st of December.

Mr. Frank Swansey, a well to do and popular farmer of this county died suddenly Friday evening. Dec 21st. Mr. Swansey seemed to be enjoying the best of health and was at the supper table when, without one moment's warning, the heart's pulsations ceased and his life was ended. The death was a shock to the numerous friends of the deceased. Mr. Swanto say was a good citizen and a faithful member of the C. P. church of this city. Three daughters survive him, his wife having died several months ago.

WEDDING BELLS

White--Woods.

On Thursday morning, Dec. 27 1900, at her home in Marion, Miss Katharine Woods was united in marriage to Mr. Welford White, of Helena, Ark.

The wedding was one of the prettiest seen here in a long time. There was so little formality about it that every one felt that, though a solemn occasion it was a no less joyous one. The guests assembled in the comfortable parlor, and as expectant hush fell upon the room the bride, most becomingly gowned in a traveling dress of brown entered upon the arm of him into whose keeping she had given her ed the simple and beautiful ceremony, which was concluded with a prayer by Rev. Dupuy.

ing through a performance in a cage with a full grown lion lately caught. Suddenly it was seen that the brute was putting the trainer through his paces rather than being put through itself. Softly, crouching and creeping, the big cat edged itself between the thoroughly unnerved man and the door of the den, fixing its victim with two rolling yellow orbs of flaming ferocity and sawing the empty air with its tufted tall as it crouched preparatory to

A Human Hiss Cowed the Lion. At Cape Town a lion tamer was go-

Many men among the audience, used to the ways of wild beasts, saw and comprehended, but only one man pos-sessed the knowledge and the presence of mind to avert the apparently inevitable. Pursing up his lips as though he were going to whistle, he emitted a horse, low, rasping hiss.

The beast beard and understood, for the sound was an exact imitation of the noise made by the glant constrictor when its huge body is colled for the throw that never misses, that never relaxes and that no beast of the field is strong enough to withstand. Again and yet again the raucous sound rasped the stillness, and the angry brute drew back its head, its great eyes grew small and dull, the backles rose and stiffened on its back, and it cowered, whining, on the floor of the cage.

What "Yours Sincerely" Means, Perhaps the jerry builders of London who construct ceilings part of which tumble into one's soup and floors which unexpectedly drop into the cellar would not be so glib to subscribe themselves "Yours sincerely" if they knew the origin of the phrase. The Stone Trades Journal, waxing classic and Vitruviuslike, gives the source of the thing, which to students is old, but which may be new to the gentry who profess to provide shelter for a great part of the community;

"The extent to which marble is entering into the decoration of modern buildings is but a repetition of the history of Roman architecture. The fact is that the old Roman Jerry builders used defective slabs of marble in erectand different papers and magazines; will ing residences to sell at reduced rates and covered up the defects with a cement of which white wax formed the chief ingredient. They looked just as stately as the others till an exceptionally hot sun melted the wax and revealed the fraud; hence a perfect building was said to be 'sine cera' or 'without wax,' and a friendship perfected by the trial of adversity was said to be 'without wax.' The signature 'sine cera,' as a symbol of genuine affection and probity, has been used ever since and is perpetuated in the English word

'sincerity.' " Cowardice of Sharks.

Many tales have been told of how human beings have been devoured by the fish that is known as the "man eater." Although many of these have been greatly exaggerated, they are to a certain extent true. It is also true that sharks have been known to follow a ship for days, picking up and eating that which had been thrown overboard

Notwithstanding all this the cowardliness of sharks is well known among men who have been much to sea in southern waters. The flercest shark will get out of the way of a swimmer if the latter sets up a noisy splashing. A shark fears anything that splashes in the water. Among the south sea islands the natives never go bathing alone, but always in parties of half a dozen or so, in order that they may make a great hubbub in the water and thus frighten away the sharks. Once in awhile a too venturesome swimmer among these natives foolishly detaches himself from his party and forgets to keep up his splashing. Then there is a swish, and the man eater comes up from under him like a flash, and he is gone.

Likewise Mistaken.

A small boy was fishing on Sunday morning. He had a basket of fish alongside of him. A clergyman happened to see him, and, going over to where he was busily watching the bob.

"You naughty, cruel boy! Don't you know that it is a sin to fish on the Sabbath? Besides the sin, think of the cruelty of it-taking the poor little worm out of the ground and sticking that nasty sharp hook through its body."

"That ain't no worm. That's an ar tificial fly!" answered the boy. "Ah, I was mistaken," said the preacher. "So were these fish," said the boy, picking up the basket and showing them to the clergyman.-New York

Acorns as Charming Ornaments. Take a large acorn, suspend it by a thread so as to nearly touch the water in any glass vessel, set it upon your mantelshelf, bracket or table, and let it stand there for about two months without in any way interfering with it excepting to supply fresh water. The acorn will burst, throw a root down into the water and a stem upward, sending out from the stem beautiful green leaves.-Home Notes.

Life Saving Pigs.

The Australian coasting steamer Kameruka, while going from Eden to Sydney, traveling at full speed, struck on a reef at Moruya head. There being no rockets on the ship, the captain tied a life line to some pigs which formed part of the cargo and had the animals put overboard. The pigs swam to the shore, taking the line with them, and by establishing communication every soul on board was rescued.
