SHARP ADVANCE IN LEAD AND ZINC ORES.

Subscriptions to The Kentucky Exhibit Pouring In—Fluorspar Combination in Progress—Concentration Successful on Carbonate Sands.

CRITTENDEN AND LIVINGSTON COUNTY MINING NEWS.

The rapid advance in the values of lead and zinc ores at Joplin the past few weeks is somewhat puzzling to the producers. Lead ore during the entire year has been almost stationary in value. Fifty dollars per ton has been the prevailing price paid, with scarcely a change. March 15th an unprecedented rise took place of $6.50 per ton. Within two weeks the value of lead ore has increased $14.00, the price on the date mentioned being $65. Very likely the two lead trusts, in their anxiety to obtain the lead ore forced the price up to $65 a price not before reached since the close of the civil war. Zinc ore, based upon 60 per cent, increased $2.50 per ton, selling for $40.20.

Ex-Mayor Charles P. Weaver, of Louisville, chairman of the miners exhibit committee of the Kentucky Exhibit association and Prof C. J. Norwood of Lexington, State Inspector of Mines and the chief counsellor to the mineral exhibit committee, have returned from St. Louis, where they held a conference with Prof J. A. Holmes chief of the department of mines and metallurgy of the World's Fair, relative to the big mineral exhibit Kentucky is to make. Their visit was successful in every way.

The committee made application for 6,000 square feet of space, and chief Holmes readily granted the request. Kentucky is the first state to be assigned a position in the mines and metallurgy building.

The coal operator's committee of the Kentucky Exhibit association got out letters last week asking each coal company to subscribe to the $100,000 fund. Already subscriptions have begun to roll in. The President of the St. Bernard Coal company was asked to give $500, but instead he sent his check for $675. The National Coal and Iron company subscribed $250.

Could the efforts now being made to merge the various producing zinc, lead and fluorspar companies of this district into one large combine be directed to the fluorspar producers alone, the chances for success would be improved. A combination of all the fluorspar mines on both sides of the river, with a proper import duty on foreign spar would be a bonanza. The man who succeeds in this will, in a couple of years, be able to write his checks in seven figures, and what is more to the point, his bank will pay them.

The final test of the work accomplished by the Overstrom tables at the Old Jim mine, was of necessity made in the chemists laboratory. Samples of the material as it passes from the log washers to the tables were taken, as also samples from the concentrates made by each table, and forwarded to Waring & Son of Webb City for assay. The result was most satisfactory to Messrs Blue & Nunn, the owners of the Old Jim mine. The values of the refuse were concentrated into high grade zinc. Each table will average some two tons daily of these concentrates, which are sold at the same price as the lump ore.

Mr. David Garth Hearne, of Wheeling, W. Va., the President of the Eagle Fluorspar Co., of that city, reached Marion last Friday, en route to Salem, the company's headquarters in Kentucky. The Eagle Fluorspar company's intentions were to expend some $50,000 in the mining and shipping of fluorspar, and its kindred products, and would have commenced the work ere this had there not been differential rates existing on this freight between the Illinois and Kentucky sides of the river. The dollar per ton lower rates on the Illinois side acts as an incubus upon all new projected plans for fluorspar production in the Kentucky district, and until this is equalized Mr. Hearne does not deem it advisable to attempt any expansion of existing work in that line.

Modifications of machinery now installed at the company's Cullen mine near Salem will probably be made from time to time, as experience shows necessary, until the question of working or dressing the ore is satisfactorily established. Mr. Hearne is well aware that deeper workings would likely prove the passing out of fluorspar and zinc and lead ores taking its place, but the extremely large tonnage of ore already blocked out in this mine makes a commercial dressing proposition especially attractive and desirable, and plans will be made and carried out to this end through the summer months.

Mr. Mathey of the Aurora Foundry and Machine company of Aurora, Mo., sometime since requested that a quantity of ore be shipped to them for concentration in their small experimental plant of jigs. This was done and at the same time a like quantity was shipped to other concentrating people for separation by a different class of machinery. The ore is zinc blende in a clay matrix and generally the blende is so completely covered by the clay that water is necessary to show the zinc. Whether water was scarce at Aurora, or whatever the difficulty, Mr. Mathey did not think it worth while to crush and attempt its separation, stating that in his judgment it did not contain any zinc. To show how doctors differ, the Overstrom tables, handling the same material found 32 per cent of zinc blende in this clayey dirt, the same that Mathey's judgment pronounced innocent of zinc. Again, a hand washing on a porcelain plaque returned a value somewhat in excess of the tables, some 33 per cent. It is evident the medicine Mr. Mathey prescribes for all classes of zinc troubles is not a specific, and that in many cases Mr. Mathey's treatment should be supplemented with the prescription of other ore doctors, or at least that he should be sure of his diagnosis before prescribing.

Messrs. Harpending & Lowry have during the past three months made considerable headway in developing part of their holdings in various portions of the county, notwithstanding the existing bad weather.

On what is known as the R. E. Flannery 200 acres Mr. Harpending says they have prospected the LaRue vein, which runs through this property, and forms a junction with what is termed the Hurricane vein with very good results in both zinc and lead sulphides and fluorspar. Lead ore shows in every prospect, from the grass roots down.

On the Cardin property in View near Crayneville they have established a 50 foot shaft in a huge dike of mica periodite but without any showing of the ores above mentioned. They are in hopes by drifting from this shaft they will reach the ore vein in comparative short distance.

The 63 acres known as the C. W. Bryant place, four miles from Marion, has a body of very choice china clay or kaolin. It is snow white and fully forty feet in thickness. Harpending & Lowry have partially completed arrangements for the mining and shipping of this product. Probably East Liverpool, Ohio, will be the point to which most of it will be consigned.

Any one interested in seeing a very fine kaolin can do so at the Reed Mining company's office, where a sample from this property will be exhibited.

As soon as the weather shows anything of a settled condition the Senator mining property near Princeton will be put into active commission.

Senator Deboe, after whom the mine was christened, has many samples of the extraordinary high grade lead and zinc ore that came from the bottom of the 45 foot shaft of the "Senator," just before closing down for the winter. The apex of the vein on this property shows considerable fluorspar, with disseminated lead ore; the fluorspar at the lowest depth seems to have been entirely replaced by calcite, while the zinc and lead sulphides are extraordinary in their percentages of the whole mass, being fully 85 per cent, leaving but 10 to 15 per cent of refuse matter. This ore can be seen in county clerk Weldon's office who is one of the owners of the property.

The early and long continued wintry weather on the Danish coast last year lessened the importation of Kryolite from Greenland by fully two-thirds of the ordinary yearly receipts. Natrona, Pennsylvania, a short distance from Pittsburgh, is the headquarters of the Pennsylvania Salt company, who utilizes this remarkable mineral in a variety of ways, the refuse containing flourine, being purchased and used by one or more steel producing companies at Pittsburgh, in place of our fluorspar, both being used as a flux. With one third the usual quantity to draw upon, the Pittsburgh company were forced to purchase our Kentucky fluorspar, and to give large orders for the English and German product, fearing a deficiency here. If the steel companies will name the tonnage wanted this district will keep their bins full every day in the year.

The publication in the Press a week or two ago that Mr. Eaton had a fine body of fluorspar with disseminated lead ore through it, has brought out many inquiries, and many interested parties have visited Marion with a view of negotiating for its purchase.

One of the members of the United States Geological Survey, who located the third great vein in the Reed Mining company's property, said that this vein should produce lead ore in abundance.

At the present price of lead ore ($65 per ton) twelve tons mined every working day will pay each lot owner and holder of $1000 worth of stock over four hundred dollars yearly. From an investment of fifty dollars for a first class 50x150 city lot and $1000 in the mining company's stock, four hundred dollars yearly dividends or 800 per cent on the investment of $50 gives a slight idea of the value of this property.

In another column, under the head of "deeds recorded" will be found a conveyance of the title of the Reed land to Col. Roberts and the re-conveyance of the mineral rights under the whole 123 acres and 25 acres in fee simple to the Reed Mining company. There will also be noted many records of lots sold, each of which carries $1000 in the stock of the mining company. Many of the deeds to these lots have not been sent to the county clerk for record. This is a mistake, all of these deeds should be promptly recorded by the owners of the lots.

A car load of the Crittenden county Bell coal mined at the old coal working at Bells Mines has been shipped to Ashland for coking, by the Hillman Iron and Coal company, who are working the property. The coke will be used at the Hillman Iron furnaces at Grand Rivers and if the analysis is satisfactory a large number of coking ovens will be erected at the mines.

At $65.00 per ton for lead ore, the Kentucky Fluorspar company will probably realize that their separating plant is a good investment. When a car load of what has heretofore been considered rather a detriment to their fluorspar increases their bank account $2,500, as forty odd tons will do, it begins to look as though fluorspar company's stock would go soaring in value.

The Pittsburgh Mining company which has been operating in Livingston county, about eight miles from Smithland, has developed in a 30 foot cross-cut from the bottom of a 125 foot shaft, a vein of lead ore. Samples exhibited at Paducah have attracted considerable attention, it being of fine quality and of massive character.

The Joe McGraw 225 acres of coal land situated at Sullivan, on the Illinois Central railroad, it is reported, was purchased last week by ex-Senator Deboe and sheriff Lamb of this city, the consideration as reported being $6,000.

NALL WILL NOT RUN.

Says His Information from Farming Element from all Over the State is

That Hubert Vreeland Will be Nominated by a Big Vote for Commissioner of Agriculture.

Col. Ion B. Nall, State Commissioner of Agriculture, who for 30 years has been one of the foremost agriculturists in the State, and who is conceded to be one of the most thoroughly posted men as to farming interests in Kentucky, has announced to his friends that at the expiration of his present term of office he will return to his old home to live. Under the Constitution he is not eligible for reelection, and will return to private life. Col. Nall has organized more farmers' institutes than any other Commissioner the State ever had, and he has been one of the leaders in the good roads movement.

Col. Nall, in an interview last week, said he was taking no active part in the selection of his successor, as that was a duty which devolved upon the Democratic farmers of the State, but when asked for his opinion on the race he said he personally was going to vote for Hubert Vreeland because he believed him to be not only the best qualified, but by far a more aggressive man than the others, and by reason of his experience as assistant in charge of the office would not have to consume his time learning the routine, and would be in a better position next winter to secure favorable legislation for the farmer, such as good roads and many other things that are needed, with all of which he is thoroughly conversant. Col. Nall said that from what he could hear from the farmers and others, with whom he came in contact, there was not the slightest doubt in his mind about the nomination of Mr. Vreeland by one of the largest majorities that would be received in any of the races for state offices.

FIRE IN LIVINGSTON.

The stable of Mr. John Hardin, a prominent farmer near Hampton, together with seven head of horses and mules, a lot of hay and corn, two wagons, one buggy and some farming implements, was destroyed by fire Thursday night. The fire was discovered soon after it started and the stock could have been rescued but the residence near by caught fire from the blaze and their efforts were turned to saving the house which was done after much hard work.

EASTER IN PRISON

Touching Story of Mrs. Ballington Booth's Visit to State Convicts.

"There is one Easter in my life," says Mrs. Ballington Booth, the "Little Mother" of the State convicts, "which stands out with brilliancy of the stars on a moonless night. It was spent in Clinton, a state prison at Dannemora, N. Y. Never before had I met an audience like that one. There were no sullen expressions, no faces of scoffers among those whom I looked down upon. They all wore the prison stripes, and many looked as though the waters of the earth had rolled over them. But it had left them hope, and that hope made their faces radiant. As I arose to sing my little daughter who sat with the warden's family in the audience and who was making her first visit to a prison, became impatient and leaving her seat came to the platform. She clung so tightly to my skirts that I finally lifted and placed her on the desk at my side. When I had given out 'You're Carried Burden,' I asked her if she would not sing a verse of it for 'the boys.' Much to my surprise she immediately began and sang the verse through without a break.

"I shall never forget that scene. The childish voice rang out sweet and clear and so distinctly that every word was heard. The little figure in white, with her golden curls about her face, smilingly sang her message, and tears streamed down the faces of the men as the baby voice repeated, 'oh bring it to Jesus; he's loving and strong.' I believe more than one lonely, aching heart, who perhaps for many years had not heard a childish voice, was lightened that Easter day and found for the first time the great Burden Bearer.

"In the afternoon we held our second service, and it was like gathering in a harvest. There wasn't much said; there seemed no need for talking, but when I left Dannemora that evening I felt that Christ had risen again and that to many men I was leaving, though in stripes and behind prison bars, the peace that passeth understanding, a renewal of hope and faith in God and mankind."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

More Riots

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the liver and kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective nerve and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia and expels malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by Woods & Co.

$1,000 FOUND IN A TREE.

A special from Madisonville says: News has been received here from Evansville, Ind., by Mr. Winfield Lucas, who has been shipping some fine walnut timber to market there from this county, to the effect that in one of his logs where there was a decayed place $1,000 had been found. It is said the money was placed in this hole in the log and had been carefully plastered over apparently several years ago. The tree has been cut several years. As yet no owner for the money has made an appearance, and Mr. Lucas is very much interested in the matter. He does not know whether he or the consumer is entitled to the money in the event no owner is found for the same.

REAL CABBAGE PATCH.

One Spot where "Mrs. Wiggs, of The Cabbage Patch" Is Not Popular.

There is one spot in America where "Mrs. Wiggs, of the Cabbage Patch," is not popular. This may seem incredible when the demand for the book at the public libraries is still exceeding anything ever known, not excepting "The Crisis."

The place where Mrs. Wiggs is not popular is in Cabbage Patch itself. It is in Louisville, and is the home of Mrs. Cale Young Rice (Alice Caldwell Hegan) the brilliant young authoress who leaped into fame with this little story.

The Cabbage Patch is a real community. It lies on the edge of Louisville and the fame that has come to it since the appearance of the story of Mrs. Wiggs, is not at all gratifying to the people of the patch. They consider that the book demeans the neighborhood, rather overlooking the good heart with which the book attributes Mrs. Wiggs. Some of the characters in the story are real. Mrs. Wiggs lives in the Patch. That is not her name but people point her out and say, "There goes Mrs. Wiggs." The old lady waxes indignant when the suggestion is made that she is the heroine of the book, and her brother "Jim-mie," who really did not die at all but is a big, brawny fellow, sometimes threatens to forcibly eject from the Patch curious people who have read the book and want to see the real Patch and the real Mrs. Wiggs.

The Cabbage Patch sprawls over 16 acres of common and boasts no brick house in its borders, while two story frames are scarce enough to be regarded with awe. All about the little community are vacant lots, brown with briars, and when visited the now historic spot was glistening with sleet crystals. A broad unpaved 'Main street,' which is a continuance of Twelfth street, runs through the center and the cottages assert an independence which scorns any idea of symmetrical planning or unity of position. Two public pumps furnish the water supply, and in the summer many of the little places are hidden behind ruddy ranks of hollyhocks and glaring sunflowers.

AFTER MANY YEARS.

Mr. William Shuttleworth, a Philippine soldier, after causing years of anxiety and grief to his parents and family, this week filled them with joy by returning to his home in Union county.

One night, fifteen years ago, Shuttleworth disappeared. Not returning it was accepted he was drowned in the Ohio river.

Nothing was heard of Shuttleworth until he walked, into the house wearing a soldier's uniform. He found his baby girl now a young woman.

MOONSHINING.

Figures Show that Distillation Is Falling Off.

Moonshining in Kentucky has declined about one-tenth of its proportions of twenty years ago, as shown by the figures of the local revenue department. Since the first of the year there have been about twenty stills destroyed whereas, a score of years ago the demolition would have amounted to perhaps 200 stills.

"There is a remarkable decline in the illicit trade," said Major R. L. Hancock yesterday afternoon, "I have been pleased with recent reports. I am not prepared with any exact figures, but some people even predict that the trade will eventually cease altogether. I can't expect that however, though it will grow less."—Courier-Journal.

"FORTY YEARS AGO."

The man who wrote, "I've Wandered to the Village, Tom," or "Forty Years Ago," died at his home last week at Clinton, Iowa. A. J. Gault was the author of but one poem that lived. But said the lioness to the sneer because of her lack of fecundity, "Only one, but a lion."

There is a very pretty story about the writing of the poem. Years ago Gault had a brother who was wayward. His whereabouts were unknown. He had neglected to answer his brother's letters. Finally, as a last resort, the poem was written as a letter. To make an orthodox ending to the incident one would need to tell of the restoration of the prodigal, but this consummation, so devoutly to be wished for, is not of record. But those who have loved the simple poem because of the memories it brings will be pleased to know there was a real Tom, and that the "bell" which swung to and fro, the "desk" defaced by the jack knives and the "brook" all had a local habitation.

Have you gone back to the village where you were born and rear ed, after a long wandering away from the familiar places. Have you "sat beneath the tree," upon which a scar shows where "her" initials and yours were out together? Have you watched another generation playing on the village green, where you played with your fellows "just forty years ago?" Then you know all the feeling that throbs in the lines of Gault's poem. Then has gone back to you "the tender grace of a day that is dead."

Peace to the ashes of the man who wrote one poem of the heart. He was not a great poet, but he filled Tolstoi's definition of art. He had a message. That message written out of blended emotions, intended as a telegram to a brother's heart, went to the heart universal. It touched all the poet's brothers—all who have played and studied, and loved and lost and won—all who hold the memories of halcyon childhood. It is a melancholy yet sweet message, and not entirely sad. Laughter still echoes down the corridors of recollection. Smiles chase the sadness away. Humor, which is next door to tears, peeps from behind the blinds of forty years ago.—Kansas City World.

A Physician Writes

"I am desirous of knowing if the profession can obtain Herbine in bulk for prescribing purposes? It has been of great use to me in treating cases of dyspepsia brought on by excesses or overwork. I have never known it to fail in restoring the organs affected, to their healthful activity." 50c bottles at H K Woods & Co.

PEACH CROP MAY SUFFER.

The peach crop in Kentucky will probably suffer severely as a result of the early warm weather. Unless there is the rare good fortune of no more cold weather, it is certain that thousands of dollars will be lost to the peach growers. Major H. B. Hersey, Weather Forecaster at Louisville, says that the chances are that there will yet be severe weather sufficient to blight the crop.

The warm weather has caused the buds to develop. Growers all over this section of the country will suffer alike. A slight drop in temperature will of course do no damage, but a considerable change in the conditions will result disastrously.

"There is great danger of the crop being damaged," said Major Hersey. "It is possible that we will have no more severe weather, but the pest does not justify any such hope. The high temperature has caused a general budding, and there is no protection against bad conditions."

A merchant of Poseyville, Ind., B H Armstrong writes: "I have given Hill's Specific to my children for different forms of bowel complaints and find that it stands without an equal as it cured them in each instant almost instantly. Bowel complaints are numerous during the summer months therefore it would be wise to keep a bottle of Hill's Specific on hand for emergency in each household during the summer. It is healing and soothing to the bowels, pleasant to take but effective. Price 25 cents at all patent medicines dealers in the county."

EDITORIAL OBSERVATIONS.

Twenty years' experience in the newspaper business teaches a man that:

The chap who tries hardest to work a newspaper for special favors is the one who never spends a cent with it, and is not even a subscriber.

The one who demands the highest excellence in typography, subject matter and quantity of contents does least to help the cause along.

The man who kicks most about the inaccuracy of newspapers in general is the one who does least to assist in getting the facts accurately when he has an opportunity to do so.

The man who kicks hardest about a certain paper hasn't seen a copy of it for six weeks.

The man who has it in for newspapers in general has had the bitter truth told about him once by some unusually frank reporter and has a big sore spot.

The man who brings in the longest obituary of the late deceased was not a model husband always.

The man who begs that his name be left out of the list of drunks for fear it will hurt his mother's feelings never considered that good lady's sensibilities before in his life.

The man who spends most money with the paper kicks the least.

If you expect a man to find a compliment about himself you must put it on the front page in bold face type.

A man protected mercifully in rascality never appreciates it, because the protection only encourages him in being the sort of reptile he is.

The paper that tries to please everybody at once soon pleases its competitors by dying.

The man who spends least money for advertising expects more returns than the man who spends most.

Those who patronize the papers systematically and persistently are the most level-headed and reliable citizens of the community.

The solemnest man always turns first to the jokes.

The man or woman who hates those pretty little personals always turns to that page first.—Baltimore American.

A STRONG LETTER.

For Commissioner of Agriculture
T. T. Hedges of Scott County.

To the Democrats of Kentucky:

I beg to announce to you my candidacy for the office of Commissioner of Agriculture, subject to the will of the Democratic voters at the primary to be held May 9. The short time intervening before the election renders it impossible for me to cover all of the State.

I desire to state that I have been for years and am now a practical and active farmer, and that all of my interests are dependent upon the success of the farmers. I am in thorough sympathy with all matters pertaining to the advancement of the interests of the agricultural classes of the State, and of course in our commonwealth it is well known that the success of all other lines of business are dependent upon the welfare of the farmers. If nominated I pledge my best efforts to use the Department of Agriculture in the interest of the farmers and the general welfare of the Commonwealth.

I have at all times been an active and consistent Democrat. I am profoundly grateful to the Democrats of Scott county, who have twice honored me with the sheriff's office without opposition in the ranks of my own party. I have always been found in the thickest of the fight for Democratic principles, both State and National. I have served for four years as a member of the State Central Democratic Committee, representing the Seventh Congressional District, and feel that I can point with pride to the success of the Democratic party in my district under my direction. In these times of great combinations of capital and trusts, no one feels more keenly the direct results of their unjust oppression than the farmers of the country, and I pledge you if nominated to use the office to resist the oppression of all trusts, and to stand fighting for the interests of the agriculturists. If you nominate me I pledge all of my energy and strength to the success of the party in November, where we must meet the enemy, the Republican party. Having had many years experience in business and farming, you will not be placing the office in the hands of an inexperienced man, and I pledge the same care to the interests of State affairs that I have devoted to my personal affairs. The Department of Agriculture was founded for the interests of the farmers, and in my humble opinion ought to be managed by a practical and real farmer. My county, Scott, has not had a candidate for a State office for 25 years, and being a strong and reliable Democratic county I feel that I can appeal with confidence to my fellow Democrats all over the State.

I ask for your hearty support and encouragement, and whether successful or not in my ambition to be your Commissioner of Agriculture, I pledge at all times my hearty support to our common cause, Democracy, the only refuge for an honest and patriotic people.

Very sincerely,

T. T. Hedges.

A gold brick, valued at $23,500, in transit from Salt Lake to some point in the East, was stolen from the Union Station at Detroit. There is no clue to the thief.

Insurance Commissioner Chennault has completed the fire volume of his annual report. It shows that the risks written in Kentucky in 1902 amounted to $246,155,315, and the losses paid were $1,731,384.13. One hundred and eleven companies were doing business in Kentucky at the beginning of the year 1903.

Mr. Mooney, of Mississippi, discussed the race question during a speech before the Senate on the Indianola postoffice affair. He declared Mr. Roosevelt is not the President of America, but the "President of the black belt," and that he has won the hatred of the people of the South.

The Panama canal treaty was ratified by the Senate by a vote of 73 to 5. Those Senators voting in the negative were Daniel and Martin, of Virginia; Morgan and Pettus, of Alabama, and Teller, of Colorado. The treaty was not changed in any particular from the form in which it first came before the senate.

A revolution which is characterized by the United States Consul as being of alarming proportions has broken out in Uruguay. He has cabled the State Department that 8,000 rebels surround Montevideo and are preparing to take the city.

Attorney General Pratt in a decision held that Capt. C. C. Calhoun was entitled to his fee for collecting the civil war claim, less his expenses, which amount to less than $1,000, this having already been paid. In a lengthy opinion he criticizes Gov. Beckham's legal right to make any contract with Calhoun, but says a fair construction of the law advises the payment of the fee.

The Ohio river is ten miles wide between Kentucky and Ohio, but Taylor still puts his trust in Indiana's republican governor.

But did you ever hear a Federal Judge restraining a lot of railway magnets from getting together to refuse a demand for better wages?

Dr. Lorenz asserts that American women can not cook. The good doctor will learn that they can roast if ever he comes back to this country.

When confronted with the duty of making a choice between getting a new stomach or giving up a million of dollars Mr. Rockefeller chose just as the people knew he would. A million dollars covers a multitude of gastric qualms.

A New York man's neck was broken recently by reason of falling upon his collar button. Many a man has broken a commandment by dropping his collar button.

Before making any further remarks derogatory to March, just consider the fact that March is the month wherein congress adjourns sine die. It is reprehensible to speak evil when it is possible to say something good.

SOME BUDDHIST LAWS.

Philadelphia Record: Professor Maxwell Summerville was discussing the other day the Buddhist faith, for which he has a profound respect. Some of the striking tenets of Buddhism that he quoted were:

Use not perfume about thy person.

To cough or sneeze in order to win the notice of a group of girls is a sin.

Destroy no tree.

Kill no animal.

Drink no intoxicating beverage.

It is sinful to think one way and to speak another.

It is a sin to pass judgment on the acts of other men.

Give no flowers to women and sing no new songs.

Keep neither silver nor gold.

When you eat make not a noise like a dog.

It is a sin to eat of the flesh of man, elephant, horse, crocodile, dog, cat, tiger or serpent.

A priest may not wash himself in the twilight or dark, lest he should unknowingly kill some insect or other living thing.

Lend nothing on interest.

The new jail drops into service just as easy as if the "new" had been worn off.

President Roosevelt evidently takes no stock in the old adage:
Silence is golden.

In winter the talk of good roads is rife, in summer we press the same old clay and talk of the weather.

The Senator from Mississippi made a red hot speech and the President is convinced that "Money talks."

Some of those who "inadvertently"
got on sheriff Lamb's list
last week, think he is not as meek
as his name indicates.

If Mr. Carnegie will take the canal job off of the hands of the government, he can soon ease his mind of the harrowing prospect of dying rich.

Appointment of Joe Rochester as Master Commissioner of the Crittenden circuit court shows that Judge Gordon can do handsome things, as well as look handsome.

The parties who held up the printing office seem to have gotten the hot end of the frolic; they caught a modest tartar and it will take them several days to turn him aloose.

The managers of the State Fair announce that no "betting" will be tolerated on the races at the fair.
We would like to know what is left of a "horse race" when the betting is cut out.

Mr. Cleveland announces that he will make a western trip, with some speeches thrown in as an incident. The Democrats might use "government by injunction" profitably
in this case.

Madisonville will vote on the graded school proposition April 14. We are glad to see neighboring towns becoming interested in the best plan for getting the greatest good out of our public school system.

That was not a minstrel troupe, nor the advanced guard of the spring influx of mining investors that reached town the other evening;
it was a contingent of aspirants for state offices; the main body went on down into the Purchase.

Dr. Pretty Eagle sent a poem to both the Press and to the grand jury; the former has no power to return a true indictment, and as the court did not instruct the jury on that point, we fear these conservators of the peace feel that they have no means of adequate retaliation.

The city council and the overseers of the four main roads leading out of town ought to hold a conference and agree upon some plan to remove permanently the first half a mile of mud holes leading out of town. This is a matter of vital importance to Marion, and her people ought to speak through their agents, the city council.

Dr. McLeod, pastor of an aristocratic church in Washington city, rather startled the country
last week by solemnizing the rites of matrimony in his church between a negro man and a white woman. The couple went from Baltimore because the laws of Maryland forbid intermarriage of the races. As the doctor has set his face against that law and his seal of approval upon the pervasion of nature, let us hope that his headquarters will become the gretna green for the consummation of such marriages. He is entitled to the honors and emoluments without contest or competition.

While perhaps not healthy for missionaries, Breathitt county is an inviting field for missionary work. During the present term of circuit court six men have been killed, and the court has not reached the tedious end of the docket. Perhaps if the Judge will hold an extra term everybody will get killed.

Mr. Henry Lawrence, editor of the Cadiz Record, is a candidate for re-election to the legislature.
If elected he will be a candidate for Speaker of the House. His re-election is about as certain as any future event can be, and he may now be regarded as Western Kentucky's candidate for the speakership. His fine character, splendid abilities, good record as a member of the House, and his wide acquaintance will make him a strong candidate. His commanding position will leave no room for a rival from this end of the state. His district support will be enthusiastically loyal, and there should not be a break from him in all the "Pennyridge" region. He is a fine type of Kentucky manhood, a Democrat worthy of any trust, and, as speaker, he would easily measure up to the highest standards.

HENRY BOSWORTH.

Elsewhere we announce Mr.
Henry Bosworth a candidate for State Treasurer. He is a loyal Fayette county Democrat, a clean, straight man, who is personally popular at home, and who is rapidly making friends in his canvass.
He was sheriff of Fayette county during the troublous days at Frankfort, and it was he who entered the car and arrested Powers and Davis as they were fleeing to the mountains after the murder of Goebel. The daring deed of sheriff Bosworth was the talk of the state for days. He boarded the car containing the fugitives, and notwithstanding the fact that they were surrounded by an armed guard of friends; he landed them in jail at Lexington, and afterwards turned them over to the authorities at Frankfort. A reward of $1500 for the arrest of the men had been offered, but sheriff Bosworth declined to collect the reward, saying that he regretted he was not able to do more.

Mrs. Maybrick to be Released.

The British Home Secretary has ordered the release from prison of Mrs. Florence Maybrick.
Mrs. Maybrick will be set at liberty in July, 1934. The prisoner is an American woman who when a girl of 18 married a wealthy Liverpool man in 1881. In 1888 he died and his relatives caused the arrest of his wife on the charge of poisoning him. Physicians found that Mr. Maybrick died of arsenic poisoning but the defense proved that he had been a confirmed arsenic eater for years. Mrs. Maybrick was found guilty and sentenced to death, but the sentence was commuted to life imprisonment.

The Albany Mining and Investment company, with headquarters

SISCO ON TRIAL.

Thirty-Three Indictments Found
by the Grand Jury.

TWO DIVORCES GRANTED.

The greatest interest this term of court has been centered in the Sisco case. Geo. M. Sisco is charged with the murder of Bertha Williamson. The case was set for Monday and when it was called both sides announced ready.
The work of securing a jury was commenced, and only one man of the twenty-four of the regular panel was kept. Monday the court directed the sheriff to summons two hundred men to appear at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, and on that morning the court house was crowded and all day long the crowd remained, taking a lively interest in the selection of the jury. Most of those summoned had formed an opinion and a few, who were otherwise qualified, had conscientious scruples against the death penalty, even though the law and evidence authorized it;
these were excused. When the 200 summoned had been exhausted, Tuesday evening, eleven jurors had been selected.

Wednesday morning the jury was completed, and the following named men are serving:
Z. J. Winders, A. B. Crisp, Oacar Terry, J. E. Bell, M. Ledbetter, S. G. Griffith, J. H. Hardesty,
G. W. Tucker, Kelly Walker, T.
W. Walker, W. T. Springs and Rutledge Newcomb.

About sixty persons have been summoned as witnesses in the case.
The jury is not likely to get the case before Saturday.

The accused seems cheerful and appears glad to shake hands with his acquaintances. His wife is constantly at his side and is taking a keen interest in every phase of the trial.

Horace Williamson, father of the murdered girl, sits just behind the attorneys for the commonwealth, and nothing escapes his attention.

Before adjourning court Tuesday at noon, Judge Gordon announced that at every session of the court thereafter he would have everybody entering the court room searched for concealed weapons, and that if anybody were found with a pistol or murderous knife, such person would be "summarily and severely punished."

A. C. Moore, James & James,
and Moore & Moore represent the defense, while Commonwealth Attorney Grayot and County Attorney Henderson are representing the Commonwealth.

The examination of the witnesses for the commonwealth is now in progress. The evidence in full will be published in next week's issue.

The following cases have been disposed of:
Commonwealth vs Ike York,
concealed weapons; dismissed.
Lewis Parker, Will Agent, Arthur Robinson, gaming; failed to answer, fined $25 each.
Ed Lanham, disturbing a lawful assembly; entered plea of guilty
and fined $30.

Jim Hooper, gaming, acquitted.
John B. Williams, detaining a woman, dismissed, the principal witness having sent the following note to the commonwealth's attorney: "After considering said case over I desire you to dismiss said indictment."

Jas Perrigan, disturbing lawful
assembly; entered plea of guilty
and fined $20.

T. H. Reynolds, selling liquor on Sunday. Fined $25.

Hull Newcomb, breach of peace plead guilty; fined $10.

Lee Green and Claud Hickerson breach of peace; Green fined $30, Hickerson $75.

Marshall McKee, assault and battery, fined $1.

F. M. Clement vs T. B. Gillispie, dismissed settled.

D. C. Roberts vs C. S. Knight etc.; set for trial Wednesday of next week. Transferred to common law docket.

J. N. Clark vs C. S. Knight, et al.; continued until next term.

Allie Fauch granted a divorce
from John Fauch.

J. S. Brooks divorced from Della Brooks.

S. J. Humphreys vs A. J. Be-bout; dismissed without prejudice
at plaintiff's cost.

The grand jury adjourned Monday. Thirty-three indictments were returned during the seven days session.

News reached Smithland of quite a lively little "scrap" at Salem last week, the participants being Robt. Boyd, a merchant, and George Mitchell, a well known citizen. Mr. Boyd is the "hello girl" at that point and the trouble arose over the sending of a telephone message for Mr. Mitchell. The men were separated by by-standers, but not, however, until Boyd had been badly worsted, according to the report that reached here.
The fight created considerable excitement at Salem.—Smithland Banner.

A GOOD STARTER.

The Kentucky Fluor Spar Co., has made a subscription of $200 to the fund for Kentucky's display at the St. Louis fair. This is the first subscription from this county, and is a handsome start.
Doubtless the mining interests of Crittenden, Livingston and Caldwell will subscribe liberally to this fund.

SEED CORN.

I have about 40 bushels of fine white
"Dent corn" for sale at $1.50 per bushel.

the county, became violently insane last week. He barricaded himself and family in his house and with his gun handy refused to let any one approach the premises. After several days he was taken into custody and brought to this city Saturday. He was adjudged insane and taken to Hopkinsville by Mr. R. M.

cured. He was overpowered and made no further resistance. Farley has been confined in the asylum before.

PAPERS STOLEN

By Lola Safe Robbers Found—Additional Particulars.

The county attorney of Livingston county has received a letter from Lola stating that a grip containing some notes, checks and other papers which were stolen from the safe of Johnson Bros., when it was blown last May, have been found in the woods near the village.
These papers were taken, together with $1,000 in cash. Charles Culver, a noted safe blower, was given 16 years in the penitentiary at the last term of the circuit court at Smithland, for taking part in the robbery. Ernest Elmendorf, of Paducah, is also under indictment on the same charge and is now out on bond.
The finding of the grip and papers, it is said, will strengthen the prosecution against Elmendorf.

AN EGG STORY.

Mr. R. M. Franks, who lives near Tolu, tells an egg story, that, in any other country except so productive one as Western Kentucky, would be open to criticism. Mr. Franks is the owner of two ducks and two drakes. It is a well known fact that ducks only lay eggs after dark. Mr. Franks says "we locked the four ducks in the smoke house on Friday night and the next morning there were five eggs. The two following nights the ducks were put up as before and but two eggs were found the following morning, but, on the fourth morning we again found five eggs. Now let the scientists or poultry fanciers explain this.

A RAILROAD MAN'S PRAYER

Not long since an old railroad man who drifted in a church where a revival service was going on, was asked to lead in prayer. He said: "Oh, Lord, now that I have flagged Thee, lift up my feet off the rough road and plant them safely on the platform of the train of salvation. Let me use the safety lamp known as prudence, make all the couplings on the train with the strong link of Thy love and let my hand lamp be the Bible; and, heavenly Father, keep all the switches closed that lead off on sidings, especially those with a blind end. Oh Lord, if it be Thy pleasure, have every semaphore light along the line show the white light of hope, that I may make the run of life without stopping. And Lord, give us the Ten Commandments for a schedule; and when I have finished the run on schedule time, pulled into the great dark station of Death, may Thou, the Superintendent of the Universe, say, 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant, come and sign the joy roll and receive a check for Eternal Happiness.'"

LIVINGSTON COUNTY.

A Sensational Affair at Iuka.—Other News.

A special from Smithland says: Jack Cash, a farmer residing near Iuka, Livingston county, had a warrant issued for the arrest of Dyeus Fugate, son of W. C. Fugate, a prominent farmer of the same locality, charging the young man with seducing his daughter, Mattie Cash, aged twenty years, who became a mother last Saturday.

The affair has created considerable talk. Fugate is a well known and very popular young man and it is said was to have been married this week to a prominent young lady.

J. B. Pierce has been appointed deputy clerk of Livingston county court.

Man Crider, of Repton, and Miss Maggie Eberle, of Salem, were united in marriage in Marion, Saturday, March 14. Mr. Crider is a prosperous young man of his section and prominent in business. His prospects of future are bright. Miss Eberle, the senior daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Eberle, of this city, was a pretty and accomplished young lady of many excellent qualities and will be greatly missed by her friends of Salem. Immediately after marriage they left for Repton, where they will reside in the future; we together with their hosts of friends wish them success and happiness. —Salem Miner.

J. B. Pierce, of Salem, has just returned from an extensive trip on which he is said to have made some very large deals on Southern timber lands.

VICTORY FOR MINERS.

The Anthracite Strike Commission Makes Its Report.

The Anthracite Strike Commission appointed by the President made his report Saturday. The commission recommends a general increase in wages amounting in most instances to 10 per cent. and a reduction of hours. No award is made on the matter of recognition of the union. A board of conciliation, with an appointee of one of the Circuit Judges of the Third United States judicial circuit as umpire, is provided for, to arbitrate future disputes. The increase in wages will date back to November 1, 1902, and will add approximately $3,000,000 to the earnings of the miners. The awards made shall continue in force until March 31, 1906.

President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers expressed satisfaction over the commission's award, and declared it was a victory for the miners. He said the most important feature was naturally the increase in wages.

HAMPTON DRUGGIST

Sued for $10,000—Farmer Says Prescription Killed Child.

W. A. Dickerson, a farmer residing near Hampton, has filed suit in the Livingston circuit court against H. E. Worten, a Hampton druggist, for $10,000.

The plaintiff alleges negligence on the part of the defendant in filling a prescription for his sick child.

The prescription was given by Dr. Davenport last fall. The child died and Dickerson claims that its death was due to druggist Worten's failure to fill the prescription correctly, death occurring after it had taken some of the medicine.

COUNTY NEWS.

NEW SALEM.

(Last week's letter.)

Homer Grimes had an infant child buried at Tyner's Chapel last week.

Rev. Elgin held his quarterly meeting at Tyner's Chapel the 3d Saturday and Sunday.

We don't know how bad the public roads are in other portions of the county but we can truthfully say they are worse in this part of the county than at any time in 20 years.

Tom Harpending had a valuable milch cow to die last week. This makes three head this winter he has lost. There has been between 12 and fifteen head died with the plague in this section since the first of January. It appears useless to doctor them as no remedy seems to do any good.

Some of the neighbors found a man's hat floating in the mud hole near Salem last week marked with the letters A. M. W. on the inside. Any one having lost relatives or friends with the above initials can commence mining for them about the first of June.

Our weather prophet, Uncle Billie Fuller, says the month of April will be a wetter month than the present. We hope not.

We notice in the mining news in last week's Press that the writer speaks of the much talked of turnpike from Marion to Salem. He talks business, and since other parts of the state build good roads why not this part. All it needs is a good, stirring business man to take it in hand and it would soon be built.

The hog crop is the shortest in this section than for many years past; not two thirds of our farmers have any hogs.

Most of the traveling done in this neighborhood is on foot, through the fields and woods.

The relatives of Jesse Baker, one of our New Salem boys, have received letters from him at Brooklyn, New York. Jesse is in the United States navy and is pleased with the service.

The present outlook for the wheat crop is better than a month back; where it had snow protection it is all right.

HARDESTY.

Capt Jim Harmon, of Carrrsville landed his gasoline boat at this port Sunday at 10:30 a. m. Hugh Barnett and Robt Thompson were among the passengers.

John T. Hardin has thirteen cows with young calves.

Jasper Walker recently moved into the beautiful new residence on the old Crawford home place, built by G. B. Crawford of Tolu.

Della Crawford's nice young mule killed itself by jumping up on a picket fence. He also had one thousand apple trees killed last winter by rabbits.

Mrs Sallie Raglin, who has been in bed for many years with rheumatism is much worse.

Our postmaster thinks the post office department will give us a daily mail soon, and carry on to Carrrsville.

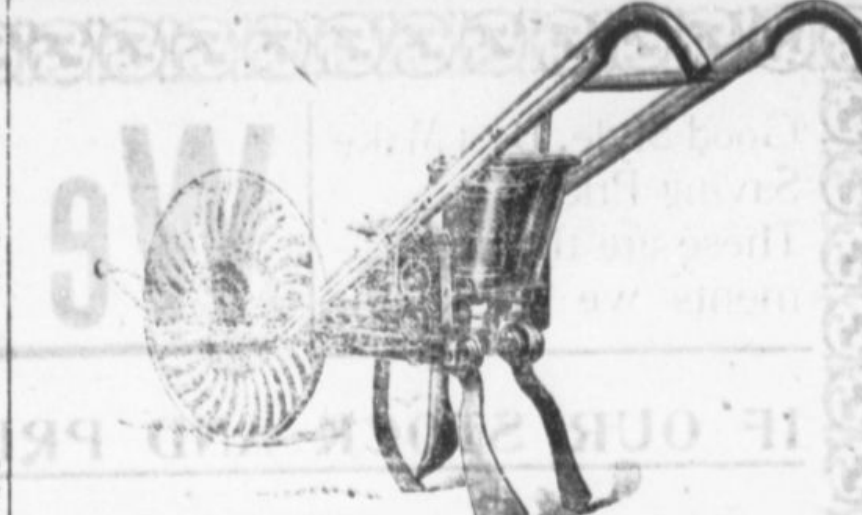

John M. Bartley and William Jackson will leave soon for Monroe county.

Some of the boys are very busy dodging the sheriff.

BELLS MINES.

These mines are on a big boom. They have been cleaned up and a new track laid down the slope to the river. They are now ready to put a 10 inch pump in the mine. It will throw a 10 inch stream, so it will not take long to get the water out of the mines, and then we will begin to mine the coal and build a town at Bells Mines.

Clark Nesbit is in our neighborhood at present. He got a thirty days furlough and came to see relatives.

The Old Reliable Hoosier Corn Drill, both plain and fertilizer. Sold by BIGHAM & BROWNING

TRADEWATER.

Mud has settled some but is still bad.

Aunt Mary Brantley is able to sit up some at this writing.

The farmers have been moving about the past few days.

Mrs Irvin Morris is on the sick list.

There is talk of having to send Bill Farley back to the asylum.

Bad Small has moved to the Gus Brantley place.

Several of our boys are attending court this week. Look out, boys, that new jail is pretty tight. Don't forget we will organize Sunday School Sunday.

MULES AND HORSES.

I always have good horses and mules of every kind for sale. I am in the stock business and will buy live stock of all kinds. If you have anything for sale or desire to buy stock of any description see me I can suit you.

NEWEST GRAFT.

The feather renovator man has a new graft. He goes to the house and wants to renovate the beds and pillows. The lady usually does not want anything done, but he tells her he suspects the existence of feather moths. While he is talking he is ripping open the bed bringing out a handful of feathers, shows her two or three wriggling worms of the most horrible appearance. The lady surrenders and the renovator man takes the feathers away and brings them back in a few days about 60 per cent lighter and is paid handsomely for his work besides. This feather moth is a great bug.

WEEDS

Consumption is a human weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

We will send you a little of the Emulsion free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

Mr. E. B. Hackett, a prominent merchant of Morganfield, Ky., was a sufferer for years from constipation and indigestion, and was prevailed upon to try Dr. Carlstedt's German Liver Powder by one whom he had done great good. He gave it a single trial, when he began to feel better at once. Troubled with piles, Mr. Hackett was surprised to find himself cured of this most dreaded of bodily ailments. He is now a well man and does not use any medicine. If you are afflicted in this manner, give it a trial; it will cost you only 25 cents, and should it not prove as we say the drug is authorized to refund your money.
