THE FINEST STRIKE THAT HAS YET BEEN MADE.

The Columbia Bottom the richest Mineral Bearing Spot in the World.
MANY RICH STRIBES REPORTED.

The Little Jim is wrongly named. It should be called "Big Jim," or the "Wonderful Jim."

The machinery and hand jigs at the very fine nine acres are working very satisfactorily to Blue & Nunn.

There will be more new mines with new companies started up in this district in the near future, but there is plenty of room in the market and in the mineral field for lots of others, and all can make money.

John Tonkin, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., is arranging for the development of the coal property near Wheatcroft. Mining equipment are being installed which will be operated by electricity.—Journal.

The Royal Coal Company have struck number 11 coal at their new shaft near Madisonville. It is expected that No 9 will be uncovered at the depth of 280 feet, or about eighty feet lower than the 11 vein.

Messrs. Miller and Trumbo, of Louisville, connected with the Louisville and Marion Mining Co. were in our city last week. They took two days in the country with Mr. Parsons looking over their property and mines and seem to be well pleased with the outlook.

The Morganfield Mining company will put in a steam plant at their Larue mines at once, for the purpose of pumping, hoisting and running washers. They are shut down at present on account of having too much water to hoist out with the old blind horse.

The Big Four Mining company have purchased the machinery necessary to complete their mill for the purpose of separating their lead and zinc. They have also started a shaft on the Holly vein which crosses their property and have struck an eight foot vein of lead and No 1 fluor spar.

The Thomas Blackwell Coal and Mining company of Clay, in Webster county, will begin mining and shipping coal about the middle of this month. This mine has a seven and a half foot vein of No 11 coal and is equipped with the latest improved mining machinery.

The new telephone from Riley mines will probably be built into Salem, Grayneville and Marion. C. S. Knight, the General Manager of the Marion Lead & Zinc Co., does not do things half way. This telephone line is one of the greatest conveniences yet mentioned.

C. S. Knight's new turnpike, which is being constructed from the Riley mines to the river and railroad—there being two branches of it—will revolutionize hauling and transportation in that section of the county. Turnpikes are a luxury, especially in winter, and we long to see this one actually built and completed.

Our New Salem correspondent writes:

There is but little doing in the mining business the past week. The Cullen, Nancy Hanks, and Riley mines seemed to be the only ones that are going ahead with a full force of hands.

The Crittenden Mining Co. has suspended work for the present on the White property.

Marion Mineral company is working the "Lee mine" on Karber's Ridge, Ill., this month, on account of the roads getting so bad over there a little later on; they are moving all the spar possible to the railroad and river while the roads are good. They now have 12 to 14 teams hauling and each one moves about a ton and a half each day, which makes a total of almost 20 tons daily. This property is one of the best they own.

The Marion Zinc Co. have started their mill at the Riley mines, and we are glad to say it is doing splendid work. Mr. C. S. Knight has been at the mines for nearly a week, and is well pleased the way the mill started off.

They have one or two little changes to make before running the mill regularly which will still improve the already satisfactory condition. Their General Manager Julius Fols tells us that the Riley mine is showing up very rich with lead and No. 7 fluor spar. The company expects to keep the mill running day and night. Julius has one of the best timbered shafts in the district. He is the boy that has the theory and the practical part which makes him an able man for the position he now occupies.

The Louisville and Marion Mining company have started their wagons to haul in their spar to the Ky company. They don't expect to go into the market with their product until they have more mines opened up and a larger output; then they can take yearly contracts of any size and be in no doubt about filling them.

We understand that this company expects to build a mill at one of their mines at Marion some time next spring for the purpose of separating their mineral and putting ground fluor spar on the market.

Supt. Parsons tells us that the company have bought a very fine piece of spar property in Illinois, the company expect to manage their business so as ship on river or rail, whichever suits their convenience best.

Mr. Parsons, their general manager, is an expert miner and a splendid judge of mineral property. This gives the company the advantage over many other companies in this district.

At the bottom level of the Columbia mines, running north towards Blue & Nunn's "nine acres" is the best lead and zinc deposit that has ever been struck in the district. Mr. R. D. Drescher, the General Manager of the company, tells us that the vein in the bottom of the shaft widens and gets richer gradually as the sinking goes on. Manager Drescher also tells us that he has also uncovered a very fine vein of lump fluor spar near the Columbia shaft.

The Columbia property has been examined by mineralogists from Germany, England, America and we understand the report of most of these experts was that the Columbia bottom, say one mile northeast and southwest of the Columbia mines, was the richest spot in the world for lead and zinc, it only needed depth to show it up this way.

Our Levis correspondent says:

Just as we expected, the prospecting on the Marion Beard property resulted in finding a 5 foot body of spar and zinc. There appears now three well defined leads on that place. The Holly, Memphis and the Beck. Mr. Joel Farmer has charge of the development here, and no doubt the work will be pushed to a finish. Of course adjoining properties are already being looked into, and the price on real estate is soaring. Better come quick if you want a piece of land in this belt.

Machinery is being put up on the Mrs. Franks property to handle the large quantity of spar and lead found there. This makes it necessary for Mrs. Franks to move as the mine is in her garden.

The Hopewells are still drifting back to the vein, having already gone twenty-five feet, and not there yet. Very likely if they ever get hold of that vein again they will be slow to turn it loose.

ZINC LAND FOR SALE.

PRICE $2,500 00.

A tract of 15 acres, 4 1/2 miles from Ohio river transportation. Prospected 34 feet; output 2 to 4 tons zinc blende. Several tons of zinc carbonate and barite were taken out as capping for vein of "Jack". This is a fine property, and those interested will find it such upon investigation. A sample of this blende will be sent upon request. In writing give lot No. 271.

W. L. Kennedy & Co., Ky.

The Louisville Marion Mining Co. is coming to the front. They have begun shipping their spar to the Ky. fluor spar mills at Marion. They will keep a number of teams on the road the rest of the fall, until the roads get too bad to haul. The mine producing their present output is named "The Ada Florence" and is, as Supt. Parsons says, a "hammer." This company has other properties upon which they will begin working at once. One on the Leander White farm, which has been christened, "The Trumbo," after one of their largest stockholders in Louisville. They have also purchased a 40 acre tract of mineral land in Ill., which they will operate soon. The Louisville Marion Mining company started only three months ago, Messrs Parsons & Gray being the sole owners; they sold a half interest to some wideawake Louisville gentlemen and organized a stock company. By good judgment and conservative management this stock has become known to investors as a safe investment and it is selling readily at 50 cents on the dollar. This company bids fair to become one of the best in the state.

HOUSE BUILT OF COAL BLOCKS.

One of the most remarkable structures, and perhaps the only one of its kind, says the Lexington Herald, is in course of construction on Johnson Highway, between Fourth and Fifth streets. Mr. John B. Parsons, a contractor, is erecting a six room modern cottage which will be occupied by himself and family. Instead of stone the entire front part of the cottage will be composed of anthracite coal. The foundations have already been laid and are of stone. Black cement will be used in cementing the anthracite coal together, so that the building will present an unbroken line of black from the front. The hardness of anthracite coal will insure its permanency, and the only thing that would seem to detract from it as a success would be the insurance rates. The idea is a departure, and the erection of the anthracite houses will be watched with some interest.

FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH.

Eddyville, Ky., Aug. 16.—Mrs. Mary B. Rone, wife of J. L. Rone died at the home of Jailer Keil here this morning, after an illness of two weeks from typhoid fever.

In 1902 J. L. Rone was sentenced to the penitentiary for twenty-one years in the Warren circuit court for the murder of C. B. Savory, and before coming to prison appealed his case to the higher courts, where the sentence was affirmed. Pending the decision he was married at the Warren county jail. Mrs. Rone came to Eddyville soon after her husband's incarceration and worked faithfully in order to supply him with such delicacies as her earnings would allow.

There were no witnesses to the killing, and Mrs. Rone's grave with implicit innocence of

BEATEN AND SCATTERED

To the Four Winds is the Port Arthur Squadron.

Tokio, Aug. 12, 6 p. m.—Admiral Togo reported as follows: On August 10 our combined fleet attacked the enemy's fleet near Gusan Rock. The Russian vessels were emerging from Port Arthur, trying to go South. We pursued the enemy to the Eastward. Severe fighting lasted from 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon until sundown. Toward the close the enemy's fire weakened remarkably, his formation became confused, and then his ships scattered. The Russian Cruisers Askold and Novik and several torpedo boat destroyers fled to the southward; others of the enemy's ships retreated separately toward Port Arthur. We pursued them and it appears we inflicted considerable damage. We found life buoys and other articles belonging to the Russian battleship Ozearevitch floating at sea. The Ozearevitch was sunk. The Russian vessels, with the exception of the Askold and Novik, the Ozearevitch and the cruiser Palada appear to have returned to Port Arthur. Our damage was slight. Our fighting power has not been impaired. The casualties in the Japanese navy numbered one hundred and seventy-two.

WHAT BRYAN THINKS.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—William Jennings Bryan passed through Chicago on his way home from Indiana, where he has been filling lecture engagements, and announced his intention of getting actively work on the stump for the national Democratic ticket as soon as the Chattanooga season comes to a close.

His observations he has made in his travels, since the St. Louis convention, Mr. Bryan says he thinks Alton B. Parker will be the next President of the United States.

"Everything that I have been able to gather indicates the election of the Democratic ticket," said Mr. Bryan. "I want to see the ticket elected and am going to do all I can to bring it about."

"Parker will put an end to imperialism, you know, was the paramount issue in the last campaign, and I am satisfied that in four years Judge Parker will rid this country of the menace that has confronted it. Furthermore, I believe he will give us an administration that will counteract the military, swaggering spirit that has been inculcated by Roosevelt."

A Sweet Breath

is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary S. Crick, of White Plains, Ky., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic for years; tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by Woods & Orme.

PHANTOM CURVE.

Leaving Alamosa, Colo., over the Denver & Rio Grande railroad after crossing San Luis Valley, passing through Antonio the junction point of the branch line to Santa Fe, where the line turns west and after devious windings and turnings through the sage covered foothills foot-hills, the heights are attained and the road winds in and out along the rim of the mighty mountain. Just before reaching the Toltec Tunnel a sharp curve takes the train into a nook among the hills. To the left are great monumental and fantastic forms of rock, while to the right are cliffs rising to a height of 500 or 600 feet above the track. From the quaint and curious formation which rise to the left as this bend was rounded has been called the Phantom Curve.

In half an hour Toltec Tunnel is reached, the great peculiarity of which is that it pierces the top of a mountain instead of its base. For 600 feet it has been blasted through the living rock, and such is its solidity that no masonry is needed to support the superincumbent rock masses above.

When the train emerges from the tunnel it rolls out upon a bridge of solid masonry, like a balcony against a wall of stone. Beneath to the left, is the Toltec Gorge. The traveler looks down 1500 feet, and glancing upward, sees the opposite gorge of the wall rising a thousand feet above him. The scene is one of the most unique in the whole journey, "Around the Circle" Below, at the bottom of the gorge, swirls and dashes a little stream, whose waters are churned into a snow white foam, and the noise of whose progress comes faintly to the ear, borne upward from those tremendous depths.

A Newer Signal.

The Louisville & Nashville railroad has erected at the point where pike crosses the railroad three miles north of Munfordsville Hart county, a danger signal which, if it continues to wear well as it does now, will go long way toward preventing passing accidents, which are terribly fatal, and which are very common. The danger signal put up in Hart county is being erected at the crossing, now about ten feet from the track on a tower. The signal is composed of wires with the track to north and south for a distance of 200 yards each way. As the train comes in contact with these wires, which it does 30 yards from the crossing, they begin to ring and continue to do so until the train has passed the intersection, thus giving a warning of the approach of the train and stopping persons driving on the track.

The cross mentioned above is one of the most dangerous in the State, as pike crosses the railroad frequently, and it is impossible for trainmen to see an approach vehicle in time to stop them.

The sign the only one on the L. & N. Kentucky, and its operation is watched with much interest by both the public and railroad officials.

Such a signal would be a good thing to put in this city at the Bellville and Wilson Avenue crosses.

ADMIRABLE, SAYS BRYAN.

Lincolnb., Aug. 11.—W. J. Bryan said Judge Parker's address:

The speech admirable on the question raised. I presume that his acceptance will go into in regard to various planks of platform, but I am satisfied the speech will make a very favorable impression upon the country. His remarks in regard to the Colorado situation are timely, as are the conditions relative to a general principle. Heretofore of the party's position imperialism is especially a thing. That was the paramount issue in 1900, and it must remain a question of the first importance until definitely settled. Discussion of imperialism as military spirit will do great harm.

The prospect to be a candidate sought to strengthen public faith in his determination to discharge duties of the office with a single to the public well, owing to his best judgment.

A Continuous Education.

Thirty-six years ago Mark Twain in reply to a friend who asked him if he did not think of marrying, said: "I am taking thought of it. I am in love beyond all telling with the best and dearest girl in the world. I don't suppose she will marry me; I don't think it possible. She ought not to; but if she doesn't I shall always think that the best thing I ever did was to fall in love with her, and proud that I tried to win her."

He did win her, and his devotion throughout a beautiful married life, which ended in Mrs. Clemens' death during the present year, was quite the best chapter in the life and letters of the great American humorist.

It is good to think of the point he made when he said the best thing he ever did was to fall in love with the dearest girl in the world. People are inclined to smile at the young man in love, but down in their hearts they are glad of it, and they think more of him. What is better, he thinks more of himself. He has higher ideas about his appearance, the employment of his time and talent. He has also his hopeless moments for the average girl is not so easily caught. In the meantime the process of education goes on, and after marriage the process of education also goes on.—Saturday Evening Post.

Of New York.

For Vice-President,
HON. HENRY G. DAVIS,
Of West Virginia.

For Congress,
OLLIE M. JAMES.

We publish in this issue of the Press the full text of Judge Alton B. Parker's speech accepting the Democratic Presidential nomination. This speech of Judge Parker's may be regarded as the tocsin of war, the gauge of battle, the challenge to the foe, and it has no halting nor uncertain sound. There is no pettifoggery in that document, no double-entendre, no trickery. Its meaning is plain, open, concise and pointed. There is no possibility of mistaking it. It is earnest; it is convincing; it is superb. It was born of calm conviction and came spontaneously from the heart. Truth is emblazoned on every line of it and honesty marks every sentence. In fine, it is the utterance of a statesman who has convictions of National policy broad enough to cover the entire continent, and who wants his fellow citizens to thoroughly understand what those convictions are. The speech will add to the prestige of the Democratic nominee, and will go far toward convincing the entire country of his eminent fitness for the exalted position for which he has been put forward by his party. Read it carefully.

There is still great tension between Russia and England as to the rights of neutral ships on the high seas, and also as to what properly constitutes contraband of war. The United States is also vitally interested in the matter. If the contention of Russia that all foodstuffs are contraband and subject to seizure is enforced by that power, it would suspend the shipment to oriental ports of all grain and other articles entering into the economy of support for human life. Clearly such an act of wholesale suppression can not be tolerated, either by England or the United States. Clearly some body has got to back down.

Judge Parker's emphatic declaration as to the gold standard close him one or two of the silver-producing states, but make votes in the Eastern States where the chief battle is and in the Middle States where the large majority favor the gold standard. His question will not be asked in either Indiana or Michigan. Kansas knows

The judicial ermine of the country during the past few years has been slightly tarnished by its evident trend toward partisan bias. This was to be expected, however, when the judiciary was thrown into the arena of politics by the elective and short term system. The late Lexington Appellate convention is an object lesson along this line. The farther the judiciary is removed from the arena of politics the more incorruptible judges we will have on the bench and the better it would be for the people.

There is all the difference in the world between the utterances of a statesman and those of a demagogue. Judge Parker shows all the earmarks of a statesman, but he has been denounced as insincere in his emphatic assertion that if elected President he would not stand for a re-election. Such a charge is narrow-minded demagoguery.

Ida Hagan, a negro woman, has been appointed postmaster at Ferdinand, Ind. Several white women were applicants for the position and now she's broke loose in that town. "Let the heathen rage and imagine a vain thing." It's election time and the colored brother has a vote.

Congressman James is to speak at Echo Valley Springs, one mile East of Smithland, at a great Democratic rally and barbecue, to take place there Friday, Sept. 2d, 1904. A great turnout is expected there on that day to hear Mr. James on the issues of the day.

There is no cloud so dark but has its silver lining. A son and heir was born to the Emperor of Russia last Friday, which may, to a certain degree, console his serene Majesty for the loss of Port Arthur, which seems inevitable.

Admirals Togo and Kamamura have destroyed or scattered the Russian Port Arthur and Vladivostok squadrons. This gives Japan complete mastery of the seas.

POLITICS IN LIVINGSTON.

Politics are pretty warm in old Livingston. County clerk Landrum goes after his enemy in a most caustic letter of three columns, which a friend of the Press requested us to publish. While the communication is mighty interesting reading, the fight is not ours, and we could not spare the space to publish it, even at regular advertising rates.

The Hunter-Edwards Fight.

Middlesboro, Ky., Aug. 16.—Chairman Byrley, of the Republican Committee, has postponed the meeting called for London today and they will meet here tomorrow. Mr. Byrley's reason for postponing was threats of intimidation and violence in London. An injunction has been granted by Judge Moss preventing the counting of the full Bell county vote. Nearly all of the committee are here.

Ail for the Baby Boy.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 16.—One of the acts of grace signaling the birth of an heir to the throne will be the total abolition of corporal punishment throughout Russia. A decree to this effect is expected to be issued tomorrow. This will banish the dreaded knout from Russia.

KILLED BY A POLE.

News-Democrat: J. Ed Greenaway of Marshall county was killed at Hardin this morning. A telephone pole fell and caught him, with fatal effect. Greenaway was foreman of the Marshall county telephone company at Benton. While at work superintending the raising of poles near Hardin this morning one of them got away from the men and fell. Before Mr. Greenaway could dodge the pole struck him. He lived but a few minutes.

J. Ed Greenaway was about 30 years of age. He was born at Rocky Point, Marshall county. For several years he was one of the best known newspaper men in Western Kentucky. He was quite a noted correspondent, his articles being known for their wit. The dead man had been in the telephone service for the past year or two.

The Marion opera house is to be overhauled and thoroughly renovated and beautified. A new metal ceiling is to be put on; paint and paper gilding and draperies will transform it into a thing of beauty and a joy forever. The stage has a wonderful influence for good when proper plays are put on and we trust some energetic, up-to-date theatre manager will now take charge of this house and give Marion and vicinity what they need, want and deserve—a season of high class drama—a treat from some of the best actors. Who will undertake it?

Little Folks' Corner.

For Children Under 10.

A boot and a shoe and slipper
Lived once in the cobble row;
But the boot and the shoe
Would have nothing to do
With the slipper because he was slow.
But the king and the queen and their daughter
On the cobble chanced to fall;
And as neither the boot
Nor the shoe would aid
The slipper went off to the ball.

THE NEW BABY.

"Yes, I've got a little baby,
Never asked to have his mother,
But he's here."
They just away and boost him,
And last week the doctor bought him
Weren't that queer?
When I heard the news from Molly,
'Why, I thought at first 'twas jolly,
Cause you see,
I s'posed I could go and get him
And mamma, course would let him
Play with me.
But when I once looked at him,
'Why, I says, 'Great grief is that him,
Just that nite
They said, 'yes' and 'ain't a cunnin'?'
And I thought they must be funnin'—
He's a sight.
He's so small, it's just again'
And you'd think that he was blazin',
He's so red.
And his nose is like a berry,
And he's as bald as Uncle Jerry
On his head.
Why, he isn't worth a berry,
All he does is cry and kick,
He can't stop.
Won't sit up, you can't arrange him—
I don't see why pa don't change him
At the shop.
Now, we've got to dress and feed him,
And we really didn't need him
More'n a frog;
Then why'd they buy a baby brother
When they know I'd go deal ruther
Have a dog?"
Answer to last week's puzzle.
Why is an avaricious man like one with a short memory? Answer: Because he is always for-getting.

Question this week. What month of the year is the grandest?

A LITTLE APPLE MAN.

A little boy was going to market with some apples to sell. He has a chair for his buggy and has a toy donkey for his mule. The donkey's name is Ned and his master's name is Teddy.
Teddy has a whip with which he hits Ned with when he gets lazy and does not want to carry the load of apples.
Teddy has a large basket of playthings that he is going to sell, for he imagines he is a man and does not need them to play with any more.
Ned carries on each side of his harness a full basket of apples which Teddy is carrying to market for sale. Teddy drives into town feeling very proud of his fruit.
"Good morning, do you wish some nice apples today?" The groceryman said. "Yes, I believe I will take them, my little man." "What do you ask for them?" "I will sell them at a dollar a basket and you may have them all if you desire them." Teddy was a very proud little fellow when the groceryman handed him two silver dollars for his fruit. But he was still prouder when he returned home to receive the praises of his mother.
Teddy was not long in reaching home, for Ned was a very fast traveler and made the trip quickly.
When reaching home Teddy found his mother patiently waiting for him at the gate and inquired of her little man what had received for his fruit. And when Teddy showed her two bright silver dollars she was very proud of her little boy in learning to do good work and to earn his own money.
That night when his father came home and Teddy showed him his money he was surprised very much and said, "Teddy you are starting out in your young days to make your own money all through life." Teddy said, "Mamma, I am so glad I have pleased you and papa so well."
A prize-story written by ADDIE CARTER, Levisa, Ky.

PRO AND CON

(By O. G. W.)

Who'er has traveled life's dull round,
Where'er his stages may have been,
Must sigh to think he still has found
The warmest welcome at an inn.

Who'er has traveled much about,
Must very often sigh to think
That every host will turn you out,
Unless you've plenty of the chunk.

Demand for houses continues unabated. Every day someone comes here to rent or buy. Often they go home disappointed. Why don't someone build houses here to rent. Weldon & Blackburn have the lots. Buy one and build on it and we will guarantee you a tenant this fall.

In our mention last week of the Hurricane campmeeting it was stated that W. B. Yates would conduct the singing. We learn, however, that this department will be under the control of Urie and Ves Threlkeld and as these gentlemen stand high in the profession, the singing this year will no doubt have its usual attraction.
Since Dr. Nunn moved into the new postoffice block Drs. Dixon and Shiveley have taken the other room upstairs in addition to the one they already occupy. A large number of persons from this place attended the campmeeting at Piney Fork Sunday. They report an unusually large crowd on the grounds, good preaching and plenty to eat, but they further report that the order around the campmeeting was very bad. This by all means should be avoided in the future, as we have laws against the disturbing of religious worship.
Rev. Conway, of this city has a rare curiosity in the shape of a newspaper printed in Boston, Mass., some 175 years ago. The paper contains notices of slaves for sale; so it seems the New Englanders of that day did not deem it wrong to deal in slave property. Mr. Conway also has a rare old volume of church minutes, in which the name of his great grandfather appears as clerk of the session.
There is a regret felt by every one as the time approaches for Will Browning and his estimable little family to leave for California, also Mrs. Bingham and her two daughters, Misses Bettie and Lillian. ### Joe Samuels Dead.

Joe Samuels died at Repton Tuesday Aug. 16th 1904 at one o'clock in the afternoon after an illness of twenty months. He was born Dec. 3 1848 in this county and was married in the 23rd year to Miss Mary Asher, daughter of Squire Wm. H. Asher, then of the Weston country but now of this city. This union was blessed with seven children all of whom survive him. Mr. Samuels had been a Mason since 1870, over one-third of a century, and his funeral was conducted under the auspices of the Masonic lodge at the Repton cemetery Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

POEM CROWDED OUT.

Friday a young lady came into this office and kindly handed us a poem which she desired to be published in our next issue and which she confessed, was not written by herself or by J. Whitcomb Riley, but by her mother, Mrs. Martha Christiana Costina Hegens Bird Gill. The poem is entitled, "Weeping a Commemoration of the Lord," and as it is a rather lengthy production and as our space is limited, we are forced to give it a place, not in our columns, but on our "dead hook." We cannot forbear, however, giving one stanza of the poem for the edification of our poetry-loving readers:

"As I see the trees this second day of February, 1902
I weep as I think of the cares and sorrows of myself and you."

Injunction Suit Filed.

Things in colored school district 'D' have, it seems, become somewhat complicated. Two sets of trustees, each claiming to be the legally elected officials, have employed teachers for the ensuing year. Robert Wheeler and Mayfield Hughes employed G. W. Brooks and Laura Johnson, while Valentine Threlkeld and Ed Crider contracted with Mrs. George and Dr. Cobb.

Brooks and Miss Johnson, getting the start on their competitors, opened up school Monday and proceeded with the general order of business, whereupon Threlkeld and Crider, as trustees, filed a suit of injunction, restraining the above named teachers from occupying the school building and the County Ky Superintendent, J. B. Paris, from paying them any of the public funds of this district. The case will come on for trial next Monday.

A STRANGE MIX UP,

Greensboro, Ga., Aug. 10.—A peculiar story has developed in real life near Greensboro, or rather a series of events, in which years have passed and all the years of happiness.

Thirty-two years ago, in this county, B. T. McElroy and Miss Tarpley were married, lived together four or five years and had several children born to them. During the sixth year of their married life, McElroy decided to travel in some of the western states, and so he left his wife and children in Greene county and started on his journey, intending soon to return.

However, after getting out west he remained longer than was anticipated and information that he believed to be thoroughly reliable was brought him that his wife was dead. She, not hearing from him also considered that he was dead.

Eventually Mr. McElroy discontinued his travels and settled in Texas, and began preaching. Believing his wife dead, and about ten years having elapsed, he married again and now has living in the state of Texas a wife and eleven children.

Mrs. McElroy, also laboring under the belief that her husband was no longer in the land of the living, married again, this time Ben Wray, who died several years ago, and who was a farmer in this county until the time of his death. Two children blessed this union.

Now after a lapse of 25 years Mr. McElroy decides to visit the scenes of his youth and so came back to Greensboro, which he had left so many years before. The state of affairs that confronts him is a most peculiar one; his first wife living here, her second husband dead, his children whom he had left when young now grown to be men and women, the children of Mrs. McElroy's second husband also being grown, and as stated he also having a wife and eleven children in Texas.

AN AWFUL FATE,

News-Democrat: As we go to press we learn that two boys, by the names of Miller and Bowman, supposed to be living near Simpson, were struck by a freight train Sunday night two miles south of Simpson, about 12 o'clock.

They were found Sunday morning by the crew of the morning train that reaches the city about 6:20 a. m.

Miller was cut to pieces, but Bowman was still alive. The latter stated to the train crew that they had been to a ball game at Simpson and while on their way home became tired and concluded to sit down on the track and in a few moments they were asleep.

Miller's body was found in pieces strung along the track.

Bowman was still alive when he was found and told the crew all about the accident. The hole in his head, the leg cut entirely off. He had not suffered any pain when the accident happened.

Bowman and the pieces of Miller were put on the train and taken to Grantsburg. A physician was summoned as soon as the train arrived and Bowman was taken under his care.

Bowman is on the Illinois Central road, about thirty miles from here. Warts on her fingers, corns on her feet, she will be miserable wherever she goes, unless she uses Dr. Mendon's Corn Cure. 15 cents at druggists, by mail on receipt of price by Dr. Mendon, Evansville, Ind.

Kidnapped Boy Finds Mother.

Kidnapped twenty years ago by his own father, given to a showman and growing up in that business, and later learning the occult arts in India, Alfred L. Thompson has come back to Sioux City, Ia., and found his mother, Mrs. S. J. Benton.

Thompson's father and mother quarreled when he was three years old. The father ran away, but he came back and stole the child, taking him to Kansas. Soon after this Thompson, leaving the boy with his grandmother, disappeared again. The child was turned over to an "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company, to play little Eva. At eight he was the champion rifle shot of his age, with Buffalo Bill; went to Europe, drifted to India, and spent two years in an institution of occult sciences.

He married an Indian maiden who came back to America but after two years returned to India. Thompson's special stunt is to hypnotize himself into a cataleptic condition and then being buried alive. A few weeks ago in Kansas he heard his mother was still alive, and immediately came to see her. Each had supposed the other dead.

TURKS SLAY OVER 6,000.

London, Aug. 10.—News of an appalling massacre of Armenians by the Turks, a calamity that eclipses any former event of its character in the sad history of this oppressed race, has just reached here. Five Armenian towns were almost obliterated by the blood-thirsty followers of Mohammed, on July 24. No less than 6,000 men, women and children were put to the sword.

The appearance of a band of Armenian revolutionaries near Ouhkilliss gave the Turks an excuse for their demoniac work. The inhabitants of this section of the unfortunate country, while undoubtedly sympathizing with their brethren, in no way lent them any aid.

Nevertheless the Turks, seeing an opportunity to furnish Armenia with a never to be forgotten object lesson, set upon the five towns, leveling the houses to the ground, and slaying every inhabitant that fell into their hands; no mercy for the aged or the young was shown. Women were subjected to the most horrible indignities, and old men were tortured in indescribable ways.

FEMALE WEAKNESS

343 1-2 Congress St.
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Oct. 17, 1903.
I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have nothing to do but lie down. My limbs would not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After fifteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Witheline S. Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League

Periodical headaches tell of female weakness. Wine of Cardui cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases of irregular menstruation, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, that is the best reason in the world you should try Wine of Cardui now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui today.

A life saved by FOERG'S REMEDY

the great blood purifier

This grateful letter from a prominent Kentuckian

Princeton, Ky., Feb. 4th, 1908.

With a state for the Foerg Remedy Co. of Evansville, Ind., that I believe their great Remedy, saved my brother's life some ten years ago. He was troubled with a blood disease, and I seemed to get no relief until he took Foerg's Remedy. After taking two bottles he was entirely relieved of his trouble, and when he died five years ago he was entirely well of that disease. I also took two bottles as a blood purifier and was much benefited.

(Signed) C. H. LEWIS, Princeton, Ky.

(Attest) H. C. STONE, Princeton, Ky.

People do not become interested in these subjects until failing health or a distressing outbreak of the skin reminds them sharply of their ignorance. Is it any wonder then that so many become the easy prey of vain promises both inside and outside the medical fraternity, and too often find a tragically early grave, where a little common sense knowledge would have shown them the means of recovery and spared their lives. Know thyself!

AND HERE'S THE REMEDY

Forewarned is forearmed—let this warning sink deep in—obtain from us or from your druggist a trial quantity of the Remedy—test its efficiency the first time you have the opportunity so that you may know for yourself and become an enthusiastic convert to the virtue and strength of our marvelous blood remedy—from then on you will refuse to be without it until your cure is effected. Why take chances? Why procrastinate a single day? Act now.

She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. ## RUSSIAN GIRL A WAR SCOUT.

The doughty deeds of a brave Russian girl, who on closer acquaintance proves to be a Korean Jewess, are graphically reported from Mukden. This courageous Hebrew, who is twenty years of age, says a report, dresses as a man, calls herself Michael Smolko, and has played a brilliant and helpful part as a scout and dragoon.

Recently, when some specially dangerous work was necessary, and qualified military men were called upon to volunteer, she was the first to offer her services and reconnoiter the Japanese position in the forest. On June 21 she headed a small party of Cossacks and not only obtained information needed by the Russian commander, but successfully drove back a large number of cattle which, having been looted by the Japanese, were being taken to their camp by Chinese auxiliaries.

Escaped An Awful Fate.

Mr. H. Higgins of Milbourne, Fla., writes: "My doctor told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by Woods & Orme.

OBITUARY.

The death angel came to the home of Mr and Mrs Frank Riley and took from them their little son Homer, aged 6 months.

He was a smart, intelligent baby that filled the heart with light and love. But God saw fit to transplant the little flower into the home of eternal bliss. His remains were laid in the Livingston graveyard by many loving friends who sincerely sympathize with the bereaved parents.

May God bless and comfort the sad parents in their hour of sore affliction.

JUDGE PARKER NOTIFIED.

Esopus, N. Y., Aug 10.—Judge Alton B. Parker was today formally notified of his nomination as the candidate of the Democratic party for President. The ceremony occurred on the lawn at Rose mount, his handsome country home, and in addition to the members of the notification committee and many prominent men of his party, hundreds of the candidate's friends and neighbors assembled to witness the event. The sky was overcast and threatening a downpour, but in spite of these unfavorable signs, it was decided the ceremony should be held on the grounds instead of on the boat which brought the notification committee and its guests from New York.

Banners of the different States were hung in front of the speaker's stand. Before the ceremonies were begun the Seventh Regiment band played several selections.

Judge Parker's family were escorted to the summer house on the lawn by National Chairman Tsggart and the New York State Chairman Meyer. Judge Parker was then escorted from the house to the stand. The candidate was greeted with cheers.

As soon as the little party arrived the stand, Champ Clark began his address. Realizing that rain was imminent Mr. Clark cut short a portion of his address.

Judge Parker, with bared head, stood on the platform throughout the speech, with utter disregard of the rain, and spotted his linen. His composure was unshaken, and he smiled with the spectators at the witticisms with which Mr. Clark interspersed his address. Mr. Clark concluded at 2:38 and then presented to Judge Parker the official notification. Flags were frantically waved at the close of Mr. Clark's speech, the crowd cheered, and it was a full minute before Judge Parker was allowed to proceed.

Before beginning his address of acceptance Judge Parker advised the crowd to get under the trees, out of the rain.

"We don't mind the wet," was the spontaneous response. Judge Parker began his address at 2:18 and concluded at 2:54 o'clock. He was given tremendous applause and the band played "Star Spangled Banner."

Judge Parker's speech was interrupted frequently by applause, and cheers.

At the close of his speech the Judge held an informal reception which was begun on the speaker's stand and continued on the Rosemore veranda.

In the meantime bombs were fired in salute from the deck of the yacht Sapphire.

[The speeches of both Judge Parker and Chairman Clark are published in full elsewhere in this issue of the Press.]

Bishop Joseph S. Key, Southern M. E. Church, writes: "We gave Dr. Moffett's 'TERTAINA' (Teething Powder) to our little grandchild with the happiest results. The effects were almost magical, and certainly more satisfactory than from anything we ever used." "TERTAINA" (Teething Powder) Counteracts and Overcomes the Effects of the Summer's Heat.

Has Warmed Up.

Edmunson Usher, south of the city, came to town Tuesday in his shirt sleeves which, it is said, was the first time that he has been seen in the city without his coat and arctic shoes on for many years. He has been in ill health and subject to cold sensations which caused him to wear heavy clothes in the hottest summer months. He married some time ago and since that time, it is said, he has been gradually improving so that no "cold sensations" are felt trickling over his body. —Mayfield Messenger.

Kentucky News.

Lang Bros. Druggists, Paducah, Ky., write: "We sell more of Dr. Mendenhall's Chill and Fever Cure than all other remedies combined, having retailed over 700 bottles in one season. The physicians here prescribe it and persons who use it once will have no other." Children like it.

A CRAZY HORSE.

Macon, Ga., Aug. 10.—Foaming at the mouth and dashing madly down the street, a valuable horse belonging to a farmer named Galiard snapped and bit at everything in sight this afternoon and then sank to the ground in front of the Jenkins store. The farmer left the horse standing in front of a saloon and suddenly the animal, after pawing the earth and tearing loose from the hitching-post, started on the wild chase down the street. A small dog was bitten by the horse and was shot by a policeman. Just what caused the horse to go mad is not known, and the owner says he was not aware that the animal had ever been bitten by any dog. The animal was killed to end its sufferings.

U. S. SHIPS AWE THE SULTAN.

Constantinople, Aug. 12.—The American legation has not yet received a reply from the Turkish Government for the same favored treatment in the matter of schools hospitals and other charitable institutions accorded to other nations.

However, it is anticipated by diplomats that the demands will be granted before the arrival of the American squadron at Smyrna.

Berlin, Aug. 12.—Secretary Hay's course toward Turkey, according to the official view here is perfectly justifiable. The example of France in forcing the Porte to settle claims through a fleet demonstration is cited as an analogous case, and the officials here expect that the Sultan will promptly yield the United States' demand before the demonstration at Smyrna reaches a serious aspect.

Germany, unlike most European countries, has no claims against Turkey, although Turkey still owes money to German shipbuilders and arms companies. The exceptional relations Germany has with the Porte will, it is assumed, be favorable to America, should the Sultan ask for Germany's advice.

WOULD NOT PROMISE.

During a talk to fifteen young women graduates of the Campbell-Hagerman College in Lexington recently, B. J. Pinkerton, of the chair of moral philosophy, requested them to promise that they would not marry until they were 21.

Two girls, Miss Minerva Embury, of Lexington, and Miss Flo S.
