Modern Workmen Have Too Much Leisure Time

By G. D. WOOLWORTH

A United States Manufactures of Homesteads.

The leisure which the slumbering armies of our workmen are not aware of has been discussed in a number of articles and speeches, and it is to be feared that the time has come when the idle man will have to be regarded as a dangerous and a mischievous person.

The time is coming when the workman will have to be regarded as a dangerous person, for he is a danger to society.

The time is coming when the workman will have to be regarded as a dangerous person, for he is a danger to society.

BLIND TIGERS

Attempt to Run at Hurricane Camp Meeting but Are Caught

SHERIDAN

The annual camp meeting is now in session at this place, and the attendance is as good as ever. Last Sunday the crowd was a bit larger than usual. At night by 11 o’clock a large crowd was on the ground. Rev. J. J. Audley, of the Evangelist Mission and Ouse, and Rev. W. H. Rogers are doing some good work and preaching some good sermons. Rev. J. J. Audley is the class leader, assisted by his wife and the deacon of the church. Only the hotel people are allowed to sell anything on the grounds, and that as limited, such as cakes, cream or sweetmeats. It appears that “blind tigers” have been put in the camp grounds but by some means the sign of many of the filth have been opened and their names have been cast out in the streets and meet all who are under the influence have been approached, but possibly one or two of those may be caught.

Marriage—Marriage of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Flagg of the camp meeting at 8 o’clock last night.

Next Sunday is expected to be the last day of the meeting. The crowd on the ground of the camp meeting has been excellently well conducted, and has shown that this is a very solemn occasion. There is plenty of beer, hence the grounds are not disturbed, and no unseemly behavior has been observed for the present condition of the atmosphere. It will then be before Sunday night that will see it all.

Other Arrests at Hurricane.

Judge Ellis, who has been here on the hurricane camp meeting, alleged and lodged in jail here and there, and managed to slip away while the charge was outstanding. The same day his brother, Elmer Ford, was arrested again and brought here charged with contempt of court, and having been found guilty of the charge against him, was remanded to the jail of the county and will remain there until the next term of the court. Miss Minnie Tyler, who has been here, was arrested on the charge of stealing the watches and money of the Baptist church last night.

OLLIE TUCKER

After Seven Years in Haynes’ Store Gets Business for Himself.

For seven years or more Ollie Tucker has been foreman of the E. Haynes’ drug store. During that time he has never been found in the drug store and has been a valued employee of the firm ever since he has been in the employ. Mr. Tucker is a man of means and has been able to get a small store.

SALEM.

C. G. L., the Optic Shop, is arranging the view of many of the articles in his line. Mr. L. C. D., a merchant of the town, is taking his goods to the store and having them ready for business.

LOLA.

W. F. and E. E. Polk went to Marion Thursday to see their parents and are at present at home. E. L. Polk, of Palmyra, is also at home.

Commissioner’s Sale.

Commissaries of the Circuit Court, in the City of Marion, Ky., for the county of Marion, Ky., respectively:

J. B. B., the Excise Agent, has a new store in the town of Marion and is preparing for business.

Mr. W. S. Crockett has the streets and sidewalks nicely cleaned and ready for business.

The following meeting begins here next Saturday. Rev. J. N. Miller, will be the preacher, and Rev. W. H. Rogers, the deacon of the church, will be in charge of the meeting.}
