GREAT STRIKE OF LEAD AT THE ADA-FLORENCE.

Great Strike Also at the Chas. Donakey Place, Now Owned by Chas. W. Little and Other Capitalists of Indiana.

The Big Four Mining company had a number of wagons hauling in spar last week.

Up to Sept 24, for three preceding months, the Kentucky Floor Spar company shipped to Easley, Ala., 1,106,688 lbs. of floor spar.

The clay mine near Salem closed down last week. This will throw a number of wagons out of employment.

Dr. A. S. Runnels and D. C. Griffith, both of Indianapolis and directors in the Marion Zinc Co., were here last week.

The Yandell, Asbridge, Tabor, Wheeler, Tabb, Blue & Marble, Riter, Hodge, Brown, Red, Klondyke, Memphis and several other mines all of which belong to the Ky. Floor Spar Co., are working every day.

The Maser and Little have started their new shaft on the Hayward place, and have already encountered some spar.

Ries & Co., of Louisville, are having a prospect shaft sunk on their Eaton property. This is perhaps one of the most valuable properties of the district when fully developed.

At a depth of 40 feet, Mr. J. G. Hurst, Supt. for the Little company, reports a fine vein of lead, several feet thick. As we go to press we have had no full report on the find, but it is said to be great.

Our New Salem correspondent says: Clay hauling from the Stevens mines got a black eye Saturday and came to a standstill; we are truly glad, for some of the poor horses and mules that were compelled under the lash to pull loads that they were unable to pull, and others loaded their teams with reason.

Our Carville correspondent writes:

Your correspondent visited the Schoolfield-Spees mines recently and he found things moving along rapidly. G. T. Spees, the boss, tells us that greater progress has been made this week than in any other one week. Spar begins showing now, and Mr. Spees is elated over the prospect.

Why don't more of our Marion friends go into the mineral business, when they have a fortune at their door steps, instead of letting strangers come in and take it from under their nose. Wake up, Marion boys! and grasp the golden opportunity now that you have the chance.

Messrs Wm Miller and Louis Wehle of Louisville were in Marion last week. Mr. Miller was here in the interest of his mine. Mr. Wehle is somewhat of a mineralogist. They visited the most of our mines and Mr. Wehle was very much surprised to find such a rich mineral section. He said: "Without a doubt this is the richest lead and zinc field in America."

Mr. E. W. Smith, of Owensboro informs the Messenger of that city that there is a scheme on foot whereby millions of dollars will be thrown into the mining industry of Crittenden county and the business of mining fully developed and systematically prosecuted. Mr. Smith is understood to be the moving spirit in the enterprise, and states that quite a number of capitalists are interested in the development of this mining district. The scheme has not yet taken distinct shape, but there is a strong probability that it will not distant day.

Another rich find in Levis. Some months ago Messrs Dollar and McAfee, of Marion, optioned and bought the mineral rights on the E. L. Franklin place. After several weeks of patiently prospecting they have uncovered what appears to be a fine vein of spar and lead. This is found about 30 feet deep and doubtless is the old Columbia vein now opened at six different places along a line of two miles. Of course the owners are very jubilant and dream of soon moving around on "easy street."

The Nancy Hanks close to Salem, are working every day and getting out from 10 to 25 tons of lead and floor spar daily. Judging from the looks of the pile out side it will yield 25 per cent lead. Mr. Radcliffe, the Supt. thoroughly understands his business, from the looks of things around the mine. He has a fine plant fitted up at the mine with very fine machinery of the latest improvement. The company have a compressor and run their drills in the mine with compressed air. Mr. Radcliffe informs us that there will be a big mill erected at this mine early in the spring for the purpose of separating their minerals. This vein is a continuation of the Columbia vein, and runs from six to twelve feet wide.

A few hundred feet north of the Nancy Hanks is the Morning Star. This mine is on the same vein as the Nancy Hanks and has some very rich mineral out on the dump, but the mine is now closed down from some cause or other.

The Cullen mine, near Salem is not working at present, but they are working "hammers and tongs" on their big mill which is the largest separating plant in the State of Kentucky. Major Hearne is constructing this magnificent plant and Capt Haas is Supt. and there is nothing around the mill or mines that either of these gentlemen can't do. They have their shaft already sunk close to the mill on a 26 foot vein of lead and zinc and floor spar. Capt Haas tells us that as soon as the new mill is ready to go into operation, which will be about February or March, he will start new levels and overhead stopes and will easily get out enough ore to keep the mill running night and day. After this mill is in operation the next step Major Hearne will take will be to have a railroad built through the Salem district to take away their mineral.

FALLS DEAD.

Columbus, O., Oct 28.—Former Governor George K. Nash dropped dead this morning in the bathroom at the home of his stepdaughter, Mrs. Worthington E. Babcock. Gov Nash had been afflicted with heart trouble for over a year. After Governor Herrick assumed the duties of the office Governor Nash became worse and at one time the doctors gave him up and resorted to the most heroic methods to keep him alive. To the surprise of his physicians the governor gradually rallied, and recovered to such an extent that he was able to walk down to his office and attend to business. He remained very weak, however, but continued to attend to his law business, having been at his law office yesterday.

This morning Mr. Nash arose late and went to his bathroom, when he was heard to fall, and life was extinct when the family reached him.

REMOVED THE CONSUL.

Fairmount, W. Va., Oct 29.—At the request of the Italian Minister at Washington, the Italian consul at Philadelphia revoked the appointment of John W. Marianna, Italian consul for West Virginia. The removal of Marianna was brought about by Republicans of this city, who laid complaint at Washington because he addressed a Democratic meeting at Monongah recently. The complaint was that Marianna opposed the policy of President Roosevelt and the Republican administration. This action is resented by hundreds of friends of Marianna, both Americans and Italians.

DEFECT IN OUR BATTLESHIPS

Naval officers at San Francisco are discussing a peculiar structural defect of the battleship Ohio which has never been referred to in print. This defect consists in omitting armor around the after end of the superstructure within which are mounted ten six inch rapid fire guns. This omission, experts say, makes the big ship dangerously vulnerable in a vital part, from shots coming from either direction.

The omission can be rectified at slight cost. The same defect exists in the sister ships, Maine and Missouri, as well as the Albany, Wisconsin and Illinois.

Tried to Blow Up Hotel.

Cardillio, Mich., Oct 29.—Considerable excitement prevails in this city over an alleged attempt to blow up with dynamite the McKinnon hotel here while W. N. Ferris, the Democratic candidate for Governor and his party were guests of the hotel. The proprietor of the hotel found today a waste basket which he was about to empty into the furnace an alleged dynamite bomb about four inches long, and one inch in diameter, containing dynamite and gun cotton.

LOSE ONE ELECTORAL VOTE.

If the national election should be so close as to narrow down to a point where one electoral vote would decide the contest between Parker and Roosevelt, and the Republicans should rely on the solid vote of California to win, Parker would be the next Chief Magistrate of the nation.

California is sure for one vote for the Democratic ticket in the electoral college. It is assured, for the reason that Borax Smith, on the Republican electoral ticket is not eligible, and this fact was not discovered within the time required by law. Hence his place could not be filled by another Republican elector, and the Democratic elector will win.

Major F. Reed on Trial.

The trial of Major Reed is in progress in the United States Court at Paris, Texas. He is charged with the murder of John O'Reilly, his father-in-law. His father, our former townsman, J. P. Reed, is with him and has five of the best lawyers obtainable to assist him in the defense.

TRAILED BY BLOODHOUNDS.

Mt Sterling, Ky., Oct. 28.—In Menifee county Capt V. G. Mulligan of Wilmore, and the Bloodhounds Nick Carter and Backham, took a trail, thirteen hours old at Chambers distillery, and after a mile run chased James Watkins to his residence and refused to leave. The distillery was burned Wednesday night by incendiaries. Watkins was arrested and lodged in Frenchburg jail.

Good Health to the Children

Children especially are fond of dainties, and the housekeeper must look carefully to their food.

As good cake can be made only with good eggs, so also a cake that is healthful as well as dainty must be raised with a pure and perfect baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable in the preparation of the highest quality of food. It imparts that peculiar lightness, sweetness and flavor noticed in the finest cake, biscuit, doughnuts, crusts, etc., and what is more important, renders the food wholesome and agreeable to young and old.

The Irving H. Wheatcroft's special train composed of diner, sleepers, smokers, day coaches and baggage car passed through Marion Thursday morning en route to St. Louis. The Exposition will be visited and the entire party quartered at the inside Inn, the great hotel built in the World's Fair grounds. Besides Mr. Wheatcroft invited guests from Morganfield, Sturgis and Marion. Some eighty odd miners were given a free trip to the World's Fair by Mr. Wheatcroft. This is a splendid outing for his men and shows a spirit of good fellowship between employer and employees which should exist and be encouraged in all enterprises. Mr. John L. Tonkin represented Marion in the party. The dinner and buffet were stocked with the finest cigars and fruits and plenty of ice water (7), and a general good time will be had by all the party. It is understood Mr. Wheatcroft who is a princely man is giving this trip to his employees and that all expenses will be paid by him individually.

PAINFULLY HURT.

Last evening, Hanson, the little son of Mr. H. H. Loving, was most painfully injured in the eye by another boy shooting him with one of those obnoxious air guns that have created so much trouble recently over the city. It seems that several youngsters were playing in that neighborhood and one of them promiscuously fired the gun which struck the little boy's eye, who is very painfully hurt. The eye was dressed by Dr. Williams, of Providence, who is visiting at the Loving home. The police intend taking this matter in hand and compel the arrest of all boys shooting at random upon the streets with these apparently harmless, but in fact, most dangerous arms. The habit has become one detrimental to the safety and peace of everybody and will doubtless be stopped at all hazards.—Paducah Register.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm" is considered the best liniment on the market," write Post & Bliss, of Georgia Vt. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Woods & Orme Druggists.

To Punish Vagrancy.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

1. The following persons shall be deemed to be vagrants to-wit:

(1) Any able-bodied male person who habitually loiters or rambles about with out means to support himself, or who has no trade, calling or profession to make an honest livelihood.

(2) Any able-bodied male person who is without visible means of support, and who habitually fails or refuses to engage in honest labor for his own support, or for the support of his family, if he has one.

(3) Any able-bodied male person who purposely deserts his wife or children, leaving them, or any of them, without suitable subsistence or suitable means of subsistence, and himself being idle and dissolute.

(4) Any able-bodied person, male or female, who has no visible means of support and who habitually loiters on the streets or public places of a village, town or city.

2. Any persons found guilty of the offense of vagrancy shall, for the first offense, be fined ten dollars or imprisoned for thirty days; if there be none, in the county jail thirty days or the punishment may be both such fine or imprisonment. For the second offense and all subsequent offenses, sixty days imprisonment in the workhouse, if there be one, if there be none, in the county jail. Any one who is fined under this act shall be required to work at hard labor at the rate of one dollar per day until fine and cost are satisfied. Any one who is imprisoned, either in work house or jail, shall be required to work at hard labor during the term of his imprisonment.

3. Circuit Courts, Police Courts, Quarterly Courts and Justices of the Peace shall have jurisdiction of the offense of vagrancy, and for the purpose of trying a person charged with vagrancy, Police Courts Quarterly Courts and Justices Courts shall be deemed to be always open.

4. It shall be the duty of all sheriffs, constables, marshals and policemen to keep a watch for vagrants at those places where they are accustomed to congregate. And if any of these officers has reason to believe that a vagrant habitually infests a public place or street, it shall be the duty of said officer to warn him to leave such place and go to work. If two or more vagrants habitually loiter about any street or public place, it shall be the duty of such officers to disperse them, using no more force than is reasonably necessary for that purpose.

5. Chapter 132 of Kentucky Statutes and chapter 111, of the General Statutes are hereby repealed, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are repealed.

KILLED A BEAR.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 22.—Killing a bear with a hunting knife has not often occurred since the days of David Crockett, but is brought into fashion again by James Short, a resident of Washougal, Wash., who stabbed a big, shaggy brute to death after a desperate encounter lasting thirty minutes. Weakened by loss of blood, Short fell in his tracks along side of the dead bear, and was found by two companions who had accompanied him out into the woods for a morning ramble.

Injuring the Cabbages Trade.

The cabbage snake stories have killed the sale of that vegetable nearly everywhere. Local grocers men report a decided falling off in the sale of this vegetable, and indeed are scarcely having any sale for them at all.

Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia is not a known remedy. It has made many remarkable cures right here in Marion and so positive are druggists, Woods & Orme of its great superiority in curing dyspepsia, constipation sick headache and liver troubles that they will, in addition to selling it at half-price, refund the money to anyone whom it does cure.

If you cannot call at their store, cut the coupon and mail it with 25c and a 50 cent box of the specific, sent you by mail, charges paid. Put it off. "One today is worth two tomorrow."

This is a great opportunity for readers to obtain a popular remedy at small price. There are sixty doses every package, and unlike ordinary constipation and dyspepsia remedies, the dose is decreased after the first few days.

Whipped a Teacher.

Pana, Ill., Oct. 22.—Because of an attempt to defame her character, Eva Williams today publicly whipped Prof. E. C. Graybill, superintendent of the Stewardson public schools. Williams is assistant postmaster at Stewardson and accuses Graybill making false statements about her. Williams is the daughter of A. D. Williams, a business man and member of the Stewardson school board. Gray is one of the leading educators of St. County and for several years has been one of the instructors at the Co. Normal.

FINDS CAT'S-EYE GEM.

Calcutta, Oct. 22.—A native of Calcutta has had an extraordinary run of good luck in finding cat's-eye gems. He quite a poor man when some ago he found a gem worth $5,000. He afterward he found another, which sold for $12,500, and now he has a third, which he has just found. His good fortune in the finding of these gems has made him a very rich man. He has nearly seven pounds, which he has refused $50,000. He that he can cut the gem into forty, each of which will bring $5,000, or a total of $200,000.

CABBAGE SNAKE

Harmless...and May be Eaten Raw or Cooked.

For the benefit of the nervous and dyspeptic the statement is made on the best authority that the so-called "cabbage snake" is no snake at all, but a harmless little worm, that may be eaten raw or cooked without danger. They are as harmless as apple worms are not as near so plentiful. The following article by Gerald McCarthy, biologist, published in the bulletin of the North Carolina State Board of Agriculture is conclusive.

"The sea serpent of mendacious renown seems to have been forced out of business this year by a land serpent which has located in the western part of North Carolina, where it has taken to frightening the owners of cabbage patches. Many stories have been published concerning the deadly venom of this creature, usually referred to as the 'cabbage snake.' Several of these 'serpents' have been caught and sent to the North Carolina department of agriculture for identification. In every case these have proved to be the common and harmless water-worm, or 'hair snake'—Gordius variabilis.

"Snakes and serpents belong to the back-boned series of animals. This creature is a nematode worm belonging far down in the scale of created being. It has a soft, boneless body, with only rudimentary organs. It does not bite or chew, but absorbs its food in liquid form through every part of its body. It is normally an internal parasite of grasshopper and other insects. Its presence in cabbage heads is rare and accidental, due to the previous abundance of insects upon the plants. The Gordius worms are never found parasitic upon human or vegetable animals. The stories concerning the deaths supposed to have been caused by these worms are untrue and ridiculous.

"There is no venom in them. They may be eaten raw or cooked without any danger to the eater.

"The serious part of these stories is that such publications may cause considerable loss by preventing people from eating the cabbage they have raised or purchased. Such fears are wholly groundless. These worms are not common, and when they do occur upon cabbage they will do no harm to any one eating the vegetable. They are at worst no more hurtful than the worms so plentiful in apples and peaches some seasons.

"The so-called cabbage worm, or Gordius variabilis, is a slender, white bodied worm, from four to six inches long, and about as thick as an ordinary knitting needle.

"It is hoped that those newspapers which have published the misleading stories concerning this worm, will republish this refutation and thus help to prevent needless loss of good food."

THE TELEPHONE EAR

Do you know that nine out of ten persons who habitually use the telephone have what is called the telephone ear? In its first stage the telephone ear becomes acute and sensitive, but after long use the hearing becomes more or less blunted, and half the complaints against poor telephone service may be attributed rightly to the telephone ear. Try it some time. If you habitually use the right ear next time use the left, and see if it isn't twice as satisfactory. It is a good plan for those who use the telephone much to frequent switch ears. This keeps the ears equally balanced, and might ward off a permanent deafness.

Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney troubles and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c at Woods & Orme Druggists.

DISEASE AFFECTING CATTLE.

The farmers of South Christian are very much disturbed over the appearance of a deadly disease which has appeared in that section. It has been pronounced blackleg, and when an animal is stricken death results in a few hours. So far it has only appeared on one farm, but nine deaths have already resulted there. It is supposed to be contagious, and the State veterinary surgeon has advised vaccination as the only thing which will stop the spread.

Several hundred life-preservers sold to the U. S. government by a firm in Camden N. J., have been found to contain an iron bolt six inches long in each, concealed within the compressed cork block. This, of course, is because iron is a good deal cheaper than cork by the pound. Avarice seems to have touched the bottom in such tampering with human life and there ought to be a law providing that such miscreants should be hanged. How many loaded life preservers are on our steamboats?

A Good Complexion.

SEA DEVIL

Terrible Marine Monster Who Eats Little Boys and Scares Big Ones.

The people of Wrightsburg community are greatly excited over what they believe to be a terrible tragedy says the Green River News.

The circumstances as the News received them from a gentleman just from the scene of the supposed tragedy are as follows:

Mrs. Lamb, wife of Crate Lamb and her thirteen-year-old son, living on Green river near Wrightsburg, had been out in the river in a skiff until late in the afternoon Tuesday, and returning to their home, the boy, after leaving his mother on the bank near their residence, pulling out to return the borrowed skiff to its owner, Mr. Jeff Littlepage, who lived but a short distance away.

A little while after leaving the shore near his home, the boy was heard to utter three piercing screams, and when men who were not far away reached the bank they beheld the empty skiff drifting with the current of the river and no sign of anything unusual in the stream except a succession of large waves, similar to those made by a small steamer, beating upon the shore.

There has been talk for several weeks of a sea monster in the river in this locality, and the men reached the conclusion at once that the unfortunate boy had possibly been attacked and drowned by this monster soon spread the sensational news over the community that the boy had been devoured by the animal, and in a remarkable brief space of time from fifty to one hundred people had gathered on the bank of the river.

Parties at once began dragging the stream for the body of the boy and kept up the search all night long, even till two of the searchers, Wes Luck and Dave Knight, in a skiff, were attacked by this animal and were forced to fight to save themselves from his vicious efforts to devour them.

The search was continued all day Wednesday, but without finding the body of the boy or any further evidence of the manner in which his mysterious disappearance occurred.

The people of the community are said to be greatly excited and extraordinary effort will now probably be made to either capture or destroy this animal, or fish, which has become a serious menace to the peace and happiness of the community.

Thousands Cured.

LeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of Piles. "I bought a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve on recommendation of our druggist," so writes C. H. LaCroix, of Zavalla, Tex. "and used it for a stubborn case of Piles. It cured me permanently." Sold by Woods & Orme, Druggists.

State Grange.

The Kentucky State Grange in session at Cynthiana adopted resolutions urging the establishment of the parcels and post and postal currency and the passage of a law giving the women the right to vote. Gov. Beckham addressed the body, advocating a better education for farm boys.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation is caused by lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25c bottle of them. Sold by Woods & Orme Druggists.

Mothers Praise It.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certain cure of coughs, croup and whooping cough. A. L. Spafford, Postmaster of Chester, Mich., says: "Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved and cured her and I cannot praise it too highly." One Minute Cough Cure relieves coughs makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm, draws out inflammation, and removes every cause of a cough and strain on lungs. Sold by Woods & Orme, Druggists.

ADAMS-GREEN

Yesterday morning at 7:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride on Oak Avenue Mrs. Ella Green and Mr. David Adams, of Smithland, were united in marriage. Rev. J. W. Oliver performing the ceremony. Immediately after the ceremony they left for Smithland, where they will reside.

Mr. Adams is a prominent business man of Smithland, being president of the bank there, and is said to be one of the wealthiest men in Livingston county.

Mrs. Green was the widow of W. H. Green dec'd., who conducted a hotel business here for so long. This is her third marriage, her first husband being a Marshall. Mrs. Green was a former resident of Livingston county, but has resided here for a number of years, and has many friends here who wish her well.

The newly married couple intended making a bridal tour to the world's fair but the illness of Mr. Adams' son the trip was postponed.—Lyon County Times.

Disastrous Wrecks

Carelessness is responsible for many railway wrecks and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from Throat and Lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Louis Craig of Dorchester Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by Woods & Orme, Druggists. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

COLLEGE BURNED

Bardwell Oct. 26.—The Bardwell College burned Monday. The building was a fine one and many noted people have been to school there. It was first built in 1868. The loss is total with no insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Prof. J. H. Robinson and family and a few students who boarded with them lost most of their personal effects. These were living in the building waiting for the completion of the dormitory, which was almost ready for occupancy. No one was seriously injured. Loss on building was about $2,500, on personal property $2,000.

Mrs. Susan Glenn has returned to Marion and is preparing for house-keeping in her home on Salem street.

Pickens & Cavender's great removal sale will excite great interest in the many bargains to be found there. Drop in and see a few of them.

Dallas Davidson got a lick on the side of his head and in the eye the other day by a plank which an unruly steer jerked loose so as to strike him as above stated. He was painfully hurt.

Mrs. Cavender says its no trouble to show goods, she has some bargains in laces and embroideries to close at cost which the ladies should see. Some that got wet from rain blowing in the room above them.

Johnnie Wright, son of our County man Alfred Wright was severely kicked by an old gentle family horse, which he trusted too far. He received the hoof of the obstreperous animal right under the chin and it came near breaking his jaw bone and also his neck. He is still very sore from the jolt he got.

Hugh McConnell of the Fords Ferry vicinity brought in some corn this week which he thinks will make 75 bushels to the acre. It was grown on his river bottom farm. The ears were over twelve inches long, heavy and well filled. All we regret is that he hasn't a thousand acres of it. Hugh is a fine man.

Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of one of Marion's belles, Miss Mary Maxwell to Mr. Arthur Strickley, of Cincinnati. The ceremony will be at the residence, corner of Main St., and Wilson Ave., on Wednesday, November 10th at 2 o'clock and immediately afterward a reception will be held and the couple will leave at 3:30 for an extended bridal tour.

LOST WAY IN MINES.

At the Davis coal mine, three miles from Morganfield the gasoline engine exploded and, in the gas and smoke which filled the mine, eight miners lost their way. Several of the eight men crawled out nearly suffocated several hours later. The eight men fell into a pool of water and when rescuers reached him was almost dead.

POLITICAL NOTES,

Ollie James has run Speight off the stump. The last seen of this dismayed statesman he had a full dinner pail in one hand and his hat in the other and was making for the timber line. If he never stops till his wind gives out he will circle the globe.

Bryan has touched Ohio, made a few speeches in West Virginia, and went back to Indiana to finish up his engagements there. Acres of people have gathered at every stopping place to hear him. His influence is greater than that of any other man in the party. If Judge Parker wins it can be recorded as a personal victory for Mr. Bryan, for without his help the Democratic ticket would not have a chance.

Dr. Hunter is said to be handling the "stuff" at the Galt House headquarters. As soon as he with drew his contest for the Congressional nomination he was placed in charge of the money bags. It is hard to lose the "gum shoe" statesman. Every time he is annihilated he bobs up, either in a good office or right in the midst of the cash box.

Every Cabinet officer, head of department and clerk, in and out of Washington has been called on to furnish facts and figures to meet the charges of Judge Parker of the cost of the army in the Philippines and the general reckless waste of money in all branches of the Government. The volley of truth from Esopus is driving the Republicans out of their trenches.

Wall street gamblers are betting 4 to 1 that Roosevelt will win. At the same time they are moving up watered stocks and otherwise manipulating the market to make good their probable losses. Pierpont Morgan is one of the biggest contributors to the Republican campaign fund. There is evidently an understanding between him and the Administration. The organizer of the Steel Trust and other kindred robberies never does anything for sentiment.

It can not be denied that this campaign lacks much of the fire and enthusiasm that marked the contests of 1896 and 1900. The Democrats of Kentucky are not excited for the very good reason that there is no division in the party, and that victory seems so certain there is no need of worrying. There is even more apathy among the Republicans. With the exception of the Federal officers they are not taking any interest in the fight. The State is lost to Roosevelt and they are only hoping to elect another Congressman to keep the Eleventh district company. But in this they will not succeed.

FIFTY YEARS

From a small beginning this firm has grown until our factories now cover many acres. Some of our machines sold fifty years ago are still giving faithful service.

WHEELER & WILSON SEWING MACHINES

The Rotary Hook, a distinctive feature, originated with this machine, operates in one continuous revolving motion. Compared to a shuttle it works on exactly the same principle as the circular buzz saw in contradistinction to the cross cut saw. The work that can be accomplished, the speed that can be made, and the ease and convenience of operation all are features that have combined to give this machine its present enviable prestige.

Menace to the Constitution.

Judge Alton B. Parker, in his address of acceptance, gave to the people the following timely warning:

"It becoming desirable to call attention to the fact that the people, in whom all power resides, have seen fit, through the medium of the Constitution, to limit the governmental power conferred and to say to departments created by it: 'Thus far shalt thou go and no farther.' To secure the ends sought the people have by the Constitution separated and distributed among the three departments of government—the executive, legislative and judicial—certain powers, and it is the duty of those administering each department so to act as to preserve, rather than to destroy, the potency of the co-ordinate branches of the government, and thus secure the exercise of all the powers conferred by the people.

Thomas Jefferson, in a letter to William C. Jarvis, touching the perpetuity of our free institutions written many years after he had retired to private life, said: "If the three powers of our government maintain their independence of each other, it may last long, but not so if either can assume the authority of the other." It must be confessed that in the course of our history executives have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed that were expressly forbidden by the constitution, and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to point out the provisions said to be offended against in their enactment, all this has been done with a good purpose, no doubt, but in disregard, nevertheless, of the fact that ours is a government of laws, not of men, deriving its "just powers from the consent of the governed." If we would have our government continue during the ages to come, for the benefit of those who shall succeed us, we must ever be on our guard against the danger of usurpation of that authority which resides in the whole people.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Woods & Orme Druggists.

FUTURE OF THE SOUTH.

"If cotton brings about ten cts. for the next ten years" said a prominent business man in North Carolina the other day, "the South will again become, as it was before the war, the most prosperous section of the country. I know of no industry in the world which will yield larger returns, in proportion to the capital invested, and the intelligence required in its cultivation, than cotton at ten cents a pound."—The World's Work.

Human Weak Points.

BY O. G. W.

Every piece of machinery, no matter how carefully and elaborately constructed, has its weak point. The same remark applies to the human frame, and the weak point is the tendency to a belief in the supernatural, or more familiarly called superstition. Frequently there are many weak points, and in this case superstition is the weakest and most ungovernable, but if there be but "one screw loose," it may safely be set down to superstition.

It does not, however, naturally follow that superstitious people are necessarily moral cowards, for where there is no distinction there is no personality, and as all men are superstitious none can be a coward. Yet, there are different degrees of absorption in different beings and some are saturated with superstition while others are only touched by this species of insanity.

There appears to be an inherent tendency toward a belief in the supernatural, and this induces faith in prognostications.

There is a sign for almost every act of life, and misfortune, or the contrary, is presaged by the most trivial circumstances.

There is not a part of a human being's dress, not an article in use by man, not a thing which grows on earth, not a star which twinkles in the firmament, not a thing under the earth, which has not its superstitions. The actor on the boards of the theater is marked with superstitions that cannot be eradicated by any amount of proof. The negro takes it into his system with his first breath and holds to them with a tenacity strong as his love of life.

A strong and healthy mind repulses superstition, and the weaker the mind and body the more it will absorb the belief in the supernatural. The sick, weak-minded, nervous, debilitated old and infirm are superstition's easy victims. Strong-minded men laugh at tales of the manifestation of the supernatural, yet, "a constant dropping wears away a stone," and even the sensible man has been known to waver, and, though rarely, to fall a victim to that worst of all insanity superstition.

For instance—when a kitchen-maid drops her dishcloth she will surely have company that day. If she drops a fork and the tines hold it to the floor, it will be a gentleman. If her nose itches she will be kissed. If she places the wishbone of a fowl over a door the first one who enters under the bone will be the first in the house to be married.

This is all very interesting as a study, but I doubt, seriously, whether there will ever be enough of the wishbone insanity, to make it of practical family value. Some people think it better to be born lucky than rich. It is just as well, however, to remind ourselves that the habit of fixing "flaps" over front door keyholes not only involves a waste of energy, but leads to needless confusion on the part of wide-awake wives who insist upon keeping a business eye upon their meandering husbands.

A good woman, the happy possessor of a large family—eight or ten of them boys—says she realizes, if any woman does, the necessity of keeping a continuous look-out, lest her "eleak and slippery" husband should "get into trouble."

Well, we all know the wasp is of a suspicious sort, quick to take offense and prompt in reprisals when liberties are taken with it. It has only one argument, but that is a stinging one, and "hubby," therefore holds his wasp in abomination.

Beneath the wishbone there, she stood, As sweet as sweet could be; He kissed her red, ripe ruby lips, The while he squeezed her finger tips, And rosy red blushed she.

His wife came in, and caught him there, Result—a racy scene.

The wife now wears a Sealiskin new, The maid was paid what was her due, She had a new posiah in view, As a sweet potwrestler queen.

Nice Little Farm for Sale.

A nice little home, the John M. Fritis farm, one mile from Marion, about 110 1/2 acres, good log house and frame barn, creek and never failing spring, cistern and woodland. A nice farm for stock, fruit or poultry raising; plenty of water which is half the battle. Apply to S. M. Jenkins.

A Heavy Load.

To lift that load off of the stomach take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat. Sour stomach, belching gas on stomach and all disorders of the stomach that are curable, are instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. S. P. Storrs, a druggist at 297 Main street New Britain, Conn., says: "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is giving such universal satisfaction and is so surely becoming the positive relief and subsequent cure for this distressing ailment, I feel that I am always sure to satisfy and gratify my customers by recommending it to them. I write this to show how well the remedy is spoken of here." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was discovered after years of scientific experiments and will positively cure all stomach troubles. THE COMMITTEE'S CLAIMS.

The National Democratic Committee has issued a very interesting address, correcting the many misrepresentations of the Republicans, and giving the greatest encouragement to party followers everywhere. After a careful poll of the doubtful States, they are enabled to predict the election of Parker and Davis, the drift of the independent vote being toward the Democratic ticket, with all party difference healed.

Here is the claim by the Committee. It includes the 155 votes cast for Bryan in 1900, to which must be added the six electoral votes caused by the increase in population in those States:

|-------------------|-----|
| Bryan's 1900 vote | 161 |
| New York | 36 |
| New Jersey | 12 |
| Maryland | 8 |
| Connecticut | 7 |
| West Virginia | 7 |
| Indiana | 15 |

Total, 249

This makes ten votes more than is necessary, so that either Maryland, Connecticut or West Virginia could be spared. The Committee also claim a big vote in the far Western States, which in 1900 went for McKinley.

The address denies that the National Committee is impoverished, although admitting that it has not been enriched by the black-mailing of the Trusts by an ex-Cabinet officer who was sworn to regulate them.

These claims, so intelligently and forcefully made, will encourage Democrats in the doubtful States to renewed effort. There will be a better opportunity to rescue the Government from the Republicans who have grown insolent with power.

WHAT BRYAN SAID.

Among other good things in his recent Phoenix Hall speech in Louisville William Jennings Bryan said:

I did what I could at St. Louis to get a platform that contained all that my platform contains. I did all I could to get a candidate who stood for all that I thought for. I commenced fighting before the convention; I fought all through the convention, and if anybody laid down his arms after I did I did not see the man when he laid them down. But having done my best then what could I do but make the best of that from which I had to choose? And I have no doubt of what my duty is. I shall not take responsibility for four years more of Theodore Roosevelt.

My friends, Parker stands for much that we believe in. He stands for much that is good for our country, and I shall not be instrumental in denying the American people the good he will bring because he will not bring all we desire to have brought. He stands for the reduction of the army. Roosevelt stands for the army at its present size. It is two and a half times now what it was eight years ago, and the Republicans dare not explain the increase. Why did they raise the army? Why did they need to tax the people more than twice as much as we taxed them for the army eight years ago? Do we need it because we are a world power?

We do not need an army to make us great and a world power; what do we need it for? To deal with the labor question? It depends on how you deal with the labor question. If you deal with the laboring man as a citizen, a patriot and as a brother, you do not need an army. I am not willing to transfer the labor question from the Department of Justice to the War Department.

Have you stopped to inquire what it means to widen the gulf between labor and capital? Have you stopped to inquire what it means to substitute enmity for good will between the employer and the employee? My friends we must meet this question, and we must meet it in a spirit of human brotherhood. I want the laboring man to walk the streets with his head erect, feeling that he has something in this country to live for; I do not want him driven to his toil like a Southern serf, at the point of sixty thousand bayonets.

A COMPARISON.

The issues in this campaign are well defined. There is no excuse for any intelligent voter going astray. Here are the cardinal principles of both parties:

The Republicans stand committed to a policy of imperialism, which means a large army, the acquisition and retention of colonies in the Philippines, and elsewhere, and a consequent interference in the affairs of other nations inciting jealousies and inciting disaster.

The Democrats favor freedom for the Philippines, a decrease in the military establishment; peace with the world and a careful avoidance of territorial aggrandizement which can only lead to international complications.

The Republicans are unalterably committed to a Protective Tariff, which robs the many to enrich the few, and which has built up great private fortunes at the expense of the masses of the people.

The Democrats believe in a tariff for revenue only, adjusted to the needs of an economical administration, of public affairs.

The Republicans, having fostered the trusts which defy the law, have named as the Chairman of their Campaign Committee the very man who was sworn to enforce the statutes against them. Instead of punishing these criminal destroyers of individual effort Cortelyou, President Roosevelt's own choice, is begging them for contributions to the Republican corruption fund, thus reducing official blackmail to a fine art.

The Democrats favor the strict enforcement of the Sherman law, with whatever aid the common law can render, in an honest effort to regulate these Trusts, which under the control of Morgan and Rockefeller have cornered the business and the money of the country and will end by foreclosing a mortgage on the government itself.

Republicanism means a strong, centralized government, plus the personal equation represented by the autocratic, impulsive individuality of Theodore Roosevelt, who has made a football of the constitution, and has usurped every governmental function belonging to the co-ordinate branches.

Democracy stands for the autonomy of the States, guaranteed by the Federal Constitution, yielding obedience to the courts, and to the laws formulated by the Congress, and firm in the belief that the chief Executive is the servant and not the master of the people.

The Republicans have "opened the door of hope" to the negro in the shape of Federal offices in the white communities of the South, with an occasional lunch with the President to convince the colored man and brother that his vote is all important. They have prepared the destroying germ of social equality, which has entered the minds of the negroes, increasing their insolence, and encouraging their hatred of the people of the South, who refuse to give them the recognition Roosevelt granted Booker Washington.

The Democrats are educating the negroes, giving them equal opportunities with their own children, and bearing every other burden which the presence of this ignorant, depraved race in the south imposes on them; but they protest against the attempt of the Republican party to incite the negroes to fresh outbreaks of crime the logical result of their failure to secure from the Southern people the personal affiliation and comradeship which the President bestowed on the leader of their race.

These are the main points of difference between the two parties. What self respecting Democrat, no matter what past differences may have been, can refuse to vote for his party in this campaign, in the face of the record and avowals above set forth.

WHAT KENTUCKY WILL DO.

There is every assurance of a splendid Democratic majority in this State. The thorough work of the campaign committee has aroused the voters to a sense of the responsibility that rests upon them. The organization is complete in every precinct, a giant task requiring the utmost skill and patience. This effective appeal to the thousands of precinct chairmen and their sub-committeemen has been supplemented by the generous advocacy of the State press. The Democratic newspapers, realizing that this is not a boodle campaign, have opened their columns freely to the list of speaker's appointments and to all the other information necessary to the spread of news in a National contest. They have given columns to the dissemination of Democracy, the equipping the voters with arguments and encouraging them to individual effort.

The Democratic orators have been particularly gracious. Many of them are busy professional men but they have left their offices and under the direction of the Speaker's Bureau have traveled night and day to keep appointments in remote precincts. The result of this united effort of the rank and file is a reunited party, eager to give proof of its devotion.

We may not reach 40,000 and may have to be content with 20,000 majority, but whatever the figure may be let it be decisive. Kentucky is no longer a Republican State. That much is certain. The extent of its redemption will be known on Nov. 9th and it will depend upon the Democratic voters to set it at such a figure that never again will the Republican party lay claim to the State.

BY

FOERG'S REMEDY

Sergeant J. S. Smith of Company L, 12th Infantry, during service in the Philippines from 1899 to 1902 contracted a severe case of blood poisoning. He tried many remedies and treatments upon his return to the United States without any benefit, until FOERG'S REMEDY was strongly recommended to him. The use of four bottles absolutely cured him. If you doubt this write to him, addressing J. S. Smith, care St. George Hotel, Evansville, Ind., and ask if this is not true.

If FOERG'S REMEDY has cured him why not you? Why do you go on suffering the mental tortures of the damned when you know here is a cure certain and sure. Is a cure not worth $5.00 to you? That is all it will cost, for we absolutely guarantee six bottles at a cost of $5.00 to cure the worst cases of specific blood poisoning. Think of the joy to you in the return of perfect clean health, and go at once to the below address and get this wonderful remedy. It is manufactured by

HAMPTON.

Weather still continues cool and Jack Frost visits us quite often.

Meeting still in progress at Good Hope church.

Mrs J C Rutter and children returned last Sunday from Marion where they have been attending the bedside of Mrs Ellen Croft.

Mr and Mrs E M Nelson and Miss Inez Nelson left last Monday for a visit to the St Louis fair.

We are having lots of sickness now. Undertakers McCord and Wright sent out three coffins in two days.

Mrs Carrie Coffield died last Thursday night of consumption. We, with all the community extend our sympathy to the bereaved loving husband and their children. She was the mother of Dr F C Coffield of Frances, Ky.

Mrs Vinie Edwards of near Mulikin died of consumption last Friday night. She was visiting her uncle, W W May of this place. She leaves three small children. We are in sympathy with those dear little, motherless and fatherless children.

J Trace Hardin and Silas Howard spent last Sunday in the country.

Miss Emma Davis is visiting her sister, Mrs Edwinnie Wooten who has been ill for several days.

Quite a crowd attended church in the country last Sunday and on Sunday night.

Our town is enjoying several speakings now. McChesney and Chinn will speak Tuesday night.

Mrs D H Spell spent last Wednesday with Mrs R H Wright. It was the first time for over two years Mrs Spell has been able to leave her home.

W O Coffield is expected to visit his father and mother soon. He has been in South Dakota for about two years.

The children of Mr and Mrs J W Wright are improving.

LEVIAS.

J L Settles is out again after eight weeks confinement with malaria fever.

Wallace Davidson is down with typhoid fever but is not thought to be dangerous however.

Quite a large crowd turned out Saturday evening to hear the "boy orator," Archie Davidson, on the political issues of the day. For more than an hour Archie discussed the differences of the two leading parties in a masterly way, and showed skill and logic remarkable for one of his years. Levias is proud of her gifted son and showered his maiden efforts with many fragrant bouquets.

J A Davidson, jr., is listing the property of this precinct for Assessor Belt.

An interesting game of base ball was played here Saturday between Levias and Marion. Unfortunately the attractions for Saturday evening conflicted so that only about one hour remained after speaking for the ball game. In that brief time however several innings were played and the score stood 7 to 10 in favor of Levias. May not Levias be allowed to "crow" a little in the midst of so many brilliant achievements. A large crowd cheered the players.

Miss Edie Gilles has just returned from a weeks visit at Mattoon among friends and relatives.

Misses Blanche and Sue Rebut of Sheridan attended the speaking and ball game Saturday evening.

Eld E M Eton and family of Salem visited friends and relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

R A LaRue is taking in the World's Fair this week.

This is corn gathering week and the farmers are happy.

Mrs Ella Yeakey and son of Deer Creek visited here Sunday. They have just returned from Missouri, where they visited relatives and friends.

OHAPPEL HILL.

Those on the sick list for this week: H S Hill and wife. Mrs Hill has a very painful rising on her hand and has suffered very much, until Dr Dixon came out and lanced her hand which gave her relief.

Ed Hill and family from Livingston county are visiting relatives and friends and attending the meeting at Chapel Hill.

Our meeting is moving along nicely with some interest. Bro A J Thompson with his assistant, Bro J F Price, of Marion, are preaching some excellent sermons and giving their congregations good advice, especially the sinners.

I still want to sell a good cow. H-taten stock, 6 years old. Price $25.00. W H Bigham.

Dick Mayes and family of Sulphur Springs was at church Sunday.

James Ordway and family of Lillie Dale were at church Sunday to hear Bro Price preach.

Gord Hammons and a timberman from Marion was through this community last week in search of white oak timber which seems to be in demand.

E P Hill of Marion was out to see his son, Ed Hill, who will move from Livingston county to Missouri this fall to make that his future home.

Mesdames Lemon and Elmer Threlkel, of Hurricane, and Allen Thompson, of Kuttawa, are all attending the meeting at this place and visiting friends and relatives.

Our meeting is represented by the Crayneville people very highly and we appreciate their help in our meeting very much. Crayneville has some good workers in the church.

Mrs George Daughtrey and son, Claude, of Caldwell Springs, was at church Sunday. Mrs Daughtrey remained and will attend the meeting next week. Mrs Daughtrey has a host of friends in this neighborhood.

ROSE BUD.

Mr Potts, of Union county, has just completed a well for Jas Wittenberry.

George and John T Kings and families visited relatives in the Baker neighborhood Saturday and Sunday.

Geo King returned from Roe, Ark., last week and says he had a very pleasant time.

Prof Samuels went to Marion, Saturday.

H S Newcorn has bought a fine lot of hogs from Roe Crider.

John Drury visited his grandfather, Dr Franklin, Sunday.

There was a Mr Robison from Union county looking over J W Taylor's farm last week with view of buying.

RODNEY.

Cassie Cain is shredding corn in this section.

John Hicklin of Marion visited here Sunday.

Earl Cook of Bordley was here Saturday going to visit his parents at Repton.

R O Hart and son of Henshaw were here Wednesday in search of cattle.

W S Hicklin of Marion was in our town Friday.

W W Lamb visited in Marion, Sunday.

E M Grahagan went to Repton, Sunday.

We regret to note the dissolution of the Long Branch ball team.

F E Davis, the popular Bells Mines school teacher, who has been very ill of a swollen knee is improving.

H L Sullivan was in Marion, Sunday.

E L Nunn went to Blackford, Thursday.

Chester Truitt, jr., says we may expect a change of the weather. His colt sent him skyward Sunday and he ought to know.

C M Chitt went to Stargis, Friday.

Rice Duncan and family visited at Henshaw Saturday and Sunday.

Chas Nunn sold a fine young mule in Blackford Friday.

Theodore Ranks passed through town Sunday going to Charleston, Mo.

Mr Robertson of Union county is contemplating purchasing a farm in this community.

TOLU.

The sick in our town are all improving.

Rev B C McConnell is the busiest man in town. He is building for himself a domicile of four rooms.

Mrs Rev Gibbs and Mrs Enoch Belt of Sheridan visited Mrs John Belt of this place recently.

Every body should go to the polls and vote on the 8th of November, this is the way we have of making known our wishes. If we don't vote we should not complain if things don't go as we wish. Everybody should remember this and vote his sentiments.

Mrs J B Perry was in Tolu recently.

Si Franklin of Milborn was in town Friday.

E R Williams was in Tolu recently.

Ed E Weldon of Colon was in our town Sunday visiting his parents.

The Colon boys came down Saturday and crossed bats with our boys. The game was quite an interesting one, and quite close for a time. The game terminated at the 8th inning standing close, but in favor of Tolu. Your correspondent witnessed the game and must say that the Colon boys have as fine a catcher in the person of Charley Thomas as we have ever seen behind the bat.

Maurice Paris of this place left Sunday for Felton, Ky., to accept a position as flagman on the L & N railroad. Maurice leaves many friends in Tolu who wish him the best of success.

Mrs Ed Knight of this place died on last Friday at 3 a. m. and her sister, Mrs. Baker, of Livingston county, died at 3 o'clock p. m., of the same day. They were sisters of Fred Sails of our town, at whose house Mrs Knight died. Both died of consumption.

NEW SALEM.

Harris Austin is building a residence near Levias for Fred Binkley.

The oldest inhabitant never saw so many killing frosts every morning without a lot of rain.

Mrs Blake Hopkins, of Tarret, Colorado, who has been visiting her father's family, (P. A. Harpending), is on the sick list this week.

Phil Travis of Emmaus was in this neighborhood Sunday.

Miss Duke Hayden was a pleas and caller in this section Sunday.

Look out for a hard, cold winter, so our weather prophet says.

We said something about taxes awhile ago; pardon us, please, we did not mean to hurt any one's feelings; no, sir, we will let the young ones bawl for the necessities of life, we will get up the tax if we have to sell our old brindle cow.

Now that 135 clay wagons have stopped running maybe we can get a peep at the sun now and then for the dust.

The farmers throughout this section have had grates put in and will try burning coal instead of wood; those who have tried it say it is a long way the cheapest.

Who ever saw a more beautiful autumn than this has been, especially to the farmers as it has been the finest weather for all kinds of outdoor work.

Mrs Vic Stephenson and Miss Kate Bebout of Sheridan were the guests last week of Mrs T. A. Harpending.

We understand that the corn market has opened in this section at 37 1/2 cts a bushel.

John Harpending is at work down on Hurricane creek opening up some new mining property.

We understand that a Mr Ladd, of Livingston county, has leased the Crosson farm for a period of five years.

Tom Fuller, a Crittenden county boy, but who now resides in Illinois, is on a visit to this county.

New Salem church has secured the services of Bro Lowery for the coming year as its pastor.

The sick ones reported in our last are improving.

Corn husking will commence in earnest this week; a good many farmers commenced last week and report the crop turning out better than thought for.

The dry weather is getting in its work in this section; water is getting scarce, while wheat and grass are dying for the want of moisture.

Dr Davidson was in our section last week, visiting our property holders for next year's taxes. Talking of taxes, they grow no smaller in this county. Let her go, Bill Bailey.

DYCUSBURG.

Mr Knox, of Monterey, is visiting his daughter, Mrs J C Brisey of this place.

Miss Laleen Graves has returned from Paducah, where she spent several weeks.

Mrs Rhodes of Louisville has arrived to take charge of the hotel.

Mrs Fred Champion of Livingston county, is visiting J C Griffin and wife.

W E Charles, our song evangelist, is spending a few days at his home this week.

Mrs Mollie Milroy recently visited her parents, G W Jones and wife, but has again joined her husband in his travels.

Rob Jackson, of Kelsey, was in town Saturday.

Several of our young people attended church at Cookseyville, and also at Koon, several nights last week.

Mr O L Burks and wife have returned from a visit to the Worlds Fair.

Mrs Margaret Clifton has returned from an extended visit to Marion.

Mr James Brasher and wife were in town one day last week.

Frank Dyeus, Jr., fell one day recently and broke his right arm. Mr F. E. Charles and wife left several days ago to visit the Fair.

My Life as a Farmer.

I am a Kentucky farmer. My life is a busy one, but is a very happy one. I am not like a farmer in the north or the south and raise one crop altogether but I have many crops close together. In the spring I am very busy cultivating my corn, cane and hay crops. Then I have my tobacco crop to work, to house and to fire. Then I must take it to market to sell. Next, in the fall I get the ground ready and sow my wheat. I then gather my corn, my pumpkins and my wood to burn in the long winter. I have a very large orchard and every year I raise many different kinds of fruit to sell and some for my own use. I have large yellow pears and red apples to put in my cellar for my family to enjoy eating when Old Jack Frost comes with the cold nights. I think farming one of the best occupations one can follow. If it were not for other farmers and myself, the people would starve, for we raise the wheat and corn for their bread, hogs and cattle for their meat and most every thing else they have to eat and wear. I enjoy being a farmer and living a Kentucky farmer's life.

WISER SILENCE, AT THE GRADED SCHOOL.

He had studied by himself, and came up for examination to college with inadequate preparation. He approached ancient history with fear and doubt, for he had little time to stuff himself with history of the Caesars.

The paper contained a question at which the young man looked with dismay.

"What can you say about Caligula?"

He did not remember that Caligula was the worst of a long line of mad and bad Roman emperors.

But a witless inspiration came to him, of the sort that often saves the young and the ignorant. He wrote:

"The less said about Caligula, the better."

BRYAN THE REAL LEADER.

No man, since Henry Clay fascinated the country with his oratory and charmed them with his personality, has approached William Jennings Bryan in the affections of the masses of the people. After all he is the real leader. Wherever he goes he is the idol of those who love a clean, strong man, with the courage of a lion and the ability to justify his claims to leadership. His manliness, his fairness, his equable temper, his clear mind and inspired tongue appeals to them. His influence today is greater than it has ever been.

It must be gratifying to him, as it is to his free-silver followers, to find those who knifed him in 1896 and 1900 leaning upon his broad shoulders today. It shows the character of the man in the resolute nature, the forgiving heart that puts party above personal revenge. He does not lack the spirit to fight back. A braver character never arose in American public life. But his party needs him. And he has answered that call for help with all the energy of his indomitable will. He has put private grief aside and has enlisted in a war that means whatever fortune may attend it, the unification of a party he loves. All honor to Mr. Bryan. He has proved his right to the title of the great Commoner. Whatever his future may stand today the most attractive, persuasive and eminent figure in National affairs.
