CANDIDATE

For County Judgeship.

Walter A. Blackburn Makes His Formal Announcement

In response to petitions that have been published calling him to run, Walter A. Blackburn, who makes the announcement of his intention to seek the Republican party nomination for the office of judge of the 124th district, says he is preparing his name for the race, and will take it into serious consideration before the time comes upon, if he hasn't seen it, to accept the nomination of his party. If an honest effort to do a worthy duty in the public interest should fail, an effort to fill the one he is about to make to the office of judge of the 124th district in the county. It is also well known that he has been endeavoring to take the office of judge of the 124th district in the county.

OPEN LETTER

To the Republic of Kentucky:

Gentlemen: Officiers and andere: We believe that our rights to free thought, good or bad, depending entirely upon us, are as valid as theirs. We now appeal to you, not to absolutely destroy, but to modify, our existence. We are not in the majority, but we are not in the minority. We ask you to give us a chance to live.
