WHAT MR. ELMORE SAYS ABOUT SEPARATING ORES.

The Ada-Florence Vein Has Been Followed for Several Miles.—All Mines at Work.

THE POGUE MAKING A LARGE OUTPUT.

Mr. Guy H. Elmore, President of the American Concentrating Company, of Joplin, Mo., was in our city last week. He also visited a number of our mines and talked freely about the separation of our ores. Mr. Elmore thinks the separation of fluor spar and zinc will be quite an easy problem, with the right kind of machinery, and the right kind of a man at the head to install it and run it. We are very glad to hear this from Mr. Elmore, as he is counted one of the best mill men and ore dressers in America. And fortunately we will only need this kind of machinery at a few of our mines, as the Old Jim, the Columbia, Blue & Nunn Nine Acres and some other mines in the district have no fluor spar mixed with their zinc. The analysis shows there is no fluor spar below one hundred feet on the Columbia vein, and the Blue & Nunn Nine Acres on the Columbia vein is also free from fluor spar, and the Columbia Mining Company are milling a high grade ore for them from that mine with the common Joplin jigs and Allis chamber tables.

The separation of the mineral that is being mined by the Commodore Mining Company will also be a very easy problem, as so far as they have gone down they have nothing but lead and spar. This can be separated easily with the common Joplin jigs. And it is anticipated by most expert miners there will be no fluor spar in this mine below seventy five or one hundred feet. However there may be a mixture of lead, zinc and fluor spar from 60 to 75 feet. As zinc will be more than apt to show itself at 60 feet or at a less depth, and fluor spar will begin to diminish as soon as zinc puts in its appearance, and at the depth stated above there will be no fluor spar as is the case in the old LaRue shaft at ninety two feet on the same vein.

The Kentucky Fluor Spar Company will buy all the spar they can get and pay good prices for it too.

J. L. Harpending, with mine surveyor Kay K. Kevil, on Wednesday and Thursday of last week made a survey of the Ada-Florence lead vein. Taking the degrees from the 40 foot level, which was 25 W. of S., they passed through the Hopewell mines, cutting their shaft in two, then through the farms of Tom Carter, J. B. Carter, James Franklin, L. F. Settles, T. M. LaRue, Will Taylor, Robert Threlkeld, Wm S. Lowrey, Harrie Austin, T. A. Harpending, J. H. Crosson, W. C. Tyner, C. R. Stevens, Eagle Fluor Spar Co., Albany Mining and Investment Company, the Ella Shelby tract.

Kevil and Harpending say they discovered on several farms good surface prospects and as that country is all unoptioned they think it well for mining men to investigate some.

Some of the miners from the Ada-Florence was in town Saturday, and tell us that the company has stopped sinking until Mr. Persons gets back from Mineral Point. But some of the miners are kept at work in cross-cutting their vein. They have already driven through eight feet of solid ore, and it appears as though they might have eight feet more to go before getting through, which would make a vein of solid ore sixteen feet wide.

Mr. Harry Watkins tells us that Mr. L. C. Garrett made a thorough separation of lead, zinc and fluor spar with a Crom machine at his mill in Paducah. The ore was thoroughly mixed with all three minerals, and came out of the Rossi Clair shaft.

Mr. Guy H. Elmore left Marion last Friday for Evansville, Indiana. Mr. Elmore is building a large mill on Lead Hill, close to Cave-in-Rock for some Evansville people.

The shaft at the Pogue mine is in fine condition; also the drifts which have recently been made by Superintendent Fred Clement. This mine is one of the greatest spar producers in the world. It is now taking out between 50 and 60 tons of No. 1 grinding spar every twenty-four hours.

It is reported that the largest lumps of lead and spar ever mined in the world was mined at the Commodore mines, on the Dave Franks place. The chunks had to be broken in the shaft before being taken out.

Notice to Stockholders

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Marion Zinc Company will be held at the office of the Company, Room Twelve, Kent Block, Cheyenne, Wyoming, on the 7th day of February, A. D., 1905, at the hour of 2 p. m.

The meeting will be held for the purpose of electing a Board of Trustees and the consideration of other business properly brought before the meeting.

CHARLES S. KNIGHT,
President.

REVOLUTION

Confronts the Russian Czar in His Capital At St. Petersburg.

Unarmed Laborer Shot Down and Sebered by Cossacks.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—There are 2,000 dead in the streets, and 5,000 wounded in the hospitals, and still the workmen of St. Petersburg are fighting the soldiers of the Czar.

On every hand is heard the word revolution.

The mob, smashed at the bridges, driven from their barricades with appalling slaughter, ridden over, sabered and shot and beaten, rallied in the evening and is again streaming out of the Nevsky Prospect in the direction of the Moscow station.

It is no longer the submissive crowd that submitted to be shot and slashed in the morning.

Many of them have obtained arms and the rifle fire of the troops is being answered with pistol shots. They are smashing windows and destroying property all along their way.

The whole city is in an uproar; nobody knows what daylight will reveal.

Since yesterday morning the approaches of the bridges across the Neva have been shambles.

There are fifty thousand soldiers fighting the risen populace; opposed to them is an incalculable mob.

On every hand is heard cries of "Liberty, Fraternity and Equality." The students who have joined the working men, are singing the Marseillaise, and in a hundred dreadful particulars the early scenes of the French Revolution are being repeated in the frozen St. Petersburg.

The blood which crimsoned the snow has fired the brains and passions of the strikers and has turned women as well as men into wild beasts. The cry of the infuriated populace is for vengeance.

The sympathy of the middle class is with the workingmen.

Gorky, the Russian novelist, expresses the opinion that today's work will break the faith of the people in the Emperor. He said today:

"Today inaugurated revolution in Russia. The Emperor's prestige will be irrevocably shattered by the shedding of innocent blood. He has alienated himself forever from his people. Gorky told the people that a direct appeal to 'The Little Father' would be decided. They have been undecided. Gorky is now convinced that all peaceful means have failed and that the only remedy is force. Blood has been shed but more will follow. It is now the people against their oppressors, and the battle will be fought to the bitter end."

Moscow, Jan. 24.—The strike is spreading rapidly. All printing work has been stopped. No news papers will be issued tomorrow.

The police have ordered all arms removed from the windows of gunsmiths, a majority of whom have closed their shops.

The strikers here at noon today numbered 10,000.

A large number of factory hands are joining the strikers.

Vilna, Russia, Jan. 24.—A strike has commenced here.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 24.—The most startling feature of the situation tonight is the news that the strike has spread to Moscow and is still spreading.

The whole city is reported to be in a state of great excitement over the news of the bloodshed here yesterday.

Moscow has more workmen and less troops than St. Petersburg.

SCRIPTURE READINGS.

Thursday, Jan. 26.—The First Sojour at Capernaum, John 2: 12.
Friday, Jan. 27, First Passover, John
2: 13-25.
Saturday, Jan. 28, Interview with Nicodemus, John 3: 1-21.

OUTLINE OF LESSON.

- I. The Pupil.
 1. A Pharisee.
 2. A Ruler.
 3. An earnest seeker after truth.
- II. The teacher.
 1. Divine, v. 2.
 2. Personal knowledge, vs. 11, 12.
 3. Personal experience, vs. 13.
- III. The Lesson.
 1. Its necessity, vs. 3, 5, 7.
 2. Its nature, vs. 5, 6.
 3. The lesson illustrated.
 - (1) By the wind.
 - (2) By the serpent in the wilderness.
 4. The lesson applied, John 3: 16.
- SEARCH QUESTIONS.
 1. Where did Jesus go from Cana?
 2. Who accompanied him?
 3. About what time of year was it?
 4. Were money changers and vendors of animals for sacrifice necessary?
 5. If so, why?
 6. Why then did Christ drive them out?
 7. In what way did they demand his credentials?
 8. In what form did he answer them?
 9. Why was the temple so long in building?
 10. In what way did his answer help the disciples later on?
 11. Was Nicodemus a member of the Sanhedrim?

12. What concession did he make when he came to Jesus?
Is the new birth taught in the Old Testament? Ezek. 11: 19: 18:31: 36:26 Jer. 24: 7: 31:33.)
14. Did Nicodemus become a follower of Christ.

LIVING THE LESSON.

1. Nicodemus, although a busy man, took time to have a talk with Jesus, will I take time every day to have a talk with Jesus?
2. Have I been born again? If so, will I tell others of my birth-right privileges? When Mr. Summerfield was asked of his birthplace, he says: "I was born in Dublin and Liverpool." Do we remember our spiritual birthday?
1. "Was Jesus taken to the temple at the age eight days, or five or six weeks?" (Miss Maud Hughes, Pulaski, Tenn.) He was taken to the temple at the end of 40 days. (See Lev. Chap. 12; also Ex. 13:2; 22:29.)
2. Give the exact number of times He was in Jerusalem from birth to ministry. (M. H.) Only two recorded. (See Luke 2: 22 and v. 42.)
- Did not the visit of the shepherds precede that of the wise men? (M. H.) It did. The shepherds visited him on the night of his birth; the wise men did not visit him until they returned from their first visit to the temple.
4. When did Joseph and Mary go into Egypt? Immediately after the departure of the wise men? (See Matt. 2: 13.)

LIFE HANGS ON A THREAD.

Pittsburg, Pa. Jan 18—Should the Pennsylvania train from Harrisburg tonight lose two hours before reaching Pittsburg, Reno Dardio, a condemned murderer, will be hanged tomorrow, but should it reach here before ten o'clock his life may be saved.

Sheriff Dixon and Gov Penny-packer had a long talk over the telephone tonight, and though told that a messenger was coming the Sheriff told the Governor that Dardio would be hanged at the prescribed hour if he did not stop the case through his messenger.

Dardio once escaped the noose by showing that he had not been convicted under his right name. Today, while the scaffold was being built, his attorneys went into court and got out papers to declare him insane.
Dardio tonight, in jest, offered a wager with the sheriff that he would not hang.

A GIANT TREE.

Down in Pulaski county, Ill., near Mound City, between Paducah and Cairo, there is a cottonwood tree that comes up to the average tree of California. On the river shore, near the Peter Barges property; near America is a tree in a small gorge that measures 30 feet in circumference and 13 feet in diameter. The tree can hardly be seen from the road and there are few people who have seen it. Think of it! Pulaski being on a level with California in tree raising.

A tree this size, if hollowed out, would make a comfortable dwelling for a bachelor. Citizens who are proud of their county are making much over this tree. It should be a delightful time indeed spent under this delightful tree some pleasant sunny day, when Nature holds high revel and a gentle breeze would rustle through its green branches. An ideal place for a party to spend a day in the woods, and gather under the great tree to partake of their baskets of luncheon.—Paducah Sun.

Find a Cure for Indigestion.

I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different remedies. A VALUABLE KEY.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan 16.—A key was found under the pillow of Edward Wilson, a Jackson county man in the Ohio penitentiary, that would unlock five hundred cells in the great prison. He made the key from a piece of sheet iron, but what he hoped to accomplish with it the prison officials have not found out. Even had he unlocked the cells the prisoners would have been securely confined in these corridors. At the most the man could have done no more harm than start a riot. And this might have resulted in the shooting of some of his own number. Wilson loses fifty days of his good time.

LETTER FROM FLORIDA.

WAUCHULA, FLA., Jan. 10.—ED PRESS: I thought perhaps some of your readers might like to hear something about the manner in which Christmas is celebrated in the sunny South.

We have our Christmas Trees, similar to those you have in Old Kentucky, and we have a greater variety of trees to select from, such as the white bay, magnolia, oleander, live oak, native pines, and several other kinds, all of which are evergreens and make a nice tree for such an occasion.

We had a Christmas Tree at our home, in which several of our neighbors participated. Some were Kentucky corn crackers and some were native Florida crackers.

We selected a white bay tree, and trimmed it in red and white roses, with oranges cut from the

A POSITIVE GUARANTEE

Signed by Wood's & Orme Who Agree To Return Your Money if Dr. Caristed's German Liver Powder Fails to Cure

GUARANTEE

I hereby agree to refund the money paid for Dr. Caristed's German Liver Powder on the return of the empty bottles, the purchaser stating it failed to relieve and cure him of any of the diseases for which it is recommended. This guarantee covers the use of a $1 bottle or four 25c bottles or two months' treatment. Signed Woods & Orme.

Dr. Caristed's German Liver Powder is a wonderful remedy, a prescription used for over fifty years by an eminent German physician in his practice both in Europe and in his country and sold by thousands of druggists all over the world. So mildly natural are the effects of this remedy that all Kidney and Liver troubles give way to perfect health. It cures the worst cases and many have been cured who had tried every known remedy.

Symptoms of Liver Complaint: Dyspepsia, indigestion, rheumatism, gout, skin eruptions, sallowness, constipation, dizziness, vertigo, headache, piles, pain in the back, melancholy, bad breath, furry tongue, horrid taste, unpleasant dreams, insomnia, undue sleepiness, nausea, flatulence, swelling of the abdomen, colicky condition of the bowels, pain and soreness in the stomach, liver spots on the skin, loss of memory, impaired vitality, dire forebodings, lack of energy, indigestion, crankiness, blood poisoning, nervousness, falling hair—oh, there are lots of them and each one emphasizes the importance of having Dr. Caristed's German Liver Powder consistently within each. It is the right thing in the right time, sure and certain in effect, pleasant and perfect in action.

For your own sake, don't neglect any of the symptoms of liver disorder or the complaint will become chronic and the ultimate, after untold suffering, is Death. Woods & Orme can tell you all about Dr. Caristed's German Liver Powder; it has cured many of their customers who are recommending it to their friends.

Better than testimonials in the guarantee under which Dr. Caristed's German Liver Powder is sold. It does not relieve and cure you it will cost you nothing, so go at once and procure the remedy and take along this guarantee. 24-124 rees in clusters. Some apples and lemons were interspersed with such presents as old Santa chose to donate made a tree equal to any I ever looked upon.

Fireworks are indulged in with as much ardor as in the North, but the greatest is in the weather, the children mostly all barefoot, and the ladies dressed in their lawns, men in their shirt sleeves, and last but not least some of us went down to the river and took a plunge in its clear water for an X-mas trick.

We are having peas, beans, potatoes, tomatoes, lettuce, onions, and radishes, all new and fresh, out of the garden, all of which I guess would be quite a luxury up in old Kentucky. But while you may envy us such delicacies as I have just related, I can not quite forgive you the advantage you enjoy in sipping that good old Kentucky mountain dew at your leisure, for it is Balm in Gilead.

The orange crop is about two thirds gathered and something near seventy five thousand boxes have been shipped from Wauchula alone and the grape fruit is just now beginning to be gathered and quite a large crop is reported.

To give you an idea of what some people think of Wauchula, and Desoto county, a few weeks ago there came to Wauchula a special train, consisting of two Pullmans and one baggage and a party of forty from New York city, to spend the winter hunting, fishing, and to 'bask in the balmy breezes and the sunny smiles of old Sol, during the rigid cold days of their native clime; for this indeed reminds you of the old song, December's as pleasant as May.

So wishing you one and all a happy New Year, I will bid you adieu.

Respectfully,

L. C. PERRY.

Tonic to the System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of LaFayette, Ind., says: "No use taking DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. DeWitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold by Woods & Orme.

FIRE AT MURRAY.

The Murray Institute, at Murray, Ky., was burned to the ground at 8 o'clock Tuesday night. The cause of the fire is not known, but it is supposed to have caught from a defective flue, although though there is some talk of incendiary origin. The institute was a handsome brick structure valued at $35,000, and was erected in 1871 by a special act of the legislature. It was owned jointly by the school district and a stock company. The building and contents are a total loss, as there was no insurance on either. There were about thirty rooms in the institute and it was one of Murray's greatest prides. It was on one of the main streets of the town.

There was a great deal of dissatisfaction over the management some months ago, and a vote was in the district December 29 to determine whether or not there should be a change, but the election resulted overwhelmingly in favor of the present management. The institute will probably be rebuilt at an early date.

No More Stomach Troubles.

All stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Erskine, of Allenville, Mich., says: "I suffered heartburn and stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law had had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six months. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold by Woods & Orme.

Saved From Terrible Death.

The family of Mrs. M. T. Bobbitt, of Barterton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and his continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Woods & Orme's drug store.

FOR SALE.

Best of wheat and farm lands in Rawlins county, Kansas, at from $5 to $7.50 per acre. No commission charged to purchaser. Correspondence solicited H. D. HUGHES, McDonald, Kansas.

A Vary Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. M. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by Woods & Orme, druggists. Price 50 cents.

Commercial Club Chronicles.

The Club met Tuesday evening, January 24, in regular session at its hall in the post office building, President Cochran presiding. All officers were present, and also the directors with but two exceptions, one of whom was absent from the city. We won't tell on the other absentee but hope he will appreciate his sin of omission and come next time, even if zero weather does prevail. We had a "warm" meeting. Besides the officers and directors, there were present about a dozen members and two visitors. Mr. Granbery Jackson, of Nashville, Tenn., and Mr. W. A. Fripiett, of Henderson County.

After the reports of regular and special committees were made, the water works question was fully discussed, Mr. Jackson making quite an interesting talk, and supplementing his address with full explanations in response to questions of the Club's members. Mr. Jackson will go into the subject of water supply and distribution thoroughly while here, make all necessary preliminary surveys and report on the proposition to the joint committee composed of three club members and three city councilmen.

With this examination and full report of Mr. Jackson's in hand both the council and club will be in position to discuss the most practical method of securing water works. Mr. Sayre, chairman of the Entertainment Committee, submitted his report of expenses incurred for the banquet; advising that 135 members and guests were present, and the total cost per plate was about $1.40. These luxuries come high, but—Chairman Sayre did not say whether he had figured in the cost for medical services for the unfortunate ones who "did not get too much to eat."

Mr. C. S. Nunn being absent, Dr. Frazer made the report for the special committee appointed to confer with the I. C. officials, in conjunction with a committee of three councilmen, concerning protection at the two crossings within the corporate limits. These two committees met Tuesday, the 24th at 1 o'clock, in conference with Mr. Scheuing, Supt. for I. C. Mr. Scheuing expressed his pleasure at the conciliatory spirit of the two committees, and will doubtless show his appreciation more substantially by taking prompt and effective steps to furnish the desired protection. Electric bells will probably be installed, as these will afford protection almost, if not quite, equal to flag service, and further, will be effective at nights, as well as day time. This much could not be expected of flag service, as flagman would

There is a plaintive note in the following advertisement in a Belgrade paper, says the New York Tribune: "Whoever wishes for a snug berth in this cold weather can apply to our office for the post of responsible editor at $10 a day. We will see that he is supplied with good food during the period of his incarceration in the State Prison."

Give Him a Show.

It is charged that Congressman Grosvenor defends Judge Swayne because the Judge is a Republican. Well, he should not be expected to assail him on that account. It is rather a good sign to see parties mixed up a little when a matter of the judiciary is involved. Let's give Grosvenor credit for believing that Swayne is an innocent and abused man.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

PRAYER STOLEN.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 24.—"Does a stolen prayer reach the eternal throne?" asked Gov Hoch today. Then he continued:
"According to the newspapers Chaplin Coudon of the lower House of Congress in his opening prayer said: 'There is so much bad in the best of us, and so much good in the worst of us that it hardly behooves any of us to talk about the rest of us.'"
"Now, the fact is the Chaplain stole that out of my Marion Record, or out of some paper that stole it out of the Record. More than a year ago I thought that up and printed it in the 'Thoughts We Have Been Thinking.' However, I am glad the House Chaplin knows a good thing when he sees it."

Additional troops were ordered to this city today.

At 7:30 tonight a dynamite bomb was thrown into a crowd, killing seven soldiers.

Immediately the electric lights of the city were turned off and darkness was added to the gloom and despair which marks the Russian capital.

It is reported from Sankersken on the coast of Finland that 1800 men this morning raided the Government rifle factory and carried off a large number of rifles.

It is announced that the Czar has determined to declare St. Petersburg in a state of siege and issue a manifesto to the people, partially granting their demands.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 24.—Work has been suspended at the works of the Belgian Electrical company which furnishes the light for this city.

The Russian Government has ordered the Ludwig Loewe arms factory to supply as soon as possible five hundred machine guns.

London, Jan. 24.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg dated 12:22 today says:

Crowds of strikers are again concentrating on the Nevsky Prospect.

The situation is so tense that many inhabitants of St. Petersburg are sending their wives and children to Helsingfors and elsewhere for safety.

Not a single mill or factory has started up. This is very significant as indicating that the workmen are being supplied with the sinews of war. The crowds in the streets are sullen and several thousand additional troops have been brought into the city and housed in the barracks.

Machine gun batteries are placed at various points in case they are needed.

Sevastopol, Jan. 23.—The vast admiralty works were destroyed by fire today. The fire broke out immediately after the second signal for beginning work was given at 7 a. m. The flames burst simultaneously from different parts of the works, and the whole building was so quickly involved that men in the modeling department barely escaped by jumping out of the windows. Energetic measures prevented the flames extending to the docks. The cause of the fire is unknown.

The organization recently formed in Louisville known as the Retail Merchants' Protective Association is certainly a good thing to protect the country merchants from debtors who are not good pay. The object of the association is to protect its members by information which will be furnished to one by the other. Every member is supposed to send in to the association the list of their delinquents, and the association supplies every member with a copy. Mr. J. O. Carter, the well-known shoe drummer, has secured seventy-five new members for them in Western Kentucky in the last month. Attention is called to clipping from the Courier-Journal, which will be found in another part of the Press. Merchants who are interested should communicate with J. O. Melrose Vernon is now at New Decatur, Ala., where he has a fine position with a lumber firm. In a letter received from him this week he says among other things "I received a copy of the Press this week and I enjoyed reading it the same as I would a letter from home. I notice that mining is still an active business in Crittenden. I guess people all over the United States have heard of the spar and lead mines of Crittenden. I am enjoying good health and like the country fine, yet I never forget Kentucky and my many friends in Marion. I may be home on visit in the spring.

Mrs. Mary E. Stewart, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Belle Cooper, in Texas for some time, returned home Saturday. Her son, Will, who has been in the west fifteen years, accompanied her home to spend a few days visiting his brother and sisters.

They went to Tolu Monday, where she will remain some time, and her son will go to Tennessee.

The Rev. Thomson, general manager of the Sunday League of America, lectured here Thursday evening last to a large and appreciative audience. Marion is always ready to such men and no where is a man of his ability appreciated more than in our town. Mr. Thomson's address in spirit and delivery was admirable, his language polished and all in all, those who heard it pronounced it impressive and beneficial. The universal desire is that he return here at some other time.

The home talent company, which rendered "Lend Me Five Shillings" at the opera house last Friday night, deserve much praise. The play is familiar to most theatre goers and many times in large theatres have we seen this play not so well played as it was by our own boys and girls. Virgil Moore, Coleman and Wilbur Haynes, Trice Bennett and Archie Davidson were each well suited to the parts they essayed, while Misses Ina Price and Mamie Hubbard also played their parts well. The children in the Mother Goose entertainment were good also, having added some features to it since they put it on the boards on the at the bazaar.

IN SOCIETY.

Mrs. E. J. Hayward entertained a number of ladies at her beautiful home Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Refreshments were served and the mansion, which is like a summer house—even in this weather, was thrown open for the entertainment and pleasure of her friends, and another delightful affair was added to her calendar.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Porter entertained the euchre club Friday evening at the New Marion Hotel. A three course luncheon was served, and fruit punch was served throughout the evening.

Dr. Morris received the gentleman's prize, a cigar set, and Mrs. Sayre, the ladies' prize, a handsome manicure set. Those present besides the host and hostess were Mesdames Sayre, Roberts, Tonkin, Eva Moore, Misses Frances Gray, Kittie Gray, Della Barnes, Blanche Haase, Leaffa Wilborn, Messrs. Sayre, Roberts, Tonkin, Ollie Tucker, Rob Cook, Sam Gugenheim, Johnson Crider, Ira Pierce, Dr. Morris, Lute Bailey, W. D. Baird.

Mrs. Horace Hendall Sayre entertained a few friends at a noon luncheon last Thursday, which was an elegant affair. Mrs. Sayre's menu was tempting, and it was served in nice style and consisted of five courses, all of which were prepared to a "queen's taste". Among those who attended were Mrs. O. N. McFee, who added much to the pleasure of those present by singing some solos she has known since she was a girl. Mrs. Carrie Maxwell, Mrs. Emma Hayward, Mrs. Mary Jenkins, of Eddyville, Mrs. R. W. Wilson, who recited some biblical verses, Mrs. G. C. Gray and Mrs. S. M. Jenkins.

Each one recited or quoted some familiar verse or sang a song or furnished instrumental music which was a pleasant innovation.

Mrs. Sayre enjoys an enviable reputation as a hostess and this luncheon has not detracted any from it.

Mrs. John L. Tonkin, at her residence on Walker street, gave an "afternoon tea" Friday Jan. 20th, 1905, to a few friends, which was especially notable. Mrs. Tonkin, who is a highly prized addition to the society of the city, came here recently from British Columbia with her husband, an engineer of mines, and little daughter. To native ability and the rare educational facilities of the east, she has added the experience gained by extensive travel to assist her in entertaining her guests. Her home, which is filled with a collection of curios and bric-a-brac collected from various parts of the world, would interest any one, and this added to her own personality, made the afternoon one long to be remembered by those who attended.

Mrs. R. L. Moore entertained the "As You Like It Club" and a few others at her home on Wilson avenue, Wednesday afternoon. She was assisted in receiving by her sister, Mrs. Frank Dodge, and Mrs. S. M. Jenkins. Mrs. A. H. Cardin, of View, presided at the punch bowl. A literary contest was engaged in each person being expected to draw something to represent a book. The guests were mated for the luncheon by slips containing the names of poets with the companionship which contained the name of some of his works and these were distributed by little Miss Robie Moore. The beautiful interior of the residence was made more attractive by the decorations which were of evergreen and palms. A lobster cactus was placed in the center of the table. The repast was served in courses consisting of lemon and orange sherbet, cakes, fruits, coffee and almond macaroons and lettuce leaves which contained conundrums which were much enjoyed. Those bidden to the reception were: Misses Leana and Ina Woods, Lizzie James and Mesdames

man and fish is the trademark of Scott's Emulsion, and is the synonym for strength and purity. It is sold in almost all the civilized countries of the globe.

If the cod fish became extinct

it would be a world-wide calamity because the oil that comes from its liver surpasses all other oils in nourishing and life-giving properties. Thirty years ago the proprietors of Scott's Emulsion found a way of preparing cod liver oil so that everyone can take it and get the full value of the oil without the objectionable taste. Scott's Emulsion is the best thing in the world for weak, run-down children, thin, delicate people, and all conditions of wasting and lost strength.

it is now clear and pleasant south of the wind breaks, and the sun is thawing the snow away; it will not be long going and when it is gone one of the beauties of this country is we will have no mud to stick to the bottom of the shoe except a little which will soon dry and be nice again.

We have fine roads the year round; fifty bushes of wheat is a moderate load for two mules or horses over any of the smoothest country. I thought when I purchased my three and one-fourth inch wagon that my team looked too light for it but I find that it is plenty light for them. We load according to the length of trip we are going to make, and if it is going to be very long and we are in a hurry, we put on a third and sometimes the fourth, all abreast, and if we meet a traction engine pulling a separator or even a house we pass each other all right.

I see a house upon it wheels as I write. It has two engines to it; it is the store and post office of Hillsdale, a considerable house, being pulled two and a half miles to a new town on a new railroad called the Denver, Enid and Gulf.

I am fourteen miles south and west of Pond Creek, the county seat, and don't touch my wagon brake going to or coming from town. West of me it is four miles to the hills and canons. The hills are not so high but crossing the canons makes some very steep places in the road.

This is a very fine soil west of these hills, and eighteen miles from here is the salt plains. This was reserved by the Government for the salt. It is twelve by fourteen miles and looks like a lake that is frozen over and a skim of snow over it. Can drive over it on a dry time. This is a curiosity and a great place for ducks and geese. People sometimes lose their eyes sporting on it; you can see mirage by looking across it.

Seven miles west of the plains is Cherokee, a thriving and beautiful little town, on the Orient R. R. and in a beautiful country.

Six miles South of me is a little string of hills about two miles long, running east and west, then strikes off level, a high and very fine country.

This country is well settled up and with people from almost every State, and they seem to be a fairly good and civilized people, yet are not much christianized. It is easier to get company to a show or to a public sale than to church. The churches are sprinkled all over the country; four are in sight of me; almost every denomination is represented here.

We have a good school system here, schools from five to eight months; we have an eight months school. We are getting telephones and rural mail routes pretty much all over the country.

Most of this is a very fine soil; is level enough and deep enough and seems to be strong enough. Some of it seems to be rather sandy but is our best corn land; this is not a good corn country and there is not much grown here. There are rice, thrifty groves all over the country containing cottonwood, locust, maple, mulberry, ash and catalpa. There is lots of cottonwoods in the lowlands over a foot through. The mulberry is a dwarf with a thick, bushy top, mostly used for windbreaks about orchards and buildings; it is also used with catalpa and locusts for posts, and bears lots of fruit.

Everything has to be cultivated. Weeds and grass grow to perfection, the rankest weeds and crab grass I ever saw.

Passing through my orchard one day I pulled up a bunch of grass and it measured fifty two inches from root to bloom and was coarse accordingly; most all the weeds grow here that grow in the mannered and richest lands of Kentucky. The iron weed, careless, parsley, smartweed, milkweed, lamb-quarter, snow on the mountains, and different kinds of thistles, but the farmers take the world easy; they don't seem to care much for the weeds.

price. The man I paid forty-five hundred dollars to for my farm, bought it two years before for twenty-five hundred, and some of my neighbors are offered five thousand with no better farms than mine. Both south and west of here, about one hundred miles, land is cheaper, and people are selling here and going to it. You can buy almost any farm at your price.

The rate of interest is high, day goods and hardware are high, but anything you make is ready sale at a fair price for the cash; in fact you can sell anything you have. For weeks at a time you can go to public sales every day, and yet it is no place to go to get bargains. But while dry goods are high from the beginning of harvest until corn is gathered and shelled, and that is Christmas, wages is good, and a common farm hand can make a pair of shoes in a day and I don't see any reason why any one can't make a decent living here, but we don't persuade any one to come, but welcome honest, industrious people. But if you go to a friend pretending to buy on time and at the same time intending to steal it, we don't need you; please stay where you are or go the other way. And now don't wear the shoe that don't fit you. Some can't pay, but if you can't you will prove it.

If any friend would like to be informed about something here that I can help him or her in, I will cheerfully do so. But if you are interested in this country the best thing you can do is to come and see it, and don't spend your money to come unless you intend to take time to investigate the country well.

I will now close for this time but may write you again. Direct your letters to Pond Creek, O. T., R. R. 4.

Very truly yours,
J. H. CRIDER.

SAVED BY AMERICA.

Plunderers Were Ready to Cut Up the Big Chinese Empire.

New York, Jan. 19.—A Washington dispatch to the Herald is as follows:

Secretary Hay has averted a new danger in the far East which threatened a division of China among the neutral Powers, by again cleverly committing them to the integrity of the Chinese Empire.

The Administration will probably make an announcement on the subject tomorrow. Hay was moved to take action last Friday, by persistent reports that the European Powers had concluded that the only course left to do was to divide the empire. The last assurance of support of Mr. Hay's policy came today from France.

It is understood the great international influences which were tending toward a division of China, expected to bring that policy to fruition at the close of the war. The fact that Japan, if she emerges from the war with credit, will demand special privileges in Korea, and the withdrawal of Russia from Manchuria, would disturb the present balance of power. Whatever influence Russia had in Manchuria and Korea was maintained in the face of Chinese protest and because Korea could not prevent. Under the new condition of things following the war, any neutral Power might declare her interests as secured by the balance of power held by Japan with China as declared and China as silent ally. This would provoke a general movement among the European Powers to assume practical control of everything within their respective spheres of influence in China.

A life saved by FOERG'S REMEDY the great blood purifier

Read this grateful letter from a prominent Kentuckian

Princeton, Ky., Feb. 4th, 1902.
I wish to state for the Foerg Remedy Co. of Evansville, Ind., that I believe their great Remedy, known as Foerg's Remedy, the great blood purifier, saved my brother's life some ten years ago. He was troubled with a blood disease, and it seemed he could get no relief until he took Foerg's Remedy, which was manufactured by this company. After taking five bottles he was entirely cured. I also took two bottles as a blood purifier and was much benefited.

(Signed) C. H. LEWIS, Princeton, Ky.
People do not become interested in these subjects until failing health or a distressing outbreak of the skin reminds them sharply of their ignorance. Is it any wonder then that so many become the easy prey of vampires both inside and outside the medical fraternity, and too often find a tragically easy grave, where a little common sense knowledge would have shown them the means of recovery and spared their lives. Know thyself!

AND HERE'S THE REMEDY
Forewarned is forearmed—let this warning sink deep in—obtain from us or from your druggist a trial quantity of the Remedy—test its efficiency the first time you have the opportunity, so that you may know for yourself and become an enthusiastic convert to the virtue and strength of our marvelous blood remedy—from then on you will refuse to be without it until your cure is effected. Why take chances? Why procrastinate a single day? Act now. Price $1.00 per bottle, six bottles for $5.00.

Loaded Cannon Fired at Czer.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 20.—In spite of the official statement that the cannon shot which yesterday might easily have wiped out the whole Romanoff family, was the result of carelessness in leaving a shotted cartridge in the breach of the gun after target practice, the mysterious case is still under the combined investigation of the military and police and the public seems as little inclined as the authorities to accept the published version.

The official account of the affair is as follows: "During the ceremony of the blessing of the waters of the Neva today, in the presence of the Emperor, as the usual salute was being fired, an accident happened. A charge of grape in stead of a saluting charge was fired from a gun belonging to one of the saluting batteries, stationed near the Bourse. Some bullets struck the facade of the Winter Palace, near the quay gardens, breaking four windows. A policeman was killed."

FRIEND JENKINS: The following has been submitted to the scrutiny of one of the leading Freshmen of the Marion Graded School and pronounced to have the true affluence:

Tale of a 'Possum.

The nox was lit by lux of Luna, And 'twas a nox most opportuna, To catch a possum or a coon, For nix lay scattered o'er this mundus, A shallow next et non profundus, On sic a nox with canis unis, Two boys went out to hunt for cooncus.

The corpus of this bonus canis Was full as long as acta span is; Bu brevior lege had canis never, Quam had his dog—bonus, clever, Some used to say in stultum, jocum, Quod a field was to small locum, For sic a dog to make a turnus, Circum self from stem to sternus.

A VIRGINIA DUEL.

Roanoke, Va., Jan. 19.—Yesterday in Franklin county, Jas Abshire and his two sons fought a revolver and shotgun duel on the pike with L. A. Pradd and a man named Holly, as a result of which the three first named are dead and Holly, who escaped injury, is in jail.

After the first round it is said that the two Abshires and Pradd were on the ground wounded; one of the Abshires reloaded his gun and deliberately blew Pradd's head off.

ARM AND ARM.

Topeka, Kan. 20.—Booker T. Washington was accorded a reception in this city to-day. He entered the legislature arm and arm with Gov Hoch, who introduced him.

His reception at Wichita, where he lectured tonight, was not so cordial.

When his manager sought to gain quarters for him at the leading hotel, of the city he was informed that colored people were not entertained there. The other hotels did likewise, and the negro was obliged to accept hospitality of Samuel Jones a colored politician of more or less local prominence. The hotel men say it was the first time they were ever called upon to entertain a colored man of any degree and that they propose to establish a precedent that would bar forever the Afro-American from Wichita hotels. Owing to the fact that there has been considerable agitation over the permitting of a colored orator to speak at the Kansas Day banquet, the affair created more than usual interest.

Bought Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and Sent it to a Friend.

Mr. F. W. J. Fletcher, a druggist in Victoria, Australia, says: "A customer of mine, was so pleased with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which she had used for her children when suffering from colds and croup, that during a fortnight's time she obtained at my shop, nine bottles, which she sent to her friends in different parts of the state, telling them how much good it had done and advising them to give it a trial." For sale by Woods & Orme.

Blackburn is denouncing Beckham and his "machine." Beckham is ridiculing Blackburn and his record. Beckham as the first special charge in his arraignment of the senior Senator characterizes him as the advocate of the "cause of Queen Liliuokalani, the dusky and deposed ruler of the Hawaiian Islands, who blushing seeks, with Senator Blackburn as her ohivairous champion, the modest sum of $200,000 from this government to soothe her wounded feelings," etc. "This, in Kentucky amounts to the injection of the "nigger" question into the Senatorial race and if Senator Blackburn can overcome it with argument he will have established a new record in Kentucky elections.—Earlington Bee.

Dragging Pains

2925 Keeley St., CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 2, 1902.
I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groin. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain. What to try I knew not, for it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Maud Bush

Mrs. Bush is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.

An Animal Story For Little Folks

HOW MR. SNAPPER FIXED THE STYLES

Old Mr. Snapper wandered leisurely out of the pond one bright spring morning and made for the back yard of the farmhouse. He had lain in the mud all winter and was now glad of the chance to get out and see something. While he was meditating in his slow fashion as to the probable crop of spring gnats he was startled by loud caterwauls. He crawled to where the noise seemed to come from, and there, on the top of the chopping block, were Tom and Jerry in a most awful dispute. "It ought to be six inches, and you know it, you horrid thing," said Tom. "No, sir, it oughtn't to be but five. That's the style at Newport, and I don't care what you say," yelled Jerry. "They're quarreling about the length of their tails, I do believe," said Snapper to himself. "Did you ever hear anything so stupid? Well, I'll just fix the styles for them myself."

Tom was standing with hatchet raised to cut his tail off at the length he considered fashionable. Jerry's tail was hanging temptingly over the edge of the block. Snapper grabbed the hanging tail in his iron jaws.

"Wow! Kiy! Fizz!" yelled Jerry, and making a gigantic leap in the air, he knocked the hatchet out of Tom's paws, which, falling on Tom's luckless tail, cut it off about halfway up. He gave a yell of pain and made a leap backward. Jerry made a brave attempt to tear his tail free, but Snapper was too quick for him, and like a pair of scissors his jaws closed on his caudal appendage and severed it completely.

"Oh, oh! What shall we do?" sobbed both kittens as they sat down and looked at their stumps of tails.

"Never mind," said Snapper, crawling up to where they sat. "They're both the same length now."

"That's so. We hadn't thought of that," they said and went on their way sorrowfully.—Worcester Post.

John W Jeffreys has a lamp chimney that he has been using constantly for over 20 years. He bought it from S C Towery when he first went into business at Shady Grove.

Some one recommended to John Stembridge that he feed his chickens on soda to make them lay. He tried the experiment and it worked wonderfully. In a short time thirteen of them were laying—laying cold and stiff in death.

Miss Anna Roberts has gone to Marion to attend school.

Herbert Lamb, of Fish Trap, was in our midst Sunday.

Miss Edna Roberts closed a most excellent school at Olive Branch Saturday. The attendance on that day was the largest of the kind ever in this community and the entertainment was the best. The program consisted of speeches, dialogues, etc., and the performers, to use a homely expression, "just fairly spread themselves." No gathering was ever better pleased in this neighborhood and the treat sweetened the sorest and sweetened the sweet more sweeter.

The young folks were entertained Saturday night by Willie Deboe and wife.

KENTUCKY'S

Young Men Will Meet at Owensboro, February 16-19.

We have before us a copy of the announcement of the Twenty-Seventh Annual State Convention of the Kentucky Young Men's Christian Associations to be held in the city of Owensboro, Feb. 16-19, 1905. These conventions are always looked forward to with great interest, and attract wide recognition throughout the state because of their large representations of men from all parts of the state and strong program presented. Among the speakers for this convention are: President F. W. Hinit, D. D., Danville; Frank H. Burt, Chicago; S. D. Gordon, Cleveland; C. C. Michener, Dr. Geo. J. Fisher, A. G. Knebel, Geo. B. Hodge, Tom Keenan, New York City; E. W. Peck, State Secretary, Minnesota; President J. C. Acheson, Danville, and other representative men of the state. The music will be in charge of E. W. Peck, of Minnesota, and he will have the assistance of the Henderson Male Chorus and the Boys' Orchestra of the Louisville Association.

There are to be several new and important features of the convention this year which will add largely to its efficiency. Large delegations from the 79 Associations of the state are expected. In addition to these, men members of evangelical churches in communities where there are no Associations, and who are interested in christian work for young men, are invited to attend and participate in the convention as corresponding members. A limited delegation of not over five from such a community will be entertained by the citizens of Owensboro, provided application for credential, giving name and address of pastor or clerk of church is sent to the State Secretary by February 10th.

The railroads of the state have given a rate of one and one-third cents for the round trip.

For program of the convention, information about credentials, etc., address Henry E. Rosever, State Secretary, Third and Broadway, Louisville.

NEW MILLINERY STORE

Mrs. Grant Davidson desires her friends and the public generally to know that she will open a first-class MILLINERY stock in the room recently vacated by Miss Florence Ewing, in the old Hotel building in the early spring.

She will visit the markets and has engaged an experienced trimmer and intends to bring such goods as will suit and please the market. Mrs. Davidson knows the requirements of the trade here and feels sure she can select the goods that will be suited to the market.

and I am sorry to say there is 32 saloons in the city. It is a pretty place, has a good market. We live on Big Muddy river, eight miles southwest of the city. We live in four miles of the Mississippi. This is a fine farming country, they raise corn, oats and wheat. Corn produces from 50 to 100 bushels per acre. We have a good school and churches, good Sunday-schools and good people. I will close by saying three cheers for the Press and Mr. Tom Cochran. If I was old enough to vote I would go back to old Crittenden next November and help elect him. As I am only ten years of age it will be a long time before I can vote.
