CONFIRMATION STARTED IN R. C. GOREY'S STABLE AND PALM HILL'S HIGH WIND JUMPS FROM THE START BEYOND CONTROL

A Life of the Lesser-Known Persons--Neighbors--In the First Remains of An Ad

On Tuesday, March 18, Marion was a site of the city. By the fire the magnificent buildings were completely destroyed. The flames that swept over the city were a shocking sight. The buildings that once stood tall were now nothing but ashes.

The fire started in R. C. Gorey's stable and Palm Hill's high winds provided the fuel for the flames. The fire quickly spread and the city was left in ruins.
