INSPECTOR DISTURBED

By Singular Accident Occurring Last Saturday Afternoon Near Joplin, Mo.

A special dispatch to the Globe from Joplin, Mo., says--The editor received Saturday morning a very exciting and remarkable message from the Joplin mining region. The message runs as follows:

"The inspector was disturbed by a collision of mine shafts at Joplin, Mo., last Saturday afternoon. The inspector was visiting a mine shaft when he was suddenly caught in a violent explosion. The impact of the blast sent him flying through the air and he landed on the opposite side of the mine shaft. He was knocked unconscious and was rescued by the miners. The inspector was taken to the hospital and is expected to recover."

JOPLIN'S VALUES.

Joplin, Mo., April 4.--The aggregate value of one ton of coal, as determined by the Joplin mining region, has increased since the last week, according to the reports of the miners. The average value of one ton of coal has increased from $1.25 to $1.50 per ton since the last week. The increase is due to the higher demand for coal in the mining region. The miners report that the demand for coal is increasing and that the miners are now working harder to meet the demand. The miners are also reporting that the coal is of higher quality than in the past, which is contributing to the increase in value. The miners report that they are expecting the value of coal to continue to increase in the coming weeks.

Byron A. Abbott—Joseph Jefferson had been the talk of the country for a few years. He was a great success in his plays and had accumulated a fortune that was envied by many. But his death put an end to all his engagements.

A distinguished farewell to Jefferson was given in his honor in the city of New York, where he had lived most of his life. The crowd that gathered to pay their respects was enormous, and the funeral procession was one of the largest ever seen in the city.

The funeral was held in the largest church in the city, and the streets were lined with mourners. The procession marched to the cemetery, where the body was laid to rest. The city was in mourning, and the streets were decorated with flowers.

The farewell was a fitting one, and the city mourned the loss of one of its most beloved sons. Jefferson had left a legacy of talent and dedication, and his memory would live on for many years to come.

Talmage Sermon

By Rev.
Frank D. Stott, D.D.

ANNAPOLIS, Jan. 19 — Last night the prayer sessions of the Social Hygiene Society in the Capital was held. The meeting was well attended by residents of the city. The program included a brief devotional reading, led by Rev. Frank D. Stott, D.D., of Washington, D.C. The reading was followed by a discussion on the importance of maintaining a clean and wholesome environment. The meeting concluded with a prayer led by Rev. Stott. The next meeting will be held on Thursday, Jan. 25.

Talmage Sermon

The Sermon was delivered by Rev. Frank D. Stott, D.D., of Washington, D.C., on the 19th of January.

We Risk It.

By Dr. Milo A. Nunn

It is a common practice for doctors to advise patients on the risks involved in various medical procedures. For instance, in the case of a patient with a heart condition, the doctor may explain the risks of undergoing surgery versus the benefits of medical treatment. The patient then makes a decision based on the information provided. Similarly, in the case of the patient described in the article, the doctor explains the risks of the procedure, and the patient chooses to proceed with the treatment. The article emphasizes the importance of informed consent and highlights the role of the doctor in advising patients on the risks involved in medical procedures.
