ADDRESS

The Kentucky Editors Will Hold Of Miss Mary Deboe to the Many Friends of Marion Graded School.

> Graded School, and the Taxpayers of this School District;

We are highly gratified to see so of this school term, as it is only another proof of the great interest taken by you in the school,

It is no: only a duty which I cheerfully perform, but I consider it a rare honor and a high privilege to stand before you in the cause of education and in the name of the school to thank you for all that you have done

Many of you remember the small, one-story brick and the dilapidated old frame building that stood by it, in which some of you sat as scholars, where neither the heat of summer nor the cold of winter could be kept out. But you were not satisfied to see your children striving to obtain that Capt. WRITTEN BY FRANK LOYD.

MR. EDITOR: Being requested b so many to write something of the sunny South, if you will give me a little space in your paper I will be as brief as possible. Of course if I should even tell the important things I saw and learned it would consume the wolf, deer, antelope and bear as the entire space of several issues. ing commission I made Houston, Tex. I met my old friends and townsmen, Walker, Glenn, Flanary and others. who left Crittenden county to make their fortune in the Southwest, I found S. W. Walker not only benefitted financially and physically, but spiritually. I came to the conclusion that Sam has concluded to prepare himself to imitate his father in the ministerial work. Sam and his son Oda both have good positions with the Houston Drug company, probably the largest wholesale drug company in the State.

Now if Sam can not benefit them physically he will turn his spiritual United States from Mexico. On that searchlight on them.

Houston is a beautiful city of some 75,000 people and being the second city in the state, and is claimed by the best posted men that in three years it will be larger than San Antonio; the largest at present. I know of no city in the Union that is growing faster than Houston, Tex. So many people ask me about Texas, and what I thought of them going there, to look for a home, etc. Now as I have traveled about twenty thousand miles in Texas, and been in every town of any importance, I will say that is too broad a question, that you will have to confine your question to some particular part of the While Texas borders for several hundred miles on the gulf she extends as far north as Fulton, Kentucky, and being twelve hundred miles eart and west, she has her rich valleys, also her dry sandy deserts, that is worthless; she has the climate and Has his office at Dorr's Undertaking soil to produce everything grown in the Union.

The same questions are asked me about Old Mexico; and if you wish to follow mining I know of no better place to pitch your tent than in Old Mexico. But as to farming, but little of its barren country is suitable only the bottom land and land that can be irrigated is suitable for farm-

Land that can not be irrigated unfit for anything except to the half civilized Indians and Mexicans, who now own it, and their burrows; yet the two Mexicos and Texas can not be surpassed for beautiful sceneries, and no one enjoys viewing beautiful nature more than your writer.

I will now give a sketch of the most interesting gathering I attendded while in Texas and Old Mexico. On the 22d day of February, it being Washington's birthday, and a holiday in the United States, Mexico agreed to join hands with Texas in making it the greatest day in the history of the "gate cities," Laredo, Texas, and New Laredo, Mexico, oposite each other on the Rio Grande, a small, shallow river, separating the day the best roping contest ever seen in Texas was to take place. It was sure a "red letter" day. Never in their history has the two gate cities conducted a celebration with more festive splendor nor succeeded in carrying out their ambitious designs with such complete fullness and grandness. I never witnessed such scenes as upon that day in the two cities. In the heat of the moment 1905, the Illinois Central will sell their citizens felt that they were tickets to Louisville at very low rates. great. narrate a clear story would puzzle my mind. They came not singly but trooped abreast. They were on a hurrah. King Carnival decreed for madness and misrule sharing the throne proclaimed a ban against order. Every post was in fete attire the air was filled with confetti like snow, bunting covered the houses in brilliant profusion of parti-colors. Both cities swarmed with hordes of visitors and dealt out to them all the things the pleasure-seekers were after, a high old time. Your writer for future reference jotted down some of the most important scenes, which will try to describe. All the morning special trains were

They found plazas where the bands from both republics discoursed music from decorated and bannerhung kiosks. The Twenty-eighth Infantry band from Fort Sam Houston gave a concert on the parade ground of Fort McIntosh. Twenty-third Battalion Cavalry band from Monterey, Mexico, which is one of the finest in the republic, was ordered there by Secretary of War Mena, by special request of Gen. Diaz, President of Mexico. The Brenham celebrated band, the New Leredo and and several others were present. There was no want of music to please each particular taste. Explosive fireworks incessantly bombarded the firmament from housetops and public squares. Yet those wanting to see other amusements could go over the bridge across the Rio Grande and find the Midway, with Ferris wheel and side shows galore. A Mexican company put on the nativity at a quaint little chapel, and attracted crowds of people who were anxious to see for once in their life that almost extinct remnant of the early religious drama. more primitive than the famous Passion play of Oberammergan and as

And last, and as well patronized, rarely seen anywhere in the interior, unique phrases, and with a glory all its own, but shorn of its strength took in their share of visitors and was a scene of humanity by full measure, pressed down and trickling over at the top.

A Good Suggestion.

Mr. C. B. Wainwright, of Lemon City, Fla., has written the manufacturers that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pains in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drank. GIVEN AWAY.

"The Three Most Beautiful Roses" By Paul de Longpre.

At the urgent solicitation of the Woman's Home Companion, Mr. Paul de Longpre, who is the greatest painter of flowers in the world, consented to make a painting of what he considered "The Three Most Beautiful Roses," and the painting is without doubt one of the masterpieces of this great artist. This magnificent picture is reproduced in all its orginal grandeur on the cover of the Woman's Home Companion for June. Although this cover is an accurate reproduction of a painting worth hundreds of dollars, yet the June number, which has this exquisite cover, may be obtained at any first-class news-stand or direct from the publishers for the trivial sum of only ten cents.

Mr. Paul de Longpre is justly styled the "King of Flower Painters. He not only paints roses, but every flower that grows, and is the highest authority on flowers. His paintings are found in the most select homes. Some have sold for as much as seven thousand five hundred dollars, $7,500.

Artists, art critics and competent udges all agree that the covers of the Woman's Home Companion far excel those of any other magazine.

The Woman's Home Companion is Resolved, That we, as a Sunday a magazine which in beauty and excellence, art, stories, illustrations and fashions, etc., excels all other home and family magazines.
