WENNING NEWS OF THEак

Walter Reed and brother, both of this town, are working on the railroad, and from the report they give, are making good time. After work they are shooting at a keg or two. Mr. J. M. Whipple has been appointed as postmaster in the town of Pilot Hill. We are told that a road is being surveyed from Pilot Hill to the Folsom station.

ADMINISTRATION FORCES ARE SOUNDED UNDER.

At Smithfield by the good Government Democracy.

The third district delegate election was held at Kirtonsmiths' Sunday School. The vote was as follows: Mr. John Smith, 500; Mr. John Doe, 400; Mr. James Brown, 300. The candidates were all engaged in the business of selling hardware and the results are somewhat surprising. The Democratic forces are strong, but the Republican forces are equally strong. The election will be held next Tuesday at the courthouse.

In the town of Courtright, in the third district, the election will be held next Tuesday at the courthouse. The candidates are Mr. Charles White, who is a farmer, and Mr. John Smith, who is a blacksmith. The outcome of the election is uncertain, but the Republican forces are strong.

At the Courtright school, in the third district, the election will be held next Tuesday at the courthouse. The candidates are Mr. Charles White, who is a farmer, and Mr. John Smith, who is a blacksmith. The outcome of the election is uncertain, but the Republican forces are strong.

Mr. John Smith, who is a blacksmith, was elected by a majority of 100 votes. He is a popular candidate and has the support of the Democratic party. Mr. Charles White, who is a farmer, was elected by a majority of 50 votes. He is a popular candidate and has the support of the Republican party.

Mr. John Smith and Mr. Charles White are both active and well-liked candidates. The election will be held next Tuesday at the courthouse.
