THE SAGE OF PINEY

Writes An Interesting Letter to His Old Friend G. M. R.

FRIEND AND BROTHER: In your article headed, "The Sage of Piney," you say, among a heap of other good things, speaking of his earlier career, "If there is any portion of it over which he desires to cast a veil; if there is any part or parcel of it he desires to remain a sealed book, it is certainly his privilege."

All can not see through those words as it is my privilege to do. The noble mind and nobler spirit out of which they come reveals philosophy, business and christianity combined.

In regard to the "sealed book" my dear old friend, permit me to say a few words. If you have, as nearly all people have, certain privacies which circumstances render it advisable to be kept strictly silent, beware of considering an act of trustworthiness due to a friend that you should make him (or her) a confidant. All people are less able to keep the secret of another than they are their own; and since we must acknowledge the difficulty of concealing our own privacies how can we expect others to be of the necessary strength of mind, to be entrusted with such? The friend we may have confided in have given a promise of concealment; but can any such promise reasonably be expected to prove so binding on a second and comparatively uninterested person as the consciousness of the importance of the secret is on us? and, moreover, waiving all human probability, take for granted that we have found a friend who is as fully capable of keeping our secrets as we are. Now confiding to such a person what do we do? Why, inasmuch as ourselves are liable at times to thoughtlessly allow something to slip by confiding in another we have simply doubled the chance of our secret being noised abroad. If there is anything among your private affairs which you are desirous of having unknown, be your own confidant, exclusive of all others—then, and only, is it all safe.

Evil be said of you and it is correct; if it be a lie laugh at it. There is no condition of life but it has one good side. Every situation has its point of view; could place it in that favorable light.

Oh, how good a thing and beautiful a thing it is to be sincere; not to believe all that is said, nor easily to report what one hears.

My good friend,—Tongues thy virtues stain, And speak in words that charm, But truth seems doubtful gain, Common's falsehoods work thee harm, And not in thy friendless hour, A strong or hated power, The fortress of thy breast, Able let honor be! By selfless strength possess'd, The brute world will yield to thee.

Shall talons, claws, and fangs impair Such panoply as thou dost wear!

For though 'tis pain if eyes once kind Show wrath or fear where kindness was,

Eyes blind to worth are fatal blind, Say they see thee not—and pass! Thou hast a thousand friends unknown When for the truth thou lovest one.

My life's lesson, my friend, has been that there is only kind of true life, the life of "Love," which the Master came to bestow, and that all life divorced from its true end, must be temporal and fleeting.

Whether appreciated or not I will try to be gracious; I am here not to get but to give, to achieve, to accomplish, to pour life out, to make love grow, to help, to uplift. I delight in all good work done, whoever does it. However what have we, you and I, done? Let us take a look at—

LIFE'S SUMMARY.

What have we won? old age and silvered hair;

Some small successes that we never sought;

Some blessing that, though sweet, we yearned not for.

Some victories for which we never fought.

What have we done? worn out our youth's desires, Its high ambitions and its earnest will

In vain endeavor. Then, all longing past, We see our days with unsought duties fill.

Yet, after all the failure and defeat, The broken hopes, the joys that would not stay;

Grown strong with strife, our souls rejoice and own

The was God led us was a blessed way.

Well, I am disposed to say of the release of every aged person,—"Euthanasia." Thy will be done. I have a presentiment that you, in my next, may know the story of my "earlier career." Good night.

O. G. W.

P. S. After I have rent the veil and passed beyond, and to keep my memory green, as a Memento I present to you the following lines, and trust you will "read and reflect."

"RESURRECTIO" CARNIS.

"My flesh shall rest also in hope." Thou hast no commerce with decay, Thine elements are star-fed fires, Each frail breath of thy mortal day From boundless life to life respites.

O living flesh, what wilt thou be When my brief tenancy is done? Still shalt thou not in earth or sea Take golden tribute of the sun.

So kindred to what, wilt not die, Dear flesh! I scorn thy doubts and fears;

Thy mortal portents pass me by And melt in God's eternal years.

The flavor is half the battle. The purity is the other half. My sorghum is pure and has a flavor that is delicious. FRANK CONGER.

FIT FOR A KING.

King Edward to Feast on Crittenden Co. Beef.

R. T. Mayes, lessee of R. W. Wilson's Crittenden Springs farm sold to Leslie Mansfield, of Louisville, last Saturday, the finest lot of cattle for export ever seen in one bunch in this section.

They were as fine shippers as one cares to see and brought Mr. Mayes a handsome sum—in fact a little fortune, $1841.49 being the amount of the check. Mr. Mayes fattened these cattle on the meadows at the Crittenden Springs farm.

Mr. Mansfield shipped the cattle direct to Jersey City, N. Y., where they will be loaded on a ship for the European market.

"Little Tom White" Killed.

A special dispatch to the PRESS from Morganfield says: Last Sunday morning Tom & Webb White were released from the county jail and later took up with a white man named Batts and shortly afterward he accused Tom of stealing a five dollar bill from his pocket which, however, White denied. Later White engaged in a "crap" game with some negroes and Batts went to the police and reported the loss of the five dollars. He then returned where White and the negroes were playing and called White out and demanded the return of the money. White became indignant and a quarrel ensued and Batts quickly drew a revolver and shot him in the abdomen. The wound soon proved fatal and he lived only one hour, dying at eight o'clock Sunday night. The remains were brought here on the 11 o'clock train Tuesday and buried in the Potters field of the New Cemetery.

The last time he was seen here before was the day he left in charge of the sheriff for the Eddyville penitentiary. His time expired recently.

DEATHS

John L. Lamb died at his home in the Sugar Grove vicinity last Saturday morning at 8 o'clock of paralysis, which he was stricken with on Thursday before. This was his second paralytic stroke the first one being twelve years ago, from which he had almost recovered.

Mr. Lamb was born Feb. 1st, 1847 and was a son of Robertus. He was married in 1868 to Miss Sarah Ann Phillips who survives him. He was for twenty-five years a Ruling Elder in Sugar Grove church, of which he had been a member for almost a half century, having professed there and joined that church in 1859 when he was a boy of twelve. Mr. Lamb leaves besides his wife eight children, Robt. M. Lamb, of this county, Mrs. J. N. Dean and Mrs. Ed. Dean, of Iron Hill, Edgar, of Oklahoma, Mrs. Frank Lamb, Herbert, a former student of Marion Graded School, Preston and Agnes, who are at home.

The funeral and burial took place Sunday at Sugar Grove church, Rev. W. T. Oakley officiating and a large concourse of people attended attesting the respect in which he was held by his neighbors.

Francis Marion Cruce died at his home near Tiline, Livingston Co., last Thursday night in his 60th year. He was up and well Tuesday and was having wheat threshed when he took a chill which was but the forerunner of his death, which ensued on the evening of the third day. He was a son of Presley Cruce and his first wife Agnes Clement who was a sister of Granville and F. M. Clement, of this county.

His wife who survives him was a daughter of the late Jas. L. Hill and a sister of Mrs. W. A. Adams, Mrs. Silas McMurray and Mrs. Jimmie Rankin, all of this county.

He also leaves six children, Ned and Pres in Washington, Boyd and Mrs. Essie Howell, of Plymouth, Ill., and Roy and Agnes at home. The funeral took place Friday afternoon at Groves Chapel in Livingston Co. The deceased was a half brother of W. R. Cruce, the well known traveling man of this county.

Uncle Davy Postleweight died at his home four miles north of the city last Friday night, July 28th, 1905, in his 86th year. He was one of the oldest citizens of the county. His wife and three children survive him, Joseph and Mandana, of this county, and Mrs. Tom Carter, of Kansas. The funeral was preached at the residence Sunday morning and the burial took place at Crooked Creek cemetery, Rev. E. B. Blackburn officiating. He was a member of Crooked Creek church for over a half century.

JAMES E. ENGLISH Fraternity Building
Paducah, Ky.

Dear Sir:—I take the liberty of calling your attention to the fact that my offices in the Fraternity Building in Paducah, Ky., for the purpose of handling speculative deals for my customers that cannot avail themselves of the opportunity of trading in the future markets are now open, and my reason of the fact that for business reasons they cannot spare the time nor afford to remain all day on the floor of any local brokerage house, and have found that they can not advantageously trade by mail, telephone or telegraph, and as you know, the successful trader is the man that can watch the board constantly, and take advantage of all sudden changes to "scalp" out a quarter or more profit at times, when to an inexperienced trader the market seems dull. This is a golden opportunity.

I have been very successful in handling deals for my clients, and have yet to record a loss in any transaction as a whole, and have made them a great deal of money. I have an experienced floor trader in the room of a local brokerage house with direct wires to Chicago, Kansas City, New Orleans and New York at all hours of the day, during market hours, and am better prepared to make you money than any broker that I can mention. I don't want to promise you too much, for as you know, there are two sides to the market and you can lose your money just as easily as you can win, but with the knowledge and experience that I command, I can assure you that you can overcome many obstacles and disadvantages of the average trader, and can make more money in the markets in the next thirty days than you ever dreamed of, provided you will allow yourself to be governed by me. My plans are completed for a big market "killing" in the near future, and it looks like there is no possible chance to miscarry, but you must remember that nothing is sure but "death and taxes."

I am inviting my friends to send me remittances, either by postoffice order, express or bank exchange, for sums, not less than $50 and not more than $500 each, to join in this discretionary pool, to share in profits and losses equally share and share alike, in proportion to the amount of their subscription to the pool, and when the deal is launched you will be advised, and on the closing of the same you will receive a statement of the transaction, and a check for any amount that is to your credit, unless you advise that I retain same and reinvest for you. A client of mine sent me $900 recently for himself and friend and it is a matter of record that I handled this money so that the earnings on same were a little in excess of $12,000 in sixty days. The opportunity to beat this record is here now, and before it is too late I would suggest that you remit me quick the amount that you think you can afford to risk on, the best speculative market that has occurred in the last ten years. All correspondence will be held sacred, and my charges are nothing unless we are successful, then I retain one-third of the profits, and remit you two-thirds and your principal. Your trade will receive protection from this pool that individual trades cannot enjoy and usually exhaust when original margins are consumed.

I earnestly advise you to send a trial remittance and allow me to demonstrate what I can do, and am sure you will be more than satisfied with the results. You are aware that unless this was absolutely the truth and a straight business transaction that I would be amenable to the United States postal laws, and no sane man will take that chance.

I hope to have the pleasure of hearing from you at once, with a remittance, and I would prefer you to send it by postoffice order, so that unless you desired it, no one would know of the "little flyer" you were taking in the market. Look at all the big fortunes of today. They were made principally by market trading, and it has come to be recognized as the only fast way a man can legitimately increase his wealth.

I am to be found in my suite of offices any business day after market hours, from 3 to 6 p. m., and invite a personal visit for private consultation; but in the meantime I urge you not to delay, but send a trial remittance and see the results.

Yours for prosperity,

IN SOCIETY

Misses Mildred and Dixie Trisler, the little daughters of Dr. J. W. Trisler, entertained the little folks at their home on Wilson Avenue, Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock p. m. The party was gotten up in a very unique way all being designed by the little girls which they styled their "Donkey Party." The invitations were written on little donkeys and the house was beautifully decorated with them, all being made of tin foil except the souvenirs which were hand painted. Several games were engaged in, one of which was the art of pinning on the donkey's tail, in which Miss Majorie Tonkin received the prize. Refreshments were served later in the evening and the merry party, of which there were twenty, adjourned.

Gray and Nanny Rochester delightfully entertained their friends last Thursday evening on their beautiful lawn in East Marion in honor of Emmett and Herbert Rogers, of Henderson. A most enjoyable evening was spent by all. Those present were Misses Gwendoline Haynes, Irene Browning, Mary Coffield, Isabelle and Willie Carliss, Bertha Fort, of Cadiz, Pearl Doss, Pearl Dunn, of Wichita, Kan., Mabel Yandell, Lizzie Gilbert, Maud Gil-land and Messrs. Maurice Sutherland, Maurice Boston, Willie Wat-kins, Dick Gilbert, Virgil Cox, Ray Flannery, Virgil Moore and Sylvan Plancy.

Miss Verna Pickens entertained Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Nell Gray, of Salem. A delightful evening was spent by the happy guests. Those who enjoyed Miss Verna's hospitality were Misses Kate Carter, of Levias, Miss Gray, Allie Yates, Bernice Driskill, Grace and Melville Akin and Sallie Bond, of Princeton, Betty Seyster and Clara Clopton, of Smithland and Messrs. Presley Guess, Arthur Watkins, Curtis Asher, Trice Bennett, Shaw and W. V. Haynes.

A reception was given by Mrs. E. J. Hayward at her beautiful home on Walker street Wednesday evening, in honor of her visitors, Misses Lillian Graves of Dycusburg and Pratt Spaulding of Morganfield. The spacious reception hall and parlors were thronged with happy guests. Entertaining music was rendered during the evening by Misses Spaulding and Graves. A contest entitled, "Noted Contemporary Celebrities" excited much sharpening of wits, and the most successful guessers were found to be Dr. R. J. Morris and Miss Pratt Spaulding, the prizes being a pearl stick pin, and a lovely cut glass vase. The booby prizes were awarded Miss Mabel Yandell and her partner. Delicious refreshments, consisting of punch, ices and cake, were served later in the evening. Those who enjoyed the merry festival were Misses Neil Cossitt, Mabel Yandell, Ina Price, Mildred Haynes, Muriel Freeman, Fannie and Bessie Woods, Mrs. D. D. Crabb and Messrs. R. J. Morris, C. W. Haynes, L. E. Gilbert, Hayward Williams, B. A. Babb, Bob Cook, Sidney E. Boyd of Kelsey and Prof. Victor G. Kee.

LEVIAS.

Miss Ethelyn Price delightfully entertained a number of her friends at her home on Tuesday evening July 25th, from seven till ten thirty, in honor of her birthday. The dining room was tastefully decorated and at 8:30 ices, cakes, etc. were served to refresh the merry throng. After refreshments were served music was most beautifully rendered by the charming hostess. Many handsome and useful presents were received.

Those present were Misses Ethelyn and Zetta Price, Ossie Gillis, Grace Belt, Gracie Taylor and Henrietta and Lucy Griffith, of Henderson, Messrs. John Grimes, Dr. J. E. Fox, James and Vernon Carter, Owen Threlkeld and Clarence Pearsons, of Pineknayville. A good time was enjoyed by all and after hearty wishes we bade her "good night."—A GUEST.

SUDDEN DEATH

Mary Woods, Colored Fell Dead at Uniontown, While Ascending the River Bank.

Mary Woods, a middle aged colored woman was overcome by a hemorrhage Wednesday afternoon while walking from the ferry boat to the bank above, and falling to the ground died in a few minutes.

Accompanied by a colored driver she had driven down from Mt. Vernon. After crossing the river in a skiff, she got out of the boat at the ferry landing and stepping from the ferry boat began to ascend the bank. When about half way up, she experienced a dreadful hemorrhage, and falling to the ground expired almost instantly.

She had been working at Mt. Vernon, but owing to her ill health was on her way back to her home in Marion. Her intention was to remain here over night, and leave for Marion. Coroner Adcock, of Morganfield, was notified of her death as soon as possible and came and took a statement of the facts surrounding her death.

Her remains were taken to the home of Beverly Rollins, remaining there until yesterday afternoon, when they were sent to Marion.—Uniontown Telegram.

SALEM.

Mr. Will Melkin and wife visited Mr. John McClure last Sunday.

CALIFORNIA

Do you want to live where the climate is mild where labor is never oppressed by stress of weather, animal vitality is never lost by mere conflict with cold?

Do you want to live in a region where the resources are varied than in any other equal area in the world, where the dream of great ranches affords a fine opportunity to get a small farm that will assure you a comfortable life?

Do you want to live where, with a minimum of labor, you can grow profitable crops of grapes and small fruit, oranges, lemons, olives, prunes, and almonds, alfalfa and grain, where crops are sure, business is good and capital is the most profitable investment?

Then go to California, where both health and opportunity await your coming.

The Chicago, Union Pacific and North-Western Line is the most direct route to the Pacific Coast, and there are two fast through trains daily via this line over the famous double-track railway between Chicago and the Missouri River.

Special low round-trip rates are in effect via this line throughout the summer to various Pacific Coast points, and colonist low rate one-way tickets will be on sale during September and October, which give an unusual chance for settlers to make the trip at a minimum cost.

Daily and personally conducted excursions are operated through to San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Portland without change, on which a double berth in a Pullman tourist sleeping car from Chicago costs only $7.00, via the

Save I-2 Your Paint Bills

By using Weir's Bavarian White Lead, the most durable and therefore the most economical lead or paint made. It has zinc in it. The zinc gives the paint a beautiful gloss and prevents the lead from destroying the linseed oil which is the life of ALL PAINT. "Pure Lead" by itself will eat and destroy the linseed oil, thus causing the paint to become porous or open and dust off. Weir's Bavarian White Lead is better and cheaper than mixed paints because one-half of every gallon of mixed paint is linseed oil for which you pay $1.50 per gallon and get an old, stale, unsound linseed oil. Buy fresh oil from your dealer's barrel at its true value. 4 1-2 gallons linseed oil and 100 pounds of Weir's Lead will make 6 1-2 gallons best paint ready to use, that will cost you no more than other standard brands of lead and much less than mixed paint and will last twice as long as either. Write D. T. Weir White Lead Co., St. Louis, Mo., for their booklet "Facts About White Lead." Weir's Bavarian White Lead is for sale by Cochran & Pickens, Marion, Ky.

THURSDAY, AUG. 3, 1905.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce T. H. COCHRAN, of Marion, as a candidate for Representative from the counties of Crittenden and Livingston, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

How About Governor James?

The Crittenden Press contains this beautiful editorial tribute to LOC, townsman, Judge Thomas James, appropos of the newspaper going the rounds about him as governor. Every word of it is a gem of Judge Nunn is true.

The views of the Crittenden Press are just, but the Press ought to know by this time that there is no foundation for the talk of Judge Nunn's candidacy for governor. He would not exchange his present exalted place on the appellate bench for the executive office. The Press ought to know.

James and, confidently predicts for him a brilliant political career. But this is not to be achieved in the humdrum life of a Kentucky Governor. Keep out in the open, Ollie. The National eye will eventually size you up all right, if it has not already done so. Just now Mr. James has the right position. His strong point is oratory and he is in a splendid fornic school in which he will rapidly forge to the front. He is in a position now to acquire those subtle arts of statecraft so necessary to one occupying the high positions in the councils of the nation he is destined to fill and there for the present he probably prefers to remain. In this or any other race he enters we are for him for anything he wants; first and because he is a product of Kentucky, and of Crittenden county and of the city of Marion. And if Mr. James is forced to yield to the persistence of his friends in this matter, the Press will yield to none in the zeal, heartiness and sincerity of its support.

An innovation in the handling of contagious epidemics is the assignment of Surgeon-General of the U. S. Army Walter Wyman to take charge of the fight against the yellow fever in New Orleans. He is vested with full authority to combat the spread of the disease and to employ drastic measures if necessary. The authorities and leading business citizens insist that there is no cause for alarm, but the head of the medical branch of the army will remain in charge of the situation until the scourge has passed. In his work he will be assisted by Dr. John Guiteras, the famous yellow fever expert, who is a native of Cuba, and has had long experience in that home of the dread malady. Dr. Guiteras's services were gratefully accepted by former Superintendent Sternberg during the epidemic of the fever in 1889, and has taken an active part in every outbreak in this country since. His success in combatting the ravages of the disease has established his reputation as the foremost authority on the subject today. He is now at New Orleans.

Some old croakers who have nothing to do and who would not do anything if they could get a job, except sit around and whittle and grumble, predict that Greater Marion is building too much and too fast and that there's nothing to warrant it or back it up. Such men were in Chicago when it was swept from the face of the earth and they are now buried in oblivion, while Potter Palmer, Marshall Field, Geo. Pullman, Cyrus McCormick and their hundreds of financial backers, have made names which will go down to posterity as great benefactors, and builded fortunes the equal of which is not known in the history of the world for the time occupied. In comparison our business men are in the same position. They are displaying backbone and nerve, which such emergencies require. The Press takes off its hat to Greater Marion and its business men, and will wager a dollar to a doughnut that Marion will be a better and bigger town long before these same old croakers are laid away.

A rumor is being circulated to the effect that the city health officer served a "clean up" notice on the publishers of the Record and as a result Joe Bourland, Jasper Riggins, Herman Parmenter, Jones Gill and are closely scanning the "Help Wanted" columns of the daily papers.

The yellow fever in New Orleans has assumed proportion where it becomes a menace to the entire South, not only as regards health, but in a business point of view. The disease is slowly increasing in area, notwithstanding the rigid shotgun quarantine and the heroic efforts being made by the authorities and citizens of New Orleans to stamp out the disease in their midst. A rigid quarantine extending as far up the river as Memphis has been instituted against New Orleans, and the quarantine is so strict in the States of Alabama and Mississippi as to render the transportation of passengers by rail through those States almost prohibitive. Our latest accounts state that the disease is being systematically fought by the authorities, assisted by the U. S. Marine service, with the most hopeful results.

James M. Persons is getting every thing in shape at the AdamsFlorence mine. A mining expert said this morning that the Muncie capitalists had made a big deal in getting that mine. He said it was worth $50,000 more than they gave for it.

Eddyville, our ancient and honorable neighboring city of the hills, on Cumberland river, has waterworks. Shame on you, Marion!

The Farmers' Club.

VIEW, KY., July 31, 1905.—Mr. S. M. Jenkins—Dear Sir: I am just in receipt of a letter from the Commissioner of Agriculture of Ky. and in response to a letter that I wrote him asking him if Aug. 14, county court day, would meet with his approval to be with us and he assures me he will send a representative to be with us on that date, to assist us in organizing a Farmers' Club, and requests me to have it announced in your paper. Please have the call that you issued formerly and in addition request every farmer in Crittenden county to attend. Please talk it up, Marshall and let's have a big turnout. By doing so you will very greatly oblige.

Yours respectfully,
CHAS. W. FOX

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Miss Neil Cossitt is visiting relatives in Salem this week.

Mrs. Cavender will soon move to the corner now occupied by Ray Bros and desires to close out all ladies shirt waists before moving. Some bargains, call and see them.

LOST, STOLEN or STRAYED—2 horse mules, 14 and 14 1/2 hands high a sorrel and a bay, from Mrs. Elvira Deboe's farm 1 1/2 miles from Farmersville, Caldwell county. Will pay for their recovery. DAVIS CRIDER, Crayneville, Ky.

Mrs. Nancy Jane O'Neal, of Baker school house vicinity, sent to her father, Squire W. H. Asher, and to the Press office this week, some very fine apples which weighed 17 ounces each and which had a flavor fit for a queen. The Press, especially, is proud to see such fruit grown in Crittenden county and is obliged for the gift.

Miss Irbelle Carlross entertained at the residence of J. B. Kevil last Friday evening from 8 to 11 in honor of Miss Bertha Fort, of Cadiz. The house was beautifully decorated in pink and green which added much to the attraction of the occasion. Punch was served during the evening by Misses Lena Holtsclaw and Alma Asher. Beautiful music was rendered by several guests. Many games and contests were indulged in. L. E. Gilbert winning first prize. Elegant refreshments were served later in the evening.

R. T. Mayes, who has been an enterprising stock buyer and trader here for several years, expects to go west this fall and will invest in a plantation or ranch in the west. He expects to go soon to "look around" and will buy the best thousand acres of farm land he can find in the west. Mr. Mayes is a big-hearted, thoroughbred Kentuckian and will be missed from this section as much probably as any man we could name. It is never too cold or too hot, too wet or too dry for Dick Mayes to ride into town if the spirit moved him.

Mrs. Thomas, the venerable mother of James Thomas, the Tolu mail carrier, met with quite a painful accident Wednesday at noon, in being thrown from the back. The accident was caused by the breaking of an axle, which frightened the team and caused them to runaway and Mrs. Thomas in attempting to get out was thrown violently to the ground breaking her left arm above the elbow and sustaining other painful bruises. The accident occurred in front of S. H. Ramage's residence on Bellville street, and was carried in and Dr. Driskill was hastily summoned. He dressed the wounded member and thinks that Mrs. Thomas will suffer no great inconvenience, notwithstanding her age. No other casualties occurred.

To Sell Next Week.

Sorrel mare, twelve years old, gentle and splendid family animal, safe for women and children to drive. Also a bay horse, sixteen hands high, eleven years old, no blemish and a good buggy horse, will work anywhere. Either can be bought cheap for cash. T. A. CONWAY.

For midsummer, wear new Duck hats. DENMAN & LOVE.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mr. Editor—Please announce The Ohio River Baptist Association will meet Blooming Grove Church, Livingston county, Wednesday, Aug. 23rd at ten o'clock. Eld. J. S. Henry, of Marion will preach the introductory sermon. A full representation from the churches is desired. Prominent ministers and educators of the denomination are expected. The various interests of the church will be discussed. Standing Committee will report upon the work of the denomination. W. R. Gibbs, Mod. R. A. LaRoe, Clerk.

CAVE-IN-ROCK.

A company of gentlemen from Williamson county organized under the firm name of Illinois Lead, Spar Zine and Coal Mining Company, have taken an option on the land of Joseph Mason, and are putting up machinery. They calculate to start their 2 1/2 inch cyclone drill August 1st and are prepared to go down 250 feet at first, but claim they can sink to a depth of 1,000 feet if necessary. They seem to be men of push and energy. Their engine and machinery was put off the boat here July 29th, that looks like business. Hardin county is the field for capitalists to investigate.

Telegraphy.

Write now for our Telegraphy Catalog. All the graduates secure positions. Address H. H. Cherry, Bowling Green, Kentucky.

A Pleasant Affair.

ED. PRESS: There was a big ice cream supper at Mr. Chas. E. Slaydon's last Friday evening. The table and seats were in the yard which was decorated beautifully. Several games of "snap" were playing during the evening, while one and all enjoyed chin music. The cakes were delicious, and the best cream I ever saw at an entertainment. It was just what was needed, but good, rich cream. People from everywhere were present and all enjoyed the affair exceedingly. A GUEST.

A Good Time.

Marion was well represented at the Crittenden Springs last Monday night by a jolly crowd of hay riders who left the city about 7:30 o'clock. Watermelons added much to the pleasure of the occasion together with chewing gum and candy. Those who composed the merry party were Misses Bertha Fort, of Cadiz, Pearl Dunn, of Wichita, Kan., Bernice Driskill, Ellis Gray, Willie and Irbelle Carlross, Grace Moore, Nellie Sutherland, Muriel Freeman, Pearl Doss and Messrs. Presley Guess, Tom Cameron, Maurice and John Sutherland, Roscoe Rochester, Norman Henry, Gray Rochester, Emmet Rogers, of Henderson, and Noble Hill. Misses Della Fugate and Flora Ryan chaperoned.

It is pleasant, in the soft, pensive light of a midnight lamp, when half of those we hold in earnest and affectionate remembrance. We are thus enabled to draw into holy communion with ourselves—dear friends separated from us by mountain barriers or the grand and final barrier of death.
And there is a gentle charity pervading these midnight reveries that makes us recall, sadly, yet not unkindly, even the astray, their imperfections vanish into darkness like birds of night, while their virtues glide before us on white wings. But possibly the special charm of such a dreamy hour, is the hope that where-soever they are they are of whom we think, think also of us. I have been thinking of a poem I read many years ago, entitled, the "Song of Death," and the sweet old bard's peerless, priceless song of death has set me dreaming, with that peaceful sadness so mournful yet so tender, of precious friends hid in death's dateless night.

I have passed an hour or two in such thoughtfulness; or at least I had been thinking so long of those gone into the shadows; and clouds, and forgetfulness of by-gone years, that I felt as if I, too, were a shade drifting into an unknown realm.
Time in his slippery feet comes stepping along noiselessly. The days come softly dawning the one after the other; creeping in at the windows their fresh morning air so grateful to the lips that pant for it, until, before we know it a whole life of days have has possession of the citadel, and Time had taken us for his own.

Yet life is not always sweet; hands may be heavy laden, hearts full of care, and divine dreams end in dull awakenings; still it is life and life is cause for praise. Death and Life are the two-wings which bear man from earth to heaven.
It is excellent for the mind to run over the pages of memory again, not only to recall former pleasures, but to realize what is actually implied in the worn phrases about the flight of time and the changes of this world.

In the heyday of my youth, with the dreams of life spread out before me, woven in bright colors—I loved.
All men do, at some time in their early youth. Each man in his time sees a woman whom he sets before him as an idol, and falls down and worships as though she were heaven-born. This woman to this man is a saint—angelic virtues dwell in her; she is clothed in a celestial armor of innocence, truth and simplicity. I, in my youth, came within their influence. I in my youth set up within my soul an angel—an angel upon earth. A divine emanation, wherein a niche in her heart would sanctify my life and make me better and fitter for the world to come. I saw upon her face a smile which nature gave her—a smile of heavenly sweetness

once and procure the remedy and take along this guarantee.

pressed my hand with an adieu, she placed the other upon my head and with seeming great effort, and in an almost inaudible tone said: "Farewell! God's peace be with you." I felt as if I had received the blessing of a saint indeed, and for years afterward that uttered blessing was in my mind and seemed a guardian angel about my path. Gloomy unbelief may deride and thoughtless levity may laugh in ridicule at such an intimation, but all the philosophy of the schools could not give me such exquisite feelings of security in the hands of a kind Providence as my darling's blessing imparted. She was the picture of patient suffering; faith and hope beamed in her eye, and I felt within my heart that angels bowed as she passed by.

On a Monday in March, 1848, there was a sad eye watching that black procession as it passed from the house to the church and from the church to the grave. It had snowed and the snow lay thick upon the graves, and the day was cold and dreary. They laid her in the grave.
Pale and trembling I stood there and as the coffin went down involuntarily my fingers closed firmly in the palms
—I gave no sob but intently gazed on the casket that contained my jewel until the cruel crumbled earth shut out from view my last, my earthly all.

She was gone,—gone from me forever. I stood a few minutes reading the words on the tombstones to assure myself that all the happy and unhappy past was a reality. When the earth was thrown on my darling's coffin and I turned to depart I saw my sweet one's spirit lingering with outstretched wings on the edge of the grave. She cast one loving look —smiled—and took flight forever!

pupil whose ignorance of his Testait not been so appalling. One Sunday she asked the little fellow how many commandments there were.

To her surprise, the lad answered, glibly enough, "Ten, ma'am."
"And now, Sammy," pleasantly asked the teacher, "what would be the result if you should break one of them?"
"Then there'd be nine!" triumphantly answered the youngster.—

Obituary.
The angel of death visited the home of W. E. Stephenson and claimed for his own his aged father, John M. Stephenson, who departed this life Saturday morning, July 15, 1905, at the age of 86 years.
The record having been lost we could not give the exact date of his birth, but we have learned he was born in the year 1818, in Campbell county, Ky.
He married Elizabeth Myers in 1845. He professed faith in Christ in 1838, and united with the Presbyterian church and remained a member of that church until October, 1903, when he united with the old Salem Baptist church, giving as his reason that he thought the Baptist the true church, and also that he had never been scripturally baptized. Grandpa, as he was called by all, was a close Bible reader, hence his decision.
Mr. Stephenson moved to Crittenden county, Ky., in 1889, and with his children settled near Crittenden springs, and in 1901 he, with his son, W. E. Stephenson, moved to Livingston county and settled on the Green farm two miles north of Pinckneyville, where he remained until his death.
John M. Stephenson has been since his conversion a staunch christian and a strong advocate of right and justice, and complied with the requirements of the golden rule in his dealings with all mankind. While we do not believe in human perfection, we believe Brother Stephenson came as near to it as is possible in this life.
He was loved by all who knew him and many friends join us in sympathy for the bereaved family.
After services at Pinckneyville church conducted by his pastor, Rev. U. G. Hughes, and further remarks by Rev. J. J. Franks, his remains were laid to rest in the Pinckneyville church cemetery to await that great day when our bodies shall come forth and shall be adopted into God's family, and dwell forever with God and the Lamb.
He has passed forever beyond the utmost reach of human harm or help and those he left behind in love and reverence, have given their last salutation to the aged grandfather until in some brighter clime they may meet and greet each other in blissful reunion.

Luster Captured.

Ogden, Utah, Aug. 12.—"I did kill her, but if I did I was either drunk or crazy."

This remarkable confession was made here today by Percy J. Luster, who is wanted in Guthrie, Ky., at which place his wife was found in bed with a bullet through her brain on July 29, and is the result of the untiring efforts of chief of police, detective Pender and police captain Brown, who effected the arrest of Luster last Thursday last. The evidence unearthed was too much for the prisoner, who when told that his wife Ella was dead, said "My God! dead!" Luster then fell into a half swoon and cried piteously.

Guthrie, Ky., Aug. 12.—The report that a reward had been offered for the capture of P. J. Luster is erroneous, Mrs. Luster's family saying that all they desire is not to see Luster again. City Marshal Burres will leave for Utah as soon as extradition papers can be secured. Luster agrees to return to Guthrie without the papers but the Marshal wishes to be prepared for emergencies.

A telegram received by Marshal Burres upon his return from Nashville reads:

"P. J. Luster has made full confession of crime. He is your man; will hold him till you come."

"BROWNING, Chief of Police."

Notes of Interest.

Archbishop Claiborne of the Diocese of New Orleans died last week from an attack of fever. He was a popular and beloved prelate.

Hugo Seldenfaden of Louisville, was the victim of a car accident the other day. His crossing Jacob's bridge at intersection of Breckinridge street and Beargrass creek when the globe of an electric arc light broke and fell. A section of the globe fell and struck Seldenfaden in the face, severing nose, which, however, hung on by mere thread of cuticle. Hospitalized member in place Seldenfaden hastened to his home where medical attention was obtained. Physician replaced the nose but doubt as to the success of the operation.

Kansas City, Aug. 9.—By upholding the "right" of wives to pickpocket's pockets at night, Judge of a division of the court, has stepped into a light. His mail is heavy with letters commenting on his ruling. On being, in seeking divorce, told of the indignities inflicted upon him and wound up by saying: "It is almost invariably we, the men, who pickpocket the women's pockets."

Par make you go through their hands. A wife has the right to pickpocket her husband's pockets. This divorce is granted, "on the grounds of adultery."

N. M. Love Dead.

N. M. Love, whose sickness was mentioned in the Voice last week, died at his residence on Main street last Sunday morning at 9 o'clock after an illness of about ten days. He had not been very well for quite a while but was not considered in a serious condition until a few days before his death.

He was born at Fredonia, Ky., April 10th, 1839, and was the last of a family of 12 children. He was a son of Rev. F. C. Love, a pioneer who reached Kentucky about 45 years and the subject of this sketch was a consistent member of the same church and an elder in the same church for more than thirty years. Mr. Love was also a Mason in good standing holding a demit from the Fredonia, K., Lodge 247 A. F. & A. M.

He came to Texas about three years ago and lived at Bonham, Cleburne, and Ft. Worth, and about two months ago moved to this place, where he expected to be a farmer and locate permanently.

The children of the family were all present at his demise, except a daughter, Mrs. Minnie, of Paducah, Ky., who was delayed, but arrived in time to attend the funeral. Services were held at the residence of the family Monday evening, conducted by Rev. Bass, after which the remains, accompanied by the deceased's eldest son Quince, left for the old home in Kentucky, where they will be deposited in the city of the dead among those he knew and loved since his childhood days.

The deceased leaves a wife and several children and we extend to the family our sympathy in their great bereavement. —Kemp (Tex.) Voice.

The Press of the World.

We have an exhibition at this office a collection of newspapers from all over the world which are printed in various languages and dialects. This is probably the most interesting collection of newspapers ever received in this city. They are sent to us by the Chamberlain Medicine Co., of Des Moines, Iowa, and every one of them contains the advertisement of this company's remedies. It may not be known to our readers that large advertisers receive a copy of every paper containing their advertisements and every notice is scrutinized closely to see that it conforms to the contract. The Chamberlain Medicine Co. advertises in nearly every town in the United States and in nearly every part of the civilized globe, and is probably no other institution in this country that receives so great a number and variety of newspapers.

Ladies goods is my specialty, ladies wants at cost for a few days. Mrs. CAVENDER.

Poisons in Food.

Perhaps you don't realize that many pain poisons originate in your food, but some day you may feel a twinge of dyspepsia that will convince you. Dr. King's New Life Pills are guaranteed to cure all sickness due to poisons of undigested food—or money back. 25c at Woods & Orme drug store. Try them.

Save 1-2 Your Paint Bills

By using Weir's Bavarian White Lead, the most durable and therefore the most economical lead or paint made. It has zinc in it. The zinc gives the paint a beautiful gloss and prevents the lead from destroying the linseed oil which is the life of ALL PAINT. "Pure Lead" by itself will eat and destroy the linseed oil, thus causing the paint to become porous or open and dust off. Weir's Bavarian White Lead is better and cheaper than mixed paints because one-half of every gallon of mixed paint is linseed oil for which you pay $1.50 per gallon and get an old, stale, unsound linseed oil. Buy fresh oil from your dealer's barrel at its true value. 4 1-2 gallons linseed oil and 100 pounds of Weir's Lead will make 6 1-2 gallons best paint ready to use, that will cost you no more than other standard brands of lead and much less than mixed paint and will last twice as long as either. Write D. T. Weir White Lead Co., St. Louis, Mo., for their booklet "Facts About White Lead." Weir's Bavarian White Lead is for sale by Cochran & Pickens, Marion, Ky.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce T. H. COCHRAN, of Marion, as a candidate for Representative from the counties of Crittenden and Livingston, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The yellow fever situation at New Orleans appears to be slightly improved and the fever scare is measurably subsiding. In New Orleans the disease is confined to the Italian quarter and outside of the city the quarantine seems to be proving effective in preventing the spread of the fever.

Today will perhaps decide the issue of continued hostilities or peace between Russia and Japan, provided the critical portion of the program is reached. Thus far the plenipotentiaries of the two governments have worked together very harmoniously and have made rapid progress; but the danger point has not yet been reached, and can not possibly be passed without either one or the other of these great powers making very serious concessions.

The West Ky. Coal Cor have had a surveying party in the field this week making surveys along Tradewater river in order to make an estimate in placing locks and dams in that stream to give sufficient coal boat water and storage pools. The survey shows that there is a fall of about 10 feet between the old Miner's shaft and the mouth of the river. It is needless to mention that locks and dams in Tradewater would make that tributary of great importance to Sturgis and would lead to the quick development of the vast coal territory along its course.—Sturgis News-Democrat.

The large turnout of farmers on Monday last was sufficient evidence that they are fully aroused to their own interests and the importance of organization. The plans perfected at this meeting, if carried out with the spirit and intent which actuated the farmers, are bound to result beneficially to the agricultural interests of the community. "In a multitude of counsel there is wisdom," and so our agricultural friends will find in this instance. The fact is too patent to need further proof, that the farmers of Crittenden county not kept step with the spirit of the times and it will be the duty of the Club to search out for the remedy. Properly conducted, the Press anticipates great benefit from the labors of Death of Mrs. Sarah O Neal.

Sarah Josephine O Neal, wife of Hice O Neal, in the neighborhood of Baker school house, died Tuesday morning, Aug. 8th, at 7 o'clock, of stomach trouble, with which she was afflicted for a year or more.

She was born Oct. 17th, 1853, making her age at the time of her death 51 years and 10 months, lacking a few days.

She left eight children, three at home and five married.

She was a Christian for many years and belonged to the Baptist church at Baker. The interment took place there Thursday and was attended by a large concourse of friends and relatives.

Mrs. O Neal was the third child of Squire W. H. Asher and wife of this city, and her aged parents are bowed with grief at their affliction.

She was married Nov. 23d, 1871, to H. O Neal, who survives with 8 children, as follows: Mrs. Clara Conger, Crooked Creek; Will O Neal, farmer; Nile O Neal, farmer; Curtis, Bertha and Nonie O Neal, at home; Mrs. Mary Phelps, of Wheatcroft; and James O Neal of Mattoon; all of whom are good citizens and to whom the Press extends sympathy in their great loss.

A Female Fiend.

Grayling, Mich., Aug. 12.—Mrs. Naomi Aldrich, of Frederic, is in the county jail here charged with the murder of her two little boys, aged ten and twelve years. There was insurance on their lives amounting to fifty dollars in each case, and the story is that the children were murdered to get the money.

Mrs. Aldrich, who is twenty-eight years of age, has been twice married; first to Bert Soule at West Branch, in 1892. Soule died in 1902 and was the father of the two boys the woman is accused of having murdered. The widow married George Aldrich at West Branch in 1903. Aldrich was a divorced man. They had lived together but a few months, one child being born to them which died in its infancy. Aldrich left her and went to Cleveland and Mrs. Aldrich came to Frederic over a year ago.

An Interesting Meeting.

The District Board of Ohio River Association engaged Elder John Lockhart and the writer to hold a protracted meeting at Mullikan, Livingston county. The meeting commenced the fifth Sunday in July and continued two weeks, resulting in quite a number of professions and baptisms. Christians were greatly built up and the cause strengthened. This is quite an important field on account of extensive mining operations, with fine farming lands. The Board would do well to keep a man in the field for awhile at least.

R. A. LARUE.

Card Of Thanks.

I desire to thank all my neighbors and friends who so kindly ministered to my little daughter, Lula, in her last illness. May Heaven's blessings be upon them. SANFORD TURLEY.

NEW SALEM.

Reuben Wheeler has a very sick child.

We had a light rain the past week; late crops needs a good rain to make anything.

Our section was nearly depopulated last Sunday. Everybody that could went to Hampton.

Very little plowing for wheat so far owing to there being no rain to put the ground in order for plowing.

Frank Caperton, of Anna, Ills., is the guest of his parents and sister this week.

W. A. Davidson & Co. have moved their sawmill on to the farm of Henry Brouster and are now cutting lumber.

Our people are taking a rest; but few can get work in the mines, and very little tobacco growing, leaves but little to market.

Dr. Fox of Levas was the guest of his friend, John Harpending last Sunday.

Brown McWhister, of Evansville, Ind., is at home on a visit to his parents.

Now is the time to work the public highway. Our road supervisor, Lan Harpending, has his hands out this week trying to make his road section possible.

Miss Jennie Clement's school at New Salem is progressing; the attendance is not so large as it would be, owing to the presence of whooping cough in the district.

The fruit crop in this section is about an entire failure.

Willie Fuller has gone to Carrsville to see his brother Cleveland, who is very sick.

Miss Ruby Castleberry will open her millinery store on Sept. 1st at McConnell & Stone's new store. All will remember her as she has trimmed here before.

CARRSVILLE.

Foster Babb and wife of Salem visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

Charley Watson is mail carrier between here and Salem now.

J. W. Hutchinson and wife are visiting relatives in White county, Ill., this week.

Prof Wright was in town Wednesday.

Misses Lillian Love and Ora Trimble began their schools at Eli and Crawford, respectively, Monday.

John Hughey, who visited his uncle, A. M. Abbott, for ten days, returned to his home in Covington on Friday.

Mrs. Brazil has moved to Marion. A large number from here attended the Hampton camp meeting this week.

ROSE J.D.

Bros Rowland and Larkins have just closed a very successful meeting here.

Hubert Burton of Mattoon, passed through here Wednesday en route to Blackford.

Miss Ursie Phillips, of Sullivan, is visiting friends here.

Jesse Duvall of Baton attended prayer-meeting here last Saturday night.

Miss Vienna Robes is teaching the Applegate school which began Monday.

Master Lonnie C. of Rodney, visited here recently.

Ivan Thurman, of Blackford, was here Saturday.

Ben B. Franklin and family visited relatives near Sullivan Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Mattie Berry, who has been visiting at Dr. Franklin's for several days, has returned home.

Mrs. Elizabeth Burns of Mattoon visited here Sunday.

Gathering.

A good meeting was held at Donaldson church, Adwell county, commencing the Sunday in July and continuing 8 days, and resulting in over 40 unions and 35 baptisms. With the assistance of Rev. Hodgeston, J. W. Davis and the adjoining brothers. Hearty co-operation of church and to God be all glory.
B. BLACKBURN.

Every one is invited to call at McConnell & Stone's new store and the elegant line of millinery which Miss Ruby Castleberry will open Sept 1.

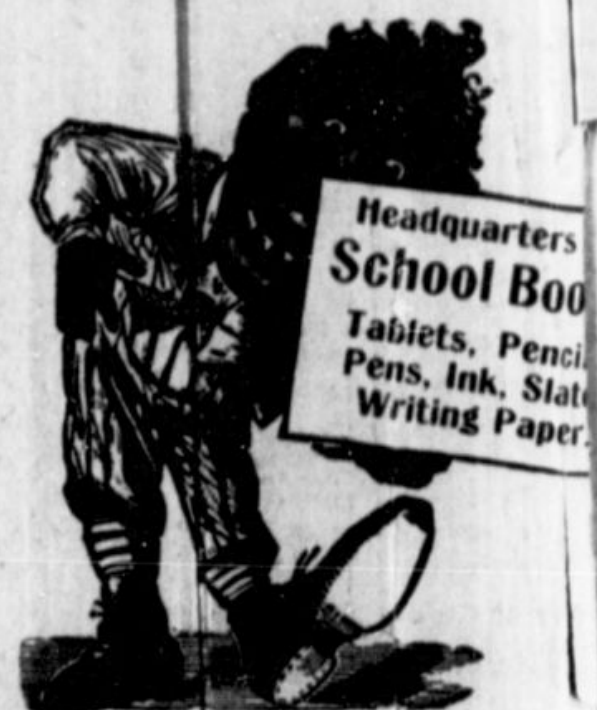

Colored Aveyed Notice.

The friends the dead at Siloam graveyard sweet tire on the second day of September to clean it off and well filled baskets. The G. A. Post will meet in honor of the deceased.

 Mrs. Thos. E. Hearin and children left yesterday for Ft. Branch, Ind., to join her husband who is in business there. They shipped their household goods last week.
 Mrs. Percy Noggle and little daughter, Leona, returned to their home in DeKoven Saturday after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Wallingford, several days.
 Miss Ida Duvall returned from Tennessee Saturday evening after visiting relatives in Curve, Dyersburg, Fowlkes and Hall. Mr. Chas. Duvall accompanied her home.
 Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Strachley, of Cincinnati, O., arrived in the city this morning to visit her mother Mrs. Carrie Maxwell, for a few days. They expect to leave for Ardmore, I. T., their future home, about Sept. 1.
 R. C. Crenshaw, assistant commissioner, told the farmers that he would use his influence to get the Agricultural Train, to be sent out some time this fall, to include Marion in its territory. Should it stop here due notice of its coming will appear in the Press.
 Mrs. Lucy Boaz Harrell, of St. Louis, and her children, Maurine and Florine Pierce, are the guests of her mother, Mrs. Electa Frisbee, on Bellville street. Mrs. Harrell has recently returned from an extended visit to the north, and Omaha and Lincoln, Neb.
 Butler Crisp, of Piggott, Ark., was in the city Monday and will spend several days in the vicinity visiting his friends. He speaks in glowing terms of north-eastern Arkansas which he says has not been affected by the rainy season, the land round his town being undulating and not swampy.
 Miss Ruby Castleberry who will open a new stock of millinery at McConnell & Stone's new store, is now in the city studying the fashions. She will select the choicest creation of the millinery's art and her opening will be one that you will never forget if you attend. She displays great talent in trimming and will have a hat that will make you look pretty. Be sure to call on her for it.
 S. McKearney, an aged citizen of the Crittenden Springs vicinity, was painfully and seriously hurt last Saturday in a runaway. He was descending a hill near his home in his buggy when the harness broke and let the buggy run up on the horse which began to run and kick. Mr. McKearney's leg was broken just below the knee and the bone considerably crushed. Dr. Shively was called and he considered his condition critical on account of his age.
 Invitations were issued last Thursday for the celebration of Miss Lena Terry nineteenth birthday, at the beautiful country home of her father, Z. Terry, northwest of the city. The lucky recipients were Misses Mildred Haynes, Inez Price, Ellis Gray, Mayme Hubbard, Cora Melton, Gustaf Haynes and Sadie Rankin. Those Marion, and among the out of town guests were Misses Fenwick and A. Wathen. Those who were able to attend pronounced the affair a very delightful one, and Miss Lena a most able hostess.

 Just as we go to press we learn W. L. Hurst, who lives on the Shady Grove road died at 2:40 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. He married a daughter of W. H. Woolf who died at 1 o'clock same day.
 Squire Wm. H. Woolf, of Irma Hill vicinity, died of cancer on his face about 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. No arrangements for his funeral had been made up to the hour of going to press. He leaves besides his wife, four children, Jno, T. of Salem; Robert, of Mexico; Franklin, of Iron Hill; and Mrs. Lottie Hurst, of this county. Mr. Woolf has always been an upright citizen and progressive farmer and during his life amassed a great fortune which he recently distributed among his children.
 Mrs. Julia A. Binkley wife of Wm. Binkley, the merchant of View, died Saturday Aug. 12th at 10 o'clock of typhoid fever. She was in her 38th year and left besides her husband eight children. She was a Miss Hankins and was married to Wm. Binkley March 11th 1885. Although not a member of any church she was a christian and lived and died in the hope of salvation. The burial took place at Ciccos Chapel Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and was attended by a large concourse of friends and relatives.
 In honor of Miss Eva Johnson, of Fordsville, Ky., Mrs. Lon T. Johnson entertained Wednesday evening August 9th from 8:30 to 11. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of the popular depot agent's home were Misses Grace Moore, Pearl and Lily Doss, Mabel Guess, Bernice Driskill, Verna Pickens and Messrs. Tom Cameron, Lottie Gilbert, Presley Guess, Leroy J. Shrode, Maurice Sutherland, Trice Bennett and Bruce Babb. Brick cream, sherbert and cake were served during the evening and all the guests were delighted to meet Miss Johnson and spent the evening most pleasantly.
 Last Wednesday evening the beautiful home of J. P. Pierce was filled with happy young folks who were guests of Mrs. A. S. Carender, who entertained in honor of her niece, Irene Browning, of Evansville, Ind., who has been spending the summer with her. Among the young folks who accepted her gracious hospitality were the following: Misses Elsie Gray, Allie May Yates, Eula Thurman, Madeline Jenkins, Annie Dean, Nannie Rochester, Mabel Yandell and Mary Finley; Messrs. Curtis Asher, Curtis Pickens, Virgil Moore, Sylvan Price, Gray Rochester, Herbert Rodgers, Emmett Koltisky and Will McConnell. Mrs. Isabelle Carlioss assisted Miss Browning in entertaining. Games and contests were engaged in much to the delight of all present. Later all were invited to the spacious dining room where refreshments, dainty and delicious, were served, consisting of fruits, ices, confections and cakes.

Homer Moore was brought home by his parents Tuesday night from Evansville sanitarium. Dr. W. T. daughtrey went up to accompany them. He is still improving.
Mrs. Howell Entertains.
 On last Tuesday evening that universally loved matron, Mrs. G. W. Howell, ably assisted by Mrs. Edna Adams, entertained over a score of her many friends at her pleasant home two miles north of Marion, the occasion being due to Miss Carrie Hughes' birthday.
 The weather being clear and favorable the guests had all arrived by 8:30 o'clock, and from that time the "fun" began by pinning the donkey's tail on, and from that as an introduction until the departure, not a moment did the merry young people lose in taking advantage of opportunity and having a spanking good time.
 Many were the games the gay young hearts indulged in during the fleeting hours, every game being especially enlivened by the participation of every guest, who was not lured into dreamland by the entrancing music afforded by competent musicians.
 The whole house wore a cheerful, inviting aspect, but oh, my! what a thrill animated every breast as they entered that artistically arranged dining room.
 The table was bedecked with dazzling lights, fragrant flowers, choicest fruits, daintiest ices and delightful cakes, and naturally enough the heart of man lingered near such an interesting place until time was up.
 After all the good things had been eaten, all the games and contests engaged in, and the house turned topsy turvy, the pleasure seekers made their departure, declaring Mrs. Howell an extraordinary entertainer and wishing Miss Carrie might live to experience many another such birthday: of course they were thinking partially of themselves when they made this wish.
 Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Howell, beside the guest of honor, were: Misses Lillie Gilbert, Pearl Morrel, Alma Postlethweight, Josie and Carrie Ford, Nellie Carter, of Okla., Lillie Guess, Ethel Hard, Messrs James Wilborn, Claud Guess, Chas. Conger, Gip Worley, Charles Gilbert, Taylor Lucas, Emmet Lucas, Amil Knoch, Albert Conger and Harry Vaughn.

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, and other medicine, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people who seek to profit, through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease, for over 35 years. A sure protection to you is our name on the wrapper. Look for it on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada.

Letter from Texas.

RHODE, TEX. Aug 7, 1905.—ED. PRESS: Enclosed please find money order, for which please "keep the Press comin'."

Mr. Jenkins, if you will have patience I will tell you of our trip to Galveston recently. We left home at Ft. Worth July 22, via M. & K. & T., and reached Houston at 9:10 p. m. rather tired from the day's journey, but a night's rest found us refreshed so much. Sunday morning we had a look over the city from a street car. At 7:30 we were on our way to the Island City, arriving in time to locate a fine stopping place before church. One, the First Baptist, which we attended about 2:30. Attracted by several brass bands, we made our way to the beach, which was scarcely a block away.

Once there who could resist the inviting waters of the Gulf? Well, not I, and as soon as bathing suits could be procured and donned we walked up the beach about one mile, finding small shells, seeing the fishing pier, the rip-rap apron projecting from the sea wall. Then back to the bathing place. Carefully we walked out to the first and second ropes, but soon all fear was gone and we ventured still further or where by jumping the breakers our head was visible only at times. Such sport! Only those that have experienced it know the pleasure of surf-bathing.

Galveston can well be chalked the "Oleander City." As a jewel set upon the brow of an emperor, so sits she at the Gulf front of the Empire State of Texas.

The shining sands, the gorgeous coloring of rosy crowned oleander hedges, the tropical growth of bananas, palms, and Spanish dagger, the well kept flower parterres, are all lovely beyond description.

Galveston stands alone in the present wonderful undertaking of building her sea wall and filling the grade of the storm-swept portion of the city with the sand taken from the bay. The dredge boats work night and day in canal, pumping water and sand through an immense pipe, until the grade is so high, and even with all white marks made on poles and posts showing just how much is to be filled in. Some places as much as 12 ft.

To see the water come gushing from the pipes was exciting. Eager children around with sticks as weapons were having a gay time catching crabs and small fish, and transferring them to buckets, tin cans, etc. They were prepared to wade the shifting surface and enjoyed it more, I judge than the wriggling creatures which they made captive.

There are many wonderful sights to be seen. The forts, the wonderful jetties, built of huge granite boulders, extending their protecting arms around the city. One sailing vessel, The Denver, and one merchantman, were in dock.

But guess I had better not tire you any longer with a description of the sea wall, docks or famous buildings of the city. While there we met with courteous people, who never seem to tire answering questions telling of the ill fate that befell their beautiful homes, and who have demonstrated to the world that courage and energy are not the exclusive heritage of the colder climates. That they can still accomplish marvelous feats without surrendering those graces of manner which charm the stranger within her gates—or wall, so much that the desire is to live always in the sunlight near the lapping, roaring waves, breathing the salty air and among the hospitable people of Galveston.

May the Press, with its newsy columns, reach us and the success be yours is my heartfelt wish.

Letter From Florida.

TALLAHASSEE, FLA., Aug. 5, 1905

—ED. PRESS: For the benefit of those whose letters of enquiry I have been unable to reply to, I will state that the Florida Peninsular is not an agricultural country; cereals do not reach a high state of perfection, and while corn and oats mature, the soil nor climate is adapted to the best results for those products, although the present methods of farming and incompetent and unreliable negro labor is largely responsible for the inexcusable failure in farming everywhere to be seen in this country. The soil in many sections and the climate everywhere throughout Florida is capable of indescribable better results and the intelligence and skill employed by a Crittenden or Livingston county farmer in the cultivation of average Florida land would make this country blossom as the rose and the barns overflow with fatness and plenty; and when I read of so many worthy and industrious Crittenden county farmers moving West to such a God forsaken country as the Yakima valley in East Washington, it gives me that "tired feeling".

I have seen the Yakima as well as the "arid waste," in Montana and East Washington, of which it is a part. Irrigation or starvation; barrenness and sage brush, hot as hades in summer and the relentless cold of an arctic winter, combine to make a Yakima farmer "a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief," and in this respect not unlike our Lord, but alas! very unlike our Saviour, he couldn't say, "no man taketh my life from me," when the Water company and the Fertilizer company eat him up blood raw.

I was asked by parties farming in the hills of Claylick, and Crooked Creek, Ky., "Could I make a living in Florida?" the enquiry provoked a smile when I remembered their prosperity in the sassafras and persimmon ridges of old Crittenden and my opinion is, that any man who can twist and screw, and dig a living out of the poor hills of Crittenden and Livingston counties can make a success anywhere this side the pit. All over Florida and throughout this Southland, for that matter, there are multiplied thousands of acres lying waste, uncultivated for lack of reliable labor, now capable of producing more in quantity and equal in quality to the average grain products of Crittenden and Livingston counties.

Much of Leon and Gadsden counties, Florida, produce not only cotton corn, oats, and rye, but Cuba and Sumatra tobaccos, yield large profits to planters, but potatoes and melons, with vegetables the year round, gives the frugal husbandman an income the proportions of which is determined by his ability to supply the demand.

Poultry is grown at trivial expense and out of sight in prices. Of fruit peaches take the lead in North Florida and shippers realize three and a half to five dollars per bin.

Georgia and Alabama are foremost in producing peaches, but many lands in Florida now bid fair to equal them in peach products; the hills of clay and sandy loam in north Florida afford the situation for ideal vineyard and the finest varieties of grapes yield enormously.

I am just returned from the pine woods of Madison county, East of Leon, and although to the eye of Kentuckian the level and open peatlands do not look rich or desirable for anything save the splendid timber in which it abounds, and the turpentine products of the piney regions, yet I saw numbers of farmers in the flat woods, with crops of splendid sugar cane and corn maturing to yield thirty bushels to the acre without a pound of fertilizer; in the thrifty crop of peanuts, grown in alternate rows between the corn will afford ample pasture for cattle and fatten hogs to perfection.

The native grasses and begonia do not speak of palmetto and other innumerable herbage afford pasture for thousands of cattle now rising upon the pennycroyal and the Japanese clover among the hills and old fields of Crittenden and Livingston.

I was surprised to learn that the stalwart youth and rosy cheeks of the camp meeters loves

German Liver Powder

(Dr. Carlstedt's)

Dr. Carlstedt's German Liver Powder is a wonderful remedy, a prescription used for over fifty years by an eminent German physician in his practice both in Europe and this country and sold by thousands of druggists all over the world. So mildly natural are the effects of this remedy that all Kidney and Liver troubles give way to perfect health. It cures the worst cases and many have been cured who had tried every known remedy.

Symptoms of Liver Complaint: Dyspepsia, indigestion, rheumatism, gout, skin eruptions, sallowiness, constipation, dizziness, vertigo, headache, piles, pain in the back, melancholy, bad breath, rusty tongue, horrid taste, unpleasant dreams, insomnia, undue sleepiness, nausea, flatulence, swelling of the abdomen, colicky condition of the bowels, pain and soreness in the stomach, liver spots on the skin, loss of memory, impaired vitality, drowsy forebodings, lack of energy, indolence, crankiness, blood poisoning, nervousness, falling hair—oh, there are lots of them and each one emphasizes the importance of having Dr. Carlstedt's German Liver Powder constantly within reach. It is the right thing at the right time, sure and certain in effect, pleasant and perfect in action.

For your own sake, don't neglect any of the symptoms of liver disorder or the complaint will become chronic and the ultimate, after untold sufferings, is DEATH. Price 25c and $1.00.

Woods & Orme

were the product of the flat woods, and the up-to-date attire and nobby buggies, together with the well filled baskets, groaning with fried chicken, cakes and pies and things, spoke most eloquently of the thrift enjoyed by the Florida cracker, as these farmers are called.

The well constructed churches and convenient school houses clearly told that these people are here to stay and their cordial hospitality and eminent piety impressed me with the idea that they are good enough to live among.

But my letter is now too long; but I must say that persons desiring a better climate and county need not turn away from the South to find it, and if a number of Crittenden county citizens will come first to "spy out the land" they would be better able to present the facts of the situation to your many neighbors, now hard run and discontented on account of short crops and long winters in Kentucky. And to those who love the rod and gun I can truthfully say, the Lord has preserved this last resort for the noblest game, and set amid these lofty pines, whose evergreen boughs sing their songs where perpetual breezes blow; the loveliest lakes and streams on earth; purest, clear as the blue above them, and just seeming with the shining beauties, whose plucky pull at your bate and luscious flesh in your plate would delight the sportsman and surfeit an epicure.

A Chicago jury has just found Hanson guilty of perjury. She claimed to have been rendered deaf, dumb and paralyzed through being knocked down and dragged by a trolley car.
A Marcelline, Missouri, man has just confessed that he purposely lost his leg by thrusting it under the wheels of a Texas & Pacific railroad train for which he recovered $3,000 damages.
A Philadelphia woman has just completed a sentence in jail for teaching her children to injure themselves in trolley cars so that she might claim damages.
A New York Accident Insurance company has just refused to pay a man damages for the malady known as Synovitis, because he was found to have produced the effect of the disease by sandpapering his knee, and applying a fly blister to the knee.
The City of Chicago is growing under the burden of personal injury suits. Over twenty-six hundred suits are now pending against the city, and many of these bear the marks of fraud.
In ten years the amounts paid by Texas railroads for personal injuries has gone from $295,000 to $1,705,000. The rich pickings from the damage business is attracting the attention of a horde of lawyers to the image suit centers, such as Houston and San Antonio, and the result they are turning their attention to others beside the railroads.—V. QUARANTINED.

Illinois Puts Up Quarantine Bars Against Kentucky.

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 10.—Because Kentucky has imposed no rigid restriction upon travel from fever-infected districts, the state of Illinois has ordered a strict quarantine against Kentucky. Today inspectors were placed at all Illinois towns on the Ohio river, and no one is permitted to come into Illinois without a five-day certificate. Cases are talking of stopping freight from Kentucky.

The Illinois State Board Secretary says this drastic action was forced upon Illinois by the failure of the Kentucky Board to take adequate measures for protection. The quarantine may not do Louisville any great harm, but business men in Western Kentucky are anxious as it probably will result in freight quarantine against this state and Fulton.

Fulton, Hickman and Wickliffe declined to regard the state board and declared quarantine. Huch bowed to the will of the state authorities, although the Commercial Club and other business bodies are united in a demand for quarantine. The Illinois action is causing great inconvenience to shipping interests.

There is considerable dissatisfaction over the action of the State Board of Health, and the Louisville commercial organization. The health board is blamed for providing a more rigid inspection and greater precautions and the Louisville commercial bodies for saying that the gates be thrown wide open under the circumstances.

Tragedy at Harrodsburg.

Harrodsburg, Ky., Aug. 10.—Tonight Harrodsburg withered into a frenzy of excitement, one of the most sensational shoot affairs ever known here. Almost the twinkling of an eye the U. S. Marshal, Black, Mercer county representative in the Legislature, killed; Walter Stotts was mortal wounded and Policeman Wm. Britt was seriously shot. Policeman B. Britton and Luther Herron attempted to arrest Walter Stotts, who was under the influence of liquor. He had been a bad feeling between Britton and Stotts and both attempted to draw their pistols. Herron parried them but Stotts broke away from his grasp and ran back to where Britton was and fired, whereupon Britton began to shoot.

Mr. Black had appeared upon the scene during the struggle and is said to have joined in the shooting. He also officer Herron. Stotts fell with a bullet through his abdomen and Black fell at the edge of the pavement, with two bullets in his head and body. Herron escaped unhurt. When the shots ceased Black was dead and Stotts died a few hours. Britton ran across the street and fell on the pavement.

Stotts was taken into his saloon and later removed to his home, where he was operated upon by physicians, but died about 11 o'clock.

Kentucky Crop Report.

The year has shown an unusual amount of rain, the month of July. As a consequence the corn suffered for cultivation; wheat and oats were injured in the stalk, wheat threshing delayed and tobacco on low lands drowned or was badly injured by a growth of grass and weeds.

The corn crop promises a full average. The yield of wheat is much below an average and the quality is not good, much of it threshed tough and showing sprouted grains. The oat crop showing damage done by excessive moisture is a full one.

The prospect for a crop of burley tobacco, compared with a five year average, is below the one hundred mark.

Dark tobacco, as compared with a five year average, is considerably below the standard. Conditions are low for most of cultivation and water-slogging.

The field of meadows were disappointing in nearly all sections. Pastures are good and holding out well. Clover grows up well over the entire state.

The experiments with alfalfa seem to be succeeding remarkably well in all sections.

Peas, sorghum and millet are doing well, considering the excess of rain.

Livestock generally in good condition. Hogs reported scarce in a few counties.

Grassland.—The prospects for a good crop are very flattering. A great deal of wheat unthreshed; damaged some extent by sprouting in shock. Oat crop good. Tobacco on average looks well. Some complaints of freckling on low lands. Crop of all kinds good.

Longton.—Early corn where well cultivated very promising. Too much rain to cultivate late corn. Hundreds of acres drowned on low lands. The crop very unsatisfactory crop. Hay and quality poor. Tobacco looks well but needs more rain and sunshine.

A Monster Ice Cake.

The largest mass of ice in the world is probably the one which fills nearly the whole of the interior of Greenland, where it has accumulated since before the dawn of history. It is said to be a block about 600,000 square miles in area, and averaging a mile and a half in thickness. According to these statistics the mass of ice is larger in volume than the whole body of water in the Mediterranean, and there is enough of it to cover the whole of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland with a layer about seven miles thick. If it were cut into two convenient slabs and built upon the surface of "galant little Wales," it would form a pile more than 120 miles high. There is ice enough in Greenland to bury the entire area of the United States a quarter of a mile deep. A nice cool thing to think about these hot days.

Killed by the Cars.

Benton, Ky., Aug. 11.—W. O. Bean, an old and well to do farmer of this county, was run over and killed by a northbound passenger train on the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railroad, near Iola, a station five miles north of here at 12:40 o'clock today. He was the father of Mr. J. M. Bean, a former candidate for the legislature from this district.

Tourist's Tragic Death.

Paris, Aug. 10.—Alan White, an American eighteen years old, was killed today at Paris in the department of Coles du Nord. He was overtaken by the tide while walking on the beach and attempted to climb the cliffs. He reached the summit of the cliffs but lost his hold and fell a hundred feet. Death was almost instantaneous.

Agonizing Turns

are instantly relieved and perfectly healed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. C. Rivenbark, Jr., Norfolk, Va., writes: "I burnt my knee dreadfully; it blistered all over. Bucklen's Arnica Salve stopped the pain and healed it with out a scar." Also heals all wounds and sores. 25c at Woods & Druggists.

JAPAN'S TERMS.

Are Given in Writing to Russian Plenipotentiaries.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 10.—The Russians have given out the following statement of the morning session of the peace conference:

"The question of full powers has been regulated, so there will be no difficulties on the subject. After this the Japanese handed the Russian plenipotentiaries the conditions of peace in writing. It has been decided that the Russian plenipotentiaries will study this and as soon as possible give an answer in writing. The conference then adjourned until the afternoon."

Kirijiro Takasuga, of the imperial university of Tokyo, in an interview following a lengthy conference with Mr. Sato, who has been the spokesman so far, for the Japanese peace commission, said that Japan's terms, in his opinion will include the immediate evacuation of Manchuria, the cession of the island of Sakhalin and an indemnity of one billion dollars. Vladivostok, also, will be demanded.

A Railroad Man's Prayer.

Not long ago an old railroad man who drifted into church where a revival service was going on, was asked to lead in prayer. He said:

"Oh, Lord, now that I have flagged Thee, lift up my feet off the rough road and plant them safely on the platform of the train Salvation."

Let me use the safety lamp, known as prudence, make all the couplings on the train with the strong link of love, and let my lamp be the Bible; and Heavenly Father, keep all the switches closed that lean off on sidings especially those with a blind end. Oh, Lord! if it be thy pleasure, have every semaphore light along the line show the white light of hope that I may make the run of life without stopping."

"And, Lord, give us the Ten Commandments for a schedule, and when I have finished the run on schedule time, and pull into the great dark station of Death, may Thou, the superintendent of the universe, say: 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant, come and sigh the pay-roll and receive a check of Eternal happiness.'"

Our business men are waiting for the final results of the season's harvest, and as those promise well the outlook is regarded with a confident feeling of hopefulness. Excellent mining earnings reveal the splendid condition of these great enterprises in this district, and they in turn reflect an increasing volume of traffic, which is a certain index that the various departments of industry are actively employed. Merchants are preparing for a big consumptive demand, and with present prospects so favorable the last part of the year may be expected to witness strong and active markets, which will cover the fire loss in a large measure.

Important Assignment.

Irvin S. Cobb, former managing editor of the News-Democrat, has been ordered to Portsmouth, N. H., to report the proceedings of the Russian-Japanese peace conference, for the New York evening Sun. His reports also will be for the Russ, of St. Petersburg and the LeMatin, of Paris. Mr. Cobb's many friends in Paducah will be glad to learn of his good luck in being given an assignment so important which is testimony of his success in the New York field.—Paducah News-Democrat.

After Direct Line to Paducah.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 10.—The proposed railroad line from Madisonville to Irvington by way of Fordsville, is said to be backed by the Louisville and Nashville railroad, which desires to establish a direct line into Paducah.

From Irvington to Madisonville would be a direct route, and at Madisonville connection might be made with the short line to Providence and then the road will be run from Providence to Paducah.

Big Towboat Sinks.

The steamer Joe B. Williams, one of the largest towboats that plies the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, struck a log six miles below Golconda, Ill., Thursday afternoon and went to the bottom.

The entire crew of fifty men escaped without injury on the tow of empties which was landed.

Capt. Thomas Faudry, Asst. Supt. of Transportation of the Monongahela Coal company, owners of the boat, who was in Paducah, left at once for the scene of the wreck on the steamer Royal and directed that the steamer Fulton be hastened to the assistance of the Williams, and render all aid possible.

It is estimated that the loss will amount to about $10,000. The Williams will be raised immediately and brought to Paducah.

The steamer Williams passed Paducah Sunday morning with a tow of empties from Memphis on the way to Louisville, having been at Bay City for several days awaiting a rise.

Capt. Frank Hyatt, who is well known in Paducah, was Master of the Williams. The Williams is the property of the Monongahela company and is valued at $90,000.

The boat was used between Pittsburgh and New Orleans for handling coal. It was built in Pittsburgh in 1876 and rebuilt in 1903. The Williams weighed 801 tons and was 210 feet long, forty foot beam and had compound engines 20x40 feet in diameter with a 10 foot stroke.—Paducah News-Democrat.

FARMERS ORGANIZED

Farmers' Club Organized With a Large Membership.

R. C. Crenshaw, assistant commissioner of agriculture of Kentucky, was in Marion Monday for engagement to organize a farmers club. He spoke to a large and enthusiastic audience composed mostly of farmers at the court house at 1:30 p. m. and his hearers gave him a respectful hearing and seemed to enjoy and appreciate his remarks. He advocated progressive farming and said Kentucky was naturally the favored spot of all creation. Farmers should study how to get the best results at the least outlay. He regretted to see Kentucky drop back from the leading place she formerly held on general products to the 17th in the procession and that too, on such natural products as corn, wheat, cattle, hogs and horses.

Alfalfa was given a lengthy discussion by Mr. Crenshaw who said from actual experience and what he had seen illustrated, it was the cheapest feed for all stock raised on the farm. He compared it to corn and said at 50c per bushel corn was just doubly as high as alfalfa. While not generally used here alfalfa has been known twenty-five centuries. Ancient Rome used it for the cavalry, for her legions, and books describing it and telling of its merits were written 1500 years ago. It was first introduced into America in California from Peru in 1854, and now covers the entire Pacific slope.

Ten years ago Kansas had 35000 acres, now has 400,000.

He described it as the richest in nutrient of all known farm products for blood and bone of animal life.

He spoke at length on the custom in the south of running down land, wearing out the farm, robbing it of its richness and giving it nothing in return, and said all this should be stopped and nutrient taken from it restored in some form so as to make land gradually better.

Horticulture should be studied and encouraged and all diseases of trees treated cured.

He also advocated the raising of Angora goats and mules, and said nothing paid better than mules. At the conclusion of his talk he called for names of parties desiring to join a farmers club and the following became charter members: J. H. Thomasson, Ben Rankin, B. C. Paris, Wm. Hughes, W. N. Rochester, F. E. Davidson, R. E. Holloman, P. C. Stephens, Lester Terry, Wm. Condit, W. R. Lanham, Al Dean, C. W. Bryant, Frank Conger, Joe M. Dean, J. E. Sullenger, J. W. Blue, Joe Dean, Wm. Adams, Jr., Myron Frisbee, Hezekiah Hughes, Wheeler, Marion; J. J. Hicks, Ira Bradburn, R. L. Howerton, J. E. Stephens, R. L. Nichols, G. W. Howerton, J. H. Stanley, W. C. Stanley, Repton; T. W. Davenport, H. C. Howard, D. N. Riley, C. W. Fox, A. B. Childress, G. R. Brown, W. H. Cardin, A. H. Cardin, View; T. C. Campbell, Dycusburg; J. S. Newcom, Weston; John Hodge, Frances; C. S. Jackson, H. C. Rice, Jr., Kelsey; J. H. Brouster, W. H. Brown, W. C. Tyner, Salem; W. J. Hodges, Iron Hill; E. L. Nunn, Rodney; Ed Cook, J. D. Hughes, Fords Ferry; A. J. Hughes Tolu.

The following officers were elected: J. Frank Conger, Marion, President; E. L. Nunn, Rodney, Vice-President; Chas. W. Fox, View, Secretary; Jno. Hodge, Frances, Treasurer.

Letter From Salt Lake.

ED. PRESS:—This is indeed, an interesting town. Situated in a beautiful irrigated valley, surrounded by lofty mountains with the Great Salt Lake only twenty miles distant, has grown up one of the prettiest and most substantial cities in the great west. Nearly 100,000 people live here. Some of the most beautiful buildings, including a million dollar court house, that I have ever seen anywhere. The Mormon Temple square is indeed, a wonder. The temple situated in the heart of the city, was begun by Brigham Young in 1853 and dedicated in 1893, taking forty years to construct it. It is built of granite quarried in Utah 20 miles away and hauled in wagons drawn by ox teams. It required four yoke of oxen four days to bring in a single stone. The temple cost $4,000,000 and no gentile and comparatively but few Mormons have ever seen inside of it. Not much is known of what the temple contains and of what takes place within it. The Mormons are strict believers in tithing and only those who pay up their dues and whose lives meet the approbation of the Bishop are admitted to the temple. The lady who guided us through the tabernacle, other buildings and grounds, told us all she was permitted to tell regarding the temple. All marriages are solemnized there, and on entering the shoes are removed—nothing unclean being allowed to enter. It is the belief of many people that since polygamous marriages have been prohibited by law that the same practice prevails yet and the secrets of the temple hide the mysteries. Near this temple stands the tabernacle to which all Mormons are admitted, gentiles as well. It is an immense structure, dome shaped, with roof ten feet thick. It holds 1200 people and contains one of the largest and finest pipe organs in the world. It was built in the tabernacle. The key board is 30 feet in front of the organ and connected by an electric contrivance. The choir is composed of 550 singers. The acoustic properties of this building are perfect. Standing in one end 270 feet from the stand I heard a brass pin as it was let fall to the floor. The Mormons claim that the design of this tabernacle and the temple was revealed to Joe Smith by God himself and I suppose by Joe Smith to Brigham Young. Surrounding these great structures is a stone wall some two feet thick and 12 feet high. Originally Brigham Young had constructed a wall protecting the city from the Indians with a great steel gate called Eagle Gate. The wall has been removed but the massive steel eagle still hangs. The "Bee Hive" and other homes of Brigham Young where he kept his many wives still stands.

The Mormon church owns the railroad to Salt Air on the lake and the magnificent dancing pavilion, bath houses, etc., that cost more than a million dollars.

Today I enjoyed my first experience as a swimmer. I've tried various water holes and streams from the "Mayes Pond" and Crooked Creek in Crittenden county, including the Mexico Gulf at Galveston to Salt Lake, and this is the first water I have found that would float my avoirdupois. Here the trouble I had was not keeping on top of the water but trying to keep in the water. When I first took my feet off the bottom my heels popped up out of the water like a fishing cork and it was with some difficulty that I changed my position from a horizontal to a perpendicular one. As it is a well defined law of gravitation that when an arrow is shot into the air the big end goes up first and comes down first. I plainly understood the demonstration when I was in Salt Lake and kept my feet on the bottom. One can readily understand the specific gravity of that water when they know that in every five gallons there is one gallon of salt. If any one doubts what I have said about this bath let him ask Clem Nunn who at the same time when I was struggling for any equilibrium was floating round like a disced ship in the blue sea. I think he was in the "old swimming hole" of which he gave such an elegant description at the dedication of the new graded school building in Marion.

Since leaving Texas in the early part of June I have enjoyed the cool climate and the beautiful scenery of all of Colorado's principal cities, besides meeting at most every place some of my old Kentucky friends. At Denver I met John Franks and family; at Colorado Springs the Stinson boys; at Grand Junction, R. C. Walker and family and Miss Nell Walker. Today I met C. S. Nunn and wife on their way from Denver to Grand Junction and John Grayott bound for Portland to see the big fair. I shall leave here in the morning for Cheyenne, Wyoming, and from there back to Colorado Springs. After a few days there I will return to Texas.

CHAPEL HILL.

Everything is very favorable in this community with good rains.

Miss Olive Clark, from Oak Grove was the guest of Mrs. Corry Minner last Wednesday.

Mr. John Woodall and Miss Emaline Hill from Crayneville, were visiting in this community last Wednesday.

On last Friday night a week ago, an ice cream supper was served at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill, and every one was filled to the top notch and everything was favorable and nice.

Mrs. Maud Crider from Marion was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hill, Saturday and Sunday.

A singing was given out on last Sunday evening at Chapel Hill and a nice crowd gathered in and mixed their voices together, and everything went off nicely.

J. T. Bigham and family, from Crayneville visited Mr. and Mrs. Will Ward's family Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Lawrence Crider, of Marion, came out Sunday and accompanied his wife home from Mr. H. S. Hill's.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ward, on last last Thursday evening, in honor of Mrs. Ward's sister, Ruby Bigham, gave a very nice ice cream supper. The following enjoyed it: Misses Ada Hughes, Ida Ward, Ruby Bigham, Bettie and Bertha Long, Lot Cardin, Ross Young, Herman Hill, Leslie and Bertie Walker, John Hughes, Geo. Long, Homer Jacobs; also your correspondent and Mr. M. G. Jacobs were present and enjoyed it greatly. There was plenty of ice cream, nuts, cakes, candy and cantaloupes to dress the table, and they all ate and then they all ate again. Several games were played and then all went home rejoicing.

LEVIAS.

Some plowing for wheat.

School opened last Monday with a good enrollment and John H. Grimes to wield the rod.

Mr. Eugene Wright of Hazleton, Kansas, is here visiting his best girl. Look out for a case of Kansas fever among the girls soon.

John L. Harpund returned last week from an extensive tour of the west. John is frank to admit there is no place like home. He is interested in some mining property near here and will now give his attention to that.

Fred Love and wife of Marion are visiting here while Fred is recovering from falling off a building where he was at work last week. He thinks he will soon be able to work again.

Miss Pearl Dunne, an accomplished young lady of Wichita, Kansas, is visiting here the guest of her cousin, Miss Florence Franks.

Miss Millie Eaton, of Mullikan, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Zetta Price, of East Levias.

Mr. Joe Belt and sister, of Centra, Ill., are here visiting his mother and brother, Green Belt.

Dr. J. Anthony Davidson, of Marion, was among his friends here last week.

The Levias and Iron Hill boys crossed bath at Marion Saturday characterized by many errors and much acknowledgement on both sides. Iron Hill won the game. Iron Hill is a strong team. The best of feeling prevailed throughout the game. The next game of the series will be played at Levias, Sept. 9th.

ROSEDALE.

School is progressing nicely at this place with Corbet Stephenson as teacher.

The ice cream supper at Luther Hardesty's Saturday night was largely attended.

Barn White of Irma who was severely wounded by the explosion of dynamite at Fairview mines returned home Friday.

Misses Bessie and Eula Hardesty and sisters, accompanied by A. Hearrell visited Fairview mines Sunday, and was accompanied home by their aunt, Mrs. Frank Hardesty of Paducah.

Miss Sudie Wheeler and brother are on the sick list.

Miss Ella Faber, who was thrown from a buggy by a horse running away is slowly recovering.

Mesdames Niece Crider and Dixie Reeves and daughter and mother of Portageville, Mo., have been visiting relatives of this vicinity.

Mrs. Lem Watson visited her sister Mrs. Ada Sullenger, Monday.

Lem Watson and wife, of Loia, visited Myrtle Hardesty and sister, Sunday.

Johnny Sneed, of this vicinity, who has been sick is slowly recovering.

Mrs. Jim Ainsworth, of this place, has been visiting her son Julian of Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hardesty, of this place visited her father, Robert Hearrell Sunday.

IRON HILL.

There is a good prospect for a big corn crop in this section.

Miss Edna Roberts began the Odessa school Monday.

J. M. Walker went to Henderson Tuesday.

Miss Birdie Tethrington, of Providence, has been spending a week with Willie Deboe.

Mr. Wm. H. Wolff, who has been suffering from a cancer on his face for several months, is now in a very critical condition, with no hope of his recovery.

W. I. Hurst who has been seriously ill with typhoid fever for several weeks is thought to be improving.

Mr. John Montgomery, a very affable gentleman of Providence, spent a day with J. M. Dean recently; they were forty-niners together.

Miss Annie Roberts commenced the school at Crider school house on Monday.

Milton Walker attended and participated in the Old Fiddler's contest at Princeton last week. The reason he didn't get second best prize was that the prizes went to the old men only.

Albert Drennan and wife, of Aniston, Mo. are spending a few weeks with their parents here, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Drennan and Mr. and Mrs. A. Towery.

The Iron Hill and Levias ball clubs crossed bats at Marion Saturday with the usual result: victory for Iron Hill.

Everybody is invited to come to Sugar Grove next Saturday morning to assist in cleaning up the grave yard. Bring your dinner as there is to be preaching in the evening.

SHADY GROVE.

Protracted meeting in progress at the Methodist church; it began Sunday with a good attendance.

Mrs. M. Sigler is very low, with little hopes of her recovery.

DID YOU EVER WONDER—

Why a baby carriage isn't known as a cradle?

Why it is so much easier to be wrong than it is to be prudent?

Why some people manage to talk a great deal without saying anything?

Why so many of our coming men seem to be handicapped from the start?

Why the company that issues the map has the only curveless railroad there?

Why the average man invariably makes a fool of himself every time he tries to act up?

Why men are rarely always embarrassed when they propose—either financially or otherwise?

Why so many men who are anxious to work when sick are just as anxious to avoid it when well?

Why some men are not as black as they are painted and some are not as white as they are whitewashed?—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A Casinway Tragedy.
Beginning due west of Point Conception, on the California coast, and continuing at irregular intervals as far south as the bay of Todos Santos, in Lower California, lie the Channel Islands. In this ideal region for the yachtsman, the fisherman and the hunter one comes to feel like a new Crusoe on a primitive isle. And, in very truth, Casinoo's semi-mythical story was much upon one of these same islands, though minus the man Friday and the hairy ending. The castaway in this case was a woman, a Danish emigrant, who ashore through some mischance, the crew of a vessel that had sought shelter behind San Nicholas during a storm in the early fifties. For over a dozen years the lone creature lived as at length came when on the day the mist clearing north the wind blew the point and view the land's highest point and view the ranchers' grazing upon the mainland. And last, when hope and reason had long died, the poor, wild, glimmering waters were found in her wolf's bush among the hills by the advance of the other hunters' fraternity he had long wondered at the mystic footprints they marked upon the sandy sands.—Field and Stream.

The Days of Premiers.
Queen Victoria once wrote to Lord Palmerston premier of England, expressing a wish that she could speak from his place in the house of commons. Palmerston replied: "Viscount Palmerston presents his humble duties to your majesty and has had the honor to receive your majesty's communication of yesterday stating what your majesty would have said if your majesty had been in the house of commons. Viscount Palmerston may, perhaps, be permitted to take the liberty of saying that it is fortunate for those from one opinion her majesty is the differs that her majesty is not in the house of commons, for they would have encountered formidable antagonist in argument although, on the other hand, those who oppose your majesty's approval could have had the support of a powerful ally in debate."
Israel's premier had a more direct way of dealing with women. One of the attempts to get a certain piece of information from him. He listened what she had to say and then answered "Oh, you darling!"

Mysterious Offense.
In one of the missionary schools of China the sex of the male students range from the age to thirty-five. Often father and attend school together and sometimes run a spirited race for the first place in a class. Sometimes family rivalry is productive of dire results. The school master had been a short time at school when one day he noticed that a boy was absent, and he made inquiries as to the reason. The following dialogue in Chinese immediately ensued:

Official: Please, sir, Li He Wack isn't here.

Master: What is the matter with him?

Official: He—His father thrashed him last night and he is too bad to come to school today.

Master: He just have committed a serious offense to merit a thrashing.

What did he do?

Official: Please, sir, he laughed when you cut his hair yesterday!

Don't Waste.
Let nothing be wasted or lost. Using well or wasting the fragments of time, of opportunity, the nooks and corners of life, makes all the difference between success and failure. This is especially true of spiritual work. Often the best results are obtained from the use of fragments of our business or daily life, the byproducts of living. Nature says, "Gather up the fragments." In nature's household there is no waste. The decay of rocks forms the soil of plants. The decay of plants forms the mold in which future plants will grow. The water dissipated in the air becomes clouds and rain.—Woman's Life.

Near the Danger Line.
In an account of a recent London tragedy a slip made by a contemporary. It explains that "three doctors are in attendance, but the woman is not yet dead. Not long ago a daily nearly got into a libel action by saying that a patient has "no longer in danger, though Dr. K. is still visiting him."—London Globe.

Generous.
Mrs. Quiverful—Tommy, did you give your little brother the best part of that apple, as I told you? Tommy Q.—Yes; I gave him the seeds. He can plant 'em and have a whole orchard.—Cleveland Leader.

To give pain is ranny; to make happy, the true emblem of beauty.—Steele.
