EBEN HOLDEN
By IRVING RACHFELDER

CHAPTER I

From the back window of the express train, I saw the first glimpse of the city. It was a scene of great interest to me, for I had never before been in a city. The buildings were tall and the streets were wide, and the people were dressed in strange clothing. I was excited and eager to explore the city.

CHAPTER II

The first thing I did was to visit the museum. I had always been interested in history, and I was thrilled to see all the interesting exhibits. The museum was full of artifacts from all over the world, and I spent hours admiring the ancient ruins and works of art.

CHAPTER III

I then decided to take a walk through the city. The streets were busy with people, and there was a constant hum of activity. I walked by the shops and restaurants, and I was amazed by the variety of goods on display. I even tried a few of the local foods, and I found them to be delicious.

CHAPTER IV

Later in the day, I visited the park. It was a beautiful day, and the park was full of people enjoying the sunshine. I sat by the lake and watched the boats go by. It was a peaceful and relaxing experience.

CHAPTER V

That evening, I attended a concert. The music was beautiful, and it was a wonderful way to end the day. I went to bed that night feeling happy and content.

In discussing the cure of hay fever, which is a common complaint, Dr. J. F. Furlan, a well-known Indianapolis physician, states that he has had many cases of hay fever, and that he has been able to get rid of it by using eyeworms. He says that he has used eyeworms with great success, and that he has been able to relieve the sufferer from the symptoms of hay fever. He states that he has used eyeworms in conjunction with other remedies, and that he has been able to get rid of the symptoms of hay fever.
