SYNOPSIS OF PREVIOUS CHAPTERS.
CHAPTER I. - I can think of no better introduction to the adventures of the young hero, than a suggestive portrayal of the simple life of the pioneer, in his native land, the wild onward advance of the community, and its gradual growth into a flourishing city.

CHAPTER II. - The people, though scattered, are happy, industrious, and contented. The conditions are favorable, and the future looks bright.

CHAPTER III. - The next day, after he has visited the scene of his earlier errands, the hero embarks on his journey to find his fortune.

CHAPTER IV. - The hero finds employment at a printing office, and begins to learn the trade of printing.

CHAPTER V. - The hero is quickly promoted to the position of foreman, and soon becomes the manager of the printing office.

CHAPTER VI. - The hero establishes his own printing business, and becomes a successful businessman.

CHAPTER VII. - The hero marries and has a family, and becomes a respected member of the community.

CHAPTER VIII. - The hero meets with a misfortune, but overcomes it with courage and perseverance.

CHAPTER IX. - The hero and his family move to a new city, and start a new business.

CHAPTER X. - The hero's business becomes very successful, and he becomes a prominent member of the community.
