Cheap Rates for the Occasion on the Illinois Central Railroad!

On March 28th the entire business portion of Marion was practically destroyed by fire. Since that date, little over six months have elapsed, but the citizens of our stricken city by their enterprise and hard labor assisted by the good will and best efforts of the entire county have built a new and better Marion. In honor of the occasion we hereby cordially invite the people of this and the surrounding counties to participate with us in celebrating Greater Marion on October 25, 1903.

EVERYBODY INVITED TO ATTEND
COMMITTEE
City Lots and Residences.

Have you seen the desirable building lots in Clark's Addition to the city of Marion, Ky., and the residences therein that are now being offered for sale by W. H. Clark?

If you have not it will certainly be to your interest to do so before purchasing real estate elsewhere.

These lots and residences are in East Marion and within the corporate limits of the city of Marion. They are of easy access, well located and command a splendid view of the city. They front on the principal streets and are in the coming residence portion of the city. Just the place for a residence.

No part of Marion has grown so rapidly or as well as East Marion and you could certainly do no better than invest your money in the lots and residences shown in the above list. These lots are especially adapted to building purposes and are the most desirable part of Marion. They will be sold at a reasonable price, and terms of sale will be arranged to suit purchasers.

If you desire to purchase a residence or lot in Clark's addition to the city of Marion, you will call on or write to
