JUDGE TOWERY WRITES AGAIN

But Fails to Name Those
"Enemies"

WITHIN HIS "OWN PARTY."

The Document a Weak Production
After Being Closeted Tuesday
With O. M. James

IN THE LATTER'S LAW OFFICE.

As to the facts in the case concerning the signing of the land certificate by me, you say, came from Democrats. Let us see who knows about the certificate? At Mr. Henderson's own request I wrote up the certificate and waited for the county surveyor to call in and sign same which he stated on cross examination, that he authorized me to do and ratify same after it was done. Then, when the suit was brought against Henderson and Guess, it is a matter of fact that they sent to the auditor for copy of the record, and he being a Democrat, that part of their argument is true. Suppose that officer had been a Republican, would he not have done the same thing as an officer? Tell me how you would have made this argument if the auditor had been a Republican?

Now, the grand jury is the next thing. First, you said it was Democratic; now, you say that Democrats were in control, but you never have told your readers how your Republican members voted in the jury room; probably you have overlooked that. Now, if these Republican members had voted against the finding of that indictment, could we not have peeled the Democrats? But how about Republicans voting for it? Don't tell that boys; you might hear something drop.

Now, as to Mr. James not preventing that indictment being found, he will inform you as lawyer on this point. Did you know Mr. Henderson also informed me that an effort was being made in that grand jury to indict me? With the same propriety you might ask me why he did not prevent it. Do you not see that your argument is one-sided?

You ask me to name the man who had me indicted. Why is it that you want me to do a thing that you will not do yourself. When the question was put to you to name the members of law firms whom you said had me indicted, you failed to answer. The answer over my signature in last week's paper is sufficient. You say for me not to wait till the eve of the election to do that; you say that would be wrong and cowardly. What about those Republicans on that grand jury who waited until the last day of its term, and then urged and worked for finding that indictment against me. Just on the eve of the primary you will hurt their feelings. Do not insist on that.

How about these men who were sent to every voting precinct in the county on the morning of the primary? Were they Democrats or Republicans, and why were they so keen to tell the voters of each precinct I was indicted? You say that I am being duped by them in order to advance the cause of my Democrat son-in-law for county attorney. I hardly know what you mean by being duped unless it is being persuaded or influenced. If I am correct in this conclusion, it is not the only time that I have been duped. You remember when you tried to dupe me into the race for state senator, now condemning others for doing the same thing. That word, "consistency," comes in again.

The last clause you wrote for me to answer, is where you say that the Press is trying to persuade persons to vote for candidates who are in favor of Goebelism. There may be some part of Republicanism that I do not understand. I have been inquiring of some old members of the party and they have failed to give a satisfactory answer to me. Possibly you can throw some light on the subject. Now, the question is this: Does Goebelism apply to Republican primaries and conventions?

I understand that it originated in the music hall convention. I am unable to say whether or not it applies to a county clerk's office meeting held on the eve of the primary last April. If so, you ought not to condemn the Press.

Come again Dr. and sign your name. Don't be ashamed of it.

This Oct. 17, 1905. AARON TOWERY.

Frazer Nominated.

The joint committees have nominated Dr. T. A. Frazer for Mayor to head the Citizens ticket instead of A. C. Moore who declined. G. C. Gray was also named for councilman last week instead of E. H. James who may leave Marion. The whole ticket now stands as follows: Mayor, T. A. Frazer, Councilmen, H. V. Stone, Henry Paris, J. C. Bourland, W. D. Cannon, G. C. Gray and C. E. Flanary.

THE HARVEST OF THE DEATH ANGEL

Old and Young, Alike Are Summoned
to the Great Beyond.

ZOLA ANN DAVIS.

Passed from earth, September 28, 1905, Zola Ann, infant daughter of William and Betty Davis, aged 2 years and 6 months.

Fold her, O Father, in thine arms, And let her henceforth be A messenger of love between Our human hearts and Thee.

Still let her infant spirit stand Between us and the wrong; And her dear memory serve to make Our faith in goodness strong.

A FRIEND.

Jesus has claimed and taken from the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Stephenson their dear little son, Ollie, who was born July 27, 1902, being three years and three months old when he died. The little fellow suffered eight days from diphtheria, and all that skill and care could do was done, but without avail, for God's will in the life of this lovely child was accomplished and he was called to the bright scenes of the great beyond.

Weep not, father and mother, brother and sisters, little Ollie has only gone before and beckons to you with baby hands from the unknown world where he sparkles on the diadem of the good Master who makes up His jewels from the purest and brightest flowers of earth.

Brief was his life—God gave your son A few short months, then all was done. Sleep, little Ollie, and take your rest; God called you home—he thought it best.

AUNT CORA.

JOE PHILLIPS, JR.

A young, unmarried man died last week at Salem as a result of an overdose of morphine.

Mr. Phillips represented Nashville mining capitalists in this region and at the time of his death was prospecting on the Malcolm place near Salem.

He had formed the morphine habit four or five years ago while in Mexico and when without the drug he would become restless, despondent and could not sleep and would take opiates for relief. He seemed to be in this mood to a great degree just before using the poison on last Thursday evening and hence did not seem to be aware that he was taking too much opiates.

He died Friday morning at 6 a. m. and his remains were sent to his people at Nashville. A number of his friends arrived here Saturday and accompanied the body to its last resting place. The young man is survived by his parents.

MRS. NINA WHEELER GUSTAFSON. The remains of Mrs. Nina Wheeler Gustafson, who died at Coal Gate, I. T., last Saturday, arrived in the city Tuesday morning and were taken to the home of her sorrowing relatives.

Mrs. Gustafson was formerly Miss Mina Wheeler, of this city, and was for several years county superintendent of her schools.

Her death comes as a complete shock to every one, a letter having come to her sister from her after the telegram announcing the news of her death.

She was a woman of superior character and possessed many womanly traits. She was honored and loved by all who knew her. She was interred in the family cemetery on the Shady Grove road Tuesday afternoon.

The flavor is half the battle. The purity is the other half. My sorghum is pure and has a flavor that is delicious.

HIS POINTS OF ADMISSION

Are Shown and The Record's Charge
That the Whole Case Was a Democratic Farce Comedy

STANDS LIKE ROCK OF GIBRALTER.

Will any one or all of the gentlemen whose names appeared on the petition printed in the RECORD of Sept. 29 deny, or will the Press deny for them, that one of them sent for two prominent Republicans at different times and gave them a history of the certificate signed by Towery, claiming that it was a forgery, and wanted them to have a Republican candidate use it against Towery and Henderson before the primary?

"The Record answered in words of no uncertain sound. Judge Towery covers the case." These are the headlines in this week's Crittenden Press over an article written by some one signed "Aaron Towery." The article appears above. The writer failed to answer the questions asked him but deals in a lot of subterfuges and silk talk. The grand jury which indicted him was composed of nine Democrats and three Republicans. The circuit judge and commonwealth attorney were strong, uncompromising Democrats. It is clear with these undisputed facts that the Democratic party was in full control of every branch of the court and could have prevented his indictment as easily as they caused him to be indicted.

If he had read THE RECORD of September 29, he would have seen what some of the Republican members who served on the jury which indicted him, had to say about the matter.

The article is not deserving of an answer inasmuch as it deals with insinuations and not facts, but we answer same anyhow. He says, "At Henderson's own request he wrote up the certificate and waited for the county surveyor to call in and sign same."

But Henderson never told him to sign the county surveyor's name and it is a fact that the surveyor never called and signed his name to the certificate nor did the surveyor on cross-examination state that he authorized him to sign his name. He stated that part of his outfit was left in the judge's office and that in one instance the judge had signed his name, but he said that he never authorized him to sign it to the certificate in question.

He acknowledges that the information was gotten from Democrats that he signed Sullenger's name to the certificate. Yes, we know that Henderson was kind enough to inform you that an effort was being made by Democrats to indict you, and this was at the time the grand jury was in session and he had just been called before it concerning the matter and informed the grand jury or a part of them that he didn't think there was anything in it.

He saw you soon afterwards and informed you that the Democrats were making an effort to indict you. But your pretended love for O. M. James had so mesmerized you that your recollection could not call up the favor which Henderson rendered you. You want to know if the Republicans on the grand jury had voted against the indictment whether you would have been indicted or not. There were only three Republicans on the grand jury and the whole machinery of the court was under the control of the Democrats. It is very clear that these three Republicans could not have controlled the action of the grand jury in the case.

Again you say, "Now as to Mr. James not preventing that indictment being found, he will inform you as a lawyer, on this point." We knew you could not answer it without implicating both in the matter. We noticed an article in the Crittenden Press which seems to be the answer to which you refer concerning James. It is headed, "Record's Ignorance," and is as follows:

"The ignorance of the writer for the Record is so apparent that we are forced to say it needs no reply when he suggests Mr. James could have gotten the court to have kept the grand jury from indicting Judge Towery. What man in this country out of the lunatic asylum even heard of a circuit judge directing his grand jury how to act upon evidence they had heard, or not to act upon it? Such ignorance is so transparent that intelligent people just laugh when they read it."

Of course, we do not know for certain that this is the article referred to by Judge Towery as James' answer but it is the production of some demented person who is ready for an insane or feeble minded institute. It is impossible for a lawyer to have been the author of such a piece of ignorance. He does not answer the question which was asked and feels his guilt and therefore uses subterfuges for answers.

It is as much the duty of courts, commonwealth attorneys and grand juries to see to it that they are not to be used for the purpose of persecuting innocent persons as it is their duty to see to it that the guilty are punished. Every one knows this unless it is the ignorant writer of that article. Of course, no honest court will lend itself or its grand juries to such outrages and thereby incur heavy expense upon the state. Every intelligent person as well as good citizen knows that of all the duties that an individual owes to his state, his first is to inform the court and grand juries of all such wicked and diabolical schemes to injure an innocent individual, and any honorable person would willingly discharge such a duty. The article can not be attributed to some powerful lawyer but is a stupid production of an ignoramus. He asks the question, "What is Goebelism?" And says that there may be some parts of Republicanism that he does not understand and that he has inquired of some old members of the party and they have failed to give satisfactory answers to him. We are satisfied that he does not understand Republicanism, if his recent history is any criterion to go by, and the old member of the party to whom he refers had a hard job before him. It is with hesitation that we attempt to give a faint idea what Goebelism is. To start with, we will say that Goebelism is what you have often accused O. M. James and some of your Democratic associates of. You can quaff this down and meditate for a moment. You also ask if it applies to Democratic and Republican primaries. We will say, yes, if in such there is any effort made toward stealing or rascality or any other wrong doing. It means everything except what is good, right or just. It means the overthrow of good government by dishonest men and the depriving of the people of their equitable and legal rights.

It means that if one cannot win fairly that he will do so unfairly, as you remember Goebel did when he stole his nomination, and then smarting under defeat after the election, moved up another notch and stole the governorship of the state. It means that when one cannot rule he will ruin. It means Neroism and Ahabism. It is the essence of corruption. It also applies in a case in which a candidate is fairly defeated and smarting under his defeat, goes around among his neighbors misrepresenting and maligning his opponent. My dear judge, it is no part of Republicanism, never was, nor never can be.

If we have failed to give you a glimpse of the true meaning of Goebelism we are very sorry indeed and will be compelled to refer you to some of your new associates who are familiar in detail with all the elements of this great crime against humanity—Goebelism. But we would have thought that after your experience with Democratic courts and grand juries you would have had some idea of Goebelism. It means persecution of every one who does not bow to its dictatorship. We will tell you how you may know it. When you are looking at it in broad daylight it looks like the Caleb Powers case, and you know that every school boy and girl in the state is familiar with the record of it in this case. It subordinates and corrupts courts, juries, JURY COMMISSIONERS, witnesses, and in fact poisons everything it touches. It even includes Campbellism with all its infamy. Your other questions have been answered heretofore.

If you will tell THE RECORD who Dr. is in your next article you can have his name if there is such a person. The statement made in the same article, that Republicans were sent to every voting precinct, on the morning of the primary who told the voters of Judge Towery's indictment, is untrue

AN INSTANT WHERE A JURY

Of the Democratic Stripe
Lent Itself

FOR A PARTISAN PURPOSE.

The Press and Democracy Giving
Tom Cochran the Cold Shoulder.

CAN'T THEY DISCUSS HIM IN PRESS?

The Press each week gives an installment of the trial of Zachary, Democrat, and Gid Woods, Republican, charged with illegal voting and false swearing, and indicted at the November term, 1900, by a grand jury of which Marion Pogue was foreman, and tried at the June term, 1901. They are laboring hard to make the people believe that juries of this county, as now selected, are not partisan. Why, bless your heart, brother, that was five years ago and before Judge Gordon came on the bench and before Tom Cochran filled the jury wheel. You don't refer to any cases, we notice, since your friend, Cochran, has been filling the wheel. Why don't you say something about the petit jury for the June term, 1905, made up of 30 Democrats and no Republicans instead of the petit jury of 1901? We published it last week. Did you get a copy? Judge Towery was tried before that jury too. We can imagine his finish if he had been re-nominated.

Now the indictment Mr. Henderson referred to was the one against Wm. Boaz, and the last one tried. The facts are, that in the case, the commonwealth excused the following Republicans: E. B. Franklin, Thos. Matism, L. J. Daughtery and E. M. Duvall. This took four out of five of the challenges they were allowed by law. Does this look like you were willing to try them on their merits and with Republicans on the jury? But because it suits your case better, you take the Gid Wood's case.

Now you say you want us to name one man who was wrongfully indicted by a partisan grand jury. We will name Judge Towery. You say the Republicans caused this indictment and we say you caused it. However, a Democratic grand jury lent themselves for that purpose to whomsoever was behind it. If 35 per cent of the Democratic members of that grand jury had voted against it, it would not have been returned. We do not charge that juries are being used in very many cases for partisan purposes in this county. What we charge, and we stick to it, is, that the juries are selected by partisan methods and in the same spirit that prompted you to say, "Hang Taylor and damn the Republican party." It gives a glimpse of what Caleb Powers has been up against all the time for five years.

It is all very poetical to speak of neighbors and friends and all that. We love the country people as much as you do for we have been one of them. But let us say to you that the honest farmers of this county won't be hoodwinked by your poetry. They remember back in 1900 when as the result of your steal and usurpation you caused more hard feeling between these same neighbors than any other one act since the Civil War. The Republicans of this county have kept up with the suf-

and without foundation. The grand jury had already adjourned and the Democrats had scattered the news of his indictment to the four winds of the earth. It is also a fact that when the suit heretofore referred to was filed against Henderson and Guess and that Judge Towery would be behind the bars. To claim that Republicans had him indicted, when the court and the commonwealth attorney and nearly all of the grand jury were Democrats, and that when the witnesses were brought before the grand jury by Democrats, is simply beyond measure. It was simply impossible.

Don't fail to give your order to Jno. Sutherland for the celebrated Wheatcroft coal, the best on the market.

ferings and trials of Caleb Powers. They also know you tried to have the vote of this county thrown out in 1899. They know that in the state they have been robbed and outraged and assaulted on account of politics and that you and every one of your candidates have endorsed it. And now you come to these same honest men and talk with tears in your eyes, so to speak, as only a jury lawyer can talk, and try to fool them into returning a verdict in your favor, in other words, to support your candidates.

Yes, they shook each other's corn, out at November court the Republicans shook the corn and the Democrats attend court. You roll each other's logs, but while court is in session in March the Republican rolls has logs alone and the Democratic neighbor sits on the jury at Marion; you thresh each other's wheat, but at June court the Republicans in the neighborhood thresh the wheat while the Democrats are in town sitting on the jury. You certainly differ in your ideas as to the best mode of administration of your county affairs; because you Republicans think that Tom Cochran ought to put in your names as well as the names of your Democratic neighbors. Why don't the Press say something about Tom, anyway?

Second Ticket.

A second city ticket has been gotten up and will go in the city ballot by petition. It is as follows: T. F. Newcom, Mayor; J. M. Persons, A. J. Duvall, T. J. Ainsworth, Ben Rankin, Dick Gilbert and George Boston, councilmen.

At Owensboro—An Important Meeting
Special Telegram to The Record

Owensboro, Ky., Oct. 18.—The annual meeting of the National Tobacco Growers' Association convened here at the Grand Theater at 10 o'clock this morning with hundreds of delegates and visitors from all of the tobacco growing sections in attendance. All the hotels are filled and many of the private houses have their quota of guests. It is estimated that this meeting will bring to this city the largest gathering of farmers that has ever assembled here and elaborate preparations have been made to make the visitors have a good time.—Evening Post.

Special Telegram to THE RECORD. Owensboro, Ky., Oct. 18.—Committee on valuation of dark stening tobacco A. H. Cardin, Crittenden county, Ben Watson, Webster county, W. C. Green, Henderson county.

Owensboro, Ky., Oct. 19.—Every tobacco growing state fully represented. Large attendance.

THE REHUBLICAN PLURALITY FORTY-FIVE

In Marion as Shown by the Results of the Two Registration Days.

Tuesday was supplemental registration day in Marion and the certified returns show that there is a small gain in favor of the Democrats, but the Republicans now have a majority of 59 within the corporate limits of Marion, and the names of a few Republicans who were unavoidably absent from the city on both registration days will make a small increase in the Republican majority.

So far the total vote for Marion is 427 of the various parties, as follows: Republican, 236; Democrat, 177; Populist, 1; Prohibition, 1; Independent, 9, and Non-committal, 3. To take this scattering vote from the Republican majority it will make their plurality 45.

Two days' registration at Dycusburg shows a total of 41, or 25 Democrats, 11 Republicans and non-committals, 5. One day's registration at Weston resulted in a total of 14, 10 Republicans and 4 Democrats.

The following table will show the vote in Marion by precincts:

Precincts	Rep.	Dem.	Pop.	Ind.	Non-Comm.	Total
Marion No. 1.	74	23				97
Marion No. 2.	50	32				82
Marion No. 3.	47	53	1			101
Marion No. 4.	31	29				60
Marion No. 5.	34	40				74

Educational Column

W. HUGH WATSON, Editor.

Indecision is the chief asset in some peoples' character.

It is often so that the lips that impart instructions press the weed.

The towns of "Pretty Soon," "After-while" and "By and by" are not on the map but their inhabitants are not a few.

"Yesterday" is where the things we ought to have done today are buried, instead of waiting for the morrow to do them.

Pity 'tis, and 'tis a pity it's a pity, but truth's truth in the same atrata that wickedness is wickedness wherever found.

The difference between doing a thing and saying you will do it, is the thing actually being done—a long distance from achievement.

And, further, tongues that otherwise should delight in phrases divine and sentences beautiful, often instead, revel in blasphemy.

There is nothing to take the place of true manhood and womanhood, but literature, music and the other fine arts serve as excellent polish.

In the above editorials we are simply aiming our Mauser at "the thing" in general, aiming, of course, at no person—unless you get within our range.

The school program is simply an attempt to reduce school work to a system. He is the haphazard worker who has no program for his work is systemless.

Fact is, there are sad reminders about the room that bear silent but damaging testimony and these reminders are in the form of exiled quids and reeking lakes of spittle.

Angels? Never! But just that sort of man and woman who is above the "faddy fastidiousness" of doing these things. The world wants men—no less is the cry for women.

We are glad to give to our readers in this issue the honor roll of Hebron school. We would like more of this work for the column. Let the people know what you are doing. It may do you good.

School districts No. 32 and No. 35 are still without teachers, all other districts being supplied. As these districts belong to the pauper class, the salary will be figured on the basis of forty-five pupils to the district.

HEBRON HONOR ROLL.

As an incentive to study and also that the patrons and friends of Hebron may know some of the results of our labor, we have established an honor roll with a minimum average grade of 90 per cent.

We give below the honorary pupils for the first and second month's school work. The following is the work for first month:

PRIMARY.—Everett Darnel, 91 per cent.

FIRST GRADE.—Phenas Dial, 92½ per cent.

FOURTH GRADE.—Dennis Clark, 90.5-6 per cent; Vernon Paris, 90 per cent; John Martin, 92½ per cent.

FIFTH GRADE.—Addie Alvis, 91½ per cent; Ruth Cook, 91 per cent; Harvey Clark, 90½ per cent.

The following is the work for the second month:

PRIMARY.—Everett Darnel 92½ Oral Fluency, 91.

FIRST GRADE.—Phenas Dial, 94½; Lula Spencer, 90½.

THIRD GRADE.—Raymond Brent, 93.

FOURTH GRADE.—John Martin, 94; Dennis Clark, 92.3-7; Vernon Paris, 91.4-7; Ollie Barger, 91.3-7; Levi Easley, 90.3-7; Nina Paris, 90.1-7; Henrie Easley, 90.1-7.

FIFTH GRADE.—Ruth Cook, 96.1-7; Addie Alvis, 96.1-7; Harvey Clark, 95.4-7; Miley Bracey, 94.2-7; Roy Belt, 91.3-7.

Average attendance for the two months, 56.7-10.

"A Breezy Time."

The opening play of the season, "A Breezy Time," showed here Saturday evening to a large and enthusiastic audience.

The play was unusually amusing from start to finish; the troop is composed of fourteen good actors and is one of the best shows of its kind on the road this season.

Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boschee's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size, 75c. For sale by Woods & Orme. 15-21

Smithland Commercial Club.

Smithland, Ky., Oct. 13.—At a meeting of the citizens of Smithland and Livingston county, a commercial club was organized, to be known as the Livingston County Commercial Club. I. Branstetter was chosen president, Dr. G. L. Crawford, vice-president, and C. O. Lowery, secretary and treasurer.

Wounds, Bruises and Burns.

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries, before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third of the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic, and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by Haynes & Taylor, the enterprising druggists, of Marion.

OUR FASHION LETTER.

Severe Styles Are to Prevail In Chemisettes.

RIBBON RUFFLED PETTICOATS

Mixed Effects In the Cheaper Materials Are to Be Much Used For Walking Suits—Evening Hats of Lace or of Panné Velvet.

Chemisettes are to be worn again this fall, but there is a great difference in their makeup. The exquisite sheer effects have given place to severe styles—those of pique and of linen laid in small plaits. With them are worn stiff little black ties.

Embroidered ties fashioned on the same lines as the small butterfly ties.

DAHLIA CLOTH FROCK.

but made of heavy linen or pique, are to be smart this year. The stiff little bow loses all of its mannishness when embroidered, yet retains the severe style.

Ribbons ruffles on petticoats are the latest wrinkle. They are more expensive than those of silk, but much more stunning and newer.

The swaggiest petticoats in silk to be worn with fall costumes are in the shops. They either match the suit or dress with which they are worn or are part of a color scheme dominating all the accessories.

The gown in the cut is of dahlia cloth. The plaited skirt is trimmed at the foot line with lapped bands of the material. The coat is particularly pretty with its empire effect, ornamented with collar and buttons and velvet.

ATTRACTIVE TRIFLES.

Among the fall materials to be made up into walking suits mixed effects are particularly noticeable in the less expensive goods, such as homespun, which is such an excellent cloth for hard usage. Mixed grays, blues and browns are the fashionable colors. Brown will not, however, be as modish as it was last winter. Red, too, will not be as widely seen, although it is far too attractive a shade to disappear altogether. Dark grays among the autumn models are assured of popularity, while, of course, blue in any shade will prove a safe investment, for it is a color never frowned upon by Dame Fashion. The straight brim is not seen on the new hats. Even the French sailors have many little curves and turns that are extremely becoming. They tilt at a perilous angle from the back, and the trimming is placed at that point or at the sides.

Attractive evening hats for winter wear will be made of white lace or white panne velvet and lace. Small tips arranged in bunches have taken the place in millinery occupied last season by the long plumes.

One of the novelties in the jewelry line is a small jeweled pin that is intended to hold the lace collar up in the back, thus doing away with the unsightly whitebone.

The waist pictured is of heavy linen worked in English embroidery. The fronts have a pretty, simple design nitted over a chemisette of plaited lawn. The elbow sleeves are formed of an embroidered motif arranged about a tucked fullness at the shoulders. Bands of the embroidery hold the puff just above the wrist in position.

SCHOOL COSTUMES.

Before long woolen school dresses will be in requisition. The most attractive and serviceable of these gowns are made of Scotch plaid, with the skirt, if one prefers, made up on the bias in circular effect. The blouse waist, cut Dutch neck, has a piping of a plain contrasting color outlining it.

BLUE SERGE FROCK.

The sleeves are of course made entirely of cloth, and the medium bishop is the best style, with a pretty cuff trimmed with the plain material. A belt of leather and a gimp of broderie anglaise finish the costume.

Gimp school dresses still hold their own for girls from six to fourteen, but a variation of this style, a really practical variation, is the chemisette gimp frock, with the separate yoke made on a foundation or body like a gimp, but sleeveless.

Sailor suits for small girls with a dozen new tricks about them are popular. The prettiest are made of checks in any of the modish combinations. An extra touch of smartness is given them by hand scalloping the collar and cuffs.

The charming little dress illustrated is designed for girls from six to eight. It is fashioned from a bright shade of soft blue serge. The skirt has a circular flare and is trimmed with lines of narrow black braid applied between bands of the serge. The short coat has the same trimming about the shoulders on the round collar and straight band cuffs. Black frogs fasten the little jacket.

LA MODE'S VAGARIES.

The veil plays a prominent part in fall millinery. All sorts of handsome veils are seen on hats, apparently forming part of the color scheme. For example, a large pale blue felt is covered with blue and white velvet roses

with brown centers and is enveloped in a brown veil lace, very filmy and transparent.

Bows and knots are favorite trimmings on fall and winter dressy costumes. Full little bows of chantilly lace made from four inch insertion with waved edges are set ladder fashion upon the bodices of evening gowns and head the deep flounces on the skirts, while bold inset motifs of chantilly are placed on the flounces. The lace bow effect might be artistically applied to any kind of sheer material.

The most popular tennis dress consists of a white cloth skirt and white tussore blouse, with Irish lace collar fastened with a knot of red plaid silk like that on the velvet cap.

Bands and cut out motifs of white taffeta are applied in some of the white serge or cloth gowns. If skillfully used this trimming is very effective.

The attractive dress seen in the cut is especially designed for early fall wear. The material is a soft Indian red. The skirt is laid in plaits and banded with the material to form a deep yoke over which are long panels. The simple bodice is made smart by an embroidered collar and bands on the elbow sleeves.

INTERESTING SPEECH BY DR. T. A. FRAZER.

Made Recently at the Reunion of the Travis Family.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:
I have been asked to address this meeting today, and just here I wish to thank the parties who selected me as one of the speakers on this notable occasion, but I wish to say I do not know from what motive I was selected. The first impressions were that some enemy of the Travis family had made the selection as a means of punishment both to myself and the audience; but, after thinking the matter over I concluded the Travis family had no enemies and, therefore, I reached the conclusion that the parties making the selection had either made a mistake or else they had this punishment in store for me. But let that be as it may, I wish to thank you for the honor conferred on me for indeed it is an honor to address such an audience as this.

I have been asked to speak on the "Characteristics of the Travis Family" collectively and individually, and therefore if I say something personal it will only be to illustrate some characteristic.

This subject is peculiar in many respects. First, the subject of this address is a peculiar people. There is something about this family, I know not what, that distinguishes them from other people and a person well acquainted with this family will recognize a Travis if he meets him in the Sulu Islands. This peculiar something does not only apply to general appearance but it apply to a certain extent to the character of this people.

It has been my good fortune to know this family for fifteen years, that is a part of them for no person knows them all; they are too numerous. I say in all sincerity that I believe I am a better man to day than I would have been had I never known this family; I believe we should say good things of one another while we live and not wait until the death angel has closed our friends' eyes in that sleep that knows no waking before we say any good thing of them.

I would not care to have a person place a wreath of flowers on my silent bier who had not placed roses in my pathway while I live.

As I have remarked before, the Travis family is a peculiar people and a characteristic of this family is their longevity. Life Insurance Companies, who know them, will give them a cheaper rate of insurance than other people because a Travis hardly ever dies, and when they do, it is generally from old age.

A few days ago I was sitting in my office, making a few notes for the Travis Reunion, when I heard the clang of steel against the floor, I turned to see what was approaching and I discovered Uncle Lindsey stepping glibly in my door with his old-fashioned spur buckled to his shoe. He looked fresh and fine after riding eleven miles through the mud to town. Now, uncle Lindsey is not so old anyway; he is not so old, eighty-five. Uncle Lindsey's elder brother is often on the streets of Marion looking hale and hearty and it thrills my heart with joy to shake uncle Harvey's hand and have him say "God bless you, son. I am glad to see you. How are the madam and the babies?"

This family emigrated from England to the Carolinas during the 18th. century and from thence to this county and they have fulfilled the Biblical command "go forth and multiply" till at this good hour is estimated that ten per cent of the people in Crittenden county have Travis blood in their veins.

These people are generally small in stature, fair complexion, curly hair and blue eyes, which is a psychologic characteristic of sociability, and there was never a better demonstration of a psychologic fact than is furnished in this family for it matters not where you see them they have that same happy smile and friendly greeting for you which drives away the gloom of despair and makes life as bright as the noonday sun and makes the whole of mankind akin.

The Travis family is a law abiding people, they are always willing to yield to the strong arm of the law and help hold up the hands of the officer whose duty it is to enforce the law, and as far as the records show, there never has been a member of this vast family in any serious trouble. If all the people were as law-abiding our jails would stand empty and instead of being a home for the criminals it would be inhabited by the bats and owls. Except for one Travis who has been in jail for the past four-years and wants to stay four more, I have never heard of a Travis being in prison.

This family is a devout christian people; it is one of their characteristics to profess faith in Christ at an early age and write with the Cumberland Presbyterian church and when once a member of the church, they are loyal and zealous workers. Were it not for this family this branch of church could not boast of the strength she has in this county to day.

The Travis family are home-makers and home-lovers. It matters not whether this home is a mansion or a vine-clad cottage, it has the same atmosphere of home, the same bright faces, the same warm hearts and the same good things to eat. Home is one of the most precious words in our vocabulary. The animals have their homes, the birds have their homes, the insects have their homes and it is an instinct born in every creature to love and respect home and I often think we underestimate the value of our homes. It is not the stately mansion or the dazzling furnishings that makes home what God intended it to be but the man who thinks his red headed wife and freckled face children pretty and sweet as any one else has indeed a happy home.

This family leads a plain unostentatious life, they are not vain or proud, yet they take a pride in making the name, Travis, a guarantee for honesty, morality and christianity.

This magnificent assembly to day speaks volumes for this noble family and expresses a truth more vivid than pen can picture.

The Travis family does not sit idly by and wait for some one to "open a can of fresh emotion" before they move but they are a people who do things, and what they find to do, they do with their might.

It has been my lot to be with these in all trying circumstances of life; in prosperity and adversity; in joy and in sorrow; when the sunbeams of happiness kissed their every brow; when the pangs of sorrow thrilled their soul; when the dark shadows lingered about their doors; when the death angel was hovering close about their loved ones and under all these circumstances I have found them to be the same noble, patient and loving people.

The Dawn of Love.

BY RUSTIC, FOR THE TRAVIS REUNION.
"And I give unto you the eleventh commandment, 'Love one another.'"
From that mysterious realm of idle thoughts
Which haunts the sleep with yagur unreason
In memory lives a face divinely bright,
Pressing down of what seemed endless night.

Spirit of Love, I see thy radiant smile
Which shall at last our ruling self beguile;
I hear thy words: vain mortals, look above;
Dispel Life's ill by mutual Christly love;
Halt one brief moment in the foolish race,
Breathless for that which is for all, by grace.
Learn Nature's lesson, eloquent, though mute,
Of ever-yielding sustenance for brute.
And shall mortals on their heavenly way
Out-ventilate the brute for earthly prey?
The mental blindness which for ages past
Has held us in an ignorant bondage fast,
Shall disappear, and war's rude, cruel shock
Become an echo of a past to mock.

Unloose the bonds which Greed dooms man to wear
And each of labor a just portion share;
Light will be the burden, and mankind
Be lifted from the instincts of the hind.
And now shall soar to higher aims than self
Revealing latent virtues in himself,
Now buried deep, imprisoned in the soul,
Suppressed by burning thoughts of earthly goal.

Spirit of Love, let Earth become thy bride
And in each human heart, come thou, abide!
Expel ambition's spark which mounts to flame,
Consuming thousands to extol one name.
O Christ, through whom almighty God found voice
That summoned all to make eternal choice
Of love or hate, thy poorly gates are free
Only to those who love humanity.

To those of my friends who have the Travis blood circulating in your veins,
'tis to you I address these concluding remarks:
Since first your ancestry, that brave
company of God-fearing men and women,
found a sanctuary for their faith
upon these hills and in these valleys,
when it was a perfect wilderness—and
to them, no doubt, a wilderness of woe,
to which the fates surrendered them,
they suffered no storm of disaster or hardship to extinguish the altar-fire of their liberty and religion. It has been cherished and guarded by the devotion of generation after generation. Fitting words for their eulogy may scarce be found in human speech. A just pride in the glory of their past history
is but part of your splendid inheritance.

THE TRAVIS TREE.

A goodly tree your fathers planted here,
Their faithful hearts commingling hopes and
fears;
How brave to you doth now its strength appear Ringed with the growth of a hundred years.

Its tonic leaves have for your healing been:
You have been grateful for its pleasant shade,
And cheerful songs from out its glimmering sheen
Have for your hearts a pleasant music made.

Many the days of sunshine has it known,
Many the storms which have its vigor tried;
Through storm and sunshine it has sturdier grown
And flung its branches wider and more wide.

Sweet has its fruitage been for fainting men
Whose souls were hungry for the living bread,
Eating whereof and taking heart again;
Upon God's errands swift, their feet have sped.

Long may its strength endure, its span increase,
Its blossoms laugh, its fruits be large and fair;
Deep in its heart be heard the song of peace,
And heaven balm it with its purest air.

COMMUNICATION FROM HAYNES & TAYLOR

Offer to Refund Money if Hyomei
Does Not Cure Catarrh.

To the Editor of THE RECORD:
We have been asked recently if the advertisements printed in your columns regarding Hyomei were true, where we offer to refund the money if this treatment does not cure catarrh. We wish you would please print this letter in as conspicuous a place as possible in your paper saying that we absolutely agree to refund the money to any purchaser of a Hyomei outfit if it does not cure catarrh.

This outfit consists of an inhaler of a convenient size to be carried in the vest pocket so that the user can breathe Hyomei four or five times daily. With this is included a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The outfit sells for $1.00 and is a most economical treatment, for the inhaler lasts a lifetime and there is enough Hyomei for several weeks' use, while extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents.

We trust this letter will settle any doubts that may have arisen as to our willingness to refund the money for a Hyomei outfit in case the purchaser is not perfectly satisfied.

Respectfully yours,
HAYNES & TAYLOR.

Grand Reunion of the Farmer Family.

The children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, numbering about 41, met at the home of Mrs. Rebecca Farmer, of this county, Saturday, September 23, 1905, to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of this dear old mother.

While the day was an enjoyable one, yet, when we looked on the stooped form and beheld the tottering steps we could but say mother may not be with us at another reunion.

This was indeed a day of feasting on good things. All took their baskets well filled with the very best in store. There were meats prepared in many palatable ways, pies and cakes of every description and many other things too numerous to mention.

In the afternoon all gathered into the family room where they engaged in singing some grand, sweet songs to the praise of God and to the joy and comfort of all that were present.

The children of this reunion were: W. C. Farmer, H. C. Farmer, J. B. Farmer, J. A. Farmer, Mrs. S. E. McMaster, Mrs. M. D. Clark, Mrs. Kit Franks, Mrs. Jane Rice and Miss Delia Farmer, besides many of the grandchildren, great grandchildren and other relatives.

It Wasn't a Bluff.

In the first act of "A Breezy Time," which will appear here shortly, there is a burlesque boxing match between the eccentric and Dutch comedians—the long and short of it. One day last week the eccentric gave the Dutchman an upper cut which "knocked him out" and delayed the play several minutes, and still the audience did not seem to trouble.

A prize fighter who was in the audience, and who, it is claimed, had stood before Jeffries, was heard to remark that it was the best imitation he ever saw. Marion Opera House, Saturday, October 14. Seats on sale at Woods & Orme's drug store.

E. H. James Sells Business.

A deal was consummated recently in which Seldon Ainsworth acquired the Edgar James interest in the Marion Coal and Transfer business. Mr. Ainsworth rolled up his sleeves and went right into the business. It is reported that Mr. James will remove his family to the west on account of his wife's health and where Mr. James will again enter the Postal Service, having resigned such a position on the E. & H. but a few months ago to enter the transfer business here.

A Good Investment.

I have decided to sell my farm of 65 acres, adjoining the city limits, and some land inside of the corporation, with open street on east side, all well watered, 40 acres good bottom land. I will sell either as a whole or in two parts, taking the Salem road as a dividing line, leaving 56 acres on the south side and eight acres, with all improvements on the north side. New residence with five rooms and four porches, new out houses and good barn; finest well in the county. Also small cottage and barn that rent for $4.50 to $5 per month. Fine large cellar and storage room above. Part of eight acres in blue grass. Desirable place for a grocery stand or other kinds of business. All at a bargain if taken at once. Call on or address
D. F. MURPHY,

To My Friends.

As it will be impossible for me to see all of you in person before the election in November, I take this method of again expressing to you my sincere gratitude for your support in my race for county clerk four years ago, and I assure you that I shall always be thankful to you for the interest you have manifested in me.

I have at all times endeavored to do my duty as your county clerk, and to treat all men alike, and to prove myself worthy of the honor, and if I have at any time failed, it was unintentional.

I received the nomination for re-election from my party without opposition, and it is my sincere desire to see my party successful. I am glad that I can go out before the people as a candidate of a party that is in favor of fair elections and a fair count, and one that is in favor of nonpartisan jurors.

My opponent would have you believe he has been solicited by men of all political parties to make the race again. That is simply his old way of placing himself before the people, and, if you will look at his card in the Crittenden Press in 1894, 1897 and 1901, you will see he claimed the same.

I would like to serve my friends and my party as your next county clerk, and I promise, if elected, to do my duty and I assure you that no living man will appreciate your vote more than I will.

Sincerely thanking you,
C. E. WELDON

A Card.

TO THE VOTES OF CRITTENDEN COUNTY:
After being solicited and urged by quite a number of friends from all political parties and chosen by the unanimous vote of the committee of my party I have consented to become a candidate for the office of county court clerk, but I am sorry to say that it will be impossible for me to make anything like a thorough canvass. However, I will do the best I can in this respect. It would afford me great pleasure to visit you personally in your homes, but this is beyond my power. You can rest assured that I feel grateful to you for past favors and will appreciate your sympathy and help in this contest. Nothing known to me would give me more pleasure than to serve you as your next county clerk. It is true, I am, like many of you, growing old, but yet I feel I know that I can discharge the duties of the office personally.

If elected, you will always find me at my post ready to serve you.
Faithfully yours, D. Woods.

A Card.

Having received the nomination for office of Judge of the Crittenden County Court, I take pleasure in announcing myself a candidate for same, and just here I want to thank my many friends for their kind remembrance of me in days gone by. My life, as well as my official record, is as an open book before you.

When questions effecting the interest of the people, such as taxation for the purpose of building a new court house and working roads by taxation, I am opposed to, until a majority of the citizens demand it. My humble judgment is that a few have not the right to impose unnecessary taxation upon the majority of people without their consent. If elected I shall take this stand upon these questions when presented to me. These are my views on the matters, briefly outlined. I ask you to consider them, and if you believe I am right, honest and competent, vote for me, and if elected, I shall endeavor to convince you of my highest appreciation for your kindness by a faithful discharge of the duties of County Judge.

An Appeal

TO THE VOTERS OF CRITTENDEN COUNTY:
As chairman of the Republican Campaign Committee I appeal to the voters of Crittenden county to vote the straight Republican ticket at the coming November election for county officers, for state senator and representative. Our candidates are all personally known to me and are clean men of good, moral character and fully competent to fill the offices to which they aspire. It is necessary, more than ever before, for the Republicans of this county to register their protest at the polls against partisan juries and the unfair and unlawful practices of the Democratic party in this county.

If you would like to know the complexion of the next jury panels, ask Tom Cochran.

"How is your conscience, Ollie?"—
The Democratic chairman's law partner to O. M. J. just after we published that petition they filed against Towery.

Hon. R. L. Moore, Republican candidate for state senator, was in the city
Monday and Tuesday. He will represent this district for the next four years or else we read the sign wrong.
—Princeton Chronicle.

Because when its reporter interviewed
B. F. Lovelace as to his politics he said he was "nothing," the Livingston Banner put him down as a Republican.
Now, wasn't that a desperate effort to try to find one Republican among the thirty-six men on the recent jury panels in that county?

In a late issue of THE RECORD appears a letter from Hon. A. C. Moore in which he expresses his regret that he cannot accept the nomination tendered him for the office of mayor on the "citizen's" ticket which was named by joint committee. Mr. Moore is thoroughly qualified for the office,
would make an excellent mayor, and
his many friends will regret the action
he takes in his refusal to accept the nomination.

It is not likely that the next Republican administration with Walter Blackburn at the head as county judge, will cut a door in the division wall between the county clerk's and county judge's office because, in view of the fact that four years from now when Uncle Dave again gets on the track, if we may judge from the past, and he should be successful, there will be two doors to leave open on the night before election
for the convenience of any who may wish to walk in and stuff the ballot boxes.

A door leading direct from the county clerk's office into the county judge's office would indeed be a great convenience for confidential real estate agent Judge Gordon Rochester should he be successful in the present race, and the voters of Crittenden county had not thought of such a convenience as was suggested by the Crittenden Press. It would also be appropriate as a place of exit for claim shavers who might desire to make their headquarters in the county clerk's office under a Democratic administration.

The Livingston Banner persists in terming the "mule" ticket the "crooked" Republican ticket and would have its readers believe that the men are low, vile, degraded and incompetent.
We defy the Livingston Banner to refute the fact that the "mule" ticket is made up of a capable, honest and conscientious citizens of Livingston county as the nominees of the Democratic ring ever dared to be. The trouble with the Banner is that it has never learned the lesson of true American citizenship whereby honest men
are enabled to stand up and assert their rights and live for principle in defiance of the devil and his angels.
As for the mule ticket we would not be surprised if the truth were known,
that the present Democratic party thinks the "mule" ticket about as straight as the Democratic ticket.

As for the "mule," its head is straight, its ears are straight, its legs
and body are straight and so is the tail. It looks you square in the face and those who are fooling around about

the tail are apt to have a sick feeling in the region of the solar plexus after November 7th.

Towery and also the Press acknowledged that Democrat lawyers were aware of the grand jury proceedings
before the Towery indictment was returned. That is one of the charges
we made.

The editor of the Dixon Journal is still in the habit of running a Sunday school editorial just after he tries to vil-lify the manhood of Robt. L. Moore, the Republican candidate for the State Senate. It must be that he has a penitent heart, or the point of telepathy is so strong that he cannot resist, because Robt. L. Moore is a Christian gentleman and goes to both church and Sunday school, while it is said that his opponent, "Lawyer Maxwell," whom the Press claimed wanted to represent the Third district instead of the Fourth,
is otherwise engaged on Sunday.

The jury that indicted Judge Towery was Democratic. We claim that such a jury is partisan when the occasion demands. The Democrats say, and Towery likewise, that Republicans, whom they did not, dare not and
cannot name, had the indictment returned. If their charge is true wasn't that "one, just one Republican who has been indicted in Judge Gordon's court by a partisan grand jury, who should not have been" or else that court has permitted itself to be used as a tool in persecuting a man whom
the Democrats claim to be innocent.

Had our readers noticed how grateful
some Democratic business men are to get Republican trade, yet, how serenely they ignore the advertising columns of THE RECORD? Some are too busy, each week, to write an ad
for us, but our competitor is ever remembered.

There is absolutely no better local advertising medium than THE RECORD.
It is a little more than a year old but its circulation is as large as that of its competitor and it has the advantage of having the largest home circulation.

It is said that the boycott in Livingston county has heretofore been so strong it was difficult for a Republican school teacher to secure a school or a Republican business man to hold his trade if he let it be known in an active manner as to his party affiliation.
There is a case on record in that county
where a public school having a Democratic board of trustees turned down a first grade Republican school teacher
and employed over him a second grade Democratic teacher and the only reason was that a henchman had addressed
the board of trustees and told them to employ the second grade teacher because he was Democratic. The Banner
now comes back and says Republicans are ashamed of the party affiliation
and will tell you they "are nothing" or that they "vote for the man." The Banner says this test is a true one.

"The county clerk should advertise
for lowest bids on county printing."
—Press.

Whenever THE RECORD has done any work for the county board of health, it has made out its claim, taken it to Dr. Frazer and having him endorse it as correct, then taken it to the county judge who would allow it. Not so, the Press, for it seems that our friend,
Jenkins, considers it beneath his dignity to have Dr. Frazer endorse his claim as correct. And thereby hangs a tale. On December 10, 1904, the Press presented a bill of $23.50 for printing to Judge Towery who allowed it. It coming to the knowledge of Dr. Frazer, he went to Judge Towery and showed him where the bill was illegal. The judge went out and looked up his friend,
Jenkins, and had the claim changed from $23.50 to $10.00. That is not graft in Kentucky but it would be in Indiana.

A few weeks ago the Press made a longwinded attack upon Carl Henderson
because his contention has ever been:
protect the interests of home people and especially the poor man.

Yes, you nominate men for office
whose property is here and whose dead
are buried here. That's strange talk,
for your nominee for Sheriff paid poll tax last year in Webster county and voted last fall in Providence. Your nominee for county Attorney has voted in this county in regular elections only twice. Come to think of it, leaving out your two nominees for the two branches of the Legislature, because their wealth is insignificant, your county ticket does carry with it an array of wealth and power. But to save our lives, we can't say we know
of so very much they have done to advance the interests of the county and put it in the front ranks than the nominees of our party. Whose property is here indeed? We thought one of your strong points was your poverty
from what we hear of your election-
eering through the county.

Who said P. S. Maxwell was running in the Third district?

JAMES JAMES
and
BLUE & NUNN,
Attorneys.

The above is the certified copy of the caption and endorsement of the petition in the suit that was based on the certificate to which Towery signed Sullen-ger's name, and which said petition charged as being false, fraudulent and void.
It was the institution of this suit and the action of other Democrats that resulted in the indictment against Towery.

Senator Deboe and several of the candidates will address the voters at Shady Grove Saturday, Oct. 28.

The new Quartette—Ollie James, Jess
Olive, Tom Cochran and Aaron Towery, chorus—"The Democrats,
didn't do it, Oh! no."

"There should be no politics in county
affairs, but remember that Republicans
shall not serve on our juries."—Brothers-in-law, T. H. Cochran and Judge Gordon Rochester.

That the Democrats are smarting
under the sting of the charges as made in the last issue of THE RECORD is evidenced by the fact that THE CRIT-TENDEN Press this week dodges the issue and publishes a double column
article in an effort to direct the attention of the voters of Crittenden
county from the real issue of the campaign to Carl Henderson. Their struggle is a desperate one. The partisan manner of selecting juries in this county
is still the issue and on November 7th
the voters will let you know they understand it so. As for Carl Henderson, he stands on his record. The voters know what it is. He has done for the county what former Attorneys, Democrats, did not do, that is he has performed the duties of the office
without outside assistance and saved
the county that additional expense.
And this year he himself and County Clerk C. E. Weldon made a trip to Frankfort at their own expense and their evidence before the state board of Supervisors was the result of saving money to the tax payers of Crittenden
county, although, at the same instant,
ostensibly for the same purpose, one,
O. M. J. received one hundred dollars that came from the pockets of the good taxpayers of Crittenden
county and he is now posing as the great chief of Democracy. And we would pause long enough to say that we do not understand why Judge Towery did not ask these two gentlemen to go or why he did not offer to pay their expenses although his "volunteering"
friend O. M. J. went and profited there by. (He could afford to give his service to Towery in other matters gratis, couldn't he, if he did?)

NOT PERTINENT.

Hon. Ollie James has nominated Mr.
Bryan for president in 1908. Mr. Bryan has been nominated several times,
and we very much fear Mr. James is too hasty in this matter. We all concede the greatness of Mr. Bryan, even to the point of his being the most sublime statesman in the United States, but we have lost with him twice. The old saying, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again," is not pertinent to politics. There are elements in the party that we must have with us
if we succeed and that class we can never win with Mr. Bryan leading. And again 1908 is a long time off.—Columbus Critic.

SAVE THE BALLOT.

People at last are beginning to wake up to the importance of voting against the Constitutional Amendment, which will be submitted to the people at the coming November election.

We fear the importance of this question is not yet before the people as it should be. Kentucky has the
has the best constitution she has ever had and whenever an effort is being made to destroy it the people should rise in their might against the scheme.
On Sept. 28, 1891, a convention that made the present constitution, adjourned
and turned it over to the people
for ratification or rejection.

Section 147 of that constitution is now attempted to be annulled by this amendment, that is before the people.
In that convention there were 67 votes
for the secret ballot, 12 votes against it and 21 who did not vote at all.
This shows that after trying the old

viva voce system for a century or more our representatives by a strong majority gave to Kentucky what she so greatly needed—the ballot.

God bless the ballot it gives the plain people the God-given right to vote as they please.—Mayfield Messenger.

THREE CHEERS FOR TOM.

"At the speaking Thursday night
at prospect Carl Henderson asked his opponent, Tom Champion, why Republicans should vote for him on the Democratic ticket and how many Republicans he had voted for? Mr.
Champion said that he had not voted for a Republican and never intended to do so.—THE CRITTENDEN RECORD."

"Mr. Henderson is the Republican nominee for County Attorney of Crittenden county and Mr. Champion is the Democratic nominee for the same office. Mr. Champion is an old Livingston county boy hence his sterling Democracy. We admire a man like Mr. Champion who has the courage to stand up in the face of a four-hundred Republican majority and boldly announce he never expects to vote for a Republican. Tom is that character of Democrat we admire and here is three cheers for you Thomas.—Livingston Democrat."

But, since making the statement
above referred to by THE RECORD and after being advised by the Democratic politicians at Marion Tom has faced about and tries to apologize for the statement when addressing a Republican audience in this county.

MARION A MODEL CITY.

Marion, the plucky and persistent,
the enterprising and unconquerable
capital of Crittenden county, is surely a model Kentucky city. Visited about twelve months ago by a disastrous conflagration, which laid in ashes homes
and business seats in large numbers,
Marion set to work before the embers had yet cooled off to rebuild. And the brave little city has built well and beautifully. Very properly does she propose to celebrate the advent of the new and greater Marion by a celebration on October 25.

Hospitable townspeople those of the little city of Marion. They want all Kentucky to come and make merry
within her gates, to eat of the fatted calf and sip her luscious cider. Kentuckians will be there in hundreds to share the Crittenden capital's joy.
Those who cannot go will be present in spirit with her generous sons and pretty daughters assembled to gather delight and charm and courage from the lesson from the Marion that faded
before the flame, and the Marion that has arisen at ambition's call. The Herald is proud of Marion and its fine
Kentucky characteristics of fearles-ness and forcefulness. We wish that model city expansion in prosperity and exemption from disaster in every form.
—Louisville Herald.

STOP OLLIE'S PULL.

"O. M. James was the first one who told me they were trying to indict me."
—Towery.

There seems to be just now a mutual admiration society between the gigantic congressman and the present county judge, elected by grace of being under the log cabin in 1901. There is a method in Ollie's madness, and possibly that of the judge. We all remember in 1903 the State Board of Equalization put a 15 per cent. raise upon this county. The fiscal court of this county appropriated $100 to bear the expense
of witnesses to appear before the board at Frankfort to fight this raise. The witnesses appointed by the fiscal court were the county judge, Towery, the county attorney, Henderson, and the assessor, Geo. T. Belt. But it seems that even then there was a bond of admiration between Ollie and Towery,
for nothing would do Towery but that Ollie must go too, and of course he went,

employed by the county judge. The order book of the Crittenden county court shows that he was allowed $50 by the judge on April 16, 1903, for services rendered before the state board, and again on May 24, 1903, there is an order for an additional $50, making $100 that this mutual admiration cost the county in 1903.

But again in 1905 the state board
raised this county, a Republican county,
to the tune of 25 per cent. Now, it seems that Ollie had gotten an idea that the county attorney had received some of the credit for getting the raise off in 1903 and he would not consent to go this time if Henderson went too.
The result was that Henderson was not appointed, but wishing to do all he could to get this raise off the county,
he and County Clerk C. E. Weldon went on their own account and paid
their expenses out of their own pockets.
The result was they presented such an array of facts from the records in the county clerk's office that the raise was entirely taken off. Now what happened again? On April 13, 1905, O. M. James is allowed a claim for $50 for his expenses on this trip, and on May 25, 1905, he is allowed another $50 claim as his fee for services rendered. Another $100 from the county.

Now, what do you voters think of that? Allowing Ollie James $50 for his expenses to Frankfort for two days!
More than likely he had passes entitling him to free transportation. Fifty dollars for two days' hotel expenses!
Ollie's salary is $416.66 per month, yet
through the kindness of Judge Towery
he gets $100 from this county in two days, and does it in 1903 and again in 1905. It certainly pays to have a pull.
They talk about Henderson spending
$20 more than Towery in 1903, but in 1905
Towery allowed himself $50 for expenses, and Henderson and Weldon got nothing.

When Walter Blackburn is county
judge, Ollie's pull in the judge's office
will be at an end, but about that time
he expects to have it transferred to Frankfort again, which will be true if T. H. Cochran and P. S. Maxwell go to the legislature.

Will they attempt anything there for the good of the people of this county?
Not from present indications. But from indications shown in 1903 and in 1905 no thought will be given the mass of people in this county. They might vote for a law giving the circuit judge
power to condemn the court house.

The Democrats of this county object
because the Republican voters in the April primary renominated some of the men who led the party 4 years ago to unanimous victory for the first time in the history of the county. They pretend to think that our ticket was named
like they name theirs, in star chamber session.

The fact is, and every one knows it,
the Democrats in this county have not nominated a ticket for fifteen years,
except one endorsed before nomination
and brought out by the slate makers
here in Marion. They have not expected since the election in 1890 to elect any one on their ticket except their candidates for county judge and for county
clerk, unless with one or two exceptions. Is there any one who thinks they tried to elect J. P. Samuels in 1901? They talk very sympathetically of "poor, one armed Morgan," but did
they ever say anything about poor, crippled Samuels? Did they say anything that you can remember in 1897
about poor, crippled John Paris? Sympathy like that and coming like that don't cut any figure with John Morgan
for he knows it is as sham as his pretensions to fair juries. Did they in 1894 really try to elect Green Crawford
or poor blind Ben McLean? Or T. J.
Yeats in 1897, or Bob Franks? Is it not a fact, now, "honest injun," that they tried to swap off these men so they could put in Dave and Joe? Aren't they right now trying to do the same kind of business? These two office-seeking gentlemen have grown fat and gray shaking your hand and patting
you on the back and telling you of their poverty. They kissed you when you were a babe in arms and are now kissing
your children. In 1878, 1882, 1886, 1890, 1894, 1897, 1901, and again in 1905 you have seen Joe Rochester running for county judge. But that's all right, they say, the Republicans have renominated some of the men now holding office and therefore are trying to keep the same fellows in office all the time.

You Democrats must think the people are all fools if you think that kind of stuff goes. Eight times for Woods and seven times for Rochester. It is a pity nominations aren't passed around.

Full of Tragical Meaning

are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of

AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY.

'Tis strange, strange indeed,
Yet 'tis so that some men will Forever run and never heed,
But public office of the county fill.

Now, for instance, let us see
Who could such men in this county be?
Two, in particular, we are told,
Have made such races and are so bold.

D. Woods by name, and Joseph G.
Are just such men as above described;
"Elect us this time" is their only plea,
And we for two will be satisfied.

In eighteen hundred and seventy-eight
But Joseph G. was a little late;
A few years later his debut was made,
And a few more times has been left in the shade.

Four years later in eighty-two
D. Woods was again his party's pride,
For he was to his party true,
And he with it has never died.

D. Woods again in eighty-six
Did with the voters of the county mix,
And he again the race did run;
We are sure for him 'twas only fun.

And in this race was Joseph G.;
Together how they work;
They stumped the county, such fun to be Joseph G., attorney; D. Woods, clerk.

In the year eighteen hundred and ninety
D. Woods thought there were plenty
Of men to elect him as county clerk,
And in he went with but little work.

As years rolled on, in four years more
D. Woods was their choice;
Add four to ninety, makes ninety-four,
And again did the Dems. rejoice.

Clerk's office was D. Wood's heaven!
The race for county clerk he did make
Again in the year of ninety-seven;
My! This time the Dems. were awake.

And here was Joseph G.! Oh, fudge!
For so long he'd been out of work,
But it was Joseph G. for judge,
And D. Woods for county clerk.

But my! Oh, my! Such gall!
Bill Goebel was the cause,
And 'twas the hardest race e'er fought
For 'twas the governor's chair he sought.

"Increase my vote"—the message sent,
And the door left with key turned;
On this was D. Woods bent;
To lose votes Republicans earned.

Another year did D. Woods run;
It was in nineteen hundred and one,
For the office of county clerk,
But he failed with all his work.

And in this race was Joseph G.;
They went away arm in arm,
Defeated badly as could be Saying sadly: "I'll be darned!"

We fail to describe with tongue or pen,
Two old soldiers have they been;
But we are up to the present time
And they are still on the firing line.

How much longer will they run?
And will they ne'er grow weary?
Another race have they begun;
Don't you think they're rather leary?

Should these men continue to run,
Just lay aside the joke and fun,
Tho' they be old and somewhat gauntly
Doed them the office with a general
warranty.

But once more, boys, rally round
To defeat these two one more time;
We are sure they're plenty to be found,
And they'll surely withdraw from the firing line.

And so on from campaign to campaign,
They've for honor striven to gain;
But these two old loyal friends
Will soon be numbered with the "has beens."

A POINTED LETTER FROM
REV. E. B. BLACKBURN
He Asks His Friends To Support the Republican Nominee.
Following is a letter from Rev. E. B. Blackburn in which he shows up the Press as trying to misrepresent him: To My Friends in Crittenden County: The Crittenden Press has repeatedly referred to me and my action in signing a petition of W. J. Hill, who is a candidate for jailer.
The Press tries to leave the impression on the voters that I ask for Mr. Hill for jailer and against Mr. Albert H. Travis, the Republican nominee for that office.
I have never pledged myself to vote for Mr. Hill and the petition that I signed for him did not in any way pledge him my support. It merely stated that Mr. Hill is a citizen of the county and eligible to be voted for as jailer.
After signing the petition, which was done as an accommodation to Mr. Hill, I, after reflection, concluded that some might misconstrue my motives and I went to Mr. Hill and asked him to take my name off of his petition, which he did.
I am for Albert Travis for jailer.

SPECIAL Sale of Hats

Beginning on Monday, Oct. 23, I will open a special sale of Hats and Millinery Goods that will continue two weeks only. We will sell at the following unheard-of prices:

Ready-to-wear Hats, worth $2.00, at $1.25
" " " 1.50 at 1.00
" " " 1.25 at 75
" " " 1.00 at 50
" " " 75 at 40

Remember the sale will last only two weeks and the first to come will be the first served. Come early and take your choice. A few felts selling below cost. Very truly, because I know that he is worthy of my support, that he has made a splendid jailer and is in every respect an upright, honorable man. I intend to do all I can in an honorable way for his success and for the success of every man on the Republican ticket. I ask all of my friends to do the same.

MRS. E. G. BUGG, Fredonia, Ky.

Sincerely yours,
E. B. BLACKBURN.

Caution!

Persons, when traveling, should exercise care in the use of drinking water. As a safeguard, it is urged that every traveler secure a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy before leaving home, to be carried in the hand luggage. This may prevent distressing sickness and annoying delay.

Neuralgia And Other Pain.

All pain in any disease is nerve pain, the result of a turbulent condition of the nerves. The stabbing, lacerating, darning, burning, agonizing pain that comes from the prominent nerve branches, or sensory nerves, is neuralgia, and is the "big brother" of all the other pains.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills rarely ever fail to relieve these pains by soothing these larger nerves, and restoring their tranquility.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills leave no bad after-effects, and are a reliable remedy for every kind of pain, such as headache, backache, stomachache, sciatica, rheumatism and neuralgia. They also relieve Dizziness, Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Car-Sickness, and Distress after eating.

"For many years I have been a constant sufferer from neuralgia and headache, and have never been able to obtain any relief from various headache powders and capsules, until I tried Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They always cure my headache in five minutes time." FRED B. SWINGLEY, Cashier 1st Nat. Bank, Addison, Neb.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given to the qualified electors of the City of Marion, Ky., that in pursuance of an ordinance passed and approved by the City Council of said city, on the 10th day of October, 1905, an election will be held on the 7th day of November, 1905, at the usual voting places in said city, to vote upon a proposition to incur an indebtedness of $27,000 thousand dollars and issue bonds therefor, for the purpose of building and erecting a water works plant in such city, to be owned and operated by such city. Said bonds to bear six per cent. per annum interest, to be payable at the option of such city, after five years from date of issue, and to become due and payable thirty years from date of issue.

That two thousand dollars shall be raised annually by taxation to pay the interest on said bonds, and create a sinking fund sufficient to redeem same when due.

The ballot for such election will be prepared as follows:

For incurring debt... Yes ☐

For incurring debt... No ☐

The former of which shall be taken as a vote, assenting to the incurring of such debt, and the latter as dissenting therefrom. J. W. Blue, Jr., Mayor.

J. C. Bourland, City Clerk. 4t

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

No one can reasonably hope for good digestion when the bowels are constipated. Mr. Charles Baldwin, of Edwardsville, Ill., says: "I suffered from chronic constipation and stomach troubles for several years, but thanks to Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, am almost cured." Why not get a package of these tablets and get well and stay well? Price 25c. For sale by Haynes & Taylor, the enterprising druggists, of Marion, Ky.

Colds

It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and prepares the system for the more serious diseases, among which are the two greatest destroyers of human life, pneumonia and consumption.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

has won its great popularity by its prompt cures of this most common ailment. It aids expectoration, relieves the lungs and opens the secretions, effecting a speedy and permanent cure. It counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia.

Price 25c, Large Size 50c.

WHEN IT WAS REALLY COLD.

Ink Froze to Pens and Boys to Wet Lapstones in Those Days.

The ancient art of keeping warm in blustering winter weather was crude as practiced by the forefathers or Judge Sewell would not have complained that he was slow in recording events in his diary because his ink froze upon his pen. Nor would the colonial shoemakers have many times decided that it was too cold to make shoes, but just right to go hunting. The test of temperature was made by allowing an apprentice to sit on a wet lapstone. If he was frozen to it the weather was considered too cold to work.

Indeed, just how the people of the cold parts of this country got any comfort during the severe winter days is not apparent to the eyes of today that have looked upon the simple and curious heat producers of early times. A rare collection of these ancient fireplaces, andirons, stoves and other promoters of mercurial rises is preserved today in the Essex institute in Salem, Mass., together with much interesting information thereon.

One of these curios is a fireback from the ancestral home of Colonel Timothy Pickering, Washington's friend and secretary of war. It is of slate and looks like a gravestone. It was carved with the Pickering family crest. It was placed in the back of the fireplace, so that the burning logs would not set fire to the house.

These old fashioned fireplaces were huge affairs. Children could sit in their corners and watch the sparks chase each other toward the stars. The fireplaces and chimneys were first lined with mud, so that they would not burn, but later they were made of brick. It is a common remark that in trying to get warm at such the faces of people were roasted from the heat, while their backs froze in the drafts from the cracks in the windows and doors.

But the early forefathers were a hardy race and endured the cold wonderfully. The Puritans of Salem refused to heat their meeting houses, declaring that warmth therein "was a snake of ye wily and wicked Satan." The sturdy Puritan sires and their sons kicked their heels together when the cold stopped the circulation of their blood, and the preachers often patiently paused in their two hours' discourses to wait for everybody to become warm and stop kicking.

Women carried little foot stoves to church. These were perforated tin boxes about a foot square, into which hot embers from the family hearth were placed, and the hot stove was then taken to meeting along with the Bible.

Coal was known as early as 1637 in this country, and it was called "iron stone." But wood was far cheaper and more convenient and was most used. Peat was also utilized, as it could be obtained from many bogs.

Stoves were introduced as early as 1652, and in that year the general court of Massachusetts granted to John Clark 10 shillings for every family using his valuable invention, a stove, for a period of three years, and this grant was subsequently extended for a period of Clark's lifetime, the general court being deeply grateful for the comfort derived from his invention.

The first open front coal stoves were designed by Benjamin Franklin and were cast by James Byres & Co. in Springfield, Mass. in 1787. Franklin probably got his idea from the German stoves used in Pennsylvania. These had a hot air drum, which extended to the second story and warmed that part of the house, but the doors of many of them were outside the house, so that it was necessary to go outdoors to feed them with fuel. Franklin's invention marked the beginning of stoves for burning coal and wood which are in general use today.

These early stoves were as great blessings to the forefathers as are steam heaters today. Even the poets sang of their virtues, referring to them as "stoves which autumn of winter could make."

But today the practical man wants summer of winter made, and the various simple devices of the forefathers—the firebacks, andirons, open fireplaces and crude stoves—have been thrown into the junk heap or into the museum to make way for the modern hot air and steam heaters.—Boston Globe.

Nothing to Fear.

The question of injurious substances in medicines, which has been agitating the minds of many people, does not concern those who use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need have no hesitancy in continuing to give it to their little ones, as it contains absolutely nothing injurious. This remedy is not only perfectly safe to give to small children, but is a medicine of great worth and merit. It has a world-wide reputation for its cures of coughs, colds and croup, and can always be relied upon. For sale by Haynes & Taylor, the enterprising Duggists, of Marion.
