FROM MR. J. FRANK CONGER

He Tells What A "Tar Barrel" Politician Did In His Case and Points to What They

SAY ABOUT REPUBLICANS AND NEGROES

Dear Editor RECORD:

As I have of late heard of some inquiries as to what Conger and his friends are going to do, I can only answer by saying they will do what he has always done. They have been increasing the Republican majority until this is a Republican county safe and sure, and that is in short what they will continue to do as long as the Republican party believes in majority rule and stands for the fundamental principles of government as it does today. It has been said by designing persons that I was sore over my defeat in the primary. Why should any Republican be sore over being defeated by a Republican.

That is our faith—majority rule, and we believe when a man gets the votes that he should have what they call for and it should not be taken away from him. My people are honest and conservative, and when election day comes, they without any prejudice or excitement go to town and cast an honest vote, then if the other party has a majority of the votes they will submit because we believe in majority rule. As to the primary I have never complained as to the way it was conducted. Every man that got a majority was declared the nominee. Then who is there to complain? As to the court house gang as spoken of in the Press I wish to say that is simply a weak effort to try to make some Republican sore and there is not a word of truth in what the Press says about it. Nothing like that makes the Republicans sore. They haven't forgotten the slanders and insinuations of the Press when we had no paper, and they haven't forgotten how the Press persecuted Gov. Taylor, Caleb Powers, and others who were duly elected by the people but afterwards driven from the offices by a set of robbers. And they haven't forgotten that at the same election when they had gone to the polls and cast an honest vote for the man of their choice, that a very prominent Democrat of Marion who, when they were throwing out county after county, said in a rage, knowing that our precinct was largely Republican, "By —, we will throw out No. 4!" And they haven't forgotten the letter in the Press signed "Walter Walker" but written by other parties and signed in that manner because they knew Walter was under age.

We don't forget everything and we don't want any taffy now from you Democrats.

We remember how you say that Republicans and negroes haven't got any sense, when you are in power. The Republicans remember the speech that Harry McChesney made here when he said he was surprised to see the people so pleasantly situated but that he had expected to find them going around in skiffs in the blood that Deboe had caused to be shed.

You may say, "Poor, one armed Morgan knows where his friends are and who they are." He was born and reared among them.

As to the Democratic nominees, they are all my personal friends and aside from politics they would stand by me, but no longer than I would by them, but when I was a candidate for representative, they allowed a well known liar to start a false report on me to injure me. Democrats away from me, who had pledged me their support, without my asking it.

But under the influence of that man and the present Democratic nominees, they turned away from me, voted against me and to this good day have not given me any reason for not doing what they said they would do. And those same men found out that some men in Livingston county who had known me all my life had pledged me their support, sent parties down there to tell them what this liar had said and prejudiced them away from me, but I am going to say right here that there were a few whom they could not tear away from me, and to whom I feel grateful. To show you how they will do when they are in the majority when they can get nothing else to injure a man in order to carry their point, they will write out a slanderous lie and one of their leaders will sign it and here I will give you a sample of one signed by the chairman of the Democratic campaign committee and whose heart is as black as a tar barrel:

Smithland, Ky., Oct. 21, 1903.

Dear Sir:—

The Democratic Campaign Committee of Livingston county hereby request that you kindly see that every Democrat within your knowledge goes to the election on the 3d day of November and votes. It is important that every man who believes in a free count and that negroes have no place on the juries in this country, should go to the polls and help to save this judicial district from Republican domination. Remember that we have to cast 4,000 votes before we commence voting against white people in this election for circuit judge as there are 4,000 negro voters in the district. A poll of this county shows that we have 800 majority. Counting the negroes and a few white people who go with them, 900 votes are all that can be mustered against us; the other 1700 are Democrats, so there is nothing for us to do in this county but to see that we get out and vote on November 3d. Now, will you do it? Not only go yourself, but take your neighbor with you. See that he gets conveyance some way, or if you do not, and Pratt is elected, you are liable to have to come down to court here some time and find things like they are in Christian county and in the Federal court in Paducah—you will have to sit up by the side of a big buck negro on the jury, and if it is on a murder case you will have to eat with him and be locked up with him over night, and how will you like that? And all because you may stay at home and fail to go to the polls. Conditions are now different to what they were when Pratt ran in 1902; he was elected then by Democrats; if elected this time it will be by the negroes of Hopkins county, who have been imported into that county to take the place of white labor by the coal companies. So he will be in a place that he will have to recognize the power that puts him in; besides, Roosevelt, the "rough rider," has brought the negro down to a level with him by inviting him to his table and eating with him, and that puts matters in a different shape to what they have ever been before.

We have to elect a representative, too, and unless you go to the polls, our gallant young county man, Everett Butler, will be defeated by that arch deceiver, J. Frank Conger, from the county of Crittenden, who has a plain, non-political card that he hands to Democrats and a card with a log cabin on it for the negroes and their fellow Republicans; and how is that for a moral man? A religious man? A good man? Honest, ain't he? That is honest to try to dupe the people and try to make them believe that he is a sanctified and extraordinary good man; out, Frankie, boy, the people are on to your little game of deception; it will not work. He says that he does not know how he will vote on the Uniformity Text Book bill, that he does not know anything about it. If he tells the truth, that he does not know anything about it, then you should go to the polls on election day and help to bury him so deep that he will never rise again, for any man who after five years of ardent discussion by the state press of a measure, as that bill has been discussed, and then says that he does not know anything about it, that man has not sense enough to hit the ground with his hat, let alone represent two counties in the legislature. The truth of the matter is he does know something of the School Book bill, and he knows that he and the party that he gangs with are against the bill and he has not the nerve and manhood to stand up and tell the people the truth about it, but is simply trying to hoodwink a few Democrats into voting for him on the idea of being a good moral man. Do you think that a man who will do a thing like that is honest? I have no condemnation for the man who takes an honest position on a matter, but the man who dodges and tries to mislead you is a dangerous character, even if he is a Sunday school teacher and leads in prayer. You had better watch him and come out to the election and let's fix him so that he will have to stay at home and continue to lead in prayer for his Crit-

HON. M. B. CLARK

Republican Nominee for Representative.

"I AM IN FAVOR OF IMPARTIAL JURIES."

In accepting the nomination tendered me as your candidate for representative in the next general assembly of Kentucky, I desire to thank you for the confidence imposed in me and accept the nomination from a sense of duty rather than a personal interest. It is my earnest desire to represent the good people of Crittenden and Livingston counties in such a way as will go down to the credit of my self and the general good of the state, and enter the race with no other motive in view.

I am in favor of impartial juries, honestly elected according to law, and am uncompromisingly opposed to packing juries and composing them only of one political party. It is for the good of the community that courts should be free from political and religious influence, and should be guided by justice and law impartially administered. I believe in fair and honest elections and the counting of every vote as cast.

While the present election law needs to be amended so as to give the people all needed protection in their rights, and am in favor of such amendment, to my mind the secret system of voting is much better than the viva voce system.

I stand for an economic administration of the affairs of the state and am opposed to all grafting and corruption. If elected, I shall faithfully try to serve the people to the very best of my ability. Very respectfully,

M. B. CLARK.

tenden county Republicans.

GEO. W. LANHAM,

Ch'm Livingston Co. Dem. Com., 1903.

If there should be one Republican in this county who is in any danger of being taffied by the Press, will you please get a copy of the Dixon Journal of Oct. 20th, a Democratic paper published at Dixon, Webster county, and see how they talk about Republicans in a Democratic county. Fellow-Republicans, they say you helped to murder one of the greatest governors the state ever had. In the face of all these things I can only say that a Republican who would get sore now already had the sores in him and needed a Democrat to rub him a little to make them come out, and if they can only keep them out the Republican party will be the better off. I served the Republicans of this county as chairman for six years and I never called upon you but that you rallied, and I told you when you first chose me as chairman that I wanted to serve you until I had seen every office in the county filled with Republicans. I saw it before I resigned and I expect to see it again another four years, at least, we have not got a single candidate that any man can say aught against except Democrats and they can only say he is a Republican.

October 23. J. FRANK CONGER.

Lead and Zinc Market.

Joplin, Missouri, October 21.—A slight decline was noticed in the ore market, so far as zinc is concerned, compared with prices of the preceding week. Ore from the Mockingbird and Rob Roy leases are bringing the top prices of $51.50 per ton. The basis price ranged from $47 to $49 for ore assaying 60 per cent zinc, a decline of $1. per ton from the basis of last week. Lead remained steady at $64. per ton.

Don't Borrow Trouble.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow, is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy weary and worn out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease, and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but fly for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent forgetfulness of all your troubles and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At Haynes & Taylor's drug store: Price 50c. Guaranteed.

make intelligent citizens within our reach mistrust us. They know us better than you do. We don't take things for granted. We don't copy from the Press and herald it abroad and ask all men to read and believe as you have done. We take the truth as the basis. The court records in this county verify the charges we have made in this campaign. And on the 7th day of November next we will see, Mr. Journal, whether the people of this county believe you and the Crittenden Press in preference to the truth as we have reported it. You, Mr. Journal, undertake to say that rottenness abounds in the Republican party. We would like to ask you whether you can explain the judgment of the people at the polls last fall. We would like to ask you to explain how Goebel stole his nomination and disregarded his agreement with Captain Stone, of Kuttawa. We would like for you to explain how you Democrats stole the state offices from the Republicans who were duly elected and whose election was certified to by Democratic commissioners. If that is not rottenness, Webster does the word a great injustice when he defines it. If that is not rottenness, where will you find it? The difference, Mr. Journal, between the Republican party and the Democratic party is this: When corruption enters our ranks we denounce it and cut off the heads of the politicians who practice it. We have done it in this county and we do it every where. When corruption enters your party you condone it and set the men on high who practice it. In 1903 it did you good in your soul to vote for men, the recipients of stolen offices, men who aided and abetted in stealing them.

HUNDREDS ENJOY THE OPENING DAY

In Spite of Rain and Mud—Most of the Exercises Prevented.

The big barbecue dinner given here on October 25, in honor of the big "Opening Day" of the new and greater Marion, was attended by about 2,000 people. The pleasure of the day was almost completely marred by the condition of the weather, as it rained nearly all day on both Tuesday and Wednesday.

The grand civic parade which had been planned, and which was to have included about one hundred wagon loads of ore from the mines of the district, as well as floats made up by the business men of the city, the commercial and fraternal organizations and the school children in marching order, and other special features, had to be abandoned on account of rain.

It was also impossible, until late in the afternoon, to serve the dinner at Judge Rochester's grove where all arrangements had been made for the barbecue and speaking, and at the last hour it was found necessary to serve dinner in the uncompleted building of Mr. Harry Carnahan on Main street, where free dinner was served between 12 o'clock, noon, and 2 o'clock p. m.

While the big gala day was almost a fiasco, no one could possibly find fault with the citizens of city and county who planned to feast and make merry in celebrating the successful effort of rebuilding a greater Marion in the shortest possible time where the fire of March 28 wrought havoc and ruin.

The spirit of the day was to show full appreciation of the conflict between "well laid plans of mice and men" and the unfavorable weather conditions.

(Special to Louisville Herald.)

Marion, Ky., Oct. 25.—The citizens of this place today celebrated the reopening of the new Marion with a big free barbecue dinner, partaken of by about 2000 visitors. The grand civic parade, which had been planned, was abandoned on account of the bad weather.

The cause of the festival occasion was the practical completion of rebuilding the business section of the city, which was almost totally destroyed by fire on March 28 last. About twenty business houses and office buildings, including a new postoffice, all larger and better than before the fire, have been rebuilt at average cost of from $4,000 to $10,000 each, and most of them have been re-occupied.

Marion, Ky., Oct. 25.—(Special)—The rebuilding of Marion was celebrated today with a free barbecue. Addresses were delivered by Mayor Blue, Congressman James, former Senator Deboe and others. There was a display of fireworks tonight.—Courier-Journal.

REAL ISSUE IS DEFINED

The Press Challenges Powerful and Unanswerable "NIT"

DEMOCRACY GETS OFF TRACK

But We Bring Them Back and Again Ask Them to Face the Issue

WHEN WILL THEY NAME ONE?

"Name one, just one, Republican who has been indicted in Judge Gordon's court by a partisan grand jury, who should not have been."

"Name one, just one, Democrat who escaped indictment in Judge Gordon's court by reason of partisan jury, who should have been indicted."

"Name one, just one, Republican who has been convicted in Judge Gordon's court by reason of partisan jury, who should have been acquitted."

"Name one, just one, Democrat who has been acquitted by reason of partisan jury in Judge Gordon's court, who should have been convicted."

"Name one, just one, Democrat who has won a civil case in Judge Gordon's court by reason of partisan jury, who should have lost it."

"Name one, just one, Republican who has lost a case in Judge Gordon's court, by reason of a partisan jury, who should have won it."—Crittenden Press.

We beg leave to answer the above challenge by respectfully informing you that Judge Gordon is not the issue in this campaign, but should be a candidate four years hence we will take up his case and we will fight him on his record. However, there is an issue in this campaign, and that is the PARTISAN MAN-NER IN WHICH JURIES ARE SELECTED IN THIS COUNTY. IT WAS MADE SO WHEN YOU MADE YOUR AFFABLE JURY COMMISSIONER, THOS. H. COCHRAN, A CANDIDATE FOR THE LEGISLATURE. And on this issue of the campaign we submit to you the following proposition, which we will clothe almost in your own words:

NAME ONE, JUST ONE, PETIT OR GRAND JURY PANEL THAT HAS BEEN SELECTED BY T. H. COCHRAN COMMISSIONER THAT WAS NOT DEMOCRATIC—NAME ONE, JUST ONE, THAT WAS NOT SELECTED IN A PARTISAN MANNER.

NOTE—When you convince the voters that it is not partisan for 42 per cent of the county, Democrats, to furnish 82 per cent. of the names (Democrats) for the jury panels, the laws of nature will be reversed and the sun will rise in the west and set in the east.

Caution!

Persons, when traveling, should exercise care in the use of drinking water. As a safeguard, it is urged that every traveler secure a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy before leaving home, to be carried in the hand luggage. This may prevent distressing sickness and annoying delay.

Municipal Politics.

"The worst evils that affect our local government arises from and are the inevitable results of the mixing up of the city affairs with the party politics of the Nation and the State. The lines upon which national parties divide have no necessary connection with the business of the city. Such connections open the way to countless schemes of public plunder and civic corruption."—Theodore Roosevelt.

IMPROVEMENT OF SCHOOLS

Suggestions For Beautifying Grounds Around Them In Rural Sections.

Wallace's Farmer publishes the following inquiry and reply: "Will be pleased to hear how to beautify our country school grounds, the kind of fencing, and cost."

"Our correspondent has opened up a rather large question. We are glad to see inquiries coming in on this important topic. We don't know how it is in Nebraska, but the average Iowa, Illinois and Missouri school grounds are about the most uninviting section of the whole country around, frequently not a tree or shrub, and not always fences.

"In our judgment, the first thing would be to prepare the ground thoroughly and plant a wind break of trees on the north and west sides, preferably Russian mulberry. That is easily planted, grows rapidly and furnishes an abundance of preferred bird seed, and by no means unacceptable to children. There should be on the east and south sides, and possibly scattered through the grounds, trees of some other variety—ash or catalpa—depending, of course, on the longitude and latitude. Then there should be in every school yard a flower garden containing as great a variety of flowers as possible. This would be enough for a beginning.

"The fencing would depend on the location. There is really none better than a good post and board fence. If this is not available, woven wire. In the southern part of our territory there are locations where orange orange would make good fence, provided it is properly planted and taken care of. It is a fence, however, which if neglected becomes about as unsightly and undesirable as could possibly be suggested. The schoolteacher could secure a thoroughly prepared hedgehog seed bed and have the boys plant it under directions with thrifty hedge plants, and when they were a year or perhaps two years old and grown up in straight rods, trim them off close. Then dig up the dirt several inches deep on each side of the plants and from between them. Then plant them over at an angle of 45 degrees, fastening with broom wire to the roots of another plant below. Then cut the hedge off about three feet high after filling in the dirt on each side. Then keep it trimmed, never allowing it to be more than three feet and a half high, or four at the outside, and not more than six inches wide. It is the most beautiful and in every way desirable fence that could be obtained, and, growing, it would be an education for the boys."

KEEPING TOWNS CLEAN.

Valuable Advice Gleaned From An Appeal Issued to Denver's Citizens.

Especially for a town which seeks to attract tourists or investors it is a great advantage if everything about it has a neat and prosperous appearance, says the Pathfinder. The mayor of Denver has brought about a notable change in that city by issuing an appeal to the citizens as follows. The example could be followed elsewhere:

If your store front, residence or fence is dull or dingy, order it painted. If your awning is old, torn or faded, get a new one.

If your sidewalk, fence or gate needs repairing, fix it.

Destroy the young weeds that are starting on your property and on your neighbor's property.

If your advertising sign is old or faded, take it down or repaint it.

Resolve never to throw paper in the streets.

Take all dandelions out of your lawn; they spoil its beauty.

Burn all the rubbish possible. Allow no one to throw it on the streets, alleys or vacant lots.

Promise not to spit on the sidewalk.

Organize a block improvement society and allow no weeds to grow on sidewalks, area or vacant property in your block.

Ask your milkmen, grocersmen and expressmen to have their wagons painted.

Irrespective of the size of your house, make your lawn the finest.

Illuminate the front of your store in the business section.

Every effort put forth or dollar spent to improve our city's appearance will be returned twofold.

A Woman's Enterprise.

Valparaiso, Ind., reports the organization by women, incorporated by women, with women officers and directors and funds collected by women of the Valparaiso Civic Improvement company. This form of organization is preliminary to the establishment of a large park north of the town. Valparaiso women first improved the cemeteries of the town and then organized a village improvement association, which last year divided the town into sections and planted trees, set out shrubs, made flower gardens of vacant lots, kept the weeds cut and removed waste paper from the streets. The dues of this association are 5 cents a month. This year work of a more permanent nature is planned. Cement walks are to be laid in the small parks.

Value of Good Schools.

Remember that high class schools are rarely found in dull and backward towns, says D. M. Carr in Home Trade Advocate. The better the town is, the more business transacted within its limits and the more prosperous its people, the greater will be the income for the maintenance of schools. Dollars sent away from the town and the country adjacent injure the place and the schools are kept from advancing. Give your support to your home town if you favor good schools and the proper education of your children.

A COSTLY LESSON.

Lack of Fire Engines Causes Heavy Loss in Ohio Town.

An Ohio town had a lesson recently which it will not forget in a hurry. During a fire that started in the business section it developed that there was no organized fire department in the town and no fire engines. The only apparatus was a quantity of wornout and useless fire hose. The inhabitants were unable to quell the conflagration, and it was finally extinguished by a heavy rain after burning several hours and destroying much property.

This is a lesson which every community should heed. The best fire apparatus is expensive, but it will prove cheap in the long run. Fire organizations are likely to deteriorate through lack of interest in their work by the citizens. Salaried fire departments are luxuries which only the larger cities can afford to indulge in, so most of the work of guarding property and life from the ravages of fire devolves on volunteer fire organizations, and as a rule they have performed that duty well.

To these organizations every citizen should give hearty support and cooperation. Modern and ample apparatus should be furnished, suitable quarters provided and moral and financial aid extended whenever needed.

Many towns take great pride in their fire companies, and the best young men in the community feel it an honor to be a member of a crack fire organization. Where these conditions prevail all is well. But there are other towns, alas, where antiquated engines and old fashioned and obsolete equipment are lying in some outhouse, neglected and forgotten, and when the time comes when it shall be needed, and badly needed at that, it will be found utterly unfit for its intended purpose. Then will come regrets, but they won't restore the property destroyed.

Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boecher's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size, 75c. For sale by Woods & Orme. 15-21

Money Making Parks.

Following the example of many European cities, Los Angeles, Cal., will turn Griffith park, with an area of 3,000 acres of brush land, into a commercial forest, says Country Life in America. Four experts, with a view to converting this practically waste piece of land into a productive forest, made a comprehensive planting place for the trees, which will not only pay for its cultivation and care through the sale of mature timber, but will prove a constant source of pleasure and recreation for the citizens of Los Angeles. Los Angeles is the first American place to adopt this plan, but it is predicted that other municipalities in the United States will soon follow in its footsteps.

A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subject to what they call "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by Woods & Orme. 14-20

New Circular Wrap For Tall and Stately Women.

NEAT PIN STRIPED MATERIALS.

The Full Skirt Is to Be Displaced by the Plaited Jupe—The Separate Waist Continues in Popular Favor. The Handkerchief Ruffle.

The new circular wrap should only be worn by tall and stately women. It is a long, sweeping cape, measuring many yards in circumference, made of some rich material and often embroidered. It is much handsomer than the old garment of this name.

In materials pin stripes are an interesting feature. As a rule, they appear on smooth weaves, such as flannel and fine serge. White, with a hair stripe in black at quarter or half inch intervals, is liked. Another attractive combination is represented by white hair lines on black.

The prestige of the long, close fitting coat is great, and, since it is at its best in cloth, it will be a feature of the winter modes. Waistcoat and collar details and originality of cut give variety to these coats, and a new model shows a most effective directoire collar and jabot of lingerie bordered with velvet on an otherwise plain long coat.

Skirts are for the most part circular in cut. The plaited jupe is voted de mode, and the full skirt has had its day of triumph.

A deep purple velvet hat is lavishly trimmed with lavender roses, and another model of the same hue and material is adorned with a great pinkish lavender bird on the left side.

The attractive costume pictured consists of a box plaited plaid skirt and a plain cloth jacket. The coat has the long dart effect coming from the shoulders and rounds gracefully over the hips. The notched collar is of velvet.

SEPARATE WAISTS.

Notwithstanding the popularity of the separate waist its reign is by no means over. The winter models are charming. The general lines in these waists have not changed much. The difference is seen in the use of new materials and in the decorations.

The Marguerite and Dutch necks are seen on silk and net separate waists, and in lingerie ones the collarless effects are just as much worn.

The new separate waists have their underarm seams curved definitely into the figure, and there is less fullness at the waist line.

In the dressier separate bodices white taffeta is the material often used elaborated with entre-deux of Valenciennes and other fine laces. The sleeves may extend to the wrist or cut off at the elbow.

A pretty finish for an elbow sleeve is called the "handkerchief ruffle," resembling a fine handkerchief with the center cut separate.

Fancy cut waists of all over lace are worn with Eton and bolero suits. Such a jacket may appropriately be worn at the theater, concert or luncheon.

The waist in the cut is a dainty creation for theater wear. It may be carried out in soft silk or in any of the attractive new nets or laces. Embroidered bands trim the U shaped empiement and elbow sleeves.

ATTRACTIVE TRIFLES.

Cream serge dresses are to be worn this winter by girls of ten and twelve for "best." These frocks hang straight from the yoke, having first been laid in two side plaits turned in opposite directions, simulating box plaits. They start from the bust and are attached to long waist depth, confined there with a pale blue belt and finished on the bottom with a hem. The round yoke is trimmed with two rows of flat pale blue braid an inch wide, looped in the center as it is sewed on. The sleeves are bishop affairs, with braid trimmed cuffs. An original touch is given by sewing three handsome enameled buttons at intervals down the left plait.

With the renewed popularity of the princess gown it behooves femininity to do what they can to make the lines of their backs more symmetrical.

There is a sharp line drawn this season between morning and afternoon costumes. All lines of a walking suit must be severe, while there is no limit to the elaborate reception gown. Deep red and plum color as well as all the dark shades of purple are the colors of the moment for evening costumes. For afternoon light shades rule with dainty color contrasts. Black relieved with white or some pale color at the collar is smart, with the same shade carried out also in the hat.

The hat illustrated is of deep plum colored velvet. About the crown is a wreath of shaded purple and plum colored satin and velvet roses. The back is raised with a large asiatian bow of velvet.

CHILDREN'S STYLES.

In materials for school dresses there is a wide choice, the two extremes of lightness and being particularly serviceable, with blue serge as the old standby. French plaids are especially pretty made with plaided skirts, suggestive of the highlander. Then there are big broken plaids, neither Scotch nor French, but just as stunning as either, with blues and greens cunningly mingled or rich seal browns set off by lines of black.

White collars of pique or linen with a scallop done by hand have a brightening effect on a dark school dress when worn with a wide soft silk tie.

In small girls' coats there is an endless change rung upon three themes—box coats, reefers and Russian blouses, with chevrons and belts stuck on with apparent disregard of the fitness of things.

Navy, the real old fashioned color, is coming into favor again this season. Red in all the soft shades is a leader, and brown, although not first choice, is still in the sartorial field.

Plaids in several tones of the same shade are new and chic. They blend so perfectly that from a distance the plaid is hardly discernible.

Princess effects in frocks are to be smart, but it takes a good figure and a perfect dressmaker to bring about the desired stunning result.

The child's frock seen in the cut is of blue serge. The skirt is plain save for a double box plait in front. Button trimmed bands, piped with silk, trim the waist and sleeves. The chemise is of white linen.

Do you take The Record?

THERE IS NO SORENESS IN REPUBLICAN RANKS!

Defeated Candidates and Their Friends Are All in Line Except Towery, Who is Busily Engaged "Hollering"

HURRAH FOR OLLIE M. JAMES JUST NOW.

To the Voters of Crittenden County.

October 16, 1905.
I was a candidate for the nomination in the Republican primary election in April for the office of jailer of Crittenden county. I was defeated for the nomination, but I am for the man that defeated me and for the entire Republican ticket. I am no less a Republican now than I was before the primary. I believe in the principle of the party and I want to see the candidate of my party successful at the polls.

PATRICK C. GILBERT.

To My Friends.

To my friends who gave me their votes in the April primary I desire to express to you my sincere thanks. You were my friends then and you are my friends now. At that time I asked you to vote for me for assessor. But I was fairly defeated and I now come to you and ask you to give the support you gave me to J. Anthony Davidson for assessor, and while you are voting for Anthony don't forget the other boys who are on the Republican ticket. Let every Republican do his whole duty this November election by voting the Republican ticket.

I desire to see every man on the ticket win and to that end I shall vote.
I am faithfully yours,
W. H. ORDWAY.

To the Voters of Crittenden County.

October 19, 1905.
I wish to say to the voters of Crittenden county that the Democratic party has done nothing in this state or county for the last ten years that offers the least inducement to any Republican of which political faith I have ever been, to affiliate with it. The Republican party has and does offer every inducement to any and all men everywhere who believe in civil and political liberty to vote for and co-operate with it. In so doing I believe the best results can be brought about, therefore, I shall do in the coming election what I have been doing for forty years—vote for what I believe to be the best interest of the Republican party.

A. A. DEROE.

To the Voters of Crittenden County.

Oct. 17, 1905.
EDITOR CRITTENDEN RECORD:
I desire to take up enough of your space this week to publicly thank all my friends who stood by me so loyally in my canvass for the nomination for sheriff in the primary of April 1. I do not deem it necessary to say that I am now and have always been satisfied with the results of that primary, because it expressed the will of the people. No ambition of mine is greater than the will of the voters of my party. I wish to say in addition that it is my desire to see the whole ticket elected, and I expect to do as much to bring about that result as I ever did in any election. I have seen too much of political juries to ever give the Democratic party in this county aid even by my silence. I trust that no man who voted for me on April 1 will fail to vote the Republican ticket from top to bottom on November 7.

Again thanking all my friends, I am
Yours truly,
W. S. HICKLIN.

To the Voters of Crittenden County.

October 19, 1905.
As is known by all who have kept trend with political affairs in this county, I was a candidate for the office of sheriff in the primary election held April 1. I was defeated for the nomination by Mr. Flanary and not by any "court house gang," for I know of no such organization, but unfortunately for myself and others who sought the nomination for sheriff, there were too many of us from my side of the county. We divided the vote in our section among ourselves which gave Mr. Flanary the nomination.

But, while I was not nominated, I am still a Republican and loyal to my party and its candidates. When more than one man aspires to an office, some of them must be defeated. If I had been the nominee I would have been entitled to the support of the friends of the other candidates and now I want to ask all of my friends as a personal favor to me as well as doing a good deed, to stand by the Republican ticket all the way through.

Truly yours,
W. A. WOODALL.

To the Taxpayers.

S. M. Jenkins, supposed editor and owner of the Crittenden Press, seems to be very much interested in the taxpayers of Crittenden county.

If so, Mr. Jenkins, why don't you tell why it was you were permitted to print the financial statement of this county this year without letting some one bid on it?

Now, as to ballots, Marshall, don't fret. I will see to it that the ballots of this election will not cost the taxpayers of Crittenden county one cent more than they did in the good year of 1901 when your dear Davie gave the contract to the Crittenden Press.

Now, Marshall, don't be too fast. You must remember that you are not the only pebble on the beach. There are other printing offices in Kentucky, and I beg to inform you that I can receive bids on ballots without calling on you.

I have only had the printing of ballots in this county three years and I gave the printing of them to the Press two years out of the three, and yet you say I, at least, should even up. That is what I am trying to do.
I will say to the taxpayers that I have never given the printing of ballots to any one without first receiving bids. When the Press printed the ballots in 1902 and 1903 under contract from me, it met the price made by Jno. P. Morton & Co., and in 1904 THE RECORD met Jno. P. Morton & Company's price and it will do so this year.
The Press would have you believe there is a chance of saving the county $100 or more in the printing of ballots. Now, the facts are these. The ballots have not cost more than $100 but twice since 1900.

In 1901 when your dear, bosom friend, Davie, gave the contract to the Press, it was paid $110 for ballots and supplies, and in 1904 I gave the printing to the CRITTENDEN RECORD and the price paid was $111.08 and there were about 2000 more ballots printed than in the year 1901 at a cost of only $1.08 more.
I wish to say to my friends that I will guarantee to you that the ballots will not cost any more than the usual price paid. But, as for Marshall and the gang that are dictating to him I desire to say that so long as I am county clerk or even a private citizen, he will be compelled to run without my support.

My record is before the people and upon that I am willing to stand. I submit my claims to the people and by their decision at the election November 7, I will abide.

I am sincerely yours,
C. E. WELDON.

Bro. Franks Not a Gideon.

So says Bro. Billy Joe, and, well, he lapped like a dog in 1897, and is still lapping. I have continuously been asked why I withdrew from the race for sheriff in the present contest. I did it because it would be a hopeless race to run against two men. I ran against two men in 1897, the men that had held the office so long that the people could hardly turn them loose. I asked for the privilege to make the race with a white man's chance, but it was not even considered.

I am not able physically or financially to make a fool of myself. The Prohibition cause is a good one and ought to be maintained, but when party prejudice is at such a high heat as at present, it is a hopeless cause. I can't afford to say hard things about folks that talk Prohibition and down a fellow when he stands for it, but the great reckoning day will come which will test their sincerity. If some of the people of Crittenden county knew one half of the facts that they ought to know instead of all things they do know, and would give conscience a fair show, there would be some redeeming features in their case.

You may talk about your crippled Samuel, your one armed Morgan and your crippled Franks, who has not seen a well day for 28 years, and for the last nine years has been unable to perform hard labor and has never asked your sympathy that he might be the beneficiary of some office, but some of you have known it all the same.

He has taken his chances as if he was perfectly sound, physically and mentally. One thing, he has not had a Bro. John T. in the field for some time and is not likely to have again, but the end has not been accomplished, therefore, rest from your labors.

May the Lord bless and bring all rottenness to an untimely end with all political lenders. Then will prohibition reign over all nations.

R. M. FRANKS.

Mexico-Salem Railroad.

It is reported that considerable interest in the Mexico-Salem railroad movement is being manifested, that the money has been subscribed, collected and placed on deposit at the bank sufficient to pay for the preliminary survey and incidental expenses of organizing a company.

The road as proposed would be the first link in a belt line through the mineral district, and would have its two terminal points at Mexico and Marion, as outlined in THE RECORD sometime ago when it was reported that the first section built would probably be between Marion and Crittenden Springs. This movement, it was understood at the time, was well underway, but the effects of the fire has greatly retarded progress in this direction.

We sincerely wish that the people of Salem may be successful even beyond their present expectations, and that their enthusiasm may not wane because of the delays which always attend ventures of magnitude.

The people of Marion and Crittenden county should also become alert in an effort to make a start from this end.

A Good Investment.

I have decided to sell my farm of 65 acres, adjoining the city limits, and some land inside of the corporation, with open street on east side, all well watered, 40 acres good bottom land. I will sell either as a whole or in two parts, taking the Salem road as a dividing line, leaving 56 acres on the south side and eight acres, with all improvements on the north side. New residence with five rooms and four porches, new out houses and good barn; finest well in the county. Also small cottage and barn that rent for $4.50 to $5 per month. Fine large cellar and storage room above. Part of eight acres in blue grass. Desirable place for a grocery stand or other kinds of business. All at a bargain if taken at once. Call on or address

D. F. MURPHY,
13-4t Marion, Ky.

To My Friends.

As it will be impossible for me to see all of you in person before the election in November, I take this method of again expressing to you my sincere gratitude for your support in my race for county clerk four years ago, and I assure you that I shall always be thankful to you for the interest you have manifested in me.

I have at all times endeavored to do my duty as your county clerk, and to treat all men alike, and to prove myself worthy of the honor, and if I have at any time failed, it was unintentional.
I received the nomination for re-election from my party without opposition, and it is my sincere desire to see my party successful. I am glad that I can go out before the people as a candidate of a party that is in favor of fair elections and a fair count, and one that is in favor of nonpartisan jurors.

My opponent would have you believe he has been solicited by men of all political parties to make the race again. That is simply his old way of placing himself before the people, and, if you will look at his card in the Crittenden Press in 1894, 1897 and 1901, you will see he claimed the same.

I would like to serve my friends and my party as your next county clerk, and I promise, if elected, to do my duty and I assure you that no living man will appreciate your vote more than I will.

Sincerely thanking you,
C. E. WELDON

A Card.

Having received the nomination for office of Judge of the Crittenden County Court, I take pleasure in announcing myself a candidate for same, and just here I want to thank my many friends for their kind remembrance of me in days gone by. My life, as well as my official record, is as an open book before you.

When questions effecting the interest of the people, such as taxation for the purpose of building a new court house and working roads by taxation, I am opposed to, until a majority of the citizens demand it. My humble judgment is that a few have not the right to impose unnecessary taxation upon the majority of people without their consent. If elected I shall take this stand upon these questions when presented to me. These are my views on the matters, briefly outlined. I ask you to consider them, and if you believe I am right, honest and competent, vote for me, and if elected, I shall endeavor to convince you of my highest appreciation for your kindness by a faithful discharge of the duties of County Judge.

The flavor is half the battle. The purity is the other half. My sorghum is pure and has a flavor that is delicious.

J. FRANK CONGER.

COMMUNICATION FROM HAYNES & TAYLOR

Offer to Refund Money if Hyomei
Does Not Cure Catarrh.

To the Editor of THE RECORD:
We have been asked recently if the advertisements printed in your columns regarding Hyomei were true, where we offer to refund the money if this treatment does not cure catarrh. We wish you would please print this letter in as conspicuous a place as possible in your paper saying that we absolutely agree to refund the money to any purchaser of a Hyomei outfit if it does not cure catarrh.

This outfit consists of an inhaler of a convenient size to be carried in the vest pocket so that the user can breathe Hyomei four or five times daily. With this is included a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The outfit sells for $1.00 and is a most economical treatment, for the inhaler lasts a lifetime and there is enough Hyomei for several weeks' use, while extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents.

We trust this letter will settle any doubts that may have arisen as to our willingness to refund the money for a Hyomei outfit in case the purchaser is not perfectly satisfied.

Respectfully yours,
HAYNES & TAYLOR.

A Card.

TO THE VOTES OF CRITTENDEN COUNTY:

After being solicited and urged by quite a number of friends from all political parties and chosen by the unanimous vote of the committee of my party I have consented to become a candidate for the office of county clerk, but I am sorry to say that it will be impossible for me to make anything like a thorough canvass. However, I will do the best I can in this respect.

It would afford me great pleasure to visit you personally in your homes, but this is beyond my power. You can rest assured that I feel grateful to you for past favors and will appreciate your sympathy and help in this contest.

Nothing known to me would give me more pleasure than to serve you as your next county clerk. It is true, I am, like many of you, growing old, but yet I feel I know that I can discharge the duties of the office personally.

If elected, you will always find me at my post ready to serve you.

Faithfully yours, D. Woods.

An Appeal

TO THE VOTERS OF CRITTENDEN COUNTY:

As chairman of the Republican Campaign Committee I appeal to the voters of Crittenden county to vote the straight Republican ticket at the coming November election for county officers, for state senator and representative. Our candidates are all personally known to me and are clean men of good, moral character and fully competent to fill the offices to which they aspire. It is necessary, more than ever before, for the Republicans of this county to register their protest at the polls against partisan juries and the unfair and unlawful practices of the Democratic party in this county.

AARON TOWERY.

Judge Towery in his valued epistles to the public, through his organ, The Press, intimates that runners were sent out to the different precincts on the day of the primary to spread the news of his indictment, thereby bringing about his defeat. Let us look into that proposition, Judge, in that primary you received 221 votes, W. A. Blackburn 967, making a difference of 646 votes, representing 323 voters that must need have come direct from Blackburn to you in order for you to have won. There are 15 precincts in the county and this means that 21 voters to the precinct all over the county were changed, to use your argument. In Shady Grove precinct Blackburn received only 6 votes, in Piney only 5, in Rose Bud only 11 or 22 votes in these three precincts; this leaves a difference of 624 votes in the other precincts or 321 votes to be changed from you to Blackburn to bring about such results. Now, Judge if this is a fact and you know all the men who did all this work, please, now for the party's sake, don't tell Ollie for he will tell the other boys about them and some of them might try to hire them for the election. Some Democrats would give almost any price for a man who could change twenty-six voters to a precinct, of course a man corrupt enough to try to defeat you in your most cherished hope would sell out and try to beat the Republican party, unless perhaps, he had held office in the county for 15 or 20 years. We would like to know, just from curiosity our selves now, who some of these fellows were, we would like to know who went to Francis and got all your men, who it was that went to Union and got all of them out, 4, or to Bell Mines and got all but 2 and to Rose Bud and landed all but 1? Now Judge, you don't believe that yourself do you? The naked truth is, Judge, you didn't have any chance to be renominated for several reasons and we will inform you of a few right now while we think of it: A lot of Republicans had noticed you chumming with Ollie James and Press Maxwell long before the primary of April 1, and rather seeking their company in preference to that of Republicans, they reasoned from that that you were a Democrat still although riding in the Republican wagon to office. A lot more had come to your office to see you on official business, some of them coming twenty miles and for that purpose alone, and found your office locked and you out of town. Some of these knew the Fiscal court had raised your salary $25.00 per year with the express promise from you that you would stay at your office and attend to it. A lot more Republicans were against you four-years ago and voted for under protest and a lot more scratched you. They gave various reasons for this and some of them are strong ones. A lot more Republicans knew that your knowledge of law was scanty and at best you only guessed at it in short, were ashamed of you on the bench because you were the laughing-stock of lawyers. A great many Republicans over the county had no personal choice but wished to put out the strongest man, your countenance did not get a favorable decision from them, when compared with your opponent's open frank faces, Blackburn and Deboe's address and manner got their votes and they knew they were better electioneers than you. We could go on, we might speak of extra emoluments outside of your regular salary and not allowed according to law; of cash allowed by yourself and to yourself to pay for your official board; of contracts let through the gift of a bicycle but we desist. The truth is, the Republicans of this county wanted some one else, they wanted a man who was a Republican in defeat as well as in victory, they wanted a man above petty things, a man whom the people trusted. Never was the truth of the statements that you were still a democrat more quickly proved, never was a judgment of the voters at the polls confirmed more quickly. The Republicans of this county have builded wiser than they even knew.

BERRY DEBOE.

There always comes a time in every man's life when there are two roads open to him, one leading the right way and to honor and credit, the other leading to the wrong whose ultimate destination is discredit, disgrace and dishonor. One man, and in his honor this article is written, has shown to the world in the last six months that he is too much of a patriot, too earnest a Christian and too zealous a Republican to be changed by every wind or led off by the sympathizing Democrats in the paths of dishonor. That man is Berry Deboe and we take off our hats to him and believe we express the feeling of every true Republican in Crittenden county when we do it. If there ever was a man who had temptations placed before him, who had to listen to the siren songs of Democratic pretended sympathizers, who was given every chance and under all circumstances to speak disparagingly of the county ticket named on April 1, that man is Berry Deboe. The Democrats never worked harder than when they were talking to him, their stock of falsehoods were never more depleted than when they left him, their vocabulary was exhausted, their facial expressions had become grimaces, their gestures had worn them out, but Berry still stood. That kind of blood is the kind that landed at Plymouth Rock, that fought at Lexington and Bunker Hill, that was at Thermopylae when the three-hundred died. It makes history both sacred and profane, men like that have died in prisons, have been guillotined, hanged or burned but their faith never gave out. We need not go far for the reason in this case, when we see a man against whom his neighbors can say naught, whose word is his bond, whose character is above reproach, whose Christianity is unquestioned we can always know that there is a man that will stand. Not one morsel of comfort have the Democrats extracted from him, they speak valuably of disgruntled ones but nothing of Deboe. All honor to a man who has backbone but more honor yet to the man who has never posed as any but a follower and worker and still shows backbone. He has no office, the party has no claim on him from that source, yet he understands his duty to his party and interprets it like he understands and interprets his duty to church. Such a man as this will be mourned when he dies and honest Democrats will mourn with Republicans.

CAST OUT THE MOTE.

The Crittenden Press is vigorously kicking because it did not get a chance to bid upon the ballots in that county. Bro. Jenkins can hardly expect the Democratic clerk to give us a chance to save the taxpayers a dollar, and don't see why you should become so virtuous all at once. Better cast the mote out of your own eyes before hunting the beam in the other fellows. We have never had a chance to bid upon the ballots. —Princeton Chronicle.

The "bicycle season" is about over in this county.

Aren't we Republicans awful glad Tom Cochran isn't St. Peter? Gee!

The Press says that the county judge knows the man who had him indicted.

Has anybody said that Ed Weldon ever left the door open on the night of the election?

The old ship of Democracy in this county seems to have punctured her stern and is slowly sinking.

P. S. Maxwell and Aaron Towery were in consultation Monday afternoon. Mr. Maxwell is the wealthy Democratic nominee for state senate.

What did "Old Timer" mean about Press Maxwell's court house tax? Has Press got those bonds? Oh, yes, it was "railroad" tax. That's right.

I have had the county judge in my boat all the time, —Ollie.

That's the reason you speak of R. L. Moore as being the "new" recruit, then.

The tax on that $10,000 that Maxwell loaned to some parties in the tobacco business would amount to about as much as Dr. Bob's school tax and railroad tax. Strange the assessor nor the board of supervisors could locate it.

I have claimed the Republican faith for 20 years, that is I have filled office as the gift of that party during that time, and now when I can not secure a further endorsement I'll go back to my first Love—Hurrah! for Ollie James—A. Towery.

I am sorry now that I entered the race for Representative. —T. H. Cochran, alias, Democratic nominee, alias, Gordon Jury Commissioners.

Harry Carnahan has his old chair ready to move back in the clerk's office when Dave Woods is elected. Don't be scared, though, boys. He won't move.

The Press says R. L. Moore is a Democrat. It also says, "The Lord only knows what he is." Therefore, the Press attempts to assume the Lordship.

The Dixon Journal is still trying to run Democratic politics in Crittenden county. It seems that the Journal mistrusts the ability of the Press to hold its ground.

The editor of the Press has an opportunity to make $100. Good money, Mr. Editor. If you don't make that $100, how about your responsibility which you recently reminded us of?

The Democrats are howling because we have Bob Moore for our senatorial candidate. The Republicans of Crittenden county guarantee him and that is sufficient. —Princeton Chronicle.

A Chicago physician has recommended that the state legislatures pass laws to use the chloroform route for all incurables. It would be a good idea to commence on the campaign liar for the Press.

By the way, Harry told some one the other day that he would rather they would fill in the amount. He did not like to take them for a —sum. That wasn't a claim. It was an amount going to the county. Isn't that right, Judge Joe?

An extra 2000 ballots printed by THE RECORD for $1.08. That shows we have a regard for "the money of the widows and orphans." Why didn't the Press before THE RECORD was established? Wonder what it would have made that bill anyway?

For God's sake do something to make the people quit talking about the jury commissioner, our candidate for the legislature! —Jesse Olive.

All right, leave that to me. —Ollie James.

And he's doing the best he can.

Press Maxwell made the race for state senate subject to the action of the Democrats in the Third district for several weeks, but it was conspicuously noticeable last week that the Press put him up in the Fourth where Robert L. Moore has been running all the while.

"They say another 'hardware store' has been unloaded on ex-senator Deboe. This will probably prove a Record's breaker." —Crittenden Press.

"Where did you get that hat?" —Just wait buddy until he takes the bankrupt law. Speaking of breaks, the word has a familiar sound to a tobacco dealer.

Geo. Cruce, colored, has been a great favorite with Ollie and the Press ever since they voted him for Ollie that time. They ought to bring him back and let him get the hardware man out of the hole. Speaking about laughing, he also laughed when he read where the Democrats said the Republicans had Towery indicted.

R. L. Moore is perfectly agreeable to all Republicans in this district. We believe they will support him to a man. The Press would have you believe he is a Democrat. Now, if the Press is sincere, if R. L. Moore is a Democrat, the Press ought to draw in its horn and laugh up its sleeves to think the Republicans are going to send a Democrat to the senate. The fact is that R. L. Moore is a Republican, and there are two things called "Press" who fear he will be elected.

The Press asks THE RECORD what kind of majority rule we believe in. We answer, the majority rule of honest men, regardless of what Democrats say or think. The majority by which Taylor was elected governor of Kentucky regardless of the fact that you Democrats stole the offices, not the majority rule of the legislature that presumed to make a dead man governor, and not the majority rule by which you nominated your present nominees for offices in this county.

The ring Democracy now believes that matters are assuming such shape that the "mule" men in Livingston county will be convinced that they should vote for the ring. It is reported that Secretary of State, H. V. McChesney is to speak at Salem, Lola, Joy, Smithland, Luka, and possibly some other point, and also that O. M. James, who has recently attracted attention in this county as being an association of Aaron Towery by reason of $100 per year of good tax money that he received for traveling to and from Frankfort with the judge, will speak at Hampton. It is reported that the Smithland gang says that they are determined to whip the "mule" Democrats back in line. Possibly they will also get the old band wagon out and oil it up again and make another circuit of the county with it. Harry and Ollie both can speak better while the band plays.

The Democratic primary in Livingston seemed to be a tame affair. There were only 718 votes polled, according to reports. That looks like victory for the "mule" ticket, to say nothing of the Republican candidate for representative. T. H. Cochran is in sympathy with the Smithland clique and the "mule" men know it, and they also know that the effort to whip them into line for the county ticket is also for the purpose of helping the affable jury commissioner to the legislature.

The following conversation took place between teacher and pupil in Crittenden county:

Teacher—What state senatorial district do you live in?

Eager Pupil—The Third.

Teacher—You are mistaken. Next! Pupil—(protestingly) That is right. Papa reads the Press and it said this is the Third, and that P. S. Maxwell, of Marion, wanted the Third district Democrats to send him to the senate.

The Crittenden Record is bitterly complaining because only three or four decrepit Republicans are selected in their county each time to do jury duty. Great Caesar, Crittenden, you are feeding on milk and honey. We have not had a Republican upon the grand or petit juries for three years, unless, as in several instances, the wickedness of the system, while serving, smote them like Saul of Tarsus, and they straightway reformed and are now talking the true gospel. Come, brother, in this reign of Gordon, James and Machinism be well satisfied with what you get and that you are not being persecuted like Caleb Powers. —Princeton Chronicle.

A great meeting of the Democratic moguls was held at Ollie James' private office Wednesday afternoon and night. Those present, according to our advices were: Jesse Olive, of Eddyville, Judge Gordon, of Madisonville, John L. Grayot, of Smithland, Ward Headley, of Princeton, O. M. James, T. H. Cochran, P. S. Maxwell, C. S. Nunn, J. W. Blue, Jr., of this city, and Judge Towery, of Shady Grove precinct. The meeting was held behind drawn blinds and what was done can only be guessed at. Possibly those 700 Democrats of Livingston county who failed to show up in he primary down there last Saturday were discussed to some extent. Very likely the situation in this county received some attention. Some people argue that boodle will win when all else fails.

Would the Dixon Journal and Providence Enterprise be fair and kindly print the answer to the Press charge that R. L. Moore is a Democrat? There is no Republican paper published in that county to defend the opposite party and those two papers should show by their fairness that they are not trying to deceive their readers. They cannot give only one side, as they have done, without deceiving them. The clerk of the precinct explained how R. L. Moore was registered as a Democrat. The answer to the charge that the Press made was published in THE RECORD of October 13, including the statement of the clerk of the precinct where R. L. Moore registered. The Enterprise and the Journal are on the exchange list of this paper. Under the circumstances are they dealing honestly with their readers?

P. S. Maxwell, of Marion, was here Monday and asked us and other Republicans to vote for him instead of the other Democrat. (7) Oh, no, Press! You have been mixed up too prominently with the partisan juries, and then when our railroad burden came upon us, you deserted fair Caldwell to escape your fair share of the burden. We Republicans remember this and are loyal to the other fellow. —Princeton Chronicle.

Now, how is that for the "clean-cut gentleman" who "knows no fear or shadow of turning"? Voters, weigh and consider. We want to send the man to Frankfort who is willing to pay taxes when his fellow man has it to do, regardless whether he can profit individually by holding county bonds on which you have to pay your money. We want to send a man whose manhood led him to renounce his party when it became so corrupt with isms that intelligent and honest men could not endure it. Robert L. Moore is such a man.

The Press, its editorial contributors and writers, including Towery, persist in charging that while the great fire of March 28 was raging, while the noise of the rescuers was without, while they could see the dying embers, likened to the dying hopes of Aaron Towery, poor Morgan, Judge Moore and the other candidates, the "gang" sat in state in the county clerk's office and made the slate that was nominated the following Saturday. First, as to the "gang" we would very much like to have the Press enlighten us on the subject by telling us who compose the gang, but secondly, as to the meeting, it gives us pleasure to herald the statement to the people of Crittenden county that the charge is a wilful and malicious falsehood, and that we are sincere in this statement and that to prove it conclusively, we wish to say to the Press, its contributors and stockholders, including the source of their information, that a reward of $500 cash has been offered for any reliable evidence to the effect that any such meeting was held for the purpose claimed, for the purpose of sending runners to the various precincts, or for any other purpose at that time. And more than that a reward of $100 has been offered for reliable evidence to the effect that runners were sent to the various precincts for the purpose of defeating Towery. His defeat was due to T-o-w-e-r-y. See what he is doing today. Can you doubt it? There was one meeting held by the Republican candidates, and all the Republican candidates and Towery were present at that meeting. It was a legitimate meeting called for the purpose of selecting the officers for the primary election. Any person who would wilfully and maliciously state that any of the candidates held a meeting for any other purpose, has no regard for truth, but to him, the Press or any of its writers who will furnish the reliable evidence to the contrary, the above rewards will be given. The present Republican nominees are the gentlemen who are ready to pay the reward when the evidence is furnished.

Clem Nunn was heard the other day asking some one if they didn't think the editorial page of the Press had improved during the campaign. Now, Clem, you Clem, that ain't fair, that fishing for boquets like that. And then taking honor away from Marshall, poor fellow. And Marshall thought he was getting credit for those gems of literature. Everybody was on, anyhow, Clem, and everybody but you and Marshall knew everybody was on. But again, who would have thought that Clem had time to do all this journalistic work. Why, just look what he has to do. He is president of the Kentucky Flour Spar Co., attorney for the Illinois Central Railroad Co., to say nothing of his otherwise extensive practice, president of the Crittenden Coal & Coke Co., partner in the "Old Jim" of Blue & Nunn, a director in the Marion bank, a leading member of the Commercial club, chairman of the Democratic county committee, and Democratic member of the election board of this county, to say nothing of his duties in the religious, educational, and fraternal societies that have the honor of claiming him as a member. And now he has constituted himself, or had been constituted by some one as guardian ad litem for Marshall Jenkins and Judge Towery and Billy Joel Hill. Clem, Clem, so much work, and it so hard, will make you as bald as John D. Rockefeller or Ollie James.

But we never before thought you were conceited. You really think the editorials in the Press are improving. That conceit is the reason we suppose, why you as county chairman of the Democratic party recommended yourself to the state board of election commissioners as the most suitable Democrat for election commissioner in this county. Marshall don't have to do anything but lay in coal for the Electric Light & Ice Co. But what about those that Ollie writes?

All that the editor of the Press now has to write is something like the following:

"The Marion Electric Light & Ice Company, anticipating the short supply of fuel, generally resultant upon a strike, has stored in its bins and yards a six month's supply of fuel."

You often notice the Press speaking about the people of Crittenden county with reference to what they would like to know. So far as the people are concerned they are satisfied, and every mother's son of them knows that under a Republican administration, whether county, state or national, that efficiency, honesty, justice and truthfulness are the principles of action. Every true Republican so believes and acts. Traitors do not. Neither do the expounders of Goebelism. Every citizen in Crittenden county knows Jno. T. Pickens, and they also know of the absolute justness and fairness that marked his term of sheriff of this county. But latter day Democracy in Kentucky has become so vile and rotten that its principles are found permeating every nook and corner of the courts of justice where that party is in power. They appoint jury commissioners in keeping with this idea not only in this county but elsewhere. The jury commissioners select juries in keeping with the same idea. They do not allow a member of the opposite party to exercise any authority in the matter of juries in a case of any importance, and when such a case comes, they swear the authority out of the hands of a Republican sheriff as they did here a few years ago in the case of the commonwealth against Crider for the shooting of Graves. That's your latter day Democracy. That's what you ask Republicans to vote for when you tell that they should not consider politics in county affairs. That's what you ask them to endorse when you ask them to vote for Press Maxwell and T. H. Cochran.

"The people of Crittenden county are anxiously waiting to hear County Clerk Weldon explain why it was that he gave the printing of the county ballots of the coming election to the Record, without regard to price or without letting out the work to the lowest bidder." —Crittenden Press.

In the first place, "the people" in this instance, is most likely the editorial staff of the Press that met Saturday in Blue & Nunn's office, viz., O. M. James and others. Secondly, Mr. Weldon gave the printing to the Record for good reasons which he states in this issue. Thirdly, he did so because he knew they would be printed according to law and at the lowest possible price. Fourthly, judging the Press by the prices it asked for public printing before there was a Republican paper here, it was hardly deserving of consideration with reference to the printing of the ballots, its present groundless effort to pose as a money saver and the magnanimous friend of the "widows and orphans," to the contrary notwithstanding. Fifthly, its effort to make the people believe that the Record gets the work regardless of price, is false.

The Press says that THE RECORD lied when it stated that Democratic lawyers tendered their services to Towery after the damnable act had been done. You, Mr. Press, lie when you say we lie, and we can prove that we are right, and that, too, by your issue of September 21.

Here are your words:

"In answer to the charge that every Democratic lawyer at the bar volunteered his services to defend Judge Towery, we are proud to say, is true."

Now, gentle reader, is there any comparison between being accused of lying, and being proved a liar in the act of accusing another of the same thing?

Now, the Press may try to get round this by telling you that they said "lawyers" then, and since "Judge Towery spoke" it has been using the singular term, "lawyer." We also said "lawyers," but as to "lawyer" Ollie James, his little farce comedy act was, we are ready to reiterate, after the damnable act had been done, for in sin was the mischief conceived. The doctor in the case, O. M. James, appeared, according to Towery's letter to which the Press refers, and after feeling of his pulse, told him of what the grand jury was about to bring forth, and says, "Now, you will be sick and need a doctor and I will administer." The damnable act had been done in the planning of the indictment. Oh, Democracy, why hast thou burdened thyself with this thing? O, Press! why hast thou lied?

Listen!

"The congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate and fire shall consume the tabernacle of bribery. They conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly pre-pareth deceit."

An Appeal

TO THE VOTERS OF CRITTENDEN COUNTY:

As chairman of the Republican Campaign Committee I appeal to the voters of Crittenden county to vote the straight Republican ticket at the coming November election for county officers, for state senator and representative. Our candidates are all personally known to me and are clean men of good, moral character and fully competent to fill the offices to which they aspire. It is necessary, more than ever before, for the Republicans of this county to register their protest at the polls against partisan juries and the unfair and unlawful practices of the Democratic party in this county.

Tired Nervous

When you feel languid, tired, nervous and irritable, your vitality is low—your supply of nerve energy exhausted, and your system running down for lack of power.

The organs of the body are working poorly, or not at all, and you are not getting the nourishment needed. This soon impoverishes the blood and instead of throwing off the impurities, distributes it all through the body. This brings disease and misery.

Feed the nerves with Dr. Miles' Nervine, a nerve food, a nerve medicine, that nourishes and strengthens the nerves, and see how quickly you will get strong and vigorous.

"My wife suffered with nervousness previous to a recent attack of typhoid fever, but after her recovery from the fever, she was much worse, and could hardly control herself being exceedingly nervous when the least excited. She was very restless at night, and never had a good night's rest. She also suffered much from nervous headache. Dr. Miles' Nervine was recommended by a friend. After the first three doses she had a good night's rest, and at the end of the first week's treatment, she was wonderfully improved. Continued use of Nervine has completed her entire cure."

Autumn Leaves.

BY RUSTIC.

Born in the springtime, nurtured in beauty,
Dying in glory at the close of the year;
There was beauty in living, more beauty in dying;
Thus beauty to death should ever be near.

To the breast of their mother, in autumn descending
She craves them up in her white robe of snow;
But the home of the rainbow that decked them in dying.

Still live in the sunlight and shine in its glow,
So, truth, love and virtue on the tree of Life bud.

Are leaves of the spirit born never to die,
Through seeming death, living, true joy ever giving
Immortal as God, as broad, deep and high.

CRITTENDEN ELOPED WITH YOUNG GIRL

Deserted Wife and Three Children Go to Central City to Relatives.

Several weeks ago, Claude Crittenden, who for several years had been buying timber in this county for Hiram Blow & Co., eloped with a young girl leaving a wife and three children.

Mrs. Crittenden, who is a lady of good family and high standing, was almost heart broken, and, because of the seeming humiliation, could not master sufficient spirit to notify her people who reside at Central City.

However, the matter reached the ears of her brothers, and one of them, J. D. Langley, the city marshal of Central City, arrived here Monday and drove out to Tribune where Mrs. Crittenden and children resided.

He became fully acquainted with the state of affairs and returned home a once and his sister and three children followed Tuesday. She will reside at Central City with her brothers.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given to the qualified electors of the City of Marion, Ky., that in pursuance of an ordinance passed and approved by the City Council of said city, on the 10th day of October, 1905, an election will be held on the 7th day of November, 1905, at the usual voting places in said city, to vote upon a proposition to incur an indebtedness of $27,000 thousand dollars and issue bonds therefor, for the purpose of building and erecting a water works plant in such city, to be owned and operated by such city. Said bonds to bear six per cent. per annum interest, to be payable at the option of such city, after five years from date of issue, and to become due and payable thirty years from date of issue.

That two thousand dollars shall be raised annually by taxation to pay the interest on said bonds, and create a sinking fund sufficient to redeem same when due.

The ballot for such election will be prepared as follows:

For incurring debt... Yes ☐

For incurring debt... No ☐

The former of which shall be taken as a vote, assenting to the incurring of such debt, and the latter as dissenting therefrom.

Milk Goats And Angoras

Milk goats are a prominent feature of the live stock industry of Europe, especially in Switzerland, Italy, Germany, Austria, France, Norway and Spain. They are peculiarly adapted to the needs of the poorer classes of those countries, and to a large extent it is this adaptability that recommends them for many localities in the United States. This is because milk, which is food and drink to all mankind, is furnished by the goat in cheap form, because for most purposes its quality is superior to cow's milk, and also because the yield of milk, when the size of the animal and amount of feed are concerned, is much greater than that of a cow.

AMERICAN MILK GOAT MATITA.

The present situation regarding a milk goat industry in the United States," says George F. Thompson, editor of the bureau of animal industry, "is confined largely to an awakening interest, although there are now some communities of foreigners where a considerable number of goats are kept for milk, the kids being fitted for slaughter."

"The first question that most people ask concerning this industry is, 'How much milk will a goat give?' A doe that yields less than a quart a day is not considered a good milker. If she yields two quarts a day she may be regarded as profitable, provided lactation may be maintained six or seven months. Pegler, the writer, says that a doe yielding three pints a day with her first kid need not be set aside as an indifferent animal, as she will in all probability give twice that quantity on subsequent occasions. The German literature is full of instances of goats that yield four and five quarts per day, and it appears that the average in Germany and Switzerland must be not far from three quarts. Indeed, it is stated by German writers that many goats yield ten times their body weight of milk annually and exceptional animals as much as eighteen times their weight."

The American milk goat Matita, whose picture is reproduced from the American Sheep Breeder, is owned by Mrs. Edward Roby of Chicago. Mrs. Roby has a herd of 100 milk goats.

Qualities of the Angoras. Angora goats produce mohair of which the finest and most durable fabrics are made, consisting of fine plushes used in upholstering palace cars and fine furniture; also dress goods, fine underwear, hats and many other articles of which constant use is made. Many large manufacturers are now being erected to produce these articles from mohair.

Angora venison is most delicious meat and can now be found on the bill of fare of the best hotels. Angora goats are farm cleaners and farm reclaimers. They clean the farm of all underbrush and weeds, thereby doubling and trebling the value of lands on which they exist.—Farm Progress.

The Ideal Beef Steer.

The Iowa State Agricultural college sets forth as the analysis of an ideal beef steer the following points: A short, wide head, short neck, smoothly blended into the shoulders; broad, compact and well covered shoulders, wide, arching ribs, broad loin, deep body and long, wide hind quarters, well filled out in rump, thighs and twist; a deep, even covering of flesh—lean meat muscle—with just enough fat to marinate the flesh nicely and give it a smooth, bright external appearance; fine bone evidenced in refinement of head and limbs; pliable skin of medium thickness, with soft hair; a reasonable trimness of body, to give good dressing percentage. These points make up the profitable steer for feeder or butcher and should govern the breeder in the production of beef animals.

Sheep Notes.

No class of stock is more easily overfed than sheep.

Ticks and lice will surely head off the profits.

The sheep's change of diet should not be sudden.

The most experienced shepherd has yet much to learn.

Good show sheep are common enough; good sires, not so.

The best appearing ewe is not always the best breeder.

A fat sheep is never unsightly or a poor one beautiful.

Don't sell a cull at any price except it be to the butcher.—American Sheep Breeder.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON V, FOURTH QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, OCT. 29.

Text of the Lesson, Zech. iv. 1-10. Memory Verses, 8-10—Golden Text, Zech. iv. 6—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1905, by American Press Association.]

The prophets Haggai and Zechariah were strengthened and commissioned by God to encourage the people to resume work upon the temple, which we saw in last week's lesson was hindered by the adversaries. So the governor and the priest and the people came and did work in the house of the Lord of Hosts, their God, in the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month in the second year of Darius the king, and it was finished in the sixth year of Darius (Hag. i. 14, 15; Ezra vi. 14, 15).

Zechariah was strengthened by a series of eight or nine visions, granted to him, seemingly, in one night, and in our lesson chapter we have the fifth of the series. First he saw horses and their riders among myrtle trees in a valley and was taught that, though Israel returned from captivity was lowly and depressed, the Lord was caring for her and would prosper her. Then he was shown that for every destroyer and scatterer of Israel there was a restorer, a repairer; for every born a carpenter, and we cannot help thinking of the carpenter of Nazareth. In the third vision he was shown that Jerusalem would be rebuilt and protected and many nations blessed through Israel (chapter ii). Next he was shown that, though Israel was verily guilty before God and the adversary had reason to accuse her, the Lord would stand for her and stand by her and remove her iniquity and give her peace (chapter iii).

In our lesson chapter he is shown how, notwithstanding all hindrances, Israel shall be a bright and steady light before all nations and Isa. ix. 1-3 shall be fulfilled. "The Lord shall arise upon thee, and His glory shall be seen upon thee, and the nations shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising." The vision of the candlestick or lamp stand, all of gold, with its seven lamps, takes us back to the tabernacle and its candlestick and on to the seven golden candlesticks of Rev. i, which latter, we are told, are the seven churches, in the midst of which the risen Christ is seen. Whether it be Israel or the church, we see the oneness of Christ and His people and that they are nothing apart from Him.

In the two olive trees, or anointed ones, through which the oil is supplied to the lamps, we see a priest and a king, for only such were anointed. Typically we see every true priest and king, as well as Joshua and Zerubbabel, of our lesson. But these only point us to the true Melchisedec, who shall sit and rule, a priest upon His throne (vi. 13), in the final restoration of Israel. No might nor power of man shall do this, but the seal of the Lord of Hosts by His Spirit (Isa. ix. 7). So in all the visions the prophet is shown what the Lord will do in spite of all hindrances. "I do not do this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy name's sake which ye have profaned, saith the Lord God."

We need just what the prophet learned and wrote for our benefit, for the adversaries are always many, and the work goes slowly, yet the Lord shall not fail nor be discouraged (Isa. xli. 4), and those who dwell with Him for His work need never be discouraged either. During the time of Israel's blindness and rejection, which is now drawing to a close, the Lord is gathering from all nations the material, the living stones, for the temple, the church, which is His body (Eph. ii. 19-21; 1 Pet. ii. 5; Acts xv. 14), but the work seems to be hindered by unbelief and false doctrine and many things.

The only miracle recorded by the four evangelists, the feeding of the 5,000, sets before us very strikingly the present conditions. The multitudes have no bread. The disciples say, "Send them away," but the Lord says, "Give ye them to eat." Philip, forgetting that our Lord fed millions in the wilderness and brought water from a rock, says that it cannot be done, and even if they had 200 pence, an impossible sum of money, they could only give every one a little (John vi. 7-9). The view of the case reminds us of verse 7 of our lesson with its great mountain. In Andrew's remark concerning the lad's loaves and fishes, "What are they among so many?" we see an illustration of despising the day of small things (verse 10), and from both we learn that He who always knows just what He will do (John vi. 6) would have us see no one but Himself and, losing sight of possibilities and probabilities, rely upon Him to perform all His purposes in His own time and way.

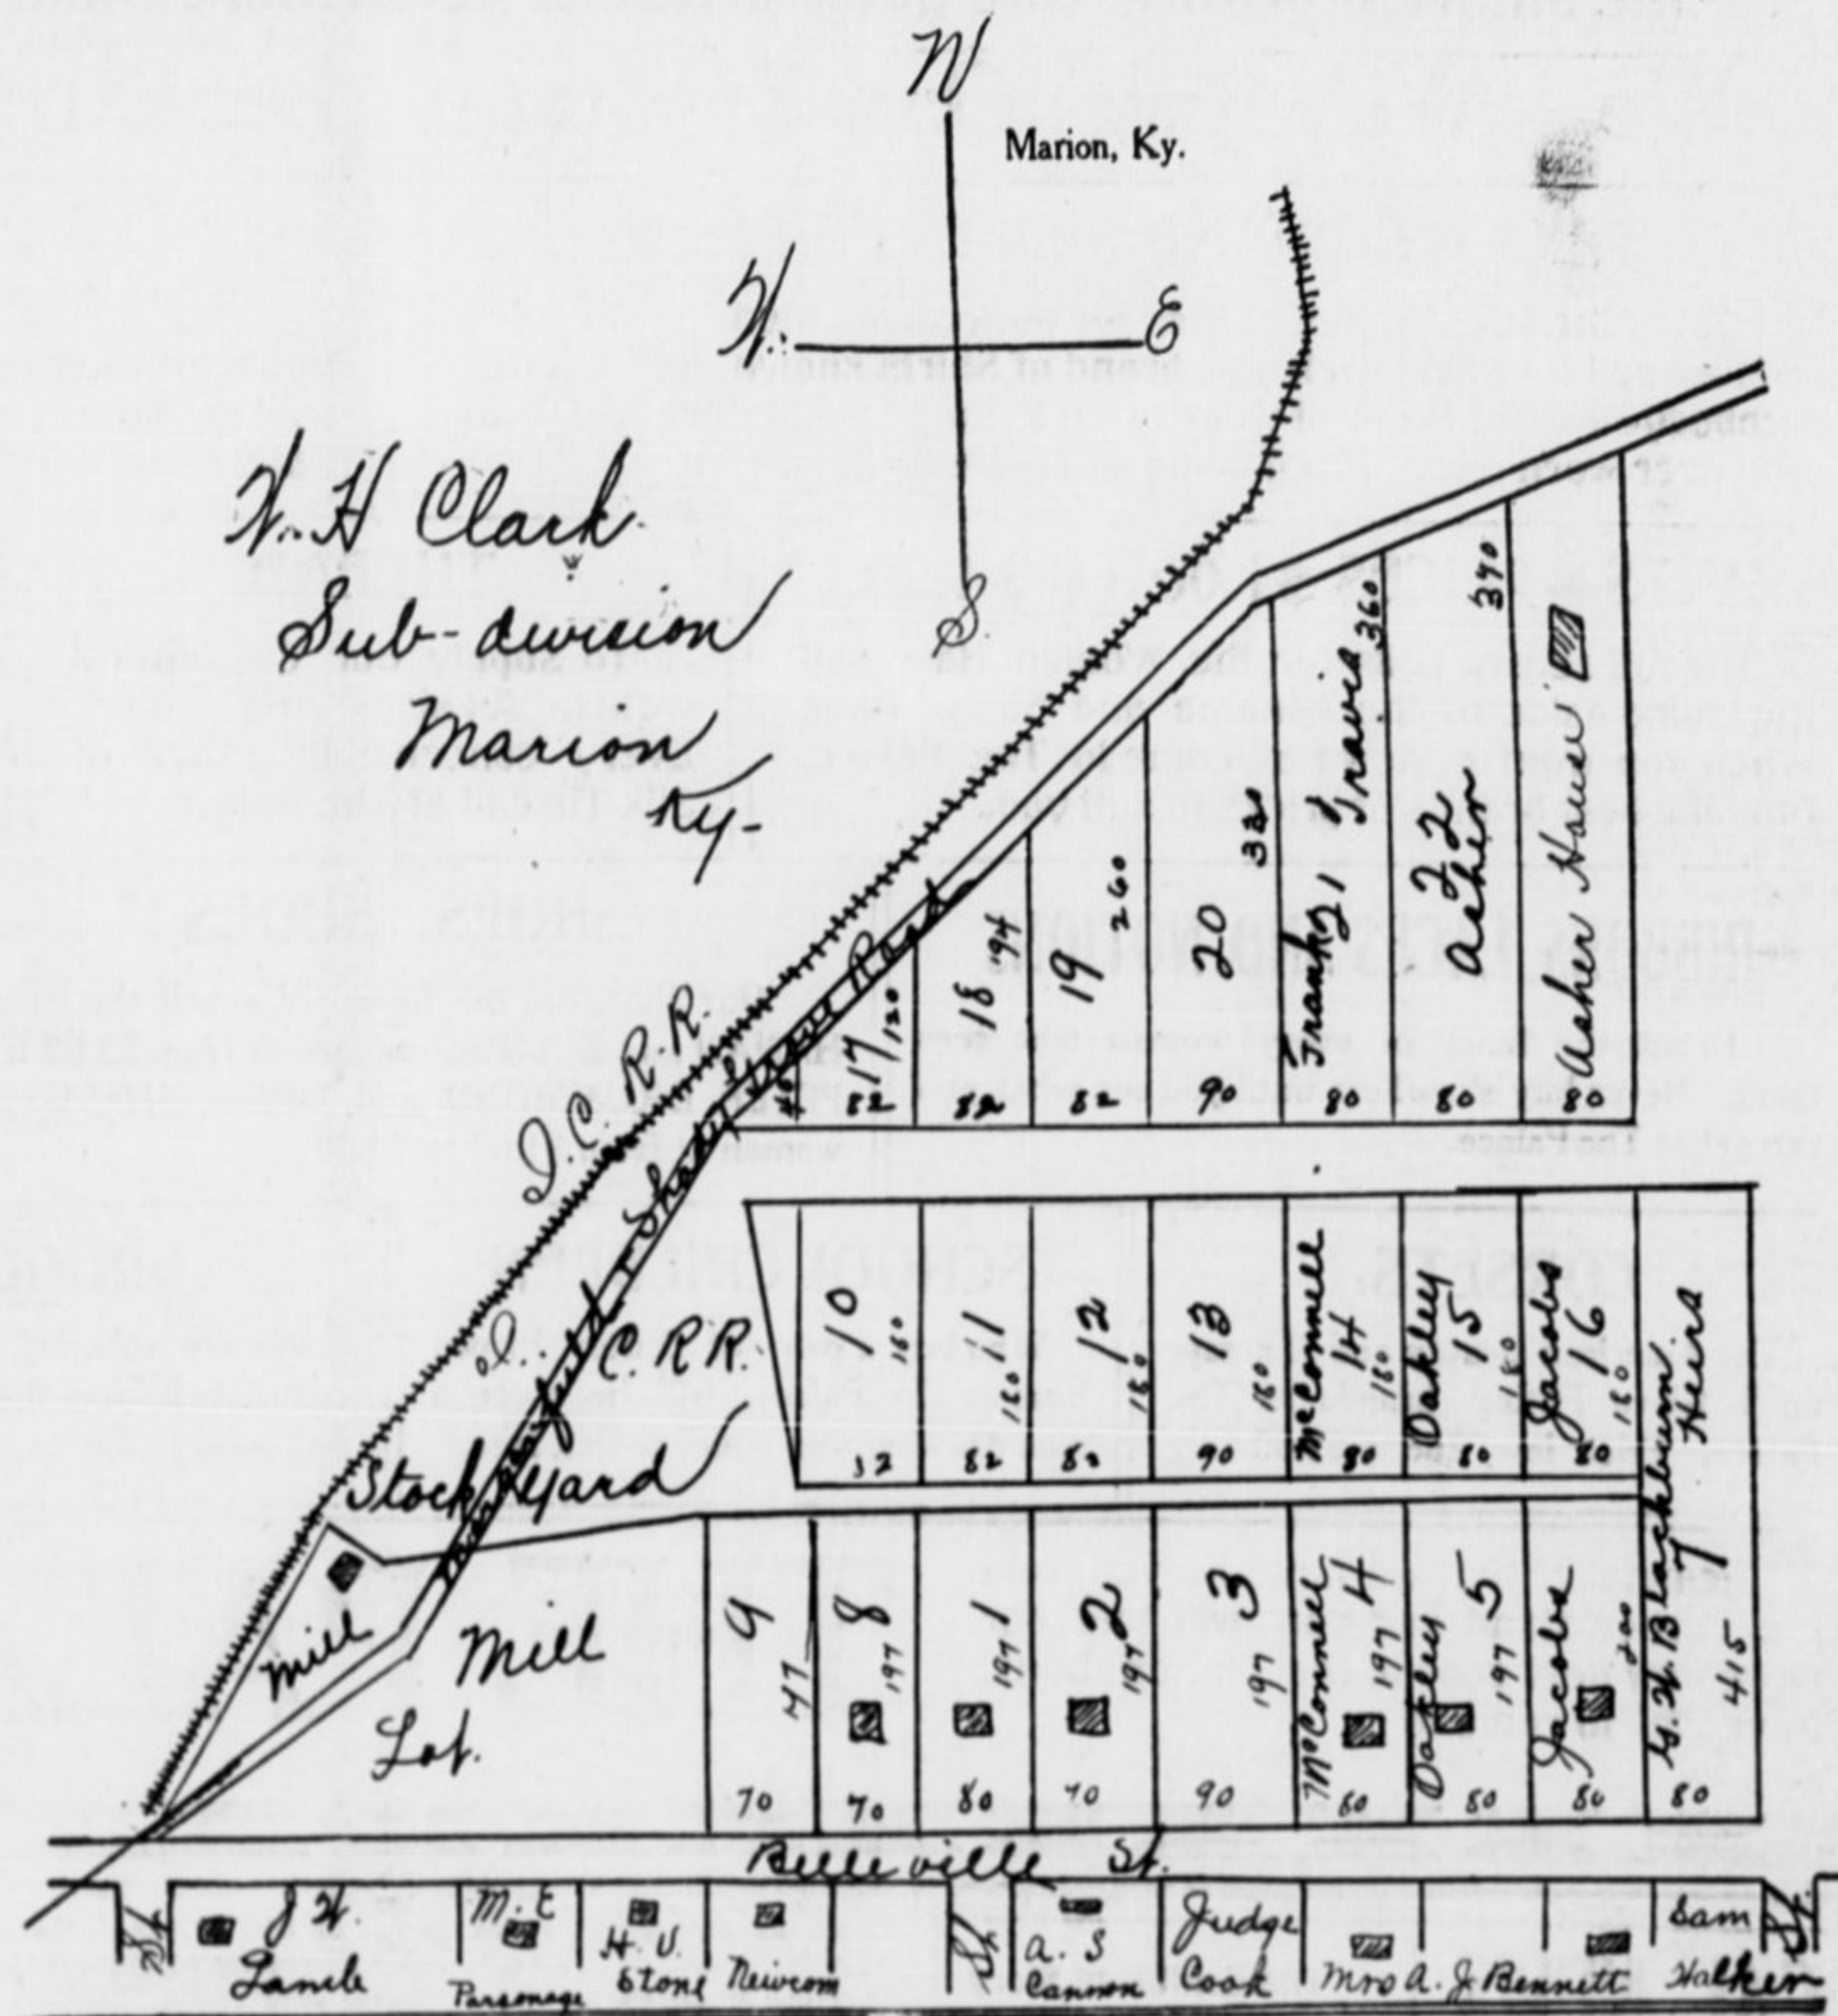

We may feel as downcast and unworthy as Israel did, but if we know Him as our priest and king He will make us shine as lights in the world in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation (Phil. ii. 15) and by us gather out from the nations the living stones for His temple. How shall we shine and thus be of use to Him in helping forward the work of completing the church, His body? We must first know Him as our anointed priest, who, having offered Himself a sacrifice for our sins and thus put all our sins away forever, now lives to make intercession for us, ever carrying us on His breast and shoulders before God. This gives perfect peace and quietness concerning our salvation, present and future. But we will not shine brightly and steadily unless we see Him also as our anointed Lord and Master and let Him control and use us as He pleases, saying a hearty "Amen, O Lord!" (Jer. xi. 5, margin) to Him always.

Nothing to Fear.

The question of injurious substances in medicines, which has been agitating the minds of many people, does not concern those who use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need have no hesitancy in continuing to give it to their little ones, as it contains absolutely nothing injurious. This remedy is not only perfectly safe to give to small children, but is a medicine of great worth and merit. It has a world-wide reputation for its cures of coughs, colds and croup, and can always be relied upon. For sale by Haynes & Taylor, the enterprising Druggists, of Marion.

DRAGGING

down pains are a symptom of the most serious trouble which can attack a woman, viz: falling of the womb. With this, generally, come irregular, painful, scanty or profuse periods, wasteful, weakening drains, dreadful backache, headache, nervousness, dizziness, irritability, tired feeling, inability to walk, loss of appetite, color and beauty. The cure is

WINE OF CARDUI

that marvelous, curative extract, or natural essence, of herbs, which exerts such a wonderful strengthening influence on all female organs. Cardui relieves pain, regulates the menses, stops drains and stimulates the muscles to pull the womb up into place. It is a safe and permanent cure for all female complaints.

WRITE US A LETTER

In strictest confidence, telling us all your troubles. We will send free advice (in plain sealed envelope). Address: Ladies' Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

"I SUFFERED AWFUL PAIN

in my womb and ovaries," writes Mrs. Naomi Baker, of Webster Groves, Mo., "and my menses were very painful and irregular. Since taking Cardui I feel like a new woman, and do not suffer as I did."

A CAMPAIGN LIAR.

The following editorial appears in the Dixon Journal. What do you think of its incomprehensibility?

"In last week's issue, on the first page, The Crittenden Record says, 'the county officials pay no attention to the vaporings of The (Crittenden) Press, for it in itself is an IRRESPONSIBLE VACUUM.'" Right over on the editorial page this same sheet says, 'The Democratic party here, has an organ whose editor is RESPONSIBLE and who is an excellent supervisor of news matters in general to keep up the Democratic fences.' This undoubtedly shows true Republicanism on the part of The Record, because it contradicts its own words in every issue. In fact it gives The Press the 'duce' on the first page and then throws bouquets at it on the next page. As nigger loves 'chit'lin's,' he couldn't locate one, that's never in any certain place."

Wounds, Bruises and Burns.

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries, before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third of the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic, and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness, and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering of injuries entailed. For sale by Haynes & Taylor, the enterprising druggists, of Marion.

Nothing to Fear.

The question of injurious substances in medicines, which has been agitating the minds of many people, does not concern those who use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need have no hesitancy in continuing to give it to their little ones, as it contains absolutely nothing injurious. This remedy is not only perfectly safe to give to small children, but is a medicine of great worth and merit. It has a world-wide reputation for its cures of coughs, colds and croup, and can always be relied upon. For sale by Haynes & Taylor, the enterprising Druggists, of Marion.

Glass Factory Wanted.

New Marion could not have been such a bright and attractive little city to the passerby had not the brick contractors realized the great merit of Lemuel Clark's famous sand and used it in laying the face brick in the walls of the best buildings in the city. Look at the pretty white mortar joints in all the store fronts. Clark's sand made them so.

A clean, pure sand in two grades—white and yellow. A sand for the manufacture of glass unsurpassed. Desirable site for glass factory. Fuel and water close at hand.

For sale at reasonable prices. Call on or address

LEMUEL CLARK, Marion, Ky.

Will any one or all of the gentlemen whose names appeared on the petition printed in the RECORD of Sept. 29 deny, or will the Press deny for them, that one of them sent for two prominent Republicans at different times and gave them a history of the certificate signed by Towery, claiming that it was a forgery, and wanted them to have a Republican candidate use it against Towery and Henderson before the primary?

The above is the certified copy of the caption and endorsement of the petition in the suit that was based on the certificate to which Towery signed Sullenger's name, and which said petition charged as being false, fraudulent and void. It was the institution of this suit and the action of other Democrats that resulted in the indictment against Towery.

DRAGGING

down pains are a symptom of the most serious trouble which can attack a woman, viz: falling of the womb. With this, generally, come irregular, painful, scanty or profuse periods, wasteful, weakening drains, dreadful backache, headache, nervousness, dizziness, irritability, tired feeling, inability to walk, loss of appetite, color and beauty. The cure is that marvelous, curative extract, or natural essence, of herbs, which exerts such a wonderful strengthening influence on all female organs. Cardui relieves pain, regulates the menses, stops drains and stimulates the muscles to pull the womb up into place. It is a safe and permanent cure for all female complaints.

WINE OF CARDUI

WRITE US A LETTER

In strictest confidence, telling us all your troubles. We will send free advice (in plain sealed envelope). Address: Ladies' Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

"I SUFFERED AWFUL PAIN

in my womb and ovaries," writes Mrs. Naomi Baker, of Webster Groves, Mo. "and my menses were very painful and irregular. Since taking Cardui I feel like a new woman, and do not suffer as I did."

A CAMPAIGN LIAR.

The following editorial appears in the Dixon Journal. What do you think of its incomprehensibility?

"In last week's issue, on the first page, The Crittenden Record says, 'the county officials pay no attention to the vaporings of The (Crittenden) Press, for it in itself is an IRRESPONSIBLE VACUUM.'" Right over on the editorial page this same sheet says, 'the Democratic party here, has an organ whose editor is RESPONSIBLE and who is an excellent supervisor of news matters in general to keep up the Democratic fences.' This undoubtedly shows true Republicanism on the part of The Record, because it contradicts its own words in every issue. In fact it gives The Press the 'duce' on the first page and then throws bequests at it on the next page. As nigger loves 'chit'lin's,' he couldn't locate one, that's never in any certain place."

Wounds, Bruises and Burns.

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries, before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third of the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic, and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering of injuries healed. For sale by Haynes & Taylor, the enterprisers, of Marion.
