The Crittenden Record

The Record is now in its new and modern dress in which it arises from the ashes of the late fire. No paper in Western Kentucky is in a better position to fill your wants in the advertising or publicity line and none have a stronger or more substantial following. Call on Tom Record, make your order known and leave a card, or come down to the office regularly, regarding press notices and columns and note the results. If local and general news, together with a variety of other reading matter makes a paper popular The Record certainly has all those features. If you want no other paper do not fail to send a dollar to

You Will Prosper in the Southwest

If you purchase a farm in the Southwest now, while the market is at its low ebb, you will find opportunities for the purchase of large tracts of land at extremely low prices, with a prospect of good returns on your investment. The climate is healthy, the soil is fertile, and the people are industrious and thrifty. The roads are good, the railroads are well built, and the telegraph lines are extensive. The water supply is abundant, and the water power is ample. The government is stable, and the people are contented.

On account of the new mills going up here and in the district there will be a great demand here for building lots in the spring. Every house in the city is now occupied and the new influx will demand more houses. Therefore a real estate investment in Marion is well worth your consideration. A $100 now for a short time will get a lot that will be worth $200 in a short time. For a short time only your choice of 12 of these most desirable lots may be had for $100. Don't delay. Address, Box 8, Marion, Ky.
