

The Crittenden Press.

VOL. 27.

MARION, CRITTENDEN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, MAY, 24 1906.

NUMBER 52.

PROCLAMATION ISSUED

Governor Beckham Calls All Kentuckians to "God's Country" to Feasts and Festivities.

KENTUCKY INVITES THEM ALL HOME.

Commonwealth of Kentucky, Executive Department, Frankfort; Home Coming Proclamation.

To all absent sons and daughters of Kentucky unto whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

As the fond parent yearns for the return of an absent child, so does your mother Commonwealth rejoice in the prospect of bringing you back, even for a visit, to the Old Kentucky home. Wherever you have wandered, into whatever lands or climes you may have gone to take up your abode, you are now by parental authority summoned back to the proud old State that gave birth to you or your forefathers. The old dinner horn, that in the days of yore told you of the approaching meal, has been taken down from the wall and there issues from its sonorous and hospitable mouth a trumpet call reaching the remotest corners of the earth, and breathing into the ear of every home sick Kentuckian the musical and irresistible appeal that he drop all else and forthwith begin his pilgrimage back to his native heath. A joyous welcome awaits you; feasts and festivals have been prepared to gladden your hearts; burgoo and barbecues will awaken old and delightful memories in you; music and sweet song, in sweetest strains, will cheer and comfort you; oratory and speech, in eloquent terms will recount to you the love which your old state bears for you and the interest and pride she has taken in your success in other lands.

As the genial sun of spring warms into life the beauties of nature so will the kindly glances and friendly grasps of your old friends in Kentucky inspire in you, if possible, a greater and tenderer love for the old State you once left. Peace and plenty shall be yours, and hardened indeed must be the heart that resists such an invitation and parental appeal. "God's Country" in June will put on her loveliest garb for you; nature will wear, as she can wear only in Kentucky, her brightest wreath of flowers and smiles, the feathered songsters will gaily join in the musical celebration; green pastures, shady woodlands, rolling hillsides, and picturesque streams, will in glorious and gorgeous style break the welcome which thrills every heart.

We have this great event for your coming in Louisville from June 15th to 17th; thence you may radiate to all parts of the State, where equally hospitable welcomes will be given you.

Now, therefore, as Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, I, J. C. W. Beckham, do by these presents, and by the authority of the State, which Kentucky claims over her children, even unto the third and fourth generations, command and every former Kentuckian, whether separated from us by imaginary State lines or broad seas, to come back home; if he be at the forge, the counting room, the business office, or in whatever employment, let him for the time being leave his work and return home, with his women and children, who possess the priceless heritage of having the pride of Kentucky blood in their veins, and must obey these commands and be with us during this period. It is not necessary to obey these commands to the people, but to the treatment of the guests and to show them that the Old Kentucky Home is just as good now as it ever was.

At Frankfort, this 9th day of May, 1906, I, J. C. W. BECKHAM, Governor, J. C. W. BECKHAM, Secretary of State, J. P. Gray, Assistant Secretary of State.

Some More "Machine" Work.

In the recent letting of the contract for the employment of 650 convicts in the Frankfort penitentiary, for a period of eight years, by the Prison Commissioners, Messrs Brown and McCutchen, it appears that the much abused "Machine" has gotten in some more of its dastardly work, and again oppressed the people of the Commonwealth by making for them an additional $100,000 per annum in the lease of these convicts. Under the contract held by the company, of which Col. A. D. Martin is the head, and which will expire, the State received 40 cents per day for each convict, and under the new contract the State will receive for each one 85 cents per day, or more than twice as much as it received under the old contract. Col. Martin, who lost out under the recent bid, but who accepts the result with his customary grace and manliness, has said that the gain to the State under the new price will be over $100,000 per annum and for the life of the new contract will make almost enough to pay for the new Capitol. We sincerely hope that this change, however, will not lose to Kentucky the genial and progressive head of the Frankfort Chair company, who has made himself so popular during his residence in Frankfort.

This business transaction, of so much importance to the Commonwealth, is a great triumph for those two beardless boys, Harvey McCutchen and Eli Brown, who were elected last winter as Prison Commissioners, and who now direct and control the work of that Board. They are certainly entitled to great credit in their successful accomplishment in this as well as in other matters affecting the government of the two penitentiaries.

It will be remembered that the fight made upon the so-called "Machine" during the past year was directed against their candidacy as well as upon the candidacy of Judge Paynter for the Senate. They were denominated "Machine Men" or tools of the State administration. A strong and bitter fight was made against them, but they were overwhelmingly successful in the Democratic caucus, and since they took charge of the penal institutions of the State they have shown business capacity, fearless integrity and patriotic devotion to the welfare of the Commonwealth.

The people of Kentucky will certainly show their appreciation of this splendid and valuable achievement. It is one of many examples of the fact that no matter what has been said, or may be said, against the Democratic administration is always on the lookout for the best interests of the Commonwealth, and is giving it an intelligent and business-like administration of its public affairs. It is well for thoughtful citizens who have no interest in political matters except to see a successful and honest administration of the public affairs, to consider such advantages as these given them under Democratic officials. A "Machine" which can give such results to the people is not likely to be in any danger from being "busted" by a lot of patriotic and disappointed gentlemen out of jobs.—Kentucky State Journal.

A Curiosity.

M. S. Taylor brought to town Saturday a curiosity for certain—a goose egg that weighed twelve ounces and a fraction, perfectly formed. When the shell was broke the white and yellow of a perfect egg was found on the inside, also another perfectly formed egg. The shell of this one was cracked and it contained a quantity of white and another perfectly formed egg; the third and last was cracked and it contained white and yellow. Each shell is as hard as that of an ordinary egg, two of which are light and the other dark.—Nicholas Advocate.

THE HOME COMING WEEK

Plans are Practically Complete.—Crittenden will be Well Represented.

The plans for the Home Coming week in Louisville, June 13th—17, are practically complete, and any one at all familiar with them will agree that they point to the largest gathering in the history of the South. The very lowest estimate, based upon acceptance cards and letters on file at the headquarters of the Louisville Commercial Club, point to an attendance of over 55,000 ex-Kentuckians. Only a small portion of this number indicated on their acceptance card the county of their birth.

Below will be found a list of former residents of this county who have accepted the Home Coming invitation. This list by no means represents the attendance of those who went from this county. Practically every one accepting the invitation has stated that he or she will be accompanied by from two to five others.

The Home Coming Association at Louisville informs us that Crittenden county will, according to its estimate, be represented by 230 former citizens of this county during the big June event.

As the railroads have made a rate of one fare for the round trip from Louisville to all points in Kentucky, tickets going on sale June 16, it is expected that all former citizens of our county who visit Louisville, will come to their old homes as soon as they have partaken fully of Louisville's hospitality. The following is the list referred to:

H. A. Wofford, Camden, Tenn.; Mrs. Gertrude Rawlison, Densby, Ark.; Robt Davidson, Pawnee City, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Cole, Mannsville, I. T.; C. C. Hill, Calista, Kans.; John T. Franks, Denver, Colo.; Mrs. C. S. Nunn, Montclair, Colo.; D. H. Franks, Cripple Creek, Colo.; John Kemp, East Prairie, Mo.; Albert Wilborn, Tucuman, N. M.; O. Ed Paris, Toppensish, Wash.; B. F. Jacobs, Lebanon, Tenn.; Wm. P. Klopp, Jonesboro, Ark.; Chas. Wheeler, Carthage, Tenn.; W. H. Wofford, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. H. T. Planary, Memphis, Tenn.; H. A. Dodge & Son, Dallas, Texas; James F. Hammond, Lake Village, Ark.; J. D. Scott, Alva, Okla.; J. J. Clark, Milburn, I. T.; N. R. Coffield, S. McAllister, I. T.; I. N. Young, Wellsford, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hughes, Only, Mo.

DIED IN THE WEST

Claude Cruce Who Went to Kansas in Search of Health Died Sunday

Telegrams received in the city Monday announced the death of Claude Cruce in Selden, Kansas, Sunday morning, May 20th at 3 o'clock.

He was the son of Geo. W. Cruce, of the Crayneville vicinity, and was 21 years old this month. He was married last Christmas day to Miss Mina Wheeler, daughter of Henry Wheeler of this city. They left for the West in search of health just two months before his death and located at Selden, Kans., where they have since resided.

He is survived by his young wife, a bride of five months, and his parents, one sister, Mrs. Maude McDonald, and three brothers, Edward, Herbert and Edgie.

The remains arrived here Tuesday evening on the 7:45 train and the interment took place Wednesday morning at the Cruce graveyard at 9:30 a. m., Rev. Oakley officiating.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to thank the good people of Weston and surrounding communities for their kindness shown me and my dear wife through her long illness and death. May God's richest blessings rest on you all, is my prayer. J. S. HEATH.

Presbyterian Sunday School Picnic

Wednesday May 16th the Presbyterian Sunday school took an outing to Hill's Spring near Piney and spent the day in the woods. It took several hacks to carry the crowd which numbered over fifty. A splendid dinner in the cool shady grove near this spring was enough to make the day one long to be remembered. Some of those who attended were Mesdames Mary Miller, J. I. Clement, M. E. Kirk, H. K. Woods, Julian Ainsworth, Messrs. H. H. Sayre, W. B. Yandell, J. M. Freeman, Misses Emma Adams, Lena, Ina and Sallie Woods, Marion and Louise Clement, Leona and Miller, Mildred and Dixie Trisler, Virginia Blue, Marion Ainsworth, Agnes, Maude and Annie Watkins, America Woodridge, Helen Sayre, Leuma James, Florence Glore, Masters Dean Adams, Bob Sayre, Ezra Perkins, Dudley Noggle, Wilson Woods, James Ainsworth, Harry Watkins, Robt. Jenkins.

Enjoyable Entertainment.

Masters Homer and Orin Moore entertained their young friends last Thursday evening, May 17, from 7:30 to 10:30 at the handsome of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moore. The occasion was one long to be remembered. Each little man and lady was delighted with the party. The luscious strawberries, ice cream and cake which were served in abundance were much enjoyed. Among those who partook of Masters Moore's hospitality were Misses Virginia and Isabelle Gness, Anna Allen Elgin, Grace Taylor, Madeleine Jenkins, Alma Asher, Lena Holtsclaw, Maude Watkins, Frances Watkins, Frances Blue, Katie Yandell, Maude Flannery, Katie Yates, Gwendoline Haynes and Masters Maurie Boston, Aubrey Cannan, Neville Moore, Emmet Clifton, Virgil Cox, Sylvan Price, Ray Love, Ira Sutherland, Galen Dixon, Roy Hurley, Robert Jenkins.

A Pathetic Scene

Lawrenceburg, May 17.—A pathetic scene was enacted at the railroad station when the sheriff left here with five convicts to be placed in the Frankfort penitentiary. Among them was Wm. H. York, the aged prisoner who was convicted of the murder of his brother, J. R. York, and who was sentenced to serve the rest of his natural life in prison. York's condition was so feeble that he had to be assisted from his carriage to the train. A large number of old Confederate comrades, who had served with him on the battlefield, were on hand to bid him good-bye. It can only be a short time until death releases him from confinement.

Going to Florida

Earnest Melton, who has been manager of the Cumberland Telephone exchanges at Providence and Dixon for several years, has resigned the position and left Thursday for Pensacola, Fla., to accept a place with the Southern Bell. Mr. Melton has made a fine official and the news of his resignation is received with regret by all. His family will remain in Providence for the present.—Providence Enterprise.

New Summer Hotel

Kuttawa, Ky. May 17.—The Kuttawa Springs Hotel Company has been organized and a forty room hotel will be built at the Kuttawa Mineral Springs, a mile from town. The chief local promoters are O. D. Dobbins, Otto Fowler and W. J. Stone. Owen D. Duffin of Louisville, and other foreign capitalists will become stockholders. Ex-Congressman W. J. Stone will be mine host.

A Change for the Worse.

Mayfield, Ky., May 21.—Former Auditor Gus Coulter has been unconscious all of today and is gradually growing weaker. He showed some improvement last night, but this morning a change for the worse appeared, and it is not believed he can live much longer.

MINE STOCK CHANGE HANDS

Five Men Buy Fifty-Five Shares in the Clay Mine at Mayfield

C. P. Hudson, of Paris, Tenn., has sold his fifty-five shares in the clay mines at Clay Switch to B. C. Bowden, J. N. Beadles, Newt. Harris and Next. Jeffrey. These shares brought $450 per share, amounting to $24,750.

Harry Watkins, of Marion, who is now connected with the clay pit and Newt. Jeffrey, went to Paris, where the deal was made with Mr. Hudson. With the addition of these public spirited moneyed men, the business will be conducted on a large scale and improvements will begin at once.—Mayfield Monitor.

Steam was raised at the Hamp mines Monday morning and the new machinery put in motion. The movement was beautiful and highly complimentary to Mr. John Jackson who superintended the construction of the plant. The owners of these mines are very proud of them, and just when steam was up a scuffle took place between Senator Fowler, Mr. Rogers and Capt. Taylor to get to pull the whistle, and at that moment Uncle Louie Hamp stole a march on them and pulled the string when the whistle blew for the first time at the Hamp mines. It is safe to say that these are the finest spar mines in the world and will now put into the market of the world the finest grade of fluor spar ever seen. The first year's run will pay nice dividends to the stock owners. We predict a good future for these mines.—Elizabethtown, Ill., Independent.

DR. T. ATCHISON FRAZER

Of this City, Grand Nephew of President Atchison.—Unwritten History.

Few people know that David R. Atchison, who was born in Frogtown, Ky. in 1807 and died in Missouri in 1886, was president of the United States one day, March 4th, 1849.

Mr. Atchison represented the state of Missouri in the U. S. Senate at that time and the term of the outgoing president expired on Sunday and the president-elect not being willing to be inaugurated on Sunday caused a vacancy which had to be filled, and by virtue of his office Mr. Atchison was in line and was made president for the one day.

This is a bit of unwritten history with which few people are familiar. Mr. Atchison was a brother of Dr. Frazer's grand-mother and Dr. Frazer has heard her talk of the incident frequently.

A Gay Outing Party.

Friday morning bright and early a party of twelve young people composed of Misses Lizzie Gilbert, Maude Flannery, Maude Watkins, Grace Moore, Lena Holtsclaw, Alma Asher, Anna Elgin, Katie Yates and Messrs Sylvan Price, Will Watkins, Emmett Clifton and Clarence Gilliland and chaperoned by Rev. and Mrs. J. R. McAfee and Mr. W. D. Pollard went to the Crittenden Springs to spend the day fishing and playing tennis playing.

The outing party was given in honor of Miss Maude and Will Watkins who left this week for Mayfield. All reported a most delightful time.

First National Bank Opens.

Just as we go to press were informed that the Home Deposit Bank received a telegram from the comptroller of currency authorizing them to open Tuesday, May 22, as the First National Bank of Central City.—The Central City Republican.

The Home Deposit Bank is managed by Albert E. Orr, cashier, a former Shady Grove, Crittenden county boy.

The Reed Mining Company.

TO THE OWNERS OF REED LOTS AND STOCK:

The fire at Marion destroyed most of the records and papers of The Reed Mining Company, as well as the maps and data giving the number and blocks in which the lots sold were located. We have had a transcript made from the county records of all lots that are of record. Unfortunately many of the lot owners have not recorded their deeds and we are at sea as to the vacancies in the various blocks.

Naturally, the only people that this bothers are the officers of the Company and the joint owners of the land.

The splendid showing made by the Kentucky Fluor Spar company in what was thought to be a "played out property" by many professors of the underground world, as well as the possibilities shown by the new separating works at Marion have given us a greatly improved basis for opening the shaft on the Lucile vein which is now down 36 feet.

The zinc and lead possibilities in this tract of land, to say nothing of fluor spar, will if rightly handled prove a real bonanza to the holders of Reed Company Mining stock. Will every lot owner and holder of stock give numbers and amount of stock certificates to Henry Haynes at Bourland & Haynes' office, and will every lot owner, not of record, give to the same gentleman the number of lot and letter of the block. This will put us in better shape to hustle matters in proper form. Do not delay in doing.

24m2 D. C. ROBERTS, Sec'y.

SPREADING ITS GOOD WORK

THE RETAIL MERCHANTS PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION

Has Incorporated a Similar Organization For Druggists and Physicians.

The Physicians' and Retail Druggists' Protective Association, recently incorporated, with headquarters 407 Keller building, Louisville, Ky. starts out with flattering prospects of success. The Association is the outgrowth of the Retail Merchants' Protective Association, and while it has no direct connection with the latter organization will be operated upon the plan that has secured so great a success for the Retail Merchants' Protective Association.

The Physicians' and Retail Druggists' Protective Association is anxious to interest every physician and retail druggist in the country and invites correspondence concerning the aims and purposes of the organization. A number of good, reliable men are wanted by the association to go on the road soliciting memberships. Applications will be considered on and after Tuesday, Aug. 1.

At the semi-annual meeting of the Retail Merchants' Protective Association, recently held, the stockholders and Directors were greatly pleased with the result of the association's efforts. The association has been in operation only six months, but in time has enjoyed a phenomenal growth, and that without the aid of solicitors. All the members have been secured through correspondence, a great increase being shown during the past three months. The association was solicited by druggists from all parts of the country who wished to become members, but after a discussion among the stockholders it was decided that not to receive the druggists but to organize a separate body. Judging from the remarkable success of the first organization, the latter will have an easy road to prosperity.

MAY
19th
To June
2nd

BARGAIN Carnival

MAY
19th
To June
2nd

To Our Many Friends

In Marion and surrounding country. We will have a Bargain Carnival at our store beginning May 19th and continue until June 2nd. We propose giving the biggest bargains you ever saw in any goods of our immense stock. Every article will be marked in plain figures on Yellow Tags. The store will be completely changed in appearance so that our oldest friends won't recognize it. We will have plenty of salespeople to wait on you.

We want you to come and take advantage of these bargains at the time of year you need them.

Loom Ends

Every factory and mill in the manufacture of their product accumulates Mill Ends or Loom Ends as they are commonly called. They are short ends from the looms--1 1/2 to 10 yards in length. These short ends are laid aside until the end of the weaving season when they are tied up in great bundles and disposed of by weight so much per hundred pounds instead of by the yard. These prices are always less than the cost of the raw material from which they are made. Loom Ends accumulate in the mills from which they are made and we have been particularly fortunate in securing a large variety of these ends for this mammoth sale.

Calicoes 2 1/2 c. per yard
Lawns 4c. per yard
Ginghams 3 1/2 c. per yard

Ginghams

No article in a Dry Goods Store is more in demand this season than Ginghams. We selected the neatest line of new combinations of colors shown in the market. Every season shows a marked increase in the novelty of designs and our prices are exceptionally low.

Hosiery

In buying Hosiery the prudent mother is anxious to buy only that kind that will give wear to save some of the darning that she had so much to do. This feature of Hose dropping a thread after a few days wear is very common. We pride ourselves on Hosiery stock. Only the long fibre cotton goes into our hose. It outlasts any other. Be sure to buy your hose from us!

35c Hose for 25c.      25c Hose for 19c
15c      "      12c.      12c      "      9c
10c      "      7c.

Mens heavy work socks      5c
Mens extra heavy work socks      8c
Mens nice black socks      7c

Dress Goods

From day to day we are giving out a few kinds to you as the new Spring Goods arrive, and we hope that this will lead you to come to the store and see the refreshing style-innovations that are appearing in rapid succession.

SHOES

We have an immense stock of Mens, Ladies and Children's Shoes. These Shoes are all worth today 25c more money, as leather has advanced that much. But we are going to reduce our stock and now is the time to buy bargains, as we will sell our Shoes at 25 per cent. less than the marked prices.

Organdies

No summer fabric can compare with the fine sheer Organdies we offer. They come in a beautiful array of patterns, of delicate sprays and flowers. These will be very much worn this season.

Notions

Every day you use some kind of Notions around the house. In the course of a year you buy many dollars' worth. We sell our small wares like the grocer sells sugar at the smallest margin of profit. That accounts for the small prices on our Notions. Buy notions here and save dollars every year.

Prints

Every dry goods store carries Prints, but not everyone uses the same judgment in selecting brands and styles that have the reputation of being the best values. We pride ourselves in our Print Department. No off brands but only reliable goods.

Ready Made Skirts

We have now on display in our ready-to-wear department the latest and most choice assortment of all this season's leading and most effective styles. The hang, the fit, the fullness of the swing are all essentials, but to crown all, we have the prices that will interest you.

$1.75 2.00 Ready Made Skirts $1.25
3.00      "      "      1.98
3.50      "      "      2.48
4.50, 5.00 and 5.50      "      3.98

White Lawns and Linons

Right on the threshold of a sure demand for White Goods, we put our entire stock in this Clearing Sale at such low prices that you can afford to buy two dresses for the price of one.

10-4 Linon Sheeting $1.25 for 98c
54 inch Art Linon 90c for 68c
35c 36 inches wide White Sheer Mull 25c
India Linon 25c for 19c
"      20c for 15c
"      15c for 12 1/2c
"      12 1/2c for 10c
"      7 1/2c for 5c

SOMETHING FOR NOTHING!

At precisely 3 p. m. on the opening day we will throw away from the roof of our store several packages of goods FREE to the lucky ones below. BE ON HAND!

McCONNELL & STONE MARION, KY.

BALLOONS! Every Saturday at 3:30 during the sale we will send up several Balloons from the roof of our store. To each one will be attached a tag calling for some useful article. CHASE THE BALLOONS, BOYS!

Clothing

Our Clothing is the product of one of the largest factories in the United States. The styles are thoroughly up-to-date and the quality, shape and fit are equal to any that can be had at any retail dry goods store in the country. You will find that our $10.00 and $12.50 suits are equal to any of the $15.00 and $18.00 suits sold elsewhere. We have clothing to fit all sized people and all sized pocket books. The reason we can sell clothing at such a remarkable low price is that we buy for cash and sell strictly for cash on a close margin.

Men's Furnishings

We carry a full line of the celebrated "Noxall" Shirts. These are made full width in the body, sleeves with reinforced shoulders, collar bands, evenly adjusted to give a perfect fit and made of materials that have been tested for service.

Mens Balbrigan 25c Undershirts for 19c
Mens      35c      "      25c
All $1.00 and $1.25 "Noxall" Shirts 98c
75c Shirts      68c
50 and 60 cents      45c
25 and 35 cents      19c
35c Table Linen for 23c
Table Oil Cloth      12c

NUMEROUS BARGAINS

Come in and be your own salesman. We give you below an idea of the manner in which we are reducing prices on articles well known to you. In order to give these prices we have arranged the stock on display tables and customers will be expected to act as their own clerks. We cannot afford to offer such wonderful bargains and pay additional clerk-hire such as would be required under ordinary circumstances.

Paper pins 1c      Best brass pins 3c
Box mourning pins 1c      Package hair pins 1c
Pearl buttons 3c      Child's handkerchief 1c
8c towels for 5c      200 yrd spool thread 3c
12 1/2c towels 8c      Ladies vests 4c
Ladies hemstitched handkerchiefs 2c
Gents handkerchiefs 3c
Ladies Umbrellas 26 inch for 30c
60c Lace Curtains 38c pr. 2 1/2 yards long
$1.25 White Quilts 98c

TWO WEEKS BARGAIN CARNIVAL, BEGINNING SATURDAY, MAY 19.

CHAMPIONED PAUL JONES.

MRS. DONALD McLEAN FOUGHT FOR BURIAL OF NAVAL HERO
AT ANNAPOLIS.As President-General of Patriotic Daughters of the American Revolution
She Was Invited Guest of Honor at Ceremony.

When the annual convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution was in session in Washington a few weeks ago the meetings were presided over by Mrs. Donald McLean. She enjoyed the unique distinction of being the first presiding officer of the congress who was not the wife of some man prominent in official circles. She had been a candidate for this high woman's office for several years, and the opposition to her election was plainly stated because she could not bring to the office high "national" prestige, which the Daughters of the American Revolution felt was necessary to the varied traditions of the society.

FROM LONG LINE OF PATRIOTS.

Mrs. McLean has half a yard or so of ancestral bars on her revolutionary ribbon, and hails back to some very distinguished citizens, both men and women. She was born in Prospect Hill, Frederick, Md., the city made famous by Whittier's poem "Barbara Fritchie." The ancestral hall is a big, beautiful come a finished expert in thrust and parry in parliamentary tactics.

At the Fourteenth Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, when Mrs. McLean was Regent of the New York Chapter, she assisted in introducing a resolution looking to the burial of Paul Jones in Annapolis, Md., that being her native State. Besides having a local pride, she thought the first naval hero of the nation should be buried near to the great naval school.

There was tremendous opposition to the proposition, and the congress voted to "lay the resolution on the table," an expression used in parliamentary proceedings to defer action on the subject. Later it was taken up, but the congress voted against taking the body of the naval hero to Annapolis and favored bringing it to Washington for burial in Arlington. Mrs. McLean has now, however, seen one of her dearest wishes carried out, and, as head of one of the greatest societies of patriotic women in the world, she was a guest of honor at the recent burial ceremonies of Admiral Paul Jones at Annapolis.

Made a Good Speech.

Senator Morgan the venerable statesman from Alabama, has that valuable sense of humor which enables the possessor to enjoy a joke when the laugh is on himself. The other evening, as he tells about it, he picked up an old copy of the Congressional Record while at home, and opening it at random began to read. "Very soon," says the

STANFORD UNIVERSITY.

ALMOST COMPLETE DESTRUCTION OF THE PICTUREQUE
CALIFORNIA COLLEGE.Built in Spanish Architecture and Cost of Buildings Alone Was Thirty Million Dollars—Will Probably Be Rebuilt.

One of the more serious results of the Pacific coast earthquake disaster is the destruction of Stanford University, near Palo Alto. More than $30,000,000 had been expended on the buildings alone, and the damage has been so severe that it will mean practically an entire loss. This group of buildings was planned and built on a prearranged scheme and has been accounted the finest group of structures for educational purposes on this continent, if not in the entire world. The buildings were all in the picturesque Spanish mission style, with the arch as its principal architectural feature. This fact, which was so much a source of beauty, has probably been the largest source of destruction, because, while the arch undisturbed is one of the most secure of building forms, when thrown out of plumb it must fall.

IRREPARABLE ART LOSS.

The main buildings are built around an inner quadrangle, which contains the offices of administration and some class rooms. These buildings are all one story in height. The outer quadrangle, which comprises the principal architectural features of the university, has as main points of interest the memorial arch, with its wonderful frieze, by St. Gaudens, representing the progress of civilization in America, and directly opposite this, through the inner quadrangle, the Stanford Memorial Church, with its mosaic front depicting the "Sermon on the Mount." This building cost, in construction alone, $1,000,000, exclusive of the mosaics and carvings inside and out, and its marble statues and art treasures from Europe.

Perhaps it may be said that the loss of the buildings and equipment, in spite of their great value, is the least part of the disaster, because since the university was started on Senator Stanford's Palo Alto ranch it has been a marvelous incentive toward higher education on the Pacific coast. Not only has it gone ahead with great strides on its own account, but it has carried the State University at Berkeley along with it in healthy rivalry, until the two gave an equipment for higher education in California that was not rivaled by that of any other State.

MRS. STANFORD'S GENEROSITY.

If it were not for the indomitable spirit which seems to have enabled the university to triumph over many difficulties it might be said that its career has been particularly ill-starred. For in spite of its great endowment, said to exceed that of any other institution of learning in the country, it has been unfortunate from the beginning. Vexatious litigation arose at the time of Senator Stanford's death, in 1894, and the claims put forward by those who had received personal bequests, to have them settled first, seriously impaired the finances of the university because it was impossible to realize upon its property. After that the Pacific railroad suits tied up the university money for a couple of years, until the Supreme Court decided in favor of the Stanford estate. But Mrs. Stanford, with wonderful courage and singleness of purpose, unselfishly turned all of her property over to the university, saw it through its crises until her recent tragic death in Honolulu, when the Leland Stanford University was again thrown in despair. Its present destruction by the earthquake seems to come as a culminating disaster, yet it is probable that it will rise again superior to the conditions which seem to have practically been set back to an absolutely new beginning.

It is already understood that plans have been considered for the rebuilding of the university, as the statement has been made by President David Starr Jordan to the students of the university, asking them to remain and that he might live again.

To her husband, Senator Stanford, she said: "It was his wish and desire that indigent young men should have an equal advantage in obtaining education. For his sake let us erect a university where all shall have an equal chance." From that day the Senator and Mrs. Stanford devoted their entire energies toward planning the Leland Stanford, Junior, University.

Government Positions.

As "distance lends enchantment," so perhaps are many people affected who, living in the remote States, are desirous of holding an appointive office under Uncle Sam at Washington. Lured by the short hours, light work, and comparatively large salaries,

FIRE VERSUS DYNAMITE.

TONS OF THE EXPLOSIVE USED
AT SAN FRANCISCO TO FIGHT FLAMES.Three Men of Navy at Risk of Their Lives Place Compound in Teeth of Oncoming Fire—Whole Blocks Razed to Prevent Disaster.

Through the destructive agency of dynamite the section of San Francisco still standing was saved at a cost of more than a million dollars. This powerful compound was scientific, wielded by three men of the U. S. Navy, sent by Admiral McCalla from Mare Island with orders to check the conflagration.

Helious tantrum of nature reversed the direction of the west wind the whole populous district to the west, blocked with fleeing refugees and unilluminated except by the disastrous glare on the water front, seemed safe by 9 o'clock.

Van Ness avenue is flat as the earth on the east side. Every pound of gun cotton did its work, and, though the ruins burned, it was but feebly. From Golden Gate avenue on the north the fire crossed the wide street in but one place—the Claus Spreckels' residence, on the corner of California street. There the flames were writhing up the walls before the dynamiters could reach it; yet they made their way to the foundations, carrying their explosives despite the furnace-like heat. The charge had to be placed so swiftly and the fuse lit in such a hurry that the explosion was not quite successful from the trained viewpoint of the gunners. But though the walls still stood, it was only an empty victory for the fire, as bare brick and smoking ruins are poor food for flames.

EFFECTIVE WORK OF WEEK.

Capt. MacBride's dynamiting squad realized that a stand was hopeless, except on Van Ness avenue. They could have forced their explosives further in the burning section, but not a pound of the terrible gun cotton could be or was wasted. The ruined block that met the wide thoroughfare formed a trench through the clustered structures that the conflagration, wild as it was, could not leap. Engines pumping brine through Fort Madison from the bay completed the little work that the gun cotton had left, but for three days the haggard-eyed firemen guarded the flickering ruins.

The desolate waste straight through the heart of the city is a mute witness to the most heroic and effective work of the whole calamity. Three men did this—three, simply, because they would not trust their work to others—and when their work was over and what stood of the city for the first time rested quietly, they departed as modestly as they had come. They were ordered to save San Francisco; they obeyed orders, and Capt. MacBride and his two gunners made history, on that dreadful night.

Elephants Going Up.

"A five-foot elephant costs this spring," an importer of animals is stated to have remarked, "$1,400, as against $1,200, for which such elephants could be bought two years ago."

"Elephants, like all other wild animals, are growing scarcer with the settlement of the globe, and their prices tend upward. More small elephants than big ones are imported because they cost less to begin with and because they are easier and safer to transport, and showmen like them, too, for the reason that young elephants are more tractable and easier to train. And small elephants are attractive anyway."

"Then, the elephant is a hardy animal in captivity and he is naturally long lived, and the young elephant increases in value with his growth. So that even with their prices tending upward, young elephants are good property, though even they are rather large for family pets."

DYNAMITE A BLOCK DEEP.

The whole east side of Van Ness avenue, from Golden Gate to Greenwich, was dynamited a block deep, though most of the structures stood untouched by flame or cinder. Not one large building, no one building stood upon its foundations. Unless some second ma-

QUADRANGLE WITH STANFORD
MEMORIAL CHURCH IN DIS-TANCE.
MEMORIAL ARCH AND STAN-FORD GROUP.

the young man or woman is likely to look upon department service as a beautiful life of "Do Little and Draw Your Pay" and watch the passing show. But it has its sunny side and carries both advantages and disadvantages in its train.

There is the danger of fossilization; of becoming a leaf in the sere; with energies gone and aspiration dead. This danger is great and seems almost inevitable to him who has many years of service in the departments. Though all will not agree with the Hon. Champ Clark in a recent article in the Saturday Evening Post when he says "Over the doorways of the Departments should be inscribed in letters so large that he who runs may read:

"All Hope Abandon Ye Who Enter Here."

Yet to the young man and woman who would keep the fires of their ambition burning, government service should be entered only as a stepping stone to a more strenuous life of higher and better things.

MRS. DONALD McLEAN, President-General of Daughters of the Revolution.

old place of colonial architecture, and it is only a few years since Mrs. Ritchie, mother of Mrs. McLean, died. She also had been prominent in D. A. R. matters ever since the organization of the society. Judge John Ritchie, father of Mrs. McLean, served in Congress and was subsequently elevated to the bench of the Court of Appeals of Maryland. He was an orator of renown, and Mrs. McLean seems to have inherited this attribute of her father.

Mrs. McLean's grandfather was Judge William P. Mauley, and her grandmother, Emily Nelson, for whom she was named, was the daughter of Gen. Roger Nelson, who was a boy of sixteen in college when the Declaration of Independence was signed. He ran away and joined the revolutionary forces. He rose in rank to Brigadier-General for conspicuous bravery on the field of battle. He was left for dead on the battlefield of Cowpens, and a British officer in passing his body wanted to strike his hand with the flat of his saber, breaking the bones of every finger. To his dying day, which occurred many years later, Gen. Nelson carried a stiffened hand. He became a member of Congress and later was made a Justice of the Supreme Court of the State.

DATES BACK OF REVOLUTION.

Mrs. McLean's ancestry began back of the revolutionary period, however. Judges Lynn and Beattie, two of those whose names are known as "The Twelve Immortals," who first signed a protest against the British stamp act in 1765, are years before the battle of Lexington. In Mrs. McLean a descendant is not unworthy of the illustrious example of fearlessness of spirit set by Gen. James Lackland was also an ancestor of Mrs. McLean, as was Deputy Governor Burgess, of Maryland history.

Mrs. McLean was educated at what at the time known as the Woman's College. She was graduated at the age of sixteen, receiving a diploma which was one of her proud possessions to-day. She continued her studies in history, and the languages until her marriage, in 1883, to Donald McLean, a member of a long line of revolutionary patriots like herself and a brilliant lawyer in New York city. Mrs. McLean has made a practical study of parliamentary law, and in the years of battling for chapter rights the floor of the Continental Congress and her own big chapter has be-

Senator, "I became interested, and as I proceeded I said to myself, 'This man is making a very sensible talk.' I found myself quite in accord with his views and read along with a good deal of approval until I finished two pages. I was wondering who could have made such a speech but was too much interested to look back to find out. But as I turned the page I came upon an interruption, and there was my own name given as the Senator making the reply. It was my own speech I had been reading."

A Bad Memory.

Senator Knox's physician advised him to give up smoking a few days ago and put him in the same class with Senator Spooner, also smokeless, after forty years of it. The next morning Senator Knox's physician happened up at the Capitol and went into the Senator's committee room to pass the time of day. He found Knox smoking a cigar.

MAIN FACADE, STANFORD UNIVERSITY, MEMORIAL ARCH IN CENTER.

"Here, Senator," he said, "I thought I told you to quit that."

"Quit what?" asked Knox, in mild surprise.

San Movements.

Standing on the seashore at a well-known Atlantic Coast resort, watching a beautiful sunset, with its rays piercing the clouds, were two Jews. "Look!" said one of the followers of Moses, "see the sun sets."

"No," replied the other, "there is where de sun sets."

aid in bringing order out of the chaos resulting from the earthquake. President Jordan has been mentioned to succeed the late Professor Langley as Secretary to the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, but those who are in a position to know state that it is believed that he will remain at the helm of the Stanford University and see that the magnificent buildings are erected again.

Stanford University had its conception in Italy in 1884. There a fourteen-year-old American boy tossed a his bed, struck down by a malignant fever. His fond mother knelt at his bedside and as his young life passed out, she arose filled with an inspiration

42-PIECE MONOGRAM DINNER SET

FREE

Each Dish
Decorated With Your Initial.

FREE

Wild Rose Design in Colors and Edges Traced in Gold.

THIS is the finest dinner set ever offered as a premium. 42 complete pieces. Every dish (except cups and saucers) decorated with the owner's initial. Any lady sending us her name will be sent 24 of our handsome facsimile framed art pictures to sell for 25 cents each or two for 50 cents. When sold send us the $6.00 collected and this elegant 42-Piece Monogram Dinner Set will be shipped to you at once for your trouble. You only need to sell 24 pictures (no more) to earn this premium. IT WOULD COST YOU CONSIDERABLE MONEY, but want to introduce our house at once. Our pictures are large size, 16 inches by 20 inches, in many beautiful colors and finished with lithograph scroll and gold frame, ready for wall, just as received from us. We guarantee our pictures to be quick sellers, if they are found not to be, they can be returned at our expense. We run all the risk, pay all postage, trust you with the pictures, take back any not sold and pay you liberally for what you do sell. Order the 24 pictures TODAY and earn this elegant Monogram Dinner Set. We are an old established house, incorporated under the laws of Illinois for $10,000 and can furnish 1000 references. Address W. L. REYNOLDS, Manager, 63 Washington Street, Dept. 756, Chicago.

Crittenden Press 1906-05-24 seq-4.jpg

SYNOPSIS OF PRECEDING CHAPTERS.

James Adams, West Point graduate, is in Paris at the opening of the French-German war. In a balloon reconnaissance for the French he is almost captured by the Germans. The balloon is wrecked at the Cateau Lagunay. Rescued, Adams falls in love with Aimee, daughter of the Count Lagunay. The Germans invade France. A German Colonel, Griesman, insults Aimee and is attacked by Adams, who is in turn overpowered by the Kaiser. He joins the German army under a friend, Lowenberg; engages in an ambush of a French column, and returning to camp learns that Griesman has charged Aimee with treason and has imprisoned her. Adams pursues Griesman in an automobile, kills him in single combat, and takes Aimee to a cousin at Bethel. In the terrific land battle two days later Lowenberg is killed in the capture of Montpelier. The French capture the Germans back with glycolite, a terribly explosive sprinkled from airplanes. One of the ships is blown in the night to Montpelier, where Adams is camped. The crew is thrown out. Adams blunders into it and is swept away in the gale.

CHAPTER VII.

I was awakened early the next morning by the sun. My clothes were damp with cloud moisture. I did not learn until then that there was an aluminum roof to the air car, which was pocketed up the basket-work sides, and that there were four electric radiators to provide heat. Thereafter I was more comfortable.

The ship floated steadily high in the clouds. I could see nothing but vapor being rapidly dissipated by the sun, which occasionally shot clear rays into my eyes. The barometer indicated an altitude of two miles, and the speed gauge registered, for the past twelve hours, an average of twenty miles an hour.

After a brief breakfast I examined the ship more at leisure. I found it a little ahead of anything I had ever seen. It steered perfectly, and could be sent up or down by the elevation or depression of broad aluminum blades fore and aft. A small motor, run by a powerful chemical battery, operated the propellers; though it was often possible to travel rapidly with the wind alone as motive power. There was also a Faure condenser for extracting hydrogen from the air, which operated automatically, keeping the bag always fully inflated. A wireless telephone outfit, various scientific instruments, the electric lighting and heating apparatus and the tank for condensing water from the gas-bag were novelties in their way. I found also a second hamper of food and drinkable, and, to my great delight, a box of fine Key West cigars, which I opened immediately. The car was eight feet wide and about sixteen feet long, and there was ample room for a party. I longed for Fleischmann, or poor Lowenberg.

When I had started the motor and set the fans to descend I took a telescope from the rack and waited eagerly for a sight of something that would indicate my whereabouts. By the compass I was going due west, and if that direction had been maintained all night I was far out on the Atlantic.

At last the clouds around me thinned and vanished, and I came into clear air. Below me, stretching away in all directions to the horizon, lay the sea, its tossing waves breaking white under when one took note of their enormous turret guns—twenty-inch, without doubt, capable of hurling a ton or more of metal every five minutes. I counted ten battleships, five or six torpedo-boat destroyers (recognized by their quadruplicate funnels) and several cruisers. Two huge coal barges were being towed several miles to the rear. This much was visible to the naked eye. Looking through my glass I could see a swarm of torpedo boats, only their conning towers showing above the water, hovering around the flanks and leading the advance.

The fleet was proceeding very slowly in a great curve to the north, evidently not desiring to advance nearer the coast. By late afternoon it had turned and was heading west at the same pace.

As the sun drew near the horizon and the wind freshened I turned the nose of my airship to the east and prepared to spend the night aloft. I had been sailing leisurely back and forth over an area of perhaps fifty miles, in hope of seeing the German fleet. Except for the many passenger steamers coming and going there was nothing to be seen.

I was leaning over the edge of my basket smoking idly. I had just christened my ship "L'Aimee," and was wishing I had the original with me, when a voice came down upon me from the clouds.

"Who are you," it called, in French. "I looked up in astonishment, and there floated the strangest airship I had ever seen. It was merely an aeroplane, supported by great saucer-like metal contrivances, with a small basket-car hung by slender cables. It swept by, some hundred feet above me, and I had a glimpse of a white face looking down upon me. I sped up the motor, and rising as I advanced soon drew up alongside my fellow traveler.

Then ensued a brief conversation.

"Where are you going?" I shouted. He was not more than a hundred yards away.

"I don't know. My steering fans won't work, and I cannot turn. I suppose I shall have to consider myself bound for America."

"Can you descend?"

"Yes."

"Drop to the sea, then, and I will pick you up. My ship steers perfectly."

We were now far beyond the fleet. I descended by degrees. The other tipped his planes slightly and started down on a long slant, like a boy coasting down a hill. When within twenty feet or less of the water he tipped the planes sharply in the other direction, and his ship stopped with a shudder, hovered for a time like a gliding gull, and settled slowly into the sea. I was close behind him with a small rope-ladder, and a minute later, dripping wet, but cheerful, he clambered into my car.

Then we rose again to the two-thousand-foot level and with just enough headway on to overcome the wind, lay as in a calm.

I found that my guest was none other than Emil LeFevre, son of the great inventor of submarines and explosives. When he had disrobed and hung his wet clothes to dry in front of the radiators, swathing himself in a rug meanwhile, he gave me a brief account of his journey. The world was ringing with the news of the great battle on the Catalonian Plain; how the French had been all but whipped when their fleet of airships, belated by some mismanagement, came upon the scene with the new explosive, glycolite, and sent the Germans back upon their camp, killing and maiming thousands. There had been no movement on land since that. All eyes were now turned toward the sea, where the fleets were watching pounds of Calnite, a new explosive which operated always downward. The bomb contained also a magnet and circuit-breaker so tuned as to be responsive to electrical vibrations set up in a powerful electrical instrument on the discharging ship. By the use of a unique range-finding apparatus the bomb was kept in sight during its whole flight, and upon reaching the desired point it was exploded by the mere pressure of a button on the ship from which it had been fired. Tests with this bomb had shown wonderful accuracy and most deadly effects.

Another offensive device was an aerial illuminator—a small, balloon-like affair, arranged to float at a considerable elevation, and carrying a powerful chemical light backed by strong reflectors. A shoal of these illuminators would be sent toward the enemy's fleet, lighting up the sea and the vessels and making easy targets for the German guns.

Against these devices the French had prepared an aerial torpedo, which discharged a heavy and deadly gas, and to sprinkle acids or explosives upon the ships of the enemy. They were also provided with aluminum armor, so thick and tough that an ordinary projectile would merely become imbedded therein and hold fast without being able to pass through. Around their ships and under water they hung large electro-magnets, the influence of which, by repelling a distance of a hundred yards, invariably turning them aside. Their mainstay, however, was a new centrifugal submarine torpedo-boat, which needed not to come to the surface, yet observing operations on the surface, and doing its work with deadly accuracy. LeFevre could not give me the details of this strange machine. Its terrible effectiveness, however, was apparent the next day.

I had no apprehension whatever as to the stability of L'Aimee, and we lay down and went to sleep that night without the least apprehension. Stanch and true was she, even as my own sweet betrothed. It was still dark, when I was awakened with a start by the sound of heavy detonations below us. I leaped to my feet and looked over the side of the car. LeFevre joined me the next moment.

The Germans had evidently planned a night attack by the use of their illuminator. Below us the sea was alight in great spots, and dimly we could make out the vessels over which shone the strong, blue-white lights. Far off in the darkness we could see the occasional flash of a gun. The Germans were sending home great shells loaded with explosives. Their aerial bombs could not be followed at night. The French were replying, but their fire was more or less blind. The roar of the guns came up to us plainly. It shook the heavens. Suddenly there was a flash that lit up the whole sky, and a terrific explosion sounded from below.

A German shell had found its mark. One of the French battleships had gone to her long home.

During the rest of the night there was no intermission in the heavy firing. Fearful explosions sounded now and then, and we could but guess the destruction that was being wrought. I had no wish to see either side win at the expense of the other.

At dawn we were able to note the situation clearly. Six or eight miles away to the northeast lay the German fleet. Almost beneath us the French were at the same distance. Both were plying their great guns. On both sides burning ships were drifting away, others were careening, half-filled with water. And now, with the coming of daylight, the combat grew more and more deadly.

Their deadliest appliances. As we watched one of the French battleships there was a dull explosion. The great hull opened, split in twain in a can-loupe, and went skidding to the bottom. We could see it deep in the clear water, its hundreds of seamen swarming around like so many ants in a bowl.

It was remarkable to note the submarines moving here and there under water. From our height we could see clear to the bottom, and every boat was marked by its bright streak as it swept through the water. Suddenly LeFevre clutched my arm and pointed.

"The Centrifugal," he said, in a whisper. I watched it on its way, advancing in a bright whirl of bubbles. It was making its way toward the German ships left, both sadly disabled. The German squadron was in fine shape, but three of its battleships disabled. I sent L'Aimee lower to observe more closely. The Centrifugal heeded not the torpedo nets. It passed through obstructions as though it were spirit. We saw it under the bow of the Frederick Wilhelm, the largest battleship of the fleet. For half a minute it lay there, surrounded as ever by that whirl of sparkling bubbles. Then it darted away toward another. So interested were we in watching the uncanny movements of the strange boat that we did not observe the confusion on board the Frederick, nor on the others that were successively visited. LeFevre noticed the great ships settling low in the water, and spoke of it to me. There was something terrible about this destroyer. Inside of fifteen minutes every vessel in that fleet had been stung, as it were, by this great hornet of the sea, and every one was sinking. The sea was throwing themselves off; boats were putting out rafts were being into the sea. Presently the Centrifugal finished her work and we saw her whirling away, stopping here and there to smell a submarine and to kiss it or to foie. What she did to the German ships sinking, sinking, going down to eternal silence. One after another they vanished. The torpedo boats came to the surface, saw what had happened, and put out for home and neutral ports. The Centrifugal, the grim destroyer, vanished. The great battle was over. And neither side could be said to have won. It was practical annihilation for both. Two magnificent fleets of modern war vessels gone, absolutely gone; a quarter of a billion dollars in battleships and thousands of brave fellows dead, only to satisfy the sickening of diplomats—sacrifices to foolish notions of honor.

To LeFevre the operations of the Centrifugal were a triumph for France, and he was enthusiastic in his delight. But I cared little for war, or the other. I was tired of it all. Life had been too strenuous for me. I wanted quiet for a while, and naturally my thoughts turned to Aimee, my sweetheart. Was she safe?

LeFevre insisted that I come with him to his home, but I refused. Turning to the east we made our way rapidly to the French coast. Here we settled to earth in the open country, and after bidding LeFevre adieu I rose again and made my way east. I had but one thought, now that the battle was over, and that thought I was putting into action. My objective was Bethel, where I knew my love awaited me.

But had I known what else awaited me at Bethel I should perchance have gone in another direction.

(To be concluded next week.)

Maxine Elliott.

Maxine Elliott, who has taken a house in London and will leave the stage for a time to enjoy social life, is famous as an actress and also for her beauty. Miss Elliott, who, upon the stage, retains her maiden name, under which she became famous, is the wife of Nat C. Goodwin, to whom she was married in 1898. She was born in Rockland, Me., and was but 16 when she first appeared on the stage. Her serious work, however, did not begin until 1890, when she became associated with E. S. Willard. Subsequently she became a member of Daly's stock company and rapidly won distinction, which has been enhanced by her performance in her husband's company. Dramatically and socially she is a great favorite in both the United States and England.

Copper in Water Kills Germs.

In looking to the purification of the water supply, either the local farm supply or the water for a great city, remarkable results are announced from the application of a new method of destroying micro-organisms in water, which was discovered about a year ago by Drs. Moore and Kellerman, of the Bureau of Plant Industry at Washington. It consists simply in dissolving a certain quantity of copper sulphate in the water to be purified. Fortunately the dilution can be made so large that no deleterious effects are produced upon the water intended for drinking purposes. One part of copper sulphate to eight million parts of water is the proportion generally used, and it is pointed out that, in order to obtain any effect of copper from such a mixture a man would have to drink forty gallons of the water.

During the latter part of 1904 more than fifty sources of water supply in the United States were treated by this method with gratifying success. Not only are dangerous bacteria thus destroyed but the green growths that frequently choke up small ponds are also eliminated. Most important of all is the promise that by this treatment the germs of typhoid fever may be entirely removed from any source of water supply.

In the case of a lake or pond the chemical is applied by suspending bags filled with copper sulphate over the side of a boat while the boat is rowed about. In two or three days the copper is entirely precipitated from the water, but the beneficial effects of the treatment last for weeks or months.

It has been suggested that this discovery may raise the question whether, after all, our mothers were not right—although they did not understand the scientific aspects of the matter—in preferring copper kettles for preparing many kinds of food.

A Chicago gamn stole a dollar and was sent to the workhouse for a year. On the same day an embezzler who had gotten away with $500 was also sent to the workhouse. Truly, the law is no respecter of persons.

A Chilean poet has declared for war against the United States. Prepare for the bum bardment.

SENT ON APPROVAL

STRAIGHT LEGS
Our stylish and easy forms give the perfect shape. The trousers hang straight and trim. Put on or off in a moment, impossible to lose, in-expensive, durable, give style, finish and comfort. We send them on trial. Write for photo-illustrated book and proofs mailed free and sealed.

ALISON CO., Dept. H6, Buffalo, N. Y.

SUCCEED IN LIFE

[GET MORE MONEY]

You can get from $5.00 to $50.00 a year in the Real Estate business without investing any money. Our co-operative methods insure larger and steadier profits than ever before. We will teach you the Real Estate, General Brokerage and Insurance business by mail, appoint you special representative of the largest International brokerage company, send you lists of choice eligible real estate and investments and co-operate with and help you make a large, steady income.

Every business man should have our Commercial Law Course which gives free to every real estate student. Our free book is valuable and interesting and tells how you can succeed. Address

H. W. CROSS, President, THE CROSS COMPANY, 121 Harper Block, Chicago.

FREE TO

ASTHMA SUFFERERS

A Home Cure that Anyone Can Use Without Loss of Time or Dejection from Business.

We want every sufferer from Asthma to write us today for a free trial of our wonderful New Method for curing Asthma. We especially desire those cases of long standing which have tried all the various kinds of inhalers, douches and patent medicines without number and without relief. We know we can cure them. We want to and are willing to prove it absolutely free of cost. Many thousands have accepted this opportunity and are now cured. There is no reason why anyone, old or young, rich or poor, should continue to suffer from Asthma after reading this marvelous offer.

Our Method is not merely a temporary relief, but a cure that is founded upon the right principles, a cure that cures by removing the cause. Don't put this off until you have another attack, but sit right down to-day and write for the Method. It is free and we send it with all charges prepaid. Address, Frontier Asthma Co., Room 121, 109 Delaware Ave., Buffalo, N. Y.

(To be concluded next week.)

PALISADE PATTERNS.

A TRIM GOWN FOR A MISS.

For a young girl's gown there is no smarter model than the one sketched here. Every feature of the dress serves a purpose and the result is a graceful and becoming whole. The yoke lends breadth to shoulders which need it, while the tucks extending a short distance below, supply a becoming fullness for the blouse. The pleated front, continued in effect by the front pleat of the skirt, suggests height and slenderness. The skirt is pleated all around to make up the deficiencies of the undeveloped figure. Kajah, linen, taffetas or cashmere might develop this design. The least experienced dressmaker can fashion the gown without difficulty, for which 6 1/2 yards of material, 36 inches wide are needed, is the medium size. Two Patterns—4019, sizes 12 to 16 years. 4020, sizes same.

The price of these patterns is 10c. but either will be sent upon receipt of 10c.

PALISADE PATTERN CO., 17 Battery Place, New York City.

For 10 cents enclosed please send pattern No. 4019 or No. 4020 to the following address.

NAME.....

ADDRESS.....

CITY and STATE.....

Numbers 4019 and 4020. PRICE, 10 CENTS EACH.

Earn More Money

International Correspondence Schools, Box 917, SCRANTON, PA.
Please explain, without further obligation on my part how I can qualify for a larger salary in the position before which I have marked X.
<input type="checkbox"/> Bookkeeper	<input type="checkbox"/> Telephone Engineer
<input type="checkbox"/> Stenographer	<input type="checkbox"/> Electric Light and Power Engineer
<input type="checkbox"/> Shorthand Writer	<input type="checkbox"/> Mechanical Engineer
<input type="checkbox"/> Show Card Writer	<input type="checkbox"/> Surveyor
<input type="checkbox"/> Window Trimmer	<input type="checkbox"/> Railroad Engineer
<input type="checkbox"/> Commercial Letter Writer	<input type="checkbox"/> Civil Engineer
<input type="checkbox"/> Illustrator	<input type="checkbox"/> Architect
<input type="checkbox"/> Civil Service	<input type="checkbox"/> Architect Draftsman
<input type="checkbox"/> Chemist	<input type="checkbox"/> Textile Mill Superintendant
<input type="checkbox"/> Electrician	<input type="checkbox"/> Structural Engineer
<input type="checkbox"/> Foreman	<input type="checkbox"/> Bridge Engineer
<input type="checkbox"/> Mill Foreman	<input type="checkbox"/> Mining Engineer

Name.....
Street and No.....
City..... State.....

Secure Your Future

To earn more money—to secure your future—to succeed in life—entail, fill in and mail to the International Correspondence Schools the above coupon. They will show you how you can fit yourself easily and quickly in your spare time to get more money in your present position, or change to a more congenial and better paying occupation.

Mind, the sending of this coupon does not obligate you to pay one cent. It simply gives the I. C. S. the opportunity of proving how easy it is for you to improve your condition right at home without neglecting your present work.

No risk to run. No books to buy.

The I. C. S. is an institution with an invested capital of over $5,000,000, and a reputation of 14 years' successful work. It has taken a day laborer and qualified him as an electrician with a salary of $5000 a year. It has taken a bricklayer and qualified him to become a building contractor with a business of his own of $200,000 annually. It has taken a sailor and qualified him to establish his own yearly business of $50,000. It has taken tens of thousands of men and women of every age and in every walk of life and in a few months qualified them to double, triple, quadruple their salary. To learn who they are; how it was done; how you can do the same, fill in the coupon and mail it to-day.

Succeed in Life

By
REV. J. F. PRICE

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS' TRAINING CLASS

LESSON XXXII.

There is no Sunday School lesson in this week's readings.

DAILY MANNA.

Sunday, May 27, The rich man and Lazarus, Lk. 16:19-31.
Monday, May 28, Forgiveness, faith and humility, Lk. 17:1-10.
Tuesday, May 29, The sickness of Lazarus, Jn. 11:1-6.
Wednesday, May 30, Christ decides to go to see Lazarus, Jn. 11:7-16.
Thursday, May 31, Arrival at Bethany, Jno. 11:17-20.
Friday, June 1, The raising of Lazarus, Jno. 11:20-44.
Saturday, June 2, Effect on the Jews, Jno. 11:45, 46.

HELPS TO STUDY.

Let us drop back to last week's readings. Both the parables in Luke XVI are concerned in the right use of wealth. The parable of the unjust steward enforces the power of wealth to make friends. Jesus shows that the use of wealth is an indication of character, and that in all events it must be so used that by its aid one may the better serve God. In the parable of the rich man and Lazarus Jesus teaches that wealth selfishly used brings not only misery in this world to those that are poor, but misery in the next to its owners.

The narrative of the raising of Lazarus falls into four parts: a. The message to Jesus and the conversation of Jesus with his disciples, vs. 1-16; b. The conversation between Jesus and the two sisters, vs. 17-37; c. Lazarus called forth from the tomb, vs. 38-44; d. The effect on the Jews vs. 45, 46.

In vs. 8-10 is Jesus' expression of confidence that he could be in no real danger while he was in the path of duty. The "twelve hours in a day" are the symbols of a man's appointed time to work, during which his path of duty is plain before him. While they last he need not stumble. It is only when he undertakes to go forward with no light of conviction on his path—in other words, turns aside from the path of duty—then real danger begins.

How he learned of the death of Lazarus the narrative gives us no means of knowing. Jesus would have Martha to see that for the one has faith in him the victory is already achieved; that life in him is itself and in its nature eternal life, of which death is but an insignificant interruption. Fellowship with God is the basis of eternal life (Jno. 17:3), and faith in Jesus creates such fellowship.

Vs. 34-38 show the depth of the nature of Jesus and illustrate his sympathy with sorrow. Looking at the whole event in the light in which the narrative itself places it, we see in it a manifestation of the glory of God; that is, of his power and goodness, through his son, and a revelation that the soul that trusts in Jesus shall never die, only the body shall die and lie in the grave till resurrection morn, but the soul, that deathless thing, shall enter into endless joy, the body will be spiritualized and also live forever.

THE TEACHER'S WORK.

As a teacher.

Teaching is an art; therefore the teacher should strive to master it. There are three ways by which a teacher may learn to teach:

1 By observation.

In every Sunday school there is one or more that rank as good teachers. Observe them; study their methods; ascertain their plans; catch their magnetism and inspiration.

2 By practice.

Learn to do by doing. Be careful that you attempt only what your good judgment approves, but do not be afraid to make experiments. Edison tried a thousand times and more before he set his incandescent light glowing. When you find that you have a good, all-around method working successfully, hold to it, and try to make it better.

3 By reading books on teaching.

There are several excellent books on the art of teaching. The principles of teaching are found in them. One good book on teaching, thoroughly mastered, cannot fail to make you a better teacher. To read such a book is to sit at the feet of some teacher of large experience, and have him speak into your ear the best thought of a lifetime of labor and achievement.

AUTHORS OF THE BIBLE.

There is little difficulty about the authors of the New Testament, except Hebrews. Some think Paul was the author of it, some think he was not; it will be discussed more fully later on. Matthew's Gospel was probably the first book of the New Testament, written not early than A. D. 38. Most of the other books of the New Testament were written before A. D. 66. John's writings and possibly Hebrews and the epistles of James, Jude and Peter were written after A. D. 66. John's writings were probably as late as from A. D. 90 to 98.

TOPICS FOR STUDY.

1. The different attitudes of the Pharisees and Sadducees respectively.
2. The ground of the opposition of the Pharisees to him.
3. Of the Sadducees.
4. The several instances of Jesus raising people from the dead.
5. The gospels that record each.
6. The distinguishing characteristics of each event.

SEARCH QUESTIONS.

1. What principle does the parable of the dishonest steward illustrate?
2. How does Jesus guard the parable from being interpreted as commending dishonesty?
3. What was the attitude of the Pharisees toward the teaching of Jesus as to the right use of wealth?
4. How does Jesus illustrate the story that comes from a selfish use of wealth? Where is Bethany?
5. What other place of the same name (Revised version) is mentioned in the Gospel?
6. What previous mention has there been of the family at Bethany?
7. Where are they mentioned later?
8. Relate the conversation between Jesus with his disciples when they heard the news that Lazarus was sick.
9. State the important principle which Jesus expresses concerning duty and danger.
10. Relate the conversation between Jesus and the two sisters.
11. What great truth was Jesus endeavoring to impress upon their minds?
12. On what can we rest our hope of a blessed immortality?
13. What does Jesus make of this whole incident?

Was it an Omen?

A singular phenomena was noticed in the sky for several hours Monday morning. Not a cloud could be seen. A straight streak stood out in the blue, in which all the hues of the rainbow were presented, with the red predominating. A large circle was also visible around the sun. The superstitious contend that it portends some disaster in which wars, cyclones and earthquakes are predicted while some think it is a sign the world is coming to an end.—Providence Enterprise.

SHOW TRAIN WRECKED

Sun Bros.' Circus Derailed at Wheatcroft.
Only One Performance

Sun Bros.' circus exhibited at Dix-on Wednesday and while enroute to Providence over the Kentucky Valley railroad, just after leaving the Illinois Central tracks at Wheatcroft Thursday morning, the car containing the elephants and several animal cages was derailed and the management finding it impossible to adjust the wreck in time to reach Providence and give a performance, were forced to cancel the date.

It was then decided to give one performance at Wheatcroft, which was given in the afternoon and fairly well attended.

The management of the Kentucky Valley ran two excursions from Providence to Wheatcroft both heavily loaded with passengers.

Our Occupations.

A little bright-eyed Texas girl, enclosed the following rhymes in a letter to her father, Rev. G. S. Davis who was visiting here last week. The conceit is rather pretty:

First comes Willie, the elder one,
Who all the time you have been gone
Out ten miles on the ranch has stayed
And from his duty has never strayed,
For when my last year's dress I longed

She had it ready, washed and ironed,
Which shows that she not only plays
But also works some during the days.

Next comes Lessie, the blue-eyed girl,
Who throws her things to the corners
Of the world,

But she has quieted down a bit,
And still we hope she'll make a hit.
She doesn't do much while you are gone,
But tries to keep from doing wrong,
But what a task I sure must say,
To be good the livelong day.

Third in line is Aubrey, only boy,
Who to his sister is quite a joy,
For he runs in almost every day
For a pleasant chat and then he's away.

He waters the flowers and gets the mail
And sometimes pulls the old cow's tail,
Some old bran sacks he gathered and sold
And got enough money, so I am told

To go to the barber's a hair-cut to get,
Which he sorely needed, I'll bet.
And last of all comes Rosalie,
Whom at school every day I see.

Miss Maud keeps her all right, it seems,
Which causes her to have pleasant dreams.
So go along and have a good time,
Is the only request of my little rhyme.

LESSIE DAVIS.

Abilene, Tex.

Not if as Rich as Rockefeller.

If you had all the wealth of Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate, you could not buy a better medicine for bowel complaints than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The most eminent physician can not prescribe a better preparation for colic and diarrhoea, both for children and adults. The uniform success of this remedy has shown it to be superior to all others. It never fails, and when reduced with water and sweetened, is pleasant to take. Every family should be supplied with it. Sold by Woods & Orme, the leading drug store in Western Kentucky.

Air Ship Flights.

The Home Coming Association has arranged with the Baldwins to exhibit their latest improved air ship at Louisville, during the Home Coming Week. The air ship will be exhibited daily from 9 o'clock a. m. to 1 o'clock p. m. On Monday and Tuesday of "Home Coming Week," the air ship will be shown all day. Flights will be made daily, the weather permitting, over the entire city of Louisville.

This Boy is All Right.

The Evanville correspondent of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat sends that paper the following:

Police Judge Winfrey to-day released Benjamin Baldson, aged 17, who recently shot and perhaps fatally wounded Frank Spangler, while the latter was making an attack on Baldson's father. In rendering his decision Judge Winfrey said:

"Where a son defends his father where the life of the latter is in jeopardy, there is no law to convict him. It is the duty of the son to defend his father; I would do it myself under the circumstances."

Had a Close Call.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve says A. C. Stickle, of Miletus, W. Va. "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries. 25c at Woods & Orme, druggists.

Many Arrow Heads Found.

Quite an unusual find was made by Mr. J. S. Lawrence, living one mile from Palmore the other day, while plowing in his field that had been cultivated for forty years. His plow scraped about an unusual number of rocks, for that particular place and he stopped his horse to examine the cause, and found a deposit of Indian flint arrow spikes, that were common in this country soon after the Indians were driven out of it. In this one place he found one hundred of these flint spikes, fourteen were spoiled by the plow, and he has now eighty-six of his own, as natural and in as good a shape as when they were deposited by the Indians.—Mayfield Messenger.

DRAUGHON'S

Practical Business Colleges.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found a special offer made by Draughon's Practical Business Colleges, chain of 27 colleges, an offer that will doubtless interest YOU. Read it.

Message Through the Earth.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 15.—The underground wireless telegraph system invented by Father Joseph Murgas, of this city, according to Fredrick Muckly, who has been associated with the inventor for some time, has been proved a success. Messages have been transmitted through the ground between this city and Scranton, a distance of eighteen miles.

Shafts two hundred feet deep were sunk in this city and Scranton, made water proof and wires were extended to the bottom of each, by which the messages were sent and received; the shafts, it is stated, are deep enough for sending messages a thousand miles. It is proposed, as soon as some details are completed, to conduct experiments between New York and London.

Face the Truth.

The ostrich habit, that of burying the head in the sand and fancying that what it can not see does not exist, is not confined to the ostrich. There are human beings who resort to the same course. They close their eyes to the disagreeable truths they do not want to believe, to the wrong and injustice they have no mind to meet, and to penalties and consequences that are unpleasant to contemplate. They have a vague hope that even certainties, kept out of sight long enough, will cease to be certainties, and that in some unknown manner they will pass away. To face the truth, whatever it may be, is the first step toward victory.—Forward.

Has Stood the Test 25 Years.

The old, original Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. You know what you are taking. It is iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure, No pay 50c.

All kinds of carriage painting done at McKew Bros. shop by a first-class painter. Give us a trial.

Nunn & Tucker

HOUSE FURNISHERS

AAA

See
Our New

Bed Room Suits
Sectional Book Cases
Dinning Room Suits
Chiffoniers
Reed Rockers
Carpets
Rugs

Parlor Suits
Rockers
Iron Beds
Sideboards
Writing Desks
Matting

Coffins, Caskets and Burial Robes

Fine Hearse and Funeral Car.

Always Remember the Full Name
Laxative Bromo Quinine
Cures a Cold in One Day, Grip in Two.

E. H. Brown on Box. 25c.

IMPORTANT CHANGE

Louisville, Henderson And St. Louis Railway Co.

"HENDERSON ROUTE"

On and after April 1, 1906, all trains of this Company will arrive and depart from 10th Street Station, Tenth and Broadway, instead of from Seventh Street Depot (formerly Union Depot), Louisville, Ky.

L. J. IRWIN, G. P. A., Louisville, Ky.

Local Time Table I. C. Railroad

NORTH BOUND

Leave Marion 7:02 am
Leave Marion 7:27 pm
Leave Marion 7:50 pm
Leave Marion 11:00 pm

Arrive Evansville 9:45 am
Arrive Evansville 2:45 pm
Arrive Evansville 6:00 pm
Arrive Mattoon 4:30 pm
Arrive Evansville 1:50 am
Arrive Chicago 9:30 am

SOUTH BOUND

Leave Marion 5:26 am
Leave Marion 11:27 am
Leave Marion 5:00 pm
Leave Marion 7:15 pm

Arrive Princeton 2:00 am
Arrive Nashville 8:10 am
Arrive Princeton 12:15 pm
Arrive Princeton 4:50 pm
Arrive Nashville 5:25 pm
Arrive Princeton 8:35 pm
At Hopkinsville 9:45 pm

War Against Consumption.

All nations are endeavoring to check the ravages of consumption, the "white plague" that claims so many victims each year. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds perfectly and you are in no danger of consumption. Do not risk your health by taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar is safe and certain in results. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and insist upon having it.

Woods & Orme.

Notice to Creditors!

C. S. Nunn, Plaintiff vs. Ruth Guess, etc., Defendant.

All persons having claims against the estate of J. W. Guess, deceased, are hereby notified that same must be properly proven and filed with me on or before the first day of June term of the circuit court, and upon their failure to do so said claims shall be forever barred. Court convenes fourth Monday in June; by order of court March term, 1906.

J. G. ROCHESTER, Com.

Caught in the Act.

Seated in the corner of a freight car of the Illinois Central Railroad, loaded with valuable furs, millinery, costly merchandise which had been pulled from boxes and packages and scattered over the floor, John Thomas, a negro, who gave Louisville as his home, was the sight that confronted Patrolmen Aaron Hurley and John Hessian Sunday morning when they opened the door of the car.

"Gee! He must be a window dresser," said Hessian. "Or a milliner" echoed Hurley. The negro was hauled out from his bed of soiled laces and silks and a hurry call for the patrol wagon soon transferred him to a dark cell in the city prison. He is charged with breaking the seal of a box car with felonious intent, and will be held until the railroad detectives can investigate the matter.—Pad. News-Democrat.

WHITE'S Cream Vermifuge

THE GUARANTEED
WORM REMEDY

THE CHILDREN'S FAVORITE TONIC.
BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.
THE GENUINE PREPARED ONLY BY
Ballard-Snow Liniment Co.
ST. LOUIS, MO.
Woods & Orme, Druggists

Cave Herself Away.

Bowling Green, Ky., May 17.—Because Miss Lottie Darr, of this city, talks in her sleep, the secret of her marriage to Frank Dudley, a popular young society man, has just been made known. Miss Darr, or more properly Mrs. Dudley, invited a girl to spend the night with her, and while sleeping soundly awoke her friend by talking in her sleep. Listening, the young woman learned of the marriage.

Mr. House-holder

It has always been my desire to secure for my customers the best of everything at the lowest possible price.

As regards paint in particular, I am pleased to announce that after thorough investigation I have accepted the exclusive agency for Hammar Condensed Paint, which is guaranteed for five years with, back of this guarantee, the great St. Louis House of Hammar, with a half million dollars cash capital and a third of a century reputation for honorable dealing.

There is no guess work about Hammar Paint. We sell you the paint and oil separately.

It isn't ready mixed. You can mix it yourself, and all you need to do it with is a stick.

Paint lives only so long as the oil in it lives.

When you mix the paint with oil yourself, which takes but a minute, we absolutely guarantee it to wear for five years and to look well at the end of that time.

By purchasing the fresh oil separately and taking a minute's time to mix it with Hammar Paint you save 25%, which means in a nutshell that you have not paid for canned oil at paint prices.

One gallon Hammar Paint and one gallon linseed oil covers six hundred square feet of surface, two coats, which is the closest sticking, farthest spreading, and longest lasting paint in the world.

Come in and talk it over. There is nothing else like Hammar Paint.

Hina Hardware Company.

Our prices must be right—we look to the future as well as the present.

Clothing! Clothing!

To boom our Clothing business we offer you big values

Strictly regular up-to-date Clothes at strictly special Prices.

Bought for less than usual costs and sold on the same basis.

This is a great stock to see for Men, Boys and Children.

SEE OUR

Clothes

Quality Highest Prices Lowest

Nobby Hats and Caps

We always have something new.

Right Goods at Lowest Prices always.

We are Right Here!

STOCK Bigger, Better than Ever!

Prices Lower than the Lowest for First-Class Merchandise

You're Losing Money

By not seeing us before you buy. Straight NEW GOODS ONLY.

TRADE HERE and save your time and money and get what you want. Always something new to interest you. We never let our stock get stale.

Every Price is Rock Bottom

Not one reason why we should not have your trade

Dress Goods, Silks, Dry Goods, White Goods,
Novelties to Suit.

Carpets, Rugs, Matting, Druggets
and Lace Curtains

YANDELL-GUGENHEIM CO.

We want your trade because we can benefit you.

If you want snappy, stylish good

SHOES

WE HAVE THEM
Shoes and Oxfords
IN ALL LEATHERS

We give you the style
We give you the right price
We give you the shoes that wear

White Canvass Low Cuts
For Ladies and Children

Walkover Shoes for Men

The shoe that has style, comfort and wear.

TO-DAY

Is your day to see us for values

The Crittenden Press

S. M. JENKINS Editor and Publisher.

Entered as second-class matter June 26th, 1879, at the postoffice at Marion, Ky., under the Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION CASH IN ADVANCE.

Single copies mailed.....	10c
1 month mailed to any address.....	1.50
3 months.....	4.50
6 months.....	8.00
1 year.....	15.00
FOREIGN.....	20.00

THURSDAY, MAY 17, 1906

We see by late Washington dispatches that in the event of Hon. O. M. James declining to announce himself a candidate for Governor, Joe Blackburn will again shine his castor into the political arena and announce himself a candidate for that position. Better not, Joe. Better recognize and realize the hint conveyed at the last election. The days of the Argonauts are on the wane. The youngsters are in the saddle and all shoal can not prevail against them. Don't, Joe. When you and the Old Guard went down together during the late Senatorial struggle, your political sun set in Kentucky to rise again—never!

By an oversight of the printer, when we published the article entitled, "Kings of England", which was composed and read by Miss May Travis before the high school class, her name was omitted. We regret this as the article was an exceptionally good one we wished her to have all the credit due her. We had several inquiries as to who the author was; hence this explanation.

In this issue we publish the address of Miss Eula Thurman, delivered at the high school closing exercises, Friday, May 11th, 1906. It is a gem of thought and was well delivered. Miss Thurman received many congratulations, and should have, as she has been a close student and richly deserves the honors of her class, which she carried off.

The PRESS never has nor never will urge people to stop taking the paper of a contemporary. We do not care how many papers you patronize so long as you take ours. Don't forget to do that.

The Senate has passed a Railroad Rate Bill said to be even more drastic in its operation than the original Hepburn bill.

There are but few editors in our state who have not made a vigorous and persistent fight against the city mail order house. This has been done in the interest of the home merchant and without money and without price. If the editors of the land had received regular advertising rates for all they have said against these enemies of the country merchant, they could now be wearing diamonds. Now the city department store man appreciates advertising space and is willing to take all the average country paper has for sale and at a good round price. How many other business or professional men would refuse to take advertising thus offered them? We doubt if there is any other, especially when some of their friends never seem the least disposed to appreciate the compliment or return it. The PRESS appreciates the liberal patronage bestowed on it by some of the more enterprising of our merchants, and will ever endeavor to do only those things which will be to their interest and that of the entire community—which would bring our reward.

The Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly, which has been in session at Decatur, Ill., during the past week has had a rather stormy time of it and the sessions have been marked by a series of violent and intemperate addresses. The apple of discord is the union of the Cumberland church with the "Old School" denomination, and as the "unionists" were found to be in a majority in the assembly the non-unionists were all the more bitter and uncompromising, and the matter may finally have to be decided by the courts, as there are some $8,000,000 or $10,000,000 of church property involved in the controversy. There is great diversity of opinion on the subject among the various C. P. congregations and much ill feeling has been stirred up—which is truly unfortunate, viewed with the light of christianity. The Assembly will adjourn to-day (Thursday.)

The swift Cruiser Columbia left Philadelphia May 20th on a rush order for San Domingo, having on board six hundred marines. Those San Domingo dandies are up to some more of their deviltry.

Affairs in Russia are assuming a grave aspect and the slightest mistake or act of violence on the part of members of the National Assembly may precipitate a civil war.

REV. RICHARD MARTIN

Who will begin a series of meetings at the Christian church next Sunday night.

Prof. Victor Kee.

Tuesday night the School Board held a special meeting to consider the election of a Principal for the Marion Graded and High Schools, which had been deferred at the previous meeting at which the vacancies in the primary grades were filled, for the reason that some of the applicants had not filed all the testimonials which they desired to place before the board. Several applications were before the board, but they selected the incumbent, Prof. Victor G. Kee. The board was harmonious in its decision that, all things considered, he had managed the school with signal ability the past year, and that the school is now in a healthy and prosperous condition. The coming session under Prof. Kee after a year's experience here, will be one of much greater effort and of advancement all along the line. The lines of study taught the past year, notwithstanding taught in the Marion high school were German, Latin and Higher Mathematics, and these branches will be continued under the personal tutelage of the principal.

All the friends of the Marion graded and high schools will be pleased to know that this splendid educational institution is to be in good hands in each grade the coming year.

For Rent, Sale or Trade.

New four room house, stable, necessary outbuildings, large lot; will rent reasonably, sell on easy terms or trade for anything I can use.
C. J. PIERCE.

SEVEN SPRINGS.

Rev. George Summers filled his regular appointment here Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Nellie and May Travis, of Emmus attended church here Sunday and visited Miss Hattie Travis of this place.

The farmers in this section are through planting corn and are now preparing their tobacco and tomato ground.

We are having some hot, dry weather.

Mose L. Patton, wife and baby visited W. M. Redd and family and T. J. Wring and family, of Marion, Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Lucy Brasher, of Caldwell Springs attended church at this place Sunday.

While in Marion last week little Collin Patton was the recipient of a highlow chair, presented to him by T. J. Wring, the Singer Agent; it was very much appreciated by the little fellow.

Miss Virgie Green was through this section canvassing the past week.

Rev. Kinsolving and wife and Jim Patton and wife were visiting Mose L. Patton and wife Sunday.

Owing to the dry weather tomato plants will not be set as soon as was intended.

Ed. Perkins and her mother, Mrs. Maggie Kaece, of Frances, were visiting Mrs. Lewis Patton Monday.

The vice president and secretary of the Canning company at Dyeusburg, expect to be at the factory on the 19th of this month.

There was a singing at the residence of Mr. Newt McKinney Sunday evening.

Miss Sarah Patton is slowly recovering.

Stray Horse.

There is a stray horse in my pasture. Came there the 10th of May. The horse is a dark bay with a white spot on the left flank and a brand on the shoulder which resembles a heart, also has a halter on. The owner will please pay for this advertisement and come to my farm to get him.

E. L. NIXON, Rodney, Ky.

Estrada Palma, the recently elected President of Cuba, was inaugurated last week with blare of trumpets and amid the glad rejoicings of the populace.

Rev. B. F. Jacobs, of Lebanon, Tenn., preached at the C. P. church Sunday morning.

Rev. Benjamin Andros was installed pastor of the Presbyterian church last Sunday.

Rev. J. W. Bigham, who is presiding elder in Southern Florida, and who now resides at Bartow, Fla., preached an exceptionally good sermon at the Methodist church Sunday morning.

Eld. J. S. Rowe held regular services at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening.

Rev. J. R. McAfee preached to a large congregation at Post Oak last Sunday evening at 3 o'clock.

Rev. R. C. Love filled his regular appointment at Shady Grove Sunday morning.

A special service for the old people will be held at the C. P. church in Marion, the first Sunday in June at 11 o'clock. We will sing the songs of our fathers. The sermon will be intended to comfort and encourage old people. You are earnestly invited to attend. All will be welcome and you have the privilege of inviting any of your old friends.

Rev. J. C. Kinsolving has been called to the pastorate of Crooked Creek church, and will preach there Saturday and Sunday, 26 and 27.

A protracted meeting will begin at the Christian church next Sunday. The celebrated Martin family will furnish the music. Mr. Richard Martin, violinist, and Miss Edna Martin, organist and soloist. We are informed that on account of the Christian church not being large enough, the auditorium of the Marion Graded School Building will be utilized. Announcement will be made later if this is decided on.

The meeting of the County Sunday School Committee will be held at the C. P. church Saturday at 2 p. m. The committee consists of the county officers and the superintendents of the different departments of Sunday school work. The officers and superintendents are as follows: R. M.

Franks, president; W. J. Hill, vice-president; J. A. Hill, secretary; Mrs. G. M. Crider, supt. of Home Department; Stella Hill, supt. Primary Work; J. W. Blue, supt. Teachers Training Class; Mrs. Wm. Mott, supt. House to House Visitation. The district officers are also invited.

Ordination services were held at Dunn Spring church last Saturday afternoon, and the following program was carried out: J. M. Barnes and D. J. Green were ordained deacons of Dunn Spring church.

1. Organization of presbytery composed of the following members: Elds. G. S. Summers and U. G. Hughes and Deacon J. H. Robinson.

2. Sermon by Eld. U. G. Hughes.

3. Examination of candidates by Eld. Hughes.

4. Ordination prayer by Eld. G. S. Summers and laying on of hands by presbytery.

5. Charge to candidates by Eld. Hughes.

6. Charge to church by Eld. Summers.

7. Adjournment after extending the hand of christian fellowship.

Mountain Sinks from Sight.

Manila, May 17.—Reports have reached, capital of the province of Abra, Luzon, that on May 8th an eminence known as Mount Details settled out of sight, and that a lake of considerable size has been formed in the place where it stood. During the transformation there was a terrible noise and an earthquake shook the surrounding country. It is not known whether any lives were lost. Fears are entertained for many natives who lived on the mountain side. At present the natives in the vicinity are in an uncontrollable state of terror.

Can You Afford

To let the Normal School with its opportunities of improvement pass you when it costs only

$6.00 FOR SIX WEEKS

Better the Grade--Better the Trade!

THIS IS ONE OF THE REASONS THAT OUR TRADE CONTINUES TO INCREASE
WE INVITE YOU TO COMPARE QUALITIES FOUND HERE WITH THOSE FOUND ELSEWHERE!

EXAMINE OUR.....

CLOTHING

If you are hunting values either in Single or Double Breast.

Blue Serge, Black, Unfinished
Worsted, Fancy Worsted, Novelties in the Grays and Mixtures, Extra Pants, Luster and Serge Coats

Boys Suits

And Extra Pants. All new and up-to-date.

The Demand for Nice Dress Goods and Waistings was never Greater

Neither was our stock ever more complete in this line.
New designs in Mulls,
Lawns, Batistes, Dimities,
Organdies and Mercerized Goods.

To appreciate them you must see them.

If you need a Hat or Cap
look at ours.

"LION BRAND" Shirts and Collars are "best by test."

Underwear and Hosiery direct from the mills.

Carpets Rugs Matting

Shoes and Oxfords

Not the kind that is cut in quality and price but the kind that is as

GOOD AS THE BEST AND BETTER THAN THE REST

And we have them for Men, Women, Misses and Children

W. L. Douglas for Men

and
DUTTENHOFERS FOR LADIES

NO TROUBLE TO SHOW GOODS
AND A PLEASURE TO PLEASE

TAYLOR & CANNAN

Masonic Temple

R. J. Morris, dentist.

Ice cream soda. Woods & Orme.

Lee Orme was in Marion last week.

Coffee, the best in the south.
Morris & Yates.

J. N. Boston was in Morganfield
Wednesday.

FOR SALE.—A fine Jersey cow.
J. B. KEVIL.

J. H. Orme and wife went to Uniontown Wednesday.

Best on earth, Chase & Sanborn's
Chicago coffee. Morris & Yates.

Mrs. M. E. Croft and children are visiting relatives at Salem.

Miss Nelle Walker is confined at her home with nervous prostration.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Metz and children are visiting relatives in Clay
this week.

We mean it—Back goes your money if VINOL doesn't help you.
WOODS & ORME.

Mrs. Gus Baker, of Princeton, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Taylor Sunday.

New stock china, glass and queensware at unheard of prices.
Morris & Yates.

Messdames Joe Walker and Virgil
Eglin are visiting friends at Sturgis
this week.

Go to the Sanitary Shop. Clean linens for each customer.
METZ & SEDBERRY.

Miss Sallie Bond, of Princeton, was the guest of her sister, Mrs.
Gus Taylor Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Burkley, of the Creek community, are the parents of a baby boy.

Miss Ora and Nora Stephens and Mrs. W. D. Cannan Sunday.

FOR RENT.—A new six room house, $10 per month. For further particulars see Mrs. J. F. Loyd,
Marion, Ky.

Mr. DeHaven, of Blackford, will be in Marion home coming week.
Brother of Senator Sam De-Haven of LaGrange.

Dr. W. Stone, graduate optician, glasses scientifically fitted.
Stewart's photograph gallery, Marion, Ky.

W. L. Adams brought to the market some fine strawberries, which filled a quart cup. They were only large but luscious and flavorful. His fruit is sold here at Morris & Yates.

Ice cream soda. Woods & Orme.
Chas. B. Hina was in Evansville
Thursday.

R. J. Morris dentist. Office over
Marion Bank.

John Yandell, Jr., of Frances, was here Saturday.

Fresh bread every day.
Morris & Yates.

Dr. R. J. Morris visited relatives at Uniontown Sunday.

Judge Tom Evans, of Smithland, was in the city Tuesday.

Flour 50c per sack or $4.00 per barrel at Hicklin Bros.

G. H. Crider and wife, of Crayne-ville, were here Saturday.

Julian Ainsworth was in Evansville Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Billart went to Oakland
City, Ind., Saturday to visit relatives.

Mrs. J. I. Clement and Miss Marion Clement were in Evansville last week shopping.

We mean it—Back goes your money if VINOL doesn't help you.
WOODS & ORME.

Highest market price paid in cash or trade for eggs and butter at Hick-lin Bros.

Will Lowery, of Salem, returned
Saturday from a trip to southwest Texas.

Robert Lee Castleberry, of Princeton, visited his sister, Miss Ruby Castleberry Sunday.

Miss Ruby Castleberry and brother
Robt. Lee, spent Sunday evening with relatives in Morganfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bennett, of Kelsey, were in the city last week the guests of Rev. J. S. Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wyatt, of Fredonia, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wilson last week.

H. L. Burton, who is attending school at Bowling Green, is visiting relatives at Repton this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Reed, of Kut-taw, visited their daughter, Mrs.
Addison Tinsley the first of the week.

Roy and Rufus Terry who are attending Lockyear's Business College at Evansville, were at home last week for a visit.

My fertilizers for tobacco are made from ground tobacco stems and dried blood. Highest grade on the market.
W. L. ADAMS.

Miss Mabel Minter will teach the Lilly Dale school the coming fall and winter. This is the largest second class school in the county.

Miss Nannie Rowe, of Horse Cave, was the guest of her brother, Eld. J.
S. Rowe, of the Christian church, last week.

FOR SALE.—The Grassham stemmery in Salem for cash. Write or call on Roy L. Threlkeld for further particulars.

Ice cream soda. Woods & Orme.
R. J. Morris dentist. Office over
Marion Bank.

Miss Jackson visited friends in Sturgis Sunday.

Joe Carson, of Chattanooga, is visiting friends in the city.

J. R. Catlett of the Princeton
Leader, was in the city Sunday.

"Old Folks' Day" at the C. P. church the first Sunday in June.

H. A. Haynes and C. S. Nunn returned from Louisville Tuesday.

We mean it—Back goes your money if VINOL doesn't help you.
WOODS & ORME.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newcom and children visited relatives at Black-ford Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gugenheim visited Mr. and Mrs. Hartfield, of Henderson Sunday.

Mrs. R. L. Moore and Mrs. Frank Dodge spent Tuesday with relatives near Repton.

Mrs. Tishy Paris who has been in Nashville, Tenn. for some time returned home last week.

We mean it—Back goes your money if VINOL doesn't help you.
WOODS & ORME.

L. N. Shrode, of Chrisney, Ind., who was the guest of his son, J. L.
Shrode, returned home Thursday.

Marion Clark and Walter Love left for Ardmore, I. T., Wednesday night of last week on a prospecting tour.

Mrs. C. M. Davis, of Mayfield arrived in the city Tuesday afternoon to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C.
A. P. Taylor.

Dr. Walter Travis has completed his third year at the Louisville College of Medicine, and returned to his home at Tribune.

Rev. T. A. Conway left Saturday for Smithland where he preached Sunday. He also has charge of the church at Gracey.

Mrs. Sarah Utley, of Marion, Ill., a former Salem citizen, arrived last week to visit her daughter, Mrs. W.
T. Martin, near Salem.

Mrs. A. B. McFee and her granddaughter, Miss Eula Thurman, are visiting this week at the country home of J. E. Dean.

Sam Henry, who has been at work at Charleston, Mo., for some time has decided to locate there. He left Tuesday with his family for that place.

All the old people of every denomination are cordially invited to attend "Old Folks' Day" at the C. P. church, Marion, Ky., the 1st Sunday in June.

A blacksmith shop, house and two lots, house with 4 rooms and 3 fireplaces, good well, 30 fruit trees all for sale; $175 and a good set of blacksmith tools extra if wanted. A good location as there is in the county.
J. W. Bennett, Weston, Ky.

Ice cream soda. Woods & Orme.
18 pounds of sugar at Hicklin
Bros. for $1.00.

Mrs. J. B. Mott, of Crider, was here Saturday.

G. W. Noggle, of Dekoven, was in the city Saturday.

Mrs. Ed. Weldon is spending this week at Dawson Springs.

Mrs. Pollard and daughter, Hazel, are visiting relatives at Elkton.

J. B. Champion, Jr., went to Dawson Springs Sunday to remain a few days.

Mrs. R. E. Wilson, of Weston, was in town last week visiting her friends.

We mean it—Back goes your money if VINOL doesn't help you.
WOODS & ORME.

Mrs. James Cruce, of Tiline, Ky., is here visiting her brother, G. G.
Hammond, on College street.

The Cumberland Telephone company have a force of about 25 or 30 men at work on their line from here to Salem.

Miss Etta Schlant left Wednesday for Henderson. She has been at the bedside of Mrs. Sarah Crider for several weeks.

Will Watkins and Clarence Gilliland left Monday for Mayfield where they have accepted a position with the clay works.

Dr. F. W. Nunn is rejoicing over the arrival of another dentist at his home. The little stranger put in appearance last Saturday morning.

For a good, clean, smooth shave, go to the "Palace Barber Shop, opposite the post office.
METZ & SEDBERRY.

Teachers' examination was held Friday and Saturday at the school house by the Board of Examiners.
There were twenty-two who took the examination.

Misses Sagie Rankin, Mabel Guess,
Ora Hodges, John Sedberry, Alvis Stephens and Lester Terry were the guests of Miss Addie Nunn of Rodney Sunday.

Mrs. Marshall Jenkins and son, Robert, have gone to Eldyville to visit Mrs. W. E. Crumbaugh and to Paducah to visit Mr. Jenkin's mother
Mrs. Mary Jenkins.

Wm. J. Davenport, of Levas, has rented the Sam Henry residence on west Depot street and moved to the city. He contemplates opening a blacksmith shop here.

Metz & Sedberry, the Palace barber shop boys, will please the most fastidious. In fact they please every body. "Once a customer, always a customer."

Taken up as a stray at my farm 2 miles below Fords Ferry, May 15, one iron gray pony, 5 years old.
Owner can have same by paying all charges and for this advertisement.
J. A. DAUGHTREY.

Ice cream soda. Woods & Orme.
We mean it—Back goes your money if VINOL doesn't help you.
WOODS & ORME.

John Easley and wife of Fords
Ferry spent several days with Dr. W.
T. Daughtrey and family last week.

Mrs. Louis Clifton left last week for Forkland, Ala., to visit her sister Mrs. A. Y. Glover for several weeks.

Curtis Asher, Leonard Johnson,
Carl Trisler and Ed Slaton left Sunday for Atlanta, Ga., where they have accepted a position with the Cumberland Telephone Co.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Leech, of Princeton, were in the city Saturday enroute to Crittenden Springs where they will stop for a few days.

Mrs. F. H. B. Haase, of Wheeling,
W. Va., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Blanche, arrived Tuesday afternoon for a visit to Capt. Haase
at the New Marion.

We want a reunion of all the old people of our town and surrounding country, whether they are church members or not, at the C. P. church the first Sunday in June.

FOR SALE: A small farm unimproved in Ohio river bottom near Tolu, 62½ acres, all in cultivation.
First class land; a bargain.
W. N. WELDON, Tolu, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Farmer, of Owensboro, who have been the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Farmer, on Walker street, left for their home Thursday.

Mrs. G. B. Crawford returned to her home at Tolu Thursday taking with her the little baby boy left by her daughter who died May 13th. J.
B. Champion, Jr., accompanied her.

We learn on good authority that the ordinance against throwing paper or other trash on the streets of the city of Marion will be enforced from this time on. Every one should feel interested in keeping the streets clean without being forced to do so.

Rev. J. F. Price, of Marion, preached at the M. E. church here Sunday night. His sermon was a good one and was listened to by a large and appreciative audience. He will preach here again the fourth Sunday in this month.—Dixon Journal.

Birth cards received by friends in this city announce the arrival of a beautiful little girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Emet Gill, in Milburn, I. T. Mrs. Gill was Miss Cora Clark before marriage, and she has many warm and admiring friends in Marion.

Harry Watkins' family left for Mayfield Monday. Mr. Watkins has purchased property there. His son, Will, drove the family horse through the country going by way of Salem, Smithland and Paducah. The other members left by rail taking the noon train Monday. Mr. Watkins and each member of his interesting family will be missed in Marion and there is sincere regret at their decision to leave Marion.

Ice cream soda. Woods & Orme.
FOR SALE.—My residence just west of the city limits, with two acres of ground adjoining. Price $1600, one-fourth cash; balance in 1,
2 and 3 years. Harry Watkins.

The street sprinkler with Phil De-boe at the helm, is a decided success this season. He runs it early and late and keeps the dust under control.
It is the general opinion that Marion has the best service in this line we have ever had.

FOR SALE.

House and lot opposite Courthouse in Marion, owned by J. J. Clark, and occupied by Dr. Daughtrey. See John Blue for particulars.

Notice of School Tax!

I will be at the office of Bourland & Haynes, Thursday and Friday, May 24th and 25th, for the purpose of collecting school tax for 1906 for the Marion Graded School district. The 5 per cent penalty will be added after May 25th to all unpaid tax.
H. A. Haynes, Treas.

CORN WANTED.

We will pay 55 cents for white shucked corn delivered at our mill.
Marion Milling Co.

Woods & Orme

The Leading Druggists

Stock New and Fresh

Prescriptions Carefully
Compounded at all Hours, Day or Night.

FINE PERFUMERY

Toilet Articles, Soaps, School Books, Tablets, Stationery, Pins, Pencils
Inks, Etc.

WOODS & ORME

Marion, Kentucky.

ZED A. BENNETT, Marion, Ky.
B. D. BENNETT, Smithland, Ky.
Bennett & Bennett,
(Successors to Hughes & Hughes)
Agents for the Farm
Department of the Continental Fire Insurance Co.
For Crittenden, Livingston and Lyon counties.

All persons having insurable property should protect it from the ravages of fire, lightning and tornadoes when they can do so at such a low price. Write or phone these gentlemen and your business will be promptly attended to. Phone 225, Marion, Ky., or No. 92, Smithland, Ky.

Dr. M. Ravdin,

Practice Limited to Diseases and Defects of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.
Suite 16 and 17, Arcade
Building, Glasses Fitted.
EVANSVILLE, INDIANA.

JOE B. CHAMPION T. W. CHAMPION

Champion & Champion, Lawyers,

MARION, KENTUCKY.
Will practice in all the courts of the Commonwealth. Special attention given to collections. Office in Press Building, second floor, Room 6

Lumber AND TIMBER FOR SALE.

Also a Few Mineral Properties.
A Good Saw Mill For Sale
W. A. DAVIDSON,
Phone 1. Levis, Ky.

F. W. NUNN DENTIST

Office Suite 3 and 4 Press Building
MARION, KENTUCKY.

W. H. CLARK, Attorney-at-Law.

Special attention given to collections.
Will practice in all the courts of the State and in the United States court. Office in Press Building, Room 7.
Phone 106. MARION, KY.

James & James, Lawyers,

MARION, KENTUCKY.

J. B. KEVIL, Lawyer

Abstracting a Specialty
Office in Press Building, Room 5
MARION KENTUCKY.

BENNETT, KEVIL & CO.

HAVE ESTABLISHED A
Fire Insurance & Real Estate Agency in
MARION, KENTUCKY

If you desire to buy or sell real estate of any character, see them.
If you have property in the town of Marion, let them insure it. You shall have no reasons to regret it.
Office in Press Building, Room 5
Telephone 225.

TELEPHONES
AND Switchboards
ALSO
Large Stock of Electric Light, Street Railway and Telephone Supplies Constantly on Hand.

Send For Catalogue.
Jas. Clark Jr. & Co.
313 W. Main St., Louisville, Ky.

Echoes From The French Revolution.

Miss Eula Thurman's Valedictory Address composed, memorized and delivered at the closing exercises of the Marion High School, May 11th.
I have stood by the broad waters' edge in the night time and have seen the full round moon rise from the waters, and as it rose higher and higher, east across the waves a gleaming, glittering pathway of light, narrow where it began, but broadening out in golden beauty as it stretched away.

Such a pathway so splendid and ever broadening in hope and noble purpose has been that traversed by downtrodden peoples from the beginning of time. Often subdued by brute force, often overcome in battle when the cause for which they fought seemed almost hopeless, there has nevertheless been a God "presiding over the destinies of nations" and fighting their battles for them.

Over a century ago the Bastille fell before the wild fury of a Paris mob. The shock of its fall aroused all Europe and monarchs trembled for their thrones. The thunderous peal of Napoleon's cannon as he wheeled it around the thrones of tyrants has kept enrolling down the years, echoing along the banks of the Rhine, and borne on Atlantic breezes it has reverberated among the lofty peaks of the Andes; the angry rumblings are now heard, deep and thunders, on Russian plains.

A revolution started in France has affected the whole world. It brought forth a military genius such as the world has not seen since the days of Caesar, Napoleon Bonaparte; it brought about the abolition of "privileges" and secured social equality; it dethroned despotism forever in Europe.

In France itself the revolution can not be regarded as the movement of any one class, for while the peasantry suffered most from the Old Regime and profited most from the transition of a new and modern system, it was far from being the peasantry alone who performed the work of the revolution. It was not the rural folks who first threw themselves into the struggle, but rather the swarm of malcontents who flocked to Paris from all parts of France. These were the people who first began the revolution and who for most part ended it, for at that time "Paris was France."

Yet, the Paris mob storming the Bastille, defying the king in the streets of Versailles, sending tyrannical nobles to the guillotine, was fighting as truly for liberty and the common people as if the people themselves had been active participants. They began a military revolution but obtained a social revolution of gigantic proportions. The peasantry, freed from unjust taxation and feudal dues, made rapid advancement and progress. They had better homes and were better clothed; they had more time to think of education and religion, and by a growth which, though slow was nevertheless steady: the built a great republic above the ruins of the empire.

The battle of Waterloo was over and the great Napoleon banished to a lonely isle in the Pacific, when the Congress of Vienna began its work of restoring fallen monarchs; Prussia, Holland, Spain and Italy were given their old places on the map, and the restored Bourbon of France spoke of that year as "the nineteenth of his reign."

But strive as they would this body of politicians could not destroy the spirit of revolution or remove the seeds of liberty sown broadcast by the armies that marched and remarched over the soil of Europe. The changes in Prussia and the final unification of Germany, were most striking. Here serfdom and feudalism had survived more than in any other part of Europe, and especially with her people, was a thing totally unknown.

The Napoleonic creed changed all this. Prussia took a few rapid strides in the direction of freedom and unity. The Customs act and the way with France fostered a spirit of patri-

For Your Protection

We place this label on every package of Scott's Emulsion. The man with a fish on his back is our trade-mark, and it is a guarantee that Scott's Emulsion will do all that is claimed for it. Nothing better for lung, throat or bronchial troubles in infant or adult. Scott's Emulsion is one of the greatest flesh-builders known to the medical world.

We'll send you a sample free.
SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street
New York

riotism more than anything else could have done, when the figure of the mighty Bismarck was seen towering above the turmoil and unrest of the times.

Germany was born a free nation amidst the throes of war, and the way prepared for the resumption of her influence in European affairs.

With a bold hand Napoleon had written across the map, "The Kingdom of Italy," and this, Napoleon's kingdom, though delusive in its hopes, had nevertheless inspired in thousands of Italian patriots a longing for national freedom and unity. The story of her heroic struggle from the time Sardinia declared war upon Austria until the Pope surrendered Rome into the hands of the people, is told over again in the story of her hero and patriot, dashing Garibaldi, in the wisdom and foresight of Cavour, and the guiding power of Victor Emmanuel, when Italy stood forth a mighty nation, and took her place among the nations of Europe.

In 1810 began the South American revolution, when Simon Bolivar, the Washington of Southern liberators, with his band of patriots marched victoriously from the Isthmus to Cape Horn, beneath whose flag five republics received their life and be- fore whose standard of liberty Spanish cruelty and Spanish despotism must surely fall. Scarcely had the echoes of their revolution died away when the great sounding board of the Andes caught the murmurs of Chile and Venezuela in their war of fanatical priesthood.

In those times revolutions were led by men, the magic of whose words and actions united all warring factions with them. Such a man was Simon Bolivar. 'Tis the same deep seated spirit of revolution today—a longing for change that has animated nations since the French reign of Terror.

Away to the north the shadows and eclipse of a revolution are sweeping over a mighty empire and in the sudden darkness nothing is clear save one great fact: if Russia would live she must change her governmental policy. Her greatest enemy was not the Japanese army that faced Kuro-patkin, but rather the army of discontented peasantry within the borders of the empire itself, whom oppression, through long years of cruelty, has raised up an implacable foe. Russia's war was indeed a horrible war to look upon but it was only a dim shadow in the cloud of gloom, which now hangs over St. Petersburg, where the common people, so long a slave to the Czar, have arisen and demand that he redress their wrongs. And yet the booted and spurred cavalry shoot them down before the royal palace. A government of such principles can not live; the time is coming when these oppressed people will break the bonds that bind them, a liberty loving world will hasten to the rescue and raise up armies for them.

Then when Russian thrones have crumbled, and Czars have ceased to rule will this revolutionary echo be lost in the noisy progress of the times. Then as we press and look back over the past century we see a France on which the scaffold's shadow does not fall, and where labor receives its full reward; we see a Germany at peace and rich in every form of art; and looking on into the years to come we see a Russia where no exile sighs nor prisoner mourns, a country filled with happy homes and firesides of content, where the common people have conquered in their right and—

"Freedom's battle once begun
Bequeathed from bleeding sire to son,
Though baffled oft is ever won."

And now, fellow-classmates, we are going forth into a broader world of activity, where we meet both the despot and the slave. Since we must meet and mingle with men and women we will sooner or later be given an opportunity to uphold the tyrant or take a stand for right and justice against him. I confidently believe that we who have found such earnestness and truth in each other here will ever be found on the side of right and liberty. Ours is a grand opportunity. The world was never so much in need of true men and women, and never has it offered such great rewards for goodness, fairness, and usefulness.

Sciatica Cured After Twenty Years of Torture.

For more than twenty years Mr. J. B. Massey, of 3322 Clinton St., Minneapolis, Minn., was tortured by sciatica. The pain and suffering which he endured during this time is beyond comprehension. Nothing gave him any permanent relief until he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One application of that liniment relieved the pain and made sleep and rest possible, and less than one bottle has effected a permanent cure. If troubled with sciatica or rheumatism why not try a 25-cent bottle of Pain Balm and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain. For sale by Woods & Orme, the leading drug store in Western Kentucky.

He Was.

A publisher who occupied a loft in New York city, directed one of his clerks to hang out a "Boy wanted" sign, at the street entrance, a few days ago. The card had been springing in the breeze but a short time when a red headed little lad climbed to the publisher's office with the sign under his arm.

"Say, Mister," he demanded of the publisher, "did youse hang out this 'Boy wanted,' sign?"

"I did," replied the publisher, sternly. "Why did you tear it down?"

"Back of his freckles the youngster was gazing in wonder at the man's stupidity.

"Hully gee!" he blurted out. "Why, I'm the boy."

Farm for Sale.

In Salem Valley, Livingston county, Ky., containing two hundred or more acres, one mile east of Salem, on main Salem and Marion road; extra good buildings on same, in fine repair. Fine orchard, good community, living stream of fine water on same, will make a fine stock farm, all limestone soil. Will sell at a low price. Cause for selling, old age and not able to look after the farm.

For further particulars address the Press office, Marion, Ky.

STEVENS

"WHEN YOU SHOOT"
You want to HIT what you are aiming at—be it land, beast or target. Make your shots count by shooting the STEVENS. For 45 years STEVENS ARMS have earned the PREMIER HONORS for ACCURACY. Our latest
Rifles, Shotguns, Pistols

Beautiful three-color Aluminum Hanger will be forwarded for 10 cents in stamps.
J. Stevens Arms & Tool Co.,
P. O. Box 4095
CHICAGO FALLS, MANN, U. S. A.

HERBINE

For Sick Livers

A PURELY VEGETABLE
COMPOUND

QUICKLY CURES CONSTIPATION, DYSPEPSIA, MALARIA, CHILLS and ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.
A GUARANTEED CURE for all diseases produced by TORPID LIVER and IMPURE BLOOD. One bottle purchased today may save you a sick spell tomorrow.

CURED OF CHILLS AND FEVER AFTER ALL OTHER MEDICINES FAILED

Mrs. W. A. Whitwell, Emory, Tex., writes: "My child had chills and fever for four years. We tried all kinds of medicines, and finally an acquaintance of mine recommended Herbine. We used three bottles, and the child is now completely cured. You have my permission to publish this testimonial, as I cheerfully recommend Herbine to all mothers having children afflicted as mine."

LARGE BOTTLE, 50c GET THE GENUINE
BALLARD SNOW LINIMENT CO.
ST. LOUIS, U. S. A.

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY

Woods & Orme, Druggists, Marion, Ky.

A DASHING AUTOMOBILE STORY

A Motor-Car Divorce

By LOUISE CLOSSER HALE

A BREEZY and deliciously humorous motor-car romance—the fact that the hero and heroine are man and wife makes it no less a romance.
Mrs. Ward, a believer in the theory of the ten-year marriage contracts advanced by George Meredith, goes with her indulgent husband on an automobile tour through France and Italy for the purpose of securing a divorce on the grounds of "incompatibility of temper," which, in reality, do not exist. It takes another woman, several accidents and the automobile to bring Mrs. Ward to her proper senses.
With 36 illustrations, 10 of which are in color, by Walter Hale 12mo, cloth, $1.50

If your bookseller hasn't it, the publishers will send the book, postage paid, upon receipt of price.

DODD, MEAD & COMPANY
Publishers 372 Fifth Avenue New York

Remarkable Lake Found.

Hopkinsville, Ky., May 14.—The waters of a subterranean lake, which was struck at a depth of 269 feet, most of which was drilled through solid limestone on the farm of R. M. Smith, in North Christian, is said to possess unusual health giving properties, and already its fame has been spread abroad over a large territory and numbers of people are drinking the waters. The state chemist at Lexington analyzed the water and stated that the analysis showed 228.3 grains of solid matter, mainly sodium chloride and carbonate with calcium, lithium, magnesium and iron. The water is so strongly impregnated with carbonic acid that it can not be tightly corked in jugs, and when placed in a soda fountain here it burst the pipe.

Marion Marble Works.

Why will people go elsewhere to buy tombstones and monuments when they can save money by buying at home, and at the same time you will be encouraging home industry and thus be patronizing those who patronize you. We handle nothing but first class material and a high grade of workmanship is our specialty.
HENRY H. HENRY

Heart Weakness

The action of the heart depends upon the heart nerves and muscles. When from any cause they become weak or exhausted, and fail to furnish sufficient power, the heart flutters, palpitates, skips beats; and in its effort to keep up its work, causes pain and distress, such as smothering spells, short breath, fainting, pain around heart, arm and shoulders. The circulation is impeded, and the entire system suffers from lack of nourishment.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure makes a heart strong and vigorous by strengthening these nerves and muscles.

"I had palpitation and pain around my heart, and the doctor said it was incurable. I don't believe it now, after taking six bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, three bottles of the Nervous Tonic and three boxes of the Nervous Kidney Pills. I am entirely cured, and feel better than I have for five years, and it is all due to these remedies. I want you to know that your medicine cured me. It relieved me from first dose, and I kept right on taking it in my chest was gone, and I was on feeling better even after I had taken it." JOHN H. SHERMAN, Belding, Minn.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it does he will refund your money.
Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

For a good smooth clean shave, go to the "Palace Barber Shop" opposite the post office.
METZ & SEBERRY, Proprietors.

VILLAGE MEN CHOOSE HUSBAND

Special Election Held to Secure a Man
For a Life Partner

A special election, held for the purpose of determining which of two young Kentucky lovers was entitled to the hand of a Kentucky girl, called the "men folks" of the surrounding county to Malonetown one day this week. Today the successful man and his bride left for the East to spend their honeymoon with Old Virginia relatives of the bride, says a Malonetown, Ky., special to the New York World.

The men were rivals not only for a girl, but for their party's nomination for sheriff of Green county as well. Fred Warnock, agreed to leave the award of both prizes to the people of the township wherein both had been reared. They held a special election to settle the question. The best man was to take both bride and a clear field for the nomination. The young lady most interested presided over the ballot box as both clerk and judge.

The township is not densely populated, but a few over a hundred voters live within borders.

Witherow is the son of the richest land owner in the township. With his father, he controls most of the fertile valley land much of the broken hills. Warnock is a country school teacher. Both have been active in politics, and the two have been able, by working together, to control the delegations of the county conventions for several years.

Warnock and the young girl, Miss Ada Creighton have been friends for some years. He grew up with her and they attended school together. Their friendship was from childhood and their neighbors never considered them in a matrimonial light.

Some weeks ago Witherow asked Miss Creighton for her hand. She told Warnock about it, and he grew bold, and revealed his own secret love. Neither man received a decided answer, and Warnock found that he could not hope as a country teacher to outstrip the land owner, admittedly the best catch in the township.

Then the thought came to him that he might be nominated for sheriff. So he ambled off to the county seat and confided to the "boss," Judge Leonard, his ambition to win that nomination.

"Sorry, Fred, but Tom Witherow was here yesterday, and I told him if he could get his delegation he would have my support. But, then, you and Tom have always worked together, suppose you two fix it up as to who is to run."

At heart, the young school teacher returned home. At church Sunday he saw Ada Creighton sitting in the Witherow seat beside his rival, and his blood boiled. That night he called at the Creighton home, and asked the girl if she would marry him if he would win the nomination for sheriff, and she replied that she would, but added that there were others who were confident of winning the office. It should be stated here that to secure the Malonetown delegation at the primaries is equivalent to nomination at the convention.

The county committee was slow in calling the primaries. So an agreement was entered into for a special election. It was agreed that Miss Creighton should preside at the ballot box as judge and clerk. When election day rolled around the rivals came as hands with their printed ballots. Witherow's tickets were printed on tinted paper; Warnock's on white. Witherow cast the first ballot of the day. It was for him.

Warnock worked hard, and at noon within hailing distance of his rival, though soon after dinner the pink tickets seemed to come in faster, and it looked as though the school teacher was doomed. Miss Creighton kept close mental notes of each shift in the position. Her brother, Jack, aged ten, kept count of the tickets as they came in. The boy loved his schoolmaster and he wanted white ballots to

We Trust Doctors

If you are suffering from impure blood, thin blood, debility, nervousness, exhaustion, you should begin at once with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the Sarsaparilla you have known all your life. Your doctor knows it, too. Ask him about it.

You must look well after the condition of your liver and bowels. Unless there is daily action of the bowels, poisonous products are absorbed, causing headache, biliousness, nausea, dyspepsia, and thus preventing the Sarsaparilla from doing its best work. Ayer's Pills are liver pills. Act gently, all vegetable. The dose is only one pill at bedtime.

Made by J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also manufacturers of:
Ayer's
HAIR VIGOR,
ACQUE CURE,
CHERRY PECTORAL.

come fast. The polls were closed at 4 o'clock. At 3 p. m. the rivals were five votes apart and there were only a few more outstanding.

At half-past three the Wilson boys from the upper part of the township, came in and cast three votes—all white. Time dragged, and it seemed that the five minutes that now remained would pass before any others could come. But across fields came a party of three in tow of Warnock. They cast two white and one pink vote. One more white vote would tie the score. What then? The judge of election must decide the winner. That was the agreement. Must she after all, choose between the two? While she puzzled herself with the question another man galloped up. He cast a white ballot.

With blanched face she took the ballot and placed it in the box. Then she remembered the school teacher had not voted. Should she tell him, and break the tie? After all, that would be another way of making a choice. Maybe he did not want to vote. Maybe he was just—no, that was not fair to him. He did love her. It was wrong to doubt him. Besides she must be fair. Elections always are.

"What's the matter sis?" asked 10 year old Jack. "Is professor beat?" "No, Jack, if he votes he will win. Tell him quick. He's got only half a minute."

"I hardly know how to vote," said Warnock. "I suppose I should out of courtesy, vote for my rival. Have you a pink ticket?"

No one but the girl and her brother heard him. Jack did not hear his sister's whispering reply. Warnock smiled and handed a white ticket to the judge.

There was a dance that night at the Creighton home, at which the result of the vote was disclosed, when the bride-to-be counted the ballots before the guests.

The wedding was held the next night, and the wedding gift of the defeated rival was a purse containing tickets for the honeymoon trip.

A Year of Blood.

The year of 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me to death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and colds at Woods & Orme's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Obituary.

Mrs. Linda Travis, wife of E. Jeffrey Travis, died April 19, 1906. She was born May 27, 1878. She lacked just one month and one day of being 28 years old. Thus in the very prime of life, in the midst of motherhood and of usefulness to her family and church and community, she has been taken away from these scenes of mortality and transplanted in that sunbright clime where the clouds never dim and darkness never casts its withering gloom around. She was married to E. Jeffrey Travis, Dec. 28, 1898. Thus for five years and a half she has been a loving and devoted wife, and has made a pleasant home for her husband and children and friends who have been joyfully entertained beneath their sheltering roof. The fruitage of this marriage was three children—two girls and a boy. While leaving them motherless in their infantile days, yet they have had the warm impress of a noble motherly character imprinted on their tender natures. She professed religion and was baptised into the C. P. church at Bells Mines Aug. 1895. Thus at the age of 17, a girl in the period of blooming beauty, and before her feet had wandered far in the mazes of sin, she turned her back upon the glittering pleasures of iniquity and consecrated her sweet young life to the service of God. She lived a faithful Christian life, leaving a halo of hallowed influence in the wake of her short earthly career. She died a triumphant death and was laid peacefully away in the old cemetery at Bells Mines amid a host of weeping friends. The funeral services were beautifully and pathetically conducted by Rev. W. T. Oakley, who preached from Rev. 20:12. She is gone, but we realize that, while for her to live was Christ, to die is gain. The joys of the eternal world are now bursting upon her enraptured vision, and new scenes of beauty and fresh fields constantly lave her heart with the swelling waves of everlasting salvation.

A. FRIEND.

It Is Dangerous to Neglect a Cold.

How often do we hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and has gained its great popularity and extensive sale by its prompt cures of this most common ailment. It always cures and is pleasant to take. For sale by Woods & Orme, the leading drug store in Western Kentucky.

Telegraph Operator Injured.

Central City, Ky., May 17.—Morton Young, a telegraph operator at Greenville, was struck, while giving orders to a freight train. His head was crushed, his right arm torn off, and his body bruised. His recovery is doubtful. He is nineteen years old and the son of Joseph Young, of Central City.

Best for Women and Children.

On account of its mild action and pleasant taste Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup is especially recommended for women and children. It does not nauseate or gripe like pills and ordinary cathartics. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating them. Remember the name Orino and refuse substitutes. Woods & Orme

Cause and Effect.

Napoleon, than whom no greater conqueror ever lived, made a shrewd observation once, when asked about the victories of the world's famous warriors, that "when one seeks the cause of the success of the great generals, one is astonished to find that they did everything necessary to secure the result." Cause and effect, not luck, lie behind everything.—Forward.

Famous at home for Generations past: Famous now all over the World.

For sale by Eberle, Hardin & Co.
Marion, Ky.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic

has stood the test 25 years. Average Annual Sales over One and a Half Million bottles. Does this record of merit appeal to you? No Cure, No Pay. 50c. Enclosed with every bottle is a Ten Cent package of Grove's Black Root, Liver Pills.

Made Happy For Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreaded complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weakness, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by Woods & Orme's drug store. Price 50c.

WANTED:—District Managers to post signs, advertise and distribute samples. Salary $18.00 weekly, $3.00 per day for expenses. State age and present employment. IDEAL SHEAR CO., 39 Randolph Street, Chicago.

WANTED: by Chicago wholesale and mail order house, assistant manager (man or woman) for this county and adjoining territory. Salary $20 and expenses paid weekly; expense money advanced. Work pleasant; position permanent. No investment or experience required. Spare time valuable. Write at once for particulars and enclose self-addressed envelope. SUPERINTENDENT, 132 Lake St., Chicago, Ill.

A Guaranteed Cure For Piles

Itching, Blind, Bleeding, Producing Piles. Druggists are authorized to refund money if Pazo Ointment fails to cure in 6 to 14 days. 50c.

Draughon's Chain of 26 Colleges.

Elsewhere will be found an advertisement of Draughon's Practical Business Colleges located at: Paducah, Ky., Evansville, Ind., St. Louis, Mo., El Paso, Texas, Jackson, Miss., Memphis, Tenn., Fort Worth, Galveston, San Antonio, Waco, Dyonison, Texas; Oklahoma City, O. T., Shreveport, La., Little Rock, Fort Smith, Ark., Moskogue, I. T. Kansas City, Mo., Ft. Scott, Kans., Nashville, Tenn., Atlanta, Ga., Raleigh, teen years. Incorporated $300,000.00 capital. Seventeen bankers on Board of Directors. Draughon's chain of Colleges secure positions for those who take the guarantee course or refund every cent of money paid for tuition. For catalogue address J. F. Draughon, Pres't., at any of the above places.

Pirating Foley's Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. Woods & Orme.

Struck Coal.

The M. and A. Railroad company in making a cut on the Floyd place, near this city, owned by Mr. J. F. Young, and on the Providence and Montezuma road, at a depth of ten feet slate was struck yesterday. This slate is overlying a vein of No. 9 coal, which the workmen will have to go through as the cut there will be about fifteen feet in depth.—Providence Enterprise.

Was Wasting Away.

"I had been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years," writes Robert R. Watts of Salem, Mo. "I lost flesh and never fell well and decorated with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well." During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure. Woods & Orme.

Furniture at Live and Let Live Prices

I have a new and complete line of Furniture which I am now offering at prices within reach of everyone

Bed Room Suits, Iron Beds, Chairs, Dining Tables, Stand Tables, Odd Dressers Chiffonniers, China Closets.

I also carry a complete line of

Coffins and Caskets

Burial Robes, Dresses, Slippers

The Only Licensed Embalmer in the County

Pictures and Picture Moulding

FRAMES MADE TO ORDER

R. F. DORR - Marion, Ky.

Eggs For Setting Purposes.

When setting your hens get the best eggs and here is your chance—

White Holland Turkey Eggs, $2.00 per dozen

$1.00 for setting of 15 Eggs.

Light Brahmas,
Black Minorcas, Rose Comb,
Buff Wyandottes,
Silver Lace Wyandottes,
White Wyandottes,
Golden Wyandottes,

These are the finest layers, best marketing fowls and are hardy and easy keepers and money makers, besides being beautiful and shapely birds. Write to

MISS MATTIE L. BAKER, KELSEY, KY..

Or Call 'Phone No. 35, Fredonia, Ky.

M. O. Eskew

J. C. Eskew

A. J. Eskew

Eskew Brothers

Machinists

:: Mining Machinery and Steam Fittings of all Kinds ::

Repair work of all kinds given prompt attention. Well pumps, steam pumps, pump fittings and all kinds of repairs handled at reasonable prices and satisfaction guaranteed

Horse Shoeing a Specialty

MARION, KENTUCKY.

Monuments!

Marble and Granite

Always remember that we sell Marble and Granite Monuments cheaper than anybody. We guarantee our work and stand behind the guarantee. See us before buying.

HENRY & HENRY,
Marion, Ky.

CANCER CURED

No knife, no pain, book free. Address Cancer Sanitarium, Harrisburg, Ill.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

HAS IT OCCURRED TO YOU WHY

So many wheat flaked foods have come and gone? Lack of quality of course. The richness that is distinctively noticeable in Cream Crisp gives it a taste quality unequalled. This accounts for growing business.

Start now and get full value for your dime. Ask your Grocer and accept no substitutes.

DYCSBURG.

P. K. Cooksey and H. B. Bennett were in Marion Monday.
G. Y. Steele and family visited Kelsey recently.
Mrs. Emma Hayward and niece, Miss Lily Graves are in Smithland, the guests of Mrs. S. M. Drew.
Will Clifton was in town one day last week.

Misses Ida Lou Ramage and Mattie Harris returned from Marion Friday after spending several days with friends and relatives at that place.

A number from here attended the show at Eddyville Saturday.

Rev. Elgin, presiding elder, passed through town Saturday en route to Groves Chapel to attend quarterly meeting.

Mrs. E. J. Brown and little son visited Eddyville recently.

Miss Mayme Steele visited Marion last week, accompanied by her cousin Bobbie Steele of Iuka.

Judge Barnes has been quite sick for the past week.

Miss Nora Cothran and Charlie Cassidy visited the family of J. E. Plant Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Ialene Aikin, of Savannah, Tenn., is the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Graves.

Messames Wadlington and Langston visited Lyon county recently.

M. F. Pegue of Frances was in our town Monday.

Dr. Allan of Paducah visited Miss Mayme Graves last week professionally.

Rev. Thomas came to fill his appointment at this place on the third Sunday.

Mrs. J. P. Brisset prepared a nice dinner in honor of her husband's birthday, the 16th inst., which was certainly a very pleasant affair.

Mr. Gus Graves and Dr. Phillips went fishing last week; result good.

Mrs. Fred Ramage and daughter went to Kelsey Friday.

Rev. Ramey and wife visited relatives in and around this place recently.

F. B. Dycus is erecting a cottage near the city hall on the old Methodist church site; also a "look up" is being built back of the city hall.

Mrs. McReynolds returned from Muhlenberg county last week, where she has been visiting her mother, and her husband's relatives.

Mrs. Mary Langston went to Kuttawa one day last week.

Edgie Campbell spent several days in town last week.

Mrs. Nina Wells of Livingston county spent several days with her aunt, Mrs. Mattie Wadlington, of this place.

Sunday school at the Baptist church at three o'clock and prayer meeting on Thursday night.

We hear Mr. Ed. Ramage contemplating building a new residence ere long.

That fishing is a very popular pastime with our people was verified last Monday when "Uncle Henry Mitchell" went.

Pray for rain.

Make Me Prove It!

That we are selling Dry Goods, Shoes, &c. as cheap if not cheaper than any other house in the Fredonia Valley for the same quality of goods for cash. C. B. LOYD, Fredonia, Ky.

NEW SALEM.

No one bad sick.
No rain.
Corn not all planted yet.
Tobacco plants nearly ready to set.
Some of our farmers having to plant over their corn crop.

The wheat prospect very poorly at present.

Pastures and meadows are doing no good.

Bunk Baker and family of Levias spent Sunday in this section.

Nobody marrying; no births.

Everybody looking cross.

Don't get down hearted; remember that the crops will be right.

J. A. Davidson of Levias was in this section last week.

Uncle Billy Fuller spent part of last week in Livingston county.

Bill Damron don't seem to have any fear of the dog tax; he passed up the road the other day with a fine hound tied on to his chariot. Bill knows which way the wind blows.

Lan Harpending, of Salem, spent Sunday with his father's family.

We never pay much attention to what a man says he believes; just watch his actions.

Give us the news if you want it to go in the paper.

Wish some fellow would stir up a little excitement in the neighborhood, if he had to knock some fellow over a ten rail fence.

If a man don't like the items from our shack he is not compelled to read them.

CHAPEL HILL.

We are a little dry in this neighborhood.

H. S. Hill lost a fine hog while hauling it to market on Saturday last.

Mr. Robert Franks and wife from Pleasant Hill, were at church Sunday.

Sunday was our regular meeting day at Chapel Hill and a large congregation was in attendance on the occasion.

Mr. George Kinsolving of Emmas was church Sunday.

Some tobacco plants are big enough to set, while the majority of them are too small.

Mrs. Lawrence Crider, of Marion, was out and spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hill.

Messrs. Lawrence Crider and W. E. Minner of Marion, attended the 4 o'clock service at Chapel Hill Sunday.

Charles Clement has received his surry ordered from Sears, Roebuck & Co.; it is all right.

So far as I can hear, Chapel Hill has a good chance for corn, if we are dry and cold.

Mr. Scott Paris and family, of Midway, were visitors of B. F. Walker Sunday and attended church at Chapel Hill.

Two of our oldest landmarks in our precinct were at church Sunday; Mr. Wm. Adams and Mr. J. T. Yandell; they are in their seventies and are very glib on foot as yet.

Mr. Sam Carriek, from Oak Grove also was out last Sunday. Sam is not very spry on foot but manages to get around very well, wherever he wants to go; Uncle Sam as a general thing is most always on hand at meeting at Chapel Hill.

SHADY GROVE.

Weather is dry and roads are quite dusty.

Rev R. C. Love filled his appointment here Saturday.

Henry Lowrey went to Princeton Monday.

Dennie Hubbard and family spent Sunday with relatives at Marion.

R. R. Tudor left Tuesday for New Mexico where he will prospect the country.

We are glad to see our Sunday school in such a flourishing condition.

Henry Tudor went to Princeton Tuesday.

Brent Horning returned from Salem where he spent several days visiting friends.

Mr. Samuel D. Asher is sick this week.

Miss May Wood has returned from Hopkins county where she has taught a successful term of school.

S. C. Towery went to Marion Tuesday and Wednesday.

Roy Towery returned this week from St. Louis where he has been employed as bookkeeper for some time. We are always glad to have Roy in our midst.

We are glad to learn that there is a successful Sunday school in progress at Hoods school house every Sunday at 9:30 a. m. and a good attendance reported.

Wheat and corn crops will be right if the season is all crops need rain.

Robert E. Towery went to Marion Monday and Sam Lamb went to Providence Saturday.

This leaves Shady Grove in flourishing condition and I hope it will always remain so; and as I have no other news will close.

Notice to Croppers.

I have a good farm with all necessary buildings and well watered which I desire cultivated this season. Will rent on shares or hire man to tend same. Will loan tenant good cow. Address JOHN PARIS, ENON, Ky.

Commissioner's Sale.

Crittenden Circuit Court, Ky.
Geo. M. Travis, Plaintiff vs. T. W. Hill, Deft., Equity.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Crittenden Circuit Court rendered at the March term thereof, 1906, in the above cause for the sum of $135.00 and $50 costs herein, I shall proceed to offer for sale at the court house door in Marion to the highest bidder at Public Auction, on Monday the 11th day of June, 1906 at 1 o'clock p. m., or thereabout (being court day,) upon a credit of six months, a one-seventh interest in the following described property, to-wit: A certain tract of land lying and being in the county of Crittenden and state of Kentucky, and bounded as follows: Beginning at an elm in a branch near the Medical Spring running thence with the Cray survey to the Thomson survey, thence with the same about 60 poles to a division corner between lots No. 1 and 2 of the division of Robt. Hill, deceased, land, thence S 62 E 20 poles to an elm on a branch, thence down same with its meanderings to the beginning, containing about 150 acres, being the A. S. Hill land near Piney Creek church. Tract No. 2 on the waters of Piney creek and part of lot No. 2 of the lands of Robt. Hill and bounded thus: Beginning at an elm in the branch, corner to lots No. 1 and 2 of Robt. Hill's land, running thence with a line of lot No. 1 N 62 W 205 poles to a stone in Cruee's line, thence with the same and line of lot No. 2 14 poles to a stone, thence parallel with first line about 206 poles to a stone in the branch, thence down the branch to the beginning, containing about 18 acres, or sufficient thereof to produce the sums of money so ordered to be made. For the purchase price the purchaser with approved security or securities, must execute bond bearing legal interest from the day of sale until paid, and having the force and effect of a judgment. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms. J. G. ROCHESTER, Com'r.

Obituary.

Mrs. Emma Crayne was born in Crittenden county, Ky., January 1, 1848. She died at the home of her son-in-law, P. M. Woodall, in Yakima county, Washington, May 3, 1906, age 58 years, four months and two days. Her maiden name was Cole. She professed faith in Christ at the age of fifteen and joined the C. P. church at Piney-Fork, Ky. She was married to B. T. Crayne in 1865. To this union were born five children, four of whom survive her—J. F. Crayne, of Seldon, Kansas, Mrs. J. F. Dorroh and Bert Crayne, of Crayneville, Ky., Mrs. P. M. Woodall, of Yakima county, Washington, and Mrs. Carrie McCaslin, deceased, of Crayneville, Ky.

In 1882 Sister Crayne withdrew her membership from Piney-Fork church and with her husband united with Pleasant Hill Primitive Baptist church and remained a consistent member until death. Sister Crayne was bereft of her husband in 1882. She supported her family and saw her children all married and conveniently situated in life. March 19, 1905, she came to Yakima county, Washington, to visit her daughter, Mrs. P. M. Woodall, who had preceded her to that state. Sister Crayne had been in the state of Washington a little more than twelve months and was contemplating a visit to her native country about the first of May, when shortly before that time she was taken suddenly ill and was sick but a few days until she died. Sister Crayne was socially a mild spirited christian lady, esteemed and admired by all who knew her.

The funeral services were held in the Adventist church, near her daughter, Mrs. P. M. Woodall's, home and were conducted by the writer after which the remains were interred in the cemetery at Zillah, Washington, followed by a large concourse of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodall hereby express their appreciation and thanks to all who so willingly and readily assisted them during the sickness, death and burial of their beloved mother.

H. J. JACOBS, Toppenish, Wash.

NEW GRAHAM FLOUR.

Pure whole wheat Graham flour, 12 lb. sacks 35c; 25 lb. sacks 65c.

MARION MILLING CO.

LEVIAS.

Crops damaging for rain.

W. J. Davenport moved to Marion Tuesday. A good citizen gone—Marion needs him.

Dr. J. Anthony Davidson returned from Asheville, N. C. last week attended by Dr. Fox. He is getting along fairly well.

James B. Franklin is not so well this week as last week.

Elder W. R. Gibbs, of Sheridan, visited among his flock here the first of the week. He preaches here the first Sunday of each month and Saturday evening before.

Miss Susie Boston, of Marion, is here the guest of Misses Addie and Glen Carter.

Mrs. Sarah F. Yates visited her children at Joy last week.

Charles LaRue and wife visited in Salem Sunday the guests of David Wolford and family.

Miss Emma Rutter, of Hampton, visited friends here last week returning home Saturday.

Tom Threlkeld, of Hampton, visited relatives here last week returning home Saturday.

You should see some of the new suits for hot weather "The International Tailors" are making for our customers. You take no chances on these goods; if not satisfactory in every respect we don't ask you to take them. Let us fit you. C. B. LOYD, Fredonia, Ky.

FAIRVIEW.

Sunday school every Sunday at the Children's school house; everybody invited.

We are needing a good rain in our section.

Uncle David Childress visited Uncle Billie Fuller Sunday.

J. D. Hall, our crack tie maker, gave his old friends a hasty handshake Sunday and attended Sunday school at this place.

W. H. Fuller has gone into the poultry business, raising poultry; good for you, William.

A party of our old widowers and bachelors went fishing Saturday last and good luck reported.

Mr. Tilden Childress left this week for Colorado, in search of health; we wish him success.

Think there will be a grand dance in our neighborhood soon.

Mrs. Fred Kirk is on the sick list this week.

Uncles Billie Fuller and Billie Damron made a visit to Livingston county Friday.

Well, the good old citizens of this county don't want any road tax.

IRON HILL.

Some of our farmers can not finish planting corn until it rains.

Mrs. Olivia Walker and child, of Blackford, are spending a few days with E. L. Horning's family of this place.

Charlie Fox and wife and little daughter, of Hood's vicinity visited his father in this neighborhood Saturday and Sunday.

C. C. Walker and family of Farmerville were guests of relatives of this section Saturday and Sunday.

Marion McConnell of Marion spent Sunday night with Lee Morse.

Thos. Walker went to Cresswell on business last week.

H. R. Stenbridge went to Providence Saturday to spend a few days.

The service at Sugar Grove Sunday was very interesting and the attendance quite large; Marion and Blackford were especially well represented.

We want to give what seems to us some valid reasons why our public roads should be worked by taxation; but no criticism should be made of any of our county judges or road overseers for we don't believe that they deserve any. The roads are in as good condition as we could expect when we consider the many disadvantages under which they are worked, and as taxation is the only avenue of escape from the present method we advocate it for the following reasons:

1. Because we have tried the present system under as favorable conditions as we could ask, still our roads are in as bad or worse condition than they were fifteen or twenty years ago.

2. Because the labor and money spent on them give only temporary benefit when we ought to have a system that will save all the work as it is done and as more work is added let the roads gradually improve.

3. Because there are only a few men on any one section of road who make successful overseers, but as there is no compensation derived from the place it is only fair (as is customary) to "swap" the position around, therefore the place falls on men who, try as they may, fail to meet the demands of the place.

4. Because the burden of making our roads is carried almost entirely by the farmers and country people. That farmers being called away from their work usually when their time is worth most to them at home; the professional men mostly locate in cities, or incorporated towns, where they are not subject to road service.

5. Because the poor man or boy who is not able to own a horse or vehicle must contribute as much toward the roads as his more fortunate neighbor, who with plenty of horses and vehicles uses the road constantly.

6. Because it often happens that there are only one or two hands on a section of road and it is a great hardship on them to repair it.

7. Because we all think we know what the road law is, and from this arises many disputes and quarrels, often leading to little cases in court, and making enemies of men who otherwise be good friends; we could name numerous cases that could be traced to this source.

8. Because people from abroad who travel over our bad roads naturally form a bad opinion of the country and people and give us a bad name abroad.

9. Because the work is done too much in spots; great heaps of soft dirt are piled up and left alone to work out their own salvation. It often happens that heavy rains fall on them immediately and either wash them away or make them so soft that ordinary hauling will cut deep ruts in them which soon develop into gullies and bad ditches, and at last it takes a lot of hard work to mend them. It would be better to employ men and pay them well enough to enable them to give their entire time and talent to the road. Men who understand that "a stitch in time saves nine," or that the quicker a place is mended the less it will have to be mended.

10. Because the goose neck hoe plays too prominent a part in our present system, and ones who use them don't do fifteen cents worth of good, when if they were at home their work would be worth two dollars to them.

11. Because many road hands regard the work put on them as an unjust task and take no interest in it, their only object being to get to the end of their section.

12. Because good roads will add greatly to the value of our land and products and be a new beginning in the development of our county. Many people are prejudiced against a direct tax of any kind, but we are sure that when we consider what we already pay and add to it reasonable wages for the work we are now compelled to do, we would have roads that would compare favorably with any in the state.

Salem Mill Notice.

The Salem Mill will close June 1st as my lease expires then. All persons having wheat stored there will please take out their flour before that date. JOHN T. WOOLF.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen.

One bay mare mule about 2 years old, from my farm 2 1/2 miles northeast of Marion on Morganfield road, about May 7th, barefooted, unbroken; will pay a reasonable sum for her return. It THOS LANHAM, Marion, Ky.

STARR.

Rev. J. R. King, pastor of C. P. church, here, baptized C. T. Baucher at the Butler Ford Sunday morning. There was a large crowd present.

Noble P. Hill of Marion visited his scores of friends in this neighborhood Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs. George and Jim Barnes of Caldwell county, visited here Sunday.

Mr. Parr is erecting a residence near Piney creek.

Joe Wilson and wife are visiting relatives in Kansas.

Mr. Editor, suppose you try a sample of our poetry; take two grains just before retiring. Here it is:

If you whisper in public,
Or sit upon the stairs,
You had better be careful,
And watch what you are about,
Or some one will see you
If you don't watch out.

About a score of our folks made a picnic excursion to Piney Friday and report a fine time.

Mrs. Crowder of Caldwell county, visited her son, C. T. Baucher, Sunday.

A good many of our people went to the show Tuesday to see the elephant; but most of the old people had business in Marion that day, anyway.

J. T. Tarley has erected a mailbox, which runs our list up to about seventy boxes, and frequently a number of families use the same box.

We notice the familiar face of Shirley Deboe of Lilly Dale in this section frequently.

We observe that a number of the boys of Enon and Flatrock are circulating in this community and some of our boys go over in that direction. So that proves the saying of Paul the Apostle, "A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country."

The Sunday school here is progressing finely; the choir is doing some fine singing.

There is talk of a Sunday school picnic some time during the summer.

There were two sermons at Walnut Grove the third Sunday. Rev Blackburn preached in the morning and Rev Miller in the evening.

Owing to the dry weather there is a number of our farmers that are not done planting corn.

Mr. Moore, of Marion, a timber man, was in this section Monday.

Leonard Hubbard talks of going to Kansas; sorry you are going to leave us, Len.

Hewley Guess and Buck Crider have purchased themselves new buggies.

There has been a protracted effort in progress at Wilson's Chapel.

There will be no camp meeting at Piney this year but it has been announced that there will be a protracted service beginning September 5th; Wednesday after the first Sunday.

Hill and Hunt are doing a good business with their saw mill.

Some tobacco plants in this section are very small, while some are getting too large to transplant. Oh, we are needing rain.

George Turley left Tuesday for Missouri, where he will make his future home.

T. J. Newcome of Marion passed over this quiet Thursday, leaving advertisements for McConnell & Stone.

All the new Summer Goods in and ready for your inspection. C. B. LOYD, Fredonia, Ky.

Cold Drinks at Woods & Orme's

Woods & Orme have their famous sanitary soda fountain in operation now and will serve cool and delicious drinks during the entire season.

DRAUGHON'S

Practical Business Colleges

Elsewhere in this issue will be found a special offer made by Draughon's Practical Business Colleges chain of 27 colleges, an offer that will doubtless interest YOU. Remember it.

Quarterly Meetings: Monthly meeting at Shiloh, Ky. Rev. Virgil E. Elder will be in at meeting.