Without an incident worthy of note the Rate bill was passed by the Senate Saturday after noon by a vote of 71 to 3. If there was a feature about the vote, it was the fact that but three senators voted against it, and one of these was a Republican, or the fact that, not withstanding it has long been apparent that it would receive practically the solid vote of the Republicans, the Demthemselves and get credit for passing

The principal purpose of the Railroad Rate bill passed is to permit the Interstate Commerce Commission to fix throughout the land and get them to rates. The provision conferring this authority is found in the fourth section of the bill, which amends Section 15 of the interstate commerce law so as to accomplish this result. That section amount of literature on the subject road there would have been many peodirects the commission to investigate that it is ready to distribute on applicomplaints of unjust and unreasonable cation. charges on the part of the common carriers in the transportation of persons or property, or of regulations or of practices affecting such charges.

It also authorizes an inquiry as to whether the rates or practices are unjustly discriminatory, or unduly preferential, or prejudicial or otherwise in violation of the acts, and in case any of these conditions are found to exist the commission is empowered to determine and prescribe what will be the just and reasonable maximum rate, and what regulation or practice is just, reasonable and fair. Further, authority is given the commission to enforce its orders, and they are to go into effect within thirty days, and continue in force for two years, unless suspended, modified or set aside by the commission or by a court of competent jurisdiction. Other powers conferred by this section are: To apportion joint fares, establish through rates and maximum point rates, and prescribe their division and to determine the compensation to be paid to shippers doing service for carriers.

he is forced to pay the same freight on the return of his barrels if he is not able to sell them at the end of the run, so that the discrimination in freight charges really amount to 50 per cent. on this account alone. The reply of the Standard officials is that the small producer should own his own tank cars as the Standard does. But if he does he very soon finds that the railroads have ways of landing his cars in San Francisco when he wants them in New York.

Much more than usual interest has been attached to the meeting here this week of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. This association resulted from the appointment of the commission by the president to inquire into the subject and the meeting this week brought together some of the greatest medical men from all over the country interested in the prevention of the diseases. It was a subject that knows no limitation of color, creed or clime, and the proceedings of the Association were interesting in detail. The most important conclusion reached, however, was that the check of consumption in this country could be the result only of a campaign of education that would reach every person in the land. It was stated that consumption is neither hereditary nor contagious, though it can ocrats who tried to amend it to suit be and is conveyed from the patient to the rest of the community if he does it, finally joined the enemy in voting not follow certain lines and destroy the Track too Crooked to Bring Show to Old Settlers Recall Instances of an sputa that carries the contagion broadcast. > Mr. Garfield reiterates his assertion that the discrimination in freight rates means a saving to the Standard of hundreds of thousands of dollars annually. He declares that to effectively conceal the lower rates they have given to the Standard, the railroads have used peculiar methods of billing and accounting. He says that shipments have been falsely waybilled at the published rates and freight charges collected at the lower rates. Rates have been made for the express purpose of letting the Standard into certain markets and for keeping competitors out. When the show train got a short distance beyond wheatcroft it became apparent that it would be impossible to get the big eighty-foot cars around the short curves of the road and the attempt to reach Providence had to be abandoned. The train was backed to Wheatcroft, where the tents were pitched and everthing got in readiness for the show.

The special train was run from Providence to Wheatcroft every twenty minutes and all those who desired to attend the performance and drink red lemonade were given the opportunity.

SYMPTOMATIC OF SPRING.

When the Awfully Tired Man Hies Lim to the Water for Tussle with the Fish.

Yes, my dear; the man is very He has been working Awfully Hard for the Past Year. Now he will proceed to take a Rest. He will rest, I said. To-morrow he will shoulder a Fishingrod, lug a can of Worms in one hand and a basket of Lunch in the other and hie himself to the River for a Fishing Stunt

Will that rest him? He thinks it will, and that is Enough Five days a week for the past year he has sat at a Desk three Hours in the forenoon and three hours in the afternoon, dictating letters and telling Other men what to do. This has been very strenuous, and he is Much Fatigued. So to-morrow he will tramp 'steen miles through mud and sand and brush, stand in the hot sun drink river water, eat a Cold Lunch full of Ants and Bugs, and in the evening he will drag himself home. wond ring all the way if he will ever Get There.

In the morning he will arise as stiff as a poker and as sore as a gumboll, but he will be Rested. It was a day off from the strenuous business life, and that is Sufficient,

But it is Funny, isn't it, that a man can get Rest out of that sort of thing?

No, he will not get any Fish. He will get Suphurn Matada and Chiggers; but he will get no Fish.

CLOTHES AND CONDUCT.

Addison could not write his best unless he was well dressed.

Every man and every woman feels the influence of clothes and appearance upon conduct.

Indeed, in a millennium of free clothes of the latest fashion we shall all be archangela.

This diastase is absolutely necessary fresh. to digest starch and turn it into grapesugar, which is the next form; but that part of the wheat berry makes dark flour, and the modern miller cannot readily sell dark flour, so nature's valuable directer is thrown out and the buman system must handle the starch as best it can, without the help that nature intended.

Small wonder that appendicitis, peritonitis, constipation and all sorts of ing from the Heavenly Father. trouble exist when we go so contrary to nature's law. The food experts that perfected Grape-Nuts Food, knowing these facts, made use in their experiments of the entire wheat and barley, including all the parts, and subjected them to moisture and long continued warmth, which allows time and the proper conditions for developing the diastase, outside of the human body. In this way the starchy part is transformed into grape-sugar in a perfectly natural manner, without the use of chemicals or any outside ingredients. The little sparkling crystals of grapesugar can be seen on the pieces of Grape-Nuts. This food therefore is naturally pre-digested and its use in place of bread will quickly correct the troubles that have been brought about by the too free use of starch in the food, and that is very common in the heman race to-day. The eeffet of eating Grape-Nuts ten days or two weeks and the discontinuance of ordinary white bread is very marked. The user will gain rapidly in strength and physical and mental

WAS WILLING TO "BITE."

One in the Audience Who Had Never Heard of the Great Man in Question.

At the recent annual meeting of the voters of Cape Elizabeth two names were presented for moderator, Henry S. Jorden and Clement E. Staples, Republican and Citizen, respectively, says the Boston Herald. The orator who nominated Mr. Staples made a mighty effort. "Who is Clement E. Staples?" he cried, as he waved his arms like pump handles and strode back and forth on the platform. A deep and impressive silence followed. Again waving his arms, he called in a voice of thunder: "Who is Clement E. Staples?" The silence was more pronounced and the effect greater. The audience was visibly impressed. Before attempting to dwell upon the good qualities of his candidate, the speaker again proclaimed: "I say, who is Clement E. Staples?" A small man in the rear of the hall stood of a chair and broke the silence by saying: "Waal, I'll bite. Who is

I then went to a Surgeon, whose treatment did me no good, but rather aggrawould go and see a physician in Erie. The reply was that I could go anywhere, but a case of eczema like mine could not be cured; that I was too old (80). I went to an eminent doctor in the city of Erie and treated with him for six months, with ike results. I had read of the Cuticura Remedies, and so I sent for the Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent, and continued taking the Resolvent until I had taken six bottles, stopping it to take the Pills. Fairbank's Break.

At the great meeting in Birmingham, Alabama, on Friday night, when Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks made his address before the conference as fraternal delegate from the Methodist Episcopal church, two amusing incidents occurred. One was the remark of Dr. W. S. Mathey, of Berkley, Cal., also-fraternal delegate, who preceeded Mr. Fairbanks. He said that he had no set speech to make, but he knew Mr. Fairbanks had one, for he had read it in a New York paper a week ago The vast audience laughed heartily for almost everyone present had become aware that a New York paper, by mistake, had published the vice president's Birmingham speech in advance. Mr Fairbank enjoyed the joke at his expense, but a few moments later, when he made a "crack" himself he did not anjoy it so much. In the midst of his speech he was soaring to the heights of eloquence in advocacy of the union of the two great churches when he said: "Nothing can I wish more than the growth and spread of Republicanism." For a second or two there was silence, and then a great roar of laughter went up from the 3,000 people who were jammed in the church. They saw at once that the vice president had forgotten himself, and, thinking that he was addressing a political meeting, used the word "Republicanism" for "Methodism." The speaker held up his hand the 30th day of May. A. C. Deboe, J. to quiet the audience, but they would N. McDowell, W. H. Coleman and not quiet so easily, preferring to rub it W. H. Obituary.

Life is endless, but death is the changing station. What makes death so forboding is that no report comes from beyond this station. Little Ivan Wright, eldest son of Prof. and Mrs. M. C. Wright, of Carrsville, died Wednesday, May 15, 1906. The little fellow being an invalid during his brief life has been a great sufferer, and until but a short time ago was unable to walk. The little body was sadly undersized, but the mind was developing and expanding in beauty and knowledge. The remains were interred at the Carrsville cemetery Thursday in the presence of a large crowd, for none knew the little boy but to love him.

Sciatica Cured After Twenty Years of Torture.

For more than twenty years Mr. J. B. Massey, of 3322 Clinton St., Minneapolis, Minn., was tortured by sciatica. The pain and suffering which he endured during this time is beyond comprehension. Nothing gave him any permanent relief until he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One application of that liniment relieved the pain and made sleep and rest possible, and less than one bottle has effected a permanent cure. Mr. Massey relates his experience for the benefit of others who may be similarly afflicted. If troubled with sciatica or rheumatism why not try a 25-cent bottle of Pain Balm and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain. For sale by Haynes & Taylor,

Three Men Killed.

Three men in the persons of Mark were killed in a fight at Lynnville, Ky., Sunday. No one witnessed the encounter, the three men being found dead in the room, when others, attracted by the shots, entered. It is supposed West Wilson killed West, who killed the two brothers. Five men have been killed in Lypnville during L. J. Hodges, the last year. Mark Wilson was shot through the breast; West Wilson through the face and heart and West had a round smooth hole in his fore-

GREAT OFFER

On account of moving into new and larger quarters the Owensboro Business University

WILL MAKE THE FOLLOWING GREAT REDUCTION IN RATES ON JUST FIFTY SCHOLARSHIPS:

UR regular rates for a single scholarship in either department is $45. Combined course of Bookkeeping and Shorthand, $80.00.

In this effort to reach a great spring enrollment, we will make the great sacrifice of $15 on the single course or $25 on the combined course.

This makes the course in Bookkeeping or Shorthand $30. The combined course $55. This is certainly the greatest offer ever made by any school at any time.

Further, any one securing the sale of only five of these cash scholarships will receive a free scholarship in either department.

These scholarships will be good at any time you wish to enter, but will call your attention to the fact that ouly fifty will be sold at this price.

This means immediate action on your part.

If further information is wanted, write us at once as these will be placed on sale the 10th of this month. Terms cash. Address,

Sick Headache

When your head aches, there is a storm in the nervous system, centering in the brain.

This irritation produces pain in the head, and the turbulent nerve current sent to the stomach causes nausea, vomiting.

This is sick headache, and is dangerous, as frequent and prolonged attacks weaken the brain, resulting in loss of memory, inflammation, epilepsy, fits, dizziness, etc.

Allay this stormy, irritated, aching condition by taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills.

They stop the pain by soothing, strengthening and relieving the tension upon the nerves -not by paralyzing them, as do most headache remedies.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do not contain opium, morphine, chloral, cocaine or similar drugs. "Sick headache is hereditary in my family. My father suffered a great deal, and for many years I have had spells that were so severe that I was unable to attend to my business affairs for a day or so at a time. During a yery severe attack of headache, I took Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and they relieved me almost immediately. Since then I take them when I feel the spell coming on and it stops it at once. MR. E. W. ROSE, St. Louis, Mo. DEAR SIR: The charity patient in whom I am so much interested was seventy-five years old at the time that she began the use of "Zemo." and her weight was 130 lbs. Her health has been poor for some time past, auffering mainly from spinal trouble, according to the diagnosis of the doctors in attendance. She has been a hard worker all ber life, having made the living for her family keeping boarders. Somewhat over a year ago eczema began to trouble her. It gradually grew we see and worse until her entire body was affected, the legs being a mass of sores constantly separating. The itching and burning sensation was so dreadful at times that it was impossible for her to sleep day or night. The doctors (two of our best) pronounced the case incurable, and when I asked permission to use "Zemo" promptly said, "It would delight us to find something to cure this dear old sufferer." 'Zemo" was first used on the upper part of the body and soon relieved the patient of the terrible distress caused by the itching and burning. The doctors had been dressing the legs every day, but as soon as they saw the wonderful change in the skin where "Zemo" had been used, they gave consent to have it used on the legs. Gradually they began to improve and are now almost as smooth as the face. It was probably about a month before much relief was experienced in this part of the body, then skin scaled off, itching, burning and aching gradually ceased. It seems now as if a testimonial might be given, but the patient thinks that she had better use "Zemo" a few weeks longer before saying that she is cured. However, she is very grateful to all who have been instrumental in securing your wonderful remedy and thinks that it has a great future before it.
