PROMINENT CITIZEN DEAD

William T. Crawford Passes Away Monday

VICTIM OF APPENDICITIS

Never Recovered from Operation Performed at an Evansville Sanitarium.

AS A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS MAN.

William T. Crawford, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Green Crawford, of Tolu, Crittenden county, Ky., died at the Albert Sanitarium at Evansville, Ind., at Monday morning, August 13, about 3 o'clock. The direct cause of his death was heart failure brought on and aggravated by an operation for appendicitis, which he sustained last Friday. Mr. Crawford was taken sick July 1, 1906, and died Aug. 13, having been sick one month to a day. The remains were prepared in Evansville for burial and were brought to Marion on the 3 o'clock train Monday afternoon. His funeral was preached in the Cumberland Presbyterian church Tuesday at 10 o'clock by Rev. Ben Andrews. He was buried in the new cemetery at Marion. Mr. Crawford was born October 30, 1831, and graduated from the Commercial department of the Kentucky University at Lexington, in July 1891. April 20, 1895, he married Miss Adeline and dying leaves her a widow with two children, Clifton, aged ten years and Wilma, aged four years. He commenced work in the Farmers Bank as bookkeeper Dec. 1st, 1902, and lived his family to Marion April 1st, 1903, and held his position in the bank till his death. Mr. Crawford was a member of the Presbyterian church at Tolu, Ky., and was held in high esteem by all his neighbors and friends and his untimely death will be mourned by others besides his immediate family.

Visited Old Home.

We notice on the streets of Marion Wednesday two brothers who have had a great part of their lives in Marion. They were Mr. Cameron and William Wallace. Their father was late James Wallace the blacksmith known by everybody in Marion, and their mother was Miss Cameron, sister of the late Thomas Cameron, one of our old merchants. Sam Wallace and William Wallace representing the Mutual Life Insurance Company of Newark, N. J., and doing well.

County Medical Society.

Crittenden County Medical Society in regular monthly session at the court house Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock. After reading the minutes of last meeting and transacting the routine business of the Society the regular program was taken up. Dr. Phil H. Stuart, of Paducah, read a paper on Appendicitis. The paper was a most excellent one and was warmly received by the Society and was followed by an interesting discussion by the various members. Dr. J. E. Fox, of Levas, read a paper on Serum treatment of Tuberculosis. This was a most excellent paper and showed a great deal of study and investigation of this important subject. This paper was discussed orally by the Society. Several laymen were present at this meeting and Judge W. A. Blackburn gave a nice talk and gave the society encouraging advice. The physicians present were: W. W. Hodge, Shady Grove; Cook, Crayneville; J. E. Fox, Levas; Phil H. Stuart, Paducah; J. W. W. T. Daughtry, A. J. Driedge and T. A. Frazer, of this city. These meetings are of great interest and benefit to the physicians as well as the laity. The more physicians unite themselves together and exchange ideas with each other the better prepared they are to give us physic, when we are so unfortunate as to fall into their hands.

Modern Show.

There has been many changes in the methods of doing business in the different lines within the past few years but in none have the changes been more marked than in the modern railroad show. The show given by Lentz & Roberson is the result of thirty years experience and in every department is witnessed wonderful improvement over the old-time exhibition. The acrobatic acts are more difficult the horses and ponies are better trained and the clowns funnier than ever before. Each performer is engaged with a view to proficiency in his or her particular line, and this idea is carried out in every department. Don't fail to see Lentz & Roberson. Will give two exhibitions in Marion on Monday, August 20, afternoon and evening. Free Street Parade.

Call Meeting.

The Farmers Club is hereby called to meet at the court house Thursday, August 30th, for the purpose of making arrangements to hold a farmers institute sometime this fall and to transact any business that may come before the club. We have received a letter from Mr. Vreeland, commissioner of agriculture, urging the farmers to lend a helping hand to make the institute work what it should be. I earnestly request that every member of the club and not only every member, but every farmer in the county try to be present at this meeting and let us try to be prepared to get something out of this institute this fall. We have never had an institute yet and we have no one to blame except ourselves. The State pays all the expenses and if we don't get any benefit from it, it is our fault alone.

Yours Very Truly,
J. FRANK CONGER.

NEWSPAPER NOTICE

Arouses Jealousy of Fellow-Workmen and Stirs up Wrath at the Palace.

Ed Metz and John Sedberry have become jealous of Fred Myers on account of Fred's receiving so much notice in the local papers. These gentlemen do stunts on men's heads and faces at the Palace barber shop and they are as pleasant a trio as can be found anywhere. Metz has a smile on his face like a wooden wheel barrow and Sedberry always tries to look cute. They are quite versatile and talk to all comers and goers and most passers by. We are sorry that Metz and Sedberry have become offended because of this seeming neglect but it is not our fault. Fred got married not many moons ago and of course we had to say something about him, then he had some experience with a snake and got wrote up again. But for Metz and Sedberry nothing happens to them that the public should know. Metz has been married for several years and got as pretty a little wife and two as sweet children as can be found anywhere, but pretty wives and sweet children are so numerous in this city that it would take volumes to tell of all of them. Sedberry wants to marry and just cant, so what's the use to mention that, but we promised to say something about them this week and it is our policy to fulfill all our promises. Sedberry went to Smithland the first of the week to take a few days quiet rest and relax his nervous system and while on the road grew lonesome and stopped and held a whispered conversation with a sign board. We think when he returns he will be rested to such an extent that he can do all the talking for the shop. We do not intend to get shaved until he unloads the accumulation of knowledge he obtained while in Smithland. If any more of our friends feel that we have neglected them and want to be written up, make your application to the staff correspondent early next week.

Parson Hanks.

We have a few copies of Parson Hanks' Fourteen Years in the West, by Rev. Ed R. Wallace, a native of Kentucky. This book is a story of the author's frontier life in Texas. Everyone pays their subscription to THE RECORD may have one these books for the asking.

CONGRESSMAN JAMES BACK FROM ENGLAND

Relates Experiences Encountered While on His Trip Across the Water.

The Hon. O. M. James, member of congress from this the first district, arrived in Marion from his trip to London last Saturday night and covered with a loose suit of linen and much perspiration, he greeted his many friends and acquaintances and unfolded his plans and aspirations.

Believing that a few words on the important question of whether or not he would enter the gubernatorial race would interest Crittenden county people and others, THE RECORD rounder tackled the big congressman in his lair and plumped the question like a shot out of a gun at short range.

"Mr. James will you or will you not enter the arena and make a fight for the nomination for governor?"

With a broad angelic smile he settled back in a large arm chair and replied, "No, this suit of clothes was not bought in London. Don't you know American home grown clothes when you see them? This is a suit of linen that I bought in New York, and by the way they are very appropriate for the weather we are having over here. Why don't you sit down? How are all the folks?"

THE RECORD rounder was fresh in the attack and guileless as to the expediency of the hour and so ventured.

"But Mr. Congressman you have been elected by the votes of all the people. You sprang from the people and they feel that these matters are not altogether personal in their nature."

"You are exactly right" Mr. James replied.

"Do you know we passed three ice bergs last Sunday a week ago, for our ship took the northern Atlantic route. It was a magnificent sight and looked like three mountains of diamonds. You know it of an iceberg is under water and it out."

At this juncture Mr. James appeared to be warming up to the subject somewhat and leaning forward in his chair he continued, "London is a great city. Of course you understand I was a delegate from the United States to the Inter-parliamentary Peace Congress of the world. Those composing this delegation were Bartholdt, of Missouri; Hoar, of Massachusetts; (and by the way he is a son of the late Senator George F. Hoar), T. E. Burton, of Ohio; D. L. Granger, of Rhode Island; W. J. Bryan, of Nebraska; John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, and myself.

"The sessions of this Peace Congress lasted three days and were held in the Royal Gallery. All legislative bodies in the world were represented at this congress and by six hundred delegates. It was a very inspiring sight. Our delegation from the United States attended a banquet at Westminster Hall, which is eight hundred years old. Charles I was tried here and was afterwards beheaded. There were 1200 people at this banquet and there were two bands playing the national airs. The banquet was presided over by the Lord High Chancellor of Eng. While many different languages were used at this congress the official language in which all the business was transacted was French. You understand that the court language of Europe is French, and that reminds me of the most wonderful man I have ever seen in my life. I do not recall his name. He is an Englishman and the finest stenographer in the world today. Hon. Campbell-Bannerman, the foremost British statesman of this day, made a speech in French. While he was speaking this wonderful short hand writer wrote it down in short hand and immediately after Campbell-Bannerman took his seat he arose and without hesitation and seemingly without looking at his short hand notes, he delivered the speech verbatim in Russian. This was done for the reason that Campbell-Bannerman's speech referred to the Russian delegates from the Douma and to the fact that the Czar had just disbanded the Douma and these delegates were therefore without authority to sit in our congress. In this speech all I could understand was Vivi La Douma, which means Long live the Douma. Mr. Bryan made a speech and in the course of his remarks referred to the death of Lord Nelson at Trafalgar, pointing to Nelson's picture on the wall. This wonderful short hand man immediately delivered Mr. Bryan's speech in French and although I could not understand it yet when he turned to Lord Nelson's picture as Mr. Bryan did and repeated the name Nelson, I noticed the cheering among the French was as vigorous as it had been among the English. This short hand linguist, who seemed to be endowed with supernatural powers, wore a long beard and continually kept one glass in his eye after the manner of Englishmen."

Observing that the Rounder was about to ask a question Mr. James continued.

"My wife was with me on this trip and she enjoyed it immensely. We stayed at the Hotel Metropole in London. Do you know London hotels do not compare with ours? There is not a hotel in London with private telephones in every room. Seelbachs or the Louisville hotel in our own Kentucky are way ahead of them in all the little short cuts of a labor saving nature, as well as conveniences. We were treated splendidly and were entertained at the Windsor palace of the king of England. The English are a fine race of people. The climate over there is delightful. We wore our winter clothes all the time and were comfortable. We got caught in only one fog, but a fog in England in the summer is nothing to compare to a fog in the winter."

The scribe noticed from the ease with which Mr. James was speaking and the difficulty the aforesaid scribe experienced in speaking that the question of Kentucky politics was so far behind by this time that it was exceedingly doubtful if it ever entered again into this conversation. Therefore thanking Mr. James for so much of his time the Rounder was bowed out of his office to the tune of the same angelic smile that he entered.

Former Governor Bradley.

A Washington dispatch says that President Roosevelt has decided to make former Gov. Bradley the distributing agent of republican patronage in Kentucky and that Mr. Yerkes will likely resign as he returns from Europe. The appointment of the postmasters in Louisville and Shelbyville against the protests of Mr. Yerkes are named as specimens of Bradley's strength. It is further stated that Bradley will become the republican candidate for governor during the next state campaign.

Infant Dead.

The infant son, two weeks old, of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Stone, died Sunday afternoon.

The child was apparently well until Sunday morning.

The burial took place at the new cemetery Monday afternoon.

Banking Laws a Farce.

The Milwaukee Avenue Bank of Chicago failed the other day with 20,000 depositors and four millions of money. Suicides and deaths from heart failure and ten thousand miseries all follow in the wake. When this United States government and these State governments wake up to the fact that we have banking laws that are unjust to the banks and banking laws that are unjust to the bank depositors, that bank examination as carried on at present is a farce and worse, then and not till then, such heart-rending scenes as was witnessed on Milwaukee avenue last Monday a week ago will not be possible. Such failures hurt and injure the 99 per cent. of honest banks.

The people have more at risk in banks than any other one thing and are less protected by the law. If a postoffice goes wrong or an internal revenue agency goes short, it reflects on and only hurts the treasury of the United States and yet we have an elaborate system of inspection thrown around these agencies of the government that are marvels of completeness. The admission of Bank Examiner Jones in Chicago last week ought to be a warning to our legislators. He said they had to take the bankers word and that it was an impossibility to get in touch with depositors and the makers or endorsers of notes. That admission is a terrible indictment of the existing order of things.

The Show.

Here are a few extracts from papers where they have exhibited.

A good show.

Not a poor act presented.

The show drew a big crowd and all were pleased.

It was the general expression that it was the best show here in years.

Lentz & Roberson have come and gone and we are free to say that this show came nearer giving the people what they advertised than any we have ever seen. Everybody got their money's worth.

Lentz & Roberson's Big Railroad Show will exhibit in Marion on Monday, Aug. 20, afternoon and evening. Don't miss the Free Street Parade.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. Editor: You will kindly permit us to thus express our sincere thanks to our many friends and neighbors of Levas, who so kindly remembered us during the sickness and death of Edward C. Conyer. May the Giver of every good and perfect gift abundantly bless and restore to each of you.

Sincerely,
J. L. SETTLES AND FAMILY.

PATRIARCH OF PINEY

Mr. Andrew Woodall, Well-Known all Over Crittenden, Visits Marion.

The RECORD rounder exchanged greetings the other day with Mr. Andrew Woodall, the old patriarch of Piney Creek.

In answer to a question he said, "I do not know how old I am. I have been told that if I live until the 19th day of the coming October I will be eighty years old."

The old man's step is elastic, his upright bearing firm and his eye is as clear and penetrating as it was sixty years ago. With a long beard waving in the breeze and a strong voice he said:

"Yes, I am nearly eighty years old. I have been here a long time and I will not remain much longer. The time of my departure is nearly at hand and young man, the beauty of it all is that I am not afraid to go."

"I bear a great many say, I hope I am all right. I hope I will meet you in heaven, and such expressions. That would not suit me. I say I know. I know that my Redeemer liveth. I know in whom I have believed. I know there is a house not made with hands."

Uncle Andy Woodall is known all over this county. He is a member of Piney Creek Baptist church and has lived a consistent christian life in all things for over half a century. His children, grandchildren and great grandchildren would make quite an army of people. The latch string to his front door has hung on the outside for many years. We think we are safe in asserting that more people have been fed at his table than any other in Crittenden county.

THE RECORD trusts that his last days may be full of peace.

Pearl of Great Price.

The first of the week Mr. C. P. Threlkeld, of Carversville, sold a pearl which he found in a mussel shell recently, for $237. The pearl was about the size of a buck shot and was of the finest quality. Mr. Threlkeld is greatly elated over his find and is looking in every shell he sees, thinking to again be visited by "Mr. Good Luck."—Livingston Banner.

Please Explain.

We notice in our Frances has this: "Uncle John Mathews got the finest male calf in the country of which he is justly proud." Is he proud of the calf or his country?

FARMERS' INSTITUTES

Will be Held All Over State This Fall

BEGINNING ABOUT SEPT. 1.

Commissioner Vreeland Writes Our County President Regarding the Matter.

GOOD THING FOR COMMONWEALTH.

Mr. J. Frank Conger, Pres.,

My Dear Sir: I am now engaged in preparing a schedule for the Farmers' Institutes to be held in Kentucky during the coming institute season which will open not later than September 1. This Department will hold at least one institute in every county in the State this year and as soon as the schedule is completed it will be published so that every county will know just when its annual institute will be held. These dates will be made to conform to the wishes of the various clubs as nearly as possible, but as the holding of 119 institutes is such a tremendous undertaking it will be necessary to proceed with system and to take the counties consecutively from the starting points. There will be two lecture forces; one for the eastern section and one for the central and western. These forces will be kept going constantly until the entire State has been covered. You will readily realize that this will entail considerable hard work and hearty co-operation of the farmers will aid the Department greatly in carrying out the project. The best lecturers to be found will be employed and with the aid of the farmers, I have no hesitancy in saying that this movement will be fraught with more practical results than any movement ever set on foot in the State. I therefore respectfully urge that every farmer lend a helping hand and assist in making institute work in Kentucky what it is in Ohio, Illinois, Iowa and other progressive agricultural States. Kentucky has the soil and climatic conditions that should make her take front rank in the line of agricultural States and it is my earnest desire that she should take the place that is rightfully hers.

As you are probably aware, the last Legislature increased the appropriation of this Department $20,000, making the total appropriation for institute work and the general conduct of the office $33,000 annually instead of $13,000. Without the co-operation of the farmers I could not have brought this Bureau into such prominence as to cause the Legislative Body of our State to increase the appropriation to such an extent when only a short while ago it was regarded as a mere drain on the public funds. It is therefore my earnest desire to bring this department as close to the people as possible and in that way alone do I hope to make it of practical value to each and every farmer in the State of Kentucky.

Feeling assured that you will help me to give the results I pledged you when I was entrusted with the management of this office, and assuring you that this Department stands ready at all times to aid the farmers of your county and of the State in a practical way, I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,
HUBERT VREELAND,
Commissioner.

WILL BE BETTER THAN IT EVER WAS

In Its Third Year The Record's Circulation
Exceeds the Expectations of Its Publishers and Friends.

With the issue of July 13th, 1906, THE CRITTENDEN RECORD started in on the third year of its existence. A part of that voyage has been tempestuous and part of it bright.

On the 28th day of March, 1905, a conflagration destroyed the greater part of Marion and in that destruction THE CRITTENDEN RECORD went down. THE CRITTENDEN RECORD did not miss an issue on account of the fire nor for any other cause. For over a year it struggled along without any machinery, but now it is fully equipped and prepared for any and all kinds of newspaper and job work. Below is a cut of the new Cranston press installed July 6th, 1906, and also a cut of the engine that drives all the machinery.

In the past two years the circulation of THE RECORD has grown beyond all expectations and now exceeds that of many much older county papers, in fact few reach as many homes.

A special continued effort is now being made to still further enlarge the number of papers that go out from this office.

THE RECORD will be made better than ever before, both as a newspaper and advertising medium, and it will ever be a friend to enterprise, industry and education and will be of interest to every member of the family.

We thank our friends for liberal patronage and assure them that we shall endeavor to merit the same.

Glimpses.

With dull, cold face the opal faintly gleameth;
Its shimmering light grows dimmer,
will expire,—

When sudden, lo! the wondrous glow that streameth
Betrays a hidden heart of crimson fire.

In every human soul, however shrouded
In dull, cold apathy or vain disguise,
By fierce despair or sin however clouded,

Burns yet deep down a spark that never dies;

And lo! as, through the opal's pallor stealing—

Those flaming-messengers of light outgleam,
In rare, grand moments flashes forth, revealing,—

A glimpse of Light whose depth we may not dream!

For The Coming Years.

These are the gifts I ask
Of thee, Spirit serene;
Strength for the daily task,
Courage to face the road,
Good cheer to help me bear the traveler's load,

And, for the hours of rest that come between,
An inward joy in all things heard and seen.

These are the things I prize
And hold of dearest worth;
Light of sapphire skies,
Peace of the silent hills,
Shelter of woods and comfort of the grass,

Music of birds, murmur of little rills,
Shadow of clouds that swiftly pass,
And after showers the smell of flowers

And of the good brown earth,
And, best of all, along the way, friendship and mirth.

HURLED DEFIANCE AT GOVERNOR.

The Lid Will Not Go on at Covington and Surrounding Towns.

Cincinnati August 9.—A meeting of the mayors of Covington, West and Central Covington, Ludlow and Latonia, will be held tonight in Covington. Mayor Beach has secured from City Solicitor Hanlon a written opinion that as no Covington ordinances or by-laws provide for the Sunday closing of saloons, the mayor has no power to put on the lid. Other mayors have similar opinions from their legal advisers. They will agree to defy the letters of Governor Beckham directing them to put on the lid.

Summer Diarrhoea in Children.

During the hot weather of the summer months the first unnatural looseness of a child's bowels should have immediate attention, so as to check the disease before it becomes serious. All that is necessary is a few doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by a dose of castor oil to cleanse the system. Rev. M. O. Stockland, Pastor of the first M. E. Church, Little Falls, Minn., writes: "We have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years and find it a very valuable remedy, especially for summer disorders in children." Sold by Haynes & Taylor, the enterprising druggists of Marion.

The State College of Kentucky LEXINGTON, KY.

THE Agricultural and Mechanical (State) College of Kentucky offers the following courses of study, viz: Agricultural, chemical, biological, mathematical, physical, normal school, classical, mechanical engineering, civil engineering, mining engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty number nearly fifty professors and instructors.

County appointees receive tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and light, and if they remain ten months, traveling expenses.

The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern. Military tactics and science are fully provided for as required by Congress. Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the college supply. The matriculation for the last year was, including Summer school, 815.

Specialists with the necessary number of assistants have charge of each department of natural science. Summer schools are provided for pedagogy, engineering and instruction in science and arts.

The State College of Kentucky is the only institution in the Commonwealth doing in any proper sense university work.

The college home for young women provides facilities for good board and lodging. It is well equipped with all modern conveniences, including bath room and a room for physical culture. It is heated by steam and lighted by electricity.

An opportunity is thus afforded to them of a thorough education in classics, modern languages, literature, science, mathematics, logic, metaphysics, history and political economy. No other institution in the State offers advantages for the education of women at all comparable to those offered by the State College of Kentucky.

A new Library building will, through the generosity of Mr. Carnegie, be erected during the next Collegiate year.

The Normal Department will be on a better footing than ever heretofore. Last year's largely increased attendance, with the unprecedented growth of the Summer Normal School, both indicate that an era of prosperity surpassing that of all previous years has opened for the Normal Department of the State College.

CHEAPER FARM LANDS.

Southwest Offers Best Opportunities
For Securing Homes.

Many farmers in the Northern and Eastern states are selling their high priced lands and locating in the Southwest. Many who have been unable to own their homes in the older country are buying land in the new country.

Unusual opportunities exist along the lines of the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain Route. The rich, alluvial, delta lands and river bottom lands of Southeast Missouri, Eastern Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, capable of producing 60 bushels of corn, a bale of cotton, 4 to 6 tons of alfalfa, 150 bushels of potatoes, and other grains, vegetables and hay crops, can be bought for $7.50 to $15.00 per acre. When cleared and slightly improved will rent for $4.00 to $6.00 per acre cash.

Uplands more rolling, lighter soil, adapted to fruit growing—peaches, pears, plums, grapes, berries, also melons, tomatoes and other vegetables, can be bought for $5 to $10 per acre in unimproved state. Many places with small clearings and some improvements can be bought very cheap.

This is a fine stock country. No long winter feeding. Free range, pure water, mild climate. A healthy growing country, with a great future.

Write for map and descriptive literature on Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Kansas and Indian Territory. Very cheap rates on first and third Tuesdays of each month.

"Make Hay While the Sun Shines."

There is a lesson in the work of the thrifty farmer. He knows that the bright sunshine may last but a day and he prepares for the showers which are so liable to follow. So it should be with every household. Dysentery, diarrhoea and cholera morbus may attack some of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for these diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. ### Judge Gordon For Governor.

Judge Fleming Gordon, of Madisonville, is the latest person to be mentioned as a possible candidate for the gubernatorial nomination on the Democratic ticket. Judge Gordon is one of the best known and most popular politicians of the western part of the state, and has been on the circuit bench for three years.

It is learned that Judge Gordon is seriously contemplating making the race for the nomination for governor and is stated on good authority that he will certainly enter the list providing Ollie James declines to be a candidate for the nomination.

With the congressman out of the running it is said that Judge Gordon would be the choice of the people of western Kentucky.

He has been a practicing attorney at Madisonville and never asked for a political office until he made the race for circuit judge three years ago and won the race by a big majority.—Louisville Post.

KENTUCKY CROPS.

There Was Never A Better Corn Prospect.

Frankfort, Ky., August 9.—The monthly report of the state agricultural department, showing the condition of the growing crops, was issued today by Commissioner Vreeland. The report says there was never a better prospect for a full crop of corn, but that the prospect for a crop of tobacco, both Burley and dark, is below the average, due to too much rain and insufficient work at the proper time. The report is as follows:

The month of July was generally seasonable, with an excess of rain in some localities. There was never a better prospect for a full crop of corn at this season of the year than now. The acreage is a full average and condition all that could be expected. The wheat crop is about all threshed, and generally in good condition. The yield is about up to an average and the quality good.

The oat crop was short and yield only three-fourths of an average. The prospect for a crop of Burley tobacco is below the average, and its condition is not up to the standard on account of too much rain and insufficient work at the proper time. The prospect for dark is quite below the average and condition 88. The dark crop is reported later than usual and irregular in growth. Meadows, pastures and clover are reported in fair condition and free from disease. Hogs are scarce in many localities.

The apple crop is a light one, and there is considerable complaint of falling off before these mature. Gardens are reported good.

Now Writing a Story.

Dear George: I send you a formula for a field test of manganese of cobalt. It is of course qualitative, but a dark green would have been about three per cent. cobalt.

I am trying to write a story for you entitled "A Kentucky Hunting Camp," and have got as far as the lady dashing up on a blooded horse to where Judge H. M. Cook sits on the hotel steps brushing the flies off, and I have even stated how she was dressed, but I have a thousand and one things to attend to and it may be a thousand years before it is finished, if it ever gets to that point, but everybody connected with the early Marion days will be there or thereabouts I reckon. I have just been up the Cumberland river a hundred and fifty miles, the scenery being superb. Mrs. Roberts and I are becoming very young again.

Truly yours, D. C. R.

Unnecessary Expense.

Acute attacks of colic, diarrhoea and dysentery come on without warning and prompt relief must be obtained. There is no necessity of incurring the expense of a physician's service in such cases if Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is at hand. A dose of this remedy will relieve the patient before a doctor could arrive. It has never been known to fail, even in the most severe and dangerous cases and no family should be without it. Mr. Ewing Young, Stonefort, Ill., Cured by Zemo After Six Years' Torment and Humiliation

ZEMO

POSITIVELY CURES ANY FORM OF SKIN OR SCALP DISEASE

READ MR. YOUNG'S LETTER

E. W. ROSE MEDICINE CO., St. Louis, Mo. STONEFORT, ILL., April 3, 1905.
Dear Sirs:—It is a source of pleasure for me to permit you to use my picture before and after cured by "ZEMO," and to tell what "ZEMO" did for me. I doctored this case of (Acne) pimples for six years and spent several hundred dollars with physicians and specialists. The more salves and creams I used, the worse my face became. Mr. Ira Blackman recommended "ZEMO." Eight bottles entirely cured me, and I honestly believe "ZEMO" is the best remedy in the world for any skin disease.
Yours very truly,
Ewing Young

FRIDAY, AUG. 17, 1906.

Crittenden county farmers may be interested in the statement that this country has produced the greatest wheat crop ever known in the United States and in fact by any country at any time. The government figures have just been made public and the number of bushels are represented by 9 figures. The total yield is 759,030,000.

Senator Bailey's nomination at the Texas primaries cost him only $4.80 and he does not even have to set up the cigars to be elected. The temptation for him to do wrong seems very slight. However all over his state and other states they are asking the question "How did he get it?" His stocks and bonds and oil securities to the tune of several millions could not come out of the salary of a senator. It seems to be in line to remark here that the difference in cost of a primary in Texas and a primary in Kentucky is something enormous. Why is it thus?

BITS OF BYPLAY.

Many years ago lived in Marion town a young boy, Henry McMican by name. He was the son of Rev. B. F. McMican. Henry had the toothache and seeing Obe Young on the street he made an engagement for sometime in the afternoon or as soon as he could see pappy. Dr. Young procured a horse tooth and dipped it in red ink and hid it near his dental chair and awaited developments. Sometime in the afternoon a little boy nearly scared to death slipped in the office on the chair and whispered "Take it out." Obe immediately drew the tooth and turning dextrously made an exchange. Again facing Henry he held the red horse tooth before the bulging eyes of his victim. With a boo-hoo Henry exclaimed "I knew it would hurt. Give it to me I want to show pappy."

There is a camp not far from Marion. An exchange of greetings about 6 o'clock in the morning by and between the two cooks as they arise and prepare for the arduous duties of the day sounds something like this—
"Hello Spud."
"Hello."
"How's you jumping?"
"Oh high."

Mr. Swoffield represents the Globe Tailoring Company of Cincinnati, Ohio, and has been in the city this week making his headquarters with Yandell-Gugenheim Company. Several years ago he had his agency with the firm of J. H. Clifton & Son. On one of his trips he sold quite a number of suits to different young men about town. These young fellows found out when he would return to Marion and changed their clothes around among each other and all descended on him demanding their clothes fixed or their money back. It is needless to say they had Mr. Swoffield guessing.

The Collegians at Ann Arbor, Mich., have tabooed hats and it is called the hatless fad.

Some of the students are very lean and thin and a news item would read: "The fatless had a hatless fad."

Charley Wheeler, a Marion boy, has charge of the Cumberland telephone at Carthage, Tenn. He visited us one day last week and told some stories about Col. Robert's actions in Carthage. Charley says that the old coffee racket is worked just the same as when he was at Marion, but there's more coffee, that is more real coffee, in a cup at Aunt Prue's at Carthage than Copher used to furnish at Marion. There was a whole lot more he told us, but we know what a slander suit means even if it were true and we expect it is, but the old English law "the more truth the greater the slander" seems to be the rule in Western Kentucky and we refrain from publication but would be glad to tell all about it as soon as the fall meeting of the Rhamona Club occurs.

Charley Horse Ross persists in refusing to stay abducted. He left the walks of men twenty-five or thirty years ago, but bobs up again periodically.

One of the bright young men at a certain dinner table propounded this query. Why are onions and potatoes never planted together? After they all gave it up he said, because the onions get into the potatoes eyes and they can not see how to grow.

Archer, of Owensboro, and the machinery was loaded on the cars this week and shipped to a point in Mississippi, where it will be operated. For the past year the mill has been practically closed down owing to the scarcity of timber in this section. This mill was started in operation here about three years ago under the management of Mr. W. R. Hunter, a member of the firm, and one of the best informed lumber men in the country. He bought all the timber that could be had within reach of his plant. Millions of feet of the finest lumber was turned out here, which found its way into the markets of the East. A large force of men was employed in cutting the trees, hauling them to the mill and converting them into lumber, and many thousands of dollars was paid out by the firm for timber and labor which was put in circulation right here at home.—Providence Enterprise.

The clerk was instructed to write a kindly letter to B. F. Jacobs, R. H. Anthony, M. E. Chapell, P. D. Tucker and James F. Price asking them if they desired letters of dismission from Princeton Presbytery.

On motion Bro. Elijah Hughes was seated as delegate from Sturgis congregation.

The following resolutions of loyalty to the C. P. church were offered by Rev. J. L. Price and adopted.

Whereas, believing that the mission of the Cumberland Presbyterian church is not yet complete; that her history, as a separate organization, should be perpetuated and her doctrines held in tact, therefore be it resolved:

First, that it is the sense of the members of this Presbytery in called session at Dawson Springs, Hopkins county, Ky., August 9, 1906, to remain true to the Cumberland Presbyterian church, and that we respectfully decline to go into the Presbyterian church U. S. A.

Second, that we indorse the action of the minority of our commissioners in the General Assembly at Decatur in electing Rev. J. L. Hudgins, of Union City, Tenn., as moderator and Rev. T. H. Padgett, of Memphis, Tenn., as stated clerk to fill the vacancies occasioned by the desertion of Rev. Ira Landrith, D. D. and Rev. J. M. Hubbert, D. D. from their respective stations.

Third, that all the legislation of this Presbytery be planned and directed to the perpetuation of our congregations in the Presbytery and to the support of the new boards, as appointed by the general assembly of 1906, at Decatur, Ill. A committee composed of G. L. Woodruff, J. L. Price, J. D. Leech, A.

C. Biddle and W. M. Wilson was appointed to aid churches, which are in danger of losing their property.

The clerk was instructed to secure the records of Princeton Presbytery and to ascertain what funds were in the treasury.

The Presbytery unanimously indorsed Rev. J. T. Barbee's work as synodical missionary. No further business appearing, Presbytery adjourned with prayer.

G. L. WOODRUFF, Moderator.
H. N. LAMB, Clerk pro tem.

GIVENS & SON

Quit Ice Business to Devote Entire Time to Their Meat Shop.

Givens & Son have given up their ice business and will henceforth devote their whole time and attention to their meat business. They propose to run one of the most up-to-date butcher shops in Western Kentucky. The senior member of the firm will spend his entire time in selecting and buying the most choice stock that can be found, thus giving their customers the best that can be procured.

MINING NOTES.

Dr. Pope has a fine spar property known as the Old Watson Place. The shaft is about seventy feet deep and has an eight foot vein of fluor spar. Work has been resumed and they are talking of erecting a mill on this property.

The Riley mines have started up at full tilt, every thing running and Wess Springs superintendent. They have a shaft now 200 feet deep and intend going another 100 feet. They have one of the best equipped plants in the district and are getting a fine run of lead ore.

Jas. Henry is going over to Union county, Ill., to open up the lead property sold to J. A. Stegar some time ago. This property runs lead ore 84 per cent.

Sanders Ore Separating Mill is running every day and is very successfully separating spar and zinc. Mr. Sanders is to be congratulated upon his success.

Another body of carbonate has been found at this mine, which promises to eclipse in quantity the former deposit.

The lake has been completed and the rains of the past week have filled it, so that they now have an abundance of water for washing spar. The zinc and lead-ore in shaft now is the richest ever seen in this district.

The Tabor shaft has been sunk 17 feet deeper and cross cutting to the vein is now in progress. This cross cut will strike an immense body of flat spar and will give the owners all the ore that they can raise for months.

The Asbridge shaft No. 1, is in fine No. 1. spar and there is lots of it. Shaft No. 2 is as pretty as a picture. The Tabor and Asbridge mines are destined to be two of the best spar mines in Kentucky. Only two miles from railroad and spar enough in them to supply the world.

The Marion Mineral Company's new 80 H. P. plant installed at this mine will start up in a day or two, to unwater the mine. The new plant is one of the best in the district and is up to date.

A steam plant has been installed at this mine and work is now in progress sinking the shaft 100 feet. This is a fine mine.

The Government Geological Survey Corps now registered at the Crittenden Hotel are composed of the following gentlemen:

R. W. Berry Geological Surveyor, R. P. Thompson, Claude Boor, E. E. Barton, John M. Dyer, A. C. Wood, T. J. Doran and E. L. Keenan.

The tenth day of August the Sanders plant located in the south part of Marion had a full day run in separating ore and the outcome of this venture is no longer in doubt. These young Sanders men have proven beyond doubt that they have solved a problem that has proven too much for older heads. Just what this means and is to this district is not realized by one in a hundred. The days work referred to proved further that they can turn out as high concentrates as are mined in America and this full day run was absolutely perfect in every detail.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

Rev. J. H. Butler preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning. He read as a lesson the sixth chapter of Genesis. His text was Genesis 6:9, "And Noah walked with God." The subject was divided into several thoughts. What is implied by walking with God? First, Noah's faith in God, in His promises and His word. By his faith God spared Noah and his family. Second, Noah's reconciliation with God. Third, Noah loved God, this was a mutual love. Fourth, Noah's obedience to God, obeying His commands he built the ark. Some advantages in walking with God. First, wisdom is gained. If we associate with God we will be wise. Second, preparation for the future. Third, honor. As a result of Noah's walk God honored him by making him pre-server of the race. Fourth, power. Fifth, pleasure. Sixth, profit. The lesson we learn from this text is: walk as Noah did and we will be sure to win. Preaching next Sunday morning. Sunday school at nine thirty.

In the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Ben Andres will preach at the C. P. church next Sunday at 11 o'clock.

of the pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church to come and worship with them next Sunday. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Andres.

There will be a meeting of the session of the First Presbyterian church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Rev. J. R. McAfee the pastor preached at the Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. His text was James 3-17, the subject of his remarks was "Not What Things Appear to be but What They Really are."

First, Our religion is of divine origin. (a) Our faith and the morals it teaches can be found only in the bible. No other religion the world has ever known, has been so perfect in moral character and teaching. The religion of Jesus is the only thing that has ever been known to man to produce Holy men. Other things may make and name it's great men, but christianity may name it's Holy men. (b) Only in a divine revelation can we find a sufficient rule of moral action. The wisdom that is from "above" is from God. Second, In the second place we have the nature of our religion, or the wisdom that is from above. James 3-17, But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

EDISON'S PROPHECY

Wonders in Electricity Will Yet Be Performed--Expects to See Airships.

In a prophetic mood, Thomas A. Edison had this to say:

"It will not surprise me any morning to wake up and learn that someone, or some group of the 300,000 scientific men who are investigating all over the earth has seized the secret of electricity by direct process, and begun another practical revolution of human affairs. It can be done. I expect to see it before I die.

Man will discover one fact in one part of the world, and that will set some fellow at work on another fact in some other part of the world, and presently a lot of men will be working on the true path; and one day it will be announced to the world that electric power can be produced directly from coal. When that discovery is made the steam engine and boiler will be driven out of use. I expect to see airships flying before my death. Such a discovery will make it possible to drive ships across the sea by electricity at a rate of forty or fifty miles an hour--three days across the Atlantic from shore to shore.

"The human race may well look forward with hope to the day in which that discovery will be announced, for after that, the world will be greatly transformed."

Took Civil Service Examination.

Sometime last spring about March 24th, Mr. Roy Gilbert, Mr. Maurice Sutherland and Mr. Irbie Terry made the trip to Evansville, Indiana, to take the civil service examination for the railway mail service.

After four months of waiting the civil service board notified the young men that they had made the following grades: Roy Gilbert, 71½; Irbie Terry, 76½; Maurice Sutherland, 66½.

Mr. Sutherland had been a soldier in the army and the law gives an ex-soldier with an honorable discharge 5 per cent. extra on any civil service examination. This placed Mr. Sutherland's grade 71½.

CURE FOR HAY FEVER.

Haynes & Taylor Say Hyomei Will Give Relief. Sold Under Guarantee.

The hay fever season is at hand and many people have already arranged to leave town so that they may avoid the sneezing, the watery eyes, and other annoying symptoms of this disagreeable summer disease.

Haynes & Taylor wish us to announce that when Hyomei is used as a preventive or a cure there will be no hay fever. They advise daily treatment with Hyomei for a couple of weeks before the usual time for the appearance of the disease. If this is done, the attack will be prevented. However, if the treatment is not started soon enough and the disease makes its appearance use Hyomei six or seven times daily and relief will be had at once.

There is no stomach dosing when Hyomei is used. Breathe it through the neat pocket inhaler that comes in every outfit, so that the medication reaches the minutest air cells, killing all germs and soothing and healing the diseased membrane.

The complete outfit costs but $1.00, extra bottles 50c. It is the only treatment for hay fever sold by Haynes & Taylor with a guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

A Bit of History.

Will Clifton, on his last trip among the merchants, was smoking a so called cigar while seated on one of the rear benches of a Howell street car in Evansville.

The cigar was given him by Jim Henry just as he was leaving Marion the day before. It was made from the Arch Davidson last crop for a filler and a long green from Webster for a wrapper. This combination when lighted and smoked in Will's impulsive manner would naturally stop the town clock and cause the bell to toll and the inhabitants to go into deep mourning. A lady sitting just behind Will touched him on the shoulder with a long handled parasol and asked him if he would kindly stop the pestilence until they reached Death Valley. With that innate courtesy due to Tom Clifton's example he made a courtesy and laid the smoker on the window seat.

The only trouble Will ever had or is ever likely to have is a favorite corn on his left foot. The weather was extremely warm and that corn was simply ralloping, the pain was so intense that Mr. Will undressed his foot so as to get face to face with the corn and tell it in choice language what he thought of it, at that moment the front door of the car was opened, allowing the breeze to pass along the aisle to where the lady was sitting when she immediately took up the parasol and reached for Bill the second time saying in suppressed, agonizing tone of voice, "please light that cigar again and do it quick."

A New Book.

We are in receipt of a neat little volume entitled Original Poems, Rhymes and Acrostics by William Yancey Erwin of Hopkinsville, Ky.

Dipping into the unique and dainty book, like a bee in a botanic garden, we find as great variety, brilliancy of coloring and as much sweetness as a bee would find in a flowery vale.

The author's Nature poems are fine, not crowded with details, but, with a few rapid strokes of his facile pen, he makes towering mountains with bold cliffs, rise before us, and then throws over them a mantle of brilliant foliage, thus presenting his subjects in a most fascinating manner.

His most pretentious poem "Joseph" repeats that sweet old story in a style that charms both young and old.

The author has long been known as a humorous writer, some of his satirical poems having gone the rounds of the metropolitan press.

But when he touches the minor chords, and sings of childhood's hours and Sainted mother, our eyes overflow with tears, and we yearn for the purity of childhood once more.

Some of the author's love poems are perfect gems, as the following lines from one of them entitled "If I But Might" will show:

Might I but take thy dainty hand
And lead thee where the lillies grow,
I'd see them blush and bowing stand,
Before thy stature, white as snow,
For in thy presence I am sure
That they could never look so pure.

Might I but know thou wouldst extend
The scepter to my waiting heart,
And that our souls should sweetly blend
In union, no more to part,
'Twould fill my soul with joy so great
I'd grudge the time I had to wait.

Also the following, in an entirely different style--
Oh, whispering breeze,
As you waft o'er the seas,
Like a messenger sent from above,
Pause in your flight
And for me tonight
Bear a message to one that I love.

With your load of perfume,
You may enter her room,
And I know she will welcome your call.
If she sleeps drive away
All the cares of the day,
Let no visions affright her at all.

As may readily be seen from the foregoing examples, Mr. Erwin's rhymes, measure and accent are simply perfect, and his imagery is chaste and spirituelle, leading the reader to higher plains of thought.

Our Accommodations

During the past year every available place in the boarding department was occupied, making the best and finest body of girls I have ever seen together; girls whose conduct in the college indicated they were from the best homes in Kentucky, and had been carefully reared in their homes. It is a positive blessing for any girl to have the opportunity of securing her education in such associations and with such surroundings.

A few of these girls graduated and some others will necessarily drop out, hence we will have a few vacant places to be filled for the coming season; therefore we ask those desiring to enter their daughters in Logan College to correspond with us early in the summer, as we shall not be able to supply places for very many new girls.

MRS. B. E. ATKINS, Lady Principal.

SPECIAL RATES FOR FULL SCHOOL YEAR. Patrons wishing to make arrangements in boarding department for a FULL SCHOOL YEAR will be given the following low rates, Laundry included:

BOARD, Furnished Room, Light, Fuel and Tuition in Literary Course, $175.

At present we have customers who want property in the city of Marion and if you have property in this city you wish to dispose of at a reasonable price, we can furnish you a purchaser, if you will list it with us.

FARM LANDS.

We also handle farm land and have several persons at this time who are on the market for Crittenden county farm land, if same can be bought at a fair price, farmers or other persons who have farms for sale will do well to list them with us.

MINING PROPERTY.

We are in touch with foreign capital, that can be induced to invest in mining properties in this district at reasonable prices and would be glad to take up any mining property in the district that we believe to be a good property. Parties having such property can find a purchaser by applying to us.

OTHER STATES.

We also control several thousand acres of land in Texas and Missouri, and can offer special inducements to persons who are preparing to locate in either of these states. Can furnish land in any size farm desired and in almost any part of either of these states.

In fact we can sell you any kind of property you want and at most any price you wish to pay; each property being well worth the price asked for it.

REMEMBER

We do not want to list any property that is not offered at a bargain, as we can not and do not want to find a purchaser for any property that is not worth every dollar that we ask for it.

RUSH FOR TITLES

LONDON OFFICIALS EAGERLY GRAB FOR KING'S PLUMS.

Public Pays the Expense of the Ceremony — Would Be Called Graft in the United States.

London.—When a new public building is opened by the sovereign the occasion is always commemorated by the conferring of various titles. These dignities seldom are bestowed on the man most concerned in the work—those who really deserve them. The architect who designs the building, the contractor who builds it, and the sculptor who beautifies it are usually ignored and the honors areaped by some pompous "Bumbles" whose good fortune it is to be in office when the opening occurs and to figure conspicuously in the ceremonies. The new "Old Bailey," which occupies the site of the grim historic sentinels which so long stood as a warning to evildoers, will not be ready for business until next year is well advanced. Indeed, certain parts of the building will probably be far from complete until 1908. At present it is little more than a huge empty shell. It stands within the bailiwick of that quaint survival of medievalism, the corporation of the city of London, which rules supreme over one square mile of the heart of the metropolis. Out of its gorgeously uniformed fig-leaved officials, including the lord mayor himself, hold office for one year. If the royal opening should not take place until the building is really ready for public use, they would lose all chance of getting a knighthood or some of the other royal favors that will be distributed on the occasion. They have fooled the king and given a march on their successors by ranging to have the opening take place within a month or two. The squabble for empty titles among these fussy fossils would be welcomed as providing something to laugh at in this somber old city but for the fact that it involves fleecing the ratepayers to the tune of $50,000. To put the building in shape for this premature opening—to "temporize" it, as it is called—will cost all of that sum, and will be a sheer waste of money. The exposure of such unjustifiable squandering of public funds in any American city would start a prodigious row, but the top lofty, incorruptible officials here treat it with indifference. It cannot be called stealing, and it does not matter, though as far as ratepayers are concerned it amounts to the same thing.

BIG BILL AS SOUVENIR. New Fad Introduced by Oregon Millionaire Has Limited Vogue.

Portland, Ore.—Autographing $100 bills and presenting them to friends as souvenir cards is the latest fad. It was introduced in Portland last night by a portly man, who seemed to have an unlimited supply of newly printed banknotes and a desire to get rid of them. It requires eight figures and six commas, it is said, to express the total of the wealth of the rotund capitalist who gives away $100 bills with his name on them. He is a heavy owner of Portland real estate. He walked into the bar of the Oregon hotel last night with three friends and the bartender busy for awhile. After many rounds of drinks one of the party remarked that he would have to hurry to catch the train to San Francisco. Let me give you my card before I go," spoke the capitalist. As he spoke he pulled a wallet from his belt, drew forth a hundred-dollar bill, wrote his name on it with his fountain pen and handed it to his friend. Let me give you one, too," he said to the other men. Another bill was autographed and handed over. A third was signed and given to the member of the party.

S MAMMOTH STURGEON: At and a Half Footer, Weighing 300 Pounds, in New York Aquarium.

New York.—The Aquarium has now the largest sturgeon ever shown here, a specimen measuring eight and a half feet in length, while its estimated weight is placed at fully 300 pounds. This big sturgeon was taken in a pound net in the bay back of the Hook. It has been placed in the Aquarium's central pool, where it has for company, among other fishes, four sturgeons ranging in length from one and one-half to seven feet each. A tank on the gallery tier is a live sturgeon one foot in length, but now the Aquarium has a vast assortment of these striking creatures. A little sturgeon on the gallery eight inches in length when it was two years ago. The sturgeon doubt grows faster in freedom where it can find its natural food and have room for exercise, than in captivity. The sturgeon is supposed to live to an age of from 50 to 100 years. It attains a length of 12 feet for American Market. More than 300 wells are being drilled in the hacienda of Don Louis Garza, state of Tamaulipas, near Matamoros, Mexico. These wells will be for irrigation purposes.

RECIPROCITY, OR HOW HE EVENED UP THE SCORE.

"My dear," says the thoughtful husband, entering the house with a huge package in his arms, "you remember last week you secured such a wonderful bargain in shirts at 48 cents and neckties at three for a quarter for me?"

"Yes, love," says the fond wife. "Well, don't think I didn't appreciate your thoughtfulness. See, I have bought something for you. I noticed some beautiful green and yellow plaid goods in a show window on my way home, and bought you 80 yards of it at four cents a yard. The clerk said it was a great bargain, and it will make enough dresses to last you two years. Why, she has fainted!"—Life.

Its Prerogative. "You are charged," said the police justice, "with violating the smoke ordinance. What have you to say?" "I have not violated any ordinance, your honor," protested the accused. "My factory has a smoky chimney. It is true, but it has a right to have it."

"On what ground?" "It's a tobacco factory, your honor."—Chicago Tribune.

With a Little Preparation. "Johnny, these look green, I told you to ask for eating apples." "That's what these are, mamma. The man at the store says all they need is to be cooked a little 'fore you eat 'em."—Chicago Tribune.

Unappreciative. Reider.—I wonder what Jingleton gets for his magazine poems? Nexley.—I don't know; but I know what he ought to get. Reider.—What? Nexley.—Six months twice a year.—Chicago Daily News.

Summer Resort Confidence. Mrs. Kneker.—I'm afraid my husband must be having a good time; he didn't send me any check. Mrs. Bocker.—I'm afraid mine must be having a better time; he sent one without being asked.—N. Y. Sun.

A Good Thing. "Here is an article by a prominent London doctor saying each person should have one hour of absolute silence each day." "Gee! Gimme that! I want to read it to my wife."—Houston Post.

Couldn't Lese Them. "My father objects to you because he says that you are unable to meet your creditors! Is this true, Aigy?" "No, Aigy, 'pon my honor! I seem to meet them wherever I go!"—Tit-Bits.

His Parthian Shot. "No, Mr. Lallygag; no, I say! My mind is made up!" "It is? Gee, I supposed that was the one part of you that was not made up."—Houston Post.

Her Possessions. "I have two lovely little puppies," said Mrs. Tawkey. "I have met your husband," replied the man. "Who is the other one?"—Judge.

STOMACH ACHE

You have more or less trouble with your stomach, your bowels and your liver—everybody does. And when these delicately-ordered organs do get out of order, they are the worst things in the world to you. If you took the right kind of care of them, you wouldn't suffer, but you don't.

The only way you can correct the trouble you do have and prevent these parts from getting out of order is to use

PEPSIN SYRUP CO. Monticello, Illinois. Sold by Haynes & Taylor.

HE PROBABLY DESERVED IT.

Bill.—I knew a girl in the country who wrote on an egg, which was going with others to the city, her name and address, and just over them: "Will the man who gets this please write to me?"

Jill.—Well, did she hear from it? "I think not. The inference is that the man who got it was an actor, and that the inscription became destroyed the evening it was handed to him over the footlights."—Yonkers Statesman.

Building for the Future.

The pastor was looking at the plans for the new church. "It seems to me," he said, "the downward slope of the floor from the entrance doors to the chancel is altogether too pronounced. Viewed from the pulpit, the congregation will seem to be sitting in tiers."

"That's my wife's idea," explained the architect. "She says it will obviate the necessity of requesting the women to take off their hats, and more of them will come to church."—Chicago Tribune.

A Modest Order.

The Idle Rich One.—Ya-as, I've decided to go in for ballooning a bit, so you may take my order.

Agent.—What sort of balloon do you wish? The Idle Rich One.—Why, to begin with, you might furnish me with a high-altitude balloon, a low-altitude one, a touring affair, and, say, a run-about balloonette for town use.—Puck.

Shattering Sentiment.

"Ah, the bugler!" exclaimed the beautiful girl graduate. "Doesn't it always bring something to your mind to here the call of the bugler?"

"Yes," yawned the corpulent and urbane matron. "It always reminds me that I have a pair of scissors to grind, and if I don't hurry the scissors' grinder will get out of sight."—Chicago Daily News.

Hardup's Mistake.

Caller.—I have here several bills which are long overdue. Hardup (desperately).—I am sorry to say that our cashier is out to-day.

Caller.—Oh, well, it doesn't make much difference. I'll call and pay them at some future date. Good day, sir.—Tit-Bits.

Necessary Discontinuation.

"Frenchmen don't fight as many duels as they used to."

"No," answered the eminent Parisian. "The men of this later generation are so careless there would really be danger of their hurting one another."—Washington Star.

A Distinction.

"When a man makes a display of wealth," said the tourist who is studying American slang, "you say he is 'flush,' do you not?"

"Well, answered Broncho Bob, "sometimes he's a four-flush."—Washington Star.

Uncooked Food.

The giants of old, their relics with awe. We latter-day pygmies may view. The dinosaur ate his comestibles raw, And see how the dinosaur grew!—Judge.

His Luck.

Benevolent Lady: But, my poor man, if you have been looking for work all these years, why is it that you have never found it?

Tramp (confidentially).—It's luck, mum; just sheer good luck.—Tit-Bits.

Her Idea.

"Did you let your wife superintend the building of your new cottage?"

"I did until I found that she wasn't leaving room for anything but closets."—Cleveland Leader.

Watson's Magazine

The leading exponent of Jeffersonian Democracy, edited by Hon. Thos. E. Watson, of Georgia, the Father of Rural Free delivery; author of "The Story of France," "Life of Napoleon," "Life and Times of Thomas Jefferson," "Betheny" and other books. Mr. Watson was the People's Party nominee for Vice-President in 1896, and for President in 1904. He is today heading a middle-class reform movement which is bound to sweep the country in a short time.

Watson's Magazine is not a Socialist publication. It does not stand for collective ownership for all the means of production. Mr. Watson believes in public or government ownership of railroad, telegraphs and telephones; in municipal ownership of street railways, gas, electric lights, water works, etc.; and he believes in private ownership of all industries not natural monopolies.

The middle class—the home owners, farmers, small business men and property owners—won Jefferson's victory in 1800; won Jackson's victory over Nick Biddle's money power in 1832; won Lincoln's victory in 1860. But each time after the flush of victory had died away, they became careless of their rights and went to sleep. They have slept a good portion of the time since 1865, but—

Watson's Magazine is waking them up. Another great victory is in the air. Keep in touch with the movement.

What is in a Name?

It is human nature to nickname our fellow mortals. Ever since time began or rather ever since man on this earth has had a cognomen there has been a tendency to give our associates some short name that will not only "make the punishment fit the crime," but will answer a familiar purpose and strengthen a friendship begun. It is not often that a nickname is given in ridicule. It is generally an appellation of endearment. Marion is a great place for nicknames. Nearly every boy in town has a nickname and a few of them will be found following. Who can write the correct names opposite these nicknames?
