MULES BRING GOOD PRICES

A Mule Will Sell in Crittenden County

MONDAY'S SALES LARGE

Several Horses Sold at Good Prices
--Mule Colts Sold From Fifty-Five to Eighty Dollars

A NUMBER OF SCATTERING SALES

Mule and horse buyers and others were much in evidence on Marion streets Monday. All that was necessary for a trade was a meeting of Messrs. Layne & Leavell or Henry Rice and the mule or horse owners.

Prices were very stiff. When a mule colt brings $80 the farmer certainly should feel pleased and should take courage.

No better barometer of the material welfare of the farming class of people can be mentioned than the price they receive for the products of their farms.

Among the many sales made Monday last we note a few as follows:

Bought by Layne & Leavell, of Hopkinsville, Ky.
One mule from J. R. Marvel $140.00
One mule from W. G. Hillyard, 145.00
One mule from W. R. Stewart, 145.00
One mule from R. B. Cook, 90.00
One mule from Alvin Rebout 102.50
One mule from Ellis Klein, 100.00
Two mules from J. J. Hunt 265.00
One horse from Sullenger Bros. 125.00
Two mules from Hugh Bennett 230.00
One mule from --- 140.00

Messrs. Layne & Leavell are old experienced stock dealers who have been coming to Marion for several years and who have merited and received the confidence of our people.

Mr. Henry Rice, our old friend from Kelsey, bought the following:

One mule colt from Oscar Eskew $75
One mule colt from Albert Klein, 80
One mule colt from John Stewart, 75
One mule colt from Enoch Williams, 75
One mule colt from Ed B. Weldon, 65
One mule colt from Mr. Ford 65
One mule colt from H. C. Paris, 60
One mule colt from Mrs. L. H. Paris, 55
One filley colt from Jas. Baker, 45
One filley colt from Mr. Hughes, 70
Mr. Henry Rice is a well known business man from Kelsey, Ky.

Among other scattering sales it may be mentioned that Henry Wood sold a colt for $80.

Tilford Righam sold one mule colt for $65.

Rev. E. B. Blackburn sold mule colt for $75.

Paul I. Paris sold mule colt for $75.

H. C. Paris sold one mare to J. W. Shaffer, of Tolu, for $140.

Taylor & Cannon compose the large firm that occupy the Masonic Temple on the corner of Main and Bellville streets. They will buy extensively this season, and the public will experience no trouble in supplying their wants at this store.

Keep the Gate Shut

An English farmer was one day at work in his field, when he saw a party of horsemen riding about his farm. He had one field that he was especially anxious that they would not ride over.

So he sent one of his boys to the field, telling him to shut the gate, and keep it shut, and let no one open it.

The boy went as he was bidden but was scarcely at his post before the huntsmen came up peremptorily ordering the gate to be opened. This the boy declined to do, stating the orders he had received, and his determination not to disobey them. Threats and bribes were offered alike in vain, one after another came forward as spokesmen, but all with the same result: the boy remained unmoved and immovable in his determination not to open the gate.

After awhile one of noble presence advanced and said, in commanding tones. "My boy you do not know me, I am the Duke of Wellington, one not accustomed to be disobeyed, and I command you to open that gate that I and my friends may pass thru."

The boy lifted his cap and stood uncovered before the great man whom all England delighted to honor, then answered firmly. "I am sure the Duke of Wellington would not wish me to disobey orders. I must keep this gate shut, nor suffer any one to pass but with my master's express permission."

Greatly pleased, the sturdy old warrior lifted his own hat and said. "I honor the man or boy who can neither be bribed nor frightened into doing wrong. With an army of such soldiers I could conquer not only the French, but the world, and handing the Duke a glittering sovereign, the old Duke put spurs to his horse and galloped away; while the boy ran off to his work, shouting at the top of his voice, Hurrah! Hurrah! I've done what Napoleon Bonaparte could not do. I've kept out the Duke of Wellington. Boys keep the gate shut."

NAAMAN.

A SONGSTER ON THE WING

Travels Thousands of Miles and Thanks the Lord He is Alive

Billy Yates, the singer from Sheridan, blew into Crittenden county last Saturday night from Humboldt, Tenn., where he has been in a camp-meeting.

He told the RECORD Rounder that he had traveled over 11,000 miles thus far this season and felt as fresh as a daisy. Furthermore he said, he had traveled now for twelve years and had never borrowed a dollar, had never missed a train and never missed but one appointment, and that was on account of sickness.

Billy left at three o'clock Wednesday morning for Greenville, Tenn., where he will have charge of the singing in a revival.

Speaking of Humboldt people and the meeting there he said: "That is the only place I ever visited where there was too much singing, if such a thing were possible. They had a large stage clear across the auditorium and it was filled with singers. Such singing you never heard. There must have been one hundred of them."

Joel Farmer edged in at about this stage of the game and suggested that probably such a large number would drown him out and that his voice would sound like a bumble bee in a barrel.

Billy replied, "that's all right, if they did, I made a fuss anyway."

In the course of five or ten minutes conversation Mr. Yates refused two or three invitations from different passers by to go home with them.

It appeared to the RECORD scribe that he would not soon be without a home or friends.

HAMMOND H. LOVING

Will Be Tried for His Life at Paducah for Killing H. A. Rose

Mr. J. P. Pierce, Press Maxwell, Thomas J. Yandell and Harry A. Haynes went to Paducah yesterday as witnesses in the trial of H. H. Loving charged with the murder of H. A. Rose, of that city.

The trial was continued over from last week on account of the illness of Mrs. Gibson, a witness for the State. It is understood that the witness is still ill and that the trial will again be postponed.

Mr. Hammond Loving is very well known to the people of this county, having been Cashier of the Marion Bank for a number of years.

SANDERES ORE SEPARATING CO.

Receiving 500 Tons of Lead, Zinc and Fluor Spar

FROM ROSI CLARE, ILLINOIS

Business Better at the Kentucky Fluor Spar Mill than Any Previous Year During Dull Season

WORK AT PARISH MINE PROGRESSING

The work on the new shaft at the Parish mine is progressing rapidly.

The Asbridge mine is still putting out the usual amount of fluor spar.

The old Columbia mine, one of the most famous in the district, is to be opened soon.

At the Tabor shaft they are working in a 9-foot breast of spar and they are hoisting right along.

The Marion Zinc Co. is working in three levels at their Riley mine and are raising a fine grade of lead and spar.

Work is progressing at the new Sam Matthews shaft and they will soon cross-cut for the well known 17-foot vein.

The work at the Old Jim mine is getting along nicely, with an excellent showing for another fine bed of carbonate.

The Great Northern Mining & Milling Co. have installed their new machinery and the work at the Ada Florence mine is progressing fast.

The Sanders Ore Separating Co. are having shipped to them 500 tons of lead, zinc and fluor spar from Rosi Claire, Illinois, this week.

The Hodge vein has been opened by the Kentucky Fluor Spar Co. with prospect work in five different places, with a fine showing of lead and spar.

The Keystone Mining Co. have abandoned their old shaft and have begun sinking a new one. They expect to go down at least 200 feet.

The parallel vein at the Hodge mine has been proven for a distance of half a mile. Four or more openings have been made, all of which has uncovered No. 1 spar, carrying a good per cent of lead.

The Ohio Mining Co. shaft is being sunk rapidly and is now 55 feet deep. At a depth of 60 feet they will cross-cut and catch the famous Columbia vein. The work is being pushed by Supt. Grant Davidson.

H. A. Haynes, of the Kentucky Fluor Spar mill, reports business better this year during the dull season than any year previous. He also states they are shipping more ground spar now than ever before.

A fine large piece of carbonate from Mann mine was placed on exhibition this week by C. S. Knight, by the side of the two large pieces of spar near the New Marion Hotel. It would be a good idea if each company in the district would do this.

The Igneous dike vein, which is shown on the map of the U. S. Geological survey, made by E. O. Ulrich and W. S. T. Smith, of the Western Kentucky mineral field near Levas has proven to be mineralized with lead and fluor spar. Well posted men of the district declare this to be the first strike made where lead and fluor spar has ever been found with the Igneous Dike in Western Kentucky. This lead and spar is found at or near the crossing of the Igneous dike and the Stevens fault, as shown on map of the U. S. Geological survey made by the above named parties in 1904. This vein is now being prospected by Wm. S. Lowery, and is his intention to organize a company and develop the new ore bearing dike vein.

After the ceremony the happy couple took leave for the home of the groom's mother, where a nice supper and many friends were awaiting them.

We join their many friends in wishing them a prosperous and happy life.

DOCTORS MEET

Session of Crittenden County Medical Association Held Tuesday

The Crittenden County Medical Society held its regular monthly meeting in the court house last Tuesday, Sept. 11th, at 1 p. m.

These meetings are always held on the second Tuesday of each month, in the town of Marion. It would be most beneficial to both the profession and the laity if every physician in the county would attend and take part in the exercises of each meeting.

Last Tuesday quite a number were absent, and one physician was called away before the exercises began.

None of those assigned work on the programme were present except Dr. T. Atchison Frazer.

The subject of his paper was: "The Fallacy of the Maternal Impression Theory."

The subject was handled in a very able manner and at the conclusion of the reading it was generally discussed by the society, for about an hour.

Dr. Thos. Perkins and Dr. Wolfe, of Frances, were elected members of the Society. Dr. Perkins was honored with a life membership without the payment of any fees, he being the oldest practitioner in the county.

Among the members present we note, Matlock, Salem.
Wolfe, Frances.
Perkins, Tribune.
Travis, Tribune.
Driskill, Marion.
Daughtrey, Marion.
Frazer, Marion.

LITTLE CHILD DIES

Infant Daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Daughtrey Called Home

On Friday evening, Sept. 7, the little child of Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Daughtrey passed away.

The little girl was over a year old, having been born in May, 1905. She was a very bright child. The parents have the sympathy of the entire community in this their second affliction of like character.

The funeral services were held by Rev. J. R. McAfee on Saturday and the burial took place at the new cemetery.

THE FINEST TOBACCO CROP

Yet Reported this Season Raised by

W. G. CONGER, OF TRIBUNE.

Patch Contains Six Acres of as Clean and Nice Tobacco to be Found in County

LARGEST 49 IN. LONG, 27 IN. WIDE

In the Tribune settlement there lives one W. G. Conger. This season he got busy and has thus far produced the best crop of tobacco in Crittenden county. It is all clean and nice and free of worm holes and is the finest sight a tobacco man ever beheld.

There are in the patch six acres, and six dandies too. It will begin to ripen the last of this week and cutting will begin probably next week.

Several leaves were measured and the largest being 49 inches long and 27 inches wide.

If any one in this county thinks they can beat this story, let them.

HOW IS THIS

Will Messrs. Hager, Hayes & Company Answer Quick.

To the average lay member of this Kentucky Commonwealth there comes some funny sights and sayings which in a measure recompense the aforesaid lay member for the inconspicuous and humble part he plays in this economic household.

Of course there are very few RECORD readers who would not like to hold some honorable position in the gift of the people, but imagine, if you can, the amount of perspiration shed by Hager, Hays & Company when they endeavor to answer the following questions propounded to them by the Anti-Saloon League:

"1. Will you, if elected to the office of Governor, use all your power and influence of your office to enforce the laws against the Sunday sale of liquors?"

"1. Will you recommend in your message to the next Legislature the passage of a bill extending the operation of the 'county unit law' over the whole State as contemplated in the original Cammack-Redwine bill offered to the Legislature of 1906?"

"3. Have you any understanding or agreement, expressed or implied, with the liquor interests in which your policy as Governor will be in any way controlled by their desires?"

"We will thank you for an early answer, and we will in turn give the information to the people of the State."

There are times and tides in the affairs of men that are in the language of Happy Hooligan, "sumpin fierce."

DRY VERDICT IN WET COUNTY

Five Carloads Stock Shipped

Last Saturday the people of this and Livingston counties sold and delivered five carloads of stock, which were shipped from the stock pen here in Marion.

It would seem to the average citizen that all the stock in this country would soon be bought and shipped. Last Saturday there were shipped from Marion five carloads as follows: Sullenger Bros. shipped two carloads of hogs and cattle.

Oliver, Conyer & Co. shipped on load hogs and cattle.
Clement & Moore shipped one load hogs and cattle.
Henry D. Woolridge shipped one load of cattle.

Accepts a New Position

Mr. R. A. Rogers, a brother-in-law of Mr. Thomas Cochran, of this place, has been employed for several years by Delker, of Henderson, to sell buggies. His success has been phenomenal.

He has been offered a better position with the Owensboro Buggy Company and has accepted.

For convenience and a few other considerations he has moved his family to Evansville, Ind.

Have Returned From Market

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gugenheim returned Sunday from St. Louis, where they went to select fall and winter goods for Yandell, Gugenheim Co. As usual this firm will have a large and complete stock which will be on display in a few days. The right kind of goods at the right kind of prices are the inducements this firm will offer to the public.

Severe Accident

Mr. Henry Paris' little daughter, Marjorie, while at her grandmother Clark's, was quite badly scalded with hot coffee accidentally dropped by Mrs. Clark early Wednesday morning. Dr. J. O. Dixon was called in and she is now out of danger.

Mr. Henry Paris lives on the East side of North Main.

This gathering was complete with the exception of Harry V. McChesney, of Frankfort.

Unnecessary Expense.

Acute attacks of colic, diarrhoea and dysentery come on without warning
and prompt relief must be obtained.
There is no necessity of incurring the expense of a physician's service in such cases if Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is at hand. A dose of this remedy will relieve the patient before a doctor could arrive. It has never been known to fail, even in the most severe and dangerous cases and no family should be without it.
For sale by Haynes & Taylor, the enterprising druggists of Marion.

LOW RATES FOR THE STATE FAIR.

Railroads Fix One Fare for the Round Trip.

Many Varied Attractions Provided for State Fair, Week
September 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22.

Trotters and Runners Will Race Each Day.

Surpassing Exhibition of Horseflesh,
Cattle, Sheep and Swine—Woman's Department a Joy to Housewives—$25,000 in Premiums and Purses.

Railroad rates for the State Fair
have been fixed at one fare plus 25c for the round trip from all points in Kentucky and in Southern Indiana.
With nine railroads running into the city of Louisville, where the Fair will be held during the week of September 17-22, one hundred passenger trains daily will carry thousands to the metropolis of Kentucky. In addition many special trains will be run in order to accommodate those who wish to visit the Fair for a single day only. There is no part of the State of Kentucky from which Louisville cannot be reached in a reasonable time. From the western part of the State, the Henderson & Illinois Central railroads will furnish ample accommodations, and in the southern part, the L. & N. will bring thousands while from the central and eastern sections, the C. & O., Southern and L.
& N. will bring the crowds.

Once in Louisville, ample amusement will be provided to keep every visitor well entertained and amused
during his stay whether it be for a day or during the entire week. Of course, the Fair itself will be the center of interest, and there so many fine attractions have been arranged for that the whole time can be spent enjoyably and profitably without seeking other recreation. Each of the men having the different departments in hand is thoroughly qualified by long years of training and experience to arrange the exhibits in his charge in the most attractive and approved manner.

Many Things To Please.

The Fair proper, that is, the exhibits
of horses, cattle and other live stock, the products of farm and field, the garden and flower beds, mechanical department and that devoted to woman's handiwork, will be both interesting and of great educational value.
This is not even half of the pleasure that has been provided for those who attend the State Fair. Those who love a contest, and how many Kentuckians are there who do not, between the clean limbed and high spirited trotting horse and thoroughbred will find four races on the program each day. There will be either a trotting or pacing race, best three heats in five, and three running races. For over a month the track has been in course of preparation for the trotting races. Thousands of gallons of water have been poured on it daily, and after each wetting it has been rolled and packed so that the trotters will find firm and resilient surface under their shoes rather than the deep and sandy soil which is better suited to thoroughbreds. The hard surface will not be of disadvantage to the owners mas-much as the races immediately before the Fair will be at Douglas Park, a track that was built for trotting purposes and which is considerably harder than the average running track.
Among the races on the program is one for trotters of the 2:10 class and a free-for-all for pacers, which will be decided on Friday. In the thoroughbred division, there will be a gentleman's cup race and two steeplechases, while every day there will be at least one race of a mile or over. As there will be no other racing in the West, during the Fair, the best horses in training and the highest class jockeys in the West will take part in the racing at the State Fair. Purses for the trotting races will be $600.00 each, a considerably larger amount than is ordinarily offered at fairs.

Varied Attractions.

Visitors in the city during the week
can enjoy the many varied attractions at night. They can go to the Fair and enjoy a concert by one of the most famous musical organizations in the United States. They can go over the grounds and take in the carnival shows or can sit in the Palm Garden and enjoy the music while they chat over pleasures of the day with their friends and renew their acquaintance with Kentuckians from other parts of the State. The social feature of the Fair will undoubtedly prove one of its most attractive points, and as the years go on the State Fair will become more and more a meeting ground for Kentuckians from all sections of the commonwealth where they can see what the other parts of the State are doing, and exchange ideas of mutual benefit. The State Fair is the place to meet your friends and enjoy a few days' outing. It comes at a season of the year when the farmer and stock raiser can best afford to leave their homes for a few days, and thousands will take advantage of the low rates in order to be there.

When the exhibits of horseflesh, cattle and swine in the morning and the rares in the afternoon have been sufficient for the day at the Fair, the visitors can find other forms of recreation and amusement in the five theaters in Louisville or at any one of the several parks about the city. At Macaulay's Theater, they can find high class drama, at the Masonic, enjoy a musical comedy, at the Avenue a thrill melodrama, or at Hopkins', refined vaudeville.

Classes Well Filled.

Practically every class for which prize money has been offered has been well filled and the leading stock raisers of the State will be there to show their horses, their cattle, their sheep and their hogs. The exhibits of horse flesh will undoubtedly surpass anything ever before seen at the State Fair in Kentucky, and will excel even those of the well established State Fairs of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.
The fact that only one week intervenes between the Fair and the Louisville Horse Show has added many entries in the horse division. The classes for the high steppers, roadsters and both three and five gaited saddle horses have many entries that will be shown at the Louisville Horse Show.
The light harness horse and plantation
saddler classes, which are exhibited only at fairs in Kentucky, have likewise been well filled.

In many of the saddle rings as many as twenty entries have been received.
This is especially true of the five gaited saddlers, and many other entries are expected before the ribbons are tied. In the beef cattle division entries will come from Missouri, Ohio and Indiana to compete with Kentucky stock raisers, and it is predicted that the Shorthorn and other beef cattle classes will surprise even those who have been regular attendants at fairs.
The Overton Hall Farm, near Nashville, Tenn., will send its entire herd of Jerseys, considered the greatest that has ever been furnished in this country. It will include Brookhill Fox,
the champion Jersey bull of England.
The judges selected for all the classes have been chosen with the greatest care. They are men not only qualified to pass upon merits of the entries but also men who are absolutely unbiased, and whose judgment
would be readily accepted by both winners and losers alike.

Carnival Shows.

The carnival shows at the State Fair will be furnished by the J. Frank Hatch, one of the best known aggragations of this character, and one that has frequently been seen at the State Fairs in Ohio and Indiana, though it has never heretofore appeared in Louisville. With the carnival combination will come two other attractions which will be free to all patrons of the Fair.

The Hatch combination carries twelve different shows, 200 people, and uses 1,200 incandescent lights. All of the shows are guaranteed strictly up-to-date and absolutely moral. It is specifically stated in the contract that no show that is in the least of color shall be put on, and this rule will be rigidly enforced.

The free attractions will be the high diving performance of Harry Siz, who plunges head foremost, blindfolded,
from the top of a ladder 116 feet above the ground into a small tank containing but three and a half feet of water.
The dive made by Siz is as high as that usually done by any of the high divers, and his daring in making the blindfolded has never before been approached by any other performer.
The second free attraction will be the trapeze performance of Zeno. The performance will be given in the front of the grand stand twice during the afternoon, and is said to be as sensational in its way as the diving of Harry Siz.

The carnival shows will be located on the plot of ground to the left of the main entrance and north of the band stand, known as concert lawn. Music will be played throughout the afternoon and evening by the company's band of twenty-five musicians. The first performance will be given Monday evening, September 17, and thereafter each afternoon and evening of the Fair.

The feature of the carnival shows is the trained animal exhibition, said to be the most elaborate performance of the kind ever put on by any street fair of combination of shows. The animals are put through a series of marvelous feats, and this show has never failed to score a pronounced success wherever the Hatch Shows have appeared.

First Automobile Built in 1769.

The automobile seems to have been born, in the form of an idea, in the year 1769, when a Glasgow student threw out the suggestion that the steam engine—then a very crude, low-pressure affair—might be applied to the moving of wheeled vehicles. This student afterwards achieved fame as Dr. Robinson, professor of natural philosophy in the university of Edinburgh. Ten years later Nicholas Joseph Cugnot, a French engineer, built the first automobile. The machine was a three-wheeled affair and its course was quickly run, for on its second or third trip it turned a corner too fast and toppled over with a crash. The city officials of Paris refused to permit Cugnot to repair his machine. To keep it from harming any one they locked it up in a church and there it stayed for some years.—Technical

The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by Haynes & Taylor, druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

The Record $1.00 Per Year

VAST SUMS FOR GEMS

OVER $40,000,000 SPENT FOR PRECIOUS STONES LAST YEAR.

Most of It Goes for Diamonds—Larger Proportion of These in Uncut State Than Ever Before Is Brought In.

Washington.—More diamonds were imported into the United States during the last fiscal year than ever before. Their value was $8,000,000 above that of the preceding year, which formerly held the record, the gems imported in 1906 being worth $55,000,000. In 1903 the total was $26,000,000, only $1,000,000 less than in 1905, while in 1904 the total was only $19,000,000. The total value of all precious stones imported last year was $40,247,010. Diamonds exceeded all other precious stones in value in the ratio of almost seven to one.

About $10,500,000 worth of diamonds imported in 1906 were uncut, to be prepared for use by the diamond-cutting establishments of the United States, while over $24,000,000 worth were cut but not set. There has been a slow but steady growth in the importation of uncut diamonds, while cut diamonds have shown a greater fluctuation than those not cut. The total value of uncut diamonds imported in 1909 was a little less than $1,000,000. In 1902 a little more than $6,000,000, in 1903 nearly $11,000,000, and since that period has continued at about the same figure, while cut diamonds, importations of which in 1909 were a little less than $8,000,000, were over $15,000,000 in 1903, and $24,000,000 in 1906.

This importation of diamonds in the present state is a development of recent years. The census reports gave the number of wage-earners engaged in jewelry work in the United States in 1890 at only 92, and in 1900 at 495, and the value of the products in 1890 at $215,694, and in 1900 at $5,786,281. Prior to 1896 the value of diamonds imported in the uncut state was less than $1,000,000 annually. In 1897 it passed the million-dollar line, and has gradually increased until, as indicated, it has averaged about $10,000,000 a year during the last three or four years.

NO SHAVE IN FIFTY YEARS.

Pennsylvania Man Keeps Pledge Made When Fremont Lost.

Meriden, Pa.—M. T. Freeman, of Cassaca township, Crawford county, one of the original Fremont Republicans, is now in his eighty-first year, and has not felt the touch of a razor for half a century. His first presidential vote was cast for Gen. Taylor in 1848, and since the formation of the Republican party he has been a "Fremont Republican," voting for Gen. Fremont, the first nominee of the party for president, in 1856.

At that time Mr. Freeman made a compact that he would not shave until Fremont was elected. His candidate lost and Mr. Freeman remained steadfast to his agreement. No razor has touched his face since 1856, and, while he never let the beard grow to an unusual length, still he has never had it trimmed short.

Mr. Freeman received an invitation, as one of the original Republicans, to attend the golden jubilee of the Republican party, held in Philadelphia.

Mr. Freeman is still a bright and interesting conversationalist. When 15 years old he attended the celebrated Whig and Democratic mass meeting, held in Erie on September 10, 1849, which, undoubtedly, was the largest mass meeting ever held in this end of the state, people traveling in wagons 100 miles to attend. Those were the times when "Tippecanoe and Tyler, Too," "Log Cabin and Hard Cider," and "Roast Beef and a Dollar a Day" were the slogans.

OLYMPIA'S FIGHTING DAYS OVER.

Dewey's Flagship to Be Converted Into a Schoolroom.

Washington.—The cruiser Olympia, on which Admiral Dewey sailed into Manila bay May 1, 1898, will fight no more. The vessel will be turned over to the naval academy for the annual cruises of the midshipmen and for general instruction purposes. It is not intended that the cruiser shall have any further activity in the naval service.

The Olympia is now at the Norfolk navy yard. A board of survey has been ordered to determine the repairs necessary to place the vessel in first-class condition. It is expected these repairs can be made within a year. The ship will then be turned over to the naval academy.

The authorities of the navy department decided that because of the sentiment attached to Admiral Dewey's flagship the vessel can hereafter best be utilized in educating future naval officers.

Value of Rabbits to Australia. London.—It was stated recently at a public hearing in Australia that $5,000,000 worth of rabbits were shipped to England every year; that the rabbit, as a commercial commodity, was "only in its infancy," and that the trade would probably grow to $25,000,000 a year.

Play Golf by Electric Light. Memphis, Tenn.—Golf by electric light is to be an innovation in local golf circles, according to plans outlined for the Memphis Country club by "Tom" Bendelow, who has arrived from Chicago.

Mrs. Harvey Burks, Harrisburg, Illinois. Cured by "ZEMO" After Five Years' Torture.

WHY? SUFFER THE TORTURE OF ECZEMA OR ANY SKIN DISEASE WHEN THIS GOOD MEDICINE

+ZEMO+

HAS NEVER FAILED TO CURE

E. W. ROSE MEDICINE CO., St. Louis, Mo. HARRISBURG, ILL., May 12th, 1906. DEAR SIR: Believing that "ZEMO" saved my arms, if not my life, I will gladly tell all sufferers from eczema what your good medicine did for me. I suffered six years from a torturing case of itching eczema of both arms. I tried eight different doctors, and every eczema cure I could hear of without relief. The disease grew worse and spread to my neck and breast; my arms had great holes eaten in them; I soon became an invalid and was confined to my bed part of the time. My husband bought a bottle of "ZEMO"; the first application stopped the itching, and I began to improve; in six weeks and one day the disease had disappeared, and my arms were clean and smooth as my picture will show, before and after using "ZEMO." My arms were so bad some of my friends wanted me to have them taken off, but I would not agree. I am now entirely cured and have gained ten pounds in weight, and feel better than I have felt in many years. I consider my quick recovery by using "ZEMO" nothing short of a miracle. I will gladly answer all inquiries and recommend "ZEMO" to all persons suffering from any itching skin disease. Yours gratefully, Mrs. Harvey Burks.

Mr. Bryan's government ownership views have been received in the South with nearly as much dismay as the news of a slump in the cotton crop.

"A bird in the hand is worth two in the gubernatorial cage brush." We did not hear O. M. James say these words, but we are satisfied he thought them.

The voters of this country are waving the danger signal in front of the Bryan Government Ownership Express. John Sharp Williams is out on the track with a large sized red flag.

Mr. Hearst has laid aside his presidential aspirations for those of less moment. He would now like to be Governor of New York State. The noisy manner in which the people did not call for him probably helped him to decide.

The new Baptist church is rapidly assuming a financial form, and before many days will assume a physical shape. The pastor and members are more than gratified with the progress made thus far and hope to have all the sinews of war in definite shape now soon. For the many kind expressions and substantial helps they one and all say "thank you."

Mr. Bryan made some people believe in 1896 that free and unlimited coinage of silver was the only salvation for this country. In 1900 it was the paramount issue. In 1904 it was not paramount by any means, and in 1906 the trust stands just where free and unlimited coinage stood in 1896, with the government ownership of rail roads a close second. It takes close inspection to see the consistency in Mr. Bryan's argument as to just what this country depends upon for its salvation. But our latest observation does not lead us to believe it depends to any extent upon Mr. Bryan's election as president of the United States. Mr. Bryan admits now that circumstances which he could not foresee have done away with the necessity of free silver, and we predict that ere long he will discover something that has entirely eliminated the necessity of government ownership of railroads. Mr. Bryan says when he spoke in favor of government ownership of railroads he said just what he thought, gave every citizen the same right. The trouble with Mr. Bryan saying just what he thinks is that he most always says just what he thinks but he says it first and thinks it afterward. If Mr. Bryan would do his own saying and get some good sound man to do his thinking and do his saying after the other man thought, Mr. Bryan would certainly be a corker.

THE RECORD differs distinctly and is distinctively different from other papers in that all the news is found in its columns.

The subscription list of THE CRITTENDEN RECORD is growing at a very gratifying rate. The management is certainly well pleased and desires to make acknowledgements to the many new subscribers. We will endeavor to give all the county news and make this paper what we think it should be—a county paper full of county news.

The Japanese are certainly a wonderful people. The record established by them in the war with Russia is now to be outdone by them in their war for commercial supremacy.

The British are slowly but surely moving back in the far East. Sir Robert Hart has left China. The United States will not be in it selling goods against the Japanese in China.

There are probably very few RECORD readers who know how strictly up to date the Japanese are. Baron K. Takaki in a current number of the Scientific American says "In Korea and China flies are annoyingly numerous, and consequently a splendid means of carrying infectious diseases. We took special precautions to dispose of all refuse and succeeded in reducing the number of flies considerably. In order to guard against infection as much as possible, the soldiers were made to wash their hands before eating."

The drinking of boiled water and the eating only of cooked food made typhoid, dysentery, and cholera almost an impossibility. To be sure, we did lose men by disease, but in all human history there has never been a record like ours. We established a record of four deaths from bullets to one from disease. In the Spanish-American war fourteen men died of preventable sickness to one man killed on the field of battle." Is there another people on the earth that can make a record like that? Four from bullets to one from disease.

Our record one from bullets to fourteen from disease or four from bullets to fifty-six from disease. Ratio one to fifty-six in favor of the Jap.

Have You Sent Your Dollar?

We are anxious to have every Republican in close touch, and working in harmony with the Republican National Congressional Committee in favor of the election of a Republican Congress.

The Congressional campaign must be based on the administrative and legislative record of the party, and that being so, Theodore Roosevelt's personality must be a central figure and his achievements a central thought in the campaign.

We desire to maintain the work of this campaign with popular subscriptions of One Dollar each from Republicans. To each subscriber we will send the Republican National Campaign Text Book and all documents issued by the Committee.

Help us achieve a great victory. JAMES S. SHERMAN, Chairman. P. O. Box 2063, New York.

Another stingy bachelor has bobbed up. A cemetery lot was offered him at half price, but he refused it saying he did not know but what he might die at sea.

There is a certain bright young man of Marion who ought to be named "Pepsin." His bright remarks at the table promote levity which induces a convulsive side flapping which in turn promotes digestion.

The certain bright "pepsinic" young man of whom we have spoken before gave forth the other day a peptinoid dissertation winding up with the assertion that he "sweat when he worked and puffed when he paid."

Bob Haynes is kicking! He says that twenty years ago he looked forward to this time and made his calculations that he would retire; but all to no purpose for in the place of retiring he just got tired.

"Neither a borrower nor a lender be."—Shakespeare.

We loaned our saddle about a month ago. We have seen neither hide, hair, stirrup nor girth since. Encountering the young man on the highway we said "where is our saddle?" With the injured air of a child with its feelings hurt, he replied:

Not long ago a lady stated to one of the luminaries that guides the destinies of this mold of thought that:

"Your paper is much better. It seems to me it is quite an improvement over what it was a year or so ago. In fact it has improved so that I borrow it to read."

Now if that is not an unfortunate condition of affairs for a one-horse newspaper to be in we miss our guess. So unfortunate as to wonderfully strike a dividing media by which its readers condemning with faint praise decide that the paper is good enough to borrow but not good enough to buy. In the midst of these perplexing, conflicting and unusual conditions is it any wonder that hair deserts editorial domes of thought.

We will try from now on to not only make the RECORD buckle and tongue meet but to hit her up a notch or two and see if it is possible to get that good sister on the subscription list.

Elijah McCain lazily snoozed on the top of three empty beer cases in the rear ward of Main street. He leaned complacently back against six empty beer cases and day dreamed of the good stuff all nine had contained. The summer sun shone straight down and the summer heat danced before his eyes. Elijah could almost see the yellow sparkling fluid as it moved itself aright at an angle of about 53 degrees and oh! bliss!! his dulled ears could almost hear the pleasant gurgle—gurgle—as cool beer out of a cool wet bottle gently slid into a hot receptacle. These pleasant and other pleasant reflections engrossed his mind. The day was propitious. The hour was proper. The heat could not get through hat and other brain protection. All was serene. Elijah roused some flies as well as himself, gently sat up and took notice. There was a dry cotton taste in his mouth and an inviting interior but a few feet away.

He moved slowly off the boxes when he saw a sudden man with a black shirt shouted, "What you got to do with this?" Elijah was absolutely certain that he had absolutely nothing to do with it so he said, "For the Lord's sake man, nothing." Like the snuffing of a candle Elijah's light went out. He fell in a heap. There was a crash of glass, and stars shone out. In a few minutes he struggled to his feet and started to hunt for Mr. Cannan and when he found that worthy it was noted that the crease in the crown of his hat and his hat brim was filled with fine bits of glass. The weapon was an ordinary beer bottle and if it had been run over by a train it would not have been shattered into any greater number of fine pieces. Elijah says his head is not sore and he feels no ill effects of the fearful blow.

"A Labor Famine"

Our country is suffering from a "labor famine"—a famine not of a very bad sort. It is a most unusual famine, for the world has seldom seen one before.

It would not be deplorable if there were more of them, or if the present one should last a long time.

A few weeks ago the Southwest was calling for 100,000 men, and as the harvest moved northward the unsatisfied demand for labor followed it.

Though big wages were offered, men were not to be found for the fields.

Manufacturers, railroad contractors and public works departments are having the same troubles, not only in the Western and Central parts of the country, but even in slow-going New England.

Everywhere the demand is for more labor, and it is unanswered.

The vast flood of immigration, far surpassing that of former years, operate only as a drop in the empty bucket.

A dispatch from Pittsburgh says the railroads entering that city "are in sore straits for men." Advertisements have been appearing in the Chicago papers for men to fill the positions as conductors, brakemen, etc., at wages that once would have been very tempting. The age limit, established last year, and that excited such indignant opposition among workmen, has been raised by some lines and by others wiped out entirely.

Men under almost any conditions and at almost any price is the demand, and the men are not to be had.

That great American pest, the tramp, has completely disappeared. The man who is well and without work is rare and regarded by his neighbors with more or less suspicion. There is no excuse for an honest, healthy man to be idle.

This summer has had no "dull period."

Through all the hot season, when manufacture and trade usually suspend a little of their activities, while sizing up the business prospects of the coming year, there is no shutting down, but all the factories hum with life and the loaded freight train darts like a shuttle through the loom of trade.

Yet the present activity of the railroads may be regarded as a holiday work compared with that which will soon devolve upon them in moving the bountiful crops.

Is the condition really one of famine, or of harvest?

The labor of the land is reaping a rich crop of increase in wages.

Is it not the ideal condition which supplies every man with work at good pay?

The 8,000,000 individual depositors in the saving banks of this country last year, with their $3,250,000,000 deposits, will be greatly increased this year.

Such a "famine" as this is welcome. May it long stay with us!
