The Citizens Will Determine Whether Involuets Shall Be Sold in Crittenden County on the Above Date

REGISTRATION NOVEMBER TWENTIETH

CRITTENDEN COUNTY BAR NS BURNED

The Rane Burning Season is at Hand

CARE SHOULD BE TAKEN

A Residence and Livery Stable Taken to Be Sold Saturday Night and Tuesday Morning

FIRE AUTOMOBILE BURNS AT GESTER

Herold-Tyrell

At the residence of Mrs. W. C. Tyrell, Wheeling, W. Va., a fire Wednesday afternoon destroyed a valuable automobile, owned by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. (Chael) Tyrell of this city and valued at $3,000. Mrs. Tyrell is a former and other Mrs. W. C. Tyrell. The beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tyrell. In her room to her house after the fire happened on the wagon used by Mr. and Mrs. Tyrell.

Celebrated His Birthday

L. W. Harsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Harsh of this city, celebrated his birthday Thursday last, Oct. 29, in the hotel. The family and friends were present in large numbers.

METHIST DISBAND SCHOOL REPORT

Shore's Largest Sunday School in the County - A Splendid Showing.

Annual report of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School, Marion, Ky., Oct. 25, shows that the number of members during the past year was 1,760. There were 200 pupils of all ages, including 160 children under ten years of age. The school is conducted by Rev. J. W. Seay, superintendent, and Rev. J. C. Sparks, principal.

SPEAKS FOR SMOKELESS SALT

M. W. James Will Speak at Tobacco-Grasing Talk Saturday

He will be present on Saturday afternoon at the Coalton lecture room, where he will deliver a talk on the subject of "Smokeless Salt." He is the author of several books on the subject, and is well known as an authority on the subject.

HAROLD T. FITZ

The telephone operator at the Crittenden office, 1116 Kentucky Ave., was killed Thursday night by a car, which ran over him. He was a member of the family of the Crittenden recorder. The family is preparing to hold a memorial service in his memory.

Brownfield

J. J. Smith

The Evangelist, Helped in the Seventh Birthday Camp This Year

In the third of this month, passed through Marion, J. J. Smith will be called upon to meet the needs of the church. He has been a faithful servant of the church for many years, and has been a constant source of comfort and help to the congregation.

Brownfield

J. J. Smith

VOCAL廚房

Our school opened at small cost last Monday. The following is the list of our members:

Walter A. Boyer, 1st; Mabel E. Smith, 2nd; John E. Brown, 3rd; Mary A. Davis, 4th; Ruth E. Brown, 5th; Margaret A. Brown, 6th; William A. Smith, 7th; and Ethel A. Brown, 8th.

In addition to the direction of the school, the pupils are working in the kitchen.

Farewell Banquet and Angel Round Table

At the annual banquet of the Angel Round Table, held at thecrit, on Saturday evening, a large number of members and friends were present. The banquet was a great success, and was enjoyed by all.

Saturday night, the Angel Round Table held a farewell banquet at thecrit, in honor of Mr. W. C. Tyrell.

We wish all the members of the Angel Round Table success in all their future endeavors.

Brownfield

J. J. Smith

FARMS RECORD

The Rane Burning Season is at Hand

Two acres of tobacco were burned in the Rane district, Marion, Ky., this week. The fire is said to have been started by some boys who were playing with matches.

Brownfield

J. J. Smith

FIVE VEIN AT EIGHTEEN FEET

The Taber Mine Has a Nine Foot Vein of Spar

NEW STICKLE AT THE GRENABLE

Capitol Room of the Blackfriars Mine Has Shoe Down Eighty Feet - Will Cross Cut

MINING CONFIDENCE IN DRAFT TRACT

Capt. Charles B. Brown, the superintendent of the Blackfriars Mine, has made a trip to the mine this week. He reports that the mining is progressing well, and that the company is making good progress.

The Daily Miner has received a message from Capt. Brown, stating that the mine is now making a good start, and that he expects to have the mine in full operation soon.

The Daily Miner has also received a message from Capt. Brown, stating that the mining is progressing well, and that the company is making good progress.

The Daily Miner has received a message from Capt. Brown, stating that the mining is progressing well, and that the company is making good progress.

The Daily Miner has received a message from Capt. Brown, stating that the mining is progressing well, and that the company is making good progress.
LOCAL OPTION ELECTION TO BE HELD DECEMBER 7, 1906
The Citizens Will Determine Whether Intoxicants Shall Be Sold In Crittenden County on the Above Date

SPECIAL REGISTRATION NOVEMBER TWENTIETH

TWO TOBACCO BARNES BURNED

The Barn Burning Season is at Hand

CARE SHOULD BE TAKEN

A Residence and Library Stable Sold

Tobacco Barns Burned in Crittenden County

They will make their home in Tunnel

TWO HOUSES ON FIRE IN THE FLATTS

At this season many houses are being burned, some by careless smokers, and others by vandals. It is a very dangerous time of year.

NEEDS RECORDED

J. J. Smith

The eviction of Mr. J. J. Smith from his home in Tunnel.

Local Option Electric Officers

Sides is busy gathering the particulars of the necessary information for the start of the local option movement. The election is coming quickly.

THE RECOIL BUILDING

Speaks for Tobacco

The store of tobacco is to be moved to the new store.

SPEAKS FOR TOBACCO

RAIERS AT GUTHRIE

Ham. W. James Will Talk Tobacco

Tobacco Raisers at Guthrie

TWO BARKOOS BARNED AND SULLIVAN UP IN SUNDAY NIGHT AND TUESDAY MORNING

Tobacco barns burned in Crittenden County.

Tobacco Barns Burned in Crittenden County

Two tobacco barns burned in Crittenden County.

FINE VEIN AT EIGHTY FEET

The Tabor Mine Has a Nine Foot Vein of Spur

New Strike at the Glendale

Captain Myers, the Adairville mine, has found a new vein of spur at a depth of eighty feet, and is now working on it.

MINING CONFLICT IN TRACT 40

THE CRITTMEND RECORD

VOLUME 3

MARION, CRITTENDEN COUNTY, KY., SEPT. 21, 1906.

NUMBER 11.

NEW STRIKE AT THE GLendale

Captain Myers, the Adairville mine, has found a new vein of spur at a depth of eighty feet, and is now working on it.

THE CRITTMEND RECORD

VOLUME 3

MARION, CRITTENDEN COUNTY, KY., SEPT. 21, 1906.

NUMBER 11.
SOME REAL BARGAINS

We Offer This Property at the Specialily Low Price of $2,200

For a Limited Time We Offer
For Only $1,000

This Fine Farm is a Rare Bargain at Only $525

We offer This Land For $550

This Farm For Only $1,800

For the Present We Offer This Farm For $2,850

Get busy and call-on or write to Marion Real Estate & Investment Company.

ZED A. BENNETT,
Successor to Hughes & Hughes,
Agents for the Farm Department of the CONTINENTAL FIRE INSURANCE CO. for Gettysburg, Lancaster and York Counties.

Tornado Tips

No Locality is Exempt. Tornadoes Fear or Favor None. The number of destructive Wind Storms increases each year.

"We ain't going to have no Tornado." That's what the other fellow said. Now he's living in a tent. Don't Delay Today and Wish Tomorrow. The Wind Man Insures. The Fiehdman Does Not. ARE YOU WISE?

Secure reliable indemnity and peace of mind by insuring your property against loss by WIND in the agency of Geo. M. Crider & Co.

Special

Summer Tourist Rates to Hot Springs, Ark., and Return $15.00

Tickets in sale June 21 to September 20th, and good for travel any day before July 1st or after September 20th.

W. L. Vennel, Ag't.

Do You Doubt?

"The Newoot Nation's Powder the Last Word in Power for today. None equal in purchasing power so low. One package and you'll be convinced."

The Jameson Powder Co., W. C. Graham, Express, Indianapolis, Ind.

Nature Begins at the Root
Never at the Summit
Secrets which escape the alchemists of old have discovered and made use of is complicated.

Dr. O. A. Carlstedt's
German LiverPowder

For more than 15 years now the Dr. O. A. Carlstedt's German Liver Powder has cured a large number of cases of chronic diseases, being known as the purest, most powerful and most effective. It is the only medicine that can safely be given to children.

Dr. O. A. Carlstedt, 1628 M St., Washington, D. C.

Special Summer Tourist Rates to Hot Springs, Ark., and Return $15.00.

Tickets in sale June 21 to September 20th, and good for travel any day before July 1st or after September 20th.

W. L. Vennel, Ag't.
LITTLE RECORDER.
E. W. Parry, Editor.

Our Girls at Hayti and Tikal.

The little things that matter, the every day occurrences, the small bits of pleasure, or the small hurts and the sorrows. They say that this is the way of life, and in the small things we should find happiness. We should be content with what we have, and not desire what we cannot have. We should work hard, and not expect too much. We should be grateful for what we have, and not be envious of what others have. We should be kind to others, and not expect too much in return. We should be patient, and not expect immediate results. We should be humble, and not expect to be优越.

The little things that matter are the things that make life worth living. They are the things that give us hope, and that give us strength. They are the things that give us a sense of purpose, and that give us a sense of accomplishment. They are the things that give us a sense of belonging, and that give us a sense of community. They are the things that give us a sense of identity, and that give us a sense of purpose.

The little things that matter are the things that make us who we are. They are the things that shape our character, and that define our values. They are the things that make us unique, and that make us special. They are the things that make us human, and that make us real.

The little things that matter are the things that give us joy, and that give us peace. They are the things that give us comfort, and that give us solace. They are the things that give us happiness, and that give us contentment.

The little things that matter are the things that make us live. They are the things that give us life, and that give us energy. They are the things that give us vitality, and that give us strength.

The little things that matter are the things that make us love. They are the things that give us love, and that give us affection. They are the things that give us caring, and that give us compassion.

The little things that matter are the things that make us hope. They are the things that give us hope, and that give us optimism. They are the things that give us confidence, and that give us courage.

The little things that matter are the things that make us think. They are the things that give us thought, and that give us insight. They are the things that give us understanding, and that give us wisdom.

The little things that matter are the things that make us feel. They are the things that give us feel, and that give us emotion. They are the things that give us empathy, and that give us sympathy.

The little things that matter are the things that make us laugh. They are the things that give us laugh, and that give us amusement. They are the things that give us joy, and that give us pleasure.

The little things that matter are the things that make us cry. They are the things that give us cry, and that give us sorrow. They are the things that give us pain, and that give us hurt.

The little things that matter are the things that make us love. They are the things that give us love, and that give us affection. They are the things that give us caring, and that give us compassion.

The little things that matter are the things that make us hope. They are the things that give us hope, and that give us optimism. They are the things that give us confidence, and that give us courage.

The little things that matter are the things that make us think. They are the things that give us thought, and that give us insight. They are the things that give us understanding, and that give us wisdom.

The little things that matter are the things that make us feel. They are the things that give us feel, and that give us emotion. They are the things that give us empathy, and that give us sympathy.

The little things that matter are the things that make us laugh. They are the things that give us laugh, and that give us amusement. They are the things that give us joy, and that give us pleasure.

The little things that matter are the things that make us cry. They are the things that give us cry, and that give us sorrow. They are the things that give us pain, and that give us hurt.