LOUISVILLE CONFERENCE

In Session at Central City
Adjourned Monday

MANY CHANGES WERE MADE

Rev. J. H. McAllen Sent to Louisville
Presiding Elder Elgin New Pastor Marion Church

REV. LOVE RETURNED TO SHADY GROVE

The Louisville Conference, which
adjourned at Central City last week,
adjourned Monday with the following
changes in part of its week's work.

Heretofore there had been nine districts in this Conference, but the Bishop has enlarged the districts so that some of them have taken parts of others until there are only seven. Marion was formerly in the Princeton district, but the Hopkinsville district has taken in a portion of it, now the Marion church is in Hopkinsville district.
Rev. John W. Lewis is the presiding
elder of this district. Shady Grove, Carrsville, Smithland and Tolu are in the Henderson district with Rev. S. J.
Thompson as presiding elder.

The following churches will have as
their pastors:

Marion, Virgil Elgin,
Smithland, J. O. Smithson,
Shady Grove, R. C. Love,
Smithland Circuit, R. L. Tally, Carrsville, Robert Johnson,
Tolu, E. D. Boggers,
Tolu, W. H. Hunsicker.

The following are the appointments
of the preachers who have formerly
been pastors of the Marion church:

J. R. McAfee, West Broadway Louisville,
J. D. Fraser, Earlinton,
T. A. Randolph, Slaughter'sville,
E. A. Condit, Tharlow,
J. V. Joiner, Franklin,
J. S. Mitchell, Grand Rivers.

Two of Crittenden county's boys are members of Conference and have the following appointments:

Lenamon Junction, E. S. Moore,
Adairville, J. Henry Walker.

At nearly all the members of the Methodist church expected Rev. Mc-Allen to be returned, they were more
or less disappointed when the news
came that he had been sent to Louisville.
He has made a fine pastor and is a splendid preacher. He made many friends while here, who wish him all
the success possible wherever he may go.

While the members feel a disappointment, yet they are much pleased
at having Rev. Elgin to take Rev. Mc-Allen's place, which he can readily fill
as he is a fine man and a splendid preacher.

OVERSEERS ATTENTION

Call on Blue & Nunn and Get Pamphlet on Road Working

The following letter has been received by Blue & Nunn. It will explain
itself:

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 27, 1906.
Messrs. Blue & Nunn, Attns.
Gentlemen:—In reply to your letter
of September 26, 1906, I take pleasure
in sending to you by railroad mail today
fifty copies of the pamphlet entitled,
"How to Make Good Dirt Roads with Split Log Drag."
Yours truly,
J. M. DICKINSON.

Teachers Institute

The white teachers institute will convene October 15, and continue until Oct. 19. All who teach, or expect their certificate to be valid, or must attend the full session.

J. B. PARIS, Supt.

State Development Convention

The State Development Convention
will be held at Winchester, Ky., Oct.
10, 11 and 12. The best speakers this country affords will speak on Agricultural and commercial subjects.

Stallion-Jacobs.

Wednesday evening at the home of E. G. Travis in the presence of a few friends and relatives Lemmon Stallion
and Miss Lula Jacobs were united in the bonds of holy wedlocks. Rev. W.
T. Oakley officiating.

Soon after the happy couple were married they took their leave for the home of the groom where a hearty reception was awaiting them.

Mr. Stallion is a prosperous young farmer of the Crayneville vicinity
while Miss Jacobs is the pretty and accomplished daughter of Will Jacobs one of our citizens.

So they start upon their voyage of life
together. The sincere wish of the Record is that their voyage may be one of safety and happiness.

Delightful Entertainment

One of the most delightful entertainments of the season was given by Mr.
and Mrs. John W. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. George P. Roberts at their home
on North Main Street, last Thursday evening.

Punch, ices and cake were served.
The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. H. H.
Sayre, Mr. and Mrs. Oil Tucker, Misses
Emmie and Bertha Scott of Frankfort,
Kitty Gray, Ruby James, Blanche
Haase, Leatia Wilborn, Messrs. F. S.
Stilwell, Bruce Babb, Rob Cook, W. D.
Haid, W. M. Sanders, W. H. Clark,
and Henry Haynes.

Fiscal Court.

Fiscal court was in session this week
and the following is some of the work
done:

County road claims were allowed.
The county tax rate was fixed at 40
cents on the $100, Poll tax $1.50.
Railroad tax in Marion precincts were fixed at 20 cents on the $100. The price
to be paid for plow and team or sap-
per and team was fixed at $1.50 per day.

The court decided to build no large
bridges within the next year.
It also decided to select one man to look after all the public roads of the county.

Mining News.

Sanders Ore Separating Company
are making arrangements to increase their capacity at once. This plant has now passed the experimental stage and they are now thoroughly satisfied that
the district is amply able to furnish ore
for a mill of a very large capacity.

W. D. Wallingford still asserts that his farm located East of Marion contains all the minerals to which mother
earth is heir. The following analysis
was received by him several days ago
and shows metallic cobalt worth about

Young Lady Dies

Miss Zoah James, daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. Aaron James died at the home of her parents, Friday September 28, 1906.

She had been sick three weeks with typhoid fever. The funeral services were held at Dunn Springs, Saturday,
conducted by Rev. Ben Andres.

PASSED TO THE GREAT BEYOND

Mrs. Sarah A. Carnahan Died
Wednesday Morning

HAD BEEN SICK SOME TIME

Carnahan and a Citizen of Marion for Many Years

INTERMENT AT THE NEW CEMETERY

Mrs. Sarah Anne Carnahan, wife of the late W. C. Carnahan, and mother of W. G. Carnahan and Mrs. Frank Wheeler, died Wednesday morning
October 3rd after an illness of several months.

Sarah Anne Hammond was born in Caldwell county May 18th, 1827, and moved to this county fifty seven years ago, since which time she has resided here.

She was married in 1849 to W. C.
Carnahan, whom she survived several years.

Mrs. Carnahan was a noble woman,
loved and respected by all who knew her.

She had been failing in health for several years and for the past few months has been confined to her bed.

She is survived by two children, Mr.
W. G. Carnahan, and Mrs. Minerva Cruce and Mrs. Mary Kinsey and one brother, Mr. G. G. Hammond.

The funeral took place at the new cemetery Thursday morning at ten o'clock and was conducted by Rev. J.
F. Price.

Election Officers Are Changed

Last week the Board of Election
Commissioners made a few changes
among the officers of election. In Marion precinct number two Mr. J. G.
Gilbert, a judge, was removed and Will
C. Elder appointed. In Marion number three Mr. A. A. Deboe, a clerk,
was removed and W. K. Powell appointed.

In Tolu number ten Mr. Green B.
Crawford, a clerk, was removed and Phineas B. Croft was appointed.

We understand these removals were made at the request of the first appointees.

WILL MOVE TO LEITCHFIELD

Thomas Cook Embarks In the Insurance Business

Mr. Thomas Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Cook, of Marion, has bought a fire insurance agency at Leitchfield, Ky., consisting of five companies and will remove there at an early date.

Mr. Tom Cook was in the insurance business in Marion for several years
and is well known to our readers.

Welcomes the Challenge

The prosperous Democratic merchant, farmer and manufacturer is not making any demand for tariff revision.
The cry of the Democratic politician
and office-seeker for tariff revision is swelled with the cry of those who want the tariff changed to benefit
their locality or their special interests,
at the expense of the rest of those interested throughout the country. The
G. O. P. welcomes the old tariff challenge of the Democracy, at any time.

Conditions are ripe, very ripe for a great Republican triumph on that is-
sue. The people need no object lesson to cause them to appreciate the Protective Tariff. The great majority of business men of this country—the merchants, manufacturers, farmers and
workmen—who experienced the panic times of 1892 to 1896, under Mr.
Cleveland and the Wilson-Gorman law,
are still living, and that memory remains with them fresh and vivid.—

Not So Bad as Reported

There has been quite a number of lives lost and about $3,000,000 worth of property destroyed by the floods in southern Alabama. It was first reported that Mobile was entirely destroyed
but later news states that it is only partially destroyed. Much anxiety was felt for the Marion boys, Ernest Molton, Heywood Williams, Karl Trisler and Curtis Asher, who are working there. We have heard recently that they are all safe.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Crider living at Bloom, Miss., are also unhurt. The storm was not so terrible there as at Mobile.

Registration Day

Last Tuesday was registration day.
All those who expect to vote at the next election will be expected to produce their certificate given on the day
above mentioned.

The registration in Marion was very light.

Marion No.	1	Dem.	20	Rep.	50.
"	2	"	25	"	37.
"	3	"	27	"	24.
"	4	"	28	"	15.
"	5	"	27	"	31.

Registration in the other towns in the county was very light also—scarcely
any interest being manifested.

Painful Accident.

Tuesday, of this week, Uncle Jack Alexander while loading logs on a flat
car near the Marion Milling Co's plant
in an effort to push a log in position
with a crow bar, slipped, falling off
the car across the end of a tie projecting from the track, breaking his left
hip. Nothing serious arose from the fall until Wednesday when medical aid
was called in and it was discovered
that the hip was broken.

fire. A few minutes more and he would have been too late.

Prosperity's Shortage

Probably no such widespread shortage was ever known in the United States as may now be found.

The agricultural interests of the country have been experiencing a great shortage of help and the total supply of farmhands is far below the demand.

Many of the great manufacturing concerns, notable in some of the steel
and iron districts are handicapped by a shortage of labor.

The railroads are embarrassed by a shortage of cars, and the facilities for
the prompt moving of the great crops
are strikingly inadequate.

The money market is suffering from
a shortage of funds with which to conduct the tremendous commerce of the country.

These various shortages, which are
all pronounced and which might be supplemented by others, are born of the abounding prosperity which the United States is experiencing in this record-breaking year. The volume of agencies and of accommodations to handle the business which this country is now transacting from day to day is enormous.—

FARMERS INSTITUTE

Will Convene in Marion Next Monday and Tuesday

FARMERS URGED TO ATTEND

Thos. Barrett of the Henderson Tobacco Strippers Association will be present

AND ADDRESS THE ASSOCIATION

The Farmers Institute will be held in Marion, Monday and Tuesday, October
8 and 9, 1906, by the State Department of Agriculture.

Several experienced lecturers will be present and discuss subjects of interest to every farmer and stock raiser
in this county.

Thomas Barrett, General Manager of
the Henderson Tobacco Strippers Association, will be present Monday and address the tobacco growers. He will be very glad, indeed, to have the pleasure
of talking to the farmers of this county
and every farmer in the county should avail himself of this opportunity and make a special effort to attend.

The Institute will meet at Salem,
Livingston county, Wednesday and Thursday, October 10-11.

DARK TOBACCO MEN DO WELL

Dark Tobacco Planters Protective Association Sells Entire Crop

Word has just come from Nashville,
Tenn., as the Record goes to press,
that Mr. F. G. Ewing, general manager of the Dark Tobacco Planters Protective Association, has sold to a representative of the Italian government
every hoghead of tobacco that the association owned and which is suitable for the sunny land of Italy.

The basis of this trade is $10.85 per hundred.

It is certainly a great victory for tobacco planters and this sale ought to make the price of tobacco in Crittenden
county look up.

Horse Sense

If you work for a man, in Heaven's name, work for him. If he pays you
the wages which supply you with bread and butter work for him, speak
well of him, think well of him, stand
by him and his institution.

I think if I should be employed by a man I would work for him, not a part of the time, but all of his time.

Don't be afraid you will get to work
ahead of time, or that you will work
a few minutes overtime.

Don't be afraid that you will be a little polite or accommodating.

Do not want to have your own way
of doing anything, but always do as told, whether you think it right or not.
Then you will never be in the wrong.
See if you cannot find something to do without having to be told of it. Do not always wait until you are told to do a thing, then get mad because you are told.

Do not put in too much of your employer's time watching the clock to see when it is quitting time. Give an individual service or none. If put to a pinch an ounce of loyalty is worth
a pound of cleverness.

If you must vilify, condemn and eternally disparage, why resign, and then
when you are outside dam to your heart's content, but I pray you, so long as you are a part of an institution,
do not condemn it. Not that you will injure the institution, no not that, but when you disparage the concern of which you are a part, you disparage
yourself. 'I forget' are two words
that will never do in business.—Ex.

Language of Umbrellas

There is a language of umbrellas as of flowers. For instance, place your umbrella in a rack, and it will often
indicate that it will change owners.

To open it quickly in the street
means that somebody's eye is going to be in danger.

To shut it quickly signifies that a hat or two will probably be knocked off.

An umbrella carried over a woman,
the man getting nothing but the drip-
ping of the rain, signifies courtship.

When a man has the umbrella and
the woman the drippings, it indicates marriage.

To swing your umbrella over your shoulder signifies, 'I am making a nuisance of myself.'

To put an alpenstock umbrella by the side of a stick one signifies 'Exchange
is no robbery.'

To lend an umbrella indicates 'I am
a fool.'

To return an umbrella means—well
never mind what it means; nobody ever does that.—Spare Moments.

AMONG OUR CHURCHES

The subject of the sermon at the Presbyterian church last Sunday was
"The Divinity of Christ." The text was John 14, 11. "Believe in me for the very works sake." The substance of the remarks of the speaker was to prove the divinity of Christ from the Biblical and modern history. This doctrine is not accepted by some men for two reasons. In the first place because it cannot be committed to human intelligence, and in the next place because of their prejudice against it.

This is given to man not to be understood but to be believed. Christ is the pivot of history, all events of man are dated in relation to Christ's birth. It is either B. C. or A. D. before or after Christ. He was a prophet who foretold events which occurred as he predicted them. He performed many wonderful miracles, which could be done only by the divine power which Christ possessed. These are a few of the many proofs that may be given
from Gospel history that Christ is divine. When we observe the influence of Christianity upon the nations since

he has ascended into heaven we must confess that his power is still exerted
over the people of the world and that he is divine. It is interesting to note
the position of women in Christian countries as compared to their sisters
in heathen lands. Woman is respected only in those countries where the Gospel of Christ is taught and where the influence of the Man of Galilee is felt.

When the power of Christ is seen as it
regenerates the heart of man, and he begins to love the things he used to hate
and hate the things he used to love; we must acknowledge that Christ has worked a miracle in this day. The progress of science, and especially that
of medicine, is observed as being better under the reign of Christ than under the power of other great religious leaders, whose influence is felt in other countries. All of those things go to demonstrate the great fact that Christ
still lives and that he still works wonders among men. These facts when observed in their true light will prove conclusively to the mind that Jesus Christ is divine.

Rev. M. E. Miller, of Fredonia, filled
the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday morning. His text was Hebrews 7-25, "Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost, that come
unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth
to make intercession for them." The text was divided into three thoughts:
1. Jesus, Himself, is the only true and living way to God. 2. He is able to save them. 3. The intercession is never failing. Mr. Miller is an earnest
young man and preached a splendid sermon.

Rev. L. O. Spencer, of Elizabethtown, Ky., will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday. It will be remembered that Rev. Spencer organized this church and it will be a pleasure for him to meet all of his old friends.
Come out and hear him, it will do you good.

Rev. J. H. Butler preached at the Baptist church Sunday evening. His text was Romans 10-1, "Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they might be saved." The sermon was an excellent one and listened to by a large congregation.

There was no services at the Presbyterian church last Sunday night, the pastor was called away to conduct the funeral services of Mrs. Ford.

The Ladies Aid Society, of the Presbyterian church, will meet at the home of Mrs. Miller.

PINEY FORK LISTENS TO GREAT SERMON

The Rev. J. L. Hudgins Preaches to a Large and Attentive Audience

Wednesday of the meeting at Piney Fork, the Rev. J. L. Hudgins, of Union City, Tennessee, delivered the following sermon to a throng of earnest and appreciative listeners.

"The Church of the living God."

There is perhaps not a more comprehensive expression in all the Bible than our text. The Church does not mean a company of people who admire Jesus Christ, the son of God, and who have formed themselves into an association for the mere purpose of suscitating his life, great as that life was.

The religion of Jesus Christ is not a matter of imitation, for that belongs to the actor, it is a force, a power, a life.

The Church is the whole number of new-born souls who deriving their life from Christ are related to him and to each other because of that life. Each is united to Christ the common center, of the Church, and being united to each other, through Him, there exists that unity for which the Master prayed.

The Church is the whole company of believers in Christ who have been linked on to his life by the miracle of creation which we call the new life, and that man is a member of the great invisible Church of God, who has been born from above and that man who has been received into external church fellowship, is not a real member of the church, unless he has been baptized into life by the Holy Ghost. It is remarkable, but true, that Jesus Christ made but two references to a visible organization that we call the Church: Once when he said to Peter "On this rock etc.," and once when admonishing as to how a disorderly brother should be treated. His thoughts naturally concerned the kingdom which He came to establish—the great spiritual family of God into which men were to be born.

But with the Apostles the most serious question was as to how they might aid in carrying out the sublime purpose of Jesus Christ, and to them the visible church became an object of great concern.

With Jesus the thought was of what is to be done, while with the Apostles it was of how it is to be done.

In a sense the church is the continued incarnation of Jesus Christ, the hands used by him in accomplishing His great designs, which are spiritual. In doing Christ's work the Church has inspired the erection and maintenance of schools, hospitals, asylums and a thousand forms of charitable work and has corrected every evil that has ever been corrected among men, "pillar and ground of the truth."

The truth of the gospel has been recognized by some other organizations but it finds its most congenial home and most careful nurture in the Church.

She flashes the gospel light out over the dark sea of human sinfulness and teaches the great cardinal doctrine of Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man and the essential spiritual nature of religion.

I wish to trace antecedent history down to the organization of the first presbytery of our church.

To the casual observer and ordinary reader of history the whole of what we call Providence seems to be a chaos of incidents without system first one and then the other nation has become the center of light and civilization, until now every continent bears the proud distinction of having at one time been "the light of the world," with but one exception.

But history is not chaotic. Just as God purifies the water of the ocean by means of waves caused by the motion of the earth, then lifts it in fog and sends it out over the land to wash impurities from the air, so he deals with churches and nations.

History when rightly regarded is but a record of the events of Providence and he who would get most out of it, must read it with his eye fixed constantly upon the hand of God, and he will then see it put on the appearance of system and form, as if animated by one great soul.

Providence is like a great unfathomable sea, which none but the eye of God can penetrate and none but infinit wisdom scan. It has its ebbs and flows, its calms and tempests, its elevations and depressions. At one time we ride high on the swelling bosom of peace and prosperity and the sunbeams of joy and gladness glisten everywhere. But, suddenly the tide sets back upon us and we are tossed upon the crested billows of disappointment or lie struggling in the trough between the waves of doubt.

It often happens that the event of thing that seems to us of but little importance, is often over-ruled of God and made the beginning of great issues. It seems but a small thing that a young man, whose name was Abram, the son of Terah, should leave his Chaldean home, when his mother wiped the tears from her eyes and his father cleared up his throat—it was all over. But God laid his hand on him and Abram became the beginning force in the most remarkable series of events in the world's history.

His going out was the preliminary step to the founding of the Jewish commonwealth and the organization of the first church of the living God. Gen. 17th Chapter.

It seems but a little thing that a youth whose name was Joseph was sold into Egyptian slavery. But God overruled that act for good and caused it to lead to the transfer of His Church organized by Abraham and planted it on the banks of the Nile in Egypt.

It was but a small thing that a good Hebrew mother, driven by the threat of a monarch in Egypt, should hide her babe in the same old river, Nile. But God overruled that and out of it He raised up Moses who was to lead the church out of Egypt and up into Canaan.

It was but a small thing that a young woman, of Noah, should cling to her mother-in-law and go with her up into Judah. But God's hand rested upon Ruth and made her the head of the most illustrious line of Kings the world has ever known including David, the sweet singer, and Solomon, the wise, and ending in the King of Kings, the Prince of peace, the worlds Savior Jesus Christ.

It was but a small thing that an officer of the Roman court should start to Damascus on official business. But God overruled the purpose of man and made of that officer Paul, the great Apostle to the Gentile world, who heard the cry of Macedonia and preached to our Anglo-saxon fathers.

It was but a small thing that a poor freckled faced, red headed, German student should look at a book in a university library. But God laid His hand on that boy and he became Martin Luther, who led the Reformation of the sixteenth century and broke the organic oneness of the church into a thousand fragments to the glory of God and good of mankind.

One result of the Reformation led by Martin Luther in the sixteenth century was the restoration of the eldership, the immediate representation of the people to its proper place and rights, in the councils of the church, a thing which Rome had not allowed. Out of this came the Presbyterian or reformed Church.

It was a small thing that three young men, Presbyterian Ministers, should have been expelled from the church by Kentucky Synod, because they preached a "whosoever gospel." But God's Providence again overruled and as a result, not only a new denomination came into existence, but a new system of truth, a new medium between Calvinism and Arminianism was brought to the light. Whatever modifications have been made in Calvinistic or Arminian system within recent years, has been the result of the theological position of The Cumberland Presbyterian Church—"The church of the living God," as I believe, or a part of that church. Her influence has been that of a sister.

Thoughts Suggested By Experience

During my vacation I have been studying school questions. I have read of many school problems, but one finds new ones when dealing with living things. You may search all libraries in the state and not find many of the problems, even mentioned, that the county superintendent of our county must face. I am being taught, daily, new things, down on the farm.

The free advice I have received has been interesting to me, a school boy. On almost every corner I hear: "Have you not gone to school long enough? Do you not think it best for you to quit teaching and going to school and rest your eyes?" A few of the brethren have suggested that attending school was a business that did not pay.

Why should I for one moment consider the question of pay? The American people have lost sight of everything for the dollar. I am told I can take nothing with me when I leave this world. Education means development. Getting knowledge is grasping new truths. The purpose of education is complete living. I am sure I have not yet learned how to care for my body or mind. I doubt seriously my ability to act the part of a citizen. But education does pay.

A minister of the gospel, a leader of the people, suggested to me that I knew enough to teach school and that I "could learn the little fellows a whole lot." The thought itself needs no comment. I sincerely hope that some one will be able to teach this young man, a leader of the people, that he knows nothing.

But why should I mention these things? The truth is that the sentiment in favor of a four year's university course is not very strong. The sentiment in favor of high school training is also weak and on the decline. But few of the young people desire an education.

I am surprised how little our people know of the state college of Kentucky. Many of our young people know absolutely nothing of it. It is yours, why not use it? If the boy is to spend his life in Kentucky he should at least have a desire to attend this school.

While making a talk recently before a body of Sunday school workers I stated that the public school teacher's influence for good was greater than the Sunday school teacher. I am surprised that any man would deny this statement, but the school boy had another very shocking experience. I was forced to defend my position. The Sunday school teacher has the boy in charge only one-half of an hour each week. The boy is in the public school at least thirty hours each week. If I be both a Sunday school and a public school teacher what sort of conditions must I be under that I cannot do more good in thirty hours than in one-half of an hour? Have we a God who aids mankind only on Sunday?

But the experience teaches me far more than this. When the speaker criticised my remarks it met with a hearty approval of some of the people who were present. This shows to me that some of our people do not see the real value of our public schools.

What might I say concerning the value of our schools would do but little, or no good. Our people feel that they have had too much theory. The teacher must teach such a school that the people may see the real value of a school properly conducted.

My experience teaches me something more. The sons and daughters of the parents who cheered the speaker have never come in contact with a real live teacher, one who was filled with enthusiasm and knew his subjects. I am not simply finding fault that I may quarrel with anyone. Life is too short and human nature too prone to sorrow for me to quarrel. I am only a student of the question.

One of our great political leaders seems to pity the American people for not adopting his theories of government. I realize that it is natural for a college student to look upon his people with pity when they do not see things as he sees them. I have guarded against this. I may be wrong. I have not forgotten that I am only a schoolboy. Knowledge that makes the life more humble and more sympathetic is education; otherwise it is only scholarship. I shall be honest with you. I do pity any mother's son or daughter who has never come in contact with a live teacher. Such a teacher can make most boys strive to overcome difficulties and be satisfied with slow but sure progress. He can reach and conquer many a hard heart. He may save the life of your boy.

One year ago I thought I could suggest a plan that would solve or aid in solving some of our school problems. I frankly admit that I do not know. The teacher's salary is so small that when all expenses are paid I fail to see how she will be able to attend any normal a sufficient length of time to do her much good. This does not mend the matter one particle, she should attend school. Many of the districts are small and the country thinly settled that I am again at sea to know how to make improvements.

Only a few more days and I shall enter the Indiana State University. My studies will demand all my time. I leave the question with you.

An Animal Story For Little Folks

The Striped Leopard

"What an ugly creature you are!" said the circus tiger one day to the zebra, who was trotting around outside of the leopard's cage.

"I am sorry to hear you say that," declared the zebra.

"And I say it only as a friend and for your own good," asserted the leopard. "I do not want you to become so

"DO MY EYES DECEIVE ME?"

vain as to imagine that you are good looking. That would only cause people to make fun of you."

"Well," said the zebra, "I never thought I was absolutely pretty, but I did have an idea that I was not real bad looking."

"Oh, you are, though," continued the leopard. "Those horrid stripes with which you are covered are enough to make all the other animals turn from you with disgust. Stripes are not becoming to you. In fact, I might say that they are not becoming to any one. How do you suppose I would look in stripes? A perfect fright, I am sure."

"And isn't that curious?" said the zebra.

"Isn't what curious?" asked the leopard.

"Why, I always thought your stripes were perfectly lovely," answered the zebra.

"My stripes!" exclaimed the leopard in astonishment. "Why, what do you mean? I have no stripes."

"Do my eyes deceive me?" cried the zebra. "You seem to have stripes."

"Indeed I have not," declared the leopard. "What you see are the bars of my cage."

"Mercy me," said the zebra, "that is too bad! After all, I believe it is better to have these stripes of mine than your cage stripes." And he winked his left eye and trotted off to have a talk with the bearded lady in the side show.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

An Animal Story For Little Folks

THE PIGS AND THE BUTTERMILK

There was once an old pig who had five young ones. Every day she went to the farmer's to get a jug of buttermilk, and she told her children to bar the door and keep it barred while she was gone.

"When I come back I'll pour a little of the buttermilk under the door edge,

"LET ME IN, CHILDREN."

and you may know me by that," she said. "Don't open the door, for life's sake, till you see the buttermilk coming under."

One day when the old pig was gone, as usual, a wolf came to the door. "Let me in, children," he whined in as close an imitation of the old pig's voice as he could manage.

"No, indeed. You're not our mother. We have a sign that we know our mother by," answered the oldest pig.

"Well, tell me what that sign is," teased the wolf.

"Indeed, and we'll not tell you," said the second pig.

Just then the old pig came up with her jug of buttermilk, and the wolf, now thoroughly enraged, turned on her to fight her. "Let me in, children," she screamed, but the fourth little pig squealed, "We want to see the sign first!"

It would have gone hard with the old pig then if in her struggles she had not kicked over the jug of buttermilk. As it ran under the door the fifth little pig let the bar down, his mother rolled in away from the wolf's cruel jaws, and all five of the little fellows helped to bar the door.—Worcester Post.

Biliousness

That sallow, yellow look, those terrible headaches, that dulled brain; all these things spell biliousness, which is the direct result of a liver which fails to perform its functions in a natural way. Before you can destroy that bilious condition you must get your liver in form and nothing will accomplish this so quickly or so thoroughly as

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

This remedy is the most valuable one obtainable for all liver and kindred troubles, possessing properties which drive it directly to the affected parts.

Better than pills, oils, salts and nauseous purgatives which aggravate conditions and leave the sufferer in worse condition than before.

Former afflicted ones, now well and strong, pay eloquent tribute to its efficacy and power.

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN can be obtained in both dollar and half-dollar sizes from all druggists.

Your money will be refunded if it does not benefit you.

Your postal card request will bring by return mail our new booklet, "DR. CALDWELL'S BOOK OF WONDERS" and free sample to those who have never tried this wonderful remedy. Write for it today.

WM. I. M'CONNELL

HOSPITAL PHYSICIANS SAID:
"IT WOULD DELIGHT US TO FIND SOMETHING TO CURE THIS DEAR OLD SUFFERER."

MR. E. W. ROSE, St. Louis, Mo. RICHMOND, IND., Nov. 26, 1905.

DEAR SIR: The charity patient in whom I am so much interested was seventy-five years old at the time that she began the use of "Zemo," and her weight was 150 lbs. Her health has been poor for some time past, suffering mainly from spinal trouble, according to the diagnosis of the doctors in attendance. She has been a hard worker all her life, having made the living for her family keeping boarders. Somewhat over a year ago eczema began to trouble her. It gradually grew worse and worse until her entire body was affected, the legs being a mass of sores constantly separating. The itching and burning sensation was so dreadful at times that it was impossible for her to sleep day or night. The doctors (two of our best) pronounced the case incurable, and when I asked permission to use "Zemo" promptly said, "It would delight us to find something to cure this dear old sufferer." "Zemo" was first used on the upper part of the body and soon relieved the patient of the terrible distress caused by the itching and burning. The doctors had been dressing the legs every day, but as soon as they saw the wonderful change in the skin where "Zemo" had been used, they gave consent to have it used on the legs. Gradually they began to improve and are now almost as smooth as the face. It was probably about a month before much relief was experienced in this part of the body, then skin scaled off, itching, burning and aching gradually ceased. It seems now as if a testimonial might be given, but the patient thinks that she had better use "Zemo" a few weeks longer before saying that she is cured. However, she is very grateful to all who have been instrumental in securing your wonderful remedy and thinks that it has a great future before it.

Respectfully,
(MRS.) MARY PERRY BELLIS, Nurse in Hospital,

This week for rain, cold, coughs, blue noses and various sniffings. Next week we hope for sunshine.

We lose McAfee and gain Bro. Elgin. He is always on time and his motto is: "watch and pray."

By glancing in the front window of the sanctum sanctorum you will at once come to the conclusion that the RECORD is "some punkins."

And now the society girl discards a mosquito bar netting over a muslin waist band we say goodbye to the whole peck-a-boo outfit.

The Conference was presided over by Bishop Hendrix. He is well remembered by Marion people and is one of the most popular churchmen of the Southern M. E. church.

The Methodist Conference just adjourned at Central City was a wonderful showing of the work of the church within her bounds. Church work is a matter of business as much as any of our temporal affairs. Lawyer R. Y. Thomas made the hit of the occasion in his welcome address. It was pronounced by all a very appropriate effort.

"Off again, on again, gone again Flanagan." A man with a shortened leg walks flopper sided. Every other week the CRITTENDEN RECORD has been short on help and its publication in those weeks has been under great stress. We want another printer. If you see one send him around. We don't wish to subject the dignity of our foreman to such unequal strains.

Some people think only of stocks and bonds or money in bank or funds invested in business enterprises when the word capital is mentioned. Capital is more than these things.

Red blood is capital.
Ability is capital.
Ambition is capital.
Energy is capital.

If the boy of today has these things he has capital.

Big Pumpkins.

We are at this time in possession of two pumpkins, presented to us by Mrs. J. Frank Conger, weighing 80 and 95 pounds each. She also stated that up on the same vine that these grew there were 5 others not so big but that the seven weighed four hundred pounds all growing on the same vine and that two coming up from seed dropped there some time in the winter or spring.

We extend thanks to Mrs. Conger and at the same time congratulate her on raising such large pumpkins.

BITS BY BYPLAY.

Once upon a time three citizens of Marion settled an election dispute by the purchase and drinking of a bottle of "wealthy water." To the uninitiated we interpret "wealthy water" as champagne. It tingled in the finger tips. 'Twas the first and the last. Alpha and Omega. The beginning and the end.

Brother John S. Henry, of this town, was complaining the other day of his manifold and arduous duties. He stated that he was chairman, secretary and treasurer of the Missionary Board of the Ohio River Association which handles about $1800 per year. He also is agent for four fire insurance companies. He has pastoral charge of four churches requiring his strict attention and that to reach them he has to swing around a circle of about sixty miles. He is bald headed, has seven children and his feet are too small. This last would appear to be a joke to the average reader, but to Bro. Henry it is a serious and perplexing annoyance. For his size and weight he should wear a number nine shoe. He wears, if we mistake not, a number five, and his locomotion is thereby seriously impeded. Brother Henry is a fine man and a good preacher. He believes in wearing out and not tusting out.

A little town boy of four or five wanted a croquet set and wanted it bad. He wanted it so bad he could hardly eat or sleep. His mother listened to his tale of woe and referred him to the sterner parent. In order that he might have a fair show he planned to walk up town with papa and argue the case while on foot. It is said that motion sharpens the wits. After the case was made up and the argument all in he returned home and his mother ask him what success. With a long face and a sorrowful shake of the head he replied: "Mamma, papa would not take my advice."

Everyone has heard the story of Thompson's colt. It has been told and retold since we were all little children. The story goes that Thompson's colt was such a big fool that it swam the river to get a drink of water out of the river and then swam back. Now comes the story of Buck's colt. Buck's colt lay all night with his tail in the river and then ran twenty miles the next morning to get a drink.

The habitants of the Metz and Sedberry barber shop were astounded the other day by such display of hosiery as had not been seen for a long time. Some one made innocent inquiry of the proprietors as to why they had removed the poles from the street and brought them in the shop. The solution—Ray Duvall had a new pair of socks.

Marion boasts of one man who can name every county in Kentucky and give the county seat. His name is Robert F. Haynes the druggist. If there is another one can do the same let them speak up. Mr. Haynes' memory is something wonderful, not long ago Mr. Charles Young, of Memphis, Tenn., who was a cousin of Mr. Haynes' father suddenly appeared before him in Haynes & Taylor's drug store. Bob had not seen him before for 35 years; 35 less than a minute he called him by his name and told him where he saw him last and when. Mr. Young was on his way to Carville to visit his niece.

Cam Wallace, the life insurance agent, is a very dignified and distinguished looking individual. Not long ago he was in Princeton and was introduced to a personage with a very limited literary knowledge. "Wallace? Did you say your name was Wallace? Oh yes! did you write Ben Hur?" You can't fease a life insurance agent at all. "No," Cam replied, "I haven't written him yet. I will get his application this afternoon. He said he wanted a policy in the Massachusetts Mutual."

We are informed by Mr. P. H. Deboe, a former citizen of this city who recently moved from here to Beebe, Ark., and we believe a truthful gentleman, that when he came from Beebe, as he has recently returned to Marion, that persimmons grow as big as goose eggs and pumpkins as big as salt barrels. He also stated that one family there used a pumpkin rine for a flour barrel. Now this goes without telling that things grow too large in Arkansas for Mr. Deboe he therefore returns to his "Old Kentucky Home."

Marion School Sparks

BY SALLIE ALLEY

Our school opened Monday, September 17th, with all teachers in place and with 370 pupils enrolled. They are distributed among the grades as follows:

First grade 76.
Second grade 49.
Third grade 40.
Fourth grade 44.
Fifth grade 38.
Sixth grade 38.
Seventh grade 23.
Eighth grade 41.

The high school has enrolled about 25 students.

While our school opened with eight teachers, it now boasts of nine. Overcrowding has always been considered a "necessary evil," but this year our energetic principal has induced the "school fathers" to see as we have always seen, that another would be a blessing, not only to overworked teachers but to the pupils of the school.

The new teacher is Miss Lillie Cook, whose efficiency is too well known to need comment. She takes charge of the sixth grade, formerly under Miss Florence Harris, who also taught the fifth grade.

The other teachers are Victor G. Kee, Principal.

Miss Margaret Moore, Eighth grade.
Miss Frances Gray, Seventh grade.
Miss Ethel Hard, Fourth grade.
Miss Carolyn Harris, Third grade.
Miss Lena Woods, Second grade.
Mrs. Fannie Walker, First grade.
The music is under the charge of Miss Sally Woods.

Why don't the directors get busy and trim the bodies of the trees in the school yard? They make a very ragged appearance and incidentally produce very little shade.

Miss Margaret Moore, the other day, marched a young gentleman into the presence of Herr Professor. That was the Key to the situation. What happened after the Kee turned a key in the door deponent sayeth not.

Since "spooners corner" in the upper hall has been cleaned out by Prof. Kee some of our students (?) look very much out of place.

In Miss Hard's fourth grade last week they were discussing the germ theory. Said the teacher, "meat should be thoroughly cooked, not only to make it digestible, but to kill the germs in it." Back in a corner of the room a small hand with a mourning border on each finger tip was suddenly raised and the owner almost fell out of the seat in the excitement of a new discovery. "Miss Ethel, I've heard 'em!" "Heard them?" said the puzzled teacher. "Yes'm! When you're frying meat, ain't it the germs you hear just a poppin' and sizzlin' in the pan while they're dying?"

Various are the mistakes of youth. A little school girl was returning home with an older sister and was attempting to give an account of what she had learned that day at school. "We learned two songs," she said. "They were so funny. One was 'My Old Tucking Comb,' and the other was 'The Old Socks in Foam.'" The sister investigated and found that the songs were "My Old Kentucky Home" and "The Old Folks at Home."

After the close of the second days work at school the following verses were found written on a soiled scrap of paper. They were found under a seat in the seventh grade room.

Marion school is booming!
Just a booming! booming!
It's always been booming!
But now it's booming Moore.
Its Harris and its Gray
Come see us any day,
Hurrah! Our school booming,
And sure to boom some Moore.

It's got the biggest Kee,
That's ever yet been seen.
It's got the smallest Woods,
That's ever yet been dreamed.
It's got a working Walker,
And a "really truly" Cook;
And if you don't believe it,
Why you can come and look!

With all these attractions
Our school is hard to beat;
Is it any wonder
That I should now repeat?
Marion school is booming!
Just a booming, booming!
It's always been booming,
But now its booming Moore!

The new librarian is Miss Fenwick Wathen, and she certainly possesses all the virtues a good librarian should possess.

The new music teacher is Miss Sally Woods, than whom no better could be found. You may not know she is my namesake, having been named after me.

And now cast your eye over the above arrays of talent from principal to librarian and music teacher, and if you are a pupil be glad and buckle on your armor. If you are not a pupil but a young citizen of Marion, be ashamed and come to school. If you are a young person and not a citizen of Marion be up and doing and write Professor Kee for terms.

EDUCATIONAL COLUMN

J. R. PARIS, Editor.

The Teachers Institute will be held in Marion, Oct. 15-19. Pupils in the various common schools of the county who are nearing the completion of the common school course are earnestly solicited to attend the Institute. They could not spend a week more profitably. All patrons of the common schools are cordially invited to attend.

Most of the teachers have received communications in regard to their topics. Those who have not their topics are so plain as to need no explanation. Those not receiving communications will be allowed five minutes on their topics.

I make a special request that each teacher prepare a list of the best ten books for children to read from the first to the seventh grades; another list of the best ten books for Eighth Grade and High School pupils.

Missouri Letter

As so many of the Crittenden county people request me to write a few words home I will see if you will give my weak epistle room.
Today I have perused the dear old RECORD through. It makes me long to see the dear ones at home. Sorry to hear of the sickness and deaths, glad of the good words spoken of the living, especially Uncle Joe, such is often left for the marble, where it gladdens no heart.

As to me, health is very good considering the long dry season. Now it has been raining since the 25th, still raining and cool. Rain has been a great loss to the farmers. The estimate in hay and peas is $40,000 loss. We only had seventeen acres cut corn damaged. Crops were fine. Water melons not as good as usual. The sale at Blodgett was $40,000.

The latest arrivals are James Daugherty and F. L. Williams are all well pleased, in fact all the Kentucky people are pleased save three, Mrs. Geo. Barger, who has been sick with slow fever for several weeks, but is improving. Bird Barger who had a chill today is looking and wishing for his wife, who is now in Kentucky. Joe Williams has had several chills.

The Lord has blessed us in Blodgett spiritually, near one hundred conversions, quite a number of additions to both the Baptist and M. E. churches. We have preaching every Sunday and Sunday evening and every first Saturday night. Sunday school at both churches, prayer meeting every Wednesday night. Epworth League, L. T. Society, W. H. M. Society, W. C. T. U., the latter of which is the life of the Christian work here. If the women of Marion would take the interest in the Womans Christian Temperance Union that they do here it would save so many heartaches, so many souls and Mr. Cannon lots of worry. Oh! my hearts longs for the light and help you would have there if you would enter this work. Loan us Bro. McAfee and Price a little while, give us your prayers anyway. The last saloon has been banished for quite a while, all of our saloonmen were converted but one, he is a very wicked man, but in the last meeting he asked the prayers of the people. We can always find something to praise God for.
LAURA WILLIAMS.

Married in Tennessee

Mr. Bert Stout and Miss Lizzie Ridings were married Sept. 26th at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Rosa Rushing, in Erin, Tenn. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. L. Johnson. J. B. PARIS, Editor.

THE BAD BOY IN SCHOOL.

Is there really a bad boy in school? No doubt but every teacher in the county has thought that there was not only a bad boy in school, but there are bad boys in school.

Have we ever had a pupil in school that in after years proved to be a criminal or an outlaw of any kind? If so, let us be very sorry indeed, and let us think, too, that we are to some extent, responsible for that boy's failure in life.

Fellow teachers, allow me to ask you to think seriously over your past school work and see if you have at all times done everything you know to get the boy interested in his books that gives you the most trouble in school. There is certainly some way to reach that boy that is always causing trouble in school. Shall we not study the boy's disposition and environment and try to find what he is interested in, that will be elevating and helpful to him. Then we should find the window to the boy's heart, let us use every effort we can to show the boy that he is acting disgracefully when he could just as easily be acting nicely and gentlemanly, and thereby developing character instead of destroying. There surely is not a boy in school but what had rather be something and counted somebody, than to be a vagabond. It is a matter of fact that the boy that gives the best and most cheerful obedience to family government and to school government will make the most highly polished and upright gentleman.

It has been claimed: "As the twig is bent, so the tree is inclined." Then shall we not do our utmost in the school room to train the tender minds so they will not even be naughty boys, but will be nice, careful, thoughtful of others, and ready to do a kindness to any thing or any one at any time they they have an opportunity.

Now I have not answered whether or not there really is a bad boy in school, neither shall I try to answer the question. I realize that it is too deep and too sacred for me to attempt to answer. However, let every one, who works in the school room, ask help and guidance from the Real Teacher that we may be able to help the seemingly bad boy in school.

Parents give us your assistance in any way you can, and we assure you we as teachers will do everything in our power to train your boys and girls in a way that they will grow up to be real men and women, and at last go home to heaven.

HAVE YOU SENT YOUR DOLLAR?

TO REPUBLICANS:

We are anxious to have every Republican in close touch, and working in harmony with the Republican National Congressional Committee in favor of the election of a Republican Congress.

The Congressional campaign must be based on the administrative and legislative record of the party, and that being so, Theodore Roosevelt's personality must be a central figure and his achievements a central thought in the campaign.

We desire to maintain the work of this campaign with popular subscriptions of One Dollar each from Republicans. To each subscriber we will send the Republican National Campaign Text Book and all documents issued by the Committee.

Help us achieve a great victory.

Bile Poison

has a very bad effect on your system. It disorders your stomach and digestive apparatus, taints your blood and causes constipation, with all its fearful ills.

Thedford's Black-Draught

is a bland tonic, liver regulator, and blood purifier. It gets rid of the poisons caused by over-supply of bile, and quickly cures bilious headaches, dizziness, loss of appetite, nausea, indigestion, constipation, malaria, chills and fever, jaundice, nervousness, irritability, melancholia, and all sickness due to disordered liver. It is not a cathartic, but a gentle, herbal, liver medicine, which eases without irritating.

Price 25c at all Druggists.

Willis M. Towery, general merchant and druggist of Tribune, spent Sunday with his mother, of near this place, who is quite sick.

John T. Kemp and wife, of Iron Hill, spent Sunday in this vicinity.

Fords Ferry

There is a good deal of sickness in this vicinity at present; it being mostly chills, malarial and typhoid fever.

The last week of September 1906 will long be remembered by the good people of Fords Ferry as one of sorrow and depression. Even nature has worn an unforgettable veil of mourning in contrast to the glorious weather of the remainder of the month.

The death angel has carried away two persons that filled a prominent part in the life of this community. Miss Zora James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron James, age 19, died Thursday night after a three weeks illness of typhoid fever. She was the pride of her parents, beautiful and accomplished, of winsome character, being a general favorite of all. The burial took place at Dunn Springs cemetery Saturday afternoon in the presence of a host of friends.

Mrs. Lucy Ford, widow of the late Gale Ford, died Saturday morning at ten o'clock, after a short illness of typhoid fever. She was much beloved and will be greatly missed by all. Her remains were buried at the family graveyard beside those of her son, Joe, who died two weeks ago of the same malady. Death is sadly depleting the members of this family, five having died within the past three years.

Ernest Vaughn is back from Missouri after a few days stay. Ernest says Crittenden is good enough for him.

Will Alvis is in fine humor; a girl arrived at his house a few days ago.

Lige Curry's small boy has typhoid fever.

Tobe James, who has been very sick is slowly improving. He had typhoid fever.

The eldest child of Sherman Ford is quite sick.

Cy Franklin is very low with typhoid fever.

Gale Ford happened to a very painful accident a few days ago by getting a rib broken.

Mrs. Aaron James is quite sick.

Miss Ruth James, who has had a light attack of typhoid fever, is convalescent.

C. M. Clift has lately constructed a nice frame tobacco barn.

Fred Cook, of Mattoon, has been refining sorghum in this vicinity the past few days.

The Ohio river is rising.

Gale Ford went to Marion Monday.

Lige Curry will leave in a few days with a raft of logs for Metropolis, Ill.

Bud Kirk is cutting logs preparatory to constructing some new buildings on his place.

Tribune

Most of the tobacco is in the house.

John Pickens sold a fine lot of cattle to Mr. Cullen Thursday.

Wm. Towery has been sick for the past few days.

Frank Lamb has been carpentering here for the past week.

Walter Love, of Marion, passed through here Tuesday.

Floyd Paris visited his mother near Marion Saturday and Sunday.

Luther Travis was the guest of W. H. Swaney Sunday afternoon.

Ed Perry and Tom and Ed Walker, of Iron Hill, was here on business Wednesday.

F. I. Travis went to Caldwell county this week.

Tolu

Our merchant, Forest Harris, spent two days in Evansville this week buying goods.

John Franklin is breaking wheat ground.

The corn crop is excellent about here. Ed Dowell is erecting a modern stock barn on his farm near town.

Postmaster Herbert Myers is building a business house near his residence.

Why not make our little city a place of beautiful homes? Blue grass and lawn trees will add much to the home beauty, while the cost is trifling.

Rev. Elisha Thomas preached two interesting sermons at the Methodist church Sunday morning and evening.

John Nation and family and Jim Moore and family left here Sunday for Missouri to make that their future home.

Ruth

It rained last Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and especially Friday about three o'clock.

Quite a good many had their tobacco cut and hung or in piles in the field during the rains the past week.

J. I. Morgan and sons, visited at their aunt's, Mrs. Cass Wilson, in the Crider neighborhood Tuesday night.

A child of Henry Wade, of the Crider neighborhood, was buried at the Rowland cemetery Sunday.

Obe Harris sold two colts Saturday.

J. I. Morgan is buying a lot of nice broom corn.

Listen for a wedding right soon, so says madam rumor, who is never wrong. Guess who?

J. M. Spickard was in Kelsey Friday. Our farmers are talking wheat sowing.

J. M. Spickard has sold a car load of fertilizer to be used on wheat ground. Messrs. Tackwell and Fox, of Piney Creek, attended Sunday school at this place Sunday evening.

Sorghum and corn were blown badly during the heavy rains.

J. I. Morgan and mother, spent Sunday with daughter and sister, Mrs. Flora Steveson.

Miss Lelah Moore has malarial fever.

When the tip of a dog's nose is cold and moist, that dog is not sick. A feverish dry nose means sickness with a dog. And so with the human lips. Dry cracked and colorless lips mean feverishness, and are as well ill appearing. To have beautiful, pink, velvet-like lips apply at bedtime a coating of Dr. Shoop's Green Salve. It will soften and heal any skin ailment. Get a free trial box at our store and be convinced. Large nickel capped glass jars, 25c at Haynes & Taylor's.

Man wanted! Somewhere near Marion, to assist us in showing and selling properties. No experience necessary, if willing to let us teach you the real estate business. Salary $60.00 a month, to honest man, willing to devote part of his time to this business. Co-Operative Land Co. Andrus Bldg., Minneapolis, Minn.

Sisco's Chapel

John Riley lost a horse last week.

L. N. Sisco had four sheep killed last week by dogs.

Mrs. Noah Jones and children of Pope county, Illinois, are visiting her father Ben Enoch.

Tet Bebout's wife was buried here last Thursday.

John Conyer and family, of New Salem, visited Leonard Riley Sunday.

If you have trading stock call on Val-entine Floyd or Frank Dunning.

Next Saturday and Sunday are our regular meeting days. Preaching by Bro. Little. Everybody invited.

Dan Dunning and Mrs. Harris, of Webster, are visiting friends and relatives here.

W. T. Suggs visited Jas. Bugg Sunday.

Jim Burklow and family of Pineyville visited John Riley last Sunday.

P. M. Sisco, Jr., and Isaac York are making ready for Missouri.

James Carter and Owen Threlkeld made a flying trip up the creek Saturday night.

Leonard Riley advises young men to stay at home this rainy weather, as he had a narrow escape of being drowned the other night. Leonard having spent the evening at Will Lewis' started home, and being thirsty he went by the spring to get a drink, and while kneeling down to quench his thirst, his hands gave way and he fell into the water. What would have been the result we do not know, but Ole Conyer, (like Washington who seemed over present) came up in time to pull him out.

Tobacco is about all in the house.

The new Pure Food and Drug Law will mark it on the label of every Cough Cure containing Opium, Chloroform or any other stupefying or poisonous drug. But it passes Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure as made for twenty years, entirely free. Dr. Shoop all along has bitterly opposed the use of all opiates or narcotics. Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is absolutely safe even for the youngest babe—and it cures, it does not simply suppress. Get a safe and reliable Cough Cure by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's. Let the law be your protection. We cheerfully recommend it.—Haynes & Taylor.
