FARMERS INSTITUTE HELD IN MARION

INTERESTING SESSIONS MONDAY AND TUESDAY

anducted By Prof. R. C. Crenshaw, Assistant Commissioner

The Farmer's Institute, was held at court house Monday and Tuesday, esistant Commissioner of Agriculture, and Prof. Good who lectures on "Stock going", and Prof. Sherfferus, who ctures on the "Best Mode of Select g Seeds for Corn and Tobacco."

The Institute was called to order at o'clock a. m., by President J. Frank onger, who stated the object of the eeting, and introduced to the club rof. Crenshaw, who gave a very intersting talk on "Practical Farming." e said people should make a business farming, as well as any other busiess; and that it was not the largest mount of ground cultivated, but the best results that should interest us ost. He said scientific farming was ot objectionable at all, as science had eveloped all such things as the telehone and telegraph. He said it was amentable state of affairs that no fore of our young men took advanage of our Agriculture Schools than d. He also said we were way beand lows, as over 600 of her boys sere in the Agricultural School.

Prof. Good followed with a good lecure on "Feeding Cattle and Hogs." and said the Experiment Station had and, by experimenting, that it did ot pay to feed cattle on corn altogeth-, but to mix their feed, and give hem clover hay, cotton seed meal, etc. However, he said that they had 'ound hat a man could not afford to feed mothy hay, as it was too hard to gest, and the cattle did not and could ot get all the substance out of it. over hay was cheaper, and much ore valuable as a feed for cattle.

Prof. Crenshaw followed Prof. Good, th a lecture on "Wornout Lands, d how to restore them to a state of itivation or a good state of fertility said there ought to be red clover a every farm, and that it could be otten by following clover with corn, hen wheat, then back to clover again. e said the way to hold the land and improve it was to grow something keep humis in it, and grow Leguminus crops, such as cow peas, red clover; row these crops, he would recommend Crooked Creek, $300. weet clover, as it would grow where ardly anything else would grow.

He then called on some of our local men for talks, and Mayor Blue made a few remarks, and expressed great satisfaction in the thought that wornout lands could be brought up to state of fertility, as he was overstocked with that kind of land.

Prof. Shrefferus. Subject "How to Save Tobacco Seed." This was very interesting to the the farmers, and will prove beneficial to them in this tounty by following his methods. We ran improve the quality; also increase the quanity. Also he showed how we could increase the yield of our corn by selecting good seed, and how we might be certain that we were planting good stand and greatly increase our crop. Mr. A. H. Cardin gave a talk on "How to Care for a Tobacco Crop in fousing and Curing." He says he hinks there will be a great deal of Mayes 119 acres on waters of Crooked ouse-burned tobacco this season, on Creek, $2390. secount of wet, warm weather, and the bacco being so full of sap. He also isked the question what was the feedidds humis to the soil; also it is a nitroen gatherer. Where people are too already taken. W. I. Stewart, A. J. tingy to turn under peas, if they will Bennett, V. C. Crayne, C. W. Fox, urn under a good crop of Japanese J. A. Thomas and J. R. Farris. lover, they will profit by it. He says hat they have found that soybeans re richer in protein than peas, and are asily grown, and will lay on the hem and thrive.

Prof. Scherfferus lecture on Commercial Fertilizer, which we will give you later, as we wish to write an article on that subject soon, and tell the farmers how they may know what fertilizer is, and how they may know when they go to buy fertilizer whether or not the dealer is trying to impose on THERE IS NOTHING WRONG WITH OU

The Institute was very interesting to all present, and we are sure many more, had they been there, would have felt that it was time well spent. The Professors all expressed themselves as being attached to Crittenden county and Crittenden County People, very much, and regretted to have to leave; and especially regretted that they could NET AT SALEM WEDNESUAY MORNING not carry Mr. Conyer's dining room all the way through, as they seldom ever strike anything like it.

They left here Tuesday afternoon for Salem, Livingston county, to hold an institute there. We feel that we want adocted by Prof. R. C. Crenshaw, to say for them that the state has too. three honorable gentlemen at work in a noble cause. May success crown their efforts where ever they go.

If the people who are served by these routes persistently refuse to bet ter the roads they will no doubt lose the service they have.

In order that a route may be a fixture and it may be reasonably sure of remaining it behooves those who live on it to keep the roads in good fix. Those that want routes better work the roads and then apply.

Graves county, Kentucky has thirtytwo R. F. D. routes and it is the only county in Kentucky which is laid off in sections.

FARM LIFE.

One Continual Round of Health Happiness and Prosperity.

Farm life can be made just what you want it to be. It can be made a round of health, happiness and prosperity, or it can be reversed. The farmer should be independent, and every member of his family should experience that independence. He should be proud of the fact that he helps to feed and clothe the world.

There is so much about farm life that is healthful. The pure, uncontaminated air is invigorating, filling the lungs with a tonic that cannot be secured in a city life. The water comes from unpolluted streams, is free from microbes, and refreshes the toiler as nothing else can do. Instead of being a breeder of typhoid, it is a cleanser of the system, and puts fat upon the bones. With such air, and such drink, and with the crisp, fresh vegetables, the sound, ripe fruit, and the purity of the food generally that makes the farmers' table groan, that becomes well nurtured, and sleep comes at nightthat sweet, sound sleep that takes the kinks out of our bodies, that lubricates our joints and gives us a rest that cannot be matched by massage treatment or turkish baths.

With good health we are fitted for good work, and better able to fight the battles of life.

Happiness goes hand in hand with health. They are inseparable. Both must be cultivated. An unhealthy man is a grumbler, peevish, dissatisfied, and never can see the bright side. On the other hand, the man with good health sees the golden sunshine, and he endeavors to make life pleasant for all around him.

The happy farmer believes in seeing those around him enjoying themselves, and, usless he is of a selfish nature, will provide pleasure for those under his care. ### Good Politics and Common Sense

The decision in favor of the "stand pat" policy on the Tariff question is good politics and common sense. The time for making a break in our Tariff walls is not yet at hand. The President was elected in 1904, on a tariff platform sound in every timber. He received the largest popular vote, and the largest popular majority ever given to a candidate for office in the world's history. That tremendous indorsement by the people of the United States was an unfailing index of the Tariff question, as upon the other questions of the Campaign. So far as is known the people have not radically changed their minds on these important issues. They certainly have not had reasons for any radical changes of sentiment. The widespread prosperity which then existed still continues. There is work in plenty for all who will work. Wages were never better, and all the conditions favorable to continued progress still exist. Why should the Republican party renounce one of its cheif articles of faith, which the people have so enthusiastically indorsed?

So long as well is well enough, why not let well enough aione, instead of entering experiments which have heretofore been proved to be impracticable? So far as issues are concerned, the Republican hosts are ready to go into the battle to-morrow. There are men to defend the polices as well polices to The infant of A. L. Travis has been defend. -Los Angeles Times.

PLAN OF PRIVATE PRISON FOR WHICH LOUIS A. GOURDAIN HAS BROKEN GROUNE.

Louis A. Gourdain was the central figure the other morning in a peculiar little ceremony just outside the walls of the Joliet penitentiary. It was the ground-breaking for Gourdain's own private four-story prison, in which he intends, as he says, to serve out the term of four years and a half to which he was sentenced by the United States court for running a lottery game. The exterior of the "prison," which is to cost $70,000, will present an aspect as severe and uninviting as that of the state penitentiary, but the interior, according to the plans, will be a combination of modern home comfort and inallitational plainness. The exterior will rival an ancient bastile for loopholes and parapets, and the interior, or at least a part of it, will be luxuriantly appointed. There is to be a living-room and dining-room for Gourdain and a similar provision for the private warden whom Gourdain will install An elaborately furnished workshop, where Gourdain says he will toil from day to day, and a cell of up-to-date structure are also provided for in the plans. There will also be a reception-room for women and a library, and in the basement will be an office room for the "warden," a boiler-room, a dining-room and

It Takes Nerve

Everything depends upon your nerves. It is nerve force that causes the brain to direct the motion of your body; it is nerve force that causes your heart to pulsate, and send the blood through your veins; it is nerve force that causes your stomach to digest food, your kidneys to filter the blood, and the liver to secrete bile.

In fact, nerve force is the power that runs your body, so if you feel worn-out, irritable, nervous, cannot sleep, or eat well, have pain or misery anywhere, your nerves are down. To restore this vitality take Dr. Miles' Nervine which will strengthen and build up the nerves. You cannot be healthy without strong nerves. "For eighteen years Dr. Miles" Nervine and Anti-Pain Pills have been my close companions. Early in married life, while raising children, my nerves became all worn-out—could not sleep; had no appetite; indigestion very bad, and had such awful dizzy spells. Then I began using Dr. Miles' Nervine, and at once I began to improve, and soen found myself in perfect health."

CLEVER DEVICES FOR USE AT ARMY MANEUVERS.

Merits of Invention Will Be Tested in Field Operations and Commissary Department Expects Good Results.

It is the intention of the commissary department to test the merits of this device in practical field operations. The cooker in its present form has been constructed by the army artisans themselves; there are no patent rights connected with it, and it is so simple that any boy handy with tools could make one in the course of a day according to the army standard. Earnings to Home Banks.

Washington.-Millions of dollars in American gold is being hoarded annually in the banks of Italy by temporary Italian residents of the United States. This is the news that has just reached the government, along with a statement from the general commissioner of immigration at Rome that the total immigration to the states from Italy in the year 1905-6 approached the 500,000 mark. The idea of most Italian emigrants, says the immigration commissioner, is to accumulate something like a fortune in the states and return with it to Italy. The intimacy of the home connection is shown by the exhibit T. H. AGED WOMAN SPEEDS AUTO.

Takes Delight in Fast Driving in Spite of Her 106 Years.

Middletown, Conn.-Arrayed in goggles, visored cap and long cloak, Mrs. Elizabeth Hunt, of Brooklyn borough, who is 106 years old, is making her annual tour of this state. The trip is being made in an automobile which travels by easy stages from one town to another. Hitherto the annual tour which Mrs. Hunt insists on making each year has been accomplished mostly by train. "Not much like the stage coaches of my girlhood," she laughs. Owing to her rheumatism she has to be helped into the car, but she scorns cushions and pillows. She likes to sit on the front seat with the chauffeur, and asks many questions about the mechanism of the car, which the driver gladly explains to her.

She often tells the chauffeur not to hold the machine in, because she says she can stand as much speed as her son, who is 35 years her junior, and who also enjoys the sport.

Rev. L. O. Spencer, of Elizabethtown, preached at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening. His text was, "We are complete in Him." The text in the evening was, "What has thou in thy house?" He preached two splendid sermons.

He read for the morning lesson a part of the 23 chapter of Luke, beginning at the 33 verse and finishing the chapter. His text was Luke 23-46 "And having during the reading lesson to the "foolishness of preaching" he illustrated in this wise, If a man was to carry a sack of gold from house to house to distribute would he stop to argue and enter into a long discussion with each occupant as to the value of the gold and what it would buy? If he did it would be foolishness.

In the course of Rev. Spencer's morning sermon last Sunday he referred to Bob Ingersoll's eulogy at the grave of his dead brother, but only quoted a few words. - The quotation is as follows:- "Life is a narrow vale between the cold and barren peaks of two eternities. We strive in vain to look beyond the heights. We cry aloud, but the only answer is the echo of our wailing cry. He who sleeps here whispered with his latest breath, "I am better now."

"Let us believe is spite of doubts and fears that these dear words are true of all the countless dead".

Rev. J. B. Moody preached at the Baptist church Sunday evening. He read psalm 104 for the lesson. He used several verses of the sixth chapter of Matthew as his text. His subject was "How to Live". He preached splendid sermon.

PARROT IS TOO TALENTED

Brings Loss to Roadhouse Man and He Gives It Away.

New York .- Joseph Murphy, proprietor of a roadhouse in the Bronx, is said by veracious citizens of the vicinity to have suffered financial loss through the misplaced intellectual efforts of his green parrot Jemimah. The bird had to be disposed of because it ordered too many drinks at Mr. Murphy's bar.

According to neighborhood report, and Mr. Murphy reluctantly confirms the tale, a parrot pronounced to be bright and quick to learn was given to Mr. Murphy. The bird, which was hung on the veranda where the thirsty are served, made good his reputation by learning the names of the drinks the waiters called through the open windows to the professor behind the mahogany. The wise bird could distinguish a horse's neck from a mint julep within three weeks

It was when Jemimah began to call out the order for drinks on her own hook that trouble began. "Scotch highball and two up," Jemimah would exclaim in the midst of a hurry of orders. The bartender would set out the drinks, ring up the check, then find that it was "on the house." This grew monotonous and so sturphy gave the bird to a friend whose wife is a member of the local Woman's Christian Temperance union

Government May Rally All in One Great Institution.

Leavenworth, Kan It is the plan of the department of justice to build here within short time a prison to devoted entirely to the keeping government female prisoners, and h. Cecil Clay, special agent of the department, and Architect T. C. Young, of St. Louis, who are at the United States penitentiary making an inspection, are said to be looking over the land of this prison for a site. If one is built it will be directly west of this immense institution, and, perhaps, under the same head, but this It Has More has not been decided.

The government has in all no less than 200 female prisoners held for violation of the federal laws. These are confined for the most part in state penitentiaries, in states where their crimes have been committed and are being paid for out of funds set aside for this purpose. The cost is about 50 cents a day and it is thought they can be more cheaply and satisfactori-

At one time it was planned to confine all female lawbreakers in one cellhouse of the federal penitentiary here, but this has been changed, as it was not thought this would be a suitable arrangement and would be detrimental to discipline

W. ROSE MEDICINE Co., St. Louis, Mo. DEAR SIER: Believing that "ZEMO" saved my arms, if not my life, I will gladly teil all sufferers from eezema what your good medicine did for me. I suffered six years from a torturing case of itching eezema of both arms. I tried eight different doctors, and every eezema cure I could hear of without relief. The disease grew worse and spread to my neck and breast; my arms had great holes eaten in them; I soon became an invalid and was confined to my bed part of the time. My husband bought a bottle of "ZEMO"; the first application stopped the Itching, and I began to improve; in six weeks and one day the disease had disappeared, and my arms were clean and smooth as my picture will show, before and after using "ZEMO." My arms were so had some of my friends wanted me to have them taken off, but I would not agree. I am now entirely cured and have gained ten pounds in weight, and feel better than I have felt in many years. I consider my quick recovery by using "ZEMO" nothing abort of a miracle. The Hair Fashion. "Never did I realize before what slaves to fashoin women are," remarked one who likes to be an individual. "If you have plenty of money, and can order all your things made, of course it is all right; but a woman of modest income, who doesn't want to dress herself in the conventional style, has a heart breaking time of it. This spring and summer the kats are all made to suit one style of hair dressing, and they are absolutely impossible with any other style. If you are original enough to want to do your hair differently, you must go bareheaded-that's all."

Her Secret Out.

Robert Watchorn, the commissioner of immigration, has made a sympathetic and thorough study of the immigrant types that reach New York. Discussing these types the other day, said: "The most naive are the Germans from the smaller and remoter states. They have the charmingly simple and quaint minds of children. A beautiful German girl disembarked here the other day. She was tall and strong, blue-eyed and yellow-haired. She wanted to know at once if there were any letters for her. The postmaster at the pier, after getting her name, said, by way of a joke: 'Is it a business or a love letter that you expect?' The girl faltered:

"'A business letter." "'Well, there's nothing here,' said the man after looking over the assort-
