TOBACCO FACTORIES BURN SUNDAY NIGHT

The larges operators of W. C. Rich and T. M. E., was burned to the ground Sunday night, November 16th, at the hands of B. S. T. and W. T. German, and other local citizens. The big factory is the one at W. C. Rich, and the other at T. M. E., both of which are located in the town of Crittenden. The former is owned by W. C. Rich and associates, and the latter by T. M. E. and associates. The fire was discovered early Sunday morning by some of the citizens, who immediately notified the local authorities. The fire was well under control at the time it was discovered, and the cause of the fire is unknown. The damage is estimated at $50,000.
