TOWERY WINS HONORS

Young Student Who Has Won Many Honors to be K. S. C's Champion in the Oratorical Contest.

Of the twenty students in the arts course at Kentucky State College who will receive their diplomas in June, the highest average attained covering the four years is that made by Beverly Todd Towery, of Providence, Ky. Mr. Towery's average foots up 14.29 out of a possible 15. One thing remarkable about young Towery's work is that he has maintained his own as regards class average at the same time devoting much time to other lines of activity in college life.

The records of the Patterson Literary Society, of which he is a member, show that he has been one of the most faithful and efficient members of the society for a long period. Towery is possessed of the sort of patience that enables the fisherman to sit on the river bank all day, often times without success. He had labored hard and earnestly but it was not until his senior year that he was awarded the honor for which many college men strive, namely the winning of prizes in declamatory and oratorical contests. Towery won his first medal in the Patterson declamatory contest January 19, the prize being a $20 medal. On the evening of March 30 he captured the $25 gold medal in the Patterson oratorical contest, the subject of his oration being "The Spirit of Reform."

Mr. Towery entered Kentucky State College four years ago, having graduated at Marion High School with the highest class average. During his freshman year he shared with another student the $25 cash prize offered by Miss Elizabeth Shelby Kinkead, for the best essay on the series of lectures given by Miss Kinkead at the college each year.

Mr. Towery will represent the classical department on commencement day. He will also represent State College in the Kentucky Intercollegiate oratorical contest which will be held at Winchester, Friday evening of this week under the auspices of Kentucky Wesleyan College.

Mr. Towery's major study in the arts course is English. After graduation he will enter a law school in the East.—Lexington Gazette.

Dear Editor of RECORD-PRESS:—I am both glad and thankful to send you the enclosed clipping from one of our local papers here. I hope that all my friends of Marion and Crittenden will be glad to hear of my success. Sincerely yours, B. T. TOWERY.

OKLAHOMA CITIZENS

Inquire as to Where We Stand on Lee Cruce "the First Governor of the New State."

On June 28, 1906 the following editorial mention was made of Lee Cruce, of Ardmore, I. T.:

We publish elsewhere in to-days paper an article from the Ardmore Oklahoma Morning Democrat announcing Mr. Lee Cruce as Ardmore and the Chickasaw Nation's candidate for the governorship of the new state of Oklahoma. The article is carefully considered and ably written and does but simple justice to the many shining qualities and executive ability of Mr. Cruce, as his host of admirers and friends here are well aware.

It would be hard for the inhabitants of that young commonwealth to pick a man better equipped with all the virtues and business qualifications that serve to make the honest and partial ruler than Lee Cruce. Here, where he was born and reared to manhood, there is nothing but respect, admiration and love for him among all parties, and should he be elected ruler of his adopted state, none will more heartily rejoice than the people of Crittenden county.

That country, and especially the city of Ardmore and the Indian Nation, owes much to the executive ability and far-sighted business acumen of Lee Cruce.

No man in that country has done so much to develop its magnificent resources and to place its financial system on a solid basis as Mr. Cruce. The people of the young state know this and hold his service at their full value, this being the case and having, as is stated, the entire Indian Nation and Southwestern Oklahoma solid for him, his chances for the governorship of that magnificent young commonwealth are indeed bright.

So here's to Governor Cruce, of Oklahoma, with three times three and a tiger.

We copy it with pleasure in answer to letters received from out there some of which have been received recently. The following is one of them.

RECORD-PRESS:—I wish to remind you that one of Crittenden county's boys is a candidate for the nomination on the Democratic ticket for Governor of Oklahoma. I hope the RECORD-PRESS will mention this and tell us something of Mr. Cruce. If you know nothing for him speak anyway, as it is information that we want. I don't want to support any man merely because he is from Crittenden county at least my efforts would be fruitless with no other argument. What little I do know of Mr. Cruce and his people, however, is very favorable.

If you will publish an article about him and send me a few extra copies I will send them to as many Oklahoma papers.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Highly Entertaining—Thirty-four Graduates in Marion Graded School and Eight in the High School.

Some one has said "Men may come and men may go, but Marion Graded and High Schools go on to victory forever."

The term just closed has been a highly successful one, gratifying alike to patrons, teachers and pupils and demonstrates that Marion has still one of the best schools in the state and the brightest pupils on the globe, who maintain the reputation of the city in all such events.

The only cloud to mar the pleasure and success of the "1907 Commencement" was the fact of so many of the pupils being ill, an epidemic of measles being abroad in the city. Five of Wednesday evening's and six of Thursday evening's graduates being unable to appear. Those remaining, each of whom covered themselves with glory, were:

Misses Ruth Hill, Willie Clement, Ida Ordway, Maude Gilliland, Eva Clement, Lizzie Gilbert, Mary Coffield, Ruby Hard, Kittie Wathen, Annie Allen, Elgin, May Cook, Mamie Love, Addie Maynard, Marion Clement, Ruby Cook.

Masters Grandison Johnson, Carl Newcom, Cecil LaRue, David Fohs, Maurie Boston, Aubrey Cannon, James Rankin, Orlin Moore.

In the High School class it was different as all of the graduates were able to appear. The class orator chosen for the occasion was Miss Fenwick Wathen, and those who had heard her on previous occasions were prepared for the treat which she gave them in discussing "The Present Day Opportunities for the Educated." Miss Mary Lou Wilborn and Master Sylvan Price were splendid in the "Silent System," a scene of which was presented after Miss Wathen's class oration. The scene next presented was one dear to all lovers and one which grows not old with time, the balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet" in which Mr. Gray Rochester impersonated Romeo and Miss May Travis made an ideal Juliet. This was especially well rendered and was made doubly interesting by the mellow lights and beautifully decorated balcony from which the fair Juliette addressed love sonnets to the heir of her family's greatest enemies, the Montagues.

The last number on the program before the valedictory was a scene from the "Merchant of Venice" in which Miss Annie Dean as Portia and Miss Amy Wathen as Nerissa, Sylvan Price as Bassanio and Gray Rochester as Gratiano appeared and neither of them allowed the audience to discover that it was their first appearance in Shakespeare. Miss Dean's raven locks and soulful eyes served her well in the part of the heiress whose hand was sought in marriage by lovers from all parts of the then known world, but her beauty as is often the case was rivalled by that of her maid, "Nerissa."

Of Miss Mary Deboe, the valedictorian, it is hardly necessary to make mention in Marion where she has on numerous occasions carried off high honors, suffice it is to say this effort was entirely worthy of her, and proved conclusively why she was chosen as valedictorian. Her bright well-trained mind and sweet and winsome manner making her a general favorite with the school and city.

W. O. W. GO TO CORYDON

Great Concourse of Woodmen of The World in Corydon on Last Sunday.

On last Sunday the W. O. W. unveiled the monument of Sovereign Winn Denton, at Corydon Ky. The Woodmen of Rosewood Camp No. 22 of Marion Ky. thru the kindness of Mr. Venner, secured a special passenger coach for the Marion W. O. W. When the train arrived in Marion Sunday morning there were fifty Woodmen of The World who after decorating the special coach with W. O. W. banners and flags, boarded the train for Corydon Ky. The Marion Woodmen took with them the "Silver Cornet Band of Marion" to furnish music for the unveiling.

The Marion delegation of fifty Woodmen when they arrived at Corydon, were conducted under the tap of the muffled drum to the Methodist and the Baptist church, where the Marion Silver Cornet Band was asked to play and did play some sacred music, after which a cordial welcome was extended to the Woodmen of the World of the Marion delegation by the pastors of both churches and a request and an invitation given by both churches to the Marion W. O. W. asking them to attend the morning services of both Churches.

The Marion W. O. W. and the Silver Cornet Band attended the morning services at the Methodist church where they had the pleasure of hearing a sermon on Woodcraft delivered by Rev. Stubblefield, a Crittenden county man. The church was packed to overflowing with attentive people who after the sermon was delivered by Rev. Stubblefield, with one accord pronounced it one of the best sermons that they had the honor and pleasure of listening to.

It was estimated that there was 3000 people at the unveiling in Corydon, Sunday Rosewood Camp 22, of Marion, was honored by being placed next to Corydon in the line of march.

BIG ESTATE JUST FOUND

Kentuckians May Become Heirs to German Estate of $7,250,000

St. Louis, Mo. May 10.—Mrs. Malissa J. Tenbroeck, of St. Louis, believes she, her brother, Thomas C. Seaman, of Princeton Ky., and two other sisters are heirs, under a will made in 1745 and recently found in the Bank of England, where it had been deposited. The will bequeathed $35,000 to a family named Windel, in Fuerstenburg, near Baden, Germany. The estate, which has been increasing at 7 per cent. compound interest, is now valued at $7,250,000.

Seaman and his sisters are children of Mrs. John Seaman, who died twenty-five years ago in St. Louis. Mrs. Seaman was a daughter of Alexander Windel, Jr., who moved to Orange county, N. Y., from Baden nearly a century ago. The father of Alexander Windel Jr., bore the same name and lived in Fuerstenberg. Mrs. Tenbroeck has employed an attorney to investigate her claim to a share in the estate.

Farewell Reception.

The farewell reception tendered Dr. J. W. Trisler and family, at the residence of S. T. Dupuy Tuesday evening by the members of the Presbyterian church, was well attended. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, the house was filled with the friends of these estimable people, who soon are to take their leave for Frankfort to reside. Mrs. Dupuy was assisted in entertaining by others of the ladies of the Presbyterian church. Refreshments were served, the Marion Orchestra dispensed sweet music and the affair was a most enjoyable one aside from the general regret expressed at the loss to the community and church by the decision Dr. Trisler to move his family to Frankfort.

NEW RAILROAD

West Kentucky Coal Company will Run Line to Caseyville—Building $200,000 Tipple

Sturgis, Ky., May, 7.—With the completion of the magnificent new steel trestle at the West Kentucky Coal Company plant at Wheatcroft, authentic information is given the public that this company will, just as soon as the right-of-way can be secured, build a line from that place to Caseyville on the Ohio river, where the company is building a $200,000. steel tipple.

The completion of the new tipple at Wheatcroft, a distance of ten miles, by which the output of all three of the collieries at that place is handled, gives them wonderful capacity and to make the regular and profitable runs, the company is necessarily compelled to build a railroad to Caseyville, a total distance of sixteen miles.

This, of course, not only concentrates their entire product with the two large plants here and by having an outlet to the river car famines will hurt them very little. This road will run through one of the finest farming countries in the world, being blessed with all the veins of coal from the conglomerate up. President Gardiner, of New York, before leaving here last week, expressed his determination to build this road, fully expecting, as it will tap the Louisville and Nashville at Wheatcroft, and that road will extend its line from Shawneetown, Ill., to a point opposite Caseyville. This will give all this county a direct line to St. Louis.

AN ELKHORN TALE

Mr. Presley S. Maxwell lives in Marion, Ky. If an historian should attempt to chronicle the events of the early settlers in western Kentucky the family of Maxwell with its connections would certainly occupy a space in his history. Doctor S. Weir Mitchell a world renowned author wrote "The annals of a quiet neighborhood;" but western Kentucky's historian could not so label his record the events of 100 years ago were anything but quiet.

About two years before the death of George Washington and some time in the year 1797 a young hunter and frontiersman, of western Kentucky, shouldered a long rifle and strode forth after meat. Armon's sweet sugar cured and well canvased bacon was undreamed of and the only meat eaten in western Kentucky homes at that day was wild meat. The name of this particular young hunter was Robert Smith the great grand father of our townsman Mr. P. S. Maxwell.

On Stephen's hill which is about two or three miles this side of Princeton, Kentucky, he shot and killed an enormous elk. His horns measured six feet from tip to tip. The elk was killed for his meat but he was such a fine specimen and his antlers so large that Mr. Smith preserved them. He lived at the forks of the road just above the large two story brick house now occupied by Mr. Johnson Crider at the station known as Crider, Ky. These elk horns preserved by him were put on a post at the horse-mill and used as a hitch rack. They were removed from there and placed on the signpost of the tavern kept by Mr. Robert Smith and known as the Smith Tavern.

The name of the tavern was then changed to Elkhorn Tavern, and known by that all over the west.

After Mr. Smith, the tavern was kept by Mr. Jimmie Blue, uncle of mayor Blue's father, and after him it was kept by Dr. King.

These elkhorns remained on this sign post until 1861 when they were taken down and put in Dr. King's cellar. At the sale of Dr. King's property, they were obtained by Mr. Perry Maxwell father of Mr. Presley Maxwell and were then nailed to a sign post in front of Dr. J. A. Maxwell's drug store in Princeton, Ky. Here they stayed until the drug store was destroyed by fire. They were rescued, and remained in the possession of Dr. Maxwell until his death when they were brought to Marion and adorned the hall of the Maxwell residence on depot street now owned and occupied by Judge L. H. James.

After the erection of the new Maxwell residence at the corner of depot and main street, they were again moved in this new home where they staid until Mrs. Carrie Maxwell moved to Ardmore, Indian Territory. Mr. Perry D. Maxwell, lives in an elegant residence in Ardmore, and the elkhorns are now there.

They are in the possession of the great great grand son of the man who killed the elk one hundred and ten years ago.

Last Saturday was a very cold day. Fires, overcoats and blue noses were in evidence very much. The ever genial, forever smiling and everlasting good natured Obadiah Young made the rounds of this town pro-pounding this query: "Is this last winter or next winter?"

Tom Cochran gave it up, Tom Yandell passed and so on down the street until he struck Dick Picken. Mr. Pickens said, "Why Obay, that is easy. It is neither last winter or next winter, it is this winter."

Mrs. C. S. Nunn arrived in Marion Friday night, May 3, from far off Denver. She alighted from the train in a rain while the thermometer sank lower and lower. She appeared at the door of the car closely followed by a representative of the floor spar interests, rosy cheeked and smiling despite a sappy condition of the eyes. Quite a crowd of Marion people were at the depot to meet her. They were one and all very profuse in their apologies for the weather. Miss Lem looks better than she ever looked. For confirmation we refer by permission to Mary Coffield.

A LOVE TALE.

It is said "the course of true love never run smooth." The Maxwell subject recalls the story of Mr. Presley Maxwell's grandmother, Mrs. Isabella Adamson, mother of Warner Adamson, who lived and died one mile this side of Crider Station. Alexander and Isabella Adamson were married in Anstrotter, Scotland in the year of 1810. For a bridal tour these young people about twenty-five and twenty years of age respectively, started for Western Kentucky. For three long weary months they rode the Atlantic waves and landed in New York. The journey from New York to Pittsburg was made overland and in a road wagon. Their earthly possessions were carried with them. Arriving in Pittsburg they bought a canoe and once more took the water route. The journey down the Ohio was made mostly at night to escape death at the hands of wild savages. The canoe was hauled ashore in the day time, meals were prepared and what rest they found was during the day. They stopped at a very small trading post to make some purchases. This was Louisville. In passing the falls the men walked on the shore to lighten the load and the young bride, Isabella, went down the falls alone. A final landing was effected at Fords Ferry and the young man and his young bride walked to the place where they settled and carried their goods and chattels. They went out the Flynns Ferry road past the present site of Fredonia and stopped at what is known today as the Warner Adamson place. This man, Alexander Adamson, was a stone mason. The ruins of the stone houses he built can be seen today on the John Henry Turley place near the knobs. One of his stone chimneys still stands in Crittenden county and is used every day. It is at the Crayne place, the first house this side of Piney Creek Baptist church, and was owned and occupied until a few years ago by John Thomason. It was sold by him to Prince Pickens. How many are there today with the nerve and will of these young Scotch people? The history of their adventures on this bridal trip has never been told. If it could be written today who knows but what such tales as "To Have and to Hold," would be accepted as true and once more there would be a confirmation of that old adage, "Truth is stranger than fiction."

NEW SALEM

[Last week's letter.]

The families of W. C. and Jesse Tyner, are down with the measles.

Fred Binkley, who has been sick for the past three months, was brought to his sister's, Mrs. Harris Austin, and was carried to his father's, Thomas Binkley, at Pinekevill. Fred seems in a fair way to soon to be hustling again.

There has been a lot of corn planted over the past week, while a good many farmers are waiting for winter to break before they plant.

Thomas Binkley and daughter, Miss Sallie, of Pinekevill, were the guests of Harris Austin and family last week.

We called on our old friend, Ben Garnett, last week and took a look at his orchard. Mr. Garnett has one of the largest orchards in Crittenden, county. He has between fifteen hundred and two thousand bearing trees, and has added this Spring fifteen hundred more trees to his already big orchard. Ben means business.

The good people of Salem are happy over the prospects of a railroad being built in the near future. Every thing points favorable to the building of the road, so the knowing one say.

Mrs. Dora Tabor, of Hardesty, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Cash.

Wheat prospects have somewhat improved the past week.

Manager W. S. Lowery is having the lumber put on the ground at the Kirk mines, for the erection of a big mill. Let the good work go on.

Our road overseer has been putting his road section in tiptop order the past two week, now for the grader.

Farmers report shortage in tobacco plants, many farmers have resown their tobacco beds and from present prospects, not over fifty per cent will be planted.

Brain Leaks.

The man of pluck never trusts to luck.

It is easy to find excuse for those we love.

The foolish man syndicates his troubles and dissipates his joys.

Early to bed and early to rise won't help a bit if you don't advertise.

Every dog has his day, the trouble being that so many dogs choose the same day.

Speaking of confiding natures—how about those people who put their trust in the labels on the cans.

The trouble about a bad habit that you can quit if you want to is that when you want to you can't.

The man who says he could win if he had a chance, is the man who is too cowardly to take chances.

Was Wasting Away.

"I had been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years," writes Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo. "I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well." During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold by J. H. Orme.

Carnegie Tells of Fear.

Andrew Carnegie is famous for his advice he gives to poor young men.

"In considerable fear," said a New York millionaire, "I once consulted Mr. Carnegie about a new venture. The business looked as if it ought to be profitable. There seemed to be a public need of it. Still, there was some risk involved and I was afraid."

"But Mr. Carnegie laughed at my fear."

"It is a good thing; plunge in," he said. "Fear is old womanish. Fear is what keeps untold millions from making fortunes. When Benjamin Franklin thought of starting a paper in Philadelphia his mother, greatly alarmed, tried to dissuade him. She pointed out that there were already two newspapers in America."—Rochester Herald

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

As Children Do.

Sometimes, when night is creeping down,
And all the world about is dim,
And he must go to Sleepytown,
You lie down at the side of him
And whisper soothing little things
In childish words, such as you frame
To tell the sound-of beetle wings
And how the firefly gets its fame.
And soon the world grows darker yet
And to the little fellow's eyes
Strange, hidden dangers now beset
The shadows places in the skies;
But you speak low and comforting
And tell him none of them are there,
That near him is not anything
But what is good and kind and fair.
Then trembling comes his little hands
Out through the dark and finds your face,
As though by touch he understands
That he is in the safest place;
And so with fingers on your cheek
He sighs contentedly to sleep—
And you, you may not even speak,
So very, very still you keep.
Sometimes you, as a little child,
Shall fare into an unknown night
And shall yearn for the stars that smiled
With all their soothing, drowsy light;
And you, as little children do."

May grope out through the darks of space
And sigh in peace to sleep, when you
At last have touched your father's face.

WHY BE DISFIGURED WITH PIMPLES AND BLACK HEADS

when ZEMO, a clean liquid for external use, will quickly and permanently cure you! Greasy salves and creams cannot cure you, and the electric needle leaves scars. Pimples are caused by a germ. Situations Guaranteed.

We do not guarantee situations to prospective students in order to get their patronage. Schools of merit do not resort to such dishonest practices. Fake schools "guarantee" situations in order to secure students, because they have no other inducements to offer. Our work is so thorough that a guarantee is superfluous. Business men are so eager to get competent help here that a large percentage of our students take positions before they graduate. See us before making arrangements for your business and shorthand education at some inferior, fake school. We will take pleasure in telling you all about the loopholes in the "position guarantees" of dishonest schools. Catalogue free.

UNIONTOWN NEWS.

Walter Hutchens, of this city, has taken a position as compositor on the staff of a Dawson paper. Mr. Hutchens was, until recently employed by the Sturgis News-Democrat.

Mr. and Mrs. John Millett and daughters, Mary and Elizabeth, left yesterday for Louisville, their future home. For many years Mr. and Mrs. Millett have lived here and it is with much regret that the people of Uniontown part with them and their two daughters, who have always been held so high in their estimation.

A baby boy about twelve hours old, was found wrapped in an undershirt and shirt in the ladies waiting room of the I. C. depot at Morganfield at 9:30 Monday night. Two ladies waiting for the midnight train returned to the station after church was over and noticed a bundle lying on the seat nearest the door. From the bundle protruded one tiny foot. The agent was called to investigate and the undressed and healthy infant was found and taken to the county poor house.

John Daughtrey, the popular and efficient local I. C. ticket agent and operator, will be in charge at Morganfield for a month while Mr. Len Johnson is in Chicago attending a meeting of railway trainmen. Mr. Daughtrey has been offered a number of promotions in railway train service but has always preferred to live in Uniontown. He is of course held high in the estimation of his employees, but best of all has the friendship of the people where he lives. Mr. M. N. Wilkie, of Dixon, is now in charge here.

A balky horse is bad enough, but the freak acts of the pony owned by Bob Allen is far worse. This animal, when he meets another horse, turns and goes in the same direction. Bob has often started from his country home for Uniontown and landed at Mt. Vernon and vice versa. Bob's latest scheme has been somewhat of a success, although it causes the wonderment of his neighbors to see him always driving behind some one else's horse and buggy, but as Bob says when his pony gets started to following another horse, it won't stop for anything.

The only difficulty is, that the party in front often stops short of where Bob is going and if he meets a horse coming the other way, his trouble begins. He would be glad to receive letters from anyone who knows how to cure a horse of such a freak custom, as it is wearing on his nerves.—Uniontown Telegram.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c at J. H. Orme's drug store.

"Oh, come into my parlor," said the sophomore to the lie. Thus prepared, he then went to secure a sick excuse. — Cornell Widow.

Wrong. This story is told of a college professor who was noted for his concentration of mind.

The professor was returning home one night from a scientific meeting, still pondering over the subject. He reached his room in safety, when he heard a noise which seemed to come from under the bed.

"Is some one there?" he asked. "No, professor," answered the intruder, who knew his peculiarities. "That's strange. I was positive some one was under my bed," commented the learned man.—Ju. ge.

A little Kodol taken occasionally, especially after eating, will relieve sour stomach, belching and heartburn. J. B. Jones, of Newport, Tenn., says three bottles of Kodol cured him of dyspepsia. It is sold here by J. H. Orme.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by J. H. Orme druggist, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

CATARRH CAN BE CURED.

Kill The Germs by Breathing Hy-o-mei. Gives Quick Relief.

Many people who have suffered with catarrh for years naturally think they cannot be cured, and become discouraged.

The reason they have failed of cure is because they have not treated the disease with the local remedy, Hy-o-mei, which is breathed thru a neat pocket inhaler so that its healing medicated air reaches the most remote aircells, kills all catarrh germs and restores the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and lungs to a healthy condition.

Catarrh is really a local disease and to cure it, it must be treated by a remedy which reaches every spot in the nose and throat where the disease germs lodge. Hy-o-mei does this and gives relief from the first day's use.

A complete Hy-o-mei outfit cost but $1.00 and Haynes & Taylor give a guarantee with every package to refund the money unless it cures.

Robbing Yourself

That is just what you are doing when you fail to get regular and sufficient sleep. Your body requires this unconscious period for repair work; without it your nerve energy becomes exhausted, and you are tired, worn-out, nervous, excitable; have headache, neuralgia, indigestion, poor appetite, or other ailments caused by a lack of nerve force. Make it your business to sleep. If you are restless, take Dr. Miles' Nervine; it soothes and strengthens the nerves, and brings sweet, refreshing, life-giving sleep, and gives the organs power to work naturally. Try it to-day.

"I had a severe spell of fever, which left me in a very weak condition and very nervous. I had severe spells of headache and neuralgia, and could sleep but very little. Every effort that was made to recover my strength was of no avail until I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. After I commenced to take the Nervine my sleep was profound and restful, and the pains in my head, as well as the neuralgia pains, left me to a certain extent and I grew gradually better." MRS. E. E. GILBERTSON, 821 Berylan Ave., Belvidere, Ill.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

Buttermilk as a Medicine.

Even when sourest, if it is still in good condition, buttermilk is a valuable medicinal agent. A refreshing acid, it is always nourishing without being insipid.

The lactic acid which it contains attacks and dissolves every kind of earthly deposit in the blood vessels; keeps the veins and arteries supple and free from matter which might otherwise clog them, and destroys the irritating calcareous deposits that may gather around the joints, as well as any poisonous waste in the muscles. It is not only beneficial to the digestion, but also for tuberculosis and all other pulmonary complaints. It is also a harmless substitute for intoxicants.

Drinking buttermilk freely—two quarts daily would not be too much—is said to preserve the complexion of youth, and as gouty difficulties generally arise from sluggish excretion it is a blessing to all who suffer from such complaints.

Buttermilk not only tones the stomach, but furnishes material from which healthy blood may easily be made.

It is also easy to assimilation, and in cases where sweet milk would prove objectionable from a medicinal point of view, it may safely be given with every assurance of beneficial effect. For creaky, aching or swollen joints it should be observed to procure it freshly churned.—Ex.

The Industrial Outlook.

In evidence that the country is in a very prosperous condition, despite the slump in the stock market, the General Electric Company, one of the largest industrial, reports an increase of business from 30 to 35 per cent over the same period last year. Orders are being received at the rate of $28,000,000 for the year. The gross business for the year just ended was a little better than $58,000,000. The company does not anticipate a slow down in the present record-breaking proportions of its business before next fall. Nine months of the present rush of orders are counted on. New business is coming very largely from central station companies and street railways. These industries are still struggling to provide themselves with sufficient equipment to handle the increase in the demands made upon them by the public during the past twelve months.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative and my Book on either Dyspepsia. The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves". Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free book now Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Obituary.

The subject of this sketch was born in Livingston county Kentucky Feb. 23, 1834 and died in Livingston county April 29, 1907. She was a daughter of Joseph and Evaline Haynes Summers. She was married to Jacob Green September 4, 1864. At the age of 19 she professed faith in Christ and united with the Caldwell Springs Baptist church. Afterwards she secured her letter and united with the Pinekaeyville Baptist church, she being the first member to unite with that church after her organization. Although she loved her church, her feeble health, in her declining years, often made it impossible for her to attend the public services. In disposition she was cheerful and retiring. All of her life she found great pleasure in reading good books and from the fund of information thus obtained, when occasion required, she was able to express her convictions clearly upon any subject.

For the last several years her two sons and daughters have realized that her life's work was done and that her feet were surely approaching the shore-line of time. Noting this, each visit to them was especially anticipated and cherished.

Now we know that she has indeed gone from us and that her trials and sufferings are over. As we laid her to rest, in the old family cemetery, there to await the resurrection, we thought she was truly bequeathed us a legacy priceless in value—the memory of her sweet, gentle and patient life.

Mother, thou hast left us! Gone from us to Heaven's bright clime.

Here on earth we miss thee But there, up there, we hope to meet thee

Where we will never say "good bye."

A Wholesome Philosophy.

Absolute honesty and a definite will often produce better results without unusual intellectual gifts or opportunity than the keenest intellect can attain without these moral qualities. It would be an easy thing to quote cases of noted men and women in whom defects of character have practically nullified the most conspicuous intellectual gifts.

A philosophy of life is not what we think about life, but the convictions which govern our actions. It has well been called the "working hypothesis of life." Since well-directed power is the measure of success, it is in the reach of every human being.

Play your part well—be it great or small—and despair will disappear, like the morning mist before the sun. Your part is not to expend your nervous force in cynical criticism, but in the high obligation to build on whatever foundation of conviction you may possess.—Laura Drake Gill in the June Delineator.

A Criminal Attack

on an inoffensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It is generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c. at J. H. Orme's drug store.

That Doggone Flea.

There's something all this livelong day
That been a bothering me,
I'd give a dollar for a trap
That would catch that doggone flea.

If I had Rockefeller's fortune,
Or Morgan's great command,
I'd hunt up every blood hound
In this our good old land.

I'd hire a troop of soldiers
As brave as brave could be,
And I'd never rest a moment
Until I'd get that doggone flea.
