Weak Women
To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical, powerful, restorative remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, making the result of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments. The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does the work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, breaks local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted stamina, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well.

Workmen Unearth Indian Mound.

Henderson, Ky., Aug. 8.—City workmen excavating for a sewer in- to an Indian burying ground on Third street and the river numerous relics of a bygone race. Among the reminders of the past were numerous human bones which the workmen piled at the side of the hole. The bones were in a fair state of preser- vation when first uncovered, but exposure to the air soon rendered them brittle so that they could be crushed in the fingers. It is prob- able that they have been interred several hundred years and possi- bly are remains of mound- builders. All was quiet and no indi- cations of trouble.

PINEY FORK CAMP MEETING

Is in Progress with good interest and big Crowds—The Rev. Mays is doing the Preaching

In the early part of the nineteenth century a small band of good people living in the wild thinly settled country around what is now known as "Old Piney Fork Camp Ground," organized and built a rude log house in which to meet and worship. After her organization, almost one hundred years ago, she began to grow and get stronger and the rude log hut gave way to a bigger and a brick later to a hand-landing.

Many a place of worship became a camp ground, where our grandfathers and grand- mothers and little ones would go and spend a few days in an old fashioned camp meeting and from that day to this the second Sunday in August has been looked forward to, by the young as well as the old, as a time when there would be a reunion of old ac- quaintances and a number of souls be born into the kingdom of their maker.

The annual camp meeting is in in progress now with the Rev. Mays, of Indiana, assisting the pastor, Rev. King. Rev. Mays is an able man and has been doing some splendid preaching and by the hearty and earnest co-operation of the good people, there has already been much and lasting good accomplished.

There are big crowds in attendance both day and night. Quite a number from Marion attended Sunday and to- gether with them was a number from neighboring counties and even states, the crowd was estimated at from three to five thousand people.

Quite Lucky.

Ranzy King lost his pocket book last May containing some valuable papers also a $10 bill. Last week his father, Dan H. King, found the pocket book in his field while plow- ing with the money and other items still in it.

Hanged at Greenville.

Greenville, Ky., Aug. 9.—Harris- son Alexander, the negro who assault- ed Mrs. Florence Whitehouse, a half witted white woman, was hanged at 5:32 this morning. He kept his nerve to the last. He proclaimed his innocence from the scaffold. He dropped six feet, but his feet touched the ground and he had to be pulled up. Death from strangulation resulted in thirty-six minutes. All was quiet and no indi- cations of trouble.

Stinson Bros' Stores.

Situated in one of the best small towns in Egypt and surrounded by a thrifty and prosperous class of farmers, who in addition to crop raising make a specialty of high grade cattle, hogs, sheep and poultry, this store opened in 1886 has been from the first wonderfully successful. The original building (illustrated here) was about 18 feet wide by 40 feet deep with a big chicken coop in the rear, like Mr. Finley's turnip, "it grew and it grew" and in about a year the little frame gave way to a handsome brick building. At the start the business was under the direction of Mr. Robert Stinson, assisted by his brother, Rufus, and its development was so rapid that the enterprising management, longing for other fields to conquer, turned over in 1891 the management to Mr. W. E. Stinson, the youngest of the four brothers. Success followed success under his guidance and in a short time more room was required, an adjoining store taken, a connecting archway was cut through the wall and The Star Clothing Store (as shown in the illustration), was the result.

In 1905 Mr. Ezekiel Jordan, who had faithfully served the firm for a number of years was placed in charge of the Clothing, Shoes and Furnishings as buyer and manager and Mr. Chas. H. Gowdy who grew up with the firm was given charge of the the farmers and good people of Mt. Vernon soon found out what savings it meant for them, and Stinsons became a household word for miles around. Today there is no store in the country more solidly established, or which enjoys to a greater extent the confidence of the buying public, than this progressive institution.

The store building is, as the illustration, a handsome structure, 50 feet wide by 140 feet deep and is used exclusively for the business of the firm. On the main floor are the Ladies and Men's Furnishing Goods, Dry Goods, Notions and Ready to Wear Garments, etc. The second floor is given up to Carpets, Matting, Rugs, Draperies, Crockery, Kitchen Furnishings.

The management of the store is under the direction of Mr. E. J. Jordan, and Mr. E. J. Jordan has charge of the Ladies and Ladies' shoe department, Mr. W. J. Spiller and Billy Bryant have charge of the Gents' Clothing and Furnishings. Messrs. Harry Whitesides and Robert Stinson have full charge of the second floor and Miss Pearl Hammer has the responsible position of cashier.

With such a staff of efficient and painstaking help it is safe to predict a continuance of Stinson's prosperity and popularity.

You can order anything by mail from any of Stinsons stores, with the certainty of getting the same satisfaction as if you made personal selections at the counter.

One of the most pronounced successes in the Stinson chain of stores is the one opened up in this city in 1899.

Situated, as it is, in the center of a rich farming country, the Stinsons by up-to-date merchandizing methods quickly brought their store to the front and it has made rapid and substantial progress from the day it first opened up.

Selling the best of goods for the lowest prices, it has made for itself a reputation, which has not only firmly established it in the will of the home folks, but has built up a splendid connection with the people who come for miles to trade at Stinsons' store.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera And Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.

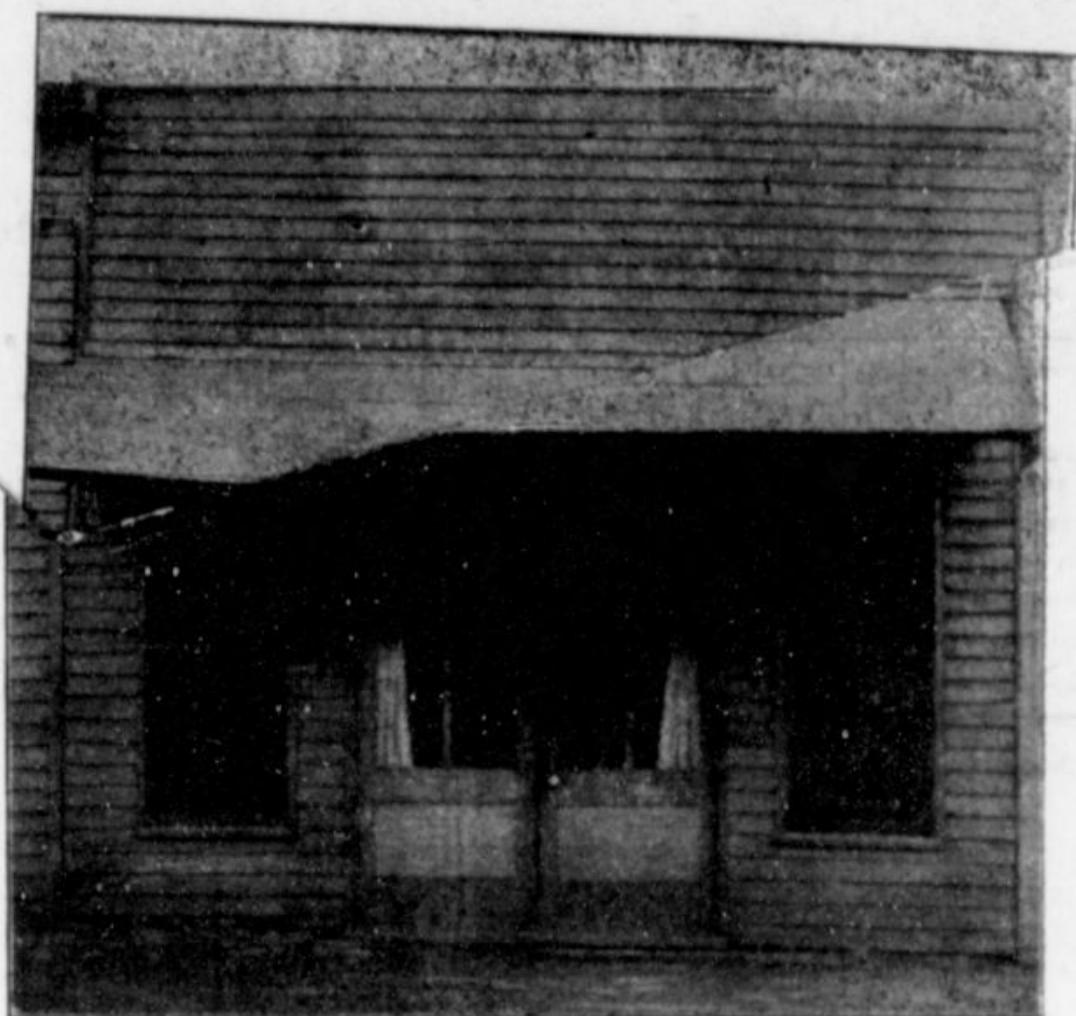

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—Sam H. Gwin, Concord, Ga., For sale by J. H. Electric Haulage System.

The Crittenden Coal and Coke Co. Mines are now making good runs, notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Coffy is all the time having new machinery put in. The electric haulage system has been established, which is proving more profitable and safer than by mules. In but a very short time Mr. Coffy will have these mines competing with any in the county in the out put of coal.—Sturgis News Democrat.

The First Enfield Store, Opened in 1886.

Dry Goods, Ladies' Shoes and Groceries.

The business so well started by Mr. Robert and Mr. Rufus Stinson and increased by W. E. Stinson has under the present management continued on its prosperous course and is today one of the leading stores in the county. In Mr. Fred Brissenden, Harry Wood, Jesse Tyner, Wayne Kuykendall, Chas. Gowdy, and Mr. Jordan the business is in the hands of courteous and experienced salespeople who will always give the best attention to the wants of the patrons of the store.

It was sound business judgment which led Stinson Bros. to fix upon Carmi as a good field for their enterprise for it is undoubtedly one of the leading towns in Southern Illinois, and draws trade from a rich surrounding territory. With good farming land and several factories it is a sure bed of prosperity for the right kind of business men, and Stinsons have shown that they are right. Established in 1891, with but a small stock, they have grown in sixteen short years to be one of the biggest retail concerns in the county and draw an ever increasing patronage from people for miles around.

Under the able management of Mr. Rufus Stinson, the business has known nothing but success and with such well and favorably known assistants as Jacob Bachman, Joe Williams, Roy Shaw, Will McConnelli, Miss Ethel Brockett and Cleo Biggers, increasing success for the future is assured.

The prompt and careful filling of Mail Orders is a strong recommendation for any store with its out-of-town customers. Stinsons are particular in even the smallest business transaction.

The store that revolutionized the retail trade of Mt. Vernon. Established in 1894, from the smallest beginnings it has grown to be the leading store of the county. Doing things different and better than others is the secret of their success. It took nerve and pluck to establish a cash business in those days, but Another Outbreak From Night Riders at Princeton.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 26.—The recent night rider outbreak has caused increased vigilance on the part of the authorities to guard persons and property feared to be under the ban of the outlaws. Information has reached here that on Thursday night of last week all plans had been made by the night riders to make a second raid on Princeton.

It is said three squads had been ordered to proceed to Princeton and burn the new passenger station of the Illinois Central, the freight depot Kevil's factory and the court house. The purpose of the night riders was suspected by the authorities and hurry orders were wired to Marion for soldiers to report immediately to Princeton to protect the property threatened.

By running, the detachment succeeded in catching the train in time to reach Princeton that night. When the night riders discovered that soldiers were in the town the raid was abandoned. The Owensboro troops are now at Princeton on an indefinite stay.

The Mount Vernon Store. Opened 1894.

The store is managed by Mr. Richard E. Pickens, formerly of Marion, Ky., a gentleman of fine business abilities and one whose personal popularity has done much to make the store the success it is. He is ably assisted by Claude Sloan, Ed. Jones, Fred Daniels and Miss Essie Sloan, each of whom are ever ready to give their best attention and experience to the service of the store and its customers.

Perhaps the strongest evidence of the success of Stinson Bros. in Mt. Vernon, is the fact that in 1902, their business had so far developed that to accommodate their numerous customers on the West Side they opened up this branch store under the name and title of "C. L. Lawrence & Company."

Mr. Lawrence was for years in the service of the firm and had shown such marked ability as a clerk that when a suitable man was required for this new venture, he was selected. How well he has justified the confidence of his former employers is amply testified in the position he holds today and the business success which bears his name. Under his management the business has from year to year shown substantial increase and bids fair to become, at no distant date, second only to the older Mt. Vernon establishment. The same upright methods which made the original store so popular are rigidly practiced by Mr. Lawrence and the people on the West Side have in this store a safe guarantee that they get the fullest value for their money.

The lines of merchandise are practically duplicates of those found in the down town store and include Dry Goods, Shoes, Notions, etc., etc. A particularly strong department is that devoted to Groceries and this enjoys a large trade on these staples and necessary articles.

Mr. Erastus Trousdale who graduated from a clerkship in the Enfield store was brought to the West Side Store as chief assistant to Mr. Lawrence at a big increase in salary and with Felix Groseman, Arthur Stagger, make an efficient corps of sales people to wait on the trade at the West Side Store.

One of the best of the Stinson Bros.' combinations is the store situated at this important town and its remarkable growth is a feature of which this enterprising firm have every reason to be proud. Under the able management of Mr. Perry B. McCullough it has grown and prospered with each succeeding year and no store has a surer hold on the good will of its patrons.

Selling good reliable merchandise at the closest prices has made it the most popular trading center of the town and surrounding district and the name of "Stinson" is accepted as a sure guarantee of quality and fair dealing.

Mr. McCullough is ably assisted by Mr. Ernest H. Irwin, Chas. Marlett, Geo. Fowler, Paul Pomeroy, Edna E. Thorne and Mary Cochran as sales force and Miss Florence Cochran as cashier.

The Lawrenceville store makes a specialty of Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats, Ladies' wraps, Boys' and Children's Clothing and Groceries.

The youngest in point of time this store, although but two years old, is second to none of all the Stinson enterprises and its phenomenal success has excited the admiration and wonder of those who have watched its progress.

Situated on the West Side of the city in the midst of a densely populated section with large mills and factories employing thousand of skilled and well paid artisans, it has jumped at one bound to the front rank of Evansville's stores, and already enjoys the deserved reputation of being a first class department store where good merchandise can always be bought at the fairest prices.

The store is under the personal management of Mr. W. E. Stinson, the youngest of the four brothers and so skillfully has he conducted affairs by judicious and extensive advertising and up-to-date methods of business that the store is not only drawing a large trade from the imfrom discontinue business in the country adjoining. Catering to those who want first-class merchandise and selling on a strictly cash basis has made the store famous as the store where money will do its best and its future growth is assured on the basis of this public confidence.

The West Side store makes a special effort in the Mail Order business and already has quite an extensive connection through the mails with people who live miles away.

Carrying extensive stocks of fine Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats, Clothing, Carpets, Rugs, Mattings and Ladies' Ready-to-wear Garments, this store is well able to take care of the wants of its daily increasing patronage and there is no store anywhere that can give better values.

Mr. Stinson is assisted by the following efficient staff of buyers and department managers: Mr. Theodore Hartig, Shoes, Hats and furnishings; Mr. Lawrence Stinson, clothing and carpets; Miss Stella Everhardt, Dress goods and silks; Miss Tillie Mann, hosiery and notions; Miss Rose Lappa, ladies' ready-to-wear garments; Miss Jennie Fairhurst, Herbert Rogers, Florence Stinson, Forest Shelby, Wilford Stinson, Wilford Stinson, Miss Mabel White, cashier; and Roy Roth, cash boy.

He neglected to take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first signs of kidney trouble, hoping it would wear away, and he was soon a victim of Bright's disease. There is danger in delay, but if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at once the symptom will disappear, the kidneys are strengthened and you are soon sound and well. A. R. A Good Cook.

A Uniontown woman saw in a newspaper how a man could be cured of drinking by putting a little whisky in everything he ate. This, however, was before Union went "dry" as we all know such a thing could not happen now. So she proceeded to sprinkle eatables with the fiery liquid and her husband suffered the treatment three times a day. He did not say anything until the supper of the third day, when he exclaimed to his wife, "Molly, it is astonishing how much you are improving in your cooking lately."—Uniontown Telegram.

The Pain Family

You know them; they are numerous, and make their presence felt everywhere. The names of the family are Headache, Toothache, Rheumatism, Backache, Stomachache, Neuralgia, etc. They are sentinels that warn you of any derangement of your system. When the brain nerves become exhausted or irritated, Headache makes you miserable; if the stomach nerves are weak, indigestion results, and you double up with pain, and if the more prominent nerves are affected, Neuralgia simply makes life unendurable. The way to stop pain is to soothe and strengthen the nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do this. The whole Pain family yield to their influence. Harmless if taken as directed.

THE RECORD-PRESS.

Sweetness of temper is a precious heritage. It gives beauty to everything. It keeps the windows open toward the spice country and fills the home with perpetual delight. The body will grow old and the smooth brow will be furrowed, but a happy disposition is an aureole to the gray crown of age. Blessed is he whose life looks out upon the land of Beautiful and whose soul is responsive to

RAPIDLY MATURING PLANS

The State Board of Agriculture Announces
More Details of the State Fair.

The State Board of Agriculture which recently purchased the Douglas Park Jockey Club at Louisville for permanent grounds and buildings for the Kentucky State Fair, has not been able to close negotiations because the Title Company employed to clear the title and guarantee it has found that a part of the land bought has been dedicated to public uses, and, therefore, there may be some trouble in closing the roadways; at least there will be a delay of a few months. In the meantime, the Board has asked the owners of Douglas Park to lease them the grounds for holding this year's fair with the understanding that as soon as the title is cleared, the property will be taken over by the State Board. This, Mr. Cella, has declined to do, it is understood, although, there is a probability of the matter being adjusted within the next day or two. The State Board is determined that it will not take over the property until the title is perfect. That may mean that the fair this year will be held at Churchill Downs where it was held last year instead of on the home grounds of the State Fair as was hoped.

Under any circumstances, the fair is certain to be held at Louisville on the dates mentioned, and we are asked by the State Fair manager to say to our readers that the plans made for the State Fair are maturing rapidly and satisfactorily, and that they can assure every Kentuckian that the fair will be the biggest one ever held in the South in the way of exhibits departments, in the way of big amusement features, in the way of music and in the way of attendance.

Smithland Girl Weds.

The happy ending of a lingering suspicion in the minds of Smithland people for several weeks, was the marriage of Rev. R. R. Marshall to Miss Kitty Coram, yesterday at the parsonage of the Second Baptist church in Paducah. Several weeks ago Miss Coram returned from visiting in Kuttawa and resigned her position as intermediate teacher in the Graded School, which had been promised her, and since that time matrimony was the only hope for her so far as the people could see. Sure enough they were right.

Rev. Marshall is pastor of the Corinth church in the luka neighborhood and Miss Kitty taught the luka school last year. The acquaintance and courtship ended yesterday. The acquaintance will go on and on, not forever, but the many friends of Miss Coram wish that many happy days are before her and her chosen mate, she has for several years been one of the foremost and most progressive teachers and the profession will lose a valuable member.

The groom is a merchant of Kuttawa and stands well, as well as in the portions of this county where he is known.

The Banner hopes that every cloud that may make a shadow in their lives may have a silver lining.—Livingston Banner.

About Neatness and Matrimony.

Scrupulous neatness, even to the smallest trifles, often determines a man's decision regarding the marrying of a girl more than any other thing. A good education, great ability, or even exceptional beauty, will not take the place of absolute cleanliness and tidiness. Most men will not overlook the lack of these things.

Men very quickly notice buttons off shoes, gloves, dress or coat or soiled gloves, or spots upon the clothing, and are always prejudiced by them, because they properly indicate slovenliness in the home. Nothing is more abhorrent to a man than untidiness in a girl.

Nothing is so disappointing to the male sex as to find that the girl from whom he expected so much is found wanting in the matter of neatness and orderliness. Slovenliness is a very easy thing to fall into. We ought to be on guard against it. After all, it is trifles that tell, small details in the matter of dress. Here is an example:

Not long ago a young man had occasion to travel by an early train every morning, and got to know a pretty, well-dressed young lady who always went by the same train. He fell in love—but one morning he was disillusioned. As the girl alighted from the train he saw a large hole in her stocking above the heel of her shoe. He was so particular about being neat himself that he could not stand untidiness in others. If this girl could be slovenly in small things, he argued, she would certainly be so in large and careless about the house. And he was certainly right. All thoughts of asking her to share her life with him have vanished.

Slovenliness in dress, without doubt, indicates a similar defect in home life. We should all try to make a good impression on people. The world judges a great deal by outward appearances. Any man fights shy of a girl who evidently cares so little about what people think that she will not go to the trouble of being neat. "Oh, it doesn't matter! No one will see!" the careless and untidy girl often exclaims. But people do see, and silently note all that is wanting.

If we desire to make a good impression—if we desire men to respect and admire us—we must pay attention to the smallest details. Carefully mended gloves, tidy shoelaces, scrupulously clean lace—even, if it bear evidence of mending—are all indicative of neatness and self-respect. A girl who looks after her personal appearance will see that the home is scrupulously tidy and orderly.

There is an old proverb, "That it's bad to be poor, but it's doubly bad to look poor." The girl who is tidy and neat in the little details of her dress will not show the empty state of her purse nearly so much as she who allows her clothes to become dragged and unkempt, and the tidy girl will be far more likely to meet a good and worthy man, whose honest, strong hands will labor for her.—Ex.

Children in Pain.

never cry as do children who are suffering from hunger. Such is the cause of all babies who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and began to thrive at once. Give it a trial. J. H. Orme.

Indian's Word Was Good.

Indian devotion to a pledge is not a myth; it survives to this day. At the May term of court at Vinita Chasden Ewing pleaded guilty before Judge Parker at Ballaw. He was sentenced to sixty days in the federal jail and to pay a fine of $25. He asked to be permitted to stay out of jail and make a crop in order to provide for his family, and Judge Parker granted the request, releasing Ewing, who is a Cherokee, on a promise to appear at Vinita on Dec. 1 to begin his sentence. Ewing was waiting at the court house one morning last week when the doors were opened and is now in jail serving his sentence. He says his crop is gathered and his family is provided for during winter.—Kansas City Journal.

Can You Blame Him?

A Pennsylvania man committed suicide the other following letter—presuming justification:

"I married a widow with a grownup daughter. My father-in-law often; fell in love with my step-daughter and married her. So my father became my step-father and my step-daughter my daughter. For she was my father's wife at the time afterward my mother-in-law birth to a son. He was my brother-in-law and my uncle was the brother of my step-father's wife, namely, my mother. My father's wife, namely, my mother, also gave birth to a son. He was, of course, my brother. Also my grand-child, for he was the son of my daughter. My grandmother, because my mother's mother, I was my wife's husband and grand-father at the same time, and as the son of my grandmother I was my grandfather."—Exchange.

After the second bottle I was completely cured. I have since had a rigid examination for life insurance by Foley's Kidney Cure cures all forms of kidney and trouble. J. H. Orme.

Cow Made Her a Prisoner.

The rural station at Mars, N. C., was thrown into the wildest excitement the other evening when it was learned that Miss Elizabeth Keith, daughter of Commander Keith, was missing from her home. A search was made but she was not found. She was called out and the island was from end to end. When the charge of the stables opened yesterday morning Miss Pond was found. While on her way back home the night before she stopped the stable to feed her pet pony, an old cow that was loose pushed the door shut. The door had a spring lock and Miss Pond found herself a prisoner. Finding her summons for help unanswered she made a bed in the hay with a horse blanket and went to sleep.

Rising From The Grave.

A prominent manufacturer, Wm. A. Fertilizer, of Lucama, N. C., relates a most remarkable experience. He says: "After taking less than three bottles of Electric Bitters, I feel like one rising from the grave. My trouble is Bright's disease, in the Diabetes stage. I fully believe Electric Bitters will cure me permanently, for it has already stopped the liver and bladder complications which have troubled me for years." Guaranteed at J. H. Wonderful Vitality of Seeds.

While there is some doubt as to the reliability of reports of ancient date germinating when planted, many notable, if less wonderful examples of nature's preservation of the life of seeds come to life from time to time. One of the most noteworthy of these refers to seeds taken from Fort Conger, about 490 miles from the pole, by the Peary party in 1899, having been exposed in this northern climate for a period of sixteen years, their presence there being the result of the Greely expedition of 1883. Packages of lettuce and radish seeds were brought to the United States and after a further period of six years were planted and while the lettuce seed had lost its vitality, fully one-half of the radish seeds germinated and grew to maturity and perfection.—Philadelphia Record.

Origin of Bridge Whist.

The name of bridge whist probably came out of the Russian word "brich," which is called out when the player declares no trumps. The game was in England between 1835 and 1850 a pamphlet on "britch," or Russian whist, failed to attract much attention at that period, but, during the ensuing ten years the present natural game of whist, the Russian form of play one variety of which is called "brich," became a favorite pastime. The game was said to have originated in Athens, and it is known to have been played, practically in its present form, throughout Turkey, Greece, Egypt and along the Maritime Alps. For actually more than thirty years the name of khedive.

Sleeping Out of Doors.

The good Lord made the country and foolish man, built the town. The nights are cool enough out doors anywhere and any place in this Ohio Valley paradise, but the people have a man-made notion that they must sleep in doors. Our houses in Madison are constructed much more for winter than for summer habitations. The walls are broken by windows too few in number and wrongly constructed. The sash only allows half the window space to be open. The French build more wisely. They let the sash run up into the wall above and the whole window space may be open. Sash hung like a door will also permit the free interchange of air in and out of the house.

Many of our residences have no porches. They should all have. The patriarchs of old slept upon the house-tops and Oriental people continue the practice in warm weather. In the good old summer time in Madison our people should hark back to primitive habits and sleep upon the porches.

Take a cot and lie down, as it were, out of doors. Over you the clouds are floating, the moon casts a pretty light or the twinkling stars wink at you in merry approbation. You drowsily observe the town folks wending homeward and notice the sound of children gradually die down. The honk of the auto and ice cream man fade into the distance. No perspiration wets your forehead, and the balmy breezes gently fan the bald spot on the cranium. You pull up a blanket over you, nod good night to sheltering maples and drop into a delicious, cool and lasting slumber.

After a time you may awaken and enjoy the cool atmosphere and the quiet, silent beauty of the night, but the provocations to sleep are too alluring after the hot, stuffy air of the bed room, and off you are in the arms of Morpheus.

By and by the birds begin to twitter and sing, faint lines of light appear in east and the noise of the dairymen, the early risers, and the whistles and bells announcing another day of toil is at hand. But you waken refreshed by your sound sleep invigorated by the pure oxygen in your lungs and divert from your anxious thoughts by the novel experiences of the night. You reflect this is not such a bad world after all, but a beautiful mysterious, wonderful world, and you have new ideas of the simple life, of getting back to nature and entering the kingdom of heaven as a little child.—Madison Indiana Courier.

Neighbors Got Fooled.

"I was literally coughing myself to death, and had become too weak to leave my bed; and neighbors predicted that I would never leave it alive; but they got fooled, for thanks be to God, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It took just four one dollar bottles to completely cure the cough and restore me to good sound health," writes Mrs. Eva Uncapher, of Grovetown, Stark Co., Ind. This King of cough and cold cures, and healer of throat and lungs, is guaranteed by J. H. Orme druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Children Poisoned.

Three children of Rev. T. A. Conway of Marion were poisoned accidentally Tuesday, from eating some candored cheese, or that is the report here. Bro. Conway is pastor of the Baptist church here and he had left home to come here to assist Rev. Henry Hibbs in holding a meeting but his wife telephoned him at Princeton to return on account of the illness of the children. Doctors worked heroically with the youngsters and brought them around all right.—Livingston Banner.

The Board and the Ohio.

The Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce has completed arrangements for the visit of the Board of Engineers, U. S. A., to Pittsburg on Monday, Aug. 12. The object of the visit is for consideration of the previous report on the Nine Foot Stage in the Ohio. The Chamber has compiled data on the tonnage and other matters pertinent to the Ohio and on the necessity for completion of the Nine Foot Stage, and the visit of the Board will be of the utmost importance to every interest and to every community in the Valley.

The Board is composed of men distinguished in their profession; men of impartiality and without exception, impressed with the importance of the work committed to them—the improvement of the Ohio, draining the richest commercial, manufacturing, agricultural and mining Valley on the globe. A most cordial welcome is due them from the press and the people of the Ohio Valley and the duty is on press and people, and on all Ohio Valley, but to the trade and commerce of the entire country.

If the Great Lakes could be made navigable the entire year, it would need no statisticians to demonstrate that their tonnage would be doubled, to say the least of it. But Nature has placed obstacles in the way of continuous lake navigation which do not obtain with reference to the Ohio River. The Ohio can be adequately improved from Pittsburg to Cairo without one obstacle, natural or artificial in the way—and it needs no statistician to demonstrate that the tonnage of the improved Ohio would double in a twelve months and more than quadruple in a decade.

The Ohio Valley Improvement Association earnestly urges all interests and communities in the Valley and all commercial and industrial organizations, to send delegations to Pittsburg to meet with the Board of Engineers in order that the importance of the Ohio and the interests of the Ohio Valley to the whole country be fully presented, and there should be no delay in the selection of the delegations. The meeting and the subject of the meeting are of utmost importance to the Ohio Valley.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative and my Book on either dyspepsia. The Heart or the Kidneys Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me to-day for samples and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Haynes & Taylor.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—takes up the mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal wash. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve all tissue, and all blood ailments. The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, gives nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and excitement, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—use a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Cured Hay Fever And Summer Cold.

A. J. Nussbaum, Batesville, Ind., writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." J. H. Orme

D. SMITHSON

Who Leaps the Gap, Hurt During Performance.

Ed. Smithson, the trick bicycle rider, who leaps the gap in a death defying dash down a steep incline on a bicycle, was painfully though not seriously injured Wednesday afternoon.

Starting from the top of the incline he came down on his wheel at a fearful pace and, striking the short incline, made a graceful leap of the gap and struck the platform on the other side. The part of the platform on which his wheel struck proved defective, the lumber of which it was built being decayed and worm eaten.

Two boards broke and the machine and rider were thrown up in the air ten or fifteen feet away from the platform.

Smithson fell on his right arm, bruising and spraining the muscles but not breaking any bones. A physician was promptly summoned and soon relieved the young fellow of much of the pain.—Morganfield Sun.
