

Crittenden Record-Press

VOL. 29.

MARION, CRITTENDEN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1907.

NUMBER 17

Hon. W. J. Bryan will speak at Marion, Tuesday morning, October 8th at 11 o'clock.

PROGRAMME

Of Princeton Presbytery, U. S. A.,
to be held at Fredonia, Ky.,
October 8-10, 1907.

TUESDAY, Oct. 8th.

7:30 p. m. Opening sermon, Rev. A. J. Thomson.
Roll call and organization.

WEDNESDAY.

8:30 a. m. Devotional, Candidate Wilson.
9:00 a. m. Business.
9:30 a. m. The need of a revival, Rev. M. L. Rice.
9:50 a. m. How to secure it, Rev. J. F. Price.
10:20 a. m. General discussion.
11:00 a. m. Sacramental service, sermon by Rev. J. R. Henry, Revs. McCollum and Bull to officiate.
2:00 p. m. Business.
2:30 p. m. What the Presbyterian church is doing in S. S. work, Rev. E. B. Kuntz.
2:50 p. m. What our Sunday schools can do for the enterprises of Presbyterian church U. S. A. in methods and progress, Rev. M. E. Chappell.
3:30 p. m. Discussion.
7:30 p. m. Ladies' Missionary Service.

THURSDAY.

8:30 a. m. Devotional, Rev. E. McCollum.
9:00 a. m. Business.
9:30 a. m. The Presbyterian Brotherhood, Rev. P. D. Tucker.
9:45 a. m. Our Church enterprises and how we ought to sustain them, Rev. R. H. Anthony.
10:00 a. m. Home Missions, Our Need, Rev. E. H. Bull.
10:20 a. m. Our offerings, Rev. M. E. Chappell.
10:40 a. m. Discussion.
11:00 a. m. Sermon, "The Outlook of the Presbyterian church," by Rev. E. B. Kuntz.
2:00 p. m. Business.
2:30 p. m. Our Foreign Field, by Rev. R. H. Anthony.
3:00 p. m. The Omaha Movement, Rev. A. J. Thomson.
3:30 p. m. Education, Rev. E. McCollum.
4:00 p. m. Adjournment.

All are cordially invited to attend. Any one who thinks of attending will please to send your name to J. E. Crider, Fredonia, Ky.

Heard Speech by Telephone.

Glasgow, Ky., Sept. 19.—The people throughout Barren and surrounding counties and as far back as Celina, Tenn., and Monticello, Ky., a distance of seventy-five miles, were treated to a novel surprise Monday, each one who owned a telephone being able to distinctly hear and clearly understand every word of Gov. Beckham's speech at the Courthouse here.

Mr. John J. Giezentanner, the popular manager of the Gainsboro

Telephone Company here, made connection and placed a transmitter in such a position at the Courthouse that all who cared to within the distance mentioned could listen to the Governor's speech. Many who were a considerable distance away and only partially familiar with the use of a telephone could hardly believe their own ears when they heard the voice of their executive making appeals to them miles and miles away as if he stood before them. It was the first experiment of this kind ever tried here, and was a complete success.

Paris Man's Invention.

J. H. Cameron, of this city, has recently invented and secured a patent on an extension step to passenger coaches, which promises to knock out the colored porter and his stool shaped like a bootblack kit. The patent step is made to fasten to the bottom of the step and is pulled out like a cash drawer. Mr. Cameron has not tried to sell his patent to any of the railroads, but he has shown it to three or four conductors and they have all pronounced it a grand thing.

The J. H. Cameron referred to was formerly a citizen of Marion. Many of our older citizens remember "Jim" Cameron. He was a merchant here in the '70's. He was a brother of the late T. J. Cameron. His friends here will be glad to hear of his good fortune.

A Fine Lot of Porks.

Wm. Sisco, of the View vicinity sold to James Sullenger, the stock man, a drove of as fine hogs as were ever seen in Marion. They averaged 353 pounds each, a total of 20,474 pounds and brought the fortunate owner the handsome sum of nearly $1200.

Received Check for $7,000.

The Christian church committee has received the check from the Treasury Department at Washington for $7,000, the amount which the old Christian church and lot sold for. This goes to show that Uncle Sam means business and will begin to look after the work of constructing the government building.—Mayfield Messenger.

Fire at Grayson.

Leitchfield, Ky., Sept. 19.—Grayson Springs, one of the oldest summer resorts in Kentucky, and owned by Mercke Bros. of Louisville, was visited by fire last evening at 6:30 o'clock, causing a loss of $35,000, partly covered by insurance. The three hotels on the grounds were burned, but as the season was practically over there were not many guests at the place, and they managed to get their belongings out in safety.

Please remember the date of my opening. Beginning at 7:30 o'clock Thursday Sept. 19th, and continuing two days. Every body cordially invited to attend.

MRS. ANNETTE K. JACKSON.

The Mayflower
$2.50 Shoes for women are making a hit

Snappier styles, higher quality, better all-around values than usually get for $3.50 or $4, are their chief claims for popularity. They are better than other $3 shoes because we pay 25 or 50c a pair more for them, and we pay more for them because it is our aim to give patrons better values than other stores to make up for small profits by big sales.

If your children need school shoes see our showing.

Mrs. A. S. Cavender.

BITS OF BY-PLAY.

Our representative was in the town of Fredonia a few days ago and in conversation with J. F. Wyatt learned that he has raised this year 80 acres of tobacco. Taking into consideration the prices ruling, Mr. Wyatt should do well this year barring accidents. Making inquiry of a neighbor as to Mr. Wyatt's whereabouts we were informed that he was in the tobacco patch worming, suckering and cutting all at the same time. It is not often that all these operations are carried on in the same field and in the same day.

C. B. Loyd, Sam Howerton and Willis Ray were all away at market at the same time. This might be termed a cessation of hostilities under a flag of truce to enable each merchant to buy his goods without being undersold by his rivals while away from home. Marion merchants might copy.

J. E. Crider has just finished filling two Silos. Into one he dumped 20 acres of corn and into the other 10 acres.

They are both newly constructed and are marvels of economy in stock feeding. There is not a Silo in Crittenden county. Men who feed a great deal of stock like Ed. Dowell, Billy Barnett, Green Crawford, Phin Croft, Ed. Cook, Tom Griffith, Ed. Flannery and many others could solve many vexatious problems of winter feeding by building Silos.

Mr. Crider's largest Silo is 29 feet high and 20 feet in diameter. The approximate cost was $400. The corn is all saved from the ground to the tassel. An ordinary feed cutter cuts it all into fine bits and then it is blown into the Silo where it is packed by packers. John Wyatt is a Fredonia farmer who runs the Fredonia flouring mill has just completed a new Silo.

This method of storing winter feed is not new to our readers. It will pay any Crittenden County stock raiser to go to Fredonia and investigate their Silos.

Henry Rice slowly got off his mule and came over to the depot.

"I'm going to sell that mule and don't you forget it, just the first chance I get" said Mr. Rice. "I don't propose to keep him any longer than I have to, you can't fool me on a mule."

His hearers of course supposed the mule was about as bad as mules ever get to be and made inquiry to that effect.

"Oh its not that" said Mr. Rice. "The trouble with that mule is he is too gentle." "You can't fool me on a mule. When they are right gentle they are no account. That mule is too gentle for me."

While Mr. Rice was speaking a colored man passed.

"How much do you weigh now John?" said Mr. Rice.

"4,780 pounds" replied John, "I fell off 113 pounds since dinner." The colored man has a peculiar affliction. He has no idea of quantity; 10 pounds is the same to him as 10,000.

We note with more than passing interest that a certain Mr. Benjamin Reed, of Evansville, Ind., broke two of his mothers ribs the other day while embracing her.

The reason for the notation and the amount of interest manifested is caused mainly by the fact that it was his mother. If it had been his Cook or Park-Every-Summer-night-Steady it would have escaped notice.

Apropos of the Picture Show which gave an exhibition of "The Passion Play" in the Opera House the first of September it is very interesting to read in the program that Christ on the mount of transfiguration was seen talking to "Moses and Eliza." We further read that the picture was taken at Ambergain, Switzerland.

Christ was seen talking to Moses and Elias and the play represented is given every 10 years at Ober-Ammergan, a village in Bavaria 45 miles southwest of Munich.

In the year 1633 the inhabitants of this place succeeded in escaping from a plague which devastated the surrounding country. In gratitude for this they made a vow to perform this "Passion Play" once in every 10 years. The staging consists of 350 actors and the chorus 80 members all of which are taken from among the villagers.

It is played for 12 Sundays in a large theatre holding 5,000 people.

This is the time of the campaign orator. From now until election he will be held much in evidence.

Obe Young tells us of a spellbinder who once arose in the court house in Marion and began his address as follows:

"Ladies and gentlemen, fellow citizens and countrymen. After due consideration, deliberation and meditation, I am forced to the conclusion that large cities have more inhabitants than small towns."

The excitement due to this sally did not subside for quite a while.

Obe Young and Mr. Rob Woods went fishing last week. Quite a crowd gathered in front of Orme's drug store where the fishing expedition was being reproduced in debate. Mr. Woods had the floor, or rather the sidewalk, and details were detailed with startling accuracy. Finally Obe secured the rostrum and his relation of the capture of a trout about this long, (full arm measurement) together with the long 20 minute struggle up the bank and back again and Mr. Trout's final escape produced no little excitement. His auditors nodded assent. Every word was accepted as the gospel truth. Not one doubted or said nay. Flashed with success and rising to the occasion Mr. Young said: "Gentlemen I tell you what is the fact. The catfish we caught yesterday were the most vigorous and longest lived fish I ever seen. I cleaned one of them and then cut his head off. I guess it must have been half an hour after, Ma, she poured hot water over it, you know you have to pour hot water on them to skin them and would you believe it, that fish jumped out of the pan. Yes, sir-e-e they were the most sprightly fish I ever seen."

The excitement died suddenly and Will Clark whistled softly and started for his office. The crowd faded away talking vigorously to Mr. Woods. The last anyone heard was a voice pitched rather high "Well, I know it did jump out of the pan."

A few nights ago the picture show put on a prize fight between "Battling Nelson" and the colored pugilist Joe Gans. Hand bills were struck and everybody in town knew exactly the program. A certain good deacon which we name Number One went to prayer meeting, but the prize fight taking place in the Opera House was on his mind.

A certain good Deacon Number Two went to prayer meeting in another church, but the prize fight in the Opera House was on his mind. After the prayer meeting was over Deacon Number One passed by the other church and observed Deacon Number Two in attendance resolved to take in the prize fight for he slyly observed to himself there won't be any church members there.

Deacon Number Two made the same observation to himself and went to the show. When the lights were turned up consternation reigned.

The picture show placed on exhibition for a few nights "The Passion Play" or the life of Christ illustrated. Each night the house was full. Among the prominent faces seen on the first night were noted that of the red gauntlet men, our fellow citizen—Mr. J. Cameron Wallace. Mr. Wallace was in the company of a Methodist and having read the hand bills on the street he felt that he was authority on Passion Plays in general and this one in particular.

As each scene presented itself on the canvass Mr. Wallace explained to his benighted Methodist brother the hidden meaning. Be it remembered right here—Cam Wallace is up the bible. He is a walking concordance—a sort of Literary Digest of the scriptures both old and new.

Cleaning and pressing neatly and promptly done. Spots taken out permanently. Wilson Steam Laundry.

Great Interest In Crayneville Meeting.

The meeting at Crayneville closed Friday night after a continuance of two weeks. Excepting the first few days the weather was ideal. The moonlight nights were perfectly delightful. Notwithstanding the very busy season the attendance was excellent. The interest in the meeting progressed steadily from the beginning and it seemed difficult to come because of the interest. The singing was very fine conducted by T. S. Threlkeld, Song-Evanglist, Violet, Ky. He was ably assisted by his brother, Eulah, who lives at Crayneville. The large choir heartily co-operated with their leaders and their inspiring music added much interest to the services. The spirit of God rested in power up the services and many shouts as in the days of yore went up from that sacred altar. Christians from other communities and churches heartily co-operated in the work. There were seventeen or more professions of faith and thirteen united with the church. The Pastor, Rev. A. J. Thomas, did the preaching, and through all the meeting he was ever present and alert to render his service in every time of need. Rev. J. F. Price did the preaching the last week, and it seemed like old times to have him with us preaching the same old gospel. To God be all the praise.

New Street Light Transformer.

The Marion Electric Light & Ice Co., has just installed a new street light transformer at the light near the Marion Milling Co's plant. The electrical disturbance last week having ruined the one which was installed there three years ago.

Mattoon Tent Meeting Closed Sunday.

One of the most interesting meetings held in years any where in the county closed at Mattoon last Sunday. The meeting had been conducted in a tent for two weeks or more and the interest was good from the start, about twenty professions were made and a great revival felt by all the good people of the vicinity. The Pastor, Rev. R. C. Love, was assisted by Revs. Elgin and Oakley of Marion, also singers Robt. and Chas. Lear of Tolu, and Rev. B. L. Yates of Canton. The weather was superb all the time and the attendance and interest taken was excellent.

Infant Passes Away.

The deep sympathy of every one who knows them goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moore in the loss of their little baby daughter, Margaret Rebecca, who died Wednesday evening, Sept. 18, at 7 o'clock, aged six months. She was buried Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the new cemetery, Rev. Virgil Elgin officiating. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Jas. Henry, Gus Taylor, James Travis, Robt. Cook.

There were many and beautiful floral offerings from friends of the family.

Very Ill at Central City.

Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Fugate were called to Central City a few days ago on account of the serious illness of their daughter, Mrs. Della Reno. The last report says she is no better. Her many friends here hope for her a speedy recovery.—Dixon Journal. Mrs. Reno was Miss Della Fugate before her marriage and was formerly connected with the Press and also the Record in this city.

Barns Burned.

News papers come to the Record-Press from every county in Western Kentucky and nearly every one received in the past week tell of barns of tobacco lost by fire; accidentally caught while firing tobacco.

Secure Reliable Indemnity
In an Experienced Agency

BOURLAND & HAYNES INSURANCE

Opposite Postoffice
Telephone No. 32.

Marion, Ky.

Fire
Lightning
Tornado
Plate Glass

Steam Boiler
Employers' Liability
Personal Accident
Bank Burglary

Every Loss Satisfactorily and Promptly Adjusted

Sankey's Double Header

By FRANK H. SPEARMAN

Copyright, 1900, by Frank H. Spearman

THE oldest man in the train service didn't pretend to say how long Sankey had worked for the company.

Pat Francis was a very old conductor, but old man Sankey was a veteran when Pat Francis began braking. Sankey ran a passenger train when Jimmie Brady was running, and Jimmie afterward enlisted and was killed in the Custer fight.

There was an odd tradition about Sankey's name. He was a tall, swarthy fellow and carried the blood of a Sioux chief in his veins. It was in the time of the Black Hills excitement, when railroad men, struck by the gold fever, were abandoning their trains, even at way stations, and striking across the divide for Clark's Crossing. Men to run the trains were hard to get, and Tom Porter, trainmaster, was putting in every man he could pick up without reference to age or color.

Porter—he died at Julesburg afterward—was a great joller, and he was not afraid of anybody on earth.

One day a war party of Sioux clattered into town. They tore around like a storm and threatened to scalp everything, even to the local tickets. The head braves dashed in on Tom Porter, sitting in the dispatcher's office upstairs. The dispatcher was hiding under a loose plank in the baggage room floor. Tom, being bald as a sand hill, considered himself exempt from scalp parties. He was working a game of solitaire when they bore down on him and interested them at once. That led to a party, which ended in Porter's hiring the whole band to brake on freight trains. Old man Sankey is said to have been one of that original war party.

Now, this is merely a caboose story, told on winter nights when trainmen get stalled in the snow drifting down from the Sioux country. But what follows is better attested.

Sankey, to start with, had a peculiar name—an unpronounceable, unspellable, unmanageable name. I never heard it, so I can't give it. It was as hard to catch as an Indian cur, and that name made more trouble on the payrolls than all the other names put together. Nobody at headquarters could handle it. It was never turned in twice alike, and they were always writing Tom Porter about the thing. Tom explained several times that it was sitting Bull's ambassador who was drawing that money and that he usually signed the payroll with a tomahawk. But nobody at Omaha ever knew how to take a joke.

The first time Tom went down he was called in very solemnly to explain again about the name, and, being in a hurry and very tired of the whole business, Tom spluttered:

"Hang it, don't bother me any more about that name. If you can't read it, make it Sankey and be done with it."

They took Tom at his word. They actually did make it Sankey, and that's how our oldest conductor came to bear the name of the famous singer, and more I may say—good name as it was and is, the Sioux never disgraced it.

Probably every old traveler on the system knew Sankey. He was not only always ready to answer questions, but, what is much more, always ready to answer the same question twice. It is that which makes conductors gray headed and spoils their chances for heaven—answering the same questions over and over again. Children were apt to be a bit startled at first sight of Sankey, he was so dark, but he had a very quiet smile that always made them friends after the second trip through the sleepers, and they sometimes ran about asking for him after he had left the train.

Of late years—and it is this that hurts—these very same children, grown ever so much bigger and riding again to or from California or Japan or Australia, will ask when they reach the West End about the Indian conductor.

But the conductors who now run the overland trains pause at the question, checking over the date limits on the margins of the coupon tickets, and handing the envelopes back, will look at the children and say slowly, "He isn't running any more."

If you have ever gone over our line to the mountains or to the coast you may remember at McCloud, where they change engines and set the diner in or out, the pretty little green park to the east of the depot, with a row of catalpa trees along the platform line. It looks like a glass of spring water.

If it happened to be Sankey's run and a regular West End day, sunny and delightful, you would be sure to see standing under the catalpas a shy, dark skinned girl of fourteen or fifteen years silently watching the preparations for the departure of the overland.

And after the new engine had been backed, champing, down and harnessed to its long string of vestibuled sleepers; after the air hose had been connected and the air valves examined; after the engineer had swung out of his cab, filled his cups and swung in again; after the fireman and his helper had disposed of their slice bar and shovel and given the tender a final sprinkle and the conductor had walked leisurely forward, compared time with the engineer and cried, "All abo-o-o-o-o-o!" then as your coach moved slowly ahead you might notice under the receding catalpas the little girl waving a parasol or a handkerchief at the outgoing train—that is, at Conductor Sankey, for she was his daughter, Neeta Sankey. Her mother was Spanish and died when Neeta was a wee bit. Neeta and the limited were Sankey's whole world.

When George Sinclair began pulling the limited, running west opposite Foley, he struck up a great friendship with Sankey. Sankey, though he was hard to start, was full of early day stories. George, it seemed, had the faculty of getting him to talk, perhaps because when he was pulling Sankey's train he made extraordinary efforts to keep on time—time was a hobby with Sankey. Foley said he was so careful of it that when he was off duty he let his watch stop just to save time.

Sankey loved to breast the winds and the floods and the snows, and if he could get home pretty near on schedule, with everybody else late, he was happy, and in respect of that, as Sankey used to say, George Sinclair could come nearer gratifying Sankey's ambition than any runner we had.

Even the firemen used to observe that the young engineer, always neat, looked still neater the days that he took out Sankey's train. By and by there was an introduction under the catalpas. After that it was noticed that George began wearing gloves on the engine—not kid gloves, but yellow dogskin—and black silk shirts. He bought them in Denver.

Then—an odd way engineers have of paying compliments—when George pulled into town on No. 2, if it was Sankey's train, the big skyscraper would give a short, hoarse scream, a most peculiar note, just as they drew past Sankey's house, which stood on the brow of the hill west of the yards. Then Neeta would know that No. 2 and her father and naturally Mr. Sinclair were in again and all safe and sound.

When the railway trainmen held their division fair at McCloud, there was a lantern to be voted to the most popular conductor—a gold plated lantern, with a green curtain in the globe. Cal Stewart and Ben Doton, who were very swell conductors and great rivals, were the favorites and had the town divided over their chances for winning it.

But during the last moments George Sinclair stepped up to the booth and cast a storm of votes for old man Sankey. Doton's friends and Stewart's laughed at first, but Sankey's votes kept pouring in amazingly. The favorites grew frightened. They pooled their issues by throwing Stewart's vote to Doton, but it wouldn't do. George Sinclair, with a crowd of engineers—Cameron, Moore, Foley, Bat Mullen and Burns—came back at them with such a swing that in the final round up they fairly swamped Doton. Sankey took the lantern by a thousand votes, but I understood it cost George and his friends a pot of money.

Sankey said all the time he didn't want the lantern; but, just the same, he always carried that particular lantern, with his full name, Sylvester Sankey, ground into the glass just below the green mantle. Pretty soon, Neeta being then eighteen, it was rumored that Sinclair was engaged to Miss Sankey—was going to marry her. And marry her he did, though that was not until after the wreck in the Blackwood gorge, the time of the big snow.

It goes yet by just that name on the West End, for never was such a winter and such a snow known on the plains and in the mountains. One train on the northern division was stalled six weeks that winter, and one whole coach was chopped up for kindling wood.

But the great and desperate effort of the company was to hold open the main line, the artery which connected the two coasts. It was a hard winter on trainmen. Week after week the snow kept falling and blowing. The trick was not to clear the line; it was to keep it clear. Every day we sent out trains with the fear we should not see them again for a week.

Freight we didn't pretend to move. Local passenger business had to be abandoned. Coal, to keep our engines and our towns supplied, we were obliged to carry, and after that all the brains and the muscle and the motive power were centered on keeping Nos. 1 and 2, our through passenger trains, running.

Our trainmen worked like Americans. There were no cowards on our rolls. But after too long a strain men became exhausted, bent, indifferent, reckless even. The nerves give out, and will power seems to halt on indecision, but decision is the life of the fast train.

None of our conductors stood the hopeless fight like Sankey. Sankey was patient, taciturn, untiring and, in a conflict with the elements, ferocious. All the fighting blood of his ancestors seemed to course again in that struggle with the winter king. I can see him yet on bitter days standing alongside the track in a heavy pea jacket and Napoleon boots, a sealskin cap drawn snugly over his straight black hair, watching, ordering, signaling, while No. 1, with its frost bitten sleepers behind a rotary, struggled to buck through the ten and twenty foot cuts which lay bankful of snow west of McCloud.

Not until April did it begin to look as if we should win out. A dozen times the line was all but choked on us. And then, when snowplows were disabled and train crews desperate, there came a storm that dismounted the worst blizzard of the winter. As the reports rolled in on the morning of the 5th, growing worse as they grew thicker, Neighbor, dragged out, played out, mentally and physically, threw up his hands. The 6th it snowed all day, and on Saturday morning the section men reported thirty feet in the Blackwood canyon.

It was 6 o'clock when we got the word and daylight before we got the rotary against it. They bucked away till noon, with discouraging results, and came in with their gear smashed and a driving rod fractured. It looked as if we were beaten.

No. 1 got into McCloud eighteen hours late. It was Sankey's and Sinclair's run west.

There was a long council in the roundhouse. The rotary was knocked out. Coal was running low in the chutes. If the line wasn't kept open for the coal from the mountains, it was plain we should be tied until we could ship it from Iowa or Missouri. West of Medicine Pole there was another big rotary working east, with plenty of coal behind her, but she was reported stuck fast in the Cheyenne hills.

Foley made suggestions, and Dad Sinclair made suggestions. Everybody had a suggestion left. The trouble was, Neighbor said, they didn't amount to anything or were impossible.

"It's a dead block, boys," announced Neighbor sullenly after everybody had done. "We are beaten unless we can get No. 1 through today. Look there! By the holy poker, it's snowing again!"

The air was dark in a minute with swirling clouds. Men turned to the windows and quit talking. Every fellow felt the same—at least all but one. Sankey, sitting back of the stove, was making tracings on his overalls with a piece of chalk.

"You might as well unload your passengers, Sankey," said Neighbor. "You'll never get 'em through this winter."

And it was then that Sankey proposed his double header.

He devised a snowplow which combined in one monster ram about all the good material we had left and submitted the scheme to Neighbor. Neighbor studied it and hacked at it all he could and brought it over to the office. It was like staking everything on the last cast of the dice, but we were in the state of mind which precedes a desperate venture. It was talked over for an hour, and orders were finally given by the superintendent to rig up the double header and get against the snow as quick as it could be made ready.

All that day and most of the night Neighbor worked twenty men on San-

The cabs were buried in white. key's device. By Sunday morning it was in such shape that we began to take heart.

"If she don't get through she'll get back again, and that's what most of 'em don't do," growled Neighbor as he and Sankey showed the new ram to the engineers.

They had taken the 500. George Sinclair's engine, for one head and Burns' 497 for the other. Behind these were Kennedy, with the 314, and Cameron, with the 296. The engines were set in pairs, backed each way and bucked up like pack mules. Over the pilots and stacks or the head engines rose the tremendous plows which were to tackle the toughest drifts ever recorded, before or since, on the West End. The ram was designed to work both ways. Under the coal each tender was loaded with pig iron.

The beleaguered passengers on No. 1, sidetracked in the yards, watched the preparations Sankey was making to clear the line. Every amateur on the train had his camera snapping at the ram. The town, gathered in a single mob, looked silently on and listened to the frosty notes of the skyscrapers as they went through their preliminary maneuvers. Just as the final word was given by Sankey, in charge, the sun burst through the fleecy clouds, and a wild cheer followed the ram out

(Continued on next page.)

For Thin, Poor Blood

You can trust a medicine tested 60 years! Sixty years of experience, think of that! Experience with Ayer's Sarsaparilla; the original Sarsaparilla; the strongest Sarsaparilla; the Sarsaparilla the doctors endorse for thin blood, weak nerves, general debility.

But even this grand old medicine cannot do its best work if the liver is inactive and the bowels constipated. For the best possible results, you should take laxative doses of Ayer's Pills while taking the Sarsaparilla. The liver will quickly respond, and so will the bowels.

Made by J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of HARK VIGOR, AGUE CURE, CHERRY PECTORAL.

Ayer's

OBITUARY.

Little Lizzie Conger was born July 13, 1907 and died the 26th of August. She was a sweet little baby and was sick only a short time. She got sick one night about 10 o'clock and died the next day at 12 o'clock. Weep not father and mother, for little Lizzie has gone to God. He called her to the better world. She can not come to you, but you can go to her.

The mother gave in tears and pain, The flower she most did love. She knew she would find her again In fields of light above.

It was not in cruelty, not in wrath, The Savior came that day, 'Twas an angel visited the earth And took the flower away.

—HER AUNT.

A Remedy Without an Equal.

Try Yucatan Chili Tonic, is a sure cure for Colds, La Grippe and Rheumatism; will cure you, acceptable to the most delicate person, results are positive and you feel better after taking one dose. Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act. Price 50c. For sale by all druggists.

Is Mother Soon After Being Injured.

Paducah, Ky., Sept. 18.—Mrs. R. G. Rainey knocked a bottle of carbolic acid from a shelf and received terrible burns on the breast last night. Four hours later she birth to a daughter. Her injuries are serious.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera And Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicines for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by J. H. Orme the leading drug store in Western Ky, Haynes & Taylor the enterprising druggists of Marion.

PIMPLES WHY BE DISFIGURED WITH PIMPLES AND BLACK HEADS

When ZEMO, a clean liquid for external use, will quickly and permanently cure you! Greasy salves and creams cannot cure you, and the electric needle leaves scars. Pimples are caused by a germ. ZEMO draws these germs and their toxins to the surface and destroys them, leaving a nice clear, healthy skin. ZEMO is an honest remedy, and has never failed to cure. It is recognized as "The world's greatest cure for all diseases of the skin and scalp."

Write for sample and booklet, your druggist will refund if Zemo fails to cure.

HARRISBURG, ILL., May 10, 1906. E. W. ROSE MEDICINE CO., ST. LOUIS, MO. Gentlemen—I highly endorse your remedy for the cure of all skin and scalp diseases. For the cure of pimples, I believe your remedy easily surpasses anything in the world today. Yours very truly, HARRY HARPER, Texas. Expelling Hustlers.

PREPARED ONLY BY E. W. ROSE MEDICINE CO. 3032 Olive Street, ST. LOUIS, MO. GUARANTEED AND SOLD BY HAYNES & TAYLOR.

MARION Electric Theatre!

Open Every Night, 8 to 10:30 o'clock.

Moving Pictures, Illustrated Songs. Special Attention Given Ladies and Children. ADMISSION 10 Cents.

John S. McCorkle,

Manufacturer of Doors, Sash, Frames, Mouldings, Blinds, Flooring, Ceiling, and House Patterns.

Cor. Walnut and 8th St. EVANSVILLE, IND.

Every Young Man

KNOWS THAT

All large salaries are earned in business. We train young people for profitable employment. Our own "copyrighted" system of bookkeeping meets modern requirements. Over 500 students annually. Fifty typewriters for instruction purposes. Eight teachers.

Write for Lockyear's Catalog

BUSINESS COLLEGE
Evansville, Indiana

Hundreds of graduates in positions. Bookkeeping, Penmanship, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spelling, Business Law, Banking, Shorthand, Typewriting and Telegraphy. —Indiana's Greatest School.

BEST OF PROOF.

That Hyomei Will Cure All Forms Of Catarrhal Diseases.

Testimonials could be printed by the thousands, many of them from Marion and nearby towns, that Hyomei is an absolute cure for all catarrhal troubles, but the best proof of its unusual curative powers is the guarantee that Haynes & Taylor give with every outfit that they sell. "Money back if Hyomei does not do all that is claimed for it."

Hyomei is not a secret remedy. Its formula is given freely to physicians who want to know what they use when they prescribe Hyomei. It is guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Law by serial No. 1418.

By breathing Hyomei, the healing medication goes directly to every nook and corner of the air passages where the catarrhal germs may lurk, and disinfects and heals. To be convinced of this you have only to give it a trial, remembering that if it does not cure, Haynes & Taylor will refund your money.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00, and in most cases is sufficient to cure the disease, making it not only a scientific treatment but one that is highly economical. Get an outfit today from Haynes & Taylor if you have any catarrh.

Men Past Sixty In Danger.

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate gland. This is both painful and dangerous. Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rock Port, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 91 years old." J. H. Orme.

WALTER McCONNELL

Parlor Barber Shop and Bath Room.

Everything Clean, Neat and First Class.

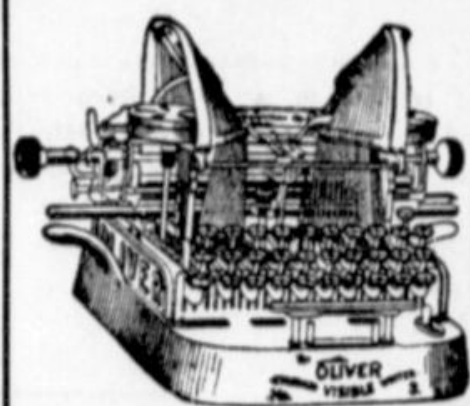

Jenkins Building. MARION, KY.

For Chills, Fevers And Malaria.

Try Yucatan Chili Tonic; it cures to stay cured. Insist on having it. Get the genuine. Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act. Price 50c. Sold by all druggists.

Mark Well What You Buy!

DO NOT BUY A TOY! GET AN Oliver Typewriter.

We know something of the beginning and ending of the OLIVER typewriter.

The beginning is pleasure. The ending is joy and satisfaction over work well done.

Thirty-three OLIVER machines sold in the town of Marion to date.

No other typewriter here has such a record.

Crider & Woods

Telephone 15. Over Postoffice Marion, Ky.

of the western yard. It was good luck to see the sun again.

Little Neeta up on the hill must have seen them as they pulled out. Surely she heard the choppy, ice bitten screech of the 596. That was never forgotten, whether the service was special or regular. Besides, the head cab of the ram carried this time not only George Sinclair, but her father as well. Sankey could handle a slice bar as well as a punch and rode on the head engine, where, if anywhere, the big chances hovered. What he was not capable of in the train service he never knew, because he was stronger than any emergency that ever confronted him.

Bucking snow is principally brute force. There is little coaxing. Just west of the bluffs, like code signals between a fleet of cruisers, there was a volley of sharp tooting, and in a minute the four ponderous engines, two of them in the back motion, fires white and throats bursting, steamed wildly into the canyon.

Six hundred feet from the first cut Sinclair's whistle signaled again. Burns and Cameron and Kennedy answered, and then, literally turning the monster ram loose against the damming mountain, the crews settled themselves for the shock.

At such a moment there is nothing to be done. If anything goes wrong, eternity is too close to consider. There came a muffled drumming on the steam chests, a stagger and a terrific impact and then the recoil, like the stroke of a trip hammer. The snow shoots into the air fifty feet, and the wind carries a cloud of snowy confusion over the ram and out of the cut. The cabs were buried in white, and the great steel frames of the engines sprung like knitting needles under the frightful blow.

Pausing for hardly a breath, the signaling again began, then the backing, up and up and up the line, and again the massive machines were buried screaming into the cut.

"You're getting there, George!" exclaimed Sankey when the rolling and lurching had stopped. No one else could tell a thing about it, for it was snow and snow and snow, above and behind and ahead and beneath. Sinclair coughed the flakes out of his eyes and nose and mouth, like a baffled collic. He looked doubtful of the claim until the mist had blown clear and the quivering monsters were again recoiled for a dash. Then it was plain that Sankey's instinct was right. They were gaining.

Again they went in, lifting a very avalanche over the stacks, packing the banks of the cut with walls hard as ice. Again as the drivers stuck their heads in a frenzy, and into the shriek of the wind went the unearthly screech of the overloaded safeties.

Slowly and sulkily the machines were backed again.

"She's doing the work, George!" cried Sankey. "For that kind of a cut she's as good as a rotary. Look everything over now while I go back and see how the boys are standing it. Then we'll give her one more and give it the hardest kind."

And they did give her one more, and another. Men at Santiago put up no stouter fight than they made that Sunday morning in the canyon of the Blackwood. Once and twice more they went in, and the second time the bumping drummed more deeply. The drivers held, pushed, panted and gained against the white wall, heaved and stumbled ahead, and, with a yell from Sinclair and Sankey and the fireman, the double header shot her nose into the clear over the Blackwood gorge. As engine after engine flew past the divided walls each cab took up the cry. It was the wildest shout that ever crowned victory.

Through they went and halfway across the bridge before they could check their monster catapult. Then at a half full they shot it back at the cut. It worked as well one way as the other.

"The thing is done," declared Sankey. Then they got into position up the line for a final shot to clean the eastern cut and to get the head for a dash across the bridge into the west end of the canyon, where lay another mountain of snow to split.

"Look the machines over close, boys," said Sankey to the engineers. "If nothing's sprung we'll take a full head across the gorge—the bridge will carry anything—and buck the west cut. Then after we get No. 1 through this afternoon Neighbor can get his baby cabs in here and keep 'em chasing all night. But it's done showing," he added, looking into the leaden sky.

He had everything figured out for the master mechanic—the shrewd, kindly old man. There's no man on earth like a good Indian and, for that matter, none like a bad one. Sankey knew by a military instinct just what had to be done and how to do it. If he had lived he was to have been assistant superintendent. That was the word which leaked from headquarters after he got killed.

And, with a volley of jokes between the cabs and a laughing and a yelling between toots, down went Sankey's double header again into the Blackwood gorge.

At the same moment, by an awful misunderstanding of orders, down came the big rotary from the West End with a dozen cars of coal behind it. Mile after mile it had wormed east toward Sankey's ram, burrowed through the western cut of the Blackwood, crashed through the drift Sankey was aiming for and then whirled out into the open, dead against him, at forty miles an hour. Each train, in order to make the grade and the blockade, was straining the cylinders.

Through the swirling snow which half hid the bridge and swept between the rushing plows Sinclair saw them coming. He yelled. Sankey saw them a fraction of a second later, and while Sinclair struggled with the throttle and the air, Sankey gave the alarm through the whistle to the poor fellows in the blind pockets behind. But the track was at the worst. Where there was no snow there were whiskers. Oil it, self couldn't have been worse to stop on. It was the old and deadly peril of fighting blockades from both ends on a single track.

The great rams of steel and fire had done their work, and, with their common enemy overcome, they dashed at each other, frenzied, across the Blackwood gorge.

The fireman at the first cry shot out the side. Sankey yelled at Sinclair to jump, but George shook his head. He never would jump. Without hesitating an instant, Sankey caught him in his arms, tore him from the levers, planted a mighty foot and hurled Sinclair like a block of coal through the gangway out into the gorge. The other cabs were already emptied, but the instant's delay in front cost Sankey's life. Before he could turn the rotary crashed into the 596. They reared like mountain lions and pitched headlong into the gorge. Sankey went under them.

He could have saved himself. He chose to save George. There wasn't time to do both. He had to choose.

Sankey hurled Sinclair through the gangway out into the gorge.

and he chose instinctively. Did he, maybe, think in that flash of Neeta and of whom she needed most, of a young and a stalwart protector better than an old and a falling one? I do not know. I know only what he did.

Every one who jumped got clear. Sinclair lit in twenty feet of snow, and they pulled him out with a rope. He wasn't scratched. Even the bridge was not badly strained. No. 1 pulled over it next day. Sankey was right—there was no more snow, not enough to hide the dead engines on the rocks. The line was open.

There never was a funeral in McCloud like Sankey's. George Sinclair and Neeta followed together, and of mourners there were as many as there were people. Every engine on the division carried black for thirty days.

His contrivance for fighting snow has never yet been beaten on the high line. It is perhaps to go against a drift behind it. Something has to give.

But it gets there, as Sankey got there, always, and in time of blockade and desperation on the West End they will send out Sankey's double header, though Sankey—so the conductors tell the children, traveling east or traveling west—Sankey isn't running any more.

Buzzy Man Versus Buzzy Man.

Those who tell you they "always are rushed to death" usually accomplish the least, and largely because they are imaginative. The really busy man, who turns off an immense amount of work with the quiet and precision of a perfect machine, must have the imagination to look ahead a day or a month or a year. At the least, his thought is always a few seconds ahead of his action; his head saves his heels; he is not continually tripping over his own feet. But the buzzy man can never understand the busy man. Having no imagination himself, he saves his own face by saying that the man who never fusses over his work has little to do.

Let us hear no more about imagination being impracticable. It is one of the most practical things in the world. A due proportion of it used with judgment "will from many a blunder free us and foolish notion." The only condition under which it may seem superfluous is that of one who has some monotonous task to perform automatically day after day. Doubtless if one is to be in an automatic job forever the less imagination the better, but if he is ever to get out of it the quicker he cultivates some imagination the sooner will he get out.—Chicago Tribune.

His Lack of Modesty.

"That man has absolutely no sense of shame."

"I know it. When he was in college he allowed himself to be photographed in his, sprinting suit."—Lippincott's Magazine.

His Stories.

Yeast—Who is your wife's favorite author?

Crimsonbeak—I am. She says I make up some of the most wonderful stories she ever heard.—Yonkers Statesman.

Ancient Philosophy.

"The man," said Epicurus solemnly, "who utilized the number had a grate mind."—Baltimore American.

Hogwallow News.

A pencil is plumb full of fine thoughts but it takes work to get them out.

If you are in jail and trying to make your escape, keep it a secret from the jailer.

Poke Hazley got into a fight with Frisby Hancock Tuesday and rushed off after a fence rail, but it took him so long to find one that he was in a good humor when he got back.

The window light in the Dog Hill church cracked suddenly the other day. It is supposed that it was stretched too tight.

The big mulberry tree on Musket Ridge was suddenly struck by lightning Saturday and was destroyed by fire. A strong effort was made to save the fruit but it was in vain.

Infants are a queer set of people. They wail and squall and to save their lives they cannot tell you what they are crying about.

The doctors and the Lord are never called on until we get dangerously sick.

Beauty is only as deep as the paper on the photo.

Where there's so much croaking there's bound to be some frogs.

It is safer to use an umbrella for a walking cane than it is to try to use a cane for an umbrella.

A large bullet fell suddenly to the earth in Hogwallow today. It is very old looking and is believed to be one of those fired into the air during the civil war.

Pain anywhere, pain in the head, painful periods, neuralgia, toothache, all pains can be promptly stopped by a thoroughly safe little Pink Candy Tablet, known by druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets. Pain simply means congestion—undue blood pressure at the point where pain exists. Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets quickly equalize this unnatural blood pressure, and pain immediately departs. Write Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis., and get a free trial package. Large box 25 cts. Haynes & Taylor, druggists.

Subterranean Stream Changes Color.

Danville, Ky., Sept. 18.—Four years ago a number of gentlemen endeavoring to establish an ice plant here drilled a well to the depth of 500 feet on the property of William Stillman, of this city. For unknown reasons the enterprise was abandoned and the well stopped up. It was reopened last week and the water in it is the most unusual character. For fifteen minutes the stream in the bottom of this remarkable opening runs water bearing the color and specific gravity of sweet milk, then the water changes to golden red in color then to jet black and then it becomes as clear as a crystal.

These four changes occur regularly every hour, day and night, and scientific men and local geologists are much mystified. Mr. Stillman is arranging to send a quantity of each color to the State chemist at Lexington that the same may be thoroughly analyzed.

Don't neglect your stomach. At the first indication of trouble take something that will help it along in its work of digesting the food you eat. Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia will do this. Sold by J. H. Orme.

The New Pure Food And Drug Law.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. J. H. Orme.

Coffee Mill Used Forty-Two Years.

Jasper, Ind., Sept. 18.—The coffee mill owned by Samuel Morgan, and which had been used forty-two years to a day, like the wonderful "one horse shay," gave way this morning, and Mr. Morgan was compelled to purchase a new machine before he could have coffee ground for dinner.

DeWitt's Carbolic Witch Hazel Salve is good for boils, burns, cuts, scalds and skin diseases. It is a good first aid remedy.

"She Certainly Will Appreciate It; She Certainly Will."

Have you read "The Southern Maiden's Reply?" It is a touching little love poem by Mr. Charles Frederick Stansbury, now going the rounds. Under the magnolias the youth is telling his love in language hot as lava from Vesuvius. He speaks thoughts that breathe in words that burn to the extent of about thirty lines of verse.

"And this is what the maiden said—
Her words were choice and few:
"I certainly do appreciate it;
I certainly do."

One of the things that women certainly do appreciate—they certainly do—is a full page advertisement of bargains in a store near enough for them to visit. In the big cities such pages appear daily. Why? Because the merchants know that the women appreciate it. They certainly do know it.

All women are very appreciative in the matter of shopping bargains. They are so appreciative that they make mental note of the things they want, as advertised, and make a bee line for the store that keeps those things on hand and lets them know about it.

If the merchants in the smaller cities and towns—this one, for instance—would do more of this kind of advertising, the women certainly would appreciate it; they certainly would.

AND THE MERCHANTS CERTAINLY WOULD BE BENEFITED; THEY CERTAINLY WOULD.

A Fable For Critics

Once there was an Ox. He was a fine, hefty Ox. He could pull a big load. He never balked, but always liked to go straight ahead.

But the Ox had enemies.

There was the Flea and his whole big family. "We don't care whether this Ox travels or not," said the Flea and his folks. "All we want is some of his blood." Whereupon the Fleas eternally pestered the Ox and gave him That Tired Feeling.

Then there was the Tom Cat and his brothers—the Doubting Thomases. "We don't know whether this Ox is going the right way or not," said the Thomases. "Anyhow, we'll scratch his back for him." Whereupon the Felines jumped on the back of the Ox and scratched him for fair, which made the Ox exceedingly sorrowful.

Then there was the Fiste Pup and his Fellow Fistes—a whole litter of Fistes. "We don't care how slow the Ox goes," said the Fistes; "the slower the merrier for us. All we want is to lag behind him and bite his Tail." Whereupon the Fistes snapped continually at the Tail of the Ox, which gave the Ox a mighty mournfulness.

Finally the Ox, pestered constantly with the Fleas and the Felines and the Fistes, got to looking sickly. He stopped and lay down on his job, and there was no more going forward for him.

KEY TO THE SITUATION: The town is the Ox. The Fleas and the Felines and the Fistes are those citizens who criticize every progressive movement and do everything they can in their petty ways to make the Ox quit pulling in the right direction.

MORAL: Give the Ox a chance to pull. Everybody holler, "Git up!"

MICA

Axle Grease

takes miles off the road, and weight from the load. Helps the team and pays the teamster. Practically destroys friction. Saves half the wear that comes from jolting over rough roads, and lengthens the life of a heavy vehicle more than any other one thing. Ask the dealer for Mica Axle Grease.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
Incorporated

TOTAL LOSS NO INSURANCE!

Is the oft repeated expression which tells its own tale of putting off till tomorrow that which should have been done today.

Neglecting to insure causes a loss of many millions of dollars every year to property owners. Don't be one of them, but get your insurance now.

I represent one of the strongest insurance offices in the land, and without question the oldest in the world, being established in 1710.

LET ME INSURE YOUR PROPERTY

Jno. A. Moore

WHITE'S

Worm Vermifuge

THE GUARANTEED

WORM

REMEDY

THE CHILDREN'S FAVORITE TONIC.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. THE GENUINE PREPARED ONLY BY

Ballard-Snow Liniment Co.

ST. LOUIS, MO.

Sold and recommended by J. H. Orme

F. W. NUNN, DENTIST.

Rooms 2 and 4 Jenkins Bldg., Marion, - - Kentucky.

All work guaranteed. If any work proves unsatisfactory, please call at my office at once.

Metz & Sedberry BARBERS

Clean towels, first class work, electric massage, hot or cold bath. Give us a call. Opposite postoffice.

Dr. M. Ravdin,

Practice Limited to Diseases and Defects of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

Suites 16 and 17, Arcade Building. Glasses fitted.

EVANSVILLE, - INDIANA

Nunn & Tucker

Undertakers and

Furniture Dealers

Salem St. MARION, KY.

FREDERICK S. STILLWELL, DENTIST

Over Marion Bank Building

All Work Guaranteed

Fall and Winter CLOTHING

Yandell-Gugenheim Company.

Prices to suit all purses.

Rev. T. A. Conway moved from Marion to this place yesterday. He and his family are now citizens of Smithland. A number of farmers of the Blooming Grove section sent their wagons to Marion to bring his household goods here.—Livingston Echo.

M. N. WILKEY, Agt.

Six years ago today William McKinley died and Theodore Roosevelt took the oath of office as President of the United States, says the New York World. These have been six eventful years, and Mr. Roosevelt could not spend the day to better advantage than by taking a dispassionate inventory of his stewardship. Should the President do this he would discover, perhaps to his own

In his enforcement of existing statutes Mr. Roosevelt has been at his best. This has been his most noteworthy service to the people of the United States, the achievement for which he deserves a secure place in history. He has broken up the partnership that existed between the great corporations and the government of the United States and again

MRS. SUSAN GLENN,
Marion, Ky.

Main Street, - - Marion, Ky.

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE

Have found it to their interest to trade with us. Why not you?

You Like Good CLOTHES

Why not get them when they cost you no more than many others that are much inferior to them.

"STERLING"

AND

"PERFECTION"

Suits for men and boys are all their names implies, and in workmanship and style are unexcelled

OVERCOATS!

For men and boys.

Ladies' Misses' and Children's Cloaks

Direct from the factory to us. You have no old style nor jobber's profits to pay when you buy cloaks of us.

If you want the newest things in Neckwear!

See our line.

New line of

HATS!

Money saved to you if you want a

CARPET
DRUGGET
RUG OR MATTING

New line of

Belts and Hand Bags!

Fancy and plain Dress Goods!

Although there has been a big advance in almost all dress goods we are prepared to sell them to you at the old price.

Complete line of Hosiery and Underwear!

Direct from the mills.

Shirts, Collars Underwear.

SHOES!

FOR

Service Comfort Style

Are the kind we have. If you do not want these, look somewhere else.

If that is the kind, come look for yourself and you'll be convinced.

"Good for Bad Boys" Shoes are the kind that wear well.

None genuine without the Good for bad boys stamp on sole of shoe.

WE GIVE YOU GOOD VALUES AND PLEASE YOU TOO

TAYLOR & CANNAN

BRIM FULL OF BARGAINS

F. W. Nunn, dentist, Press Building.

For healthful exercise, play box ball at Doss's alley.

Miss Casner is well known here where she graduated in the Marion High School.

R. E. Wilborn and Seldon Hughes spent Sunday afternoon at Dawson Springs.

M. G. Sale, of Paducah, who was the guest of his son, left Wednesday morning for his home.

Rev. McDonald, D. D. will preach at the C. P. church in Marion on the first Sunday in October at 11 o'clock. At night at 7 o'clock.

Rev. J. H. Smith, principal of the Sturgis High School, will preach at the Christian church next Sunday at 11 a. m.

See the latest thing in hand bags at The Novelty.

C. J. Pierce is attending the State Fair and Home Coming at Nashville this week.

Wm. Tyner, of Salem, passed through town en route to Louisville to attend the State Fair.

Leslie Bibb and W. D. Shoemaker returned Wednesday from the James-town and other points of interest.

Miss Margaret Casner will open a dress making establishment over Thomson Bros. store next Monday and invites the ladies to call and see her.—Providence Enterprise.

To pass away a dull hour, play Box Ball, Doss's alley.

S. Gugenheim and J. D. Farris are in Louisville this week buying goods for the Salem store.

Miss Addie Franks left Tuesday for Commerce, Texas, where she will spend the winter with her sister.

Mrs. Luther Miller is attending Presbytery in Morganfield.

W. B. Yandell purchased the old Baptist church property last Saturday at $585.00 which is considered quite a bargain by real estate men.

Invitation have been received in this city by friends of Miss Ada Robinson formerly of this city, but now of Nashville, Tenn., to attend her wedding which took place at the home of her mother, last Wednesday, when she was married to Mr. Arthur S. Watts, of Nashville, a clerk in the Custom House. Mr. and Mrs. Watts will reside in Nashville.

Go to The Novelty for the new fall styles in belts and collars.

F. W. Nunn, dentist, Press Building. Miss Ina Koon returned Friday to her home at Frances.

I. B. Gable, of Evansville, was in our city Tuesday.

J. C. Bibb who has been visiting his parents, left Friday for his home in Norfolk, Va.

Uriah Terry left Friday for Columbia to attend the Conference, which convened in that city this week.

Rev. Willis Pierce and family were in the city Friday en route to Livingston county, where they will reside for a while. Mr. Pierce's health has declined so, that he gave up his church that he might rest a few months.

Mrs. D. E. Woods, of St. Louis, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kevil, and friends in this city.

Mrs. Ernest Melton and children, of Providence, were in this city last week, en route to Leitchfield to visit her sister, Mrs. L. S. Rogers.

Miss Ada Terry is the guest of friends in Calvert City this week.

Mrs. R. C. Love left Saturday for Greenville, where she will spend a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. C. A. William.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nunn, of Blackford, were in the city Saturday en route to Tolu to visit relatives.

A large number of Woodmen from neighboring towns are expected to be here Sunday to assist in the unveiling ceremonies at the Morgan monument erected by that organization.

G. R. Johnson and wife and Miss Jessie O. Wilson, of Marion, Ky., arrived in this city yesterday morning and will make this country their future home.—Abilene Texas News.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gilliland, of Rolling Fork, Miss., arrived in this city Thursday and are now the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Gilliland.

Charlie Hughes, of Gainsville, Texas, spent a few days last week visiting relatives in this city.

Messrs H. K. Woods, J. O. Dixon and C. E. Weldon returned from Louisville, where they had been to the State Fair.

Mrs. Emma Hayward returned Friday from Dawson, where she has spent the summer.

John Eskew was in Louisville last week attending the State fair.

Hon. W. J. Deboe spent a few days last week in Louisville attending the State Fair.

Leonard and Henry Waddington, of Memphis, Tenn., who have been visiting friends in this city, left Thursday for Gracoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rappolee, of Salem, were in the city Thursday en route home from Louisville.

Dr. Threlkeld, of Salem, was in town Thursday en route home from Louisville where he attended the State Fair.

Miss Estelle Walker was the guest of Mrs. Roy Gilbert of Sturgis a few days last week.

Mrs. F. M. Davidson who has been visiting relatives in Boone county, returned home Thursday.

LOST—A gold stick pin with alligator tooth, Sunday morning. Finder will please notify Mrs. H. K. Woods.

The Woodmen of the World will unveil the monument to the memory of Sov. T. N. Morgan, at the new cemetery, with appropriate and impressive ceremonies next Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Mrs. Harry Rutter, of Hardin, Ky., after visiting friends in this city, left Thursday for home.

LOST.—On Thursday Sept. 12th, between Marion and the Columbia mines, a two-year-old child's gray bear skin cloak. Finder will please return it to the Drescher residence on West Salem street Marion, Ky., and receive reward.

Mrs. WILL DRESCHER.

Richard Miles, of Hardesty, was in the city Monday and was a pleasant and profitable caller at the Record-Press office.

Rev. J. P. Stubblefield, of Corydon, Ky., will deliver a sermon on Woodcraft, at the Opera House, at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. He is an able speaker and everybody is cordially invited to come and hear him.

Enterprise Casket Co., Botesville, Ind., have secured the services of Grant Davidson as traveling salesman. He will begin work for them Oct. first.

Coal for sale at the Applegate mine one-fourth mile below Vick's old mine. Lump 5 cents, nut 3 cents. Your patronage solicited. Yours respectfully, Quirey & Harmon.

Mrs. Malvina Asher, wife of Squire W. H. Asher, is quite ill and is threatened with typhoid fever. Her daughter, Mrs. Ben Thurmond, of Blackford, arrived Monday at noon to wait on her.

Misses Maude and Bernice Driskill spent Sunday with friends in Princeton.

Jeff Asher, of Blackford, was called to this city on the account of the illness of his mother, Mrs. W. H. Asher.

Mrs. T. H. Cochran left Monday for Nashville, Tenn., to attend the Home Coming and visit friends.

Mrs. Henry Terry, of Sheridan, was in the city Saturday en route to Grand Rivers.

Karl Ferguson, of Providence, was in the city Saturday.

Mrs. J. R. Steinman left Monday morning for Muncie, Ind., to spend a few weeks visiting friends and relatives.

Misses Jettie Wilkerson and Annie Stapp, of Corydon, are the guests of Mrs. James Hicklin.

Hudnall Landram, of Chicago, spent Sunday with relatives in this city.

Rev. R. C. Love left Monday for a weeks visit with his daughter, Mrs. C. A. Williams of Greenville.

Give your cleaning and pressing to the laundry boy, who will call for and deliver it in nice condition. Wilson Steam Laundry.

Clarence Franks spent a few days the first of the week with relatives in Tolu.

Anderson Woods, of Washington, was in the city this week visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Staton, of Clarksville, Tenn., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Staton Sunday.

Robt. Lear and L. E. Guess, of Tolu, were in the city Monday en route to Columbia to attend Conference.

Mrs. J. G. Rochester is the guest of her brother, Geo. Cochran, of Nashville, Tenn.

If our boy fails to call for your laundry we would appreciate your telephoning us. Wilson Steam Laundry.

Miss Ruby James who has been visiting in Webster City, Iowa, for several months, returned home Sunday morning.

Col L. H. James and daughters, Misses Lizzie and Ruby, are attending the Home Coming in Nashville this week.

Rev. Jas. F. Price is assisting in a meeting near Buechel, Ky., at Pleasant Grove Church which is in Jefferson County, near Louisville. J. M. Lovern formerly of this county is the singer.

George S. Gaines assistant cashier of the First National Bank at Edyville left there Monday evening for Jamestown, Va., to attend the exposition. Miss Jennie Ingram of Paducah joined him at Princeton, and they will be married when they reach Jamestown. Miss Ingram is a relative of County Clerk J. M. Smith, of Lyon County and has visited him often and it was there the courtship began. Mr. Gaines will on his return take charge of the Bank at Cerulean Springs as cashier and they will reside there.

John Slaton was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. J. F. Brown Sunday.

Call and see Mrs. Cavender's new and up-to-date line of cloaks.

Lossie Gilbert, an "expert horse-shoer of Marion, has been employed by Dr. J. W. Smith to run the Shelton shop and invites the patronage of those who want first class shoeing.—Providence Enterprise.

Miss May Jackson of Fredonia Valley section of this county was here this week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ashbridge on Wilson Hill.

Mrs. Cavender has a new and pretty line of cloaks.

Rufe Clark and Miss Addie Conyer spent Wednesday afternoon at Crittenden Springs.

Miss Mary Cameron, Hopkinsville, is at home, having closed her office there. The Postal Telegraph office here is also closed, Tom Cameron being also out on a strike.

FOR RENT.—A four roomed house on West Depot street, apply to MISS MARTHA HENRY.

R. F. Dorr the funeral director and only licensed embalmer has added another nice feature to his sample rooms, which is a set of display cases for showing fine white or in fact any kind of a fine coffin. It encloses them in glass and enables him to have the finest and most delicate goods in full view at all times. Mr. Dorr is a leader in his line and has a firm hold on the undertaking business here.

Miss Rebecca Williams, of Providence, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Sam Gugenheim, left Wednesday morning for her home.

Quite a number of persons went from this place, to Princeton to hear the Hon. W. O. Bradley speak.

Rev. and Mrs. Ben Andres returned Monday from Rockport, where he has been conducting a meeting.

Rufus Clark, of Springfield, Mo., who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Clark, left the first of this week for his home.

Clarence Gilliland, who has been attending school in Bowling Green, is at home on a visit.

J. L. Shrode, of Hopkinsville, was in this city Tuesday.

Mrs. S. T. Dupuy returned Tuesday from Ada, O., where she had been the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. H. Butler.

Mrs. J. F. Brown and Mrs. A. J. Stenbridge were the guests of friends and relatives in Sturgis last week.

Call on Eskew Bros. for the best wheat grower on earth.

Texas Groom And Kentucky Bride.

Quincy A. Lowery, a member of The News force, stole a march on his friends by taking unto himself Thursday night at the home of his mother in Southeast Abilene, a helpmate, Miss Jesse O. Wilson, late of Marion, Ky. Rev. Osment officiating. Quincy is the son of James A. Lowery, and came to Abilene with his father in 1882, and he has many friends who join in wishing him and the young lady he has chosen for a life time companion, a pleasant voyage as together they sail out on the ocean of time —Abilene Texas News.

Republicans Nominate Albert Butler.

The Republican joint county convention met Saturday Sept. 21st, to nominate a candidate for a representative to the state legislature. Mr. Albert Butler was nominated by acclamation, there being no opposition. Judge W. A. Blackburn of this county was the chairman of this body and Chas. Ferguson, School Superintendent of Livingston and also Editor of The Livingston Echo, was its secretary.

BLACKFORD.

As we are able to boast of one of the cleanest and most business little towns on the banks of that historic stream, Tradewater, would be more than pleased to see her represented in the columns of the dear old Record-Press.

We are greatly in need of rain at this time.

A special excursion train run from Dixon, Ky., to Evansville, Ind., Sunday. Several from here took advantage of the reduced rates and report a nice time.

John R. Roberts, who is now employed as section foreman by the Illinois Central railroad company at Morganfield, spent Sunday at this place.

Jessie Garnett, who has been working in Clay county, Arkansas, for the past six months, has returned to his native home.

Mrs. Tabor is visiting in Evansville this week.

Curt Binkley, fireman on the I. C. railroad, spent Sunday here.

For Bad Breath And Sour Stomach

Try Carstedt's German Liver Powder; removes the cause instantly. A cure guaranteed. Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act. Price 25c. Sold by all druggists.

A sore throat is a dangerous malady but you don't need to tie a sock around your neck to cure it.

BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT

will cure that throat in short order. Ballard's Snow Liniment penetrates the pores, promoting free circulation, giving the muscles more elasticity.

CURES RHEUMATISM, CUTS, SPRAINS, BRUISES, WOUNDS, OLD SORES, STIFF JOINTS, BURNS AND ALL PAINS.

GAVE INSTANT RELIEF.

Henry Stone, Provo, Utah, writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment for Neuralgia, Tooth-ache and Sore Throat, which upon application gave me instant relief. I can recommend it as being the best Liniment I have ever used in curing pain caused from Neuralgia, etc."

PRICE 25c, 50c AND $1.00

Ballard Snow Liniment Co.

500-502 North Second Street,
ST. LOUIS, - - MISSOURI.

Sold and Recommended by James H. Orme, Marion, Ky.

UNION COUNTY NEWS.

[STURGIS NEWS DEMOCRAT]

H. H. Sayers, of Marion, was in Sturgis on business a short time Saturday. Mr. Sayer is a man the people of Sturgis are always glad to welcome.

0 0 0

Miss Viola Hopgood, of Morganfield, was the guest of Miss Lilla Bishop Friday and Saturday.

0 0 0

H. E. Harkins, of Crittenden county, who has a sale notice elsewhere in this issue, will soon move to Blend, Ill.

0 0 0

Chas. Hina, who is with the popular hardware house of J. M. Stone & Bro. visited friends at Marion Sunday.

0 0 0

J. J. Nunn of the firm of Nunn Bros. of Sullivan, was in Sturgis Friday.

0 0 0

Rev. J. S. Rowe, of the Christian church has just closed a very interesting meeting at Manitou and was at home Monday. He left after a short stay, for Grapevine near Madisonville, Ky., where he will hold a meeting.

0 0 0

Carl Hibbs has been transferred to Mexico as full fledged I. C. agent. We always knew Carl would work for promotion and never be satisfied until he reached the top. He takes a pride in whatever his hands find to do and does it right. With such young men you cannot block their way.

For Bad Breath And Sour Stomach

Try Carlsedt's German Liver Powder; removes the cause instantly. A cure guaranteed. Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act. Price 25c. Sold by all Druggists.

Stomach trouble, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the Stomach, etc.

A weak stomach, causing dyspepsia, a weak Heart with palpitation or intermittent pulse, always means weak Stomach nerves or weak Heart nerves. Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis., will mail samples free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this simple trial. Sold by Haynes & Taylor.

A Cure For Constipation And Piles Discovered At Last.

Carlsedt's German Liver Powder; removes the cause and cures every case. Never a failure reported. Try it. Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act. Price 25c. Sold by all Druggists.

POSTAL JOINS THE STRIKE

Operator Miss Cameron Closes The Office And Leaves City.

The Postal Telegraph office was closed Tuesday and a notice posted on the door, "Closed on account of the strike." Miss Mary Cameron left for her home in Marion. She has all along been in sympathy with the striking operators, though she belonged to the railway union and not to the commercial union. As President Small promised her protection, she condescended to go out.

Mrs. W. F. Randle and Miss Mary Parks, of the Western Union, are still at work, though all messages are taken subject to delay.—Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

Don't be afraid to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to your children. It is intended especially for cough, colds, croup and whooping cough, and it is the best medicine made for these diseases. It contains no opium or other narcotic. For sale by J. H. Orme.

Dies from Overwork.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Frederick McNally, for three years president of the publishing house of Rand, McNally & Co. died today. Mr. McNally had been ill for three weeks with nervous prostration due to overwork.

Trial Catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people—without a penny's cost—the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by Haynes & Taylor.

THE ORIGINAL LAXATIVE COUGH SYRUP

For all Coughs and asthmas in expelling Colds from the system by gently moving the bowels. A certain relief for croup and whooping-cough. Nearly all other cough syrups are constipating, especially those containing Opium. Kennedy's Laxative Honey & Tar moves the bowels, soothes the Cough.

KENNEDY'S LAXATIVE HONEY AND TAR

PREPARED AT THE LABORATORY OF
E. G. DeWITT & CO., CHICAGO, U. S. A.

Dr. Finn's Testimony Interesting.

Dr. Thomas Finn, of Boonsboro, Mo., who has practiced medicine for 32 years, says he has used every prescription known to the profession for treatment of kidney and bladder diseases, and says he has never found anything so effective in both chronic and acute kidney and bladder trouble as Foley's Kidney Cure. It stops irregularities and builds up the whole system. J. H. Orme.

AT BALTUFF'S STORE.

At eve when work has ceased its grind
And yielded respite to its knight,
Dame Pleasure beckons with her wand
To check the mad world in its flight—
Then gather thrice round the door
The "natives" at the village store!

They loaf upon decrepit chairs,
Or balance nimbly on a box,
While others seek the curbstone perch
And rusticate upon the rocks.
Then "Captain Hodge" he gets the floor
And edifies the village store!

There's Clark and Jones, and Willie Brown,
And several molders from "the works";
The city marshal joins the bunch,
Likewise the grocer and his clerks.
Then "General" Wood he lets 'er soar
In front of Baltuff's village store!

There's loud guffaw and hooded quips
Portending jokes that have been sprung
To agitate some hapless wight,
At whom the javelin is flung—
For everything is known—and more—
Copyright.

About Vic Baltuff's village store!

Then black he "lows the corn will fail,
Which prompts Old Granddad Burr to guess—
"Th' crops is lookin' mighty well,
Fer which we all th' Lord should bless."
Then silence reigns on the bare
Who "sees things" at the village store!

The government is groomed and spanked
And made to stand up prim and straight;
"Jedge" Haller, stopping for some plug,
Discusses "pinto" of town and state—
His honor rules on benches four,
Yet deigns to argue at the store.

They sit and spit and smoke their pipes,
Grave strategists and sparkling wits;
Some hit the cracks and others don't.
Yet every man he sits and spits—
While time floats to the other shore,
And darkness hides the village store.

Old grocery shop, we love you yet,
Mid palaces of stone and steel,
And some day we will sit and spit
Beside thy fragrant onion peel—
"Just restin'" at the open door
Of that old, corner, village store.

BYRON WILLIAMS

GIT YO' GUN.

By Byron Williams.

Johnnie, git yo' gun,
An' come on t' d' woods!
Gotta git some eatin'
An' retu'n wif d' goods!
Squirrel am a-peekin'
From out a' dat croch;
Ef he ain't a-careful
He's a-gwine git coteh!
Yellah-hammah peekin'
On a bass-a-wood tree;
Ev'rythin' is singin'
An' a callin' t' me!

Sol Johnny, git yo' gun,
An' come on t' d' woods!
Gotta git some eatin'
An' retu'n wif d' goods!
Pheasant am a drummin'
In d' hollah an' dell,
Quail, in d' open,
Is a-singin' "All's well!"
Out in d' stubble
D' will chick scoots!
Hear dat a-screetch-owl
A-hootin' him hoots!
Down long d' bayou
Whar de shitepoke pipe,
Thars whar I git-a
Dem big jack snipe!
Kildeer am little
An' dey ain't wuf much—
Rathah save mah powdah
Dan to shoot at a-such!
Chipmunk a-scoodin'
In a butternut tree—
Bettah look out
I'll be gitten a-he!

City fellah's huntin'
All over d' felds;
Dunno whar to go
T' git duck teal;
Dunno whar to flit
D' rabbit's nest,
Dunno nuffin',

What Ah know bes?
Dunno whar d' goods
An' a-makin' d' honey—
Dunno nuffin'—
But dat ain' funny;
Cain' stan Nature
When she whispers a-still,
Like Ah do when
I hears mah hll!
Canna know how
An' t' have a sha'p ear
When d' winds dey whispah,
Ef yo' done gwine a-hear!
All of dem voices
Am a talkin' t' me!
Jes' laike Ah lov' 'em
F'm infancy!

Johnny, git yo' gun,
An' come on t' d' woods!
Gotta git some eatin'
An' retu'n wif d' goods!
Summah's d' time
When to hunt am fine,
But Ah likes my coon
In d' wintah time!
Ah gits my gun
An' Ah hikes right out
Whar d' snow am deepes'
An' d' trees am stout;
An' Ah fills my gun
From my ol' cow's horn;
An' Ah gits Mister Coon,
Jes' as sure as yo' born!

Bettin' heah a-dreamin'
Doan git no game!
Bettah rouse up
An' pu'sue dat same;
Fo' Dinah'll be lookin'
Fo' somethin' t' cook,
En' Ah dun bettah hurry
Er Ah dun git shook!
Ah'd laike t' sleep
Whar d' sun-flow's grow
Jes' sleep an' snooze
While d' an' winds blow—
But I've gwine git hu't
Ef Ah doan hike soon,
Fer Ah gotta git game
Fo'e d' light of d' moon!

Copyright.

Byron Williams.

Bourbon Poultry Cure.

A superior remedy and tonic for fowls. Used throughout the famous Bluegrass region of Kentucky.

Cures and Prevents

Cholera, Limberneck, Roup, Gapes, Blackhead, Diarrhoe and other destructive blood and germ diseases in turkeys and chickens or YOUR MONEY BACK. Adds tonic and medicinal qualities to the drinking water or food, which destroy all germs and poisons and prevents disease. Price 50c for large bottle.

FREE SAMPLE

will be sent by return mail, prepaid, if you state how many fowls you keep. Address

BOURBON REMEDY CO., INC.,
Manufacturing Chemists,
Lexington, - - Kentucky.

R. L. Flanary's Insurance Agency

Representing the Farm Department of the Continental Fire Insurance Co., of N. Y., for Crittenden, Lyon and Livingston counties, The Phoenix Mutual Life Ins. Co., of Hartford, Conn., The Standard Accident and Health Ins. Co., of Detroit, Mich., Indiana and Ohio Live Stock Ins. Co., of Crawfordsville, Ind.

Call on or write
R. L. FLANARY, Tom C. Cook,
Marion, Ky. Fredonia, Ky.
S. P. BERRY, Smithland, Ky.

Kevil & Co.

HAVE ESTABLISHED A

Fire Insurance Agency in MARION, KENTUCKY

If you have property in the town of Marion, let them insure it. You shall have no reasons to regret it.
Office in Press Building, Room 5
Telephone 225.

Miss Nell Walker

STENOGRAPHER

and Notary Public

Office with Blue & Nunn.

W. H. CLARK,

Attorney-at-Law.

Special attention given to collections.

Will practice in all the courts of the State and in the United States court.
Office in Press Building, Room 7.
Phone 207. MARION, KY.

J. B. KEVIL,

Lawyer

Abstracting a Specialty

Office in Press Building, Room 5

MARION - KENTUCKY

TELEPHONES
AND Switchboards

ALSO
Large Stock of Electric Light, Street Railway and Telephone Supply
Constantly on Hand.

Don't fail to send for latest Catalogue No. 7.

Jas. Clark Jr., Electric Co.
(Incorporated)

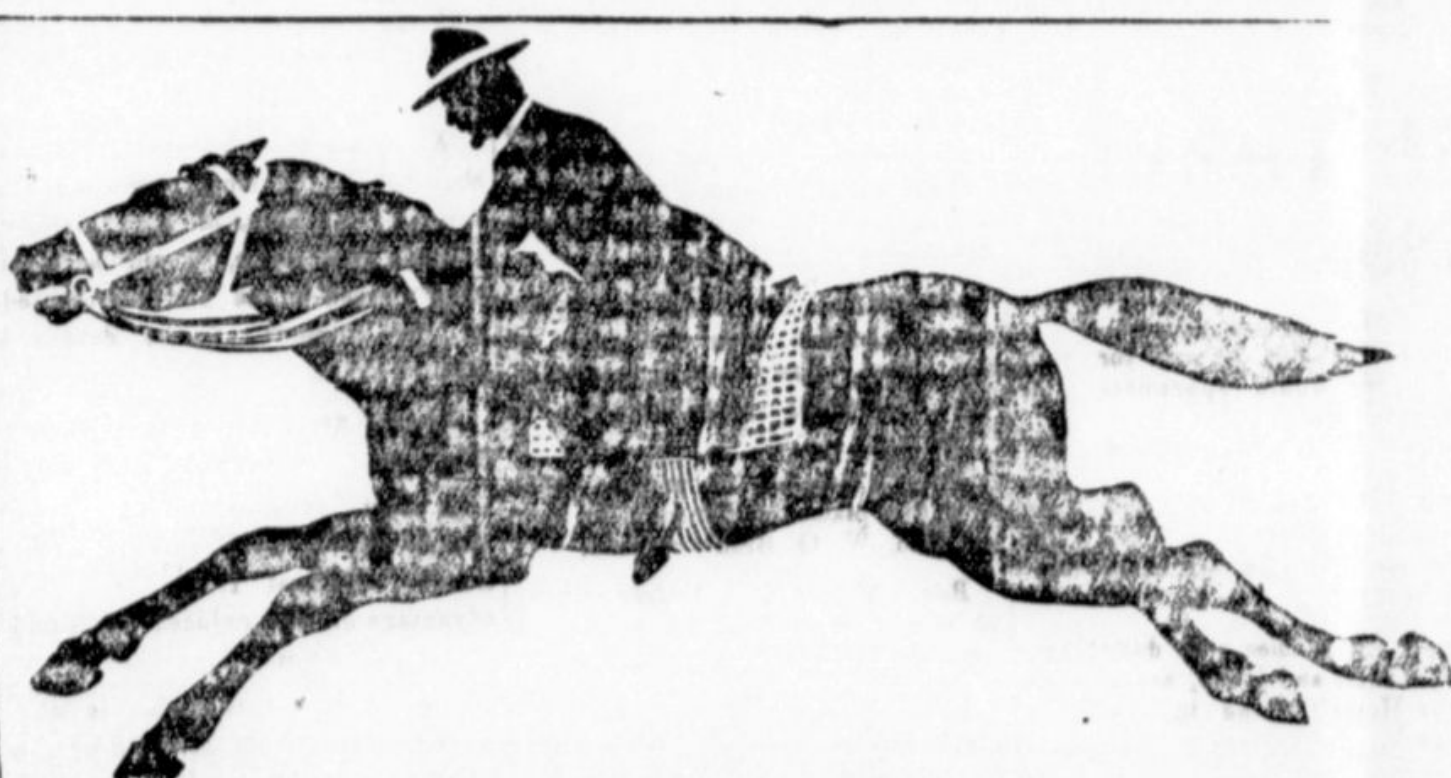

313 W. Main St. Louisville, Ky.

Before You Purchase Any Other Write
THE NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE COMPANY
ORANGE, MASS.

Many Sewing Machines are made to sell regardless of quality, but the "New Home" is made to wear. Our guarantee never runs out. We make Sewing Machines to suit all conditions of the trade. The "New Home" stands at the head of all high-grade family sewing machines. Sold by authorized dealers only.

FOR SALE BY
NUNN & TUCKER.

Don't Ruin Your Best Horse Going for a Doctor

Bowel complaints are always more or less prevalent during the Summer months, and many a man has ruined his best horse going for a doctor when some of his family was suffering from cramp colic or cholera morbus. Be prepared for such an emergency.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

Is the most successful medicine yet produced for these diseases and can always be depended upon. No doctor can prescribe a better medicine. It is almost certain to be needed before the Summer is over. Buy it now.

The effect of malaria lasts a long time.
You catch cold easily or become run-down because of the after effects of malaria.
Strengthen yourself with Scott's Emulsion.
It builds new blood and tones up your nervous system.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

EGGSAGGERATED

OR CERTAINLY EGGS-TRAORDINARY

Boyle County Hen Lays Inscribed And Illustrated "Frot."

Danville, Ky., Sept. 18.—Mrs. F. J. Fox, who lives in the Hedgeville neighborhood, near town, is mystified by the character of eggs her hens are laying. Upon these eggs strange inscriptions are inscribed. She brought five of the eggs to Danville and placed them on exhibition at a store where attracted wide attention. Upon one was the likeness of a perfectly black snake; another has the word, "Eve" upon it, and still another bears the word, "Adam," and the other two have the names of Cain and Abel upon them. Col. M. T. Long, who owns a museum here, secured the eggs, and now has them arranged in a glass case with his other curios. Mrs. Fox's hens have also been laying eggs as large as goose eggs and others no larger than bird eggs. The Hedgeville people are much mystified.

A Happy family.

J. J. Mann, of Fordyce, Ark., writes: Use Carlsbad's German Liver Power for ten years, cured my wife of female troubles. Haven't had a doctor for six years, formerly paid two or three doctor bills a year. Would not be without it. Worth its weight in gold. Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drug Act. Price 25c. Sold by all druggists.

Badly Injured by A Big Cake of Ice.

Paducah, Ky., Sept. 18.—Lee Hart, a block signal installer, was struck by a 100 pound cake of ice thrown from a fast moving I. C. train at East Cairo, and badly injured. He was bruised about the body and his right leg was shattered. The ice was thrown off for a section gang working near by.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy The Best on The Market.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and find it to be the best on the market," says E. W. Tardy, editor of The Sentinel, Gainsboro, Tenn. "Our baby had several colds the past winter and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always gave it relief at once and cured it in a short time. I always recommend it when opportunity presents itself." For sale by J. H. Orme.

Graduate Veterinarian.

Have You Any Diseased Stock?

I have located permanently in Marion, Ky., and will treat horses and other stock, and am prepared to do the best professional service in all kinds of diseases. Any call, day or night, will be promptly answered.

Have rented the Rufus Robinson house on North Main street, and will have ample stable room. Prices will be reasonable.

L. G. Taylor. D. V. S.

Attend
LOCKYER'S BUSINESS COLLEGE
EVANSVILLE, INDIANA
"A SCHOOL WITH A REPUTATION"

LARGE ATTENDANCE
NINE TEACHERS
FIFTY TYPEWRITERS
LESSONS BY MAIL
SEND FOR NEW CATALOG

THE NEW WAY TO TAX MORTGAGES

Growth in Favor of the Registration Plan.

Several States Now Tax at Five Dollars a Thousand When Lodged For Record—Having Good Effect.

Californians Appreciate The Press

A bright Marion girl writes us an interesting letter from California which reads as follows:

"We are so glad to know that Marion and all her people are still prosperous and happy, and sincerely hope that she may enjoy still greater blessings in the future than in the past.

Though our new home is pleasant and I love it better every day, but Marion is still loved as the "old home," and her people are our people and still have our sympathy and love.

We wish the Record-Press the greatest success in a wide circulation and in being a strong force for good."

Yours sincerely,
BETTIE BIGHAM.

A Clear Complexion, Bright Eyes.

In most cases a sallow, blotched complexion and dull heavy eyes are due to poor digestion and an inactive liver. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels and makes the complexion smooth and clear. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. H. Orme.

Curious Cowgoat.

A farmer from Trigg county arrived at the suburbs of Hopkinsville late Tuesday afternoon driving an animal monstrosity, half cow and half goat. When he reached the plant of the Hopkinsville Lumber Co., on 15th street, the animal became overheated and died in the street. The owner was disconsolate, as he was bringing it to the city to sell to the Hagenbeck show as a side show freak.

It was a male, black with white spots, had hair like a cow, a head like a goat, small short horns, weighed about 400 pounds and stood a little more than three feet high. It was four years old and was in good health and very fat when it was started from home. The owner said he lived 14 miles from the city, in the direction of Cadiz.—Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

To check a cold quickly, get from your druggist some little Candy Cold Tablets called preventives. Druggists everywhere are now dispensing Preventives, for they are not only safe, but decidedly certain and prompt. Preventives contain Quinine, iron, laxative, nothing rash nor sickening. Take at the "sneeze stage" Preventives will prevent Pneumonia, Bronchitis, La Grippe, etc. Hence the name Preventives, Good for feverish children. 48 Preventives 25 cents. Trial boxes 5 cts. Sold by Haynes & Taylor.

TURKEY OUR NOBLEST BIRD.

Crossing with the Wild Species to Improve Market Product.

The most notable American bird in the farm category is the turkey, growing as he does to the great weight of 30 and even 40 pounds, and losing nothing in flavor and toothsome. Likewise, the most regal of our remaining game birds is his blood brother, the wild turkey, from which he has descended.

There is perhaps no instance where domestication has scored so little in improvement as with the turkey. In fact, in some respects the taming and breeding have hurt instead of helped the species.

No prize domestic gobbler is ever so beautifully marked or so resplendent with feathers of black shaded with rich bronze and illuminated with a lustrous finish of burnished copper as is the typical wild turkey, while the vigor and vitality of the wild bird is such that to this day we strengthen the most virile of our bronze turkeys by an infusion of the wild blood.

Rhode Island stands for the best in turkey production. The last census shows less than 7,000,000 turkeys in the United States and only about 5,000 produced annually in Rhode Island, yet, according to a turkey expert, if all the turkeys of the country were of such good quality as Rhode Island's, their total value would be doubled.

According to the department of agriculture, the growing of turkeys has greatly improved during the last few years as a result of a determined effort on the part of producers of "standard bred" stock to demonstrate that it is much more profitable to use pure breeding stock than the smaller and less vigorous stock of times past.

The wild turkey is also being used to instill further new vigor into the bronze flocks. Inbreeding is the fatal defect among the practice of many turkey growers.

The fact that turkeys will live from the time they are six weeks old until winter gain the greater part of their entire living from bugs, insects, grasshoppers and waste grain assures their existence during this period at little or no cost to the grower where there is a sufficient range for the birds.

Nineteen-Hour Days.

"Our hours," said a nature student, "are nothing to the birds'. Why, some birds work in the summer 19 hours a day. Indefatigably they clear the crops of insects.

"The thrush gets up at 2:30 every summer morning. He rolls up his sleeves and falls to work at once. And he never stops till 9:30 at night. A clean 19 hours. During that time he feeds his voracious young 206 times.

"The blackbird starts work at the same time as the thrush, but he lays off earlier. His whistle blows at 7:30, and during his 17-hour day he eats about 100 meals before his kiddies.

"The titmouse is up and about by 3 mouse is said to feed his young, 417 in the morning, and his stopping time is 9 at night. A fast worker, the titmouse—meals of caterpillar mainly—in the long, hard, hot day."

An Ounce of Prevention is worth a pound of cure. There are many poor sufferers, Consumptives who are hopeless of getting well—who, if they had taken care of themselves, would now be well. A cough is the foundation of Consumption. Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure that cough. Mrs. S., Great Falls, Montana, writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for years—my children never suffer with coughs. Sold by J. H. Orme.

It Takes Nerve

Everything depends upon your nerves. It is nerve force that causes the brain to direct the motion of your body; it is nerve force that causes your heart to pulsate, and send the blood through your veins; it is nerve force that causes your stomach to digest food, your kidneys to filter the blood, and the liver to secrete bile.

In fact, nerve force is the power that runs your body, so if you feel worn-out, irritable, nervous, cannot sleep, or eat well, have pain or misery anywhere, your nerves are weak, and your system run-down. To restore this vitality take Dr. Miles' Nerve which will strengthen and build up the nerves. You cannot be healthy without strong nerves.

"For eighteen years Dr. Miles' Nerve and Anti-Pain Pills have been my close companions. Early in married life, while raising children, my nerves became all worn-out—could not sleep, had no appetite, indigestion very bad, and had such awful dizzy spells. Then I began using Dr. Miles' Nerve, and at once I began to improve, and soon found myself in perfect health."

MRS. S. L. YOUNG,
224 Pittsburg St., New Castle, Pa.
Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.
Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

An Animal Story For Little Folks

The Two Pigs

A man was taking a pig to market when they came to a tree on which hung hundreds of apples.

"I'd like to have an apple," said the pig as he looked up wistfully.

"I'd like to have a barrel of apples," said the man, eyeing the fruit greedily.

A little farther they came to a pear tree.

"I'd like to have a pear," said the hungry pig.

"I'd like to have a wagon load of pears," said the man.

Presently they passed a grapevine.

"I'd like to have a bunch of grapes," said the pig.

"I'd like to have my wine press full of grapes," said the man.

They walked on until a large melon patch was seen at the side of the road.

"I'D LIKE TO HAVE AN APPLE."

"Oh, I wish I had a melon," sighed the pig.

"I would like to have a car load of melons," growled the man.

"Well, look here, mister, you are a bigger pig than I am. I think we are at the wrong ends of this string."

And he began a jerk and broke away.

With a dash he went between the man's legs and upset him on the ground. Then Mr. Pig ran into the melon patch and picked out a good, red, ripe melon and ate it, while the man got up and brushed off his clothes and went home.—Atlanta Constitution.

An Animal Story For Little Folks

CAN'T HAVE YOUR CAKE AND EAT IT TOO

Have you heard about Little Bruin and how he saved the honey? No? Well, I guess that is because it only happened the other day.

His grandfather promised him that if he were a good bear and kept his paws clean for a week he should go with him to gather honey, and that if he helped well he should have a jar.

Bruin was, of course, a model bear, and at the end of the week went out into the woods with grandpa bear to get the honey which the bees had put away in the hollow trees. Little Bruin worked well, and he and grandpa filled up several jars with the sweet sirup, and one of these was given to our little bear.

He was delighted. Trudging along toward Bearville he hugged the precious jar to his little stomach and thought what he would do with all that honey.

"I'll give some of it to Tiny and to Jim and some to Southpaw and some "BETTER LET ME CARRY THAT JAR," to mother," he said, looking into the jar. It looked so good that he took a lick with his tongue.

"My, that's good! I guess I'll sell half of it and buy myself toys." Then he took another lick.

"My, it's nearly half gone," he thought. "I guess I'll save the rest for the fair for the Bears' Orphan home next week." But his little tongue found its way to the jar again.

When they reached the milepost, near home, his grandpa said, "Bruin, you better let me carry that jar; you seem to be losing the honey out of it."

"Oh, no, grandpa," said he, "only one mile more and then I'll give some to that lame bear next door." But that tongue could not keep from that honey. When they reached home it was all gone.

"I wish I had that honey," said he. "You have it," said his grandpa, "but it's in the wrong place, that's all."

"Yes," said Mother Bear, "can't have your cake and eat it too."

Wonder what she meant. Do you know?—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Lame Back.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrange, of Orange, Mich., says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." For sale by J. H. Orme the leading drug store in Western Ky. Haynes & Taylor the enterprising druggists of Marion.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, I uniformly cure all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy
HAYNES & TAYLOR.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol relieves indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol for dyspepsia does not only relieve indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy helps all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Ball, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says: "I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."

FOR BACKACHE—WEAK KIDNEYS TRY
BENNETT'S KIDNEY AND BLADDER PILLS—Sole and Sub
Prepared by E. O. BENNETT & CO., Chicago
HAYNES & TAYLOR.

Bile Poison

has a very bad effect on your system. It disorders your stomach and digestive apparatus, taints your blood and causes constipation, with all its fearful ills.

Thedford's Black-Draught is a bland tonic, liver regulator, and blood purifier.

It gets rid of the poisons caused by over-supply of bile, and quickly cures bilious headaches, dizziness, loss of appetite, nausea, indigestion, constipation, malaria, chills and fever, jaundice, nervousness, irritability, melancholia, and all sickness due to disordered liver.

It is not a cathartic, but a gentle, herbal, liver medicine, which causes without irritating.

Price 25c at all Druggists.

30-THOUSAND TELEGRAPHERS WANTED

Account of new eight-hour law. Salaries increased

DRAUGHON'S PRACTICAL BUSINESS COLLEGE

(Incorporated)
Evansville, Paducah, and St. Louis
Draughon's Telegraphy students, by special arrangement, use railroad wires. Draughon's Co., home office: Nashville, Tenn. has 30 Colleges in 17 states; $300,000.00 capital; 8,000 students annually; 18 years' success. BUSINESS men say Draughon's is THE BEST. THREE months' studying Book-keeping or shorthand by Draughon's COPY-RIGHTED methods equals six elsewhere. Draughon also has 3,000 students learning BY MAIL. Write for prices on Home study. POSITIONS secured or money back. Catalogue FREE.

FORDS FERRY.

Sherman Ford, who has been sick of late, is convalescent.

C M Clift is cutting and housing his large crop of tobacco.

The protracted meeting at Dunn Spring has been going on for a week with a good attendance.

Bud Kirk, who has been somewhat sick of late, is slowly improving.

Jack Hughes is hauling ties to Fords Ferry.

Sherman Ford is assisting C M Clift in his tobacco.

Heath school is progressing nicely with an attendance of more than twenty pupils.

W B Nation is preparing his wheat ground.

The Ohio river is getting quite low.

A delegation of the most prominent citizens in this vicinity, consisting of Messrs C M Clift, T N Wofford, Lee Rankin and Jack Hughes convened at Dunn Springs Saturday to consider the possibility of a good road from there to Uncle Bobby Heath's.

Aaron James went to Marion Friday.

Marvin Truitt is making ties.

The recent warm weather has been of immense advantage in ripening the late tobacco crop.

C M Clift has secured a large number of signers to a petition asking the Fiscal Court to cause to be built a good, substantial bridge across Crooked creek at Dunn Springs, the said bridge being badly needed. The people here have been trying to get a bridge for thirty years. This is one of the best farming sections in Crittenden county, and since the county was organized in 1842 thousands of dollars have been paid in taxes by the citizens of this vicinity. Yet, if the county has ever expended anything for public improvements in this vicinity it has slipped the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

General Robert E. Lee.

was the greatest General the world has ever known. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the greatest Liniment. Quickly cures all pains. It is within the reach of all. T. H. Pointer, Hempstead, Texas, writes: "This is to certify that Ballard's Snow Liniment has been used in my household for years and has been found to be an excellent Liniment for Rheumatic pains. I am never without it." Sold by J. H. Orme.

CHAPEL HILL.

Tobacco is about all in the house.

B F Walker and wife were the guests of Mr. Joe Parr and family, of Caldwell county, Sunday.

James Hill and family, of Crayneville, were the guests of Mrs. J N Hill Saturday night and Sunday.

W W Ward and family were visiting Ross Young and family, of Tribune, Saturday night and Sunday.

A very nice singing was given at

A Good Boy
Avoids Trouble.

And so a wise man insures his property against

Fire, Lightning and Hurricanes

BE WISE !

'Tis folly to be otherwise. Buy the best fire policy. Why be content with something just as good ?

GET THE BEST !

We make a specialty of dwelling policies for town or country.

CRIDER & WOODS INSURANCE.

Telephone 15. Over Postoffice.
One of the oldest Fire Agencies in Western Kentucky.

the home of Mr and Mrs J C Adams on last Sunday night which was well represented by the young people of this community and Crayneville also.

Our protracted meeting will begin on Wednesday night after the third Sunday in October.

Quite a number from this place attended church at Crayneville Sunday, it being Bro Oakley's regular preaching day.

Miss Ruby Bigham paid Miss Pearlene Hill a pleasant call Sunday.

Will Ward went to Fredonia Friday with a load of melons.

Mr Jasper Walker and family, of Livingston county, were visiting Mrs J C Long and family Saturday and Sunday.

Mr M G Jacob's little son, Glee, is visiting relatives in Paducah this week.

Miss Addie Oliver, of Frances, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs J C Adams.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy One of The Best on The Market.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purposes for which it is intended. Sold by J. H. Orme the leading drug store in Western Ky. Haynes & Taylor the enterprising druggists of Marion.

TRADEWATER.

Mr. Jim Naws, of Clay, passed through here Monday.

Mr. Geo. Campbell and grandson, of Caldwell county, passed through here Tuesday.

Mr. R. T. Kemp, of Creswell, was the guest of J. G. Brantley Wednesday.

Milton Babb has returned from Dawson Springs.

Miss Altie Henderson was the guest of Prospect school Thursday.

Mrs. Alice Crowell was the guest of Mrs. Lura Brantley Friday.

Mrs. Niece Reynolds and Miss Edith made a flying trip to Fishtrap Saturday.

Mr. J. G. Brantley has completed his new houses and moved into them.

Mr. Henry Hill and wife, of Carrsville, are the guests of M. D. Babb.

Mr. Albert Babb and family, of Piney Fork, are the guests of relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. John Darty has been visiting in this vicinity.

Mr. Henry Reynolds is getting along nicely with his new house.

Mr. David Williams is building a tobacco barn.

Rev. J. R. King and Rev. John Lowery began a meeting at Cave Springs, but on account of it being such a busy time with the farmers it was put off until a more convenient season.

Ralph Little, of Sullivan, visited his parents Sunday evening.

Making molasses, housing tobacco and cutting pea hay is all the go.

Sure Cure For Malaria.

Try Yucatan Chill Tonic, superior to all, acceptable to the most delicate person. One bottle will work wonders. Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act. Price 50c. Sold by all druggists.

SEVEN SPRINGS.

Cutting tobacco is the order of the day in this vicinity.

Mrs. Fannie Travis, of Emmaus, has been spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. Pollie Paton, of this place.

Robert Holoman has a very sick child.

Born to M. L. Patton and wife September 8 a nine pound boy. Mother and child are getting along well.

Bob Robinson and family are visiting Mrs. Sallie Boaz.

Mrs. Sarah Patton is visiting her children in the Pinckneyville vicinity this week.

Several from here attended Missionary day at Cookseyville Sunday.

Old Aunt Tempie Brasher, of Lyon county, visited Mrs. Sallie Boaz recently.

Rev. E. B. Blackburn, of Marion, has been called to assist the pastor, Rev. E. M. Eaton, in the protracted meeting at this place.

Tom Hall is recovering from a severe wound on his leg.

Married at the residence of the Rev. J. C. Kinsolving Sept. 8, Mr. Hershel Wring to Miss Alice McClure, the Rev Kinsolving officiating.

Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia, a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids, digests the food itself and gives strength and health to the stomach. Pleasant to take. Sold by J. H. Orme.

Poultry profits doubled by use of Rex Poultry Food Condiments. Valuable $2.00 gift with $1.00 purchases. N. J. Bishop, Crayneville, Ky.

DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve penetrates the pores and heals quickly. Sold by J. H. Orme.

BELLS MINES.

Sunday School at this place is progressing nicely.

Mrs. Sallie Dempsey has returned from Marktree, Ark., where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. T. Hazel.

Bud Shields moved his family to Sturgis this week.

Our school is very good, being taught by Miss Myrtle Tudor.

Mrs. S. A. Barnes will move to the farm she purchased of H. L. Culley.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sarles have returned to Missouri.

Miss May Hoyt was the guest of Miss Vilera Holdman last week.

J. B. Hina is having a stock barn erected by John Simpson.

H. L. Culley shipped a nice bunch of hogs to Evansville last week.

J. D. Asher will sow a large crop of wheat.

Misses Bertha and Lillian Hina were in Sturgis shopping Friday.

F. L. Black was in Sullivan last week.

Misses Floyd Barnes and Minnie Demsey have returned from a pleasant visit near Sturgis.

Miss Bettie Shelby has returned from Morganfield where she was the guest of her uncle, H. B. Tudor.

Henry Woodall and Everette Sheeley attended church at Mattoon Saturday night.

Mrs. Jane Black and daughter, Miss Alice, were in Sturgis last week.

Ed Robinson and family were the guests of J. D. Asher and family Sunday.

A. H. Walker and family were at Weston Saturday.

J. B. Hina and mother spent Saturday and Sunday at Applegate.

NEW SALEM.

Ed Summers has a child dangerously ill.

John Harpending, wife and baby are the guests of his parents.

Tobacco all in the house.

The farmers will sow wheat this week.

Any one wanting a milk cow with young calf, or a sow and pigs call on T A Harpending, Salem, Ky.

Lan Harpending left for Onseyville Sunday.

The widow Belmare lost, Aug. 30, her pocket book containing about $12, between Enoch Belt's and W S Lowery's. As this was all the money she had, any one finding said money can leave the same with W S Lowery and will receive the grateful thanks of an old woman.

Henry Browster and Uncle John Mullinax were in Paducah last week.

W S Lowery is building an addition to his residence.

Mr and Mrs Henry Browster gave our people a singing at their home Sunday evening.

Cade Gray and wife, of Salem, were the guests of relatives in this section Sunday.

From 100 to 125 freight wagons are on the Salem and Marion road every day.

Rev Wright filled his regular appointment at New Salem fourth Saturday and Sunday.

Bill Davenport and family, of Salem, attended church at New Salem Saturday.

Mrs Fannie Threlkeld visited her daughter, Mrs Davenport, of Salem, last week.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are good for any one who needs a pill. Sold by J. H. Orme.

Eskew Bros. agents for the Horse Shoe Brand fertilizer.

FREDONIA.

Will Rice and wife, Walter Young and family, D T Byrd and wife, Albert Boaz and family, Dave Boaz and wife, A S Threlkeld and family, Hal Paton and wife, H C Rice, Sr., H C Rice, Jr., John Rice, Reginald Rice, T H Butler and wife, W E Cox and family, Dr J N Todd and wife, Smith Lowery and Mr and Mrs Bentley spent last week in Louisville attending the State Fair.

Elbert Hillyard was visiting "relatives" at Greenville the first of the week.

S C Bennett, R C Hill and F M McElroy are in Nashville this week.

The Prohibition election here last Wednesday resulted in a victory for the drys by a majority of two votes. Both sides worked hard and a large vote was polled, but everything was smooth and quiet.

Robert Jackson and wife, of Dycusburg, are visiting his father, J. R. Jackson.

We have just received another car load of salt, which we will sell at $1.50 per barrel. Bennett & Son.

Frank Armstrong moved from here to Blackford this week.

Mrs S C Bennett is visiting relatives in Livingston county.

Well Named.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is well named. For pains in the stomach, cramp colic and diarrhoea it has no equal. For sale by J. H. Orme.

Home-Coming at Nashville.

Account of Home-Coming at Nashville, Tenn., we will sell round trip first class fare at the rate of one fare plus 25 cents, good leaving Nashville Sept. 30. Parties holding round trip tickets to Nashville can make side trips to any point in Tennessee at same rate as above.

M. N. WILKEY, AGT.

There is more strength and merit in a $1.00 package of Rex Conditioner than in $10.00 worth of stock foods. Valuable $2.00 gift with a $1.00 package. J. N. Bishop, Crayneville, Ky.

The best preparation ever made for stock is Rex Conditioner. Satisfaction guaranteed. Valuable $2.00 gift with a $1.00 package. J. N. Bishop, Crayneville, Ky.

Horse Shoe Brand fertilizer at Eskew Bros'.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

I need money and those owing me on note or open account will oblige me by coming in and paying me a part if not all. Don't forget this. CHARLES LARUE, Levias, Ky.

Take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for backache, weak kidneys and inflammation of the bladder. Sold by J. H. Orme.

Hens cannot lay and thrive without relishing their feed. Use Rex Poultry Food Condiments. Satisfaction guaranteed. Valuable $2.00 gift with $1.00 purchase. N. J. Bishop, Crayneville, Ky.

Go to Eskew Bros. for fertilizer.

MY FALL GOODS HAVE COME !

Will you now come and look through our stock ? It will pay you to do so. Today, not tomorrow is the accepted time.

Dry Goods, Dress Goods Notions
Hats and Caps, Boots, Shoes,
Groceries, Hardware, Tinware.

Take a day off and come and spend it looking at the bargains I have for you, and my word for it, you'll not regret it.

I Want Your Produce.

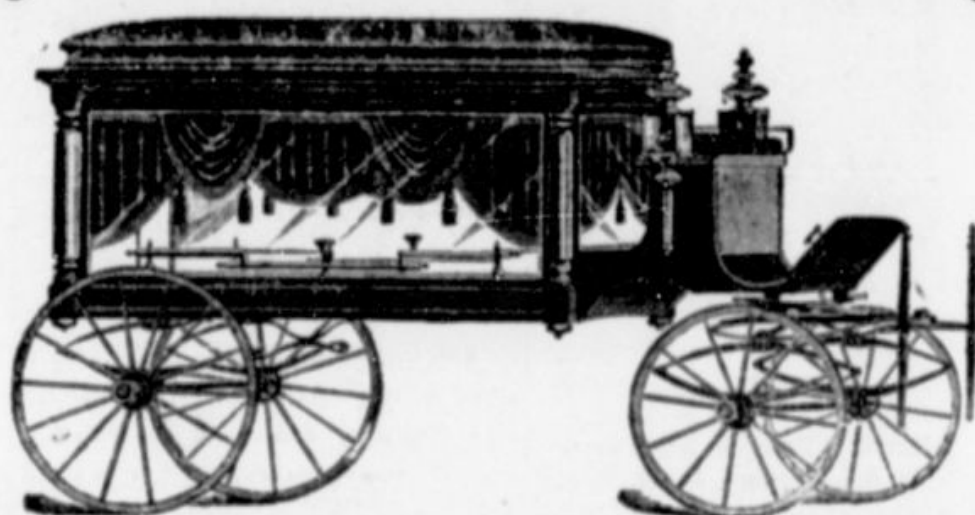

CHAS. LARUE,

LEVIAS, - - - KENTUCKY.

R. F. DORR

(Licensed Embalmer)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR and EMBALMER

Dealer in Coffins Caskets, Burial Robes, Slippers, Etc.

Furniture, Chairs, Bed Room Sets, Bed Springs, Rockers, Tables, Etc.

Picture Frames and Moulding.

Grand Opening of Fall and Winter Millinery !
At Shady Grove, Ky.,
September 26th to 28th.

My new goods have come and are are all ready for your inspection. I take pleasure in showing my goods.

The prices are right too,

Mrs. B. C. Birchfield.
SHADY GROVE, KY.

Good Business for Sale.

On account of failing health I will sell my harness and saddlery business in this city at a bargain. My entire stock of harness, saddlery, repairs, harness maker's tools, including a well established and paying trade will be sold at a sacrifice as a whole or in lots to suit purchaser. These goods must be sold within the next ten days.

Until we have closed out the business we will continue to do repairing, and a competent man will be in charge and our prices will be right.

I desire to thank the many friends who liberally patronized me during my stay in Marion.

H. D. SALE, Marion, Ky.

FOR LAND SAKE

Use Bawker's fertilizer.

For sale by R. H. Kemp,
Marion, Ky.

Nearly all Cough Cures, especially those that contain opiates, are constipating. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup contains no opiate and acts gently on the bowels. Pleasant to take. Sold by J. H. Orme.

FORDS FERRY.

Sherman Ford, who has been sick of late, is convalescent.

C M Clift is cutting and housing his large crop of tobacco.

The protracted meeting at Dunn Spring has been going on for a week with a good attendance.

Bud Kirk, who has been somewhat sick of late, is slowly improving.

Jack Hughes is hauling ties to Fords Ferry.

Sherman Ford is assisting C M Clift in his tobacco.

Heath school is progressing nicely with an attendance of more than twenty pupils.

W B Nation is preparing his wheat ground.

The Ohio river is getting quite low.

A delegation of the most prominent citizens in this vicinity, consisting of Messrs C M Clift, T N Wofford, Lee Rankin and Jack Hughes convened at Dunn Springs Saturday to consider the possibility of a good road from there to Uncle Bobby Heath's.

Aaron James went to Marion Friday.

Marvin Truitt is making ties.

The recent warm weather has been of immense advantage in ripening the late tobacco crop.

C M Clift has secured a large number of signers to a petition asking the Fiscal Court to cause to be built a good, substantial bridge across Crooked creek at Dunn Springs, the said bridge being badly needed. The people here have been trying to get a bridge for thirty years. This is one of the best farming sections in Crittenden county, and since the county was organized in 1842 thousands of dollars have been paid in taxes by the citizens of this vicinity. Yet, if the county has ever expended anything for public improvements in this vicinity it has slipped the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

General Robert E. Lee.

was the greatest General the world has ever known. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the greatest Liniment. Quickly cures all pains. It is within the reach of all. T. H. Pointer, Hempstead, Texas, writes: "This is to certify that Ballard's Snow Liniment has been used in my household for years and has been found to be an excellent Liniment for Rheumatic pains. I am never without it." Sold by J. H. Orme.

CHAPEL HILL.

Tobacco is about all in the house.

B F Walker and wife were the guests of Mr. Joe Parr and family, of Caldwell county, Sunday.

James Hill and family, of Crayneville, were the guests of Mrs. J N Hill Saturday night and Sunday.

W W Ward and family were visiting Ross Young and family, of Tribune, Saturday night and Sunday.

A very nice singing was given at

A Good Boy
Avoids Trouble.

And so a wise man insures his property against

Fire, Lightning and Hurricanes

BE WISE!

'Tis folly to be otherwise. Buy the best fire policy. Why be content with something just as good?

GET THE BEST!

We make a specialty of dwelling policies for town or country.

GRIDER & WOODS
INSURANCE.

Telephone 15. Over Postoffice.
One of the oldest Fire Agencies in Western Kentucky.

the home of Mr and Mrs J C Adams on last Sunday night which was well represented by the young people of this community and Crayneville also.

Our protracted meeting will begin on Wednesday night after the third Sunday in October.

Quite a number from this place attended church at Crayneville Sunday, it being Bro Oakley's regular preaching day.

Miss Ruby Bigham paid Miss Pearlene Hill a pleasant call Sunday.

Will Ward went to Fredonia Friday with a load of melons.

Mr Jasper Walker and family, of Livingston county, were visiting Mrs J C Long and family Saturday and Sunday.

Mr M G Jacob's little son, Glee, is visiting relatives in Paducah this week.

Miss Addie Oliver, of Frances, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs J C Adams.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy One of The Best on The Market.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purposes for which it is intended. Sold by J. H. Orme the leading drug store in Western Ky. Haynes & Taylor the enterprising druggists of Marion.

TRADEWATER.

Mr. Jim Nawls, of Clay, passed through here Monday.

Mr. Geo. Campbell and grandson, of Caldwell county, passed through here Tuesday.

Mr. R. T. Kemp, of Creswell, was the guest of J. G. Brantley Wednesday.

Milton Babb has returned from Dawson Springs.

Miss Altie Henderson was the guest of Prospect school Thursday.

Mrs. Alice Crowell was the guest of Mrs. Lura Brantley Friday.

Mrs. Niece Reynolds and Miss Edith made a flying trip to Fishtrap Saturday.

Mr. J. G. Brantley has completed his new houses and moved into them.

Mr. Henry Hill and wife, of Carrsville, are the guests of M. D. Babb.

Mr. Albert Babb and family, of Piney Fork, are the guests of relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. John Darty has been visiting in this vicinity.

Mr. Henry Reynolds is getting along nicely with his new house.

Mr. David Williams is building a tobacco barn.

Rev. J. R. King and Rev. John Lowery began a meeting at Cave Springs, but on account of it being such a busy time with the farmers it was put off until a more convenient season.

Ralph Little, of Sullivan, visited his parents Sunday evening.

Making molasses, housing tobacco and cutting pea hay is all the go.

Sure Cure For Malaria.

Try Yucatan Chill Tonic, superior to all, acceptable to the most delicate person. One bottle will work wonders. Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act. Price 50c. Sold by all druggists.

SEVEN SPRINGS.

Cutting tobacco is the order of the day in this vicinity.

Mrs. Fannie Travis, of Emmaus, has been spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. Pollie Paton, of this place.

Robert Holoman has a very sick child.

Born to M. L. Patton and wife September 8 a nine pound boy. Mother and child are getting along well.

Bob Robinson and family are visiting Mrs. Sallie Boaz.

Mrs. Sarah Patton is visiting her children in the Pinckneyville vicinity this week.

Several from here attended Missionary day at Cookseyville Sunday.

Old Aunt Tempie Brasher, of Lyon county, visited Mrs. Sallie Boaz recently.

Rev. E. B. Blackburn, of Marion, has been called to assist the pastor, Rev. E. M. Eaton, in the protracted meeting at this place.

Tom Hall is recovering from a severe wound on his leg.

Married at the residence of the Rev. J. C. Kinsolving Sept. 8, Mr. Hershel Wring to Miss Alice McClure, the Rev Kinsolving officiating.

Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia, a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids, digests the food itself and gives strength and health to the stomach. Pleasant to take. Sold by J. H. Orme.

Poultry profits doubled by use of Rex Poultry Food Condiments. Valuable $2.00 gift with $1.00 purchases. N. J. Bishop, Crayneville, Ky.

DeWitt's Carbolic Witch Hazel Salve penetrates the pores and heals quickly. Sold by J. H. Orme.

BELLS MINES.

Sunday School at this place is progressing nicely.

Mrs. Sallie Dempsey has returned from Marktree, Ark., where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. T. Hazel.

Bud Shields moved his family to Sturgis this week.

Our school is very good, being taught by Miss Myrtle Tudor.

Mrs. S. A. Barnes will move to the farm she purchased of H. L. Culley.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sarles have returned to Missouri.

Miss May Hoyt was the guest of Miss Vilera Holdman last week.

J. B. Hina is having a stock barn erected by John Simpson.

H. L. Culley shipped a nice bunch of hogs to Evansville last week.

J. D. Asher will sow a large crop of wheat.

Misses Bertha and Lillian Hina were in Sturgis shopping Friday.

F. L. Black was in Sullivan last week.

Misses Floyd Barnes and Minnie Demsey have returned from a pleasant visit near Sturgis.

Miss Bettie Shelby has returned from Morganfield where she was the guest of her uncle, H. B. Tudor.

Henry Woodall and Everette Sheeley attended church at Mattoon Saturday night.

Mrs. Jane Black and daughter, Miss Alice, were in Sturgis last week.

Ed Robison and family were the guests of J. D. Asher and family Sunday.

A. H. Walker and family were at Weston Saturday.

J. B. Hina and mother spent Saturday and Sunday at Applegate.

NEW SALEM.

Ed Summers has a child dangerously ill.

John Harpending, wife and baby are the guests of his parents.

Tobacco all in the house.

The farmers will sow wheat this week.

Any one wanting a milk cow with young calf, or a sow and pigs call on T A Harpending, Salem, Ky.

Lan Harpending left for Onseyville Sunday.

The widow Belmare lost, Aug. 30, her pocket book containing about $12, between Enoch Belt's and W S Lowery's. As this was all the money she had, any one finding said money can leave the same with W S Lowery and will receive the grateful thanks of an old woman.

Henry Browster and Uncle John Mullinax were in Paducah last week.

W S Lowery is building an addition to his residence.

Mr and Mrs Henry Browster gave our people a singing at their home Sunday evening.

Cade Gray and wife, of Salem, were the guests of relatives in this section Sunday.

From 100 to 125 freight wagons are on the Salem and Marion road every day.

Rev Wright filled his regular appointment at New Salem fourth Saturday and Sunday.

Bill Davenport and family, of Salem, attended church at New Salem Saturday.

Mrs Fannie Threlkeld visited her daughter, Mrs Davenport, of Salem, last week.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are good for any one who needs a pill. Sold by J. H. Orme.

Eskew Bros. agents for the Horse Shoe Brand fertilizer.

FREDONIA.

Will Rice and wife, Walter Young and family, D T Byrd and wife, Albert Boaz and family, Dave Boaz and wife, A S Threlkeld and family, Hal Paton and wife, H C Rice, Sr., H C Rice, Jr., John Rice, Reginald Rice, T H Butler and wife, W E Cox and family, Dr J N Todd and wife, Smith Lowery and Mr and Mrs Bentley spent last week in Louisville attending the State Fair.

Elbert Hillyard was visiting "relatives" at Greenville the first of the week.

S C Bennett, R C Hill and F M McElroy are in Nashville this week.

The Prohibition election here last Wednesday resulted in a victory for the drys by a majority of two votes. Both sides worked hard and a large vote was polled, but everything was smooth and quiet.

Robert Jackson and wife, of Dyeusburg, are visiting his father, J. R. Jackson.

We have just received another car load of salt, which we will sell at $1.50 per barrel. Bennett & Son.

Frank Armstrong moved from here to Blackford this week.

Mrs S C Bennett is visiting relatives in Livingston county.

Well Named.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is well named. For pains in the stomach, cramp colic and diarrhoea it has no equal. For sale by J. H. Orme.

Home-Coming at Nashville.

Account of Home-Coming at Nashville, Tenn., we will sell round trip first class fare at the rate of one fare plus 25 cents, good leaving Nashville Sept. 30. Parties holding round trip tickets to Nashville can make side trips to any point in Tennessee at same rate as above.

M. N. WILKEY, AGT.

There is more strength and merit in a $1.00 package of Rex Conditioner than in $10.00 worth of stock foods. Valuable $2.00 gift with a $1.00 package. J. N. Bishop, Crayneville, Ky.

The best preparation ever made for stock is Rex Conditioner. Satisfaction guaranteed. Valuable $2.00 gift with a $1.00 package. J. N. Bishop, Crayneville, Ky.

Horse Shoe Brand fertilizer at Eskew Bros'.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

I need money and those owing me on note or open account will oblige me by coming in and paying me a part if not all. Don't forget this. CHARLES LARUE, Levias, Ky.

Take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for backache, weak kidneys and inflammation of the bladder. Sold by J. H. Orme.

Hens cannot lay and thrive without relishing their feed. Use Rex Poultry Food Condiments. Satisfaction guaranteed. Valuable $2.00 gift with $1.00 purchase. N. J. Bishop, Crayneville, Ky.

Go to Eskew Bros. for fertilizer.

MY FALL GOODS HAVE COME!

Will you now come and look through our stock? It will pay you to do so. Today, not tomorrow is the accepted time.

Dry Goods, Dress Goods Notions
Hats and Caps, Boots, Shoes,
Groceries, Hardware, Tinware.

Take a day off and come and spend it looking at the bargains I have for you, and my word for it, you'll not regret it.

I Want Your Produce.

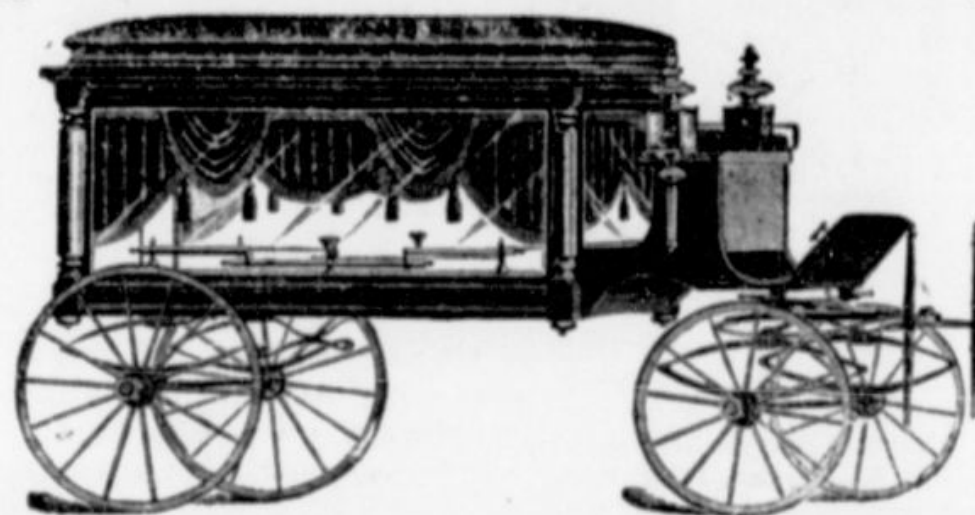

CHAS. LARUE,

LEVIAS, KENTUCKY.

R. F. DORR

(Licensed Embalmer)

FUNERAL DIRECTOR and EMBALMER

Dealer in Coffins Caskets, Burial Robes, Slippers, Etc.

Furniture, Chairs, Bed Room Sets, Bed Springs, Rockers, Tables, Etc.

Picture Frames and Moulding.

Grand Opening of

Fall and Winter Millinery!

At Shady Grove, Ky.,

September 26th to 28th.

My new goods have come and are all ready for your inspection. I take pleasure in showing my goods.

The prices are right too.

Mrs. B. C. Birchfield.

SHADY GROVE, KY.

Good Business for Sale.

On account of failing health I will sell my harness and saddlery business in this city at a bargain. My entire stock of harness, saddlery, repairs, harness maker's tools, including a well established and paying trade will be sold at a sacrifice as a whole or in lots to suit purchaser. These goods must be sold within the next ten days.

Until we have closed out the business we will continue to do repairing, and a competent man will be in charge and our prices will be right.

I desire to thank the many friends who liberally patronized me during my stay in Marion.

H. D. SALE, Marion, Ky.

FOR LAND SAKE

Use Bawker's fertilizer.

For sale by R. H. Kemp, Marion, Ky.

Nearly all Cough Cures, especially those that contain opiates, are constipating. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup contains no opiates and acts gently on the bowels. Pleasant to take. Sold by J. H. Orme.