METHODIST BANQUET

Delightful Affair Last Thursday Night at Stegar Building.

One of the most enjoyable occasions of the season was the Banquet for the men of the Methodist church, South, at Marion, given at the Stegar building on Thursday evening, Jan. 25, served by the Ladies' Aid Society of that church.

Over one hundred men of the church, including visiting Methodists and men belonging to other churches fortunate enough to have Methodist wives. The menu was worthy of the occasion and the manner in which it was served demonstrated beyond doubt that among many other virtues the Methodist ladies were most excellent cooks.

After the invocation by Rev. R. C. Love, the pastor, Rev. J. B. Adams made the welcome address in his usual happy style. Dr. T. A. Frazer was toastmaster and was certainly "the right man in the right place."

H. A. Haynes read a paper giving the history of the Methodist church at Marion from its organization about 1850 with a small class composed of J. W. Wilson and wife, Alfred Armstrong and wife, Mrs. Nancy Doctorman, Miss Rose Arterburn and J. C. Long and wife, and showing how from this small beginning it has grown to its present high place among the churches of our city.

Joe. W. Blue, Jr., in his own inimitable way discussed the "Relation of the Church to Fraternal Orders." Showing that each in their proper place had a high and holy mission; that the fraternal order by no means took the place of the church, yet the church and its members could learn many valuable lessons from the seal and fidelity of the members of these orders.

C. S. Nunn spoke on "Stations and Circuits," urging a close fellowship between the town and country churches. Showing how they were dependent the one upon the other, and how each could help the other and thus advance the interest of the church and the building up of Christ's Kingdom on earth.

N. Gray Rochester answered the question "Shall the Old Make Way for the Young or is there Room and Work for Both?" in a most convincing manner. He showed how necessary to the church were both the vigor, enthusiasm and zeal of concentrated youth, and the mature counsel and wise leadership of those older.

The object of the banquet was to unite the men of the church in closer bonds of social and christian fellowship and mutual help and to inspire a desire for more faithful service to the church and a higher appreciation of the duties and responsibilities of church members and it certainly cannot fail to be productive of much good.

Capital Gossip.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 27, 1908.

Friend Jenkins:—I did not write you last week as I had nothing to tell and I am sorry that I have so little progress to report this week.

One-fourth of the session is over and not a single bill has had its first reading in the House, and the Senate has done very little more; but these delays always occur when there is a Senatorial deadlock.

So far, 209 bills have been dumped into the hopper of the House and 132 into the Senate mill. They relate to every conceivable subject either real or imaginary. More than a score of the House bills ask for a repeal of the dog tax law, and I feel safe in saying that the dog tax and registration in fifth and sixth class cities will be wiped from the statutes. Many bills looking to a solution of the tobacco problem have been offered, and one measure is especially noticeable, it proposes that each farmer must take out a license at a cost of fifty dollars an acre, for each acre he proposes to raise this year. And I am assured that this bill will be favorably reported in the Senate.

The Senatorial deadlock continues with no prospect of an election soon. Six Democratic members still hold out against Mr. Beckham. They are Senators, McKnutt, Charlton and Campbell and representatives Mueller, McKnight and Lilliard. The Republicans vote solidly for Bradley, and Mr. Beckham's friends seem no less disposed to stand by him, and it is up to the bolters as to whether or whom they will elect.

Many bills have been introduced looking forward to further temperance reforms. Bills have been offered in both bodies, which if they secure a sufficient vote, will give us a chance two years hence to say if we wish to stop the liquor traffic in the entire state, and if the legislators stand true to their anti-election pledges, the necessary three-fifths vote will be forthcoming. And it does seem to me that the great temperance wave has not yet reached floodtide, but that the world, within the next decade may be dumbfounded at the intelligence that Kentucky has forbidden both the manufacture and sale of liquor within her borders. New Dairy Wagons.

The Gilt Edge Dairy of Wilson Hill farm is negotiating for a new wagon and when it arrives two will be run daily instead of one as now. This was found necessary to supply the growing demand for good and pure dairy products. Later, when the weather gets warm, four wagons will run, one North, one South, one East, one West to get the trade supplied while the milk is fresh in the cool of the morning or the evening. The deliveries will be made by four boys with four Shetland ponies and four light milk wagons.

We have eight fresh cows with calves from ten to twenty days old which added to the original number gives us twenty gallons more of rich, pure milk daily. We will bring in other cows from the farms as needed to supply the demand for the best dairy products.

Patrons who do not wish to purchase milk on the Sabbath can, by requesting it, have their Sunday supply delivered late Saturday evening.

Our winter quarters are in the center of the city. Wilson Hill Farm Gilt Edge Dairy.

Explanation.

In the article we published in the CRITTENDEN RECORD-PRESS two weeks ago about some one going into Dr. Stone's office, when he was absent, and doing considerable damage to his property. We failed to state that he and his friends all believed that the affair was but an echo of the municipal race, and was done to influence Mr. Stone's vote in the election of city officers. Dr. Stone has no enemies here, but on the contrary has the confidence and respect of every one, and his action in the election of city officers is generally commended, although of course every applicant had his following and his friends.

A New Church Organized.

Monday night a Cumberland Presbyterian church was organized in Marion by Rev. Barbee, assisted by A. U. Lamb, of Clay. Among those who enlisted their names as members, were the following: Geo. Thomas and wife, Phil Deboe and wife, Henry Wheeler, Dock Green, Sam Walker and wife and probably some others whose names we did not get.

Touring Party, Summer 1907.

Taken in Gardens of Versailles, Near Paris.

The above cut shows a party that toured Europe last year under the leadership of Rev. T. M. Hurst, who has recently been called to take charge of the Presbyterian Church corner Main and Depot streets in this city.

The picture was taken in front of the Grotto of Appollo in the Gardens of Versailles, near Paris, France, and shows thirty-two distinct faces. The group of statuary in the background is a conception of Louis XIV as he is in fact the Garden and the Grotto, and this statuary is intended to show Appollo, the God of Light, starting on his journey to carry light around the world.

The water fountains in these gardens are said to be the most beautiful and expensive in the world and the Great Trianon that stands in the midst of these surroundings was for centuries the favorite Palace of the French Kings. It was from this Palace that the unfortunate Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette fled in their vain attempt to escape the guillotine in the time of the bloody revolution that cost them both their heads and here may still be seen evidences of that profligate extravagance indulged by the French Court in the times when Madame Du Barry and Madame Pompadour and other similar acolytes were adding fuel to the blazing anger of the French people.

The bed-rooms of Louis XIV, Marie Antoinette, Napoleon I and others are open to visitors now as are other private rooms of royalty and as are the Galleries and Museums of the Trianon. The former with its mill and lake and dairy of the beautiful but profligate Queen, Marie Antoinette, make up perhaps one of the most childish and yet one of the most pathetic fancies ever conceived by a crowned head. Near the great Trianon stands the Petit Trianon built for Madame Du Barry and back of this is "the Farm," the plaything of Marie Antoinette where it is said she actually fed the chickens and made butter with her own dainty hands and made believe she was a peasant girl—one occasion. There sleeps a beautiful little artificial lake on one side of which stands the "mansion," while on the other side stands the "dairy" in which the Queen made the butter, and near by the little mill that she had built and the parsonage that she built for the Priest. It is said that often she and her friends would come down to this lake, which is only 300 or 400 feet wide, and play that some of them were going across the ocean and while a part sailed away they all wailed like so many children.

But few places have greater historic interest than Versailles, France and it was in the Gardens here that the above picture was made last summer. Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette were overtaken in their flight from here and carried to Paris where on the spot now known as Place de la Concorde, they were the first of more than 2000 persons whose heads fell under the guillotine at the hands of the infuriated mob in that awful Revolution that marked the closing of the 18th century.

Mr. Hurst, who led the party pictured above is a native Tennessean, having been born on the outskirts of the famous battle field of Shiloh, where as a boy he was living when the battle was fought and his recollections of April 6 and 7, 1862 are full of interest. He has led four parties through Great Britain and two parties across the Continent and recently declined to lead a party to Egypt, the Holy Land, Turkey and Greece, because it would take him away from home and out of the ministry. Ten years ago he was called to a charge in Pennsylvania where he preached until he gave up the work to go abroad and in his preaching he insists that we are living in an intellectual, aggressive and progressive age and that the most useful man in the church and in the world is he who keeps in touch with the trend of the times and cherishes the belief that today is the best day the world ever saw and the expectation that tomorrow will be better than today.

House Burned.

Thursday afternoon about 1 o'clock the residence occupied by Sam E. Walker, on Salem street, caught fire in some unaccountable way and was burned to the ground. The property belonged to L. H. James and was insured for $700 which will only partially cover the loss. Mr. and Mrs. Walker carried only $200 insurance on the contents and much of it was burned and what was saved was badly damaged.

The house occupied the lot next to the old Baptist church and it was saved with difficulty. There was considerable wind blowing that day and this caused some alarm among the neighbors, but fortunately the flames were confined to the one building.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker have the sympathy of their friends. At present they are stopping with Mr. and Mrs. L. H. James.

Large Lot of Souvenir Postals.

Monday morning Wilbur V. Haynes received thirteen boxes containing postal cards enough to measure seventy miles if they were laid end to end and would be 520 feet high if they were piled one on top of the other.

He is doing a big business and sends cards (to be retailed) to all parts of the United States. He has quite a number of girls and boys preparing these cards for mail.

It is a small matter for him to mail out enough cards in one day to fill twenty mail pouches.

This business has increased the revenue in the post office considerably and the mail clerks on the I. C. are thoroughly acquainted with the amount of business done by The W. V. Haynes Postal Card Company.

Clarence Franks Wins $5 Prize.

On January 11, the Ground Hog Plow & Foundry Co., in an advertisement in the Daily Leaf Chronicle offered a prize of $5 to the person sending the best written advertisement on the Ground Hog Plow. Quite a large number of people contested for the prize and Manager Charles Drane submitted the advertisements to a committee composed of Dr. R. A. Webb, Prof. William Dinwiddie and B. A. Patch, who made the decision. The prize was awarded to Clarence V. Franks, of Marion, Ky. The advertisement written by Mr. Franks will appear in this paper on Saturday, Feb. 1, Ground Hog day being Sunday.

The committee in awarding the decision submitted the following report:

Clarksville, Tenn., Jan. 22, 1908.
—Mr. C. H. Drane, Manager Ground Hog Plow & Foundry Company, Clarksville, Tenn.—Dear sir: Your committee to whom you submitted ten papers presented under the terms of your advertisement for a message from the Ground Hog to the Farmer concerning the Ground Hog Plow, has awarded the prize of $5 to the author of paper No. 8, whose name we do not know.

Respectfully Yours,
R. H. WEBB,
WM. DINWIDDIE,
BEN PATCH.

The prize was awarded to Clarence V. Franks, Marion, Kentucky. GROUND HOG PLOW & FOUNDRY CO.

Mr. Clarence Franks is our popular deputy county court clerk, and for the past year has been studying ad-writing. However, this is the first contest he has ever entered, and to be successful is quite an achievement and we congratulate him on his success.

When Dr. W. T. Daughtery left for Missouri, he sold his heavy office furniture to Dr. Walter Travis who is occupying the same suite (rooms 8 and 9) which Dr. Daughtery has been using for so long. When you go up the main stairway of the Press building, turn to the left when you reach the upper landing. Dr. Travis has two front rooms, which are well lighted and ventilated, having southern exposure and a bay window in each. He uses room No. 9 for an operating room and has a new and complete equipment of instruments for any and all emergencies. He uses room No. 8 as a reception room.

Last, but not least, Mrs. Gettie Franklin is the reception committee in all the offices of the third floor of the Press building. She divides her time between each of them and is ready to answer the phone or any interrogatories when the occupant of the office is absent. She is polite and attractive and has made many friends since she has been filling the place.

Mrs. Sayre Entertains.

Mrs. H. B. Sayre entertained a few friends Saturday afternoon at five hundred. The first prize, a handsome whisk broom holder and broom, was won by Miss Ruby James. The consolation prize was captured by Mrs. C. A. Moore.

Delightful refreshments of golden cake with whipped cream and coffee.

NOTICE.

Having purchased the restaurant of J. C. Spees I am now ready to serve you with meals and short order lunches at all times. I am adding a select line of confectionaries and a line of light groceries. I invite my friends and the public in general to give me a call. A. J. BUTLER.

NIGHT RIDERS

Whip John Heath, Tobacco Buyer at Dawson, Saturday Morning.

Dawson Springs, Ky., Jan. 25.—Night Riders invaded this town at 12:30 o'clock this morning, took J. W. Heath from his room in the Arcadia Hotel, carried him across the Tradewater river and severely whipped him. Heath is putting up tobacco for the association, but the night riders accuse him of buying a crop of pledged tobacco from Harp Menser, a grower of Christian county, outside the association and as an independent buyer, which it seems, is contrary to the rules of the organization. Mr. Menser was recently waited on by the so-called "Night Riders" and taken out and whipped.

The Night Riders seem to have come from Caldwell county, which is just across the Tradewater river, a mile west of the city. The first that was known of their presence here was the demand from some one outside the depot that the night operator Clyde Meadows should come out and go with them to the Arcadia Hotel.

Mr. Meadows accompanied the men to the hotel and a volley of shots were fired opposite the hotel and a demand made that Mr. Heath come forth. They were not familiar with the location of Mr. Heath's room, and becoming impatient fired a volley in the hall of the hotel riddling the glass doors and interior with bullets.

N. L. Holeman, the proprietor, was at Madisonville visiting his mother who was ill, and Mrs. Holeman made her appearance and was asked to tell the location of Mr. Heath's room. She refused and they started through the hotel to make a hunt on their own account. As they went along they whooped and yelled and fired through the hall windows and transoms and finally located Heath, after frightening all the guests out of their wits and forcing most of them to crawl under their beds to escape the bullets.

Dr. A. W. Brasher, of Madisonville, father of John B. Brasher, opened his door to make an investigation, and hardly had he stuck his head out when one of the night riders opened fire on him, the bullet burying itself in the door just above his head.

Several of the night riders finally knocked heavily on Heath's door and demanded that he dress and come out, which he promptly did.

He was then taken in custody and taken across the bridge west of town and severely whipped and told that he would not be whipped again, but should the same offense occur another time the extreme penalty would be inflicted.

The Rev. Welford Morgan, L. B. Lamson and Clyde Meadows, were compelled to accompany the night riders across the river and witnessed the punishment of Mr. Heath. He was ordered to make public and publish the fact that he bought about 1,700 pounds of tobacco from Harp Menser and paid $6 a hundred for it and if he did not do so they would treat him rougher than before. Mr. Heath promised to obey instructions.

Letter From Japan.

Nikko, Japan, Aug. 20.—From Yokohama to Nikko it is one hundred and eighty miles by rail, and I made the trip yesterday to see the festival of Ieyasu, which occurs here once a year, and which I was told should be seen at any sacrifice. Nikko is known as the City of Temples, and is full of interest. But the most interesting part of it was the trip by rail through a fertile section of Japan. This is a land of small things. Not an inch of ground runs to waste and not a wood is to be seen on any of the patches which by courtesy, I call farms. Those farms are of all sizes from a patch twenty feet square to an acre or more in extent, and instead of fences between they are separated by ditches in which the lotus is grown for food. Not only are the farms small, but also the people, the animals, houses, gardens, carriages and all articles used in daily life are ridiculously small. Grape vines rest on horizontal frames and even pear trees are trained on trellises.

Nikko lies in a lovely valley two thousand feet above the ocean on the Nikko-san mountains and is the site of the most gorgeous temples in the land. This spot attained its greatest sanctity in 1617, when it became the resting place of Ieyasu who was deified by the Mikado as "Light of the East. Great incarnation of Buddha." When he died he was buried here and given the most gorgeous Japanese burial. A vast number of priests in gorgeous robes, the Imperial envoy, the living Shogun, and a long train of noblemen with two-sword retainers followed the remains of the dead warrior up the long and beautiful avenue to the mausoleum on the lonely hillside, where they were deposited with all the impressiveness of Buddhist ritual.

At the summit is the temple to which I gained access through courtesy of officials and provided with queer scraps of paper as passports. A five storied pagoda rises gracefully tier on tier, with lessening stories to the height of 104 feet. The eaves of the lower story are decorated with painted carvings of the twelve signs of the zodiac, rat, ox, tiger, hare, dragon, serpent, horse, goat, ape, cock, dog and pig. We walked on through rows of lanterns to the entrance of the grounds and passed through the "Gate of Two Kings," which still retains its name although the original figures of the kings have been replaced by images of hideous monsters, supposed to have power through their ugliness to frighten away demons. In the court yard stand three large buildings with handsome tiled roofs. Under the eaves of the largest are painted carvings of elephants represented with legs turned the wrong way. Arranged about the court are 118 magnificent bronze lanterns with massive stone bases which are lighted on festive occasions.

The stable in which the sacred white pony is kept for use of the god is decorated with life-like carvings of monkeys, covering their eyes, ears and mouths with their hands. Stone slabs with the "blind monkey," the "deaf monkey," and the "dumb monkey" are to be noticed by the roadside in the rural districts throughout Japan, the idea being that this unique trinity neither sees, hears nor speaks evil. A pretty feature in the court of the temple is the constant tinkling of the wind bells hung over all the doorways. These bells serve to keep demons away. In the center of the court is the sacred enclosure or Holy of Holies, which is entered by the Karamon gate. It is a magnificent structure of precious woods imported from China, elaborately inlaid with birds and flowers in relief, each finished with greatest attention to detail. The interior of the ante room was most wonderfully decorated with frescoes, bronzes, carvings and gold and black lacquer. The cool dimness of this interior, and the evidences of extreme antiquity remain indelibly fixed in my mind. After exhausting all my vocabulary of expressions of praise I was left with nothing further to say when I visited the tomb itself. It is reached by returning to the courtyard, passing through an odd doorway, over which is the famous figure of a sleeping cat, said to be the greatest work of the left-handed artist, Hidari Jingoro, and ascending 227 moss-grown steps to the mausoleum where rest the ashes of Japan's greatest ruler. I shall describe this tomb in my next letter.

A Higher Health Level.

"I have reached a higher health level since I began using Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Jacob Springer, of West Franklin, Maine. "They keep my stomach, liver and bowels working just right." If these pills disappoint you on trial, money will be refunded at Jas. H. Orme and Haynes & Taylor's drug stores.

Hanged Himself.

Samuel McCandless, 55 years old, brother of F. McCandless, a farmer living in Livingston county, five miles from Smithland ended his life Tuesday morning at the home of his brother, by hanging himself. He made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide last year by taking chloroform. Ill health is the cause attributed for the deed.

DANGER OF CATARRH.

Unless Properly Treated with Hyomei, Becomes Serious.

Catarrhal troubles are far more dangerous than they seem at first thought.

If you have catarrh, there is an irritated state of the mucous membrane and weakened tissues which afford an ideal lodgment and culture medium for disease germs, especially those of consumption.

You should get cured as quickly as possible before any dangerous germs that you may breathe lodge on the diseased tissue and work destruction in the throat and lungs.

The easiest, simplest, quickest, surest and cheapest way to cure catarrh is by the direct method, breathing Hyomei. This wonderful medicated air treatment does not drug and derange the stomach, but is breathed in, directly following and destroying all disease germs that may have been inhaled.

The unusual way in which Hyomei is sold by Haynes & Taylor is the best evidence of their confidence in the treatment and should dispel all doubt as to its curative properties. Haynes & Taylor agree to refund the purchase price to anyone whom Hyomei fails to benefit, and you do not risk a cent in testing its healing virtues. A complete outfit costs but $1.00 if it helps you, not a cent if it does not do all that is claimed for it.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babes. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by James H. Orme.

Weak Kidneys
Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart, and the stomach, and their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine is dark, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—

Obituary.

W. H. Walker was born in Crittenden County Ky., Sept. 18, 1839; died Jan. 17, 1908; aged 68 years and four months. In his early days he had fairly good opportunities for a young man of that day, and by dint of earnest efforts he attained a good education. He began to put his fund of knowledge to a proper use and soon commenced to teach school. One of his first schools was at Dogwood in Caldwell Co.

This community was the home of the Maxwells, Wiggintons, and others of the best known families of Caldwell county. In his associations during that school he was attracted by the noble qualities of Miss Mary Bell Maxwell. In 1866 he and Miss Maxwell were married. To them was born four children, only one of whom is living. His first wife lived to bless his life and grace his home for 22 years. She died June 26, 1888. She was a woman universally loved and respected.

Bro. Walker professed religion and joined the C. P. Church at Sugar Grove. In 1870 he was elected as deacon in that church. At the time of his election to the office of deacon he was already serving the church as clerk. He was the efficient clerk of the church for 27 years. He was elected and ordained Ruling Elder in 1879. He has served in that capacity ever since. When he moved to Marion, one of his first acts was to put his membership in the church here, an example that speaks with force to many christians of the different churches who are neglecting this important duty. He was an elder in the Marion church and for the last few years served it as clerk.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. W. T. Oakley and he was buried in the Cemetery at Sugar Grove.

Bro. Walker was a bundle of ac-centricities, yet he had some fine qualities. He was a reading, thoughtful man. He was firm in his convictions and tenacious for what he thought to be right.

He was elected police judge and served about two years in that capacity.

He is gone, let us look at the nobler traits of his life and try to imitate them. He was a man of high aspirations. Let us aspire to be the best and noblest possible.

Men Rescued From the Mine.

Ely, Nev., Jan. 25.—After having been entombed forty-six days in the Alpha shaft of Giroux mine, A. D.
Bailey, P. J. Brown and Fred Mc-Donald have been rescued. At 8:30 o'clock last night Bailey was brought out. Fourteen minutes later Mc-Donald came to the surface, while ten minutes later Brown was brought up.

Whistles all over the district blew loudly while crowds cheered in the streets of Ely, and every bell in the town was ringing. On the morning of Dec. 4, McDonald, Brown and Bailey and two Greeks were working the bottom of a three-compartment shaft eighty-five feet below the pump station and 1,085 feet below the surface. A cave-in occurred at 9 o'clock.
The cable used to haul the cage from the third compartment of the shaft snapped and thousands of tons of rock, debris and timber fell down into the shaft. From the bottom of the compartment in which the men were working to the pumping station, a distance of eighty-five feet, a series of rickety ladders offered the only means of escape. With falling rocks and timbers streaming down upon them the five men struggled up these ladders. Half way up, the falling timbers knocked the two Greeks from the ladders, killing them. Bailey, McDonald and Brown managed to reach the pump station.
Its well timbered roof withstood the rock and timber that came down the shaft and offered them shelter and safety.

Here for the first day after the cave-in the men crouched while at intervals they could hear the rocks and timbers crashing above them.
At first it was thought all the men had perished but twenty-four hours after the cave-in the three men, who occupied the pumping station, managed to make themselves heard by tapping upon the six-inch water pipe that stretched from the pumping station to the surface. It was this pipe that was the means of saving the lives of these three men.

When communication was once established with the world above the men had made known the fact that they were still alive, food and drink was immediately lowered through the pipe. A large supply was sent down as it was thought that pipe communication might be cut off before the rescuing party could reach the imprisoned men, but throughout their weeks of imprisonment this pipe has been in daily use. A portable telephone was lowered and the men were able to talk with the people above.

Many a Kentucky Citizen Knows, How Sure They Are.

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Kentucky.
There is plenty of positive proof of this in the testimony of citizens.
Such evidence should convince the most skeptical sufferer. Read the following statement:

Mrs. L. Varalli, living at 923
Fifth St., Louisville, Ky., says:
"I am happy to say that Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great benefit to me and other members of my family. I frequently had attacks of backache and kidney trouble before using your remedy, but after using two boxes of the pills the trouble was entirely cured. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to a great many of my friends for I attribute my present good health to the use of Doan's Kidney Pills.
They certainly do all that is claimed for them."

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father, the great Head of the church, in His all-wise Providence, has seen fit to call our beloved brother officer and member, Bro. J. W. Adams, to his reward;

And, whereas, on account of the purity of his life, his upright christian character, his faithfulness to his duties as husband, father, citizen and member and officer of our church, and the universal love and respect for him and of his friends and associates, we feel that some memorial of his worth and of our love for him should be made:

It is therefore resolved, that, while we realize that in his death our community, our church, and our session, as well as his family and friends have suffered a great loss, yet we feel that he still lives with us in the influence for good that he wielded, and, that he was one who could truly say; "For me to live is Christ and to die is gain," and we rejoice in the knowledge that all things work together for good to them that love God.

It is further resolved that these resolutions be spread upon a separate page of our record book and to the CRITTENDEN RECORD-PRESS for publication and that a copy of them be furnished to his family.

Nursing baby?

It's a heavy strain on mother.

Her system is called upon to supply nourishment for two.

Some form of nourishment that will be easily taken up by mother's system is needed.

Scott's Emulsion contains the greatest possible amount of nourishment in easily digested form.

Mother and baby are wonderfully helped by its use.

HOUSE WORK

Thousands of American women in our homes are daily sacrificing their lives to duty.

In order to keep the home neat and pretty, the children well dressed and tidy, women overdo. A female weakness or displacement is often brought on and they suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have help to overcome the pains and aches which daily make life a burden.

It is to these faithful women that LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND comes as a boon and a blessing, as it did to Mrs. F. Ellsworth, of Mayville, N. Y., and to Mrs. W. P. Boyd, of Beaver Falls, Pa., who say:

"I was not able to do my own work, owing to the female trouble from which I suffered. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me wonderfully, and I am so well that I can do as big a day's work as I ever did. I wish every sick woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

HAW RIDGE.

As most of the patrons of this district read the Record-Press, I feel it my duty as well as a pleasure to drop you a few lines about my school which closed Jan. 10. This school has been very bright. The ones that have been coming prompt me to say that this is one of the best little schools in the county. The children are enthusiastic and very obedient and the patrons are among the best to be found anywhere. Among the best students are: Misses Jane Bugg, Lucy Bugg, Olive Cannon, Alma Cannon and Mr. Hayse Bugg. Miss Jane Bugg is going to teach this fall and who is competent and has that good disposition and characteristics that will no doubt make her among the best teachers in the county. The general average of the pupils varied from 90 to 98 per cent for the last two months. Those making an average of 98 per cent. were: Misses Jane and Lucy Bugg, Alma and Olive Cannon and Hayse Bugg. Those making an average of 96 per cent. were: Nellie Riley, Nola Singleton, Albert and Alfie Cannon. Those making 94 per cent. were: Ethel and Clara Cannon, Leta and Edith Crider, Harlie and Louis Crider and Lexie Cannon. Those making 90 per cent. were: Azma Singleton, Stella Riley, Zedie Stella and Floyd Corley, Leta Oliver, Harvie Cannon, Sylvan Winn, Robert Crider, Lee Oliver, Aaron Oliver and Darwin Raymer.

Thanking the people for their courtesy shown me while teaching the term of six months, I am yours for success, EDNA VINSON, Teacher.

New Marriage Law.

The Catholic church's new laws touching on betrothal and marriage are to be promulgated Easter Sunday in every Catholic diocese in the world, and they go into effect at noon on that day.

Under these laws any marriage contracted between Catholics will be absolutely void in the eyes of the church unless it be celebrated in the presence of a duly qualified priest and two witnesses. At present the marriage of a Catholic pair by a non-Catholic clergyman or by a civil magistrate is valid, although it is considered illicit, and the persons contracting it render themselves liable to ex-communication.

Protestants married by a minister will be regarded as lawfully married under the new law.

"In brief," said a Catholic clergyman, "marriages between Catholics in Protestant churches or registry offices will be for Catholics not only sinful, but invalid, and the persons who contract them will have only gone through an empty ceremony and will be no more husband and wife than they were before. This law binds all Catholics, even though they are apostate or ex-communicated."

"But it does not effect those who are not and never have been Catholics. Consequently, Protestants and non-Catholics are outside of the scope of the law, in the eyes of the church, and such marriages are recognized by the Catholic church, all else permitting it, as real and true marriages."

The principals contained in the new laws have long been recognized in the church. It is explained, and their recent promulgation is said to be due to the increase of marriages before civil magistrates in this country and abroad. Of course, this does not apply to Maryland, as only ordained ministers and those of the Society of Friends have authority to perform marriage ceremony in that state.

SEVEN SPRINGS.

Mr. Furgerson, of Lyon county, moved to this vicinity last week.

Mrs. Sarah Patton has been visiting the family of Rev. J. C. Kinsolving for several days, the family there are all sick with lagrippe.

Hog killing is the order of the day in this part.

Little Collin Patton accompanied by his papa, made a flying trip to Shelby's mill Friday.

Forest Kinsolving, of Emmaus, was a pleasant caller in this section Friday evening.

Mose L. Patton has treated his yard to a new wire fence.

There is a great amount of sickness in our community.

Guy Patton is attending school at Caldwell Springs and boarding with his uncle, Jim Patton, of that place.

In the great book of Nature every farm is a chapter, every field a leaf, every truck patch a paragraph, every corn row and wheat row a line, every farmer a writer and the rest of the world interested readers.

We are having some winter weather this week.

Mose L. Patton was calling on his relatives in Livingston county Thursday evening.

TRIBUNE.

John Marshall Hill is having a house pattern sawed out.

Mr. Curry passed through here last week enroute to Marion with a big load of tobacco.

Robert Dollins and wife were the guest of J. A. Piekens and wife one day last week.

J. A. Piekens and wife and daughter visited Frank Travis and family last Thursday night.

Nute Thomas has completed his new porch.

John Baker, of Missouri, is visiting brother-in-law George Roberts.

We are glad to know that Mr. Roberts is improving.

Brother Oakley preached a good sermon at Sugar Grove Sunday and a large crowd attended.

Hale Walker was buried last Saturday, at Sugar Grove.

Miss Margaret Rankin's school was out last Friday.

Perfected Wheat Positively Cures Constipation.

Is the root of most of the ills that afflict humanity. By the stoppage of the waste matter, the body becomes clogged with impurities and poisons. These poisons are carried to all parts of the system by the blood, deadening tissues and nerves, resulting in Neurasthenia, Rheumatism, Bright's Disease, Dropsy and dozens of other ailments.

Within three days after the first meal of Perfected Wheat the bowels become normal and move regularly.

Perfected Wheat is a purifier as well as a cleaner. It purifies, sweetens and tones up the internal vital organs.

Perfected wheat is a breakfast-dinner-supper food, specially prepared by a scientific process, at Middlesborough, Kentucky, and is crisp, ready-to-eat. Trial package for $1.

If you are in ill health write to Dorth Campbell, the manufacturer of Perfected Wheat, at Middlesborough, Kentucky. He will send you a booklet about this wonderful food and how raw foods cure.

MATTOON.

Most of our farmers are done delivering tobacco.

Coleman Brown, of Northern Illinois, who has been spending several weeks with his parents here, will return home soon.

Jim Sullivan, of Rodney, was the guest of John Sullivan's family Sunday.

The young people of this community were highly entertained at the residence of Field Crowell Friday night by the Brightman band.

Miss Ida Duval and brother, Jesse, left Wednesday for Tennessee.

Frank Burton spent Saturday and Sunday at Clay.

Bro. Love, of Marion, passed through here Wednesday en route to Rose Bud to officiate in the marriage of Mr. Alvin Mays and Miss Bessie Wilhoit.

Mrs. Otis Hughes, of Weston, was here Thursday.

When You Take Cold

One way is to pay no attention to it; at least not until it develops into pneumonia, or bronchitis, or pleurisy. Another way is to ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. If he says, "The best thing for colds," then take it. Do as he says, anyway.

We publish our formulae. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor.

When the bowels are constipated, poisonous substances are absorbed into the blood instead of being daily removed from the body as nature intended. Knowing this danger, doctors always inquire about the condition of the bowels. Ayer's Pills.

Plans Accepted.

Denver, Jan. 22.—The auditorium plans were accepted Tuesday by the Democratic national committee. The arrangements provide for seats for 14,000 persons in the convention hall.

Chairman Taggart named former Governor John E. Osborne, of Wyoming, as vice chairman of the arrangements committee and Roger Sullivan, of Chicago, as assistant vice chairman.

The headquarters of the national committee during the convention will be at the Brown Palace Hotel.

Socalled Night Night Riders Appear in Clarksville.

Clarksville, Tenn., Jan. 22.—An attempt was made last night to set fire and dynamite the loose tobacco factory of the Hayes Sory Tobacco Company, the local representatives of the Italian Regies. Two negroes, Tony Alden and Walter Watkins, alias Frog Eye were killed, while trying to escape, by one of the night watchmen. One other negro escaped but is thought to be wounded.

The Regie tobacco factory since the recent trouble in the dark tobacco district has been closely guarded. When an investigation was made it was found that the door of the factory had been saturated with coal oil and four sticks of dynamite placed about it.

The idea prevails that the negroes were hired by night-riders to fire the factory.

When the bodies of the two negroes were searched sticks of dynamite were found on their person.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute" says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for coffee. Sold by Morris & Yates.

BLACKBURN.

Several have lagrippe.

Some are burning plant beds, preparing for another crop of tobacco.

Rev. J. T. Davis went to Farmersville Tuesday.

Edgar Fralick went to Shady Grove Saturday.

Harvie Vanhoosier and Finnie Boyd visited Farmersville Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Lottie Davis was the guest of Miss Rosa Murry Sunday.

Uncle Bennett Crider is still very sick.

Jack Fralick has a bad case of the lagrippe.

Willis Andrews who has been ill with pneumonia is some better.

Mrs. Dola Dowell died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ella Corley, January 9th, 1908, of pneumonia. She had been sick but a short time and her death was very sudden. She leaves a husband, two small children and friends to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Ella Corley died at her home January 11th, with pneumonia and was buried at Pleasant Hill cemetery January 12th.

Daddy Travis has passed his 87th birthday and is enjoying good health. Daddy says he is good for many more years. We hope so.

Saw gold in Dream.

New York, Jan. 22.—In a dream Miss Lucy Alvord's grandfather, who has been dead 70 years, appeared to her in her home in Taylorsville, N. J., and pointed out to her the hiding place of $4,000 in gold which he had put away before he died. The next morning the gold was discovered. The Alvord family has lived in the same house since Revolutionary days and in her dream Miss Alvord saw her grandfather go into an old brick oven, long unused, and take from the wall a jar containing gold coins. The next day she induced her brother to investigate, and there, bricked up in the oven, was the jar containing the coins, the face value of which is about $4,000.

Rank Foolishness.

"When attacked by a cough or a cold or when your throat is sore, it is rank foolishness to take any other medicine than Dr. King's New Discovery," says C. O. Eldridge, of Empire, Ga. "I have used New Discovery for seven years and I know it to be the best remedy on earth for coughs and colds, croup, and all throat and lung troubles. My children are subject to croup, but New Discovery quickly cures every attack." Known the world over as the King of throat and lung remedies. Sold under guarantee at Jas. H. OUR LINE CONSISTS OF THE BEST OF EVERYTHING

HORSE COLLARS

Our line of collars is complete, and every one perfectly made. Nothing but the best grade of leather is used; and the assortment of sizes is such that we can fit any horse's neck in the county.

SEEDS OF ALL KIND

The time for seed sowing will soon be here, and we call your attention to the fact that we have on hands every seed adapted to this climate. Red Clover, Alsike Clover, Alfalfa Clover, Red Top, Timothy, Blue Grass, Orchard Grass and Northern grown seed oats.

You can find no better time to buy than now, and you'll find our prices right.

FAMOUS AMERICAN FENCE

If you have "breechy" stock on your farm put them behind the American fence and they are bound to stay. It costs but very little more than the ordinary fence, will last a life-time, and will add 25 per cent. to the value of your farm.

It is brought on in various heights from 26 to 58 inches; you should try it.

SADDLES

Are you thinking of buying a saddle? If so, let us give you prices before you buy elsewhere.

Our saddles are well made, strong, durable and comfortable. We will take delight in showing them to you.

A Question that Every Man Should Decide for Himself.

There is one subject in which many of us are interested and that is, what is the quickest way of getting rid of a troublesome cold? Is it best to put some new remedy put out with exaggerated claims, or to pin your faith to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, a preparation that has won a world wide reputation and immense sale by its cure of this disease? This remedy is for sale by J. H. Orme.

CHAPEL HILL.

This last week has been a fine time for hauling and for general work of all kinds.

Our school closed Saturday with a large crowd present to hear the speeches and dialogues which were well carried out.

Mr. Bennett, of Dycusburg, received the tobacco he bought in this precinct, Tuesday, Jan. 28th, at Crayne.

Miss Ada Canada was visiting Miss Ruby Bigham on Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Pearl Hill was the guest of Miss Willie Clement one night last week.

The taffy pulling at Mr. Jacob's and Miss Sallie Elders was largely attended and enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Ida Enoch and little son, of Memphis, arrived here Saturday to visit her mother, Mrs. J. C. Long of this place.

Mrs. J. M. Persons, of Marion, attended the last day of Miss Miss Elva Hill's school at this place.

Charlie Clement prepared and burnt a fine tobacco bed Monday.

Our new man in this precinct, Mr. James Canada expects to cut a wide swath this next year. He has taken in a cropper and has rented out part of his land to Mr. Lee Hughes and expects to put out a big crop of tobacco, and you see the old man is going to have things going his way. He will have to hustle if he takes the place of the man that left there.

HAS COME TO STAY

Deadlock In Kentucky Senatorial Race Seems to Have Become a Fixture.

ONE WAY OUT OF CONTEST

Our Correspondent at the Capital Presents an Interesting Review of Affairs Relating to the Legislature and Its Doings.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 28.—The deadlock in the senatorial race seems to have come to stay. Beckham is still three votes short of his election, and Bradley is five votes short, with six anti-Beckham Democrats voting for McCrory, Blackburn and other Democrats and holding the balance of power. The race has settled down to a sort of humdrum affair, and the two steering committees are getting the only excitement out of it, as they have to hustle around every morning to see if all the absentees are properly paired with some member of the opposite political party. The six anti-Beckham Democrats have it in their power, of course, to elect either Beckham or Bradley, but it has not been demonstrated yet that they can pull over enough Democrats or enough Republicans to elect a third man. A Republican member of the legislature said last week that if he were released from voting for Wheeler Campbell, one of the anti-Beckham Democrats, and thus end the deadlock, "but I will never ask Bradley to release me," said he, "for I know if I went to him and asked him to release me he would give me a good cussing, and I am not going to say a word about it, but just stand pat." This indicates that the deadlock may continue to the end of the session, but it will end any day that Beckham or Bradley withdraws from the race.

Governor Willson has sent a special message to the legislature on the subject of better schools and a more advanced system of education. He says there is a general movement all over the state for better teachers, better teaching, better schools, better school houses, longer school terms, better paid teachers, first-class normal schools to train teachers, and a complete change in the whole school system to bring it up to the best modern methods. To carry out these ideas he suggests that a commission be provided for, composed of the governor, superintendent of public instruction, one senator, one representative, one lady to be chosen by the Federation of Women's clubs, the president of the state university, the presidents of the two normal schools, one superintendent of county schools and one superintendent of city schools, all to be selected by the governor, except those specifically named. The duty of this commission will be to investigate our school system and compare it with the best systems of other states and submit to the next general assembly a report embodying recommendations and suggestions as to needed changes in our school system. A bill proposing to create said commission has already been introduced in the senate by Senator Rives, and it will likely be passed and become a law if the senatorial race does not block all legislation.

Several delegations of women have already been to Frankfort in the interest of this bill, but some of the leading Women's club members are working against it. It is predicted that the main stumbling block in the way of the measure becoming a law, is the fact that it gives negro women the same right to vote and hold office that it gives to the white women.

For the past twenty years or more attempts have been made to reduce the fees charged by stockyards companies, but for some reason all bills introduced in the legislature on that subject have failed to pass. Senator R. W. Owen of Hancock county has introduced a bill this session to regulate and reduce these fees and the prices charged for provender. The senator is a farmer and a stock trader himself, and he feels from personal experience that the prices charged by these companies is too large. His bill provides that the price charged shall not be more than 50 per cent higher than the market price of the provender and that the actual weight of the food shall be taken and not charged by guess, as seems to be the custom of some of the stockyard companies. This bill will meet with the hearty approval of the farmers and the stock-shippers all over the state.

A bill aimed at the drug stores and corner grocery stores that sell whisky has been introduced. The bill does not name the drug stores or groceries, but it provides that one having a license to sell liquor shall not engage in any other business at the same place he sells the liquor. Among the other no crop at all this year. Senator Brown's bill provides that before it shall be lawful for any farmer to raise a crop of tobacco this year, he shall first procure a license to do so from the county clerk, and the price to be charged for said license shall be $50 for each acre of tobacco proposed to be grown. The penalty for the violation of provisions of the bill is fixed at a fine of from $500 to $1,000, so it is safe to predict that if the bill becomes the law there will be no tobacco grown in Kentucky this year.

The building of good roads in this state will be given a most wholesome impetus if the bill fathered by Senators Bosworth and Wyatt can be passed. Under the present constitution no county can assume an indebtedness for road-building purposes greater than 2 per cent of the assessed value of the property in the county. This amount has been found to be totally inadequate to secure anything like a decent system of public roads, and the demand from the people for better roads has become so insistent that an amendment to the constitution is deemed necessary as the only way to meet the demand of the people. The Bosworth-Wyatt bill provides that a vote be taken on an amendment to the constitution which will permit the counties to become indebted for building public roads to the amount of 10 per cent of the taxable value of the property in the county. This will give the people a chance to show whether they are in earnest or not when they clamor for better roads.

A determined fight will be made in this session of the legislature to give women the right to vote in school elections and to hold the office of school trustee or any other school office. Representative J. A. Sullivan of Madison county has introduced a bill in the house, the first section of which reads: "That any woman possessing the qualifications requisite to a male voter in common school elections, and who, in addition, may be able to read and write, is hereby declared qualified to vote at any election held for the purpose of choosing any officer of schools, or upon any measure relating to schools, and any woman possessing the qualifications required for males is hereby declared to be eligible to hold any office now existing or that may hereafter be created by any act of the general assembly."

The new statehouse is nearing completion, and from the outside promises to be a most magnificent building. The contractors have notified the commissioners that they will complete their work by May 15, and then the furnishing with desks, carpets and other necessary articles can begin if the present legislature makes an appropriation for that purpose. The building presents a splendid view from all parts of Frankfort and will, it is expected, be a source of pride to every Kentuckian as he sees it in passing through the city on the train. It is the only real first-class statehouse that Kentucky has ever had, and the only mistake was made in not building twenty-five years ago.

Act to require an annual apportionment and accounting of the surplus of life insurance companies.

Act prohibiting the manufacture and sale of cigarettes in this state and providing a severe punishment therefor.

Act to prohibit the marriage of first and second cousins in this state.

Act to prevent the crowding or overloading beyond their seating capacity of cars provided by railroad companies for the transportation of passengers, and to prevent any increase in rates now in effect or the withdrawal of certain tickets in retaliation.

Act providing for the teaching of the elements of agriculture in the public schools of the state.

Act amending the election law by providing that hereafter the ballots shall have no party emblems on them.

Act giving the landlord a superior lien on the tenant's crop for the money advanced to raise the crop, the lien to be superior to all other liens for one year.

The classic old building where the legislature now meets and has met since 1832 will soon be a thing of the past as far as being of service to the state is concerned, unless the legislature makes some provision for its future. Everybody admires and loves the old building for its many historical associations and are anxious to see it preserved for all time and used by the state for some purpose. The most frequent suggestion is that it be turned over to the State Historical society and let that organization make a state historical museum of it after the new statehouse is furnished and occupied. Nearly all the other older states have a historical museum, and Kentucky should have one by all means. No more suitable building could be found for such a purpose, and the state will have no further use for it after next year. In this way the state would secure a most valuable and interesting feature without having to spend any thing to get it.

A great many amusing things are told as jokes on the legislative members from some of the back counties, some of them being true and some of them probably not true. The other day at the boarding house where one of these rural members was stopping, the housekeeper had apple dumplings for dinner and served them with a very toothsome sauce. The aforesaid legislator, it seems, had never seen any sauce before, so when he had about finished his dumpling the housekeeper asked him if he would not have something else. He replied, "Yes, I would like to have some more of that what you walloop your dumpling in."
