FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Last Sunday, Rev. Powell Officiating.

Last Sunday was a happy day for the Baptists and their friends, for the new church which had been under construction for about eleven months was dedicated to God and his wor-

The building is truly a credit to a little city like Marion as well as the Baptist church.

The services were conducted by Dr. W. D. Powell, of Louisville, assisted by the pastors of various churches of the city.

The baptists have done nobly in building this handsome structure, which cost them over ten thousand dollars, all of the amount except about thirty-five hundred dollars having already been paid.

At the close of the sermon in the evening, quite a number of the Baptists, Methodist and Presbyterians responded to the invitation given, by expressing their gratitude and appreciation of the new church.

The amount due to be raised be fore the building could be dedicated was readily subscribed and the church was dedicated to the servive of the Master, free of debt.

The very liberal contributions given by the members of other churches was certainly appreciated by the church.

Services will continue to be held mew church, overy Sanday morning and evening, prayer meeting every Thursday evening and Sunday School every Sunday morning at 9:30 o'elock.

A protracted meeting has been planned to take place some time in Every one is cordially invited to attend any and all services at the church.

Resolutions of Respect.

To the memory of Bro. James Harvey Travis, who was a member of Zion Hill Lodge No. 371 F. and A. M., Weston, Ky., and who departed this life February 25, 1908.

We have all sadly learned the fact that it matters not if every hour of life is rich with love, and every fleeting moment is superbly jeweled with joy, at last we all must meet the grim monster, death, and by him be ushered on to the unknown beyond. Such is heaven's decree, and to which all must submit.

So it was with Bro. Travis, when he had lived a life of ninety-two years and a Master Mason sixtyeight years, and a member of the church for seventy-two years. He was honest, upright in his dealings, a kind father, and exemplary husband Resolved

First-That this lodge has lost one of its true and faithful members, the church a consistent member, and the community an upright citizen.

Second-That we extend to his bereaved ones our kindest sympathy in their sorrow.

Third-That a page of the records of this Lodge be set apart in memory of him and a copy of these resolutions be spread thereon, a copy sent to his family, and that they be published in the Masonic Home Journal and the CRITTENDEN RECORD-PRESS.

Fourth-That the craft wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty Night Rider Scare.

Livingston county is actually fested with the plague of night rid ing. A number of notices have been served on our people and great alarm is felt, especcially about Tiline. It is sometimes suggested that the work is done by designing enemies who have taken advantage of the turbulent situation. However, there is quite a nervous state of feeling, and some people are said to be leaving that part of the county. -Livingston Echo.

Metz-Moore.

Last Wednesday evening, Feb. 26, at the home of the bride, Miss Linnie Metz and Mr. F. W. Moore were united in marriage, Rev. J. W. Flynn officiating.

Mrs. Moore is the daughter of Mr and Mrs. Henry Metz, of Mattoon, and a sister of Mr. C. E. Metz, of this city, and is an attractive and charming young woman.

Mr. Moore is an enterprising young man and is engaged in the real estate business.

Destroyed by Fire.

Breckenridge Hall at Danville, Ky., was destroyed by fire Monday morning at ten o'clock. Archie Davidson of this city, who is attending the Law Department of Old Center College was rooming at the hall. He was rooming on the third floor and the fire broke out two rooms from his his room. He happened to be in his room at the time and was able to save his clothes and books which were in his trunk by throwing the trunk from the window. He escaped by letting himself out of the window with a rope, and just as he reached the ground the fire broke into the room just vacated by him.

Very few of the other boys saved anything as they were at recitation.

BRADLEY ELECTED

National Senate for Six Succeed Senator McCreary.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 28 .-- William O. Bradley, former Governor of Kentucky, was elected United States Senator from Kentucky to succeed James B. McCreary at the joint ballot of the Legislature at noon today. Mr. Bradley will take office March 4, 1909, and he will serve six years, Speaker Gooch, the presiding officer, at 2:12 p. m. announced the result of the joint ballot as follows: Bradley 64; Beckham 15, others scattering. Speaker Gooch declared W. O. Bradley elected United States Senator amid great cheering.

Long Battle Ended.

Frunkfort, Ky., Feb. 28 .-- After fruitless balloting since January 15, Gov. W. O. Bradley, the Republican caucus nominee, was today elected United States Senator on the twentyninth ballot taken in the joint session, with the aid of four Democratic votes, Senator H. S. McNutt and Senator A. H. Chariton, of Louisville, and Representative Chris F. Dorr. Mueller, of Louisville, and Representative E. W. Lillard, of Boyle county. He received sixty-four votes, just enough to elect. Speaker Gooch named Senator tives Sawyer A. Smith and J. W. Porter, a committee to escort Gov. Bradley to the Speakers stand

Gov. Bradley was greeted with loud cheering. He was introduced by Senator Oliver, of Allen county, as the Greatest Republican who ever appeared before an audience of Ken-

Gov. Bradley returned his profound thanks to Speaker Gooch for his impartial and fair rulings. He thanked the Republicans for the way they had stood by him and also the Democrats who supported him. He said he would never forget them. He said he had no hard feelings against those who voted against him as they did what they believed was right. He promised that he would give his best efforts for Kentucky in the United States Senate.

He pledged himself to do his best to secure the repeal of the six cent tax on leaf tobacco which was loudly cheered. He said he had never been a partisan, and claimed to be a fair, square man, and expected to be the Senator of the whole people of Kentucky, and would do everything in his power to protect their interests. He said he yielded to no man in his love for Kentucky, and would defend any aspersions on her fair name. He said he could not express his gratitude on being elected, and advised that all bickerings be set aside in the interest of the welfare, honor and prosperity of the State.

Speaker Gooch appointed the same committee to invite Gov. Beckham, the defeated candidate to address the General Assembly. The committee reported that they were unable to locate Gov. Beckham.

The Beckham people were completely outwitted in the making of a quorum of the Senators present, it being necessary to have twenty Senators present in order to make the joint session legal. When the Sen-I have succeeded in running a ate roll call proceeded Senator Charlwell on the roll call.

until Representative Lillard, Boyle county, voted for him, as it was known that Representative Mueller would follow the lead of the Louisville Democratic Senators. Pandemonium broke loose when it was known that Gov. Bradley had received the requisite vote to land him a winner of the rich prize, and the Beekham people resorted to every artifice to delay the announcement of the vote in an attempt to nullify the result.

A Handsome Present.

The friends of Mr. R. L. Davis have purchased him a silver service set which they will present as a wedding present. The set cost $28 and is very handsome.

Mr. Davis arrived Wednesday afternoon with his bride, who was Miss Pearl Shaw, of Cadiz.

Mr. Davis has only been a resident of our city a few months, but has won by his gentlemanly bearing many friends who are proving their friendship by the handsome wedding present.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis have a suite of rooms at the residence of Mr. R.

Great Excitement.

Monday night near Lola, an old sage field was set on fire to clear off the land, when later in the night the heavens for miles around became a blazing light, which caused no little excitement among those who witnessed the sight, as they no doubt, thought the night riders had whipped everybody on earth but them, and then set fire to heaven, and that they would soon be waited on. But when the news spread that it was only an old sage field fired by friendly hands, much relief was realized .--Livingston Banner.

Star Route Discontinued.

The star mail route between Mar ion and Shady Grove has been discontinued. The rural carriers will take the mail to Tribune, and from there it will be taken to Shady Grove. Tranquility.

Who does not love a tranquil heart a sweet-tempered, balanced life? It does not matter whether it rains or shines, or what misfortunes come to those possessing these blessings, for they are always sweet, serene and

The exquisite poise of character us? which we call serenity is the last lesson of culture; it is the flowering of life, the fruitage of the soul.

It is as precious as wisdom, more to be desired than gold-yea, than even fine gold. How contemptible them? mere money-wealth looks in comparison with a serene life, --- a life which dwells in the ocean of truth, beneath the waves, beyond the reach of tempests, in the eternal calm !

How many people we know who confine his ministry for a time? sour their lives, who ruin all that is sweet and beautiful by explosive tempers, who destroy their poise of character by bad blood! In fact, it is a question whether the great majority of people do not ruin their lives and mar their happiness by lack of self-control. How few people we meet in life who have that exquisite poise which is characteristie of the finished character. --- Ex.

John Montgomery Dies at Providence

John Montgomary, one of the oldest and best citizens of the county, died as his home in Providence Tuesday of brights desease and other ailments to which old age is heir.

The deceased was in his eightieth year. He was a consistent member of the United Baptist church and was a very bright mason, having been a member of that order for a number of years.

Mr. Montgomery was what is known as a "Forty Niner" he being one of the many who went to California from this county in 1849 to dig gold. There are only one or two of the "forty niners" left in the county. We know of only one, Wm. Givens, of near Providence.

Four children survive the deceased as follows: James, and Joe Montgomery, of Providence; Mrs. Thos. Morris, of Providence and Mrs. N. B. Hays, of Pineville, Ky.

The funeral was preached by Rev. Theodore Compton, of Owensboro Tuesday, after which burial took place in Big Hill cemetery. Members of the masonic order conducted the ceremonies. - Dixon Journal.

John Montgomery was well known in Marion, where he frequently visited his sister, Mrs. J. Bell Kevil.

My Creed.

Do not keep the alabaster boxes of your love and tenderness sealed up until your friends are dead. Fill their lives with sweetness. Speak approving, cheering words while their ears can hear them, and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier by them; the kind things you mean to say when they are gone, say before they go. The flowers you mean to send for their coffins, send to brighten and sweeten their homes before they leave them. If my friends have alabaster boxes laid away, full of fragrant perfumes of sympathy and affection, which they by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable intend to break over my dead body, I would rather they would bring them out in my weary and troubled hours, and open them, that I may be refreshed and cheered by them while I need them. I would rather have a plain coffin without a flower, a funeral without an eulogy, than a table Compound, and I am now strong life without the sweetness of love and sympathy. Let us learn to anoint our friends beforehand for their burial. Post mortem kindness does not cheer the troubled spirit. Flowers on the coffin cast no fragrance backward over life's weary way. -Ex.

A DEATH STRUCGLE

This Is How Our Correspondent Characterizes Senatorial Fight and Local Option Bill.

Session of Kentucky Legislature Half Over and Practically Nothing Has Been Done, Nor Is There Much Pros pect of Anything Being Done Until the Senatorial Deadlock Is Broken-Interesting Notes on the Tense Situation Prevailing at Frankfort.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 18.-The senatorial race and the county unit local option bill are still in the throes of a death struggle that is liable to drag every other interest into its vortex and all sink or swim as a result of that struggle. The session is over half gone and practically nothing has been done. Both sides are afraid to vote on any important legislation for fear it may have some effect on the senais being postponed or neglected. The Though you doubt it, be not hasty, legislative bodies remain in session but a short time each day and seem positively averse to doing any serious work. The Democrats say the county unit bill will pass the house this week. while the Republicans say it will not. Those who claim to be the best posted say, just as they did last week, that a senator will not be elected till the That's she planned to dwell with county unit bill is disposed of finally in some way. Of course there are all kinds of rumors about it. One man will tell you that he heard a Democrat Hold your tongue, O, doubting who has been voting for Beckham say if Bradley could get enough votes to tie Beckham he would walk out of the house and not vote on that ballot, thus electing Bradley. Another man will tell you that he has heard three or four Republicans who are strong for When that self-same lassie murmurs the county unit bill say that if the few liquor Democrats try to combine with the Republicans and elect anyone but Bradley, they will vote for Beckham. Still another man will tell you that the county unit bill has nothing to do with it and that Bradley will win as soon as one of the Democrats in the house is unseated, which event will occur this week or next.

its predecessors in the number of "scare-crow" bills before it. By "scarecrow bills is meant bills that are in troduced just to scare some corporation or some interest into doing something or paying something to have the bill defeated. A story is told on one green member that he asked an old member how he could get some railroad passes for his friends. He was told that the proper and usual way was to introduce a bill to require all railroads to push their trains with locomotives instead of pulling them. He drew up the bill and was about to offer it, but his joking friend found it out just in time to prevent it. The That no skin disease, whether from average new member wishes to make internal or external origin, can long a "ree-cord," too, and keeps his campaign promises by introducing bills on all imaginable subjects. The titles to these bills are published in the last ever heard of them, for they die in the committee and the author returns home and fells how he made a desperate effort to have his important measures passed, but he could make no headway because the corporations fought them, when as a matter of fact | week no corporation probably ever heard of his bills. They have made a "reecord," though, and usually run for salary congress on it, then retire to the coolalways the case, however, for five of James, Ben Johnson, W. P. During the first two weeks of this ession it looked like every member of the legislature wanted to have the honor of introducing a bill to repeal the dog-tax law. Two or three bills were introduced every day to repeal it, and it was freely predicted that the first bill passed would be one to take the tax off of dogs. A change has taken place, however, and now it seems very doubtful if the tax is repealed at all. Nearly all these repeal bills were the result of campaign promises, the candidates pledging appropriating money to pay expenses themselves to introduce a bill to re- of warfare against the tobacco fly. peal the dog tax as soon as the legislature met. So far only two bills have passed both houses and are ready for the approval of the governor, these two being a bill giving the governor the powing a stenographer for his er to appoint a stenographer for his office and a bill providing for severa! messengers and stenographers for the senate and house. A number of bills, however, have passed one house and may pass the other before the session ends, amongst the number being the Crecelius tobacco bill which provides senate and house. A number of bills, a heavy fine for a violation of a contract to pool tobacco. It has passed the house and may come up in the senate this week and be passed. The Newman bill to prevent the sale of adulterated or misbranded field seeds has passed the senate, and it carries with it an appropriation of $2,000 a year to have seeds tested by the Experiment Station, and if found to be adulterated or misbranded, the dealer will be fined. The Newman bill appropriating $40,000 for buildings on the state fair grounds in Louisville has also passed the senate. Other bills that have passed the senate but not the house are as follows: Appropriating $30,000 a year to carry into effect the bill to prevent the sale of adulterated or misbranded foods, drugs

Politics must be a very fascinating game, for it seems as if it once gets a good hold on a young man he never lets it alone. As an example of this, the two nominees for United States senator, W. O. Bradley and J. C. W. Beckham were both, in their boyhood, pages in the Kentucky house of representatives. They both became imbued with politics while associating with the politicians in the legislature, and both have followed the game till each is the recognized head of his party in Kentucky. Bradley was a page in the historical sessions of 1861-62, being appointed to the position by Sergeant-at-Arms John L. Smedley. Twenty years later, in 1881-82, Beckham served as page, being appointed by William E. Ralley of Woodford county, who was sergeant-at-arms that cially by the Shelby county dairymen, against the Simmons bills, which seeks to eradicate tuberculosis from dairy cattle by the compulsory administration of the tuberculin test under state supervision, and providing for an indemnity not exceeding $50 for each infected cow that is destroyed by or der of the state authorities. Dr. H. D. Rodman, president of the Kentucky Dairymen's association, and others who have urged the passage of the bill, say it is in the interest of public health, and is the only way to secure pure milk. Those who oppose the bill say the tuberculin test is not at all infallible and not nearly so good as the bacteriological test, and intimate that the bill is really in the interest of the veterinary surgeons. The bill is the outgrowth of the campaign in the cities for purer and better milk, but it is doubtful about it being passed.

CORRECT SPEECH.

The refining influence of correct speech is a remarkable fact, and its effect upon the development of the child cannot be questioned. Morally, we believe it to have the power to lift him into better ways of living, because its natural environment is among those who think more deeply and who strive for better things. The growth of a child's education is as much in the hand of the mother as in that of the teacher. The teacher may "plant," but the home life "giveth the increase."

QUIETLY SET A TRAP

Rev. Hurst will preach here every How the Republicans Brought About the Election of Bradley For Senator.

DEMOCRATS CAUGHT NAPPING

The Latter Were Not Looking for on That Eventful Friday and Were Taken Unawares.

Frankfort, Ky., March 3 .- The senaclose last Friday, when the four Demhave persistently refused to vote for one, as the Republicans quietly set a trap for the Democrats and caught Dave Guess, of Marion, passed them napping. It takes seventy votes to make a quorum of the joint assembly, and if all the Democrats but those who voted for Bradley had remained out of the joint session Friday there would not have been a quorum, as crats were paired, they thought it that the day's ballot would be just like the others that preceded it. When the Miss Laura Parker has been sick roll-call began the Democrats voted for Bradley. When Charlton's name was called he voted for Wheeler Campbell as usual, but after five or six Demo-Mrs. Daisy Vaughn, of near crats had voted for Beckham, which Blackford, passed through here on ed his vote to Bradley. The Demoher way home. Governor Beckham came inside the ladies to hustle and the bashful the hall and whispered to some of his men to get married. So don't get leaders. Senator Combs of Lexington surprised if the "old maids" give announced that Beckham was no longto give them an opportunity to make crat they might choose, but they could their selection and to choose one unite on no other man. Senator Newthey most admire from the many was authorized to say that a caucus man of Woodford announced that he of the Democrats would be held that night and another nomine selected if Roads of this section are almost the bolting Democrats would come elected, but it all did no good, and af-

It has been current understanding about Frankfort that the bill would be passa vote, but that it would be held up and killed by delay when it reached Things to Take the Turn They Did the senate, as that body has been considered about evenly divided on the question. The senate committee on bills are always referred, is largely composed of auti-county-unit senators. and if the house bill is referred to that committee it may refuse to report it ocrats, Chariton, McNutt and Mueller at all. It is believed here that if the bill is not passed, Governor Willson said, over the bill appropriating $460, Governor Willson sent another message to the legislature a few days ago, in which he renewed many of his former recommendations. In addition he says the governor under the present law has no power to make or have made the necessary investigations that might result in the conviction of the night riders, and asks the legislature to set apart a fund of $25,000 which may be under the governor's control. to be used in apprehending and convicting men guilty of these crimes. He says the militia that has been on duty for the past three months have already cost the state about $12,000. He urges the passage of a law directing the attorney general and his assistants to take charge of and control all investigations of offenses against the laws, where the attorney general believes the local authorities are likely to fail to prosecute such offenses. He asks for a speedy consideration of the county unit bill and urges the adoption of a bill redistricting the state into legislative districts. He says the attorney general should be authorized to investigate the cause of the troubles in the tobacco districts and also investigate the trusts and their connection with the troubles. He thinks the military fund is not large enough, and urges the appropriation of $75,000 year, so as to put the Kentucky soldiers on an equal footing with the soldiers of other states. He recommends a law giving state aid to the building of public roads, and again urges that provision be made for non-partisan boards to control the state charity and penal institutions. He calls attention to the fact that there is but little money in the state treasury, and says the legislature should be careful in makmessage he says: "I beg to extend to ter more than an hour of wrangling ae result was finally announced and bly the hope that we shall be found working together for the general welfare, with prudence, courage and good judgment and with hope and faith. the history of the state that legislators and that the remaining days of the sesor any misfortune, and may bring forth good fruits, of diligent, unceasing and good work in completing the business of the people entrusted to the legislative department, and I hope that the general assembly will not delay in what it can do to give power and means to put an end to the conditions seldom happened that anyone who bore the name of Kentuckian was willing to hide his face or personality, and it is a grief and a shame that we have come to a time when hundreds of people living in Kentucky do go by night in lawless bands with faces hidden spirit of love be administered unto under masks and bodies disguised, to you. > There is a lively fight ahead, it is surrounding it. The bill as introduced by Senator Bosworth passed the senate last week with a provision in it that the present architect, Frank M. Andrews, be retained to complete the building. This section is objectionable to Governor Willion, and in his special message to the legislature he said so, as he insists that the selection or retention of the architect is an executive function and not a legislative one.

> The following bills have passed the senate and will now go to the house for its approval:

The Combs bill, providing that non residents of this state that have in tangible property in trust in this state shall not be required to pay taxes thereon in this state.

Bill appropriating $25,000 each to the Western asylum and the Central asylum and $17,500 to the Feeble-Minded institute.

The bill creating an educational commission to codify the school laws of Kentucky and to investigate the school systems of other states and report to the next legislature such legislation as will improve our system.

The Cureton bill fixing the pay of members of the legislature at $10 per day instead of $5.

The McChord tobacco bill, which places the growing of tobacco under the police power of the state, has met with much delay and many obstructions in the house. It was delayed several days by the death of Representative McKnight, and then it was reliably reported that the American Tobaceo company was on the eve of taking over all the burley tobacco at association prices, which if true would somewhat lessen the necessity for the passage of the measure. Later when the bill came up for discussion one or two members from the dark tobacco district opposed the bill on the ground that the dark tobacco people did not want the law passed. It will come up again this week, but strenuous efforts will be made to defeat it, and it is charged that the American Tobacco company is using all its powerful in fluence against it.
