Crittenden Record-Press

VOL. 3

MARION, CRITTENDEN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, JULY 8 1909

NUMBER 6

MARION VS PRINCETON TODAY AND TO-M

Marion Looses One Game to Madisonville and Wins Two From Corydon---Byfords Twirling Greatest Feature of Saturday's Game.

CHICKASHA INDIANS TO PLAY ON SEVENTEENTH

Madisonville came off victoriou Wednesday by a score of 4 to 2. I was a close, interesting game, ever from Marion's standpoint as the loser Madisonville has an extremely fas team, hard hitters and a hard team to beat. They got to Kraft early, scor ing two runs on the first on a couple of two baggers and a single in succes sion after two were out. After this inning Kraft held them to four hits three single and another double Madisonville scored two in the fifth or hit and two or three errors. Excep for these two innings Kraft held then safe. Marion scored twice in the third when Morgan hit two men, Pentecos doubled and 5. Givens, on third, made an error. A good chance to score was lost in the eighth. Goldnamer opened with a hit, but was forced at second Rochester, Kraft; base on balls, none; by Guess. Lamb knocked a beautiful struck out by Kraft 2, by Frazier 5; two bagger to left field fence, but double plays, Guess to Goldnamer; sto-Guess waited a moment too long to see | len bases, Rochester, Dixon 2, Guess, if the ball was caught, and a perfect G. Lamb, Davidson, K. Jones, 2; sacrithrow to third and then home caught fice hits, Rochester and Perryman; hit

Madisonville made seven hits, Marion only four; otherwise Kraft outpitched Morgan, striking out nine to Morgan's two and having much better control. Franks was hit by the pitcher three times out of four at the bat. The detailed score follows:

MARION.

MADISONV	TT.	LF
Total	29	2	2	27	6
Kraft, p.
Dixon, cf
Perryman, c	3	0	0	9	1
Pentecost, 1b
Franks, rf
Lamb, 2b	4	0	1	4	0
Guess, 3b
Goldnamer, If
Rochester, ss
		**	**		•

A.D	**	••	* **
S. Givens, 3b4	0	0	2	4
Warner, 1b4	0	0	11	0
Davis, c3	1	1	4	3
Cum vins, ss 4	2	1	3	3
Ston 14
Prat cf4	0	0	4	1
C. d is, 2b4	1	0	2	2
Mod rf4	0	1	. 0	0
Mora . p4	1	1	2	1
To 41	7	4	27	14

Earned Runs, Madisonville 2; two base hits, Davis and Cummins; stolen bases, Dixon and Moore; sacrifice hits, Dixon; first base on balls; off Morgan King, 2b..... 2; struk out by Kraft, 9 by Morgan 2; hit by Prither, Franks 3, Perryman, Dixon and Davis; umpire, Wilson.

Corydon tiame.

Corydon, with a record of ter straight games won, including one over Morganfield, proved easy for Marion in both the Friday and Saturday games. The first game, Kraft pitching for Marion, was rather one-sided. Marion made twelve hits off Frazier, and by bunching these with some errors of the Corydon players in the fifth and seventh innings, scored nine runs. these were scattered, and Kraft was pitcher, Frank. Time 1 hour and 30 good with men on boses, so that the best Corydon could do was three runs. Kraft made a nice two base hits, as well as pitching a fine game. The work of Guess at third was the feature; he had eight chances without an error.

MARION, FIRST GAME.

AB	R	H	PO		E
Rochester, ss 4	2	1	2	0	1
	0	2	0	1	0
	2	0	14	0	. 0
	2	. 0	3	5	1
CONTRACTOR OF THE PROPERTY OF	-	-	943417	- 4	100

18	Guess, 3b4	3	1	4	4	0
	Perryman, c3
m	G. Lamb, If4	1	1	0	0	0
	Kraft, p 4
st
o	CORYDON
r	, AB	R	H	PO	A	E
le	King, 884	1	1	4	0	3
	Frazier, p4
	Conley, cf4
	Pentecost, c4
	Sigler, 2b3
	Davidson, 3b4
	Eblen, 1b4
m	C. Jones, rf4	0	0	1	2	0
d	K. Jones, If 4	2	0	1	0	0
st	Total	9	3	14	8	10
le
	Corydon 0 0 0 1 1

Earned runs, Marion 2; two base hits, by pitcher, Sigler; umpire, Henderson.

Marion, and Corydon never had a chance. Only four hits, one of them a scratch, were made off his delivery; he gave only one base on balls, and hit no one; in addition to this, he played a perfect fielding game accepting eight chances without an error. Talbott, the "peg-leg" pitcher for Corydon, also pitched a nice game, giving eight hits, two of which were barely entitled to be called hits. Marion played a good fielding game, making few errors, and none of them costing anything. Outside of the work of Byford, the feature was Rochester's batting, he making three 7 hits and two runs out of four times up. The detail score follows:

THE GERMI SCOLE LOHOWS.
MARION, SECONI	DO	A	ME
AB	R	H	Po	A
Rochester, ss4	3	2	3	3	0
Dixon, ef4	1	0	0	0	. 0
Goldnamer, 1b4	1	0	15	0	1
Lamb, 2b	0	0	2	1	1
Franks, rf	0	0	0	0	0
Guess, 3b3	1	0	0	5	2
Kraft, If 1	1	1	1	0	0
Perryman, c2
Byford, p3	0	0	1	7	0
Total27	8	3	27	17	5

CORYDON. Frazier, cf...... 4 0 0 0 0 Conley, ss..... 3 0 1 3 1 1 Pentecost Allen, c....4 0 0 1 4 C. Jones, rf........... 1 0 0 0 K. Jones, If 3 0 0 0 0 Total 33 4 1 24 22 7

Marion, 0'0100101 *-3 off Byford 1, off Telbott 1; struck out, by Byford 4, by Talbott 1; double plays, Tolbott to King to Sigler, Davidson to Sigler to Pentecost; hit by Raft the other.

Owensboro, Ky., July 7.—Tobias Some Evansville papers are making of minutes. Umpire, Nunn.

Marion's Pitchers.

Paul Gossage, our star twirler, is very probably out of the game for the and made three hits out of four times rest of the season. He has typhoid fever, and while in no danger, will of course be unable to pitch any more games this year. This has proven serious blow to Marion, and we have no doubt will be good news to a number of our rivals-Morganfield for instance. Gossage has really not been in good of Central University of Danville, Ky.

FUNNIEST EVER Presented by Central Comedy Co.,

BROWN'S IN TOWN"

Saturday Evening July 10th, Opera House.

Listen---The College Men in Girl's Parts--Lots of Fun-Musical Specialties. DON'T MISS IT!!

50c. 35c. Frederick I. S. Hess.

made a fine record in spite of this, and weather. The absence of many withis absence from the game will be nesses on account of illness. Nearly has made a remarkable record since he next term of court on account of the The second game was much better. is known all over this part of the coun- John L. Grayot. Judge Gordon re-Byford pitched a remarkable game for try. However, Marion will have good turned to his home at Madisonville to pitchers-our rivals may rest assured remain until the next term of his court of that. Perhaps Morganfield will not which is held at Smithland. feel so well when we tell them that Cooperider will pitch regularly for Ma- were laid over and others were disrion the rest of the season. Those who missed. saw the Morganfield game that he pitched need no assurance of his ability, and we feel confident that he will and costs. prove a winner over other teams as well. He throws a very swift ball, has $20.00 fine curves, good control, and fields his position perfectly. Besides that, he appears to be a good batter.

> Byford, by his work Saturday, showed that he can be depended upon to pitch some of Marion's games. His performance was nothing short of No. 1, and with coaching and experience against heavy-hitting teams, he ought to prove a winner. He certainly showed that he has everything necessary for the making of a first class piccher. Altogether, while the illness of Gossage is a blow to Marion, some of the teams who are basing their expectation of winning over Marion on that fact are going to be disappointed.

Coming Games.

The games so far scheduled are as follows: all at Marion.

July 8th and 9th, Princeton: July 12, Waverly; July 30th and 31st, Morgan- ents will be held responsible for their 1 field; also one game this month with children. Please keep them away and o Rockport, Ind., date not fixed.

The next games, those with Princeton, will be worth seeing. Princeton has always been a hard proposition for Earned runs, Marion 1; sacrifice hits, Marion, and has a good team this year,

The games with the Chickasha indians will furnish a novelty, in that one of them will be played at night, on a diamond lighted as brightly as day be means of powerful gasoline lights. The indians claim to have won practi cally all their games. The team is en-tirely of full-blood indians.

missed by both players and fans. He all the jury cases were laid over to the began to pitch for Marion, and his work absence of Commonwealth Attorney

A number of commonwealth cases

Chas. Boyd, charged with disturbing a lawful assembly, was fined $20.00

Chas. Parker, for same offence, fined GREAT AND ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING.

Will Moneymaker, gaiming, $20.00. Sebron Rushing, same offense, 20.00. Charlie Bennett, carrying concealed weapon, was pardoned by Gov. Wilson. John Wes Belt, assault, fined $5.

Hallie Wilcox, charged with burglary was given one year in the pentitentiary. The case of George Simpkins, charged with plant bed scraping, was dismissed, the grand jury failing to in-

Gray, charged with night riding, was dismissed. In the damage suit of Mrs. Lillie Daughtrey vs James Herrin, the plaintiff was given judgement for $5.00

Swift's Premium Hams and Bacon, Best by test, Hubbard Grocery Co.

Fishing Prohibited.

The water supply lake of this company has been stocked with blackbass Harrisburg, Ill.; July 17th, Chickasha by the U. S. Governmet, and no fish-Indians, (afternoon and night; July 23, ing will be allowed in this lake. Par-avoid trouble. MARION ELECTRIC LIGHT & ICE Co.

(Incorporated.) Night Rider Damage Sults Instituted.

uge in a distant State.

Circuit Court was adjourned Satur- assaulted and intimidated on February News, Bulletin, Press and Courier. The only misfortune being that there

CONVENTION JULY

Offices—Hon. O. W. James Addressed the Convention.

Pursuant to a call of Chairman Marion F. Pogue, the Crittenden County Democratic committee met at the court house in Marion Saturday afternoon, July 3, a good-sized crowd being in attendance, including all the precinct committeemen.

The meeting was narmonious and interesting and much of the old-time ed in that business until he was burned enthusiasm was manifested, the object out by the big fire that occured in 1905. of the meeting being to make nominations for the various county offices, to ily to Madisonville, where he has since be filled at the next November elec-

Short addresses were made by Chairman Pogue, Congressman Ollie M. James and others.

The committee decided to make no nominations for county clerk, assessor, county attorney, surveyor and coroner The following nominations were Circuit Clerk, R. L. Flansry. County Judge, A. F. Wolfe. Sheriff, Gid Taylor. Superintendent, Miss Clara Nunn.

What Outside Towns

Jailer, Will Wallace.

Think of The Strike.

teen citizens, of Mnhlenburg county, money. The party who goes to the posed of fifty or sixty of the best peo-ky., on the grounds that they were unlawfully and wrongfully forced to leave $1 more for each article that they buy spoke, as did E. F. Smith and others. their homes in this State and take ref- than what they could have got it at Great interest was manifested in the home. Besides they have to take their new school law and in better education-Bradley Pittmann, Jesse Murphy, A life in their hands when they go there. al facilities in general. Dr. Yeager W McCowan, Dolph Sanaford, Townie They must dodge the wild-eyed auto- was obliged to cancel the date for Jamison, George Anderson, George mobile drivers, green horn street car Hebron in the afternoon on account of Oliver, Bud Loney, Jack Anderson, Ed men, car strikers, dynamite torpedos, the condition of the roads. Anderson, George Reynolds, colored; rocks and beer bottles that fly in all Davie Lewis, colored; T J Oglesby, directions, according to injunction tes-McClellan Kile, Monroe Jarvis, Alex timony in their court, the other day. Dr. Yeager spoke in the court room, Lee and Joe Anderson are the defend- If there is a town in the U. S. that is Judge Gordon adjourning court to ana good place to stay away from at other building. Both men made telling The plaintiffs allege that they were present it is Evansville-Ev. Journal, speeches and were frequently cheered.

DIES WITH HEART FAILURE

ad Been in Good Health Up to Minute of Death-Highly Respected Citizen.

M. HEARIN DIES IN MADISONVILIF.

George W. Howerton, one of the best known citizens of the county, died on his farm a few miles east of town Friday afternoon from the effects of over heat. During the forenoon he had been at work in his corn field with his son, Will Howerton, and his son-in-law, Frank Dodge. He had been in his usual good health, ate a hearty. dinner and about one or two o'clock started back to the field, when Mr. Dodge and Will Howerton came round near the lane they! found Mr. Howerton lying face downward just out side of the field in the lane, unconscious. They carried him to a shade, and though he seemed to recognize them he could not speak and died before they could get him to the house.

The remains were brought here Saturday afternoon and laid to rest in the New Cemetery, a large number of his friends, both from the city and country, gathered to be present at the interment. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Martin E. Miller and Rev. W. R. Giubs, both of which paid beautiful tributes of respect to the life of the deceased. Mr. Howerton, while a Christian by profession and one which shown out in his walk in life, had never identified himseif with any church. His profession, which was a bright one, was made at Post B. A. Cundiff, in 1877, over thirty-two

George. W. Howerton was born, July 20th, 1843, on July 6th, 1864, he was married to Miss Laura Flanary, daughter of the late John Flanary. He died, July 2nd, 1909.

He leaves besides his wife, four children, William Howerton, Mrs. C. R. Newcom, Mrs. R. L. Moore and And Nominate Candidates for County Mrs. Frank Dodge. He also leaves an adopted daughter, Minnie.

> A. M. Hearin, a former resident of this city and one of its most respected citizens, died at his home in Madisonville, Ky., Saturday morning of bowel

Mr. Hearin was in business here for a large number of years and was well known for his honesty and fair dealing. For four years, during Grover Cleveland's second term, as President, he was postmaster here. After his term as postmaster expired he again entered the grocery business, in partnership with his son, Tom Hearin, and remain-Soon after this he moved with his fammade his home.

He leaves a wife and two sons, Thomas E. Hearin, of Madisonville, and Phoney Hearin, of Chicago.

THE EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN IN CRITTENDEN COUNTY.

Despite the hot weather and the fact that the farmers were very busy. three good meetings were held in this county last week.

Dr. Arthur Yeager, President of Georgetown College,, was the speaker assigned to Caldwell and Crittenden counties. Dr. Yeager arrivee in Marion on the 8 o'clock train Wednesday morning, and left for Tolu at once, accompanied by Rev. Martin E. Miller.

Friday had been announced as rally were so few present to hear.

Prime Merchandise TO GO AT BELOW COST

Having decided to close out my stock and quit business, I will for the next THIRTY DAYS, or until all are sold, offer, at the Store Room of H. Koltinsky, North Side of Square (Opera House Block) my entire stock of Dry Goods, Notions, Clothing, Ladies and Gents Furnishing Goods, Shoes, and Hats Regardless of cost.

Come early and get pick of my stock at prices never before heard of in Marion. I mean what I say.

J. S. McMURRAY. Kentucky. Marion.

PROGRAMME

of the

Second Annual Womans Missionary Conference

of the

West Kentucky Conference Report of Committees. C. M. E. Church in America What is Your Aim?-Hopkinsville, Ca-

Marion, Ky., August 12-13 14-15, 1909.

> MRS. L. B. GEORGE, President. MRS. P. L. CONNELL, Vice-Pres. MISS E. B. MURRAY, Sec't, y. MISS PEARL BELL, Ass't Sec. MRS. E. T. LEWIS, Treasurer.

MISSIONARY BANQUET, AUG., 12.

FIRST DAY, AUGUST 13. Meeting called to order by president. Devotional Exercises-Rev. B. Herron. Song-Marion Choir. Organization. Enrollment of Delegates. Appointment of Committees.

Report of Local Boards.

Assignment of Homes.

Adjournment.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON. Prayer-Elder T. J. Moppins. Testimonial Meeting, Thirty Minutes-Led by Mrs. Francis Boyd, of Uniontown, Ky., and Mrs. Susie Jacobs, of Fredonia, Ky.

Completion of Business.

Cerulean Delegates.

son Delegates.

well Delegates.

Song-Choir.

Sebree Delegates.

Henderson Delegates.

Hickman Delegates.

Princeton Delegates.

Song-Marion Choir.

Address by President.

Admission Ten Cents.

ed twenty-five cents.

let and pencil.

Admission 25c.

Missionary Concert.

Hubbard.

Song-Choir.

Sermon each Day at 11:00 a. m.

Missionary Work-Hadenville a n

Christian Union-Massie Chapel, Mos cow and Slaughtersville Delegates.

Labor for the Right-Marion and Daw-

Race Pride-Madisonville and Bards-

Papers-Revs. C. L. Howard, P. S.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

The Missionary Box-Powderly and

Missionary Enterprise-Penick and

The Urgent need of Systematic Giving

Papers-Revs. R. D. Stoner, F. D.

SATURDAY EVENING 7:30

SUNDAY SESSION.

11:00 a. m. Preaching-Dr. W. B. West

2:00 p. m., Sermon-Eld. J. M. Lowery

7:30 p. m. Sermon-Eld. T. J. Moppins ers are taxed fifty cents. Each Pastor, Society and Local President is tax-

Please pay this tax at your District

Conference to your District President, or send by delegate or mail to the Conference President. It is to help to de-

The General Secretary of Missions,

Dr. W. B. West will be present and at some hour. The Laymen's Mission-

Each Church, S. S. League and Woman's Missionary Society will be asked to bring one or more delegates to the Institute and also a small fee of fifty

On Thursday August 12th, there wil be a banquet given in honor of the Missionary delegates. All delegates will please try to be present on that fray expenses of the meeting.

Special Music-Marion Choir.

Devotional Exercises-Rev. G.

Taylor, Elds. Moppins, Lowery and

-Little Mills and Water Valley Dele-

Smith, L. R. Bayliss and W. M. San-

Missionary Progress-Allensville, and Pleasant Green Delegates.

Song-Choir. Report of District Presidents.

Song-Choir. diz and Fredonia Delegates.

How Can the Sunday School Help the Missionary Cause?-Trenton and ders. Earlington Delegates, Home Life-Lane Tabernacle and La- Invocation-Rev. C. L. Howard.

Fayette Delegates. Duet-Hopkinsville Delegates.

The Missionary Society-Elkton and Morganfield Delegates. The True Woman-Pembroke, Paducah and Uniontown Delegates. Papers-Revs. R. L. McCulley, P. W. Garrett, J. W. Bell and J. M. Hill.

EVENING SESSION, 7:30. Song-Marion Choir. Invocation-Rev. J. W. McClure. Quartette-Paducah Delegates.

Welcome Address-Marion Delegate. Response-Hickman Delegate. Lecture-Rev. W. B. West, Dallas, Texas. Papers - Revs. I. Jones, G. W. Landers, W. P. Pipkins, L. F. Howard, J. W. McClure and P. A. Samples.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 14. Invocation-Elder J. H. Britt, Madison-

HYOMEI INHALER? If you have a little Hyomei inhaler (pronounced High-o-me) in your home you have a treasure.

Into this hard rubber inhaler you can pour a few drops of Hyomei and, presto you have the best little physician for catarrh, coughs, colds, bronchitis, croup and asthma, the world has ever known. When you breathe Hyomei you bring the healing virtues of the mountainous forests to your home. You get the very same healing, antiseptic air that you would breathe if you resided in the forests of pine and eucalyptus of inland Australia, where catarrh or consumption was never known to exist.

If you have a Hynmei inhaler in your home, get a bottle of Hyomei for 50c. If you have not an inhaler, ask for a complete outfit, which costs but $1.00 and inclddes an inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei, and simple instructions for Hyomei is sold and guaranteed by HAYNES & TAYLOR to cure catarrh, asthma or bronchitis, or money back. It will relieve a cold in five minutes, and will break it up in five hours. It gives most gratifying relief to corsumption sufferers, and is sold by lead ng druggists everywhere.

It relieves stomach misery, sour stomach, belching, and cures all stomach disease or money back. Large box of tablets 50 cents. Druggists in all towns.

Recital.

Misses Gwendoline Haynes and Mabel Yandell assisted by Miss Lena Holtsclaw and M. H. S. Chorus, at School Auditorum, July 13th, 1909. PROGRAM.

Waltz, "a'la bien aimie" Rubinstein. 'Barcarolle in minor' Miss Haynes.

Song 1, "In the dark, in the dew."

2, "The violet." Mildenberg Miss Mabel Yandell. Chorus-"A bird in the hand" Roeckel Misses Yandell, Doss, Haynes, Coffield, Sutherland, Pickens and Conyer.

Reading-"Her first recital."

Miss Holtsclaw. Song 1, Absent. Metcalfe 2. Four Leaf Clover 3, Night time

Miss Yandell How Must we Secure Religious train- Chorus-"Springtime." ing in the Home?-Nortonville and Misses Yandell, Doss, Haynes, Coffield, Sutherland, Pickens and Conyer.

Reverie Barcarolle,

Polinaise in a major. Miss Haynes. This recital is to be given for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A., an organization which is worthy of the support L. & N. railroad to Earlington, Unity and Its Benefits-Fulton and of all Marion, and we trust they will Ky., Special coaches will be furhave a good attendance. The charges nished for each company returnwill be reasonable, and a large attendance will bespeak appreciation, of the talent of our home girls.

> FISH BITE HUNGRILY When You Use

Magnetic Fish Bait

There's no such thing as a dull day All State Officers and Presiding Eldwhen you go fishing if you are supplied with this trulty wonderful discovery If the fish are there you'll get them, for they simply can't resist it. It beats anything you have ever imagined. It is moderate in price -- 25 cents per box --- and a box vill last a long time, Besides this bast, of which we are the sole manuwill conduct a Missionary Institute and facturers, we handle

Young People's Missionary Movement Fishermen's Complete Outfit

50e, $1.00, 2.00 3.00 4.00 5.00 ary Movement will also be discussed. Send today for a box and for our free booklet, "Facts about Fishing," and Instrated catalog of fishing tackle cents for the work. Bring bible, tab- outfits. Address

Magnetic Fish Bait Co. Republic, Missourt.

The Ladies of Marion will spare no Scientists have found in a cave in pains in trying to make the banquet a Switzerland bones of men, who lived 100,000 years ago, when life was in constant danger from wild beasts. To-day the danger, as shown by A. W. Brown, of Alexander, Me., is largely from deadly disease. "If it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, which cured me, I could not have 52 2t Trial bottle free.

A Night Ricer's Raid.

croton oil or aloes pills. They raid Fair to good bologna 3.50 a 3.75 with Dr. King's New Life Pills. They never distress or inconvenience, but Good to choice butchers ... 4.25 a 4.75 always cleanse the system, curing Medium to good butchers ... 3.75 a 4.25 Colds, Headache, Constipation, Mala- Common to medium butch-

OF INTEREST TO OUR READERS.

Marion, Ky., June 27th, 1909. Record-Press, City.

Dear Sir: - Will you kindly make note in your paper, which Good to choice fat sheep ... 4.00 a 4.50 no doubt will be an item of news Fair to good mixed sheep. 3.25 a 3.75 to very many, that the Third Rough and scalawags 2.50 a 4.00 will hold its annual encampment Choice yearlings 4.25 a 4.50 at Earlington, Ky., on the L. & Fair to good yearlings 4.00 a 4.25 N. railroad, August 9th to 16th, Spring lambs 5.00 a 5.25 and the following companies will Hogs steady to a shade stronger. Reuse the I. C. enroute:

Company H. Coombs Company I. Leitchfield, Ky, Calhoun, Ky Van de Water Company M. Marion, Ky Company K. Special coaches will be furnished for each company. Special Schutt coach will be on train 321 leav-Nevin ing Marion, Ky., at 11 a, m., Chopin August 9th and will run through to Hopkinsville and be handled from there on arrival by the ing. L. & N. will give us this special coach' at Hopkinsville, Aug. 16th to be run through to Marion on train 302 arriving at Marion, Ky., at 3:31 p, m., Aug. 16th, 1909. Yours Truly, weather-proof—the life of buildings like the life of poultry depends on it.

W. L. VENNER, Agent.

ROOFING

is weather-proof and it is being used by the most successful poultrymen. REX is also used for sidings. Being a non-conductor, it keeps buildings warm in Winter and cool in Summer. It is acid-proof and

On every genuine roll of REX Flintkote Roofing is the boy trade-mark. Look out for imitations. All necessary articles for laying it comes with the roll—a man with a hammer can put it on.

Sold By N BOSTON Marion, Ky.

LIVE STOCK.

Louisvile, Kyı, July 7-Cattle mar ket steady and fairly active.

Good to choice export ... $ 5.50 a 5.75 Fair to good shipping 5.00 5.25 Good to choice butchers... $4.75 a 5.00 Medium to good butchers __ 4.76 a 5.00 Good te choice stockers.... 3.65 a 3.85 Medium to good stockers .. 3.00 a 3.25 Common to mediun stockers...... 4,00 a 4,50 Heifers. Good to choice butchers 4.75a 5.50 Medium to good butchers 4.00 a 4.50

Common to medium 3.50 a 4.00

Good to choice stockers 3.00 a 3.50 Common to medium stocker-

Good to choice butchers 4.00 a 4.50

The worst night riders are calomel, Medium to good butchers. 3.50 a 375

ers...... 3 25 a 3.50

Canners and cutrers.....1.50 a 3.00 Milch Cows.

Good to choice milchers ... 40.00 a 50,00 Medium to good milchers 30.00 a 35.00 Common to plain milchers 15.00 a25.00

Good to choice veals..... 5.50a 6.60

Sheep and Lambs.

capts light. Heavies, $7.25 to $7.50; Lights, $6.95 to $7.15; pigs, $5.75, to Hartford, Ky. $6,50. A few choice heavies, $7.60.

> There are many imitation of De-Witt's Carboliced With Hazel Salve -DeWitt's is the original. Be sure you get DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Bazel Salve when you ask for it. It is good for cuts, burns and bruises, and is especially good for piles. Sold by all druggiste. Sept 1

Kevil & Co.

HAVE BETABLISHED A Fire Insurance Agency in MARION, KENTUCKY

If you have preperty in the town of Marion, let them insure it. You shall have no reasons to regret it. Office in Press Bulding, Room 5 Telephone 225

A Constipation Remedy Free

There is no action of your daily life of greater importance than to see that your bowels move. They should move at least once a day naturally, and by that is meant without any help. If they do not move at least once a day you can consider yourself consupated and it is time you did something about it.

You will be glad to know there is a way out of the difficulty. Lemuel Landerdale, an old soldier at Quincy, lil., Elmer McMillan, of Speed, Mo., Mrs., Monahan, of Stonewall, Miss., and many

All., Elmer McMillan, of Speed, Mo., Mrs. Monahan, of Stonewall, Miss., and many others were as you are now. But one day they awoke to the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Popsin was curing their friends, so they bought it too and it cured them. Today they are loud in praise of it.

What Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin did for them it should do for you. Surely your consupation is no worse than theirs, one of whom had it since '61. It only remains for you to realize that saits are of but temporary good, and what you want is a permanent cure; that purgative tablets, cathartic pills and such violent things make a great show of doing something, but do nothing that is lasting. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a scientific preparation, a laxative-tonic, a mild syrupy liquid that contains ingredients that not only cure the constipation, but tone the intestinal muscles so that they learn be bought of any druggist for the small price of 50 cents, and there is a dollar size for families who have already found out its wonderful value in stomach, liver and bowel troubles, in old or young. Send your name and address to the doctor and a free trial bottle will be sent you so that you can test it before buying. If there is anything about your aliment that you con't understand, or if you want any medical advice.

FORSALE BY ALL DRUGGIST

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Eought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of

What is CASTORIA

Infants and Children-Experience against Experiment.

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea-The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

In Use For Over 30 Years.

Cures Chicken Pox..

Mrs. J. T. English, Harrods Creek, out success." Sold by Haynes & Tay- Haynes & Taylor and Jas. H. Orme. lor, Marion, Ky.

Life 100,000 Years Ago.

Ky., says: "Your Bourbon Poultry lived," he writes: "suffering as I did Cure is fiue. You can add Chicken Pox to the list of diseases that it will cure as my fowls show a decided improvement. I had used other remedies with ment. I had used other remedies with- earth. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by

Crittenden Record=Press 1909-07-08 seq-2.jpg

ALL WRONG. e Mistake is Made by Many Ma-Pion Citizens.

Don't mistake the cause of back-be cured you must know the It is wrong to imagine relief is

Backache is kidney ache,

You must cure the kidneys. A Marion resident tells you how. G. B. Johnson, 413 Gum St., Ma-"For five years ,I rion, Ky., says: suffered from kidney complaint, it being brought on by hard work. Whenever I caught cold it settled on my kidneys and at such times my suffering was aggravated. The kidy secretions were irregular in pasage and I was often forced to arise during the night on this account. There was a dull para in the small of my back and when I arose in the morning I felt lame and stiff. I tired easily, was nervous and also had attack on several members of the dizzy spells. When Doan's Kidney crew. came to my attention, I procured a box at Haynes & Taylor's drug store and after I had finished the contents I was cured. It gives me pleasure to state that time has proven the cure to be a permanent one. You are at liberty to use this kidney sufferers. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 New York, sole agents for the animals. United States.

Remember the name-Doan'sand take no other.

TELLS THRILLING TALE OF ESCAPE FROM ISLE

CIVIL ENGINEER AND COMPANION UTILIZE AEROPLANE AS MEANS OF DELIVERANCE.

ish, a civil engineer of Boston, and 8, whose house is at No. 81 West One Adolph Von Messinger, son of a Ger- Hundred and Fifteenth street. At 5:30 nobleman, utilized an aeroplane o'clock Verrien started to shave. He deliverance from a shipwreck in the gong tapped a signal for One Hundred South Pacific, according to a story and Twenty-sixth street and Eighth told by Standish the other day. The avenue. German perished. Standish, after a thrilling flight through the air, fell er Verrien made a dash for the into the sea and was cast up alive. driver's seat. He arrived in Seattle recently.

man's aeroplane. The Aphrodite beauty lay hidden beneath a coating

"I Let Go and Fell Into the Sea."

American and German took to the lifeboats. The two passengers of the derelict kept it afloat and brought up the wreck on a small uninhabited island of the Solomon group. Standish and Von Messinger waded ashore, carried provisions, established a camp, and waited for a sailing vess.i.

"But none came," Standish said. "At the end of a month none was sighted. Fearing we were outside the course of all ships, we set about devising a plan of escape. The aeroplane suggested a means. After a week's work the young German got the machine in satisfactory shape. We took aboard water, provisions, and boarded the machine. It rose like a bird and steamed above the water several hundred yards and pointed in the direction we believed Australia lay.

"Fate seemed against us. We had not been out long before a gale was blowing. We were whirled through the air at a terrific pace and it was with difficulty that we kept from being shaken out. Half an hour later we bore down on an island. I let go and fell into the sea. Five minutes ater I was thrown on the beach, bruised, battered, and utterly exhausted, but thankful, I found myself near a village of native pearl fishers. "A month later, November 14, pearl trading schooner took me to the principal town of the Solomon group. From there I returned to Sydney, taking passage to San Francisco a week later. No more South Pacific seas for me. Messinger lost his life."

CHIMPANZEES GO ON RAMPAGE

Escaped Animal Terrerizes Crew of Big German Steamship for Two Days.

New York.-When the German steamship Tanenfels arrived here from Calcutta late the other day, Capt, Lubke told of the escape of six chimpanzees, part of a consignment of 600, from their cage, and their victous

Three of the chimpanzees followed Wong Foo, the Chinese cook, into the rigging, and there one of them held him by his queue until the animal was knocked senseless with a rod. Chief Engineer Newman was chased statement for the benefit of other about the deck by others of the chimpanzees and suffered a severe laceration of his arm where he was struck Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, by a marlin pin hurled by one of the

The largest of the chimpanzees was cornered by several members of the crew in the boatswain's lockers and there he gave such a vicious fight that the men were glad to retire. The animal then dashed out and leaped into the sea. The others were only subjugated by starvation, but in the two days it required to do so they had the ship's crew terrorized.

Coated with Lather Drove to Fire. New York .- John Verrien is a natty Seattle, Wash.-Frederick Stand- young fireman who drives Engine No.

Without waiting to remove the lath-

It was not until pollcemen had In the tramp ship Aphrodite Stand- driven the wondering crowd from the ish took passage for Sydney. On engine after it drew up at the hydrant the forward deck was lashed the Ger- that the fireman realized that his sprung a leak and every one save the of foam. There being no tire, be wiped the lather from his face and drove back.

This Time He Was Right.

Pat was a new policeman on the So one morning when a crazy woman was executing a waltz dream on top of an ash barrel Pat tried to think of a sufficient excuse for arresting her. The day before he had arrested a man, but when he reached the station house he had for sotten the reason for the arrest. But the waltz continued on the ash barrel and a large crowd of men and boys had collected. So Pat bravely stepped up.

"Madam, I arrist ye! Yer a fraud order, yer are! Yer stopping the 'males.' "

Molasses and Sugar.

The term "molesses" is properly applied to the saccharine product which is separated from sugar in the process T. of manufacture. A syrup is the direct product of the evaporation of the juice of a sugar-yielding plant or tree without the removal of any of the GE ALL Achier!" sugar. The term molasses applies to of the fact that the sugar has been removed at least partially by crystalliza- eager effort to obey. tion and some kind of mechanical separation of the crystals from the remaining liquid.

The Head on the Wall Judith Giveth Token of Certain Victory.

BY THE "HIGHWAY AND BYWAY" PREACHER

Based on the Apocryphal Book of Judith, Chapters 14-16.

Difficulties in Book of Judith.-There are two conflicting statements as to the original language of the book. Origen speaks of it, together with Tobit, as "not existing in Hebrew even among the Apocrypha," in the Hebrew collection, while _ rame on the ther band, says that "Among the Henrews the Book of . . being written in the Chaldean language is reckoned among the histories." There can be little doubt that the book was written in Palestine in the national dialect (Syro-Chaldaic). The text exists at present in two distinct recensions, the Greek (followed by the Syriac), and the Latin. The former evidently is the truer representative of the original, and it seems certain that the Latin was derived, in the main, from the Oreck by a series of successive altera-tions. The Latin text contains many curious errors. At present it is impossible to determine the authentic text. The existence of these various recensions of the book is a proof of its popularity and wide circulation; but the external evidence of its use is very scanty. The first reference to its contents occurs in Clem. Rom., and it is quoted with marked respect by Origen, Hilary and Lucifer. Jerome speaks of it as "reckoned among the sacred Scriptures by the Synod of It has been wrongly inserted in the catalogue at the close of the Apos-

* SERMONETTE.

"And when he (Achier) came and saw the head of Holofernes. and perceived all that the God of Israel had done, he believed in God greatly and was joined unto the house of Israel."

Oh, but you say, it was Judith who had wrought so mightlly. Why speak so explicitly of God and ascribe to him all the

Did you never observe that he who really works the works of God is lost in the shadows of the Almighty's presence.

While we may be conscious of the human instrument which has become the willing channel through which God has poured his power and has wrought mightly among men, still there is the larger, more blessed thought that It is God who has wrought.

The head on the wall is not the symbol of the woman's power, but rather the strength of God as manifested in the weakness and frailty of a woman.

Achier, the captain of all the forces of the Ammonities, had been summoned before Holofernes, the captain of the Assyrian forces which had come and laid siege to Bethulia, and in answer to questions of the great generat he had given a history of the Jewish people and how God had worked mightly in their behalf. This aroused the anger of Holofernes, and declaring that if the Hebrew God was such a great God, Achier should find refuge within the walls of Bethulia, but when his army swept away its walls and fell upon the people he (Achier) should be the first to suffer death. And Achier believed the power of Holofernes and waited in fear and trembling during those days while Judith carried out her plot. And when he say the head of Holofernes he believed in the God of I Israel."

The deliverance of the city was a great reward for Judith's devotion, but perhaps a greater reward was the winning of a equi from the darkness of heathenism to the knowledge of the true God, so that from that day forth Achier, the great captain of the Ammonites, shose the God Israel as his God and joined himself unto Israel.

The victories of the servants of God are always far reaching * In their influences.

THE STORY.

L The command of Ozias sounded the same process with the exception sharp and clear on the early morning air, and the scurrying feet told of the

The little group stood within the space about the great massive gates of the city which but a short time before had swung on their hinges and admitted Judith and her maid who five days before had gone forth taking their lives in their shands that they might serve the city they loved. And that their efforts had not been in vain was evident from the ghastly trophy which one of the group held in his hand.

"Hang it upon the wall," Judith had said as she had passed on and after the first thrill of excitement had subsided and the ruler and princes of the city had regained somewhat of their composure, Ozias had bethought himself of Achier, the Ammonite chief whom Holofernes had consigned to the city to await death when the city should be taken by his soldiers, and had commanded that he be brought.

"At last the hour has come," muttered Achier, as he followed the messengers back through the streets in the direction of the city's gate. "But, I Achier, the Ammonite chief, will at least show them how a true soliter can die."

ine light was just beginning to break in the east, and in the half darkness which still lingered Achier could not distinguish the faces of the group standing near the gate nor discern the central object of interest until he was fairly in their midst, and could have reached out and touched the arm which held the something before the eyes of the assembled

A cry, almost a shriek, broke from Achier's lips, as he cried: "Ye gods of the Assyrians, it is the head of Holofernes," and trembling like an aspen he fell upon his face to the ground. Here was the head of the man he had feared above all others, the mighty Assyrian general, whom he had expected had come to demand his life. A mighty revulsion of feeling swept over him. "How can it be?" he exclaimed, at moned and she had related in his goodness, what is that man?" ear all that God had wrought through her he fell at her feet and reverenced

"Blessed art thou in all the tabernacle of Judah, and in all nations, which hearing thy name shall be astonished."

And as soon as the morning arose they hanged the head of Holofernes upon the wall, and every man took his weapons and they went forth by bands unto the passes of the mountain which lead into the valley below towards the camp of the Assyrians.

But when the Assyrians saw them they raised a great shout, and sent to their leaders, which in turn came to their captains and tribunes and to every one of their rulers. So they came to Holofernes' tent and cried to Bagoas, who had charge of all his things:

"Waken now our lord; for the dogs of the Hebrews have been bold to come down against us to battle. Let us at them that they may be utterly destroyed."

Then went Bagoas and knocked at the tent door of his master, but there came no response.

"He sleepeth, deeply," he said, and knocked harder, and yet harder, for he was loath to enter thinking that Judith was with him within the test. But at last he made bold to enter and the ghastly sight which met his eyes caused him to utter a chrick which pierced to the limits of the officers' quarters and caused a great fear to come upon the hearts of the captains who waited without. Nay, the cry had scarce begun to die away when they rushed into the tent and saw their chief lying headless upon the floor.

Like mad Bagoas tore into the tent of Judith adjoining, followed by the terror-stricken captains. It was empty.

"These slaves of Hebrews have dealt treacherously," cried Bagoas, in fear and anger. "One woman of the Hebrews hath brought shame upon the house of King Nebuchadnessar; for behold, Holofernes lieth upon the ground without a head."

And fear fell upon them all, so that there was no man that durst abide in the sight of his neighbor, but in panicstricken fear each soldier in the camp fled into the plain and scattered every one his own way. Then sent Ozias the ruler of Bethulia in great haste to all the cities and country round telling of all the things which had come to pass and the Hebrews in all the coasts of Israel came forth, and with one consent they slew their enemies until they were passed Damas cus and the borders thereof.

And the residue that dwelt thulia fell upon the camp of Assur and spoiled it of all its treasure. And the children of Israel that returned from the slaughter, had that which remained, for there was abundance for all, for the spoil was very great.

Then Joacim the high priest and the ancients of the children of Israel that dwelt in Jerusalem, came forth to Bethulia to behold the good things that God had showed to Israel and to see Judith, whose fame had spread through all the country. And when they had come to her they blessed her with one accord and said unto her:

"Thou art the exalted of Jerusalem, thou art the great glory of Israel, thou art the great rejoicing of our nation. Thou hast done all these things by thine hand. Thou hast done much good in Israel, and God is pleased with thee. Blessed be thou of the Almighty Lord for ever more."

And all the people shouted:

MAN IN GHOST ROLE APPEARS BEFORE ENGINE

APPROACHES LOCOMOTIVE AT NIGHT, FRIGHTENS CREW, THEN VANISHES IN DARKNESS.

New Haven, Conn.-Down in the local railroad yards they are talking about a most singular occurrence that took place near the Stony Creek station early one recent morning, and if the belief in ghosts was still in evidence, the witnesses of the affair would have reason to believe they saw one for sure. A freight train bound for this city was standing just east of the Stony Creek station at two o'clock in the morning waiting for a clear track to proceed. The engine was standing in the rocky cut east of the station, when all at once the fireman, looking ahead, saw a man entirely nude approaching on the track. The engineer was just a little frightened, although he did not believe in ghosts. And when Judith had been sum- and remarked to the fireman: "My frame of steel bars was then covered

The Strange Man Reached the Front of the Engine.

> The man kept right on and the wonder of the fireman and engineer in-

"Let on the steam and we'll scare him off," shouted the fireman. By this time the strange man, who was indeed a man of flesh and bones, and not a ghost, had reached the front of the engine and took hold of it as if to shake the big motor. Then it was, in response to the call of the fireman, that the escaping steam began to hiss and the man, evidently believing he ad succeeded in starting the engine, ran down by the side of the machine and escaped down the track.

The unknown was watched until he had escaped in the darkness, and then the enginemen talked over the most strange occurrence.

In trying to solve the mystery it is the supposition that the visitor was some demented man who had escaped from some house in the neighborhood, and, espying the engine, had the delusion that by giving the machine a good shake he could start the train on its course. But so far as can be learned, no man was missing in the vicinity of Stony Creek on the morning in question. It is said if the man have contracted his death illness. Those who heard of the occurrence recollect that it was in the same rocky railroad cut, and a spot near where the engine stood, that the body of Charles W. Way, a Stony Creek station master, was found one morning some 12 or 15 years ago. If the trainmen had been at all superstitious they must have thought they had seen Way's ghost when they saw the strange man. For the murder of Way, Peter Coffee was convicted and sent to state prison, where he died.

While the enginemen are assured they saw a real live man, the affair made quite an impression upon their minds, and whenever they take a train through the Stony Creek cut they will doubtless think.

BULL FIGHT IN A STREET. Woman's Red Waist Starts Big Animal on Rampage and Several

Are Hurt.

Jersey City, N. J.-This city was wildly excited over the running amuck of a splendid black bull which became maddened at the sight of a red shirt waist and spread terror before he was finally killed by the police.

The animal was being led to a slaughter house, when he espied the red shirt waist of a young woman, and instant that Freeze heard the row and immediately decided to investigate. ran up with an iron rod. "Princess" Breaking from his keepers he charged was just in the act of leaping. She on the offending garment. Fortunately for the young woman, the animal's horns were short and she was merely thrown across the sidewalk and bruised.

The bull did not stop to follow up this attack, but, continuing down the street, charged through a group of school children, three of whom were injured; bowled over a pair of laborers and smashed into a fish shop, demolishing the plate glass windows and overturning the counters. Two miles from his starting place the infuriated bull finally turned upon a red patrol wagon full of policemen sent to head him off. The policemen hurriedly scrambled out of the wagon and shot at the animal from behind convenient trees and telegraph poles. Thirty shots were fired before the bull was killed.

When fortune smiles on a man be can afford to laugh and grow fat.

SIBERIAN TIGRESS ATTACKS ITS MATE

FEROCIOUS ANIMAL FIGHT IS NARROWLY AVERTED IN CINCINNATI ZOO.

PRINCESS BREAKS PARTITION

Helpers Hear Row and Finally Subdue Belligerent Brute-Other Beasts Add to Noise of Combat.

Cincinnati.-With a roar which shook the whole carnivora building at the zoo, an enraged Siberian tigress, received only a few days ago, sprang tive feeding is begun three must be no at a temporary steel partition separat- stops till the weather becomes warm ing her from a male Indian tiger, early Wednesday morning, and before Cecrge Freeze, a keeper, who was at unprofitable. the further end of the building, could get to the scene, "Princess," the Siberian, was in the next cage having the preliminaries of what came near to being one of the most ferocious animal fights of recent years.

Keeper Freeze's quick arrival, and prompt use of a sharp prod and a ream of cold water, was probably the only thing which prevented both tigers from being badly bitten.

"Princess" was imported with the dea of her becoming a mate for Pasha." The new arrival is a glorias jungle-born animal, not yet used to villzed society. She is a three-yearo'd, and since her arrival has spent her time in spitting and growling at those who approach her cage. Monday, in the hope that she would become acquainted with her future mate, Princess" was transferred to an adoining cage, or rather into one-half of the cage, which had been divided by steel bars. At the lower corner, nearest the front grating, which is solid and immovable, was a door. The whole framework of the temporers with a fine meshed but strong wire netting, for the purpose of preventing either the tiger or tigress getting their paws into the other's compartment and doing damage before the reconciliation took place. The door was lashed with small ropes. That was the mistake. All day Monday "Princess and "Pasha" sniffed at each other through the netting, "Princess" constantly showing her teeth and laying back her ears. There was, however no violence, and Mr. Stephan began to believe that the matchmaking was an easier job than he had anticipated.

"Pasha" with Her Righ

Tuesday afternoon and evening "Princess" began to get restless, and took umbrage at the smallest thing. Before the fight "Princess" had been making nervous trips up and down the wire netting, when she suddenly espied the wire gate. She dug her paws into it and it moved. "Pasha" darted to his side of the door with a loud snarl, which "Princess" evidently took as a challenge, for, with a tremendous roar, which started all the other animals into howling, she flung herself at the door. It burst open with a clang and hit "Pasha" in the face. Surprised, he retreated to the far corner, while "Princess," probably as much surprised as her tribesman, stopped and crouched. It was at this caught "Pasha" with her right paw, landing a tremendous blow. "Pasha" gathered himself unwillingly for defense, being relatively a well-behaved animal.

By the constant interference of Freeze and his iron rod, and the arrival of others with the hose resulted in the animals backing off a few feet from each other. There they crouched and roared at each other, occasionally raising their paws for a swishing blow. precisely like the manner of domestic cats. Once "Princess" leaped, but a scraper caught her squarely in the mouth. By means of the prods. scrapers and hose the animals were kept apart in a cage which is not more than 8 by 10 feet. Freeze says he never heard such roaring as filled the carnivora for a space of ten minutes, for the leopards, lions, jaguars, hyenas and other anima's added their noise to that of the combatants.

THE BEES ARE SHORT LIVED. The Life of This Industrious Little

Worker Is Placed at One Month.

The life of a working bee is but a month, so at the end of winter the old bees rapidly die from old age. Various means are used to secure a force of young bees, such as spreading and equalizing brood, etc. Judicious stimulative feeding is safer and more reliable than all the rest, says a writer in Farm and Home. With a young, vigorous queen, a colony reduced to a mere handful can usually by this method be built up in an amazingly short time.

Stirring up the bees during early spring is always a heavy drain upon their energies and to avoid doing so the feeding should be done at night. If the weather be chilly the feed should be given warm. Do not attempt to feed during the day. Once stimulaand settled and honey is coming in regularly. Erratic feeding is decidedly

The Cause of Limberneck.

Limberneck with chickens is caused by the birds eating decaying flesh or filth containing maggots. The maggots lodge in the throats of the birds. causing paralysis of the muscles of the neck and consequent inability to swallow food. When affected, the chicken remains inactive in one place for days at a time, without control of its neck or head. Since there is no longer power to take food or drink, it gradually dies of starvation and perhaps slow poisoning. Very few that become afflicted ever recover.

Not much can be done with a chicken suffering with limberneck. Soft bread soaked with turpentine or kerosene is said to be effective in removing the cause, if the case is taken in time.

Old Folks' Livers

need an occasional stirring up to keep them from being constipated, bilious and generally run down. At the same time, the laxative must not be so violent as to shock the system and cause sinking and sickness.

NR - TABLETS - NR

night-you'll feel better in the morning.

s Get a 25c Box

For Sale By Haynes & Taylor

is the ideal treatment for old folks' livers-never fails to act, yet never shocks. A tonic as well as a laxative. Best for con-stipation, rheumatism, biliousness—any and all troubles of liver, stomach and bowels. Take an NR tablet to-

Tremendous Price Cuts on Reliable Goods

This great slaughter of Prices means a harvest for you, such as no other house will offer, or you have ever had the opportunity of buying

ITS TOCLOSEOUT THESE LOTS

50	Pair	$2.25	and	$2.	Pants	for	$1.25.
50		1.50			"		1.00.
25		4.00			44	44	2.75.
25	"	3.50	and	$3.		"	2.25.
One	Lo	t $15	.00	Su	its Fo	r	$10.00

7.50 12.50 6.00 10.00 8.50 Coat & Pants 4.25 6.50 3.00

100 Boys Suits 1-2 Price.

The Price on all the Above Lines has been Cut through the Cost and Profit and it is well for you to see them.

See the Price Cut on Mens and Boys Straw Hats $1.50 and $1. Hats 75c & 50c.

Come to Our Store You Can

And take Advantage of the Great Bargain Show On Stylish-New--a n d Don't Miss this Opportunity to Save Money. Come In and Inspect our Values for Yourself. With the Goods before You, you will agree that these are the Best Bargain you have ever seen. We are never undersold on Good of Reliable Quality.

Your money will always go farther in opr store.

Let us show you our bargains and we will prove to you that it pays Pays to Trade with us. Come in and look the values over. You are welcome whether you buy or not.

Dress Goods--White Goods--Lawns--Silks Dry Goods. All kinds of Reliable Merchandise.

We Give Gold Trading Stamps Profits Cut-prices Afford You

Cut Prices on

Summer shoes

Every Item Price. Cut Sure Save Money Here Reliable Lowcuts.

Ladies $1.75 and 1.50 Vice Fer $1.25 1.25 2.25 1.50

Childrens lowcut shoes at les than the Price to make.

$2.00, $1.75 and $1.50 Qualities for $1.65, $1.35 and $1.15

Patents--Tans--VIci.

You will appreciate the Extra

YANDELL-GUGENHEIM CO

The Crittenden fecord- Press

30th year, Circulation 4,000.

S. M. JENKINS Editor and Publisher.

Entered as second-class matter February oth. 1907 at the postoffice at Marion, Kentucky, under e Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

STRICTLY CASH IN ADVANCE. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION Single copies mailed.

I month mailed to any address ...

CASH ADVERTISING RATES: 250 per inch S. C. to Foreign Advertisers.
200 per inch S. C. to Home Advertisers
Repeated ads one-half rate.
Metal bases only used for Plates and Electros.
Locals a par line.

Locals 5c per line. Locals 10c Per line in twelve point type.

THURSDAY, July 8, 1909

The Bay View Season.

We are begining to hear much about Bay View in Northern Michigan, amid the groves on the shore of Lake Michigan. Thirty-three years ago the place was a wilderness; now it is the largest summer city in the - west and one the most beautiful spots in all the world. Hundreds of cottages fill its pretty terraces, their owners coming from New York to Seattle, drawn by the climate and advantages of that pleasant place. Bay View combines the seaside advantages of Ocean Grove and the educational opportunities of Chautauqau and has both in rich and varied abundance. It is the seat of an Assembly and a summer University of great reputation, and in the season is thronged with the most delightful people in the land. Bay View is thoroughly modern and makes much of recreations and is now building a $12,000 the round trip on regular swimming rool and bowling alley. This train from Clay 7:12 a. m., year it adds two new departments to its already full list of summer meetings. One is a summer school in Household amount includes the railroad Arts and Science, conducted by six women of the highest reputation. The other is a Bible Conference of all denominations, in which will pariicipate the cave. Limit on tickets conspicuous divines and eminent laymen, including such as Governors Glenn, of North Carolina and Buchel, agent, Clay, Ky. of Colorado, and Judge Lindsey, of Denver. The varied summer annouce ments fill forty-eight beautifully illustrated pages in the Bay View Magazine. copies of which can be had for the asking, by addressing J. M. Hall, Boston Boulevard, Detroit, Mich. The summer meetings begin on July 12th, and last five weeks.

Dies of Chigre Bites.

Greenfield, Ind., July 7.-Burleigh Hill today died from the effects of victs who break the prison rules has chigre bites and drugs administered for been established, it is almost a cer-

Young Man Killed While

(Paducah News-Democrat June 29th.) reason of his conduct. Lightning struck a telephone wire at Sharpe, Marshall county, Saturday night, killing Prof. Samuel B. Phelps, who was conversing over the 'phone with a young lady friend. He died instantly while the young lady escaped uninjured. She was surprised when Phelps' voice ceased and only learned of his death several hours later. Phelps was twenty-six years old and principal of a public school at Albion, Okla. He recently came to his home at Sharpe to spend the summer with his mother, Mrs. Martha Phelps, widow of Samuel Phelps, Sr- He was a yery intellectual young man and had many

She Blames The Brewing Company

Cloverport, Kv., July 7 .-- Mrs Emma Keys, widow of Jesse Keys, who was stabbed to death in a gasoline boat by Shelby and Wm. McCracken, brought suit against the Cook BrewIng Company, of Evansville, Ind. She claims the sale of their beer was the cause of the drunkenness of the men, which resulted in the death of her husband.

TO MAMMOTH CAVE

Grittenden County Excursion To Mammoth Cave.

On July 29th, only $9.75 going by Nashville. This fare, board at hotel and admission to several routes in ten days. Write L. & N. 1 m.

Grave-yard Cleaning.

All persons interested in the Crowell grave-yard, are requested to meet there Saturday afternoon, July 17th, with tools prepared to clean off same. LEE BRANTLEY, > JAS. R. ROBINSON Committee.

Innovation at Prison.

of putting stripes only on those containty that the conduct of the prisoners grove and yesterday suffered all day reward for which to work and some with chigres, the suffering becoming definite goal to reach the convict will unbearable toward evening. Drugs eb stimulated to greater endeavor. the thunder bolts. Gus Paris, of flict of all hard enough—the fight were given him, after which the man Then, too, no convict however hardenwent into convulsions and continued in ed, wants to be branded as a bad man even among bad men. When a visitor at the prison sees only a few men in stripes and all the others in gray at Phone Talking, clothes, that visitor will know that the Franklin's Advice.

Let honesty be as the breath of thy soul, and never forget to have a penny. when all thy expenses are enumorated and paid; then shalt thou reach the point of happiness, and independence shall be thy shield, thy helmet and crown; then shall thy soul upright, nor stoop to the silken wretch because he hath riches, nor pocket an abuse because the hand which offers it wears a ring set with diamonds.

Seven Sentence Sermons.

The great man is he who does not se his childheart. - Mencius.

Expediency is man's wisdom; doing right is God's. - George Meredith. Light obeyed increaseth light; Light resisted bringeth night. -Anon. He that walketh humbly, walketh for several months and his death was safely. - Owen. A man educated in mind but not in morals is a menace to society. - Roose-

Absence of occupation is not rest, A mind quite vacant is a mind dis-

An idler is a watch that wants both hands.

or petty fatigues or trivial ex- near Crofton -Kentuckian. periences; To heal wounds which in times past my cruel and careless hands have made:

To seek no favor, nor compassion; to deserve, not ask for tenderness; Not to feel any uneasiness when my advice or opinion is not asked, or is set aside.

Archbishop Benson's Principles.

J B Easley's Residence Struck twice Same Day by Lightning.

ges pretty heavy A fine double her bip. barrelled shot gun sat in one of the Mrs. Crider is 75 years of age, rooms and was shattered and torn up and taking this into consideration Frankfort News: Now that the rule by the first bolt and just in a few together with the extrene hot weathseconds another bolt decended into er, her friends regard her condition another room and demolished a splen as grave. - Princeton Leader. did repeating army rifle which hung With his wife, spent Sunday in a will be greatly improved. Given some there and it is supposed the steel our town, was a guest in the Easley home at time. - Hardin Era.

Knock Out For Branch Banks.

The Court of Appeals, in a recent decision, gives a knock-out blow to Los Angeles, Cal. branch banks. In a length v decision the court says that, under the banking laws of the state, branch banks have no right to exist.

The court draws a strong comparison between the business of banks and other corporations as affecting the public. It says: "We believe that safe and conservative banking methods, the protection of public, the security of depositors and the interest of the stockholders demand that banks shall have only one place at which to carry on business."-Ex.

H. C. McCord Dead.

Mr. Henry Clay McCord died Thursday at the home of his brother, W. R. McCord, at Crofton, of dropsy He had been confined to his room not unexpected. The deceaced was formerly a merchant of Crofton and was at one time a Justice of the Peace of that district.

He moved to Hampton several years ago where he was in business until forced to abandon it from ill health. His wife, who was Miss

Not to call attention to crowded work Interment at Armstrong graveyard.

Happened to Serious Accident

Mrs. Johnson Crider, Sr. hap serious accident Sunday morning at and life represented the truth he is identified with the Father in honor. her home near Crider, this county, the Rock of Ages This is the stone identical in power, identical in glory, She was just ready to leave her home that has been so often rejected and He insists on being believed by the horse, which was hitched at the gate, righteous character and enduring hope and loved with the same intenreared and fell. Mrs. Crider hurn- civilization. -Rev. John W. Row- sity of affection of his Father. In a ed down to the gate, and the animal lett, Unitarian, Atlanta. Duing the electrical storm over in piunging and struggling to get this region Saturday evening and upon its feet struck her on the shoulnight the ho e of John Easley across der with its head, knocking her viothe river was struck twice, the char lently to the ground and breaking with self .- Rev. Charles F. Eked, Baptist, New York.

RELIGIOUS THOUGHTS.

An immense amount of fiction tolerate one another's idiosyncrasies. -Rev. C. E. Nash, Universalist.

The piety that is born of ease and prosperity is a failure, emptier thing than the piety that is born of struggle and sacrifice. -Rev. Robert H. Carson, Presbyterian, Brooklin, New

The truly honest life is honorable. It does not stretch itself up ang imprudently boast of its virtue, but ask Ged to be merciful to "me, a sinner." - Rev. C. A. Vincent, Congregationalist, Roxbury.

To restore man to himself, to his place in nature, to society and to God was the mission of the Son of Man, and it is the supreme mission of his church in the twentiath century, Rev. James B. Clayton, Baptist, Washington.

We talk too much about our himdrences. The world is getting better every day, because the greatest As useless if it goes as if it stands. Bowling, and one daughter, survive hindrance of all, that which is found the spirit that appeals to do lov is not a day when somebody is not dying for others -Rev. Frederic E. Hopkins, Congregationalist, Chico-

> The truth is the Rock of Ages, pened to a most distressing and Just in so far as Jesus in his spirit his Father, so does he claim to be for church at Bethleheim, when the that must be the foundation of all the same faith, trusted by the same

> > No form of religion and no religious experience can exempt us from the moral consequences of our own actions. We cannot avoid the issues of character, and these are determined by previous conduct. The drunkard and debanchee reap the physical disasters of their violation of physic al law, and a thousand Christs or power-in short, more than all could not prevent it. "Whatsoever that is not God. There is no mida man soweth, that shall he also dle ground to stand upon. We must Baptist, Washington.

A business man can't succeed in Gibbons, Roman Catholic, Baltimore.

the higher sense unless he is a Christian. Men do not succeed in business or fail in business because of will be saved when we can learn to religious beliefs. No man ought to be so rich that he becomes a power greater than the government in which he lives and which protects him. A man with riches that makes him greater than the government in which he lives becomes an empire within an empire. When a man or men become as great as that, he or they have to be got rid of or the people wecome subservient to him or There are certain great construct them. No Christian can allow himtive forces operating in the lives of self to be associated with any busiall men and it is not always easy to ness of a shady nature. No Chrisunderstand what they are. - Rev. tian can be successful in the Chris-Luther B. Wilson, Methodist, Paw- tian sense who mades his money by oppression and robery and by killing competion, Competition and struggle are essential to life. -Rev. Dr. Charles A. Eeton, Baptist, New

There are many mysteries in the stories of the resu rection, but never for a moment have we any doubt of the truth of them all, I don't believe believe in eternal punishment, but somehow or some way weich you and I know not about God has provided that every child of his shall be saved. That does not, however, put the stamp of approval on a life of sin. I think the spirit of this day is not the spirit that appeals to fear, but in oneself, is being overcome. There It does not enter the mind of man just what God has prepared for us. but he has revealed it by his spirit. -Rev. A. B. Shields, Episcopalian,

As Christ is one in essence with word, he legislates as a God, he p rdons as a God, he judges as a God, he punishes as a God, he rewards as a God, he is honored and adored as a God. He exacts obecience as a God, he is to be loved more than father or mother, brother or sister, husband or wife, more than angels, or archangels, principalities resp." -Rev. James B. Clayton, either deny his moral excellence ar declare his divinity .- Cardinal Jas,

EFSTATE

We can't say very much in this small space, but the main thing is WANT SURE-ENOUGH

Luster Coats $2.00 and $3.50 Blue Serge $2.00 to $5.00 Outing Suits $4.25

Blue Serge $10. worth $15.00 We can't name themall, but we have them at reduced prices 'just the same' and in extra pants we take the lead and you will take the pants if you will come and see them and get the price.

What time will the clock stop

Come Thursday eve at 3 o'clock.

Close-out lots of Lawns, Silk Mulls, Batistes, Chiffon Brilliants, Violet-tissue. Some of these you can get for less than cost.

New Summer Silks, 27 Inches wide In Old Rose, Jasper, Mulberry, and Wisteria, Only 29c per yard. ASK TO SEE THEM.

Hot Weather Shirts Get our Prices You don't want from50c to $2.50 lines at 75c as to see and our 50c dress shirt on Trunks and a straw or Pan will compare with othe Suit Cases be- ama hat at all if fore buying.

you look at ours and dont buy.

What The Clock STOP.

Neglected Opportunity has caused a great deal of worry.

We now give you the opportunity to buy good Lowcut Shoes for less than market priee 🤶 Don't neglect it. In some lots the sizes are broken, the others must go.

Call for ticket on each $1.00

TAYLOR & CANNAN purchase or paid on account

TEAMS WANTED-At once at the "Miller Mines" to haulore to the Rail- the guest of her grand parents, Hon. this week. J. M. PERSON.

Miss Albe Wilborn spent last week returned home Friday. with Miss Lyda Kuykendall in Prince-was the guest of relatives in this city first of the week.

Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Gilbert, of Lisman, were the guests of relatives the first of the week.

Mrs. T. J. Nunn, of Frankfort is visiting her children in this city.

Miss Lillian Orr left Friday for her home in Berrys Ferry.

Miss Sallie Mae Watson, of Paducah is the guest of Miss Buelah Conyer. Mr and Mrs. John Stephenson, of Sturgis, spent Sunday with Mrs. W

T. Carloss.

Miss Lizzie James is the guest of Mrs. E. H. James in Kuttawa this

FOR SALE

At a Bargain---Great Opportunity--Two Bay Horses Well Matched.

drive, both as team or single One Delker buggy with top baby girl, of Piney, were here Saturand side curtains, three rub- day on a shopping trip. ber lap robes, one dust cloth Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Crowell were two buggy whips, one riding whip, one Whitman Saddle four saddle blankets, one set heavy double harness with briching, one set light patent leather double harness, one set single harness, one pair shafts, one pole, three riding bridles, two heavy fear he is taking slow fever. halters, four halter hitches, one ton of oats in bale, 1000 lbs. timothy, 12 bushels of corn, rock salt, etc. All goes to first bidder for

Call to see them,

CHESTER NORTON.

FOR SALE. - One extra quality rag arpet, 26 yards, new, red stripped.

Dr. E. B. Hardin, of Madisonville, Tuesday on legal business. vas in the city Friday.

the city Friday enroute home from Rochester and daughters last week.

and Mrs. T. J. Nunn, of Frankfort,

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Shrode, of Hop- 25 cents. kinsville, were the guests of her par-Miss Amy Wathen, of Fords Ferry, ents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Doss, the

> A. U. Davidson left Wednesday for stances. Muskogee, Okla., where he expects to make his future home. Miss Maude Threlkeld, of New Salem Ky., where they formerly lived. was the guest of Misses Ella and Alma Mrs. M. W. Utley, of Eddyville, was the guest of Miss Nelle Walker.

spending the week with Gray Rochester | would like to see, aud has employment there on the elec- rial fever but is thought to be better tric railway. His many friends will be | today. pleased to hear of his success.

globes for the sick room. A great con- Campbell piano. venience. Every home should have one for comfort of the invalid.

MARION ELECTRIC LIGHT & ICE Co. (Incorperated.)

Miss Mollie Chambers, of Morganfield, is the guest of Mrs. W. N. Rochester at her suburban home.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Reasor, of Sturgis, were the guests of J. K

Smith and family this week. Press Fritts, who has been in feeble health for several months, has been Both broken to saddle and confined to his room for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Thomason and the guests of relatives at Blackford Saturday and will remain several days. WANTED: - A few calves, ready to

S. M. Jenkins. Miss Rubena Nimmo is improving slowly after a two months' seige of typhoid fever. H F. Morris, the old reliable groceryman, is ill at home and his family

FOR SALE. - Registered South FOR SALE: My house in Marion is South Down Bucks registered stock for on, or write to G. W. Noggle, No. 1 sale and two years old, will have ewes Emmitt street Evansville, Ind.

A. DEAN, R. F. D. No. 4, Marion, Ky.

Mrs. Belle Heugely, of Indianapolis, Ind., arrived last week for a sojourn of several days with her sister, Mrs. A. V. McFee, on Depot street. She will also visit J. E. Dean and family in the norhern part of the county beparents, Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Love, above has never been surpassed in the fore returning home.

Paul Gossage, who is ill of fever, is not up yet but is much improved.

Misses Rose and Fay Lamb, of Clay, vere the guests Mr. and Mrs. W. N. last week

Miss Virginia Flanary, who has been visiting the family of Dave Gilliland

The Recital will be at 8 p. m., July well as possible under the circum-Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jameson have

Miss Elizabeth Cook is much better Conyer, of this city, Saturday and and is not thought to have typhoid

> Miss Katie Yates, who has been quite ill with typhoid fever, is not im-

Eugene Joiner, of Russellville, is proving as her family and friends Byrd Guess is now in Pittsburg, Pa., Mrs. Roy Gilbert is sick with mala-

Dr. F. W. Nunn purchased of Yates We have the turn down or Hy-lo Bros. this week a beautiful Kahler &

Mrs. Eugene Sights, of Alliance, Neb., was the guest of her brother,

Dr. F. W. Nunn, and family last week. Miss Pearl Harris, formerly of Corydon, was the guesr of her sister, Mrs.

soon for the foreign mission field. Mrs. G. W. Stone has returned from Missouri, where she accompanied her father, Rev. W. T. Ried, on a visit to day and Sunday the guests of Mrs. her sisters. Rev. Reed remained for

R. F. Crofton, wife and daughter, of Hendercon, visited Rev. M. E. Miller home Tuesday. Mr. Crofton is the stay very much.

banker at his home town. etor, opens to night on the Carnahan corner in an air-dome. Those who have seen them say they are the best ever

Mr. W. C. Rymers, formerly owner of the Wonderland Theatre" at Washington Court House, Ohio, is here with his air-dome and moving pictures. Don't fail to see them.

Down Rams. I have two dozen No. 1, for sale cheap. See Koltinsky at Mari-

Little Miss Orene Champion, who recovering from attack of typhoid fever, is able to be up, and if no relapse comes, she will soon be out and well.

The many friends and elsewhere, of still hope she may yet recuperate.

here Thursday and Friday on a visit, to his many friends. He also went to Attorney R. L. Moore went to Dixon | Hampton to spend a few pays.

> Jeff D. Asher, of the Marion Milling Company, was in Sturgis on business

Mrs. Sallie Millican, of St. Louis, is Mae Hurst at Sturgis last week. Miss Vinson, of Texas, the aged auut of Mrs. Missouri Stegar, and who has been the guest of relatives here this summer, went to Fredonia Thursday 13th, 1909. Children, 15 cts., Adults, afternoon to visit kindred in that comnunity.-Princeton Leader. W. N. Russell is still confined to his Misses Maude and Bernice Driskill, room but is getting along nicely as the handsome daughters of Dr. A. J. Drisksll, are visiting rolatives here this week. They came over last Friday. Messrs. David and Arnold Driskill, their brothers, came with them and also spending the time with friends moved from Ola, Ark., to Boonevile, and relatives. - Livingscon Banner.

Little Misses Graham and Catherine Woods arrived Wednesday from their home in Arkansas to visit their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Woods on

Virgil and Orlin Moore, sons of Hon. and Mrs. A. C. Moore, are coufined at home the former theatened and the of my tobacco and hay barnes and stock her affliction with a christain fortilatter with a well developed case of Miss Pauline Moore, of Charleston, Mo., left for Union City, Tenn., to threshing fruit trees and leaving gates born July 9th. 1830 visit relatives after a pleasant visit of two weeks to her aunt, Mrs. E. J.

Attorney A. L. Berry came over Sat-urday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. N. for a week, returned home with him

Mrs. Meriweather E. Bacon, of Hopkinsville, was here Sunday the guest F. W. Nunn this week. She will leave of her parents, Judge and Mrs. James

> Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Summerville and children, Miss Mildred and Master of the others passed under the line. Eugene, of Mattoon, were here Satur-He says some time when he is not too Summerville's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Doss, on Depot street.

Miss Nelle Olive who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Olive and of her and family Sunday. They returned many friends at Eddyville, will remain

Miss Grace Taylor, the attractive The air-dome Moving Picture and Illustrated Songs, W. C. Rymers, propri-eter, opens to night on the Carnahan Corydon, where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davidson.

> Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Boaz and son, Ellis, visited her parents in Illinois this week. They made the trip over land in their own conveyance. They have an excellent driving horse.

Mrs. Wm. Woodridge and little daughter, Effie, passed through the city Sunday enroute to Sturgis, where her sister-in-law was reported as criti-

Robert Wilborn, who has been working in the job office of J. C. Bourland, went to Clay Tuesday to take a position on the Webster County Times.

Miss Mary Finley who graduated with honors from the Marion Graded and High schools, took the teachers' examination, May 21st, and was awarded 83% and again June 18th, and reached

Ferry road, a pair of gold rim specta- Rochester, Douglas Clement, Robert

Miss Mary Joiner, of Franklin, is the Miss Mabel Minner, of south Main guest of Miss Nannie Rochester on street, was the guest of Mrs. Florence | Morganfield street, and of other friends in the city.

> Rev. James F. Price had fine services as no button or darning needle was at Water Valley last Sunday, morning found. There will be no old maids or and evening. He goes to Tenn., this bachelors in the party. Douglas Clemweek to hold a series of missionary ent cut the money and Eugene Joiner rallies at Oak Grove, Boiling Springs the ring. and Mt. Moriah.

Holles Franklin, of Hebron, was before the teacher's examination committee, June 18th, and reached an average of 921 and was given a first class certificate. Pretty good for a boy, don't you think? It hasn't been many moons since Holles was in knee trousers Maury Nunn of Evansville, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs R, I.

All parties are warned to keep out but an uncomplaining one who bore pond in Terry Bros', corn field. This tude seldom equaled. Had she lived land is posted. Parties riding horses till July 8th, she would have passed through corn fields, cutting wire fences, into her 80th year, she having been open are known to me and will positively be reported to the grand jury .-

S. M. Jenkins. A real sensation was created on Rochester. His wife and daughters, Main Street Wednesday morning when who had been Mrs. Rochester's guests Dr. G. W. Stone, H. V. Stone and Ab M. Henry were seen sprinting around the court square like three two-year- birth, having been born at Lyncholds. The writer did not see the close burg, Va., but removed to Mo., of the race, but Dr. Stone claimed he where her husband died in 1881. was sitting down in his office and Her remains will be placed beside waiting for a customer before either

He says some time when he is not too The appearance of the Central Comedy Company at the Opera House will mark an advance in respect to the several days yet as she is enjoying her qualities of shows heretofore given in town. The comedy "Browns in Town" | young person should emulate. in a famous production and has met with unlimited success in New York and education and refinement and drew other metropolitain cities, where the to herself a circle of friends who will same was presented by the celebrates remember always her gracious manof the stage. The company is composed soley os college men who recently graduated from Central University, Danville, Ky., and are young gentlemen of merit. Part of the young men assume the roll of females and their adoption of the skirts speaks of fun and amusing scenes which follow. The play is chuck full of laughter, and good show for their money. He foris a mappy, keen plot that keeps the me ly operated a show at Lima, audience in continuous uproar of laugh- | Washington Court House and Lanter, in fact there is a great deal of class to their production.

> In honor of Prof. Herbert Rogers' tenth birthday his grandmother, Mrs. Nannie Cochran, entertained her Sun-Those present were Misses Mary Joiner, of Franklin; Nannie Rochester, ces Blue, Susie Boston, Mary Coffield even the most fastidecus.

LOST: -On the Marion and Fords and Messrs Joiner, Franklin; Gray tles, in case. Finder please leave them | Jenkins Raymond Olive, Roy Travis with S. M. Jenkins and recieve reward. and Herman Rodgers, Euansville. The J. C. HARDIN. | leading attraction for the entire crowd was "Thomas Jr.," who is the pet and favorite of every one, Refreshments were served, ice cream, sherbet, cake, etc. The cutting of the birthday cake revealed one thing heretofore unknown

Mrs. J. S. Russell and son William have returned home after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Stone.

MRS. HARRIS DEAD

Mrs. Julia Hairis, the vonerable mother of Mrs. S. T. Dupey, died Tuesday at noon, after many weary months of suffering. Mrs. Harris has been an invalid much of her life

He remains were taken to Brunswick, Mo., by Mr. and Mrs. Dupuy, who left on the eight o'clock train Wednesday morning.

The interment will be Thursday morning.

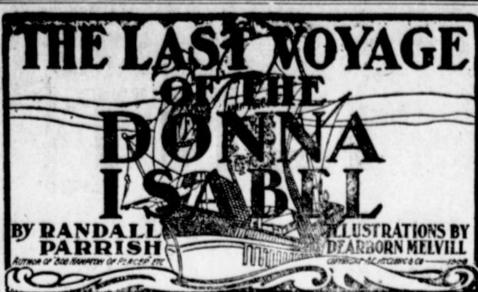

Mrs. Harris's maiden name was Miss Julia Staples, a Virginian by those of her hasband.

Mrs Harris is survived by two children, Mrs. H. R. Butler, of Ada, busy he will teach those boys how to O. and Mrs. S. T. Dupuy, of this city, and by one sister, Mrs. Emma Rodd, of Macon City, Mo.

She was a member of the Christain church for many years and her life was an examplary life and one any

She was a body of rare culture, ner and sweetness of temper.

THE AIR-DOME MAN. Mr. W. C. Rymers, of Toledo, O. comes well recommended as a good, honest, respectable and capable business man, able to give the people a caster, Ohio, and at each place gave a good show and pleased his patrons, as shown by his raedentials, Marion people should patronize the air-dome. if as good as reported and thus enday school class Thursday evening at courage Mr. Reymers and his family the Cochran home on Salem street. to locate and give a permanent amusement. The films he uses are Addie Maynard, Maude Flanary, Fran- of the highest class and will pleaso

CHAPTER XXIX.

In Which We Fight Death.

I remember distinctly enough the first six days of that boat voyage; it seems as if every detail was burned upon my brain with fire. I see the faces of the men constantly becoming more haggard and hopeless as they stared, dull-eyed and aimlessly, out over the endless waste of water to the dun sky. We were so tired of it; it had grown so hateful in its pitiless vacancy, its dull, dreary void. It seemed to me that with every recurring dawn those within the boat appeared older, grayer, more deeply lined; their exposed flesh caked more heavily with the salt spray; their limbs cramped from confinement and days were we compelled to lower cold; their eyes lusterless and heavy our sail or take a reef in the jib. with despair. They conversed with sailed, dividing up the treasure, countupon their probable value. But depression followed swiftly as day merged into day, with only that same desert of tumbling waters stretching about us, that same wild sky overhead. Finally the growling voices ceased entirely, the fellows becoming moody and sullen, scarcely answering even when addressed.

If anything the women managed to bear up better than the men, but whether this was because of their dispositions, or failure to comprehend fully the desperation of our situation, I ly enough how heavily the hours rested upon them. I saw comparative | ered me with blankets, my icy clothly little of Celeste, as she chose a poling drying on my body. But it was sition near the foot of the mast, and remained there much of the time, wrapped warmly in blankets, ministered to by De Nova, who sat beside her. But Doris remained aft with me. resting when I was off duty, but sitting wide awake, her head touching my knee whenever it was my trick at the tiller. It seems a strange thing to say, yet I believe it was the very certainty of death which kept her strong. self-reliant, almost happy. Not for one instant did she consider our final rescue as possible. She lived in her love for me, utterly insensible to the drear surroundings, and merely anxious to prolong our life together. It was a revelation to me of a woman's heart. a woman's constancy. May I never forget the clasp of her hand, the tender lovelight in her gray eyes, the words of faith and hope on her lips. as we sat thus through those long hours battling against the sea, the motionless forms of the blanketed sleepers alone evidencing other human life within the boat. It was her presence, her love, her inspiration, which stiffened me to the continued performance of a labor growing harder with each day.

She Still Sat at My Knee, Yielding Me New Courage.

It became easy to see what this meant to us all. It was neither huuger nor thirst, although I felt it safer to put all upon short rations from the beginning, but rather the awful, continuous strain of hopeless loneliness in that vast desert of ocean. The contemplation of it maddened us one moment into frenzy, and depressed us the zext into profound melancholy. We could not shake it off; awake or in dreams it held us to slavery. Everywhere, everywhere the same eternal swell of the seas, the same eternity of clouded sky, the same dull, dead monotony of scene and motion, hour after hour, day after night. It drove us mad, crushing down upon the brain as though it was a real weight, merciless, agonizing. The air remained frosty, the southwest wind chilling, the spray which slapped into our faces icy cold. Our fingers stiffened with cold, our bodies shook from the chill; beneath the warmth of the ti -kets could we find comparative contort. Hour after hour the men lay, curied up and motionless, only crawling forth reluctantly to take their turn on watch. Our greatest effort was to keep the straining cordage free from ice, and to prevent its formation along the gunwale or at the bows, over which spray dashed in constant shower.

Good God, how those hours dragged. with the same heartless scene without, the same hopeless faces within! Most of us continued to live merely because we could not die. Indifference took the place of hope, and we performed our simple tasks automatically, almost unconsciously. Johnson, De Nova and I took our tricks at the helm, with one man always awake forward to manage the running gear. and only once during those first six

Then a fierce squall came tearing some effort at cheerfulness at first, a swift, sharp blow, heralded by a figuring on the speed with which we blinding snow flurry which kicked up ing the gold pieces, and speculating stinging spray, and coating everyan ugly sea, lashing us with heavier thing with ice. For seven hours we fought in a blinding smother, every man awake, crouching beneath blankets, the women stowed away under the thwarts, and De Nova and I at the tiller, the huge surges pounding against our backs, as we thus kept them from sweeping the laboring boat fore and aft, and swamping her. I never believed we could weather it. the increasing waves tossing us about like a cork, yet, as the dawn broke, we succeeded in broaching to, with canvas dray holding her, and the very am anable to say. Yet outwardly they mornant I realized she would ride seemed to retain courage longer, solely I fell forward dead asleep. However, their eyes told me plain- kither Loris or one of the men cov-

Doris who welcomed me back to life again, as a little glimpse of westering san grew barely visible through a rift in the dun clouds, with the mainsail again spread, and the longboat leaping to the foaming summits. Oh, but it was worth all suffering just to read the confession of her eyes, and to feel her bend down over me in sudden tenderness! I am not ashamed that the tears dimmed my eyes so I could scarcely see her dear face or that my voice choked so I could do no more than whisper her name. She must have understood, for her soft hands for a long time, scarcely exchanging a word between us

It was later that same day, just at the edge of twilight, when Kelly called, "A sail!" pointing eagerly out over the port quarter. Then, some upon knees, some standing, we all saw it, a misty, white reflection, showing vague against the darkening horizon. I know not what it really was -a gleam of canvas, a speck of cloud. or the pinnacle of an iceberg-but as we swept toward it, the night dropped down over the waters blotting the last faint vestige from view. Yet we hung on desperately, the man staring out into the black void, grumbling and cursing, until the long night wore way with no reward.

That was about the last I recall c.early; afterwards all grew indistinct, commingled, confused. It was ike a dream rather than reality. I performed my work as before, the instincts of a seaman leading me righty, and out of the mist numerous incidents arise to memory proving that observed and thought. Never can I forget the sight of that name boat, casing about on the crests of great eas, or plunging down into the black hollows; the green water pouring in cataracts over the gunwale; the constant bailing; the wet, soggy blankets; he moaning of wind through the icy ordage; the flapping of the sail; the gray masses of water curling over us 1 continuous threatening; the awful vpanse of ocean revealed by dayight; the black loneliness through hich we swept at night. We ceased o talk, to think, even, growing more and more sullen, moody, dull-eyed remped of limb and benumbed of brain. We sat silently staring into the forever be olding the mirages of di toried minds. Men would spring to their feet, yelling out some discovery, only to sink back again, with ghastly faces buried in their hands. It was all illusion; the waves, the clouds mocking us, even our voices sounding unnatural, our faces growing unfa-

Only Doris; Doris did not changenot, at least; to my eyes. Ay, she became whiter, weaker, the shadows growing darker beneath her eyes, yet she still sat at my knee, looking up into my face, yielding me new courage out of her heart of hearts. God knows I believe she saved me, saved me from going mad, saved me with the power of her love-held me sane, held me steadfast, when the very soul in me had given way. I think of those other faces now with a shudder. It sems as if all that was human had gone out of us; we were no longer men, only things. We crawled about. We growled rather than used articulate speech, bruised by the constant buffeting of the sea, sore with the smart of salt water, chilled through by the icy wind, we snarled like wild easts, our eyes bloodshot, our faces haggard and unclean.

We Were No Longer Men, Only Things.

I know not how long it endured. lost all track of day and night. merely remember this and that out of the mist, Doris' gray eyes ever upon me, her hand clasping mine; Celeste lying motionless day after day under the blankets; De Nova rocking back and forth, striving to sing, or creeping aft to the tiller, with his body shaking as though he had a palsy; Johnson, never moving, his head sunk into his chest, his gaze out over the bows: Mc-Knight curled up as a dog lies, sometimes cursing flercely, only to break off and cry like a child. I remember when the boom swung about, pitching buried in the coverlet. Sanchez headlong and breaking his leg; how we pulled it back into posithere firmly, while beads of perspiration told the Chilean's pain. I recall ply. She did not lift her head, and as into the fog-bank which wrapped us sacrifice. about, extended his hands, smiling, and said: "Sure, I'm comin', of pal, and stepped overboard. We grabbed for him, but he went down and never came up again. McKnight was the first little while, until I can fight this out to speak

"He had his pockets full o' gold. w him tak n' it las' night."

There was a flerce storm of oaths he faces of the man wolfish and saw age as they giared down into the water; but Kelly fell on his kness and began to pray.

It almost seems to me that this was he last, though it could not have beca. There were hours after that, perhaps even days and nights, when I lived without really knowing that ! lived. It was a period of fancies, phantoms, dreams, weird and fantastic, haunting horrors that left all reality blank. I know that Johnson helped me at the tiller while De Nova lay touched my cheek, and so we rested prone in the bottom of the boat, sometimes talking to himself, occasionally Ifting his head to peer over the side. What he said had no meaning, just a jumble of French words, and he smiled like that dead Spaniard in the cabin of the Donna Isabel. I know that Sanchez, who had bravely done all he could in spite of his broken leg, fell into the delirium of fever, screamed for hours that he was dying, and had at last to be bound fast in his blankets. I know Kelly came creeping aft with a knife in his hand, imagining he had been robbed, and I had to knock him flat with the tiller-bar, the boat falling off into the trough of the sea and nearly capsizing before I could got her head about again. Doris was bending over anchez, who seemed to have an interval of sanity at the moment-that was the last I remember; then, think, I pitched over against Doris when she came back to me, and everyhing went dark.

CHAPTER XXX.

In Which We Come to the End. I was lying between white sheets in a rather wide berth when I came again to consciousness, a yellow glow of sunlight streaming in through an open port, and the clanking sound of machinery in my ears. I closed my yes again, wearily, my head reeling vet from the delusions of the past. No. this was real-a steamer, rising and alling on the swell, but pushing steadly forward to the rapid revolutions of he screw. I could hear the tramping f feet on deck, even the slush of the ea without. I opened my eyes again, vatching a curtain wave to the fresh ir rushing in through the port, and hen I turned my head on the pillow. Doris sat on a low stool gazing out grough the aperture on the sea, her ace partially turned away. She looked pale, careworn, her eyes heavy and sad. Suddenly she turned her glance in my direction, and sprang up with a slad cry.

"Oh, Jack, you have been lying here so long unconscious!"

I could only clasp her hands and gaze into the depths of her gray eyes. "I have proved rather a poor specimen of a man, I fear, dear," I confessed at last, ashamed of my weakness. "How long?"

"It is three days since we were brought on board, and we were a day and night in the boat after you lost consciousness." I endeavored to think it out, to comrehend. She leaned farther over, her ips touching my cheek. "Don't worry about it, Jack; everything is all right now. Johnson took your place at the tiller, and-and we vere picked up."

"What vessel is this?" "The El Cid, Valparaiso to Buenos lyres-a coast-trader." 'And the others? Do they live?" "All but Sanchez; he died the night fter our rescue. Kelly is half razed yet, but they think he will get over it. De Nova was very badly ozen, but Celeste was out on deck esterday." I lay there looking at her, striving aliantly to put all these horrors way, and to face the present and the uture. My handclasp tightened, for could no longer keep back the one uestion which trembled on my lips. "But you, Doris, you! Do you still nean what you said yonder? Are ve only saved to lose each other? fave you heard? Do you know anyhing of him?"

The red blood flooded the pale heeks, the long lashes veiling the ray eyes.

"Oh, not now; don't speak of that low."

"But I must, I cannot wait in susense," I insisted, lifting myself on he pillow. "You have heard-tell

"I-I have been a coward," she falot even told my name to those on oard. I was afraid the knowledge night place all under arrest; besides -I wanted to nurse you."

I looked at her, my heart failing, y voice trembling as I spoke. "But-but are you going to-Eng-and?" "Yes."

'When?"

There was a long pause, in which leard her rapid breathing.

"They-they tell me I can get pasage on an English vessel, the Alreach Buenos Ayres."

Her hand tightened on mine, and she dropped to her knees, her face

I fought the devil in me like a man. my hands clenched, my teeth set flercetion with a sickening snap, binding it ly, but it was a while before I could control my voice sufficiently for rethat other day when Dade suddenly I continued to gaze at her my heart stood up, his eyes staring dully out throbbed with a love which became "Doris," I managed to whisper at ast, "whatever you believe" to be ight I will think right also. Only let e:e be alone for a little while-just a nd conquer."

She lifted her head, her hand on my hair, her gray eyes looking frankly

"I-I thank you, Jack," she smiled mblingly. The next moment I was

While I was sitting up and partiof mate, came in and told me bri the story of our rescue.

"We were consider bly to the wee of our course," he said, gravely, "bacse we had met headwinds and cavy sea all the way down the co..s. It was just at daybreak when we sighted your boat in longitude 78 de crees west and latitude 53 degrees minutes south. I've been knocki. about at sea for 20 years, Mr. Ste phens, but I never saw a more pitif ight than that longboat presentewhen we got up alongside. The ji held, but the mainsail was in tatters and for a minute or two I didn't think there was a living soul aboard. There was a man forward lashed down will copes, dead; a man and a woman were wrapped up in blankets amidships leaning against each other, their eyes closed: Close up to the stern another woman was lying with her arms about your neck and hiding your face."

"Doris, with her arms about me!" thought. How well I knew the desperation that could lead her to the em brace she had ever refused me! Marsden went on:

"A big fellow held to the tiller as f he was froze there, but he'd dropped down until his head hung dangling as the boat rocked. There wasn't one of them took any notice of us until we were fairly along ide. Then this big sailor lifted his head and stared dulleyed like he thought he saw a vis.on. and when I spoke to him the woman that had her arms about you staggered to her knees and began to cry Good Lord, sir, but it made my heart ache, and I never saw so much misery in any human face before. Well, we fell to, and got you all on the El Cid. holated the whole outfit over the rail, and, barring the dead man, I recken you're all good for a spell of life yet.

"They told you our story?" "Yes-most of it, anyway; and l understand all right what it was did ou up so. It wasn't hunger or cold, out just the loneliness an' strain." loked away from him, out brough the open port at the gray frin of sea. "That was it, Mr. Marsden," I said, y voice shaking to the memory of it. 'It was the hell of the great ocean-it broke our hearts."

As the El Cid sped on her way up the Patagonian coast my strength came rapidly back, and I soon found my way on deck, where, wrapped against the chill of the wind, I passed much time talking with Dorls, seeing De Nova and Kelly now and then. Celeste was often with us, her eyes rogaish as ever, but her face thin and white. Once, when we chanced to be left glone together, I undertook to question the girl. "What is the matter between you and De Nova, Celeste? Have you two fallen out?"

She tossed her head, flashing her eyes at me.

"I not know we ever fall in." she said, pouting prettily. "He ver' nice for a sailor, but w'y do I want a sailor? I want ze sea no more ever." "Yes, but De Nova can quit the sea."

"Non, non?" she cried, shaking her head roguishly, "I have a very good time wiz Mons. De Nova! he talk nice, he make love nice-but it is all over now."

"You mean you are going back to Europe?"

She shrugged her shoulders, her teeth gleaming.

"Out, monsieur; I go wiz madam to London, to Paree; zare I have plaisir." "But De Nova? How does he take it?"

"Pah! he get over it; I know ze sailor. See, monsieur; w'at I tell you?" I glanced at in the direction she pointed. Within the companion stood the debonair mate, his little black mustaches curled jauntily upward, his teeth merrily glistening, as he smiled down upon a rosy-cheeked damsel, whom I recognized as the stewardess, My companion patted her little foot on the deck.

"Pah! did I not tell you, mensieur? know ze sailor."

She swept away with the swift movement of a bird, and I turned my face about to perceive Marsden standing silently beside me. He drew up a deck chair and sat down at my side. ered. "I-I have not asked; I have His grave face and manner led me to speak first.

> "I have been wondering," I said, slowly, "whether you intend to report us as soon as you make land. No doubt you heard the story of the Sea Queen at Valparaiso, and have already guessed us to be the survivors of the crew of that yacht."

"Why, yes," stroking his beard; "we have no doubt as to that. We know little of the affair of the Sea Queen beyond what your man Kelly has told us, as we were up the north coast at the time. However, I do not think batross, within a few days after we there will be anything gained by reporting your rescue immediately, for no one can care particularly about your arrest except possibly a British officer or such. The Chileans are still busy with their war, and the man who owned the yacht being dead-" "You-you-mean Lord Darling-

"Yes; that is what I came here to tell you about. I have been waiting until you were strong enough to hear the story. I thought you were the one who ought to tell her." He paused there's one thing you seem to forget; doubtfully. "I understand she is Lady Darlington?"

"Yes," I answered, my voice trembling in my eagerness to comprehend | Matazine. fully. "But are you sure her husband

"Regarding that fact there is no three hours, but long enough to hear a | always reading odd items. brief account of the admir. It reems Lord Darlington had in some way duty in the grounds of the president the night of the declaration of wa the two met again and renewed that quarrel. The officer was drunk and abusive, and his lordship drew a re volver. They were separated at that time by the guard, but an hour late the Englishman was found beside the fountain of the inner court dead from a knife-thrust in his back. His murmysteriously." "My God!" I exclaimed, dazed with the information. "It must have been derer disappeared instantly and most

Sanchez!" "It must have been Sanchez," Marsden repeated, soberly. "He was fleeing from the crime when he ran into conscience that put the idea of the ghosts Kelly tells about into his head. You will tell her the story?"

"Yes," I said, not venturing to look fato his face, realizing that he understood. I sat there, it seemed for hours, endeavoring to muster up courage for my task as I watched, far in the distance, the darkening outlines of Cape Flores. At last I went slowly down is the best farmer's organization. - Root the companionway into the cabin. Johnson, J. P. Pierce and other-

"But Now We Both Know."

Slowly and falteringly at first, but gaining control of my voice as I proceeded, I told her all, marking the pallor of her cheek, the horror in he. eyes. For another age I sat silen gazing across the deserted cabin out through an open port, afraid to dis turb the motionless woman beside me Finally my fingers, almost uncon sciously, crept across the rail of the settee until they touched her own.

"Doris," I whispered, pleadingly. confused by her silence, "is it possible that you already knew this?"

She did not raise her bowed head but I felt the soft pressure of he:

"Yes, Jack, I-I knew," she as knowledged, doubtfully, "Zenc". told me in the boat when he f himself to be dying. It was then came back and took you in my arm But I couldn't tell you-I could a tell you. I feit that if we were saved you must learn it from other lips than mine." "But now we both know." She lifted her eyes suddenly, eyes misty with tears, and I realized the truth forever.

Loaning Books,

You have in your library a set of books that you very much prize. The set is incomplete because a year ago a neighbor who has since removed to another city, borrowed two volumes and did not return them. Your first mistake was in loaning the books; your next, in not reclaiming after the lapse of two or three months. I would rather loan a complete set from my library than to break it by the loan of a single volume. One many always give a friend permission to come and read such a book in the room where it belongs. When anyone borrows a book and retains it indefinitely, a note should be sent, politely begging for its return. People do not borrow your clothing, jewelry or bric-a-brac, but, strangely enough, many persons display no reluctance in asking the loan of a book. You, of course, have your own exceptions; there are dear friends to whom books are precious, who know how to care for them and with whom it is a pleasure to exchange hem at discretion.-Woman's Home Companion

More Than He Could Say.

A native-born American member of a party of four business men who often lunched together took great delight in joking the others on their foreign birth. "It's all very well for you fellows to talk about what we need in this country," he said, "but when you come to think of it, you're really only intruders. Not one of you was born here. You're welcome to this country, of course, but you really oughtn't to forget what you owe us natives who open our doors to you." "Maybe," said an Irishman in the party, thoughtfully, "Maybe, But I came into this country wid me fare paid an' me clothes on me back. Can you say the same?"-Everybody's

An Exception. "Thus culinary journal states that possible doubt, Mr. Stephens. We all good cooks peel their onions under were in port at Valparaiso barely water," remarked the boarder who is

"That's nothing unusual," laughed the comedian boarder. "I know a cook quarreled with or insulat a chilean who peels his vegerables underwater "Ridiculous.

"Not at all. He is cook on a submarine boat."

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Chart H. Thitchire your party. It was his own haunting Of Crittenden Co., Union of f. E. and C. U. of A., To be Held at Marton, July Eighth and Ninth.

PROGRAM

Shall the farmers be organized?-R. L. Barnett, Clem Nunn and

A. L. Brown. Ten reasons why the Farmers' Union

Should all farmers pool their farm products?-Frank Wol', Marshal Nunn and John Moore.

Should the farners have a striker in Marion?-L & c v Moore, Richard Cruce and George Foster. Shall we have better roads in Coit.

tend-n county?-Aille Moore, F. C. Stephens, Ed Cook and others. Should the farmers grow everything needed? ... J. B. Essley, J. N. Towery, Robt. Moore and others.

Should we r c'aim the lards of Crit-enden county?---J. P. Pierce, John Blue, Ed Flanary and others Should the country boys attend Marion High School?--Marion Pogue, Chas. Thomas, Mrs. Kittie Perry and others.

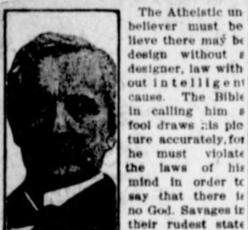

Should the Farmers' Union patronize busine s firme, enterprises or institutions that are not friendly toward them? -- Jote Dean, Ben Rankir, Jesse Olive and Ed Hayward. Should we cultivate a friendly relation between the town and country peo ple?---E. J. Travis. Huston Orme and Aaron Towery. I- the success of the farmer the business men's success?---T. H. Cochran. Chas. Fox, Dr. I. H. Clement and Sees MotherGrow Young.

"It would be hard to overstate the wonderful change in my mother since she began to use Electrictric Bitters." writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick, of Danforth, Me. "Although past 70 she seems really to be growing young again. She suffered untold misery from dyspepsia for 20 years. At last she could neither eat, drink nor sleep. Doctors gave her up and all remedies fatled till Electric Bitters worked such wonders for her health." They invigo-ate all vital organs, cure Liver and Kidney troubles, induce sleep, impart strength and appetite. Only 50 cents at Haynes & Taylor and Jas. H. Orme's drug stores.

UNBELIEVERS MUST BELIEVE By REV. A. C. DIXON, D. D., of the Chicago Ave. (Moody's) Church, Chicago.

The Atheistic un believer must be lieve there may be design without a designer, law with out intelligent cause. The Bible in calling him s fool draws his pie ture accurately, for he must violate the laws of his mind in order to say that there is no God. Savages in do not say so They infer a great cause from the great results that they see about them Their conceptions of God are crude and false, but they are not fools These sons of nature allow their reason to work, and though their minds are full of superstitious fears caused by ignorance, they see a God behind the material universe as plainly as they see the sun in the heavens. It remains for the modern atheist, be he scientist or philosopher, to turn himself into an intellectual fool by predicating of dead matter only what can be predicated of intelligent mind.

The agnostic unbeliever must be lieve a theory against facts which have been proved by competent witnesses. His theory is that no one can know God. The facts are that Sir Isaac Newton, the mathematician, "I know God." Agassiz, the ist, said: "I know God." Kepler. astronomer, after the discovery of his great law, fell upon his knees and exclaimed: "O God, I think thy thoughts after thee." Havelock, the soldier, said: "I know God," and prayed to him daily. Gladstone, the statesman, said: "I know God." Abraham Lincoln, the liberator, said: "I know God," and spent whole nights in prayer to htm. Thousands of lawyers, merchants, judges and physicians have declared that they know God. Agnosticism must believe that these competent, trustworthy witnesses are deceivers or deceived.

Agnosticism evidently believes that ignorance has a right to speak and in- floor with a bump. He struck out his struct knowledge. When a man confesses that he knows nothing, and can know nothing on any subject, it be comes him to keep quiet on that subject, but agnosticism writes books and magazine articles, parading its ignorance with intellectual pride. It has established a sort of science of ignorance, and formed a blind man's club for the propagation of blindness.

Now, God has given us a text book called the Bible, in which he has revesled himself so clearly that all who will may know him. When the agnostic says: "I don't know," he simply proclaims the fact that he prefers darkness to light; he turns away from the sun that he may grope in the dark cave of his own prejudice and ignorance. If he has looked through his telescope at the stars and through his microscope at the flowers without seeing God, he has simply established the presumption that God will reveal himself in some other way. When he opens the Bible the first words he reeds are: "In the beginning God." He ought now to be glad that God has revealed himself in a book, but he is not glad, for his pet theory has been destroyed.

The anti-Bible unbeliever shows a credulity that is truly marvelous. He must admit that the Bible claims to be inspired. "God said," "Thus saith the Lord," rings through its pages. He must admit also that the book was written by bad men or by good men. If good men wrote it, it is, of course, inspired, for good men would not deceive us by making a false claim and they could hardly have been deceived. If the unbeliever asserts that bad men wrote it, then he must believe that the book which has produced the highest civilization on earth, and has developed the noblest characters in the world, was written by liars, who, at the same time, denounced themselves unmercifully for their decep pocket, but failed to produce a re-

But, says the rationalistic unbeliever, God has given to man a reason as guide. Yes, but does reason guide man aright? Look at those monstrous their reason? Are they not, on the other hand, reflections of the depravi- forward and sat right down upon him. ty of human nature into which man has sunk by the aid of his reason, which fell with his other faculties when he sinned?

anti-Christ unbeliever who rehe accepts the Bible, that he claimed to be divine, for he said: "Before Abraham was I am." "He that and "O Father, glorify thou me with want to leave my neighbor alone there the glory which I had with thee before the world was." Now, all such unbelievers admit that Jesus was a good man. They praise him for his and I turned the burglar over to the stainless character. As an unbeliever he must believe, too, that a good man and telephoned to the police. When I can at the same time be a hypocritical got back they had the burglar out in deceiver. Jesus Christ was either the front yard and two of them were what he claimed to be the Divine Son of God, or he was a wicked deceiver. | the danger was all over." There is no middle ground. To believe that he was good is to believe tnat he was God, unless we do violence to our reason by believing the sheurd proposition that a good man car make a false claim.

BURGLAR CAUGHT BY AGED WOMAN

SHE FINDS HIM RANSACKING ROOM IN HER HOME AND PITCHES INTO HIM.

GIVES HIM MANY BAD BUMPS

After Very Lively Fight Mrs. Gates of Chicago, 62 Years Old, Overpowers the Man and Sits Down Upon Him.

Chicago,-Mrs. Mathilda Gates, who is 62 years old, has to her credit the capture of an alleged burglar, whom she literally "sat upon" when she found him at work in her home at No. 111 Honore street.

When Mrs. Gates appeared in Judge Joseph Murphy, 45 years old, arrested 11, return limit July 26. on a charge of burgiary, she told the story of the capture simply and modestly, but its outlined details brought the whole courtroom to attention and gained a compliment from the judge.

Later, in her home, Mrs. Gates re counted her adventure at greater length, and went through a pantomime of the scene with a vigor that showed her to be a dangerous proposition for any burgiar.

"It ail happened at noon," said Mrs. Gates, who is of a hale, jovial appearance and has few gray hairs. was just getting ready for dinner and was in the dining-room on the base ment floor. Two carpenters had been at work in front and they had left the door unlocked. All at once I heard the sound of some one moving about in the front room and I thought it was

"I walked into the front room-this one-to find out if it was my daughter At the threshold I drew back, for there was a poorly dressed man bending over the sideboard. He had opened the drawer in which we keep the silver. I didn't say anything. I didn't give him a second's notice. I just grabbed him by the chest, like this. and pushed him back.

Mrs. Gates illustrated the action by snatching the front of her own waist with a strong grip.

I pushed him so hard be fell on the Sat Right Down Upon Him.

fists and wrenched himself free from my grasp. Then he jumped to his feet. But I was not through with him yet. stooped way down and caught hold of the bottoms of his trousers. I gave both legs a hard pull and down he went again! This time he fell against the window frame and cracked a pane. Once more I got him by the chest and pushed him over. He sprawled across the floor and his head suffered a fear-

"He fought himself loose from me and got up. He reached for a rear volver, and then I was sure he didn't

"The burgiar next tried to run away from me, but I didn't intend to let him go. He backed out in the entry way idols in pagan countries. Are they and there, by good luck, lay a big carimages of the true God to whom men | pet rolled up, for we are beginning without the Bible have been led by our spring housecleaning. He tripped over this carpet, and as he fell I ran

"I began to scream. Oh, how I screamed! The parrot all the time had been flapping around the room and calling 'Mamma! Mamma!' The bird now set to shricking louder than ever. ects the deity of Jesus must believe, It seemed as if no one would ever come. At last a man living across the street came to my aid. He sat down on the burglar and I got up. I wanted hath seen me hath seen the Father," to summon the police, but I didn't with that burglar. "Pretty soon the two carpenters. who had been to lunch, came back, three men. I hurried to the drugstore sitting on him. Then I realized that

Mrs. Gates lives with a daughter by her first marriage, Miss Albertine Benson. The young woman, who was away at the time, confessed that she would be "dreadfully" afraid of a burglar.

SUMMER TOURIST FARES.

Summer tourist fares begining May 16th, as follows:

To Cerulean, Ky., $1.60 for the round trip; Chicago, Ill., $15.30 for the round trip; East View, Ky., $6,00 for the round trip; Grayson Springs, Ky., $5,50 for the round trip, final return limit on all of the above, Oct. 31,

Hot Springs, Ark., $19.35 for the round trip tickets on sale daily, return limit 90 days.

Dawson Springs, $1.60 for the round trip on sale daily return limit six months from date of Asheville, N. C., on account of Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan Biennial meeting, July 12-20, $13.55 round trip Himes' court to give testimony against tickets on sale, July 8, 9, 10 and

> Call on Agent, I. C. R. R., Marion, Ky., for Summer Tourist fares effective, May 28.

W. L. VENNER, Agent, Marion, Ky.

DR. BLACK'S

IS PAINLESS AND HARMLESS and is guaranteed to cure any case of sore eyes in the world, IN PEOPLE, HORSES AND DOGS

Cured my eyes after 20 years' suffering and blindness. J. R. JACKSON, Paragould, Ark. Cured my eyes after I had suffered 10 cars and was often times blind, MRS. M. A. BAILEY, Kennett, Mo. have need in J. R. Black's Magnetic ve Water it perfectly painless.

bon W.A. MAYWOOD, Jonesboro, Ark Otton Cures Acute Sore Eyes In One Highi.

Sold and Guaranteed by all Druggists. Price, 25c.

TRADE SUPPLIED BY J. R. Black Medicine Company MEDITETT, VISSOURT,

Mr. Luther Guthrie, of Beaufort, N. C. spent money freely in employing doctors to cure his wife from continual headache. He writes:

"One bottle of Cardul did my wife more good than any-thing she has taken for ten years past. She had suffered with headache for ten years and I had spent $300.00 for doctors' hills for her, but nothing did her any good.

She has taken two bottles of Cardul and it has done her two thousand dollars ($2,000) worth of good. Just as long as it is made, I shall have Cardul in my home."

For all forms of female patn, like headache, side ache, pein in limbs, dizzy feelings, dragging down -sensations, etc -Cardul has been found to be an effectual remedy. Don't wait till you are "all run down." Try Cardul at once.

Dr. M. Ravdin.

Sold everywhere.

Practice Limited to Diseases and Defects of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Ichel Block Cor. 3rd and

Glasses fitted. EVANSVILLE INDIANA

HIDES MO FURS Feathers, Tallow, Beeswax, Ginseng, Gotten Seal, (Yellow Root), etc. We re Dealers, and can do better for you than agents or commission merchants.
Reference, any Bank in Louisville.
Write for weekly price list and ship-M. SABEL & SONS. THE E. W. WELSE LOUISVILLE, KY.

HEN ON GOLF BALL "HATCHES OUT" KITTENS

REAL MOTHER LOOKS ON AND SPITS FIRE.

St. Louis.-A St. Louis county spinster hen, not having had any domestic experience, though she is no spring chicken, is mothering a litter of hatched them from a golf ball.

The real mother, a black-and-white cat, is indignant about it, but hasn't to the custody of her own offspring.

The misunderstanding came about through Tabby's innocent mistake in her five little ones.

It was a fateful coincidence that the nest happened to be the same one in which a golf ball had been used as a gentle hint to Biddy that something was expected of her.

Tabby Has Not Yet Mustered Up Courage to Fight,

The hen and the cat are owned by George W. Kriegsmann of Webster Park.

Biddy would walk up to the nest and look at the little white sphere. Only once she sat on the egg for a few minutes.

Then came Tabby, househunting. The nest to her was a "lovely flat," and she moved in with her family.

the edge of the box she saw the kittens. Reasoning quickly from cause to effect, she decided that they were

Since then she has cuddled the kfttens under her wings most of the time. When Tabby comes near Biddy ruffles her feathers and "pecks" at her.

Tabby has not yet mustered up cour age to fight. She sits on a roost above the nest and snarls. Her only chance to get near her offspring is when Biddy goes to bed with the chickens at sun-

GIRL SEVERS FATHER'S ARM.

Heroine Resorts to Heroic Measures to Save Parent from Death in Wreck of Home.

Bowden, Ga.-For her bravery in getting the members of her family out of the ruins of their storm-wrecked home, a Carnegie hero medal is to be asked for 15-year-old Mamie Price, who lives near here.

A storm struck the Price home the other night, wrecked it, and buried all the inmates in the debris except the girl. She procured an ax, and, guided by the cries of the victims and a lan tern, she began to cut them out. Mrs. Price died as the girl cut the last timbers from about her, but she rescued her baby brother and a young sister practically unhurt. Her father had been caught by heavy timbers, and his left arm was crushed.

The girl cut away the timbers from the body of her father, but the mangled arm was still held. Price realized that the arm held only by shreds of skin and flesh.

So he told the girl to sever the strings with the ax. The child objected, but when the father insisted she brought down the ax and Price was free.

Under her father's direction, the child made a tourniquet to stop the loss of blood from the severed arm. and then went through the darkness all druggists, for assistance. Doctors say Price will recover.

A handsome memorial will be given the girl by citizens of Bowden.

Butler, Pa .- Alleged by her accuser to be a witch, Mrs. Laupaule Orber was tried on a technical charge of disorderly conduct, was convicted and sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars and serve ten days in fail. The charge was preferred by Mrs. Julia Kroner, who alleged that Mrs. Orber went into Mrs. Kroner's barn, and by the use of witchcraft, cast a spell over a cow. which has prevented it from giving milk. That something had been done to the animal was indicated by the testimony.

Penalty of Fame. "What's the matter?" "My daughter is writing a novel."

"Well, why are you sorrowful?"

Dr. L. G. Taylor, --: VETERINARY SURGEON:--AT LEAST SHE THINKS SO, AND Marion, - Kentucky. All calls answered promptly.

Sometimes you may be told that there are other things just as good kittens, fone'y believing that she as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. That isn't so, Nothing made is as good as DeWitt's Kidney and yet found a way to establish her right Bladder Pills for any ailments of the kidney or bladder, which always result in weak back, backache, rheuchoosing a hen's nest as a cradle for matic pains, rheumatism and urinary disorders. A trial of DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills is sufficito convince you how good they are. Send your nome to E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, for a free trial box. They are sold here by all druggists. Sept 1.

> Dr. King's New LifePills The best in the world.

DENTIST.

Suite 3, 4 Beehive Block

Press-Building.

Marion, - - Kentucký. All work guaranteed. If any work proves unsatisfactory, please sall at my office at once.

TELEPHONES SWITCHBOARDS

Also Large Stock of Electric Light Street Railway and Telephone Supplies Constantly on Hand,

Send for Catalogue No. 7. Jas. Clark Jr., Flectric Compan, (Incorporated)

The next time Biddy peeped over 313 W MainSt, Louisville, Ky

= COOD =

Draughon gives contracts, backed by chain of 30 Colleges, $300,000.00 capital, and 19 years' success, to secure positions under reasonable conditions or refund tuition.

BOOKKEEPING Draughon's competitors, by not accepting his proposition, concede that he teaches more bookkeeping in THREE months than they do in SIX. Draughon can convince YOU.

SHORTHAND 75 per cent of the United States Court Reporters write the system of Shorthand Draughon teaches, because they know it is THE BEST. Learn Telegraphy?" which explain all, can on or write Jno. F. Draughon, President God in a book, and, though there are

DRAUGHON'S PRACTICAL BUSINESS COLLEGE

(Incorporated)

Evansville, Paducah Nashville, Memphis, St. Louis or Washington D. C.

J. B. KEVIL. Lawyer

Abstracting a Specialty office in Press Building, Room

We do not know of any other pill that is as good as D-Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver tled it. pills-small, geutle, pleasant and sure pills with a reputation. Sold by

TOOK IT LITERALLY. Little Edmund came into the room carrying a bunch of roses. "Who Woman Sentenced for Bewitching Cow | gave you those roses?" asked his mother. Instead of answering aloud. he drew her aside and whispered: "Mrs. Wright gave them to me mam-When I said, 'Thank you,' she told me not to mention it. But I thought I'd better tell you, mamma.

SOMEWHAT MIXED.

Mary, aged four, returned from Sunday school and told her mother she knew the golden rule. Her mother replied. "Do you? What is it?" Mary said, "The Lord is my Shepherd; He makes me to lie down in green pastures and roll over."

NATURE NATURALLY EX-PLAINED.

Henry, aged two, had become very much interested in watching his mother make comfortables. When "No good can come of it. If it the first snow came, his bed haing fails, she'll be broken-hearted. If it near a window, he awoke early in might bring us to God," settling forsucceeds, everybody will be shocked the morning and called loudly to his ever the sin question for all who will at the things she knows and says." | mamma, "O mamma, the trees are accept him as Saviour and Lord.

WHY I AM A CHRISTIAN By REV. A. C. DIXON, D. D., Pastor of the Chicago Ave. (Moody's) Church, Chicago.

I am a Christian because I am a theist, and I am a theist because I am a thinker. Not necessarily a profound thinker, but my thinking machine is so constructed that if I will let it work it compels me to believe in a God who reigns in his world. A few weeks ago in an Arizona desert 1 saw the leaves of the grease-wood covered with an oily substance designed, evidently, to prevent evaporation of sap during the long drought. I saw the mesquite bush with its large, long roots evidently designed to store sap during the brief rainy season and keep in touch with the underground streams that the branches above ground might be supported during the drought. I saw the giant cactus with its storeroom for water, which is filled during the rainy season and preserved for its own use and the use of man and beast during the drought. Now the naturalist says that "Nature" does these things for a specific purpose. And as I stood among these evidences of design in the desert I asked the question: "Is Nature a thing or a thinker?" If Nature does not think, how can Nature design? And if Nature thinks. Nature is not a thing but a personality. My mental machinery is so made that thought compels me to infer a thinker and design a designer. Intelligent result compels me to infer intelligent cause, Every man, therefore, has his god, the thinker, behind the thoughts expressed in Nature, the design behind the designer, the intelligent cause behind the intelligent result. The bushman of Africa gives to his fetich the power to think, design and act. The Chinaman gives to his idol in human shape the same attributes. A philosopher like Herbert Spencer calls his idol "the great unknowable. I am a Christian, again, because I am a rationalist, willing that sound reason should be my guide, and sound reason is modest and honest enough to admit that it is not infallible or even sufficient as a guide. There is no such thing as universal reason. What appears reasonable to one is utterly unreasonable to another. There are degrees of reason from the halfidiot to the philosopher. My own reason is modest enough to admit that it is a very fallible and imperfect guide, and, believing as I do in a personal God who cares for his creatures, my reason leads me to expect that he will reveal himself through some other channel. Agnostleism, which is a sort of science of ignorance concerning God, is a strong witness in favor of a revelation of God in some direct way, for, if it be true that man cannot discover God by looking into his own inner consciousness or through the telescope and the microscope, this furnishes a strong presumption that he will reveal himself in some other way. I am thus predifficulties and mysteries which I may not fully understand, I believe that the proof in favor of the Bible's being a revelation from God is so overwhelming that a man who knows the proof cannot reject it without doing violence to his reason. I am a Christian, again, because I am a scientist. I do not mean that I devote all my time to scientific investigations, but I believe in the scientific method of "gaining and verifying knowledge by exact observation and correct thinking." An ounce of fact is worth a ton of theory. A group of philosophers were debating the question whether a fish introduced into a bucket of water would increase its weight and one of them had proved to his own satisfaction that it would not. "Let us try it," said Benjamin Franklin. A bucket of water was brought in and weighed. Then a fish was introduced and the weight was increased by the weight of the fish. That set-

It is scientific to account for facts with little heed to fads and fancies. And there are two facts which must be accounted for-the Bible and Jesus Christ. The proofs in favor of the Bible as the ins fred word of God and of Jesus Christ as the incarnate God are so abundant and conclusive that any one who knows the proofs and refuses to accept the Bible as inspired and Christ as divine does violence to the scientific spirit. He refuses to admit the existence of the sun while it is shining in the heavens.

I am a Christian, once more, because I am a man whose every need of mind and heart is met in Christ "the Son of Man." His ideal of human greatness attracts me. The worldly ideal is power which masters others. Christ's 'deal is service. "Whosoever will be chief among you let him be your servant, even as the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister and to give his life a ransom for many." The climax of this greatness is seen on the cross as the Son of Man "suffered for our sins, the just for the unjust, that he

 CALDWELL SPRINGS

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

Every one is busy. The farmers are busy harvesting hay. 'The Sunday school workers and the Union people are busy.

Dan Riley was in Marion Monday and Friday.

Allen Riley and Walter Lott wore in Marion Friday.

Duron Koon made a business trip to Eddyville last week.

Lawrence Lott was in Marion Friday and rode home in a brand new buggy. Look Mr. Lott's way and smile, girls.

Edwin Ralston attended court in Marion, being a member of the petit jury.

Mrs. Lottie Ralston and little niece, Margie, visited relatives in Marion last week.

Mrs. Nellie Stephenson, who has been visiting relatives in Marion the past two weeks, returned home day. Tuesday.

Best She Ever Saw.

Mrs. J. D. Cox, Prop., Happy Hollow Poultry Farm, Lawrenceburg, Ky. says: "Find enclosed One Dollar for two bottles of Bourbon Poultry Cure. Send at once as I do not want to get out. It is the best remedy I ever saw." For Sale by HAYNES & TAYLOR, CHAPEL HILL.

Miss Nellie Adams is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Forest Oliver, of Frances, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M, Hill was the day evening, July 17. guest of J. T. Bigham's family at Crayne Sunday.

H. N. Hudson, of Watertown, Tennessee, was visiting P. M. Ward and other relations in this neighborhood the last of the week.

was the guest of W. H. Bigham and death of our dear husband and father. family recently. He was wanting May God's blessing rest upon you. to bail the hay crop in this neighborhood.

Tom Mathews and wife, of Francis, was visiting John Asbridge and wife on Wilson Hill Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Nisa Williams, of Huricane tools and dinner. was visiting her relatives and friends here this week.

Everett Bebout, from the Ohio river bottoms, was in this section last week. The harvesting of oats, grass and clover is now the order of the day.

Several from this neighborhood went to town Saturday to see the balloon go up. They had to content themselves with a ride on the merry-

James Canada went to town Saturday and had to buy himself a new pair of breeches.

Mrs. J. C. Minner has received word from Texas announcing that sick.

Corry is improving fast. We are looking for a wheat thresh- Pete Franklin Monday. er in this neighborhood.

Mrs. Ada Ward picked 10 gallons of blackberries last Monday. Next.

Tortured on a Horse,

"For ten years I couldn't ride a horse without being in torure from piles," writes L. S. Napier, of Rugless Ky., "when all other remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve me." Infallible for Piles, Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Boils, Feaer - Sores, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Corns. 25c. Guaranteed by J. H. Orme and Haynes & Taylor. 5-5.

Миничининининини инсини NEW SALEM.

It has been hot a nuff.

The corn is all laved by.

Farmers are harvesting hay.

Robert Cash, of Morehouse, Mo., spent last week with relatives and friends in this section.

Mrs. Lan Harpending and daugh ter, Charline, of Marion, are guests home Thursday. of relatives in this section.

The corn crop is promising.

Henry Brouster is sick. Miss Edith Beard visited relatives Livington county last week.

We are still at the helm. Our public roads are getting pas-

Uucle Bob says there is nothing pole. like old Kentucky.

We never forget a friend.

Mrs Raymond Babb, of Salem, risited friends here Sunday.

Wasn't the fourth a daisy?

Possum Ridge

Quite a number attended the barbecue and ice cream supper at Weston Saturday.

Tobacco looks fiue.

Roe Wofford has recently been working for Seldon Ainsworth,

C. M. Clift went to Weston Mon-

Gale Ford has purchased a new quest. nowing machine.

A fine baby boy came to the home of Gillliam H. Kirk a few days ago.

Rood Ford, a prominent young farmer of this vicinity, married a short time ago and will settle down near Fords Ferry.

Wallace Clift was in the Repton neighborhood Sunday.

Roy Truitt went to Marion Wed

Roe Wofford was at Hebron Sun-

and debate at 'Possum Ridge Satur-

Sherman Ford and family visited at Jack Hughes' Sunday."

CARD OF THANKS

eighbors and friends for their kind- country. T. J. Hoover, of near Sheridan, ness to us through the sickness and Mrs. James and family.

GRAVEYARD NOTICE

All who are interested in the Tosh graveyard are requested to meet there on Saturday, July 24. Bring

J. E. Crowell.

CARD OF THANKS

thanks to the good people os Weston | penish Review. for the kindness shown us during the sickness and death of my precious wife and babe. May heaven, s blessing be on you, one and all.

William Plew and daughter, Lillie

 HURRICANE.

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

Tracy Harris, of Tolu, is very

Mrs. Eugene Clark visited Mrs.

Curt Hard: n and Misses Kate and Mary Hammond attended the speaking at Tolu Thursday.

Born to the wife of Amon Ferrell a black-haired baby boy.

Rev. Robert Johnson filled his appointment here Sunday. Mrs. J. Stone and Gussie Mc-

Grew were in Tolu Friday.

The Hurricane campmeeting will begin August 10. Any one wanting a camp can get one by calling on

Ray Truitt passed here Friday canvassing in the picture business

Mrs. L. E. Guess, of Tolu, visiting her parents in Marion this

Miss Kate Crider, of Jackson, Tenn., is visiting relatives in Tolu this week ...

Joe Moore and wife visited Geo. Moore's family recently. Frank Jacous reports vory warm weather as he is working in the hay

Has Peary Reached The Pole?

A sure sign of the preservation of that sturdy racial trait that glories in conquest over obstacles, even when the reward is not a material one, is shown in the universal interest in America over the hope that Explorer Peary is reaching the north

Last Februrary Peary cut loose from his last sotid mooring and began a dash by sledge toward the the inscrutable region that has these long years baffled efforts of the most intrepid men of all nations.

It is calculated that his venture should by this time been crowned either with success or failure, and it only remains now to recerd the one or the other.

When he left civilization Perry had worked out his calculations with scrupulous care, and announced that with a liberal allowance for delays $54, and unexpected happenings he should again be in touch with civilfzation 24 acres, $140. by the first of September.

Of course it is possible that he will never return from his herote

He is exploring territory where no human foot has trod, and much of his progress must be guess work and dangerous guess work at that.

Should this melancholly development prove the sequel to his attempts, he would not be the first man to die in a similar enterprise. The numerous pathways toward the pole are lined with the graves of men Faster, undivided interest in land, of all toungs and nations, and if it $25. were possible to accurately estimate the sums spent in such endeavors, the total would reach formidable proportions.

There will be an ice cream supper-Americans, without regard to station or occupation will watch the news from the far north from this time forward with feverssh interest.

The distinction of solving the problem of the centuries would be acres, 906. one in keeping with the courage and the ministive that have come to be divided interest in land, 639. We extend our thanks to our synonymous with the name of this C. E. Weldon to A. S. Cannan,

Married in Washington.

Miss May Jacobs, who went to the county seat Saturday shopping succeeded in purchesing a man in the person of Hubert Sandow. Mr. and Mrs. Sandow will reside on his ranch near here where he is erecting a new house. On Mouday evening Mr. and Mrs. Sandow's friends to the number of fifty or thereabouts accompanied by guns, cowbells and end other numerons noisy articles called on them to pay their respects We wish to express our sincere to the newly married couple. - Top-

Miss May was born and raised Crittenden county and went to Washington with her father's family September 1904. She is the second daughter of Silas D. Jacobs. Her friends here as well as there rejoice with her in her good choice for life.

June Rainfall.

E. F. Armstrong, who keeps daily record of rainfall and weather conditions, gives the following infor-

The total rainfall for June, 1909. was 2.77. Rain fell on 14 days, being well distributed through th the month, commencing on the first day and ending of the last day. 1908 2.65 inches of rain fell. Rain fell on 8 days. The last half of 1908 was very dry .- Shawneetown News Gleaner

Killed at Clay

Sturgis, Ky., July 1 .- News wa received here this morning of an accidrat at the new shaft of the West Kentucky Coal Company, at Clay, in which Will Moore was crushed to death and Lee Reed badly injured, ever, that the reporter in question perhaps fatally.

It is said that the accident was caused by a rock dropping from the Moore's remains will be taken to Rock Springs for interment, and Lee Reed will be taken to an Evansville hospitel for treatment.

Very Commonplace.

The Hyden Thousandsticks, pub-

while she was passing by his house have been binding,

Marriage Licenses

Dee Hardin to Miss Kittie Lee Franklin.

Alex H. White to Miss Catherine Bebout.

H. C. Woolfe to Miss Cathernie Cart :r. Aubrey Woodward to Miss Mabel

Williams. Lamb

M. Robertson to Lizzie Simp-

Deeds Recorded

Bettie Davis and others to E. L. Nunn, undivided interest in land,

Simon McCain to J H Ainsworth. Nancy E. Kemp to C. W. Grady, lot in Weston, $12.50. John M. Frits to county of Crittenden, small strip of land, $30. R. H. Woods to Trustees of M. E.

Churen South, lot in Marion, $500. W. B. Curry to Harry Stone, land for $150.

Harry Stone to C. W. Grady, land for $18. W H Burton to Lizzie Truitt, 55 acres, $310. G. W. Carnahan to George H.

K. E. Cannan to A. S. Cannan lot in Marion, $150

Mrs. Melvinia Monroe, Monroe, 10 acres, $100.

C. E. weldon to A G Thomason, 5 lots in Marion, $50. A. G. Thomason to C. E. Wel.

don, exchange. J. P. Pierce to J. W. Flynn, 22

Berna Flynn to J. P. Pierce, un-

2 lots in Marion, $107.

A NEWSPAPERS RIGHTS.

to the right of a newspaper in print | ed a number of leases in this locality. court proceedings was disposed of in The depth at which the oil is found Kansas City last week by Judge is 1,750 feet. Seehorn, a Circuit Judge of that in Judge Seehorn's court, just as the for leases. court was about to proceed in a damage suit against the city railway company, a motion was made to discharge the jury panel on the ground that someone in sympathy with the defendant was trying to prejudice the jury. Judge Seehorn made an investigation, which su- them does not posess the determinatained the allegation. The jury tion of will which is so necessary to If we only understood. panel was discharged, and a woman, who was sharged with trying to in fluence the prospective jurymen, was ambitious man should be commended tried and sentenced to jail for con- for his worthy aspiration, but the tempt of court.

A reporter for the Kansas City ties must rest is determination. Star came into the court room shortthe facts talked briefly with Judge but unless he his sided by that can los some puffs."-Puck. Seehorn. The latter corroborated the information the reporter already had, but requested him not to publish the facts until the case had heen tried with another jury panel. The Star, however, printed the same day an accurate account of the proceedings.

The attorney for the railway thereupon applied for and secured a writ against certain employes of the Star to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt. The attorney for the Star came into court and avowed that that paper had an absolute right to publish any and all court proceedings as it thought wise. despite requests or commands of court officials. He also stated, howhad failed to make known the court's request in this particular matter, and if it had been made known the Star would have held up the publication as an act of courtesy to the court, although not because of any feeling that the request of the court was in any way binding.

After hearing the explanation Judge Seehorn at once dismissed the contempt rules, stating that he was Mrs. Mary Whitecotten returned lished at the county seat of Leslie satisfied that no contempt was incounty, prints the following item tended, and that even if he had made in its correspondence from Big Fork: his request in the form of a court D. T. Lewis shot at Juda Joseph order he doubted whether it would

The question here involved is more important that it might seem at first glance, says the Louisville Post. Undoubtedly the Star roporter erred in not informing his superiors of the court's requests, which, by the way, was not unreasonable. But the Evening Post believed that it is ab surd to argue that any court official has the power to direct any news. paper not to publish anything relative to a regular court proceeding. Lit Hubbard to Mrs. Allen The Kansas City Judge was trying to secure a fair trial in this case, and the matter he desired suppressed related to nothing he feared to be

Nevertheless, it is a fact, that there have been and there are courts the officials which would like very much to be able to suppress news of what was going on, and the power of censorship, if extended to the bench, would be highly dangerous.

In the long run, court officials, like all other public officer, must determination are as foundations stand by the record. The judges built upon shifting sands. and the court officials do not own the courts in which they officiate. They man's character is a most valuable are simply the servants of the pub- business asset, and when combined lie, and when the proceedings in the with resolution and ambition forms courts are of a nature not to satisfy an irresistble force espable of surthe public, the officials have no mounting all obstacles in the path ground for complaint when the re- which leads to success. cords of the courts are made known to the public.

Excitement Over OII Strike

Near Louisa, kentucky.

Louisa, Ky., July 5 .- Much exefte- Could we see the heart and spirit, ment prevails here over an oil strike And know what cause the action just made about three miles south of this place. Enough is positively We would often find it purer known about the well to justify the Than at first we judged we should, statement that it is a paying produ- And we'd love each other better ser. The oil was found in the fa- If we only understood. mous Berea grit, from which the greatest production in West Virginia If we judge the deeds by motives, is now coming.

The well just brought in is in line We should often love the sinner with the West Virginia belt, and on- While we oft condemn the sin. ly fifteen miles ahead of the devel p. To keep each of us from being good, ment there. The well belongs to A I'm sure we'd love each other better C. Smith a pennsylvanian, who same. If we only understood. An interesting question relative here several months ago and procur

Oil men from West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Ohio are flocking It appears that several days ago in hear and there is a great race on Three new wells will be started within the next two weeks.

DETERMINATION.

Of what avail are great resolves and high ambitions, if he who makes carry them to a successful end. Good resolutions are good, and the corner stone upon which these quali-

A man may resolve to succeed, his ly thereafter, and in order to get all ambittons may be high and broad, rich woman kindly, "nor any little boy.

Destroys Hair Germs

Recent discoveries have shown that falling hair is caused by germs at the roots of the hair. Therefore, to stop falling hair, you must first completely destroy these germs. Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will certainly do this. The leave the rest to nature.

Does not change the color of the hair. Formula with each bottl Show it to your Recent discoveries have also proved that dandruff is caused by germs on the scalp.

to do is to completely destroy these dandruff germs. Here, the same Ayer's Hair igor will give the same splendid results.

Therefore, to cure dandruff, the first thing

-Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. quering quality-determination-he will never attain success. Resolution and ambition without

The element of determination in a

IF WE UNDERSTOOD,

By J. Eawcett.

Could we pierce the mists curtain, Surrounding other people's lives.

gives.

See all the good and bad within,

If we knew the cares and trials, The many efforts all in vain. The many bitter disappoints. understood the loss and gain. We would not be so hasty To censure one because we could, I know we'd love each other better

If we only understood.

Oft we judge as other barshly Knowing not the hidden force. Not at the mouth of acction The streams less turgid at its source We counct see amid the veil And the golden grains of good; Oh, we'd love each other better

A Kind Heart.

"Could you five me," inquired the poor woman, "a cast-off dress of your little girl's for my little girl, or a pair of your little boy's shoes for my little

"I have no little girl," replied the

Eat What

You want of the food you need Kodol will digest it.

You need a sufficient amount of good wholesome food and more than this you need to fully digest it. Else you can't gain strength, nor can you strengthen your stomach if it is weak.

help the stomach.

You must eat in order to live and maintain strength. You must not diet, because the body requires that you eat a sufficient amount of food regularly. But this food must be digested, and it must be digested thoroughly When the stomach can't do it you must take something that will what you want, and let Kodol digest the food.

The proper way to do is to eat

Nothing else can do this. When the stomach is weak it needs help; you must help it by giving it rest, and Kodol will do that.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today, and purchase a dollar bottle, and if you can honestly say, that you did not receive any benefits from it, and using the entire bottle, the druggist will refund your money to you without question or delay. We will pay the druggist the price of the bottle purchased by you. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. We could not afford to make such an offer, unless we positively knew what Kodol will do for you.

It would bankrupt us. The dollar bottle contains 2% times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is made at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

For Sale by all Druggists

Crittenden Record=Press 1909-07-08 seq-8.jpg